Unless the context requires or unless indicated otherwise, any percentage amounts, as set forth in “Risk Factors”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 17, 88 and 351, respectively, and elsewhere in this Information Memorandum have been calculated on the basis of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information of our Company.

Certain figures contained in this Information Memorandum, including financial information, have been subject to rounding adjustments. All decimals have been rounded off to two decimal points. In certain instances, (i) the sum or percentage change of such numbers may not conform exactly to the total figure given; and (ii) the sum of the numbers in a column or row in certain tables may not conform exactly to the total figure given for that column or row. Further, any figures sourced from any third-party industry sources may be rounded off to other than two decimal points to conform to their respective sources.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In evaluating our business, we consider and use non-GAAP financial measures such as EBITDA and return on net worth to (“Non-GAAP Measure”) review and assess our operating performance. These non-GAAP financial measures are supplemental measures of our performance and liquidity, that are not defined by, required by, or presented in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. In addition, these non-GAAP measures are not standardised terms. Hence, they may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies, due to potential inconsistencies in the method of calculation. Other companies may calculate these Non-GAAP Measures differently from us, limiting their usefulness as a comparative measure. Although such Non-GAAP Measures are not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards, we have included these non-GAAP financial measures because we believe they are indicative measures of our operating performance and are used by investors and analysts to evaluate companies in the same industry. These non-GAAP financial measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP and should be considered in addition to, and not as a substitute for, other measures of financial performance and liquidity reported in accordance with Ind AS. These measures should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to Ind AS measures of performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability, or results of operations derived in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. The presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

SECTION III – RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Information Memorandum, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares.

To obtain a more detailed understanding of our business and operations, prospective investors should read this section in conjunction with “Our Business”, “Financial Statements”, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations”, “Key Regulations and Policies in India” and “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” on pages 88, 156, 351, 103 and 395, respectively.

We have described the risks and uncertainties that we believe are material, but these risks and uncertainties may not be the only risks relevant to us, the Equity Shares, or the industry in which we currently operate. In addition, the risks provided in this section may not be exhaustive and additional risks and uncertainties, not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our businesses, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. If any of the following risks (or a combination of them), or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial, actually occur, our businesses, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects could suffer, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of us and the terms of the Offer, including the merits and risks involved. You should consult your tax, financial and legal advisors about particular consequences of investing in the Offer.

Prospective investors should pay particular attention to the fact that we are incorporated under the laws of India and are subject to a legal and regulatory environment, which may differ in certain respects from that of other countries. This Information Memorandum also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Information Memorandum. For details, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 12.

Our Company’s Fiscal commences on April 1 and ends on March 31 of the immediately subsequent year, and references to a particular Fiscal are to the 12 months ended March 31 of that year. Unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires, references in this section to “we”, “our” or “us” are to the Nuvama.

Unless otherwise indicated, industry and market data used in this section has been derived from the report titled “Research Report on Wealth Management, Asset Management, Capital Markets” prepared and issued by the CARE Advisory Research and Training Limited (“CARE”), commissioned by and paid for by us. Also see, “Certain Conventions, Presentation of Financial, Industry and Market Data – Industry and Market Data” on page 8.

Unless specified in the relevant risk factor below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial implication of any of the risks mentioned below. Unless context requires otherwise the financial information in this section is derived from our Financial Statements unless otherwise stated or unless context requires otherwise.

Internal Risk Factors

1. We are subject to extensive statutory and regulatory requirements and supervision, which may have a material influence and consequences on our business operations.

All our businesses and business activities are subject to extensive scrutiny, periodic inspections, supervision and regulations by the Government and various regulatory authorities, including the SEBI, Stock Exchanges, and RBI, with whom we are registered as an intermediary. For details of our business activities, see “Our Business” and “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on pages 88 and 103, respectively. The changes in regulations and tax laws could have adverse impact on our business volumes and revenues.

Commission from distribution of financial products is also subject to regulations and changes in tax laws. The recent circular of SEBI (ref: SEBI/HO/AFD/PoD/CIR/2023/ 054) dated April 10, 2023 (“Circular”), inter-alia, provides for charging of distribution commission on trail basis on Category I and Category II AIFs. We earn a large portion of such revenue from the sale of such products. Pursuant to the Circular, such funds shall pay up to a maximum of one third of total commission in the first year and the remaining fees on equal trail basis over the tenure of the fund. While the aggregate commissions accruing to us from distribution of such products does not materially change, this pattern of charging of commission would imply lower commissions to us in the initial years compared to the current pattern of charging of commissions and their accruals in our books. This would result in lower reported revenues from such products in the initial years.

Pursuant to the Budget 2023, the Income Tax Act provisions have been amended to provide that returns on investment in ‘market linked debentures’ (a security, which has an underlying principal component as debt and where the returns are linked to market returns on other underlying securities or indices, which includes any security classified or regulated as market linked debentures by SEBI) will be taxed as short-term capital gains, which might not be favorable for the wealth management clients. Similarly, the Budget 2023 reduced the threshold for tax deductibility for insurance policies from an aggregate annual premium per individual of ₹10 lakhs per annum to ₹5 lakhs per annum. These products may thus become less attractive instruments as investments for investors and would reduce volume of distribution and commission income thereon for us.

If the regulatory changes require the asset management companies and portfolio managers to reduce the total expense ratio it may result in lower distribution fees and commission income from our distribution of such products. Such changes may also adversely impact the management fee earned from our asset management business.

The regulatory limits on the brokerage fee rates are imposed by the Stock Exchanges. Any reduction in the current level of limits on fees, will have a material adverse impact on our revenue and cash flows.

The requirements imposed by these regulators are designed to ensure the integrity of the financial markets and to protect investors’ interests. While we attempt to comply with all regulatory provisions applicable to us, in the event we are unable to comply with the observation and directions made by these regulators, we could be subject to supervisory and regulatory actions, which includes issuance of administrative warnings/deficiency letters, fines, penalties, or sanctions and, in certain circumstances, could lead to suspension or revocation of certain of our licenses, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Further, other laws applicable to our businesses continue to evolve and may be amended, revised, or replaced in future by the Government or regulatory authorities, or due to judicial decisions. Such changes may impose onerous conditions on our business activities, or require us to change the systems, policies or procedures established by us for the purposes of compliance with applicable law. Any onerous conditions imposed by, or material changes required in our systems, policies or procedures may increase our compliance cost thereby adversely affecting our business, cash flows, and results of operations.

2. We face significant competition in our businesses which may limit our growth and prospects.

We operate in business segments of financial services, which operate in highly competitive environment.

We face significant competition from dedicated wealth management companies and several other market participants, including established Indian and foreign banks, with wide geographical reach and offer a variety of financial services enabling them to leverage their existing platforms and services to cross-sell their wealth management services. We also compete with a large number of independent financial advisors as a consequence of the fragmented wealth management in India. We are also exposed to risk of delayed or lack of payment of fees by current and prior clients. Further, with the rise in the use of technology, we may face competition from new entrants in the industry who may leverage technology to provide products and services similar to ours or services which our clients would prefer over services provided by us. This increased competition may result in our inability to grow or maintain our market share and to attracting and retain clients.

Some of our competitors may have, amongst others, the following advantages over us:

- substantially greater financial resources;
- well-established branch network;
- longer operating history than us in certain of our businesses;
- greater brand recognition among clients;

- more diversified operations which allow utilisation of funds from profitable business activities to support business activities with lower, or no profitability; and
- robust technology platforms compared to the ones used by us.

Further, some of our products and service offerings can be replicated by others. This increases the risk of competition. Any consolidation in the businesses we operate would also expose us to competitive pressures.

Our brokerage fee in the institutional equities and wealth management business are primarily driven by the volume of trade, and the fee charged by us vis a vis our competitors. If we face increased competition on our brokerage fee levels, we may have to provide additional products and services in addition to lowering our brokerage fee, to attract and retain clients.

Similarly, in our investment banking business, we face significant competition from the industry players who may have an advantage over us due to, inter alia, larger financial resources, stronger brand recognition, lower costs, and the ability to charge lower fees. Any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

In our asset management business, we operate in a competitive environment and our ability to grow AUM and fees will depend among others on the fees charged by our competitors and performance of our funds and our ability to offer niche products to our clients.

As a result of competition, we may face increased pressures on our revenues across our businesses and will need to provide better and customized services and products to differentiate ourselves and to retain and attract clients and business partners.

These competitive pressures may affect our business, and our growth will largely depend on our ability to respond in an effective and timely manner to these competitive pressures. While we believe that with our strong financial position, deep client relationships, large base of relationship managers and strong research capabilities, we are well positioned to retain our clients against any competition, our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected if we are not able to maintain our market position, sustain our growth, develop new products or target new markets. In addition, competitive pressures may also lead to downward pressures on our brokerage commission rates, which could also affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

3. There are operational risks associated with the financial services industry which, if realised, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

Similar to other companies in the financial services sector, we are exposed to a number of operational risks that can have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects, including our brokerage business. Such risks could manifest at any time in the future. The key operational risks we are exposed to include:

- human and systems errors, including in the confirmation, entry or settlement of transactions, arising due to the complexity and high volume of transactions;
- dealing with errors including transaction execution errors;
- inadvertent deviations from defined processes and inadvertent errors due to the manual nature of processes;
- delay or failure to timely transfer, pledge or un-pledge securities to and from depository participants;
- failure to establish and maintain an effective controls and compliance oversight failures;
- delay, failure or inability to debit funds or securities blocked from permitted accounts;
- failure of technology in our processes, including risk management and settlement processes, causing errors or disrupting our operations;
- non-confirmation or delayed confirmation of transactions by our institutional brokerage clients;

- inadequate technology infrastructure or inappropriate systems architecture;
- failure to adequately monitor and control sub-brokers, business partners, and IAs;
- failure to implement sufficient information security, including cyber-security, and controls;
- failure to maintain appropriate deposits with exchanges;
- mis-selling or fraud by employees;
- erroneous transactions due to badly designed or malfunctioning algorithms for our institutional brokerage clients;
- an interruption in services by our critical service providers;
- failure to timely report transactions to concerned intermediaries;
- damage to physical assets, either IT assets or non-IT assets;
- failure of our complex automated risk management systems due to incorrect or inadequate algorithms;
- inadequate due diligence, including client verification, non-adherence to anti-money laundering guidelines, KYC processes and client needs analysis, in the sales process; and
- failure to comply with other applicable laws, regulations, accounting norms or regulatory policies, including as a result of the adoption of widely followed market practices.

If any of the foregoing were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects. Although we have implemented internal control measures to prevent against the risk of operational failure, we may not be able to completely avoid the occurrence of or timely detect any operational failure.

4. Our Company extends loans against securities to our clients as part of our ESOP financing, loan against securities and margin trade financing facilities business. Any default by a client coupled with a downturn in the stock markets could result in substantial losses for our Company.

The loans granted to our clients as part of our ESOP financing, loan against securities and margin trade financing facilities, generally such loans have a maturity of less than one year, are secured against securities held by our clients, whose value is linked to the capital markets. Although we have a well-defined risk management framework on extension of such facilities to clients and portfolio monitoring (which include limits on the amount of margin and assessing the quality of collateral provided by the clients) and pre-determined margin call thresholds, in the event of adverse movement in security prices (stock, bonds etc.) due to adverse market developments or other reasons, the collateral may decrease significantly in value and in an eventuality of liquidation, we may not be able recover the full amount of such loans resulting in a loss. We may also incur credit losses on account of client defaults, which could have an adverse impact on our operations' business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

5. Our financial performance is subject to interest rate and market risk, and our inability to manage this risk may have a material adverse effect on our business prospects, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operation.

Interest rates in India have been volatile in the past. These are highly sensitive, and the fluctuations are dependent upon many factors, inter alia, inflation in the economy, monetary policies of the RBI, liquidity position in money markets and domestic as well as international economic and political conditions, which are beyond the control of the Company.

Our results of operations, including our interest income from lending / credit solutions are dependent on our ability to manage our interest rate risk. For Fiscal 2023, our aggregate interest income was 29.62% of our Total revenue and our aggregate interest expenses from borrowings was 21.05% of our total expenses for the Fiscal 2023.

We generally charge interest at a fixed rate on our loan/ credit facilities, such as ESOP loans, margin financing and loans against securities. Our funding arrangements may include both fixed and floating rate borrowings. Due to the profile of interest-bearing assets and liabilities we run asset/ liability maturity mismatch and repricing risk in our asset / liability profile leading to interest rate risk.

Any volatility in interest rates may adversely affect our business, which may reduce the profitability margin on our financing products, or our financing products may become commercially unattractive. Our net interest income from financing activities and net interest margin would be adversely impacted in case of any increase in interest rates if the yield on our interest-earning assets does not increase simultaneously with or to the same extent as our cost of funds. In the event of a declining interest rate environment, if our cost of funds does not decline simultaneously or to the same extent as the yield on our interest-earning assets, it could adversely impact our interest income from financing activities and net interest margin, result of operations and cash flows.

Additional risks arising from volatility and increasing interest rates, among others, include, reduction in the volume of loan disbursements as a result of a client's inability to service high interest rate payments and possible default on repayment resulting in credit loss, which can have a material adverse impact on our result of operations and cash flows.

We may also deploy capital in various market linked instruments such as debt products, cash equity, derivatives, funds or any such instrument. Additionally, we may also use derivatives to hedge some of our exposures, particularly in respect of our borrowings by way of market linked debentures. Any material adverse market movement in the market prices of such instruments, inability to maintain an effective hedge or significant poor performance of the invested instruments may have adverse effects on our result of operations and cash flows.

Asia Pragati Strategic Investment Fund, one of the entities of our Promoter Group, has provided a liquidity support arrangement to entities within Nuvama Group by committing to subscribe to non-convertible debentures to be issued by entities within Nuvama Group for an aggregate amount of Rs. 30.00 billion to meet our liquidity requirements in case of contingencies. Nuvama Group has not availed any amounts under the said arrangement as on date. This arrangement was intended to ease the transition of the Nuvama Group from being a part of the Edelweiss group to an independent group and hence, may be terminated prior to listing of the equity shares of the Company. Such termination may have an adverse impact on cost and / or availability of funds for the Nuvama Group.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to adequately manage our market risk and/or interest rate risk.

6. A significant decrease in our liquidity could negatively affect our ability to repay our lenders and our businesses.

Maintaining adequate liquidity is crucial to our wealth management and capital market businesses, specifically for lending, brokerage operations, and clearing businesses. Our liquidity position is dependent upon internal accruals, and our timely access to, and costs associated with raising resources. Our funding requirements historically have been met from a combination of term loans, commercial papers, non-convertible debentures, market linked debentures/ bonds, working capital facilities and equity contributions. We face certain additional regulatory restrictions on our ability to obtain financing from the banking sector in respect of certain broking activities and we rely on market sources to fund these requirements.

During periods of disruption in the credit and capital markets or changes in the regulatory environment, potential sources of external financing could be limited, and our borrowing costs could increase. Also, we could face delays in realization from our borrowers in our lending business impacting on our liquidity position. External financing may not be available to us on commercially acceptable terms, or at all, due to disruptions in the credit and capital markets, changes in regulations relating to capital raising activities, general market conditions for capital raising activities, and other economic and political conditions outside our control. Any of the risks highlighted above in relation to a decrease in our liquidity could have a material adverse effect on our business, ability to repay our obligations, results of operation and prospects.

We also use borrowings as collateral with the exchanges and clearing houses. Our results of operations and cash flow might be severely restricted in the event of (i) our inability to borrow from the market; (ii) increase in the borrowing rates; or (iii) any regulatory increase in margins and/or type of collateral permissible as margin.

7. Our Company has also availed borrowings including by way of unsecured loans from banks and other financial institutions, which may be recalled on demand.

Our Company has availed credit facilities from banks which are repayable on demand. These facilities are repayable in accordance with agreed repayment terms; however, it may be recalled by the relevant lender at any time. Further, certain of our subsisting loans/ borrowing facilities and borrowing through other instruments may be recalled at the option of the lenders. There can be no assurance that the lenders will not recall such borrowings. In such cases, we may be required to repay the entirety of the loans together with accrued interest.

We may not be able to generate sufficient funds at short notice to be able to repay such loans and may resort to refinancing such loans at a higher rate of interest and on terms not favorable to it. Failure to repay such loans in a timely manner may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operation, financial condition, and cash flow. If we are unable to pay our debt, affected lenders could also proceed against any collateral granted to them to secure such indebtedness. Further, such covenant defaults could result in cross-defaults in our other debt financing agreements. In the event our lenders accelerate the repayment of our borrowings, there can be no assurance that we will have sufficient assets to repay our indebtedness.

For further details of our borrowings, refer disclosure of borrowings as at March 31, 2023 as required by Schedule III of Companies Act and relevant accounting standards, see “Financial Information” on page 156.

8. If research disseminated or advice provided by us contains errors, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, or results of operations.

Our research team provides our clients with research covering recommendations on various quantitative and qualitative research requirements relating to the stock market such as equity fundamentals, technical, derivatives linked to equity markets, commodities currencies, and mutual funds, in addition to macro-economic or industry-related research. Although due care and caution is taken in issuing research recommendations, the accuracy, adequacy, or completeness of such information, which is based on information obtained from sources that we consider reliable, is not guaranteed. Errors or omissions in the information or the results obtained from the use of such information may cause our research findings to be incorrect.

Further, certain industry and market data may be subject to assumptions, and methodologies for assumptions vary widely among different data sources. Additionally, such assumptions may change due to various factors which are beyond our control. Accordingly, there is no assurance that our assumptions, or those relied upon by us, will be accurate, which may affect the accuracy of our research findings. Incorrect research findings may expose us to complaints from clients and have a material adverse effect on our brokerage and distribution businesses, which would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, or results of operations. It may also subject us to regulatory action which may harm our reputation and brand.

9. Continued growth of our revenues is dependent on our sustained ability to increase clients and clients assets managed / advised by us. Any reduction in the attractiveness of products offered by us to our clients or in our fee structure or otherwise, may result in an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows or results of operation.

Our revenue from operations have grown from ₹ 12,727.74 million to ₹ 22,147.18 million and our client assets have grown from ₹ 1,669.69 billion to ₹ 2,297.37 billion from Fiscal 2021 to Fiscal 2023 respectively.

Our ability to sustain the growth of our businesses depends on various factors, including our ability to manage our growth and expand our client and business partner’s base. There can be no assurance that we will be able to sustain this growth in the future.

The willingness of investors to make investments in asset classes and financial products in our wealth management business is contingent on our ability to generate returns in line with or more than the client expectations. Any inability on our part to identify, distribute or offer appropriate financial products to clients or if such products underperform either according to their relevant benchmarks, or similar financial products provided by our competitors, for various reasons including general market conditions, investment decisions taken by the concerned fund managers and originators of financial products may result in a withdrawal of clients and restrict our ability to attract new clients, leading to a potential reduction in client assets and fees/ commissions thereon.

While we believe distribution of our financial products and revenues therefrom are adequately diversified, any reduction in volumes of financial products originated by one or more originators we distribute or any reduction in demand for their financial products could adversely impact our client assets and revenue.

We may not be able to sustain our growth in the light of competitive pressure or other factors, such as not being able to implement business strategies and development plans effectively and efficiently. Any slowdown in our growth, whether in absolute terms or relative to industry trends could adversely affect our market position and a loss of our market position could adversely affect our ability to sustain our growth.

Further, our distribution fees and commission income may be impacted due to the growing technology, regulatory enablement and increase in the ease of investments in such funds, since our existing as well as potential clients may choose to access various financial products directly, thereby reducing or eliminating our involvement and fees.

If we are unable to address the needs of our clients and business partners by offering competitive rates, maintaining high quality client service, continuing product innovation and providing value added services, or if we otherwise fail to meet our clients' and business partners demands or expectations, we may not be able to sustain our historic growth or lose our existing base to our competitors, which may in turn have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

10. Macroeconomic conditions and fluctuation in securities markets may impact our business, operations, revenues and cash flows.

Our businesses are directly related to conditions prevailing in Indian securities markets, which are influenced by general economic conditions and macroeconomic factors such as performance of Indian economy, inflation, interest rates and liquidity, monetary and fiscal policies, political situation as well as a condition prevailing in global macroeconomic factors and global financial markets. Any adverse developments in above factors and fluctuations in the underlying markets may impact value of our client assets which are valued on mark to market basis, ability to grow client assets and demand for financial products we distribute and services we provide. This in turn could have adverse effects on our revenues, result of operations and cash flows.

11. If our investment products under asset management business underperform, our AUM could decline and adversely affect our revenues, reputation, and brand.

Our asset management business includes investment management for AIFs across multiple strategies and portfolio management services. We endeavour to address the clients' investment objectives by leveraging our research, origination capabilities, underwriting, and risk management efficiencies. As on date, our offerings cover private and public markets through a number of funds. As on March 31, 2023, our AUM stood at ₹ 55.87 billion.

Our revenues from our asset management business are typically in the form of asset management fees and performance incentives linked to returns generated in the funds. Our ability to raise commitments (translating into AUMs) depends on the products we offer and the returns the investors receive on such products. The performance of our funds/schemes and growth of our asset management business AUM is critical to retaining our existing clients and attracting new clients.

The investment strategies of our funds/schemes may lead them to underperform their relevant benchmarks, or similar investment products provided by our competitors for various reasons including investment decisions that we make, our inability to identify appropriate investment opportunities and the performance of the companies in which we invest on behalf of our funds/schemes. Any such periodic underperformance, either on an absolute or relative basis, may cause our AUM to decline, which could adversely affect the investment management fees that we earn and could impair our revenue.

12. Failure or disruption of our IT systems or of the third-party public cloud providers may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

We have implemented various information technology ("IT") solutions to cover key areas of our internal business operations, client -facing applications and services, execution of trades, client relationship management (CRM), operations and back office, communication and collaboration, accounting, finance, human resource, governance risk and compliance tools, etc.

These systems are potentially vulnerable to damage or interruption from a variety of sources, which could result in a material adverse effect on our operations. An IT malfunction could disrupt our business or lead to disclosure of sensitive company information. Our ability to maintain our business operations depends on the proper and efficient operation and functioning of various IT systems, which are susceptible to malfunctions and interruptions (including those due to equipment damage, power outages, computer viruses and a range of other hardware, software, and network problems).

IT infrastructure covering all the key areas mentioned above includes variety of hardware, software, and networking components that support its operations, such as servers, routers, switches, other networking components, operating systems, databases, firewalls, end point security, intrusion detection systems, web application firewall, security incident and event management tool, and other security components, software programs that perform specific functions, such as email, document management.

Any failure or disruption in the operation of these systems or the loss of data due to such failure or disruption (including due to human error or sabotage) may affect our ability to plan, track, record and analyse work in progress and sales, process financial information, meet business objectives based on IT initiatives, or otherwise conduct our normal business operations, which may increase our costs and otherwise adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Further, we use technology in almost every aspect of our business, including sales, risk management, client service and settlement. The Indian financial services industry (including securities industry) is undergoing rapid and significant technological and other changes. Our competitors could utilise better technology and improve the client experience, increase efficiencies, redesign products, improve client targeting, alter business models more effectively than or to effect disruptive changes in the Indian financial services industry. If we do not anticipate, innovate, keep pace with, and adapt to, technological and other changes impacting the Indian financial services industry, it could harm our ability to compete in the market, decrease the attractiveness of our products to clients and materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our services are hosted on third-party public cloud provider and such cloud services are key to our business continuity. In the event, the third-party public cloud provider fails to perform their contractual or other obligations satisfactorily, we may be unable to successfully carry out our operations or our clients and partners may face difficulties in their operations which could result in reduced profits or, in some cases, losses. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, financial condition, and reputation.

13. The Nuvama brand is in the process of being registered. Any reputational damage to this brand name or logo could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited) has applied for the registration of 23 trademarks in India under Class 36 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999 to the Controller General of Trade Marks, Mumbai ('Appropriate Authority'). We have filed applications for trademark registration of logo and device 'Nuvama', other associated logos for each of our businesses carried out through our Subsidiaries, Nuvama tune (sound mark) and Nuvama - lets do it right (logo and device) with tagline with the Appropriate Authority. The certificates of registration for trademarks are under process and will be issued by the Appropriate Authority in due course of time.

The "Nuvama" name, and logo ("Nuvama Brand") and related reputation is key to our business. Any negative publicity or perception about the Nuvama Brand business practices, whether true or not, could damage the Nuvama reputation, which could adversely affect our ability to attract and retain clients, and employees. This could result in a loss of revenue and market share, as well as increased legal, regulatory, and public relations costs, if not immediately and sufficiently remedied, which may have an adverse effect on our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

14. There are outstanding litigation proceedings against our Company and our Subsidiaries, which if determined adversely, could affect our business and the results of operations.

In the ordinary course of our business, our Company, and our Subsidiaries, are involved in certain legal proceedings, pending at varying levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals, and appellate authorities.

A summary of outstanding material litigation proceedings involving our Company and Subsidiaries is set out below:

As on date of this Information Memorandum, there are no outstanding litigations involving the Group Companies, which may have a material impact on our Company.

Given the uncertainties and complexities of many of these regulatory or legal proceedings, their outcome generally cannot be predicted with any reasonable degree of certainty.

We cannot assure you that any of the outstanding legal proceedings will be settled in our favour, or that no additional liability will arise out of these proceedings. We may incur significant expenses and managements' time in such legal proceedings and may have to make provisions in our financial statements, which could increase our expenses and liabilities. An adverse outcome in any of these proceedings could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects.

Moreover, even if claims are withdrawn, or if we ultimately prevail in a relevant litigation, regulatory action, or investigation, we could suffer significant harm to our reputation, which could materially affect our prospects and future growth, including our ability to attract new contracts, retain current contracts and recruit and retain employees and agents.

For details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments" on page 395.

15. We are highly dependent on our management team, relationship managers and key personnel in our business. Any loss of such team members or the inability to attract or retain management personnel may have a material adverse effect on our business performance.

Our business and the implementation of our strategy are dependent upon our management team, who oversee our day-to-day operations, strategy, and growth of our business, and also on our Relationship Managers, who are integral for our Company to manage existing client relationships as well as establish new client relationships. Similarly, our asset management business relies on investment and product specialists, and our capital market business depends on our investment banking, research, and sales personnel among others. These resources are critical to our success.

If one or more members of our management team are unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, such persons would be difficult to replace and our business, prospects and results of operations could have material adverse effect.

Competition in our industry for talent is high, and we cannot assure that members of our management team or high performing Relationship Managers will not leave our Company and join our competitors, and that we will be able to find suitable replacements for them, in a timely manner or at all. This could result in an increase in our expenses, a decline in the performance of our business, or damage to our reputation. In addition, we may need to increase employee compensation levels in order to retain our existing team and attract any additional personnel we may require.

While we believe our scale, client reach, comprehensive suites of products and services across our businesses, technology platform and infrastructure, and alignment of economic interests enable us to attract and retain such critical resources, our success in expanding our business will also depend, in part, on our ability to attract, retain and motivate mid-to-senior management personnel and trained and skilled employees, to maintain a high standard of client service. We may be unable to successfully manage our personnel needs, which could adversely affect our business prospects and results of operations. These risks could be heightened to the extent we invest in businesses or geographical regions in which we have limited experience. If we are not able to address these risks, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

16. We require certain approvals and licenses in the ordinary course of business, and the failure to obtain or retain them in a timely manner may have material adverse effects on our operations.

We require certain approvals, licenses, registrations, and permissions for operating our business. As on date of this Information Memorandum, we have all the licenses and approvals that are required. However, there will be certain approvals which may expire and for which we will have to make an application to obtain the approval for its renewal. While we have procured all material approvals for our operations, we are in the process of renewing/procuring certain approvals and licenses as may be applicable and due for renewal. If we are unable to obtain or retain any of these approvals or licenses, or renewals thereof, in a timely manner, our business may be adversely affected. Furthermore, our regulatory approvals and licenses are subject to numerous conditions, some of which may be onerous and require us to make substantial compliance-related expenditure. If we are unable to comply or a regulator claim that we have not complied with these conditions, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. For details see “Government Approvals” on page 406.

17. The examination report dated June 16, 2023, issued by the Statutory Auditor, in relation to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information contains certain emphasis of matter.

Our Statutory Auditors have included an emphasis of matter in their reports on our audited consolidated financial statements as at and for year ended March 31, 2021, with respect to the note included in such audited consolidated financial statements on the uncertainty caused by the continuing COVID- 19 pandemic and the related probable events which could impact the Group's carrying value of its assets, estimates of impairment of loans to customers and operations of the Group. Our Statutory Auditors have not modified their opinion in respect of this matter.

The opinion of our Statutory Auditors is not modified in respect of these matters. There can be no assurance that any similar emphasis of matters will not form part of our financial statements for the future fiscal periods, which could subject us to additional liabilities due to which our reputation and financial condition may be adversely affected.

18. Security breaches of clients’ confidential information that we store may harm our reputation and expose us to liability.

We store clients’ bank information, credit information and other sensitive data. While we have measures and systems in place to protect clients’ confidential data, any accidental or wilful security breach or other unauthorised access could cause the theft and criminal use of this data. Security breaches or unauthorised access to confidential information could also expose us to liability related to the loss of the information, time-consuming and expensive litigation, and negative publicity.

Our employees are exposed to sensitive data in relation to companies, including material non-public information and any unauthorized dissemination of such information, or its use for illicit trading purposes, by our employees could subject us to fines and regulatory actions, damage our client relationships and harm our reputation.

If security measures are breached because of third party action, employee error, malfeasance or otherwise, or if design flaws in our software are exposed and exploited, and, as a result, a third party obtains unauthorised access to client data, our relationships with clients will be severely damaged, and we could incur significant liability and reputational damage.

Further, we engage with certain third-party service providers, and although our contracts with them restrict the usage of client data and impose protective precautions, there can be no assurance that they will abide by such contractual terms or that the contracts will be found to be in compliance with data protection laws.

The techniques used to obtain unauthorised access or to sabotage systems change frequently and generally are not recognised until they are launched against a target, we and our third-party hosting facilities may be unable to anticipate these techniques or to implement adequate preventive measures. In addition, we may be required under applicable regulations to notify individuals of data security breaches involving their personal data. These mandatory disclosures regarding a security breach are costly to implement and often lead to widespread negative publicity, which may cause clients to lose confidence in the effectiveness of our data security measures. Further, we will be responsible for determining non-compliances under the legislation and imposing penalties.

19. We may not be able to fully comply with anti-money-laundering, insider trading and anti-terrorism rules and regulations, which could result in criminal and regulatory fines and severe reputational damage.

Although we have implemented comprehensive AML, KYC and insider trading policies and procedures and seek to adhere to all requirements under Indian law, there can be no assurances that these policies and procedures will be completely effective. If, in the future, we are unable to comply with reporting requirements or other AML, KYC or insider trading regulations, or are associated with money laundering or terrorist financing, our reputation, ability to continue our business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects could be adversely affected. In addition, involvement in such activities may carry criminal or regulatory fines and sanctions.

20. We are dependent on third party public cloud providers and any disruption in the cloud provider end will have an impact on our business.

Our services are hosted on third party public cloud provider and such cloud services are key to our business continuity. In the event, the third-party public cloud providers fail to perform their contractual or other obligations satisfactorily, we may be unable to successfully carry out our operations or our clients and partners may face difficulties in their operations which could result in reduced profits or, in some cases, losses. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and reputation.

21. We are dependent on our partner network or other third-party service providers for the distribution of products. We could be subject to claims by clients or actions by regulators or both for alleged mis-selling.

We sell our third-party products through our partner network of more than 20,000 partners, in addition to our employees. Our intermediaries and employees aid our clients in choosing the correct product, explaining the benefits of such product, and disclosing product features. Under certain circumstances, the above processes may be considered inadequate or there may be misconduct on part of our employees or intermediaries or both. Such misconduct could include activities such as making non-compliant or fraudulent promises of high returns on investments and recommending inappropriate products or fund management strategies. Any case of mis-selling, or recurring cases of mis-selling, could result in claims and fines against us and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and reputation. It is also possible that a third party aggregates a number of individual complaints against us with the intention of obtaining increased negotiating power. Further, persons have misrepresented, and in the future may misrepresent, themselves as our authorised intermediaries to defraud clients. Such aggrieved clients may file complaints against us. This could result in significant financial losses as well as loss of our reputation.

22. We may introduce new products for our clients, and we cannot assure you that such products will be profitable in the future.

We introduce new products and services in our existing lines of business. We may incur costs to expand our range of products and cannot guarantee that such new products will be successful once offered. Such failure may be due to factors outside of our control, such as general economic conditions, competition, changing client demands, or our own errors in judgment of client demands and product features. If we fail to develop and launch these products successfully, we may lose a part or all of the costs incurred in development and promotion or discontinue these products entirely, which could in turn increase our expenses without a corresponding increase in revenue.

23. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

Our operations are subject to various risks inherent in the businesses, as well as fire, theft, data crash, hacking, robbery, earthquake, flood, acts of terrorism and other force majeure events. As per our assessment we have maintained adequate insurance cover for various risks on our assets including against incidents such as fire and special perils, earthquake, & burglary, etc. We also have D&O insurance and cover for trade errors by our employees. While we have taken insurance cover as per our internal risk assessment, the coverage may not always be adequate to cover losses against all events. We may also not have identified every risk and further may not be insured against every risk, including operational risks that may occur. In addition, we may not be able to renew certain of our insurance policies upon their expiration, either on commercially acceptable terms or at all.

The occurrence of any such event may cause losses to us on account of risks not covered by insurance policies or due to the cover being inadequate. Further, there can be no assurance that any claims filed will be settled fully or timely under our insurance policies. Our financial condition may be affected to the extent we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance, or which exceeds our insurance coverage. This could materially harm our operations, financial condition, and cash flow.

- 24. We have entered into related party transactions. We will continue to enter into such transactions and there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties.

We have entered into transactions with several related parties which were conducted in compliance with applicable laws. It is likely that we will enter into related party transactions in the future and there can be no assurance that such future transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Furthermore, if any relevant regulatory authority disagrees with our views of such related party transactions, we may be required to expend senior management time to defend our positions on such matters and may have to face additional pay-outs and penalties. For more information regarding our related party transactions, see “Related Party Transactions” page 154.

- 25. Our Company has experienced negative cash flows in some prior periods and may do so in the future, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

For details on the cash flows for the last three Fiscals, please refer the section titled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 351. We may incur negative cash flows in the future which may have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition.

- 26. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our future cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and financial condition.

The amount of our future dividend payments, if any, will be at the sole discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on, inter-alia, our future earnings, cash flows, financial condition, business requirements, pursuing growth opportunities, capital expenditures, and applicable Indian legal restrictions and other factors. There can be no assurance that we will pay dividends. We may decide to retain all of our earnings to finance the development of our business and, therefore, may not declare dividends on our Equity Shares. Our historical payment of dividends is not indicative of any payments of dividends in the future. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term and our future dividend policy will depend on our capital requirements, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations. For details, see “Dividend Policy” on page 150.

- 27. We have undertaken and may continue to undertake strategic investments and alliances, acquisitions, and mergers in the future, which may be difficult to integrate and manage. These may expose us to uncertainties and risks, any of which could adversely affect our business, financial conditions, cash flows, and result of operations.

We have pursued and may continue to pursue strategic investments and alliances in India as a mode of expanding our operations. Going forward, we may undertake acquisitions, mergers, investments, and expansions to enhance our operations and technological capabilities. There can be no assurance that we will be able to raise sufficient funds to finance such strategies for growth. Further, expansion and acquisitions may require us to incur or assume new debt, expose us to future funding obligations, legal claims, past liabilities, regulatory probes or integration risks and we cannot assure you that such expansion or acquisitions will contribute to our profitability.

Furthermore, the return on capital deployed in such acquisitions will depend on the price of the acquisitions and efficiency of integration of acquired business employees and assets. We may also face numerous risks and uncertainties combining, transferring, separating, or integrating the relevant businesses and systems, including the need to align accounting and data-processing systems and management controls and to integrate relationships with clients, trading counterparties and business partners. We may not be able to realise the benefits we might anticipate from any such acquisitions, which may adversely affect our growth prospects and cash flows, results of operations. Moreover, we may expend significant management attention trying to do so but may not see results. In addition, there can be no assurance that we will be able to consummate our expansions, acquisitions, mergers, or alliances in the future on terms acceptable to us, or at all.

Additionally, factors such as competition, regulatory regimes, introducing new products, business practices and client preferences and requirements in the markets that we may target differ from those in our current markets and our experience in our current markets may not be applicable to these new markets. In addition, as we enter new markets and geographical regions, we are likely to compete with well entrenched players in our various businesses who already have a presence in these jurisdictions and markets. As these players are more familiar with local regulations, business practices and customs, they may have developed stronger relationships with clients. Our business expansion may be exposed to various additional challenges, including obtaining the necessary governmental approvals, identifying and collaborating with local business and partners with whom we may have no previous working relationship, successfully gauging market conditions in the local markets in which we have no previous familiarity, attracting potential clients in a market in which we do not have significant experience or visibility, being susceptible to local laws, including taxation in additional geographical areas in India and overseas, and adapting our marketing strategy and operations to the different regions. Due to the aforementioned challenges, if we are unable to expand our current operations on favourable terms or at all it may adversely affect our business prospects, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

28. Industry information included in this Information Memorandum has been derived from an industry report commissioned from CARE EDGE and paid by us for such purposes. There can be no assurance that such third-party statistical, financial, and other industry information is either complete or accurate.

Certain information in the sections entitled “Our Business” “Industry Overview” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 88, 67 and 351 respectively includes information that is derived from a report dated May 31, 2023, titled “Research Report on Wealth Management, Asset Management, Capital Markets” prepared by CARE Advisory Research and Training Limited (“CARE”) (“CARE Report”), being appointed by the Company. We have commissioned and paid for this report for the purpose of confirming our understanding of the industry. CARE has advised that while it has taken due care and caution in preparing the report based on information obtained from sources which it considers reliable, it does not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the CARE Report or the data therein and is not responsible for any errors or omissions or for the results obtained from the use of CARE Report or the data therein. The CARE Report highlights certain industry and market data relating to our Company and our competitors. Such data is subject to many assumptions. There are no standard data gathering methodologies in the industry in which we conduct our business, and methodologies and assumptions may vary widely among different industry sources. Further, such assumptions may change based on various factors. We cannot assure you that CARE Report’s assumptions are correct or will not change and accordingly our position in the market may differ from that presented in this Information Memorandum. Further, the CARE Report is not a recommendation to invest or disinvest in our Company or any company covered in the CARE Report. CARE Report has stated that it is not responsible for any loss or damage arising from the use of the CARE Report.

We have not independently verified third party and industry related data obtained from official and industry publications and other sources referred to in this Information Memorandum and therefore, while we believe them to be true, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on different bases from those used in the industry publications we have referenced. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy, and the industries in which we currently operate are subject to the caveat that the third-party and statistical data upon which such discussions are based may be incomplete or unreliable. For details, see “Industry Overview” on page 67.

29. Our risk management, as well as the risk management tools available to us, may not be adequate or effective in identifying or mitigating risks to which we are exposed.

We have implemented a risk management system that includes an organizational framework, policies, risk management tools, and procedures that we believe are appropriate for our business operations. However, we recognize that there are inherent limitations in the design and implementation of our risk management system, risk identification and evaluation, risk control effectiveness, and information communication, which may not be sufficient or effective in identifying or mitigating our risk exposure in all market environments or against all types of risks. Our methods for managing risk exposure, estimating market volatility, and determining margins for our products may not always accurately predict our risk exposure, and could be significantly greater than our estimates.

Our risk assessment methods rely on historical market behavior and statistics, evaluation of publicly available or accessible information regarding financial markets, clients, or other relevant matters. However, such information may not be accurate, complete, or properly evaluated. Furthermore, our historical data and experience may quickly become obsolete due to market and regulatory developments and may not adequately reflect emerging risks in the future. Inaccurate estimates of margin levels for transactions conducted by clients could result in a shortfall of margins deposited with us, which could adversely impact on our financial condition.

We anticipate offering a broader range of products and investing in a wider range of assets in the future. Failure to timely adapt our risk management policies and procedures to our developing business could have a significant adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations, and prospects.

30. We have certain contingent liabilities, which, if they materialize, may adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

The following table sets forth certain information relating to our contingent liabilities as per Ind-AS 37, as of March 31, 2023:

(₹ in millions)
Particulars	As of March 31, 2023
Bank guarantees given to exchanges for meeting margin requirements	17,000.00
Taxation matters in respect of which appeal is pending	4.04
Claims not acknowledged as debt	227.98
Pending litigation against the Company	6.84
Total	17,238.86

Further, the following are the outstanding commitments:

(₹ in millions)
Particulars	As of March 31, 2023
Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account (net of advances)	93.96
Sponsor capital commitments (net of investments)	130.4

If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

31. Certain of our Promoters, Directors and Key Management Personnel may be interested in our Company other than remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Certain of our Directors and Key Management Personnel are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding, direct and indirect, and stock options in our Company and benefits arising therefrom. Our Promoters are also interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding in our Company. Our Directors may also be deemed to be interested to the extent of their shareholding in our Group Companies on account of related party transactions entered into by our Company with such Group Companies. There can be no assurance that our Promoters and our Key Management Personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Directors may also be interested to the extent of any transaction entered into by our Company with any other company/firm/entity in which they are director/promoter/partner. For details, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group”, “Our Management”, “Our Group Companies” and “Related Party Transactions” on pages 145, 129, 148 and 154 respectively.

32. Some of our offices are held by us on lease or leave and license or tenancy agreements which subject us to certain risks.

Some of our offices are on premises that have been leased by us from third parties through lease or leave and license or tenancy arrangements for fixed terms, typically for 36-60 months. Upon expiration of the term of the relevant agreement for each such premise, we will be required to negotiate the terms and conditions on which the lease agreement may be renewed. We cannot assure you that we will be able to renew these agreements on commercially reasonable terms in a timely manner, or at all. Further, some of our Subsidiaries and Group Companies use our Registered Office as their respective registered offices. In the event that these existing leases are terminated, or they are not renewed on commercially acceptable terms or at all, it may have a limited impact on our operational activities for the time being.

33. We may be unable to detect and deter misconduct of our employees which could harm our brand and our reputation, or lead to regulatory fines or litigation against us.

We operate in an industry in which we deal with the financial assets of the clients, and in which personal relationships, integrity and the confidence of our clients are of critical importance. As a result, we are subject to the risk that our employees and other third parties whom we deal with could engage in misconduct that may adversely affect our business. For example, if an employee were to engage in illegal or suspicious activities, we could be subject to regulatory fines and suffer serious harm to our reputation (because of the negative publicity resulting in such activities), financial position, client relationships and ability to attract new clients. While we have internal processes to detect, prevent and monitor our employees, agents, distributors and other third parties and have not faced such a situation so far, we may not be successful in our endeavours. Such misconduct could include, engaging in mis-selling, misrepresentation or fraudulent, deceptive or otherwise improper activities when marketing or selling products, binding us to transactions, hiding unauthorised or unsuccessful activities, such as insider trading, improperly using or disclosing confidential information, making illegal or improper payments, falsifying documents or data, recommending products, services or transactions that are not suitable for our clients; misappropriation of funds, engaging in unauthorised or excessive transactions detrimental to our clients or not complying with applicable laws or our internal policies and procedures.

Misconduct by our employees, or even unsubstantiated allegations of misconduct, could result in an adverse effect on our reputation and our business. While we have implemented specific initiatives to reduce the likelihood of such situations occurring in future through enhanced due diligence measures for high-risk cases and additional verification measures during the client on-boarding process, there can be no assurance that we will not be subjected to fraudulent claims in the future. We may be also subjected to fraudulent behavior and disclosures by client and third parties in respect of other areas of operations, including money laundering and forgery, which may negatively impact our ability to comply with applicable regulations, which could result in us being subjected to regulatory action, and have an adverse impact on our results of operations, cash flows, profitability, and reputation.

34. Our Promoters and Promoter Group have a significant shareholding in our Company, which will allow them to exercise significant influence over us.

Our Promoters and Promoter Group holds a significant shareholding in our Company. Accordingly, they will exercise significant influence over our business and all matters requiring shareholders' approval, including the composition of our Board of Directors, the approval of mergers, strategic acquisitions, or the sales of substantially all our assets, and the policies for dividends, lending, investments, and capital expenditures. This concentration of ownership may also delay, defer, or even prevent a change in control of our Company and may make some transactions more difficult or impossible without the support of our Promoters and Promoter Group. Further, the Takeover Regulations may limit the ability of a third party to acquire control of our Company. The interests of our Promoters, as our Company's controlling shareholder, could conflict with our Company's interests, your interests, or the interests of our other shareholders.

35. Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance like EBITDA have been included in this Information Memorandum. These non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of operating performance or liquidity defined by Ind AS and may not be comparable.

These non-GAAP financial measures are supplemental measures of our performance and liquidity that is not defined under Ind AS and are not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. In addition, these non-GAAP measures are not standardised terms. Hence, they may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies due to potential inconsistencies in the method of calculation. Other companies may calculate these Non-GAAP Measures differently from us, limiting its usefulness as a comparative measure. Although such Non-GAAP Measures are not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards. We have included these non-GAAP financial measures because we believe they are indicative measures of our operating performance and are used by investors and analysts to evaluate companies in the same industry. These non-GAAP financial measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP and should be considered in addition to, and not as a substitute for, other measures of financial performance and liquidity reported in accordance with Ind AS. These measures should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to Ind AS measures of performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability, or results of operations derived in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. The presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

External Risk Factors

36. Our operations are dependent on the performance of the Indian economy

Our businesses are significantly affected by market fluctuations and general economic conditions, particularly macroeconomic conditions in India, where we conduct most of our businesses. Our businesses depend on the general economic conditions, as well as overall economic growth rates, household savings rates and clients' attitudes towards financial savings, particularly within India. Adverse economic conditions or adverse market fluctuations in India or globally may result in decrease in client assets, investment management and advisory fee.

Further, the growth in our businesses has been directly related to the growth in the Indian economy, specifically the growing GDP and growing household savings. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India or periods where inflation was high. Such economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports (oil and oil products), global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall, which affects agricultural production. Any slowdown or reversal in the growth of the Indian economy could result in the reduction in wealth in the Indian economy that can be diverted to savings and investment, reduced interest in investment in the securities market and reduced foreign investment. Any such reductions could result in the reduction in our AUM and/or commissions, we can charge for our services.

There are numerous factors which drive our revenue, inter alia, macroeconomic factors, the general capital markets environment, and the market appetite for mergers and acquisitions. Changes in financial or economic conditions may lead to an increase or decrease in the number and size of transactions we manage, and it may impact the opportunity to provide our services, which in turn will impact our revenue.

Additionally, any increase in India's trade deficit, downgrading in India's sovereign debt rating or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves could negatively impact interest rates and liquidity, which could adversely impact the Indian economy and our business. Any adverse revisions to India's sovereign debt ratings may also adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could adversely affect our business, prospects, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations and our ability to obtain refinancing, as well as the trading price of the Equity Shares.

37. Political, economic, and social developments in India could adversely affect our business.

Our current operations are conducted primarily in India and are subject to special considerations and significant risks typical for India. These include risks associated with, among others, the political, economic, and legal environments and foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations.

Our results may be adversely affected by changes in the political and social conditions in India, and by changes in governmental policies with respect to laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion and remittance abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things. Volatility in social and political conditions in India may interrupt, limit, or otherwise affect our operations. We continue to experience sporadic disruptions and disturbances at our branches located in certain states in India which tend to be more prone to protests or union activity involving persons other than our employees. Additionally, we cannot ensure that our employees may not join such unions in future. This could have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows, and results of operations in those states.

The central and state governments serve multiple roles in the Indian economy, including as producers, consumers, and regulators, which have significant influence on the financial services sector and us. Economic liberalisation policies have encouraged foreign investment in the financial sector, and changes in these governmental policies could have a significant impact on the business and economic conditions in India in general and the financial sector in particular, which in turn could adversely affect our business, future financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations. In addition, any military activity, terrorist attacks or other adverse social, economic, and political events could adversely impact our business prospects. The occurrence of any of these events may result in a loss of investor confidence, which could potentially lead to economic recession and generally have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition. Our insurance policies do not cover loss of business from terrorist attacks, war, or civil unrest. Any political instability in India may adversely affect the Indian securities markets in general, which could also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

38. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws and regulations, may adversely affect our business and financial performance.

Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by unfavourable changes in our interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations applicable to us and our business. For details of the laws currently applicable to us, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on page 103.

There can be no assurance that the Government of India will not implement new regulations and policies which will require us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government of India and other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. For example, SEBI has amended the SEBI (Investment Advisers) Regulations, 2013, wherein it has introduced client level segregation of advisory and distribution activities which prescribes that an individual investment adviser shall not provide distribution services and a non-individual investment adviser shall maintain an arm’s length relationship between its activities as investment adviser and distributor by providing advisor services through a separately identifiable department or division. Furthermore, the same client cannot be offered both advisory and distribution services within the group of the non-individual entity and a client can either be an advisory client where no distributor consideration is received at the group level or distribution services client where no advisory fee is collected from the client at the group level. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the applicability, interpretation, and implementation of any amendment to, or change to governing laws, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations. In addition, we may have to incur expenditures to comply with the requirements of any new regulations, which may also materially harm the results of operations and cash flows. Any unfavourable changes to the laws and regulations applicable to us could also subject us to additional liabilities.

The application of various Indian tax laws, rules, and regulations to our business, currently or in the future, is subject to interpretation by the applicable taxation authorities. If such tax laws, rules, and regulations are amended, new adverse laws, rules or regulations are adopted or current laws are interpreted adversely to our interests, the results could increase our tax payments (prospectively or retrospectively) and/or subject us to penalties.

We may be particularly affected by claims from tax authorities on account of income tax assessment, or service tax and GST assessment. In addition, the tax consequences of the General Anti-Avoidance Rules ("GAAR"), which came into effect from April 1, 2017, being applied to an arrangement could result in denial of tax benefit among other consequences. In the absence of any substantial precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain and may or may not have an adverse tax impact on us.

In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing laws, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

39. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law, which may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions) if they comply with the valuation and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Indian Rupee proceeds from sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. Further, in accordance with press note 3 of 2020, dated April 17, 2020, issued by the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Government of India, all foreign direct investments by entities incorporated in a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the Government of India and shall have to be in conformity with the applicable provisions of the FEMA Rules. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other Indian government agency can be obtained on any particular terms, or at all.

40. Any downgrading of India's debt rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by domestic or international rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing at interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our capital expenditure plans, business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

41. Recent global economic conditions have been challenging and continue to affect the Indian market, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. It is not possible for us to predict the extent and duration of this volatility and adverse impact on the global or Indian securities markets, including any possible impact on our Equity Shares. Negative economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficits, or a default on national debt, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy, including the movement of exchange rates and interest rates in India and could then adversely affect our business, financial performance, and the price of our Equity Shares.

Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Furthermore, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on India. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy.

China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. The sovereign rating downgrades for Brazil and Russia (and the imposition of sanctions on Russia in connection with the Russia-Ukraine war) have also added to the growth risks for these markets. These factors may also result in a slowdown in India's export growth. Any significant financial disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operation.

Such developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had, and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

42. Natural disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (such as typhoons, flooding, and earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics such as COVID - 19, acts of war, terrorist attacks and other events, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic, and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares.

A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1 and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine, and more recently, the COVID-19 virus. Certain countries in Southeast Asia have reported cases of bird-to-human transmission of avian and swine influenza, resulting in numerous human deaths. A worsening of the current outbreak of COVID-19 virus or future outbreaks of COVID-19 virus, avian or swine influenza or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the Indian economy and economic activity in the region and in turn have a material adverse effect on our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Risks relating to our Equity Shares

43. Any future issuance of our Equity Shares may dilute your shareholdings and sales of our Equity Shares by our Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Any future issuance by us may lead to dilution of the Shareholders' holding in our company. In addition, any sales of substantial amounts of our Equity Shares in the public market after listing, including by our Promoters, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares, and could impair the future ability of our Company to raise capital through offerings of our Equity Shares. We cannot predict the effect, if any, that the sale of our Equity Shares held by our Promoters or the availability of these Equity Shares for future sale will have on the market price of our Equity Shares.

44. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the transfer of the Equity Shares.

Earlier, any capital gains realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months were not subject to capital gains tax in India if security transaction tax ("STT") had been paid on the transaction. STT is levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the equity shares are sold. However, the Finance Act, 2018 amended the Income-tax Act, 1961 to levy taxes on such long-term capital gains exceeding ₹ 100,000 arising from sale of listed equity shares on a recognized stock exchange, on or after April 1, 2018. However, for listed equity shares held on or before January 31, 2018, unrealized capital gains earned up to January 31, 2018, on such equity shares continue to be exempt. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold.

In addition, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India in cases where the exemption is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the Equity Shares.

45. Being denominated in the Rupee, the value of our shares may decline based on the value of the Rupee vis-à-vis other currencies.

Our Equity Shares are denominated, and once listed will be traded, in Rupees. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Rupee and foreign currencies or erosion in the value of the Rupee may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results, and could result in a loss of your investment. Further, any dividends on our Equity Shares will also be paid in Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors.

46. The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile.

The market price of our Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, risks stated in this section, market conditions specific to the financial services industry, perception in the market about investments in or estimates by financial analysts of us and our industry, developments relating to India, and volatility in the stock exchanges and securities markets elsewhere in the world.

47. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all and if they are listed you may not be able to immediately sell the Equity Shares.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until Allotment of Equity Shares. There can be no guarantee that these actions will be completed in a timely manner or at all and as a result our Equity Shares may not be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all.

We cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner. Any failure or delay in obtaining final listing and trading approvals may restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

48. Disruption in the electronic brokerage platform of the Indian exchanges and intermediaries.

The brokerage offerings rely on the Indian exchanges, such as NSE, BSE, MCX, MSEI and NCDEX, and the clearing corporations to execute and settle all clients' transactions. The electronic brokerage platform and systems for broking clients are connected to the Indian exchanges and all orders placed by the clients are fulfilled through the Indian exchanges. Further, we also rely on depositories and clearing corporations for settlements of the orders placed on the Indian exchanges. Any disruption in the functioning of the Indian exchanges or the depositories and clearing corporations could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

Economic Outlook

Global economy outlook

As per the International Monetary Fund (IMF)’s World Economic Outlook growth projections released in April 2023, for CY22, global economic growth is estimated at 3.4%, down from 6.3% in CY21 citing disruptions due to the Russia-Ukraine conflict and higher-than-expected inflation worldwide. The global economic growth for CY23 is projected to slow down further to 2.8%, mainly due to tightening global financial conditions, expectations of steeper interest rate hikes by major central banks to fight inflation, a sharper slowdown in China and spill over effects from the war in Ukraine with gas supplies from Russia to Europe tightening. Growth in CY24 is projected to pick up to 3.0%, with expected gradual recovery from the effects of the war in Ukraine and subsiding of inflation. For the next 5 years, the IMF projects world economy growth in the range of 3.0%-3.2% on year on year (Y-o-Y) basis.

Emerging market to lead the growth story

For the Emerging market and developing economies group, GDP growth is estimated to rise modestly to 4.0% in CY22, as compared to 6.9% in CY21, with projected growth of 3.9% in CY23 and 4.2% in CY24. Growth is expected to pick up to 5.2% in China with the full reopening in CY23. Overall, the expected growth in CY24 is on account of anticipation of gradual recovery.

India's GDP growth is estimated at 6.8% in CY22 by IMF. While, projection for CY23 and CY24 stand at 5.9% and 6.3%, respectively with resilient domestic demand despite external headwinds. Emerging economies such as India are likely to grow faster than developed countries and narrow the gap with the developed world.

Additionally, emerging economies are expected to contribute significantly to the global wealth growth in the coming decade.

India to remain fastest growing economy transcending China

Despite the turmoil in last two-three years, India bears good tidings for becoming USD 5 trillion economy by CY27. According to the IMF dataset on Gross Domestic Product (GDP) at current prices for India, the current GDP is estimated to be at USD 3.4 trillion for CY22 and projected to reach USD 5.2 trillion by CY27. The expected GDP growth rate of India for coming years is almost double compared to the world economy.

Besides this, India stands out as the fastest growing economy amongst the major economies. Outshining the growth rate of China, the Indian economy is expected to grow at more than 6% in the period of CY24-CY28.

Indian economy is paving its way towards becoming largest economy in the world. Currently, India is the third largest economy globally in terms of Purchasing Power Parity (PPP) with ~7% share in global economy, with China [~18%] on the top and United states [~15%] being second. Purchasing Power Parity is an economic performance indicator denoting price of an average basket of goods and services that a household needs for livelihood in each country. In spite of the pandemic and the geo-political tensions in Europe, India has been one of the major contributors to world economic growth.

Indian Economy Outlook

Resilience to external shocks remains critical for near-term outlook

In broader sense, the pandemic resulted in 5.8% negative growth for the Indian economy in FY21. The Indian economy bounced back strongly in Q1FY22 with 21.6% y-o-y growth due to lower base effect. The easing of lockdowns and restrictions across states since June coupled with the decline in Covid-19 cases and higher vaccination rate facilitated higher economic activity as reflected in the GDP for the Q2FY22, which grew annually by 9.1%. The dip in Q3FY22 of 5.2% can be attributed to the fading base effect. India's economy recorded modest growth of 4.1% in Q4FY22, down from previous quarter. The economy was hit by the third wave of Covid-19 pandemic during the quarter. Global supply bottlenecks due to the Russia-Ukraine dispute and higher input costs slowed down the pace of recovery in the last quarter. Overall, India is expected to have witnessed 9.1% growth in FY22.

In Q1FY23, India recorded 13.2% growth in GDP which can be largely attributed to better performance by agriculture and services sectors. Following this double-digit growth, Q2FY23 witnessed 6.3% growth, while, Q3FY23 registered 4.4% growth. This slowdown in growth of Q2FY23 and Q3FY23 compared to the Q1FY23 can be attributed to the normalization of the base and a contraction in the manufacturing sector's output. The investments as announced in the Union Budget 2022-23 on boosting public infrastructure through enhanced capital expenditure has augmented growth and encouraged private investment through large multiplier effects in FY23. However, heightened inflationary pressures and resultant policy tightening may pose risk to the growth potential.

Stronger prospects for agricultural and allied activities are likely to boost rural demand. Rebound in contact-intensive sectors and discretionary spending is expected to support urban consumption. Strong credit growth, resilient financial markets, and the government's continued thrust on capital spending and infrastructure create a congenial environment for investment. On the other hand, external demand is likely to be dented by a slowdown in global activity, with adverse implications for exports.

Taking all these factors into consideration, in April 2023, the RBI in its bi-monthly monetary policy meeting estimated the real GDP growth to be at 7.0% for FY23 and 6.5% for FY24 with Q1FY24 at 7.8%, Q2FY24 at 6.2%, Q3FY24 at 6.1% and Q4FY24 at 5.9%.

Concluding Remarks

Despite the global growth uncertainties, Indian economy is relatively better placed. The major headwinds to economic growth are escalating geopolitical tensions, volatility in global commodity prices and shortages of key inputs. However, the bright spots for the economy are continued healthy domestic demand, support from government capital expenditure and improving business confidence. Various high-frequency growth indicators including purchasing managers index, auto sales, bank credit, GST collections have shown improvement in FY23.

Despite high food and fuel inflation pressure, the normalizing employment situation after the opening up of economy is expected to improve and provide support to consumption expenditure.

Public investment is expected to exhibit healthy growth as the government has budgeted for strong capital expenditure in FY24. Private sector's intent to invest is also showing improvement as per the data announced on new investment projects. However, the volatility in commodity prices and the economic uncertainties emanating from global turbulence may slow down the improvement in private capex and investment cycle.

Amongst sectors, the industrial segment is expected to be negatively impacted due to high input prices. Nonetheless, with flagship programmes like 'Make in India' and the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes, the government is continuing to provide the support to boost the industrial sector. Service sector is expected to see continued revival in FY24 with healthy economic growth. However, some segments like information technology in the services sector would feel the pinch of slowdown in the US and European economies.

India Economy is expected to become a 10 Trillion USD economy by 2030-32 propelled by confluence of mega trends like increasing financialization, growing digitization and favourable demographic dividend amongst emerging markets. The target market for wealth management business constitutes approximately 80% of India's wealth thereby presenting a significant untapped market for wealth management companies to cater to.

I. WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Global overview of wealth management industry

Overview

Between 2022-2027, the UHNI population is expected to further grow by around 28.5% thereby growing nearly double in a decade and reaching around 7.5 lakhs in 2027 compared to around 4.0 lakhs UHNIs in 2017.

The HNI (Individuals whose net worth is USD 1 million or more, including their primary residence are High Net Worth Individuals) populations is expected to grow by around 57% between 2022-27 reaching around 1,090 lakhs by 2027.

Emerging trends in the global wealth management industry

- Regulation and compliance

Increasing regulatory complexity-The global financial crisis paved the way for increased regulatory scrutiny and tighter oversight of the wealth management industry. It is not just the sheer volume of new regulations, but also uncertainties regarding the interpretation of regulations, delayed timelines and inconsistencies between regulators that are materially increasing the risk of non-compliance as well as challenging existing business models. One of the biggest challenges that wealth managers will continue to face is keeping up with the dynamic regulatory environment in their home jurisdictions and in international markets.

Focus on international tax transparency-The overall stance on tax transparency is becoming more intense, with supranational organizations driving regulatory initiatives. Going forward, international efforts to reduce tax arbitrage and improve transparency will accelerate and it will become harder to avoid taxation. Going forward, there will be more regulatory requirements that wealth managers will need to meet. The stream of new and revised regulations will continue, triggered by efforts to harmonize national regulations globally to ensure a level playing field.

- Changing client needs

New generation of client- The wealth management industry is witnessing a phase of change as its largest investor segment, the baby boomers (born between 1946 and 1965), is in the retirement phase and assets are being transferred to the next generation of investors: Gen-X (born between 1966 and 1980) and Gen-Y/millennials (born after 1980). Currently, millennials are the largest and fastest-growing adult segment across the globe and represent the greatest opportunity for the wealth management industry. Millennials are not only growing in number, but also accumulating assets at an impressive rate. In fact, millennials are entering their prime earnings years and also have the prospect of large inheritances. They have the potential to become the wealthiest generation in history. Notably, this group of investors is different from their predecessors in terms of attitudes toward managing their finances and expectations in relation to client experience. While baby boomers were keener on investing in stocks and particularly interested in diversifying their assets, millennials tend to hold more cash (40% of assets are in cash) and are distrustful of the stock market (90% of millennials are intimidated by the stock market) mainly on account of their experience with the global financial crisis. Moreover, millennials' investment objectives are diverse and vary across asset classes as well as regions.

Empowered clients- Client needs and expectations are changing dramatically with regards to client experience, quality of service and delivery channels. The industry is witnessing a change in demand for products and services as well as preferred channels for client engagement. Digital capabilities are at the top of the list of wealth management clients' must-haves. Clients are increasingly demanding that wealth management firms offer more interactions — from account opening to the provision of advice — through digital channels. The new wave of empowered clients is challenging the status quo in wealth management.

Reducing customer loyalty - Customer loyalty is declining as clients have become wary of their financial service providers following the financial crisis and barriers in switching between financial firms have reduced. According to industry data, 73% of wealth management clients have relationships with multiple wealth managers and 4 out of 10 clients are open to switching wealth managers. This represents incremental revenue opportunity of US$ 175b–US$ 200b (based on the fact that global wealth managers manage client assets worth ~US$ 120t) for firms willing to make strategic investments to improve their client experience. Moreover, trust and price sensitivity issues have led some new generation investors to explore do-it-yourself investing. This trend is supported by the rise of automated invested platforms (robo-advisors).

Clients are eager for a new level of public transparency- Investors have overwhelmingly identified transparency of portfolio performance and fees as one of the key requisites in the rapidly transforming wealth management space. However, the traditional views of transparency are no longer enough and investors are demanding a new level of public transparency. Clients are eager to rate their advisors and connect with like-minded clients in public forums to exchange ideas and share positive and negative experiences. For instance, social media can be used as a platform to review or rate advisors.

Changing fee-structure preferences- Currently, the global wealth management industry follows a transaction-based (i.e., commissions) or an asset-based compensation model. However, client preference for fixed fees is rising, while preference toward both asset-based fees and commissions is on the decline. Furthermore, clients are becoming less sure about how they want to be charged in every single region.

- Competitive environment

The competitive landscape for wealth managers is multidimensional, involving traditional and non-traditional players. A majority of respondent wealth managers agree that the industry is facing significant competitive pressures.

Traditional players rebalancing structures- Several players are rebalancing their international wealth management operations. While some wealth management players are focusing on high-growth markets, such as Asia-Pacific, others are exiting the international wealth management industry entirely.

India's Financial Wealth

Note: Financial wealth includes investments in assets class such as bonds, insurance, stocks, cash and bank deposits

Given India's long-term economic prospects, positive demographics, rising income levels, and current low penetration, Indian wealth management market is on a steady upward trajectory. While India's wealthy individuals are less in comparison with established markets, the country's wealth is expected to expand rapidly in the future. The key factors for growth in wealth management business in India are large and young mass affluent segment, an increase in wealth of global Indians', the Indian government's push to regulate illegal channels of funds and tightening of capital market regulations.

In the coming years, financial wealth is expected to see continued growth and investment asset class is likely to growth at a higher pace.

The demographic difference presents an opportunity to create new products to address the needs of a young population and leverage new technologies, such as social and software-based investing applications as a key differentiator. Indian wealth management industry is largely focused on the urban segment, leaving untapped majority of Indian population. One of the key factors for advisors is to develop trust with the potential investors where advisors constantly need to build its brand, focus on overcoming trust barriers, invest in technology and focus on transparency and compliance.

With increase in start-ups, rising income levels and friendly macro factors with ease of doing business, young HNI population in India is expected to rise. There is a big opportunity for a wealth management firm to tap into an underpenetrated market with huge upside growth potential for wealth managers.

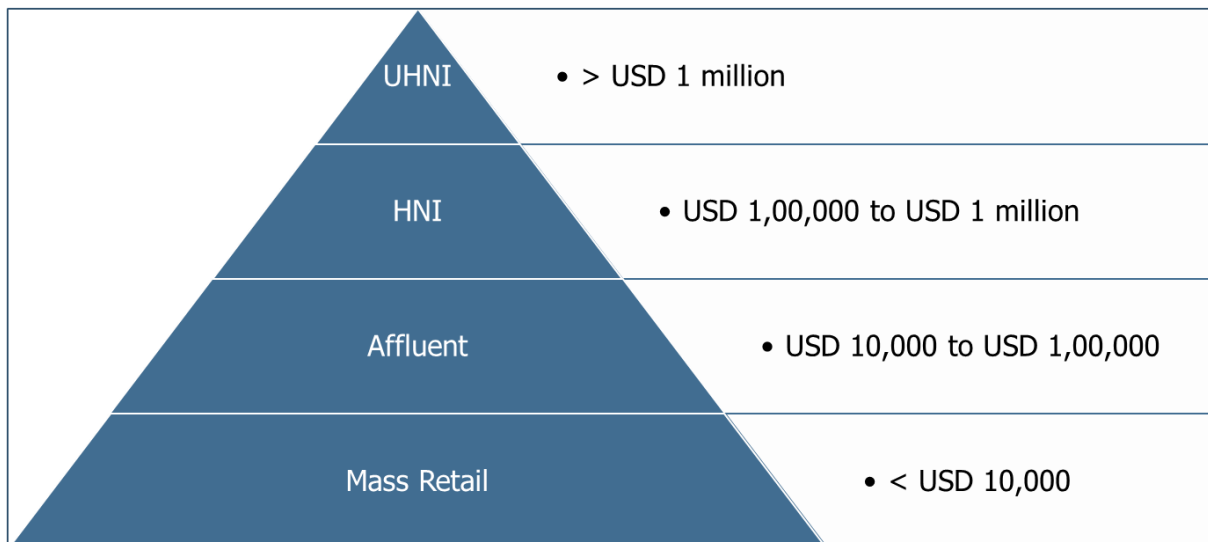

There is steady growth in number of client's interest towards:

- 1) Access to Mutual Fund / Other financial Product Distribution
- 2) Financial Planning (specific short term and long-term goals) Advice
- 3) Tax Planning Advice
- 4) Estate Planning Advice
- 5) Wealth Management Advice

The Indian wealth management market is on a sustained path of growth, given India's long-term economic prospects, positive demographics, rising income levels and current low penetration.

Based on the investment corpus available with the individuals, CareEdge Research has grouped individuals in following four categories -

Wealth Pyramid

Source: CareEdge Research

The first three segments of the wealth pyramid namely ultra-high net worth individuals (UHNI), high net-worth individuals (HNI) and affluent contribute to more than 80% of India's wealth. A large base of low-wealth holders underpins higher tiers occupied by progressively fewer adults. The inequality has also increased due to the rise in the value of financial assets during the Covid-19 pandemic. Over the years, there has been significant ramp-up in the affluent segment supported by the emerging economy and expansion of middle-class population.

In the medium to long term, UHNI, HNI and affluents segment are likely to see tremendous growth on the back of growth in Indian economic, rising affluence and financialization of assets. India's HNI population is expected to grow more than double by 2027 over 2022, making it one of the world's fastest-growing wealth markets.

Key trends of the wealth management industry in India

- Need for Advisory

Financial markets have become complex due to a wide variety of investment options available in the market today. Investors are often confused as to which products to invest in and how to determine the suitability of the investment based on their risk-return profile. As a result, the demand for an unbiased wealth manager who guide them appropriately has increased significantly. Investors value holistic advice on how to achieve multiple, often conflicting, financial goals using a range of investment techniques and funding strategies.

While this means new opportunities for the wealth managers, excessive competition has also posed new challenges to sustain, grow, and thrive in the market. This is a challenging macro environment for investors and their advisors to find the right return-risk combination. Increasing regulatory burdens and rising costs of risk pose new challenges to wealth management firms.

- Goal Based Planning over Wealth maximization

Investors are becoming increasingly aware of milestone-based planning and want to plan ahead for them. These goals can be short-term, such as purchasing the latest phone or taking a vacation, or long-term, such as a child's education, retirement, and so on. In order to keep up with the changing investor behaviour, wealth managers are rethinking their wealth management strategies beyond wealth maximisation and offer financial planning solutions that cater investor's goals.

- Digitization of wealth management

Investors have been exposed to the world of technology thanks to the rise of smartphones and internet access. Investors are increasingly gravitating towards platforms with simple user interfaces that allow them to make investments with the swipe of a finger. The need for wealth management infrastructure to be digitalized has never been greater. Digital wealth management is more than just providing digital channels for transacting. It also includes employing technology to provide higher value, professional service, and an improved investment experience for customers, all while remaining objective.

The rise of digitalization has also given rise to robo-advisors, which are automated, Algo-based systems that provide wealth management advice. These user-friendly platforms have made the whole investment process accessible and affordable to a large section of people, thus bringing science and human combination in advisory models.

Big data and advanced analytics are transforming the industry with new ways to engage with new clients, manage client relationships and manage risks. Collaborating with wealth tech providers can help the traditional wealth advisory firms expand their capabilities and enhance digitalization faster and in a cost-effective manner.

Outlook for wealth management Industry

The Indian wealth management industry witnessed a structural shift over the past few years on account of changing demographics, increase in the number of millennials focusing on investing, and increased penetration of digitization. The pandemic-led 2021 accelerated the shift from traditional investing avenues such as bank deposits to equities.

Cumulatively, both the depositories (NSDL and CDSL) have added 21 lakh new accounts in FY23 (April to February), with CDSL itself accounting for 17 lakhs new demat accounts, indicating that renewed optimism surrounding growth and the resultant exuberance in stock markets drew many first-time investors.

The increase in focus on wealth management comes as investors are more aware and attuned to current events and are actively planning their finances to meet their financial goals or to plan for the difficult times. Additionally, there is a growing trend towards achieving financial self-reliance for meeting discretionary spends and maintaining lifestyle.

Indian household savings have also been witnessing some considerable structural shifts of late.

Households in India have historically been quite risk-averse and wary of investing their savings into volatile or uncertain return-based assets. A pursuit of safe bets has always driven India towards making investments in assets like gold which are considered to have limited downside risk. This pattern has changed over time, especially since demonetization in November 2016. Also, the country has seen a major shift in attitude from capital preservation to wealth creation from FY17.

In FY24, the growth of the wealth management industry is likely to be stable on account of growing engagement of millennials towards investing coupled with higher disposable income, increased savings and uplift in confidence among retail investors.

Furthermore, increase in start-ups, rising income levels and friendly macro factors with ease of doing business will drive the growth of the young HNI population in India, this is likely to create huge opportunity for a wealth management firms to tap into an underpenetrated market with huge upside growth potential for wealth managers. CareEdge Research expects the following trend to drive the growth of the wealth management industry.

Need for reliable advice – The complexity of the financial markets can be a deterrent due to the many investment options at hand. A lay investor is likely to face headwinds due to the inability to understand the suitability of options with his/her own risk appetite and goals. This gives rise to need of a knowledgeable and reliable wealth manager who can guide the investor through many goals click using different investment and funding strategies.

Increase in wealth advisory platforms – The advent of the internet and rise in smartphone penetration has opened up newer wealth advisory platforms for investors. This has resulted in investors accessing platforms having easy-to-use interfaces where investments are made at the of the finger.

Digital wealth management also includes using technology to offer more value, better services and enhance the customer's investor experience. Wealth advisory platforms also make the investment process accessible and affordable to a large section of people, thus increasing the reach of the wealth management industry.

Financial planning to achieve goals – Investors today are focusing on milestone-based planning and want to invest for them adequately. These investment goals can be short-term and related to purchases or longer-term goals such as education or retirement. Wealth managers need to rethink their strategies to not only focus on wealth maximization but also on financial planning solutions covering the different timelines.

Shift from traditional asset classes – Retail investors are moving beyond traditional asset classes like fixed deposits due to their sub-optimal real returns. They are looking for access to asset classes and investment strategies deployed by HNIs and want to explore alternative assets. Wealth managers are therefore offering products beyond those that are conventional in nature to attract greater participation from this stratum of clientele. Additionally, wealth management is moving from being a one-product-fits-all to more customized advisory based on the risk appetite, goals and time horizons of the customers.

In sum, a change in the perception of investing of customers, increased participation of millennials in investing and newer developments in technology will aid the growth of the wealth management industry, going forward.

II. ASSET MANAGEMENT

Overview of various products

- Structured Products / market-Linked debentures (MLD)

Structured products are a blend of fixed-income and derivative instruments. Its layer of derivatives gives it the flexibility needed to blend with a portfolio and enhance its risk-to-return performance while matching an investor's objectives.

Market-Linked Debentures (MLD) is a debt instrument that differs from a standard fixed-income security in the sense that the coupon on the instrument is linked to a variable market indicator such as an equity index, commodity price such as gold, etc. Structured Products / MLDs are generally close ended hybrid instruments which could be either with principle protection or without principle protection. The underlying security is generally a non-convertible debenture of the issuer linked to an equity index (nifty 50, bank nifty etc.), 10-year G-Sec, gold index etc. The tenure of MLDs ranges between 13 to 60 months depending upon issuers funding requirement. Unlike a bond that pays a fixed interest either monthly, quarterly, half yearly or annually, MLDs do not pay any regular income, it comes only at maturity. Theoretically these MLDs can be considered to be a zero-coupon bond and an embedded customized payoff that could be an equity option.

MLDs are primarily of two types i.e. principal protected (PP) and non-principal protected (NPP).

Principal protected MLDs: A principal-protected instrument designed to return 100% of the original investment at maturity subject to credit risk of the issuer. While a portion of the capital may be invested by the issuer in debt instruments to bring in the feature of capital protection, the return may be linked to an external market indicator such as equity index to capture the market upside.

Non-principal protected MLDs: MLD wherein the issuers may also issue non-principal protected instruments wherein both the principal as well as coupon are linked to performance of external market indices.

Demand drivers of MLDs

- Higher participation from corporates in addition to existing HNIs,
- Increase in ticket size
- Acceptance of MLDs with underlying other than Nifty (i.e. G-sec, corporate bonds etc.)
- Investors' emphasis on downside protection in volatile market conditions.

The supply side of market grew on the back of rise in number of issuers and - Increase in number of distributors.

III. CAPITAL MARKETS

- Institutional Equities

Broking Services

A broker is an individual or firm that acts as an intermediary between an investor and a securities exchange. Because securities exchanges only accept orders from individuals or firms who are members of that exchange, individual traders and investors need the services of exchange members. Brokers provide that service and are compensated in various ways, either through commissions, fees or through being paid by the exchange itself. Investors trade in equities in the cash-delivery, cash-intraday, futures and options, indices – derivatives segment through various order types, including market orders, stop-loss orders and valid till cancelled orders.

i) Products: The broking business primarily comprises broking services that offer retail clients trading in equities, equity derivatives, commodities and currency derivatives. The products for broking services for clients to trade in are as follows:

- Equities: Stocks listed on BSE and NSE.
- Equity Derivatives: Futures and options related to indices and stocks listed on the Stock Exchanges.
- Currency: Derivatives and future and options in U.S. Dollar, Euros, British Pound and the Japanese Yen.
- Commodities: Commodities futures and options listed on MCX and NCDEX.

ii) Client Acquisition: Broking business is anchored by a retail client. Acquisition of clients is done either directly by the broking firm itself or through its exclusive sub-broker network. This may be done through organic leads, paid leads or dedicated sales teams through both online and offline channels.

iii) Platforms: Broking services are provided through various web, digital and exe. platforms. Almost all broking companies have their websites on which clients do trading on the stock market. Nowadays, mobile applications have also become a necessary platform for all brokers as people prefer trading in stock through their smartphones.

1. Research Services

Broking companies have a dedicated research team that publishes research reports on a daily, weekly and monthly basis for their clients, to enable them to make informed investment decisions across equity, commodity and currency segments.

2. Investment Advisory

Brokers provide investment advisory services to their retail clients with customized investment recommendations which assist their clients in achieving their investment goals across various investment avenues such as equities, debt, currency, commodities, derivatives, mutual funds and insurance products.

3. Investor Education

The website of various broking companies is a knowledge centre that aims to empower investors, including their clients, with an understanding in respect of trading and investments products.

4. Other Financial Services: In addition to broking and advisory services, various brokers also provide the following financial services that enable their clients to achieve their financial goals:

- Margin Trading Facility: They provide a margin trading facility to the clients for leveraging their eligible collaterals by funding their requirements on the cash delivery segment of equities. Such funding is subject to exposure against margins that are mandated by the stock exchanges, with the securities forming a part of the collateral for such funding.

- Distribution: They undertake the distribution of third-party financial products such as mutual funds, and health and life insurance products, according to their clients' requirements. Such distribution is undertaken through both offline channels and digital platforms.
- Loans against shares: Few broking companies, which are registered as an NBFC, provide loans against shares to their retail clients.

Digital trading platforms provide brokerages with enhanced scalability

With the domestic brokerage industry evolving, various brokers distinguish themselves from others in terms of their service offering to the customers including lower fees, lower maintenance charges, faster turnaround times for account opening, better security features, faster access to systems, etc.

In addition, the evolution of technology has helped them further penetrate their target customer segment faster. It offers the ease of scalability, which reduces their operating cost per customer and improves their profitability. Facilities supplementing mobile-based trading, such as live TV, advanced research reports, push notifications, enhanced price discovery settings, etc., help enhance the user experience for their customers helping them with better retention.

With the advent of modern platforms, brokers have put in place infrastructure which lowers the variable operating cost per customer considerably due to its scalable nature. The same platforms that cater to existing clientele can scale up to accommodate multiple new users. This helps them price their offerings lower and, in many cases, charge fixed transaction-based fees or even charge no fee for delivery-based transactions.

Investments in Indian Equities by Mutual Funds

During the first half of FY21, as the uncertainty surrounding the Covid-19 pandemic led to lack of stability in financial market and increased market fluctuations, the net investments declined. In FY22, the markets began to recover with resumption of economic activity and correction of market led to rise in net investments. During FY23, the net investments in Indian equities by Mutual funds decreased marginally by 7.6% to nearly Rs. 1.6 lakh crores from around Rs. 1.7 lakh crores in FY22.

Trends in trading activity of Domestic Institutional Investors

Source: NSE, CareEdge Research

Over the years, the net purchase/sales of domestic institution investors in the cash segment have increased by more than three-fold. This grip of domestic institutional investor at a time when the net investments of foreign institutional investments are waning, is making the Indian capital market less susceptible to external influences. The domestic institutional investors are expected to see continued growth as they march towards Atmanirbharta (self-reliance) of Indian capital markets.

Investments in Indian Equities by Foreign Institutional Investors

Source: CMIE, CareEdge Research

In FY21, investments in Indian equities by foreign institutional investors were at all time high over since 2017 on account of excess liquidity in the global financial system, high valuation of Indian equity markets and rise in global inflation. In FY22, investments in Indian equities by foreign institutional investors declined significantly amid rising expectations of US-fed rates to combat inflation and high volatility in the market led by the ongoing geo-political tensions in the later part of 2021-22.

During FY23, investments by foreign institutional investors in Indian equities continued to decline. This decline is mainly on account of currency volatility, rising inflation and fear surrounding the likelihood of global economy slipping into recession.

Outlook of Stock Broking Industry

Indian brokerage industry is likely to see moderate growth in the near term owing to volatility in the financial market, rising inflation, and rising crude oil prices. Additionally, the uncertainty surrounding the geo-political tensions between Russia and Ukraine which has impacted various sectors such as oil sector, automobiles, edible oil and agriculture sector has affected the financial market and is likely to further hamper the growth of stock broking industry in the near term.

Indian stock broking industry is expected to face operational as well as funding challenges as the global economy is under fears of recession, which could have a bearing on their performance in terms of growth and profitability. Along with this, the collapse of global banks facing liquidity crunch and insolvency issues may affect the stability in the economy. Moreover, soaring interest rates by central banks around the world to combat inflation post the Covid-19 pandemic, has impacted and will continue to dampen the sentiments of the investors thereby further impacting growth of the stock market industry.

Brokerage firms are likely to see moderate growth in new client additions. This growth is likely to be supported by untapped market in the retail segment, coupled with favourable demographics, rising financial literacy. Further, deeper penetration smartphone faster internet, and simplification of trading applications will make it possible for an increasing percentage of people across age groups to trade with ease. However, this growth can be hampered on account of continued market fluctuations, rising inflation, currency volatility, that is affecting investor sentiments and impacting the growth of the stock market industry.

Index Movement

Source: NSE, BSE, CareEdge Research

The Indian capital markets have been on a steady growth trajectory since May 2020. The Government's decision of imposing a nationwide lockdown impacted the markets and subsequently, both Nifty and Sensex crashed to multi-year lows. However, investors tried to use the temporary weakness in the market to build their portfolios and this, coupled with a sharp cut in bank deposits, drew more investor participation in equities. This resulted in the indices witnessing a return to growth as early as May 2020. However, currently (Mar'23) the indices are showing a downward trend amid the fluctuations in the market caused by increase in interest rates by RBI, rise in inflation and uncertainty surrounding the ongoing geo-political tensions.

Key growth drivers for investment banking

- Merger and acquisitions (M&A): Merger and acquisitions in the country contribute towards the core part of investment banking as it helps companies in planning, business valuation, assessing the current market performance, strategy management, due diligence etc. During the year 2022, the M&A deals observed a slowdown in market due to the macroeconomic factors such as rising interest rates, fear of recession and volatility in the market. However, it is expected that M&A transactions will increase in 2023 despite the current market conditions, there by adding the volume of advisory services in investment banks.
- Initial public offer (IPO): Private companies in India are opting for IPOs for raising capital through primary market. In FY22, the number of total equity issues have doubled to 164 issues form 78 issues in FY21 and in terms of value it has increased by 26%. During FY23 (April 2022 to February 2023), the number of total equity issues increased to 201 issues indicating a growth of 158% over FY21 however in terms of value it has decreased by 43%. Eventually, this rise in issues will lead to the growth in advisory services for investment banks.

- Increasing demand for additional capital: Companies require more capital for expansion of their businesses. Other than IPOs, investment banks also provide services for raising funds through debt, private placements etc. which provides them a continuous edge in the industry and this will boost the demand for investment banking services.
- Advancement in Technology: It has become important for investment banks to adapt to the changing technology on timely basis as it helps them provide quick and efficient services. This kind of adoption to digital technology and investing in innovative advanced technology gives them a competitive edge in the market. The digital transformation helps banks in cost reduction, enable transparency and enhance the experience of customers.
- Global presence: Demand for investment banking services across the international nations is increasing on account of expansion of business operations, capital fund raising, trading activities and development in merger & acquisitions globally. This involves seeking financial and advisory services for the firms from investment banks, thus increasing their presence globally.
- Asset Services

Custody service providers (Custodians) are clearing members who clears and settles trades through the Clearing Corporation, either on their own account or on behalf of their clients. Custodians are not trading members. The custodian is required to confirm with the exchange whether the custodian is going to settle that trade or not. In case if the custodian confirms the trade, clearing corporation assigns the obligation to the custodian. In case if the custodian rejects the trade, the obligation is assigned back to the trading member.

In terms of newer offerings, technology adoption, geographic reach, business models, etc., the world of custodians) has changed significantly over the years. Custodians have countless opportunities to grow as a result of the shifting custody service market, including ways to increase productivity, lower risk, and provide better services to clients.

The custody service ecosystem needs to reach a particular level of maturity with regard to industry structure, risk management, technology adoption, laws, etc. in order to exploit potential and shape the growth story of the Indian custody services market. Indian suppliers of custody services can also pick up tips from their international competitors, implement the necessary best practises, and take steps to increase investor confidence. Providers of custody services are specialised financial organisations that are crucial to the operation of a nation's securities market. They are in charge of avoiding the danger of theft or loss and protecting the financial assets of investors (both institutional and individual). They have developed beyond their historical function of offering safeguarding services to now provide a variety of financial and information services to their customers. There were a few foreign banks and non-bank custodians in the Indian market at first. With the dematerialization of assets in the mid-1990s, more international banks joined the existing custodian companies, speeding up the expansion of custody services. Indian full-service banks and a few other non-banks gradually entered the market as a result of the rise in local and international investments after applying for a custodian licence with SEBI.

The three largest customer categories for custody services are FPIs (28%), mutual funds (19%), and insurance companies (17%), which together account for more than 65% of the entire Indian AUC.

Our Strategies

Wealth and Asset management business would remain to be our key growth drivers in coming years. We will continue to benefit from sectorial tailwinds and with our established presence we will be able to benefit from this growth story. We will also continue to maintain our strong positioning in capital markets, a segment which has matured over years. This will ensure our ability to provide full-service proposition to our wealth management clients.

The key elements of our strategy are detailed as follows:

Wealth Management

We will leverage the growing wealth opportunity in India by continuing to acquire new clients, deepen the relationship with existing clients, invest in relationship management teams and channel partners, expand to new geographies, broaden our products range and cross-sell various offerings across verticals. Key strategic drivers across our sub segments as under:

Ultra HNI

1. Client acquisition and client deepening: We aim to increase our geographical reach to new locations including tier 2 and select tier 3 towns in India and increase number of relationship managers at existing markets with large business potential. We may also expand at few international markets where there is a dense Indian diaspora with interest in India related solutions. In line with the regulatory changes, we will steer the business towards increase in revenues from recurring revenue assets which should lead to increase in yields over time.

1. Product innovation: We are a unique wealth management player with dedicated presence in UHNI and HNI/affluent categories. This gives us significant advantage to leverage the product sophistication and innovation in the upper segment and customise it for the middle segment of the pyramid. We plan to customise products like multi-asset PMS, fixed income PMS under our infinity platform and make it available at large for HNI/affluent clients. This would meaningfully increase the access to solutions available to RMs, clients, and also help us improve yields and productivity.
2. Increasing RMs and productivity: RMs are one of the building blocks for our business, and technology is the enabler to deliver the solutions with efficiency. We have demonstrated ourselves as proven engine for RM acquisition and productivity growth. We have grown our strength by nearly 50% in the last three years and have 889 RMs as on March 31, 2023, along with a higher rate of revenue and profitability growth driven by productivity improvements. We further aim to invest across geographies beyond Tier 1 and Tier 2 cities, where wealth levels have grown substantially but wealth management services have yet not penetrated. We believe with our scaled, integrated and differentiated platform, which enables RMs to offer variety of solutions, our ability to attract and retain the talent is high. This would enable us to grow our RM workforce and productivity and drive the growth expected from client segment in years to come.
3. Strengthening technology ecosystem: We will invest in technology and continue to follow a hybrid model combining the best of technology and human relationships to drive efficient growth in this segment. We will continue to make use of technology across the value chain like digital acquisitions, offer advisory, servicing and providing relevant insights to customers. Information technology ("IT")

We believe that technology will play an increasingly crucial role in delivering wealth management services as well as building superior client advisory and engagement. Technologies used across our business segments and enterprise functions can be classified as follows:

- Client applications: These are custom bespoke applications, mainly designed and developed in-house and customised to service core needs of our clients. These would include our transaction processing, reporting, servicing, and advisory platforms like 'Nuvama Markets' mobile application, 'Nuvama Private' mobile application and other technology platforms such as www.nuvamawealth.com, bull-pen (an inhouse platform which provides assisted execution of all investment products) which help us in delivering enhanced client experience and convenience of execution. Our asset management business has created platform SWIFT, one of the most comprehensive and feature-rich distributor workstations for AIF and PMS products.
- Middleware: We follow a hybrid approach wherein we would either license and customise or build these applications inhouse. These would include our onboarding applications, client relationship management tools etc.
- Core applications: Our choice for these applications is largely Commercial off-the-shelf ("COTS") system. These are standard market leading applications and would include core transaction processing, trading platforms, accounting systems etc.

We continue to invest in technology-based innovations for improved customer experience and digitization for efficiency. To innovate constantly we upgrade our digital footprints on a regular basis.

We have invested in a high-performance, low-latency network infrastructure, utilizing top-of-the-line series of network devices provided and serviced by industry leaders. These enterprise-grade devices not only support secure and reliable connections but also enable users to implement an intent-based, future-ready WAN that constantly learns, adapts, and safeguards our network. Our IT infrastructure, including both primary and disaster recovery, is hosted at a Tier 3+ data center. These setups boast a high level of security, featuring seven layers of protection and state-of-the-art equipment. Furthermore, we have partnered with two leading cloud service providers, ensuring redundancy through multiple availability zones.

We have an in-house information security team backed by a suite of best-in-class security tools. We leverage over seven tools listed in Gartner's top quadrant to fortify our defenses. Furthermore, we are actively working towards implementing a "zero trust" security concept, which has gained popularity in the digital world. This approach assumes that no user, device, or application can be inherently trusted, and every access request should be thoroughly scrutinized before being granted. We believe that traditional security models relying on perimeter-based defenses are no longer sufficient to protect against advanced threats. Cloud security is one of our primary focuses, and we have implemented robust access controls and encryption measures to safeguard data in transit and at rest, effectively protecting it from unauthorized access. We have dedicated security solutions and a Security Operations Center (SOC) monitoring our cloud environment for security threats and vulnerabilities. Regular security assessments are conducted to identify and address potential security risks in our cloud environment.

We believe our robust infrastructure, advanced security measures, and constant commitment to improving our security posture allow us to protect our systems and data from emerging threats.

Risk management

Risk management forms an integral part of our business, and we recognize the importance of risk management towards our long-term success. We have established strong and effective system for risk management and internal controls which promotes stability in our organization. We have classified the key risks associated with our business into market risk, liquidity risk, regulatory risk, default by client and other risk including credit risk, operational risk, fraud risk and information technology risk. We have established a comprehensive risk policy for all our business segments. Our various policies framed for each business segment set forth the limits, mitigation strategies and internal controls to be implemented.

The Risk Management Committee and Audit Committee oversee and review the risk management framework, the key risks and mitigation strategies. Our management is also responsible for ensuring that the risk management framework is effectively implemented within all areas of their respective functions.

Risk assessment and mitigation strategy is an integral part of the organization's annual reviews. Our internal auditor carries out internal control reviews and provides an independent report to the Audit Committee on the adequacy and effectiveness of the risk management and internal controls of the organization. Any material non-compliance and internal control weaknesses are reported to the Audit Committee.

Our businesses are exposed to various risks that are intrinsic to the nature of our business or exist consequent to the macro-economic changes. Our risk management practices have been designed and implemented taking into consideration the varying needs of our organization, operating structure, business operations and regulatory requirements.

The systems that are in place are intended to provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatements or loss, as well as to ensure the safeguarding of assets, the maintenance of proper accounting records, the reliability of financial information, compliance with applicable legislation, regulations and best practices, and the identification and management of risks.

As a crucial first step in this journey, we have conducted the comprehensive materiality assessment that allowed us to identify the topics of utmost importance to our stakeholders. This also involved, analysing industry peers' practices and consulting relevant sustainability standards and frameworks, particularly tailored to the financial sector. Through this approach, we have constructed a comprehensive universe of material topics that we will prioritize and focus upon from an ESG perspective.

As we move along in our journey, we plan to continue with the existing good practices across ESG subjects and embark on new initiatives to further fortify our business and help our clients and communities do the same. 3. Presentation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information

The Group presents its Statement of Assets and Liabilities in order of liquidity in compliance with the Division III of the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. An analysis regarding recovery or settlement within 12 months after the reporting date (current) and more than 12 months after the reporting date (non-current) is presented in note 49.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. They are only offset and reported net when, in addition to having an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event, the parties also intend to settle on a net basis in all of the following circumstances:

- The normal course of business
- The event of default
- The event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and/or its counterparties

Derivative assets and liabilities with master netting arrangements [e.g. ISDAs (International Swaps and Derivatives Association)] are only presented net when they satisfy the eligibility of netting for all of the above criteria and not just in the event of default.

4. Basis of consolidation:

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information comprise the restated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company consolidates a subsidiary when it controls it. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights result in control. To support this presumption and when the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights
- The size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of the holdings of the other voting rights holders

The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee, if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

restated consolidated financial information from the date the Group gains control until the date the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Restated Consolidated Financial Information are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. If a subsidiary/associate of the Group uses accounting policies other than those adopted in the restated consolidated financial information for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, appropriate adjustments are made to that Group subsidiary's/associate's financial statements in preparing the restated consolidated financial information to ensure conformity with the Group's accounting policies. However, no subsidiaries and associates have followed different accounting policies than those followed by the Group for the preparation of these restated consolidated financial information.

The restated financial information of all entities used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the parent Group, i.e., year ended on March 31.

Consolidation procedure:

- a. Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information at the acquisition date.
- b. Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent's investment in each subsidiary and the parent's portion of equity of each subsidiary.
- c. Eliminate in full intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the Group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, are eliminated in full). Income Taxes applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.

Profit or loss and each component of OCI are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intra-group assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- a. Derecognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost
- b. Derecognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- c. Derecognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- d. Recognises the fair value of the consideration received

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

- e. Recognises the fair value of any investment retained
- f. Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss
- g. Recognise that distribution of shares of subsidiary to Group in Group's capacity as owners
- h. Reclassifies the parent's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or transferred directly to retained earnings, if required by other Ind ASs as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

Disclosures for investment Interest in other entities are provided in Note 57.

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information of all subsidiaries incorporated outside India are converted on the following basis: (a) Income and expenses are converted at the average rate of exchange applicable for the period/year and (b) All assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate as on the Balance Sheet date. The exchange difference arising out of period/year end translation is debited or credited as "Foreign Exchange Translation Reserve" forming part of Other Comprehensive Income and accumulated as a separate component of other equity.

Investment in associates:

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decision of the investee, but it's not control or joint control over those policies.

The considerations made in determining whether significant influence are similar to those necessary to determine control over the subsidiaries.

The Group's investment in its associate is accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investment in an associate is initially recognised at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognise changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date.

The statement of profit and loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the associate. Any change in other comprehensive income (OCI) of those investees is presented as a part of the Group's other comprehensive income (OCI).

The restated financial statements of the associate are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group. When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an impairment loss on its investment in its associate. At each reporting date, the Group determines whether there is objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If there is such evidence, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and then recognises the loss in the statement of profit and loss.

5. Significant accounting policies

5.1 Revenue from contract with customer

Revenue is measured at transaction price i.e. the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The Group consider the terms of the contracts and its customary business practices to determine the transaction price. Where the consideration promised is variable, the Group excludes the estimates of variable consideration that are constrained. The Group applies the five-step approach for recognition of revenue:

- i. Identification of contract(s) with customers;
- ii. Identification of the separate performance obligations in the contract;
- iii. Determination of transaction price;
- iv. Allocation of transaction price to the separate performance obligations; and
- v. Recognition of revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

The group recognises revenue from the following sources:

- a. Brokerage income including client subscription fees is recognised as per contracted rates at the point in time when transaction's performance obligation is satisfies on behalf of the customers on the trade date.
- b. Fee income including advisory fees, referral fees, commission income, fund accounting etc. is accounted on an accrual basis as per Ind AS 115 in accordance with the terms and contracts entered into between the Group and the counterparty and presented service transferred at point in time and over time

Clearing fees income arises, when the performance obligation related to the trade is executed and a valid contract is generated for the trade.

Research services fee income and Interest on delayed payments is accounted when there is reasonable certainty as to its receipts.

5.2 Recognition of interest income and dividend income

5.2.1 Interest income:

Under Ind AS 109 interest income is recorded using the effective interest rate (EIR) method for all financial instruments measured at amortised cost and debt instrument measured at FVOCI. The EIR is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash flows through the expected life of the financial instrument or, when appropriate a shorter period to the gross carrying amount of financial instrument.

The EIR is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition, fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The Group recognises interest income using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected life of the financial asset. Hence, it recognises the effect of potentially different

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

interest rates charged at various stages, and other characteristics of the product life cycle including prepayments penalty interest and charges.

If expectations regarding the cash flows on the financial asset are revised for reasons other than credit risk, the adjustment is booked as a positive or negative adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset in the balance sheet with an increase or reduction in interest income.

The Group calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets.

When a financial asset becomes credit-impaired and is, therefore, regarded as 'Stage 3', the Group calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the amortised cost (net of expected credit loss) of the financial asset. If the financial asset cures and is no longer credit-impaired, the Group reverts to calculating interest income on a gross basis.

5.2.2 Dividend income:

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

5.3 Financial Instruments

5.3.1 Date of recognition

Financial assets and financial liabilities with exception of borrowings are initially recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. This includes regular way trades; purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace. The Group recognises borrowings when funds are received by the Group.

5.3.2 Initial measurement of financial instruments

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under Ind AS 115. Refer to the accounting policies in section 5.1 Revenue from contracts with customers.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

5.3.3 Day 1 profit or loss

When the transaction price of the financial instrument differs from the fair value at origination and the fair value is based on a valuation technique using only inputs observable in market transactions, the Group recognises the difference between the transaction price and fair value in net gain on fair value changes. In those cases where fair value is based on models for which some of the inputs are not observable, the difference between the transaction price and the fair value is deferred and is only recognised in statement of profit and loss when the inputs become observable, or when the instrument is derecognised.

5.3.4 Classification of financial instruments

The Group classifies all of its financial assets based on the business model for managing the assets and the asset's contractual terms, measured at either:

Financial assets carried at amortised cost (AC)

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The changes in carrying value of financial assets is recognised in profit and loss account.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The changes in fair value of financial assets is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are measured at FVTPL. The Group measures all financial assets classified as FVTPL at fair value at each reporting date. The changes in fair value of financial assets is recognised in Profit and loss account.

The Group measures financial assets that meet the following conditions at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

5.4 Financial assets and liabilities

5.4.1 Amortized cost and effective interest rate (EIR)

The effective interest rate is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period.

For financial instruments other than purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) excluding expected credit losses, through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the gross carrying amount of the debt instrument on initial recognition. For purchased or originated credit impaired financial assets, a credit-adjusted effective interest rate is calculated by discounting the estimated future cash flows, including expected credit losses, to the amortised cost of the debt instrument on initial recognition.

The amortised cost of a financial asset is the amount at which the financial asset is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, adjusted for any loss allowance. On the other hand, the gross carrying amount of a financial asset is the amortised cost of a financial asset before adjusting for any loss allowance.

5.4.2 Financial assets held for trading

The Group classifies financial assets as held for trading when they have been purchased or issued primarily for short-term profit making through trading activities or form part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together, for which there evidence of a recent pattern of short-term profit is taking. Held-for-trading assets and liabilities are recorded and measured in the balance sheet at fair value.

5.4.3 Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

Financial assets and financial liabilities in this category are those that are not held for trading and have been either designated by management upon initial recognition or are mandatorily required to be measured at fair value under Ind AS 109. Management only designates an instrument at FVTPL upon initial recognition when one of the following criteria are met. Such designation is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

- The designation eliminates, or significantly reduces, the inconsistent treatment that would otherwise arise from measuring the assets or liabilities or recognising gains or losses on them on a different basis; Or
- The liabilities are part of a group of financial liabilities, which are managed and their performance evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with a documented risk management or investment strategy; Or
- The liabilities containing one or more embedded derivatives, unless they do not significantly modify the cash flows that would otherwise be required by the contract, or it is clear with little or no analysis when a similar instrument is first considered that separation of the embedded derivative(s) is prohibited.

Financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in fair value are recorded in profit and loss with the exception of movements in fair value of liabilities designated at FVTPL due to changes in the Group's own credit risk. Such changes in fair value are recorded in the own credit reserve through OCI and do not get recycled to the profit or loss. Interest earned or incurred on instruments designated at FVTPL is accrued in interest income or finance cost, respectively, using the EIR, taking into account any discount/ premium and qualifying transaction costs being an integral part of instrument. Interest earned on assets mandatorily required to be measured at FVTPL is recorded using contractual interest rate.

5.4.4 Investment in equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its strategic equity investments to be measured at FVOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of equity under Ind AS and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis. Investments in associate company is carried at cost.

5.4.5 Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost except loan commitments, financial guarantees, and derivative financial liabilities.

5.4.6 Loan commitments

Undrawn loan commitments are commitments under which, the Group is required to provide a loan with pre-specified terms to the customer during the duration of the commitment.

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

5.4.7 Derivative financial instruments

The Group enters into a variety of derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to interest rate and market risk.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Embedded derivatives

An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid instrument that also includes a non-derivative host contract with the effect that some of the cash flows of the combined instrument vary in a way similar to stand-alone derivative. An embedded derivative causes some or all of the cash flows that otherwise would be required by the contract to be modified according to a specified interest rate, foreign exchange rate or other variable, provided that, in case of a non-financial variable, it is not specific to a party to the contract.

Derivatives embedded in all other host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated at fair value through profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss, unless designated as effective hedging instruments.

5.4.8 Debt securities and other borrowed funds

After initial measurement, debt issued and other borrowed funds are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

The Group issues certain non-convertible debentures, the return of which is linked to performance of specified indices over the period of the debenture. Such debentures have a component of an embedded derivative which is fair valued at a reporting date. The resultant 'net unrealised loss or gain' on the fair valuation of these embedded derivatives is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. The debt component of such debentures is measured at amortised cost using yield to maturity basis.

5.4.9 Financial guarantee

Financial guarantees are contracts that require the Group to make specified payments to reimburse to holder for loss that it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when it is due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantee issued or commitments to provide a loan at below market interest rates are initially measured at fair value and the initial fair value is amortised over the life of the guarantee or the commitment. Subsequently, they are measured at higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirements of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognised less cumulative amortisation.

5.4.10 Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group entity are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Group's own equity instruments is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

5.5 Reclassification of financial assets and liabilities

The Group does not reclassify its financial assets subsequent to their initial recognition, apart from the exceptional circumstances in which the Group acquires, disposes of, or terminates a business line.

5.6 Derecognition of financial Instruments

5.6.1 Derecognition of financial asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable a part of a financial asset or a part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Group also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Group has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either

- The Group has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- It retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumed a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows in full without material delay to third party under pass through arrangement.

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

- The Group has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Group cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Group has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Group is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset; or
- The Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

The Group considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

5.6.1 Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in statement of profit or loss.

5.7 Impairment of financial assets

The Group records allowance for expected credit loss (ECL) for all financial assets, other than financial assets held at FVTPL together with loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts. Equity instruments are not subject to impairment.

Simplified approach

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. The Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. However, if receivables contain a significant financing component, the Group chooses as its accounting policy to measure the loss allowance by applying general approach to measure ECL.

General approach

For all other financial instruments where ECL is to be recognised, the Group recognises lifetime ECL when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If, on the other hand, the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses (12-month ECL). The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the expected credit losses that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

The measurement of expected credit losses is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. As for the exposure at default (EAD), for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date; for loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts, the exposure includes the amount drawn down as at the reporting date, together with any additional amounts expected to be drawn down in the future by default date determined based on historical trend, the Group's understanding of the specific future financing needs of the debtors/borrowers, and other relevant forward-looking information.

Group categorises its financial assets as follows:

Stage 1 assets:

Stage 1 assets includes financial instruments that have not had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or that have low credit risk at the reporting date. For these assets, 12-month ECL (resulting from default events possible within 12 months from reporting date) are recognised.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

Stage 2 assets:

Stage 2 assets include financial instruments that have had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. For these assets, lifetime ECLs are recognised.

Stage 3 assets:

Stage 3 for assets considered credit-impaired, the Group recognises the lifetime ECL for these loans. The method is similar to that for Stage 2 assets, with the PD set at 100%.

For financial assets, the expected credit loss is estimated as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

The Group's product offering includes facilities with a right to Group to cancel and/or reduce the facilities with one day's notice. The Group does not limit its exposure to credit losses to the contractual notice period, but instead calculates ECL over a period that reflects the Group's expectations of the customer behaviour, its likelihood of default and the Group's future risk mitigation procedures, which could include reducing or cancelling the facilities.

Significant increase in credit risk

ECL is measured as an allowance equal to 12-month ECL for stage 1 assets, or lifetime ECL for stage 2 or stage 3 assets. An asset moves to stage 2 when its credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. In assessing whether the credit risk of an asset has significantly increased the Group takes into account qualitative and quantitative reasonable and supportable forward-looking information.

Impairment of Financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

The Group's ECL calculations are outputs of models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL models that are considered accounting judgements and estimates include:

- PD calculation includes historical data, assumptions and expectations of future conditions.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

- The Group's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk and so allowances for financial assets should be measured on a life-time expected credit loss and the qualitative assessment.
- The segmentation of financial assets when their ECL is assessed on a collective basis.
- Development of ECL models, including the various formulas and the choice of inputs.
- Determination of associations between macroeconomic scenarios and, economic inputs, such as unemployment levels and collateral values, and the effect on PDs, EAD and LGD.
- Selection of forward-looking macroeconomic scenarios and their probability weightings, to derive the economic inputs into the ECL models

It is Group's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

5.8 Collateral valuation

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Group seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as cash, securities, letters of credit/guarantees, Collateral, unless repossessed, is not recorded on the balance sheet. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. It is generally assessed, at a minimum, at inception and re-assessed on a periodical basis. However, some collateral, for example, cash or securities relating to margining requirements, is valued daily.

To the extent possible, the Group uses active market data for valuing financial assets held as collateral. Other financial assets which do not have readily determinable market values are valued using financial models.

5.9 Collateral repossessed

The Group's policy is to determine whether a repossessed asset can be best used for its internal operations or should be sold. Assets determined to be useful for the internal operations are transferred to their relevant asset category at the lower of their repossessed value or the carrying value of the original secured asset. Assets for which selling is determined to be a better option are transferred to assets held for sale at their fair value (if financial assets) and fair value less cost to sell for non-financial assets at the repossession date in, line with the Group's policy.

5.10 Determination of Fair value

The Group measures financial instruments, such as, derivatives at fair value at each balance sheet date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Level 1 financial instruments:

Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group has access to at the measurement date. The Group considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments

Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life.

Level 3 financial instruments

Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the restated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period. The Group periodically reviews its valuation techniques including the adopted methodologies and model calibrations.

Therefore, the Group applies various techniques to estimate the credit risk associated with its financial instruments measured at fair value, which include a portfolio-based approach that estimates for the expected net exposure per counterparty over the full lifetime of the individual assets, in order to reflect the credit risk of the individual counterparties for non-collateralised financial instruments.

The Group evaluates the levelling at each reporting period on an instrument-by-instrument basis and reclassifies instruments when necessary based on the facts at the end of the reporting period.

5.11 Write-offs

Financial assets are written off either partially or in their entirety only when the Group has no reasonable expectation of recovery.

5.12 Forborne and modified loans

The Group sometimes makes concessions or modifications to the original terms of loans as a response to the borrower's financial difficulties, rather than taking possession or to otherwise enforce collection of collateral. The Group considers a loan forborne when such concessions or modifications are provided as a result of the borrower's present or expected financial difficulties and the Group would not have agreed to them if the borrower had been financially healthy. Indicators of financial difficulties include defaults on covenants, or significant concerns raised by the Credit Risk Department. Forbearance may involve extending the payment arrangements and the agreement of new loan conditions. Once the terms have been renegotiated, any impairment is measured using the original EIR as calculated before the modification of terms. It is the Group's policy to monitor forborne loans to help ensure that future payments continue to be likely to occur. Derecognition decisions and classification between Stage 2 and Stage 3 are determined on a case-by-case basis. If these procedures identify a loss in relation to a loan, it is disclosed and managed as an impaired Stage 3 forborne asset, until it is collected or written off.

5.13 Property, Plant and Equipment, Right-of-use assets and Capital work in progress

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment in value. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortization period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

Depreciation is recognized so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their useful lives. Depreciation is provided on a written down value basis from the date the asset is ready for its intended use. In respect of assets sold, depreciation is provided upto the date of disposal.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. The carrying amount of those components which have been separately recognised as assets is derecognised at the time of replacement thereof. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

As per the requirement of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, the Group has evaluated the estimated useful lives of the respective fixed assets which are as per the provisions of Part C of Schedule II of the Act for calculating the depreciation.

The estimated useful lives of the Property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Class of asset	Useful life
Building (other than factory building)	60 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Vehicles	8 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computers and data processing units – End user devices, such as desktops, laptops etc.	3 years

For transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment and intangible asset recognised as of 1 April 2017 (transition date) measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as its deemed cost as of the transition date.

Measurement of building under revaluation model:

Increases in the carrying amount arising on revaluation of land and buildings are credited to other comprehensive income and shown as a revaluation reserve in shareholders' equity. An exception is a gain on revaluation that reverses a revaluation decrease (impairment) on the same asset previously recognised as an expense. Decreases that offset previous increases of the same asset are charged in other comprehensive income and debited against the revaluation reserve directly in equity; all other decreases are charged to profit or loss. Each year the difference between depreciation based on the revalued carrying amount of the asset charged to profit or loss and depreciation based on the asset's original cost is transferred from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

Right-of-use assets are presented together with property, plant and equipment in the statement of financial position – refer to the accounting policy. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets or the period of lease whichever is shorter.

5.14 Intangible assets

The Group's intangible assets mainly include the value of computer software and asset management rights. An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Group.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value as at the date of acquisition. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired.

An intangible asset is derecognised upon disposal (i.e., at the date the recipient obtains control) or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising upon derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Class of asset	Useful life
Computers and data processing units – Servers and networks	6 years
Computer software	3-5 years
Asset management rights	5 years

5.15 Investment properties

Investment Properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation and are measured. Upon initial recognition, an investment property is measured at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to the initial recognition, investment property is reported at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

Depreciation is recognised using written down method so as to write off the cost of the investment property less their residual values over their useful lives specified in schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 or in the case of assets where the useful life was determined by technical evaluation, over the useful life so determined.

Depreciation method is reviewed at each financial year end to reflect the expected pattern of consumption of the future benefits embodied in the investment property. The estimated useful life and residual values are also reviewed at each financial year end and the effect of any change in the estimates of useful life/residual value is accounted on prospective basis.

5.16 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

5.17 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

5.18 Foreign currency transactions

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information are presented in Indian Rupees which is also functional currency of the Company. Transactions in currencies other than Indian Rupees (i.e. foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences on monetary items are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in OCI or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively)

Group companies

On consolidation, : (a) Income and expenses are converted at the average rate of exchange applicable for the period/year and (b) All assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate as on the Balance Sheet date. The exchange difference arising out of period/year end translation is debited or credited as “Foreign Exchange Translation Reserve” forming part of Other Comprehensive Income and accumulated as a separate component of other equity.

5.19 Retirement and other employee benefits

Provident fund and national pension scheme

The Group contributes to a recognized provident fund and national pension scheme which is a defined contribution scheme. The contributions are accounted for on an accrual basis and recognized in the restated consolidated statement of profit and loss.

Gratuity

The Group’s gratuity scheme is a defined benefit plan. The Group’s net obligation in respect of the gratuity benefit scheme is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that the employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods, that benefit is discounted to determine its present value, and the fair value of any plan assets, if any, is deducted. The present value of the obligation under such benefit plan is determined based on independent actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method. Benefits in respect of gratuity are funded with an Insurance Group approved by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA).

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability, are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur.

Remeasurement are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Compensated Leave Absences

The eligible employees of the Group are permitted to carry forward certain number of their annual leave entitlement to subsequent years, subject to a ceiling. The Group recognises the charge to the consolidated statement of profit and loss and corresponding liability on account of such accumulated leave entitlement based on a valuation by an independent actuary. The cost of providing annual leave benefits are determined using the projected unit credit method.

Share-based payment arrangements

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees by the Company and by the erstwhile ultimate parent Group are measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

The fair value of Equity-settled share-based payments determined at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity. In cases where the share options granted vest in instalments over the vesting period, the Group treats each instalment as a separate grant, because each instalment has a different vesting period, and hence the fair value of each instalment differs.

5.20 Income tax expenses

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income. Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. The Group's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.
- Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

- When the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.
- In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

In assessing the recoverability of deferred tax assets, the Group relies on the same forecast assumptions used elsewhere in the financial statements and in other management reports, which, among other things, reflect the potential impact of climate-related development on the business, such as increased cost of production as a result of measures to reduce carbon emission.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised, or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Tax benefits acquired as part of a business combination, but not satisfying the criteria for separate recognition at that date, are recognised subsequently if new information about facts and circumstances change. Acquired deferred tax benefits recognised within the measurement period reduce goodwill related to that acquisition if they result from new information obtained about facts and circumstances existing at the acquisition date. If the carrying amount of goodwill is zero, any remaining deferred tax benefits are recognised in OCI/ capital reserve depending on the principle explained for bargain purchase gains. All other acquired tax benefits realised are recognised in profit or loss.

The Group offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Policy on MAT:

Minimum alternate tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax for the year. The deferred tax asset is recognised for MAT credit available only to the extent that it is probable that the concerned company will pay normal income tax during the specified period, i.e., the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the company recognizes MAT credit as an asset, it is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as part of deferred tax asset. The company reviews the “MAT credit entitlement” asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that it will pay normal tax during the specified period.

5.21 Leases

Group as a lessee:

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

Right of use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Lease Liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term

Group as a lessor

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset is classified as operating leases. Rental income arising is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases are classified as finance leases when substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership transfer from the Group to the lessee. Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recorded as receivables at the Group's net investment in the leases. Finance lease income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the net investment outstanding in respect of the lease.

5.22 Earnings per share

The Group reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Indian Accounting Standard 33 - Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss attributable to equity holders of parent company (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of EPS, the potential ordinary shares that would be issued on conversion are included in the weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation of basic EPS (and, therefore, also diluted EPS) from the date of issue of the instrument, since their issue is solely dependent on the passage of time

Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue equity shares were exercised or converted during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax attributable to the equity shareholders for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all potential equity shares.

5.23 Provisions and other contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

A contingent liability is:

(a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or

(b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:

(i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or

(ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Given the subjectivity and uncertainty of determining the probability and amount of losses, the Group takes into account a number of factors including legal advice, the stage of the matter and historical evidence from similar incidents.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that the outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. However, contingent assets are assessed continually and if it is virtually certain that an economic benefit will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the period in which the change occurs.

5.24 Assets classified as held for sale and discontinue operation.

The Group classifies non-current assets and disposal groups as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale rather than through continuing use.

Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset (disposal group), excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable, and the asset or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Actions required to complete the sale/ distribution should indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the sale will be made or that the decision to sell will be withdrawn. Management must be committed to the sale and the sale expected within one year from the date of classification.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

For these purposes, sale transactions include exchanges of non-current assets for other non-current assets when the exchange has commercial substance. The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded met only when the assets or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition, subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets (or disposal groups), its sale is highly probable; and it will genuinely be sold, not abandoned. The Group treats sale of the asset or disposal group to be highly probable when –

- The appropriate level of management is committed to a plan to sell the asset (or disposal group)
- An active programme to locate a buyer and complete the plan has been initiated (if applicable)
- The asset (or disposal group) is being actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value
- The sale is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification and
- Actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn

Property, plant and equipment and intangible are not depreciated, or amortised assets once classified as held for sale.

Assets classified as held for sale are presented separately from other items in the balance sheet

A disposal group qualifies as discontinued operation if it is a component of an entity that either has been disposed of, or is classified as held for sale, and:

- Represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations
- Is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations or
- Is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale

Discontinued operations are excluded from the results of continuing operations and are presented as a single amount as profit or loss after tax from discontinued operations in the statement of profit and loss.

All other notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information mainly include amounts for continuing operations, unless otherwise mentioned.

5.25 Business Combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets include an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The acquired process is considered substantive if it is critical to the ability to continue producing outputs, and the inputs acquired include an organised workforce with the necessary skills, knowledge, or experience to perform that process or it significantly contributes to the ability to continue producing outputs and is considered unique or scarce or cannot be replaced without significant cost, effort, or delay in the ability to continue producing outputs.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired, and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their acquisition date fair values. For this purpose, the liabilities assumed include contingent liabilities representing present obligation and they are measured at their acquisition fair values irrespective of the fact that outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not probable

Business combinations under common control

Common control business combinations includes transactions, such as transfer of subsidiaries or businesses, between entities within a Company. Group has accounted for all such transactions based on pooling of interest method, which is as below:

- The assets and liabilities of the combining entities are reflected at their carrying amounts in the books of transferrer entity.
- No adjustments are made to reflect fair values or recognise any new assets or liabilities.
- The financial information in the financial statements in respect of prior periods are restated as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the financial statements, irrespective of the actual date of the combination.

The identity of the reserves shall be preserved and shall appear in the financial statements of the transferee in the same form in which they appeared in the financial statements of the transferor. The difference, if any, between the amount recorded as share capital issued plus any additional consideration in the form of cash or other assets and the amount of share capital of the transferor shall be transferred to capital reserve.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

(Currency: Indian rupees in million)

If the business combination is achieved in stages, any previously held equity interest is re-measured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or OCI, as appropriate.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability that is a financial instrument and within the scope of Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss in accordance with Ind AS 109. If the contingent consideration is not within the scope of Ind AS 109, it is measured in accordance with the appropriate Ind AS and shall be recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured at subsequent reporting dates and subsequent its settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in OCI and accumulated in equity as capital reserve. However, if there is no clear evidence of bargain purchase, the entity recognises the gain directly in equity as capital reserve, without routing the same through OCI.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

Exceptional Item

Any amount described as unusual or exceptional should be classified by nature, in the same way as non-exceptional amounts. Their inclusion or exclusion in EBIDTA will depend on the nature of income/ expense described as exceptional.

If nature of unusual or exceptional item is in the nature of interest, tax, depreciation and amortization, then it should be excluded from EBIDTA.

6. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the Group's Restated Consolidated Financial Information requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, as well as the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

Nuvama Wealth Management Limited (formerly known as Edelweiss Securities Limited)

Annexure V: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

- a) Actuarial assumptions used in calculation of defined benefit plans.
- b) Assumptions used on discounted cash flows, growth rate and discount rate to justify the value of management rights reported under intangible assets.
- c) Assumptions used in estimating the useful lives of tangible assets reported under property, plant and equipment.

Provisions for Income Taxes

Significant judgments are involved in determining the provision for income taxes including judgment on whether tax positions are probable of being sustained in tax assessments. A tax assessment can involve complex issues, which can only be resolved over extended time periods.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that may have a financial impact on the Group and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Business model assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Group determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a particular business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of these assets are compensated.

The Group monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the quantum, the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Group's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate, whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

7. Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, as described below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the Restated Consolidated Financial Information were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Effective interest rate method

The Group's EIR methodology, as explained in Note 5.2.1, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of financial instruments and recognises the effect of characteristics of the product life cycle

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behavioral and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

Incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate ('IBR') to measure lease liabilities. Incremental borrowing rate is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility.

8. Standards issued but not yet effective

Ministry of Corporate Affairs (“MCA”) notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. On 31 March 2023, MCA amended the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023, as below:

- i) Ind AS 1 - Presentation of Financial Statements - This amendment requires the entities to disclose their material accounting policies rather than their significant accounting policies. The effective date for adoption of this amendment is annual periods beginning on or after 01 April 2023. The Group has evaluated the amendment and the impact of the amendment is insignificant in the Company’s restated consolidated financial information.
- ii) Ind AS 8 - Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors - This amendment has introduced a definition of accounting estimates’ and included amendments to Ind AS 8 to help entities distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates. The effective date for adoption of this amendment is annual periods beginning on or after 01 April 2023. The Group has evaluated the amendment and there is no impact on its restated consolidated financial information.
- iii) Ind AS 12 - Income Taxes - This amendment has narrowed the scope of the initial recognition exemption so that it does not apply to transactions that give rise to equal and offsetting temporary differences. The effective date for adoption of this amendment is annual periods beginning on or after 01 April 2023. The Group has evaluated the amendment and there is no material impact on its restated consolidated financial information.

FY 2021-22 and FY 2020-21:

Note:

- 1) During FY 2020-21 Nuvama Clearing Services Ltd (Formerly known as Edelweiss Custodial Services Ltd) (NCSL), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, had challenged an order by an investigating agency marking lien on its Clearing Bank account before the 47th Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Mumbai. Since the investigation against the trading member, for which NCSL was a clearing member, was under process, the Court contended that it had no objection to setting aside the lien order issued by investigating agency, upon NCSL providing an undertaking to keep sufficient assets unencumbered amounting to Rs. 4606.90 million. NCSL had then provided an undertaking to keep the assets (Building) amounting to Rs. 662.56 million belonging to the Company unencumbered. The Hon'ble Court had set aside the lien order. The original Misc. Application filed by NCSL before 47th Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's Court at Esplanade, Mumbai has now been transferred to the City Civil & Sessions Court under M.P.I.D. Act and the matter has been listed for further hearing. NCSL has assessed such liability to be remote and accordingly, as per the Company there is no adjustment required in the consolidated financial information for the year ended March 31, 2023
- 2) Charge on a class of asset (i.e. building) gross block to the extent of ₹ 2.73 million (as at March 31, 2022 ₹ 2.73 million, March 31, 2021 ₹ 2.73 million) against secured redeemable non-convertible debentures.

47. Segment Reporting

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the underlying businesses of the reportable segments, namely 'Agency business', 'Capital based business', 'Financing business' and 'Holding company activity' were reclassified into 3 new reportable segments, namely 'Wealth Management', 'Capital Markets' and 'Asset Management'. The said reclassification of business segments was based on internal review of businesses carried out by the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) post the internal restructuring exercise carried out by the Group. The Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments has been identified as the CODM.

The Group's business is organised and management reviews the performance based on the business segments as mentioned

Segment	The business segment comprises
Wealth management business	Retail securities broking business, Distribution of financial products, Investment advisory and lending against securities
Asset management business	Investment management for Alternative investment Funds (AIFs) and Portfolio management services (PMS) across strategies
Capital market business	Institutional broking business, debt advisory and clearing services

Income for each segment has been specifically identified. Expenditure, assets and liabilities are either specifically identified with individual segments or have been allocated to segments on a systematic basis. Based on such allocations, segment disclosures relating to revenue, results, assets and liabilities have been prepared.

Revenue contributed by any single customer in any of the operating segments, whether reportable or otherwise, does not exceed ten percent of the Group's total revenue.

An operating segment is classified as reportable segment if reported revenue (including inter-segment revenue) or absolute amount of result or assets exceed 10% or more of the combined total of all the operating segments.

Accordingly, the Company has reportable segments as described in above table.

Since the business operations of the Group are primarily concentrated in India, the Group is considered to operate only in the domestic segment and therefore there is no reportable geographic segment.

51. Capital management

The primary objectives of the Group's capital management policy are to ensure that the Group complies with externally imposed capital requirements and maintains strong credit ratings and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and to maximise shareholder value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it according to changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of its activities. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue capital securities. No changes have been made to the objectives, policies and processes from the previous years. However, they are under constant review by the Board.

In addition to above, the subsidiaries of Group are required to maintain minimum networth as prescribed by various regulatory authorities. The management ensures that this is complied.

52. Fair Value measurement:

A. Valuation principles

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques:

Level 1 – valuation technique using quoted market price: financial instruments with quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets that Group can access at the measurement date.

Level 2 – valuation technique using observable inputs: Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life.

Level 3 – valuation technique with significant unobservable inputs: Those that include one or more unobservable input that is significant to the measurement as whole.

Refer note 5.10 for more details on fair value hierarchy

B. Valuation governance framework

The Group's fair value methodology and the governance over its models includes a number of controls and other procedures to ensure appropriate safeguards are in place to ensure its quality and adequacy. All new product initiatives (including their valuation methodologies) are subject to approvals by various functions of the Group including the risk and finance functions.

Where fair values are determined by reference to externally quoted prices or observable pricing inputs to models, independent price determination or validation is used. For inactive markets, Group sources alternative market information, with greater weight given to information that is considered to be more relevant and reliable.

The responsibility of ongoing measurement resides with the business and product line divisions. However finance department is also responsible for establishing procedures governing valuation and ensuring fair values are in compliance with accounting standards.

52. Fair Value measurement:

D. Valuation techniques:

Government debt securities:

Government debt securities are financial instruments issued by sovereign governments and include both long-term bonds and short-term bonds with fixed or floating rate interest payments. These instruments are generally highly liquid and traded in active markets resulting in a Level 1 classification.

Debt securities:

Whilst most of these instruments are standard fixed or floating rate securities, however market linked debentures have embedded derivative characteristics. Fair value of debt securities is derived based on the indicative quotes of price and yields prevailing in the market as at the reporting date. The Group has used quoted price of Exchanges wherever bonds are traded actively. In cases where debt securities are not actively traded, Group has used CRISIL Corporate Bond Valuer model for measuring fair value.

Equity instruments:

Equity instruments are actively traded on stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis. Such instruments are classified as Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured at each reporting date at valuation provided by external valuer at instrument level.

Units of AIF Fund and Mutual funds:

Units held in AIF funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions. Such instruments are classified as Level 2.

Units of mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions. Such instruments are also classified as Level 1.

Embedded derivative:

An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid instrument that also includes a non-derivative host contract with the effect that some of the cash flows of the combined instrument vary in a way similar to a stand-alone derivative.

The Group uses valuation models which calculate the present value of expected future cash flows, based upon 'no arbitrage' principles. Inputs to valuation models are determined from observable market (Indices) data wherever possible, including prices available from exchanges, dealers, brokers. Group classify these embedded derivative as level 3 instruments.

Exchange traded derivatives:

Exchange traded derivatives includes index/stock options, index/stock futures. The Group uses exchange traded prices to value these derivative and classify these instrument as level 1.

E. There have been no transfers between levels during the year.

53.D.1 Credit Risk

Credit risk arises when a customer or counterparty does not meet its obligations under a customer contract or financial instrument, leading to a financial loss and arises primarily from trade receivables and loans. The Group has adopted a policy of dealing with creditworthy counterparties and obtains sufficient collateral, where appropriate, as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults. The Group is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities primarily trade receivables, loans, receivable from exchanges/clearing houses. Group has no significant concentration of credit risk with any counterparty.

The Group's management policy is to closely monitor creditworthiness of counterparties by reviewing their credit ratings, financial information and press release on regular basis.

The Group's financial assets that are subject to the expected credit loss model are only short-term trade receivables and loans. All trade receivables are expected to be collected in less than twelve months. Group applies simplified approach for trade receivables for recognition of impairment loss. Expected credit loss allowance based on simplified approach in respect of receivables is computed based on a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience.

Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on its credit worthiness and historical dealings with the Group and market intelligence. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The credit quality review process aims to allow the Group to assess the potential loss as a result of the risks to which it is exposed and take corrective actions.

Derivative financial Instruments:

Credit risk arising from derivative financial instruments is, at any time, limited to those with positive fair values, as recorded on the balance sheet. With gross-settled derivatives, the Group is also exposed to a settlement risk, being the risk that the Group honours its obligation, but the counterparty fails to deliver the counter value.

Impairment Assessment:

The Group applies the expected credit loss model for recognising impairment loss. The expected credit loss allowance is computed based on a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information.

The expected credit loss is a product of exposure at default, probability of default and loss given default. The Group has devised an internal model to evaluate the probability of default and loss given default based on the parameters set out in Ind AS. Accordingly, the loans are classified into various stages as follows:

Internal rating grade	Internal grading description	Stages
Performing
High grade	0 dpd and 1 to 30 dpd	Stage I
Standard grade	31 to 90 dpd	Stage II
Non-performing
Individually impaired	90+ dpd	Stage III

Credit loss is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to an entity in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e., all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original EIR. Expected Credit Loss (ECL) computation is not driven by any single methodology, however methodology and approach used must reflect the following:

- 1) An unbiased and probability weighted amount that evaluates a range of possible outcomes
- 2) Reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost and effort at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions;
- 3) Time value of money

While the time value of money element is currently being factored into ECL measurement while discounting cash flows by the Effective Interest Rate (EIR), the objective of developing a macroeconomic model using exogenous macroeconomic variables (MEVs) is to address the first two requirements. This has been achieved by using the model output to adjust the PD risk component in order to make it forward looking and probability-weighted.

53.D.1 Credit Risk

Significant increase in credit risk (SICR)

The Group considers a financial instrument defaulted, classified as Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations, in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due. Classification of assets from stage 1 to stage 2 has been carried out based on SICR criterion. Accounts which are more than 30 days past due have been identified as accounts where significant increase in credit risk has been observed. These accounts have been classified as Stage 2 assets. When such events occur, the Group carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations or whether Stage 2 is appropriate.

Probability of Default

Probability of default (PD) is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. PD estimation process is done based on historical internal data available with the Group. While arriving at the PD, the Group also ensures that the factors that affects the macro economic trends are considered to a reasonable extent, wherever necessary. Group calculates the 12 month PD by taking into account the historical trends of the Loans/portfolio and its credit performance. In case of assets where there is a significant increase in credit risk / credit impaired assets, lifetime PD has been applied.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The LGD represents expected losses on the EAD given the event of default, taking into account, among other attributes, the mitigating effect of collateral value at the time it is expected to be realised and the time value of money. Since the Group is into the business of lending against securities, haircut as per Group's policy is applied on the value of the collateral, based on basel haircut values for corporate securities. The exposure amount that is over and above the collateral (with haircut) is considered as the effective exposure. The LGD of 65% is used for the unsecured exposure the portfolio carries.

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The amount which the borrower will owe to the portfolio at the time of default is defined as Exposure at Default (EAD). While the drawn credit line reflects the explicit exposure for the Group, there might be variable exposure that may increase the EAD. These exposures are of the nature where the Group provides future commitments, in addition to the current credit. Therefore, the exposure will contain both on and off balance sheet values.

Risk Concentration

The Group provides broking and clearing services to institutional and retail clients including High Net Worth Individuals (HNIs). Further, it also provides loans against securities/collaterals in form of financial instruments to its retail clients including HNIs and family offices. The Group does not have a significant concentration with regard to single/group client and industry

53.D.2 Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Liquidity risk arises because of the possibility that the Group might be unable to meet its payment obligations when they fall due as a result of mismatches in the timing of the cash flows under both normal and stress circumstances.

Liquidity risk emanates from the mismatches existing on the balance sheet due to differences in maturity and repayment profile of assets and liabilities. These mismatches could either be forced in nature due to market conditions or created with an interest rate view. Such risk can lead to a possibility of unavailability of funds to meet upcoming obligations arising from liability maturities. To avoid such a scenario, Group ensures maintenance of adequate Liquidity Cushion in the form of Fixed Deposits, Mutual Funds, Cash, G-Sec, etc. These assets carry minimal credit risk and can be liquidated in a very short period of time. Further, Group has undrawn bank facilities and liquidity support from its holding company.

53.D.3 Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in market variables such as interest rates, equity prices and Index movements. The Group classifies exposures to market risk into either trading or non-trading portfolios and manages each of those portfolios separately. All the positions are managed and monitored using sensitivity analyses.

53.D.3 Market Risk (Contd.)

Interest Rate Risk

The principal risk to which non-trading portfolios are exposed is the risk of loss from fluctuations in the future cash flows or fair values of financial instruments because of a change in market interest rates.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates (all other variables being constant) of the Group's statement of profit and loss and equity. The sensitivity of the statement of profit and loss is the effect of the assumed changes in interest rates on the profit or loss for a year, based on the floating rate financial assets and financial liabilities held at reporting date.

53.D.3 Market Risk (Contd.)Price risk

The Group's exposure to price risk arises from investments held in Equity Shares, Exchange traded futures, Mutual fund units etc, all classified in the balance sheet at fair value through profit or loss. To manage its price risk arising from such investments, the Group diversifies its portfolio.

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in the level of individual investment in prices of financial instruments.

The outbreak of COVID - 19 pandemic has affected several countries across the world, including India. The Government is undertaking several measures to restrict the spread of virus and provide financial support to some stressed sectors. Further, while the COVID-19 vaccination efforts have gained momentum, uncertainty due to the resurgence of COVID cases across many parts of India is rising. The extent to which COVID-19 pandemic will impact the Group, if any, depends on future spread of the virus and related developments, which are uncertain at this point of time. There has been no material change in the controls or processes followed in the closing of the consolidated financial information of the Group. In preparing the accompanying restated consolidated financial information, the Group's management has view that there is no material impact of the pandemic on its operations and its assets as at March 31, 2022.

The COVID-19 pandemic outbreak across the world including India has resulted in most countries announcing lockdowns and quarantine measures that have sharply stalled economic activities across the world. The Indian Government too has imposed lockdowns starting from 24 March 2020. Subsequently, the national lockdown was lifted by the government for certain activities in a phased manner outside specified containment zones, but regional lockdowns/restrictions continued to be implemented in areas with a significant number of COVID-19 cases. The Indian economy is impacted and would continue to be impacted by this pandemic and the resultant lockdown, due to the contraction in industrial and services output across small and large businesses. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, including the current "second wave" on Group's results, including credit quality and provisions, gain/loss on fair value changes, investment, remains uncertain and dependent on the current and further spread of COVID-19, steps taken by the government, RBI and other regulators to mitigate the economic impact and also the time it takes for economic activities to resume and reach the normal levels. Further, the Group has assessed the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on its liquidity and ability to repay its obligations as and when they are due. Management has considered various financial support from banks and other fundraising opportunities in determining the Group liquidity position over the next 12 months. Based on the foregoing and necessary stress tests considering various scenarios, management believes that the Group will be able to pay its obligations as and when these become due in the foreseeable future. In assessing the recoverability of loans, receivables, deferred tax assets and investments, the Group has considered internal and external sources of information, including credit reports, economic forecasts and industry reports up to the date of approval of consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2021. Since the situation continue to evolve, its effect on the operations of the Group may be different from that estimated as at the date of approval of consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2021. The Group will continue to closely monitor material changes in markets and future economic conditions.

Annexure VI: Notes to restated consolidated financial information

66. During the financial year ended March 31, 2021, the controlling stake in the Group was transferred by its erstwhile ultimate parent viz Edelweiss Financial Services Limited ("EFSL"), to Edelweiss Global Wealth Management Limited ("EGWML"), the new parent entity, as a part of the overall transaction consummated with PAGAC Ecstasy Pte. Ltd ("PAG"). PAG had infused Compulsorily Convertible Debentures ("CCDs") in EGWML whereby it acquired interest in relation to the Wealth Management business only.

As a part of the overall restructuring process to enable the transaction -

(i) the Asset Management business of the Group is carved out to facilitate effective transfer of interest over the Wealth Management business to PAG.

(ii) the Group's subsidiary, Edelweiss Custodial Services Limited ("ECSL"), in accordance with the directions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India, has transferred the custodial and designated depository participant services to another entity i.e. Edelweiss Capital Services Limited, in which 51% is held by EFSL and 49% is held by the Group.

iii) The Board of Directors of the Group, EGWML and Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited ("ESIPL"), had applied for a Composite Scheme of Arrangement under Sections 230 - 232 and other applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Scheme') to the National Group Law Tribunal Bench at Mumbai ('Tribunal') for an envisaged demerger of the Asset Management business (Demerged Undertaking 1, as defined in the Scheme) of ESL into the ESIPL and demerger of the Wealth Management business (Demerged Undertaking 2, as defined in the Scheme) of EGWML into the ESL, with Appointed Date for the demergers, as provided in the Scheme.

The Scheme provides for non-reciprocal transfer of the Demerged Undertaking 1 to Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited ("ESIPL"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Edelweiss Financial Services Limited ("EFSL").

Such non-reciprocal transfers are recorded only when they are appropriately authorised and no longer discretionary. In this case, the approval of the Tribunal is required to consider such a transfer and as such the Board of Directors by applying for the Scheme have "proposed" for the transfer. Until such time, the assets and liabilities continue to remain as part of the Group.

Since the transfer pursuant to the Scheme is non-reciprocal, the Group had impaired the carrying values of Asset Management Business Undertaking pursuant to Ind AS 36 in financial year ended March 31, 2021 and disclosed as an "Exceptional item" in the statement of profit and loss amounting to Rs 6,316.32 million (Investment in associate - Rs. 5,779.22 million and Investment in subsidiary - Rs. 537.10 million). Subsequently in financial year ended March 31, 2022, consequent to pronouncement of scheme and inline with IND AS requirement, the Company has given effect as per the scheme of arrangement (refer note 58). Correspondingly the Company has reversed the aforementioned impairment of Asset Management Business Undertaking and the same has been disclosed in the statement of profit and loss as an "Exceptional item".

Exceptional items represent impairment loss provision recorded as at March 31, 2021 consequent to a proposed Composite scheme of arrangement. This estimate was reversed as at March 31, 2022 once the Composite scheme of arrangement became effective and the provision was no longer required. This is a significant true up of an estimate as at March 31, 2022, hence the same has been not been adjusted as at March 31, 2021 as per the SEBI regulations relating to restatement.

This exhaustive suite of offerings differentiates our platform and enables us to deliver the right solutions to all our clients, harnessing all the capabilities of our platform. Our value proposition can be summarised as follows:

- (a) Solution oriented approach, fulfilling all client goals;

- (c) Integrated delivery of all platform capabilities to clients, thereby strengthening relationship.

This universal eco system thereby helps us gain clients’ mindshare and create value for the clients as well as ourselves.

Significant Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations and Financial Condition

Our results of operations have been, and will continue to be, affected by a number of events and actions, some of which are beyond our control. However, there are some specific items that we believe have impacted our results of operations and, in some cases, will continue to impact our results on a consolidated and standalone basis. We believe that the following factors, amongst others, have, or could have, an impact on these results, the manner in which we generate income and incur the expenses associated with generating this income. For further details of such factors, please see the sections titled “Our Business” and “Risk Factors” on pages 88 and 17.

Our business volumes

Our results of operations are materially affected by value of our client assets in wealth management business and asset management business. Our growth and success in wealth management business and asset management business significantly depend upon the investment performance of our client assets. Investment performance in line with or exceeding the expectations of our clients on client assets increases the attractiveness of our products with clients and accordingly our revenue. Similarly, our performance and clients’ satisfaction in our capital market services, would impact our business volumes and fees earned therefrom.

While we will continue to explore opportunities to expand our business through organic and inorganic modes, we cannot be certain that the growth witnessed by us in the past will be maintained in the future.

Ability to attract RMs and key personnel in our businesses

Our wealth management business is a high client engagement business which thrives on relations forged by RMs over a period of time. The RMs are engaged in acquiring and servicing clients and delivering value addition, due to which their relationship with clients is strong. Our asset management business relies on investment and product specialists and our capital market businesses depend on our investment banking, research, and sales personnel among others. These resources are critical to our success. While we believe our scale, client reach, comprehensive suites of products and services across our businesses, technology platform and infrastructure, and alignment of economic interests enable us to attract and retain such critical resources, any inability to attract and retain them due to factors beyond our control would have an adverse impact on our business and future financial performance.

Personnel, business and establishment costs

We function in a highly competitive industry and accordingly, our ability to manage our expenses directly affects our business and results of operations. Personnel related expenses constitute a significant proportion of our total expense. However, it can be difficult and expensive to attract and retain talented and experienced employees, having regard to, demand-supply positions of such personnel, action of competitors and general market conditions. In addition, we also strive to ensure effective utilisation of our human resources and may need to adjust to the dynamic business environment as we increase our scope of operations, activities across the board and expand into new business products. As we grow our business, we will require additional human resources including relationship managers, investment professionals, dealers and operational, management and technology staff and these expenses may impact our financial condition and results of operations. Our business and establishment expenses may also increase in tandem with business growth and/ or general market and economic conditions, including inflation levels.

Regulatory and tax provisions

We operate in businesses that are regulated in India, and our activities are subject to supervision and regulation by multiple statutory and regulatory authorities including SEBI and RBI and the various stock / currency / commodity exchanges. In recent years, existing rules and regulations have been modified, new rules and regulations have been enacted and reforms have been implemented which are intended to provide tighter control and more transparency in the various regulations and policies. Similarly, changes in income tax provisions with regard to products and services we offer particularly in our wealth management and asset management businesses may render certain products unattractive to our clients. The above factors may require changes to our business model, products, pricing, and recognition of basis of fees and services, processes. While it may be possible that certain regulatory changes would be positive for some of our business operations, and we would be able to address some of the changes by modifying our product and service offerings it may also so happen that such changes could adversely affect our business volumes, revenues recognised, costs, results of operations and capital requirements.

Macroeconomic environment and fluctuation in underlying markets

All our businesses are exposed to conditions and sentiments prevailing in the financial markets, macro-economic environment and general economic conditions in India. Further, our businesses are also impacted by developments and sentiments prevailing in global economy and financial markets. Our products performance may be impacted by the aforesaid conditions and consequently, our volumes, revenues, and profitability.

Fluctuation in the performance of financial products has an impact on the perception of such products as investment options which can affect the demand for the financial products distributed/ managed by us in our wealth management and asset management businesses. While our business tends to benefit from increased client confidence in the overall economy and financial markets, for the financial services sector in particular, adverse developments in financial markets and macroeconomic conditions in India and globally may reduce the demand for our returns on the products distributed/ managed by us. Similarly, demand for products and services provided by our capital market segment is also influenced by these factors.

Other key factors affecting the performance of our businesses in India include changes in the political and social conditions in India, and changes in governmental policies with respect to taxation, laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion and remittance abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things.

Competition

We face competition from wealth management and advisory firms, asset management companies, domestic and multinational banks with private banking operations that target clients in the segment we operate in. Some of these firms have greater scale, resources and/or a more widely recognised brand than us, which may give them a competitive advantage. We also face competition from a number of players acting as intermediaries in our businesses, many of whom operate in a highly cost-competitive environment. We believe brand image, our scale, client reach and geographic presence in India, our understanding of client requirements, our wide product offering and our relationships with clients and intermediaries, will allow us to face such competition. However, any significant increase in competition may reduce our market share, decrease growth in our business and revenue, increase costs and have an impact on results of operations.

Information technology

Information technology systems are crucial to the success of our businesses and operations. We use the technology extensively in our businesses, operations and back-office, which help us improve overall client experience, efficiencies in transaction processing and productivity. Our technology includes hardware, software, applications operating systems, security architecture systems and even management tools. These are potentially vulnerable to damage or interruption from a variety of sources and breach of confidential client and company data. Further, for certain applications and infrastructure management we rely on third-party service providers. In case the third-party service providers fail to perform their contractual or other obligations satisfactorily, we may face difficulties and disruptions in our operations. A failure of our information technology systems could also cause damage to our reputation which could harm our business. While we have measures and systems in place to avoid or minimize such incidences, these could lead to disruptions in operations, loss of reputation and adversely impact results from operations. Further, with the rise in the use of technology, we may face competition from new entrants in the industry who may leverage technology to provide products and services similar to us or which our clients prefer over services provided by us. This increased competition may result in our inability to grow or maintain our market share. It may also result in reduced assets under management, which may adversely affect our results of operations.

Further as per SEBI Master Circular dated November 23, 2021 and June 20, 2023 on Scheme of Arrangement by Listed entities also states about the requirements to be given in an advertisement before commencement of trading that it should contain Restated Audited Financials for the previous three financial years and stub period prior to the date of listing. Hence for the purpose of disclosure in the IM, IM should contain restated consolidated financial information, in line with disclosure requirements for public issues. The disclosure requirements applicable for public issues form part of Schedule VI of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, as amended ("SEBI ICDR Regulations") and accordingly, all disclosure requirements mentioned therein in relation to public issues would be applicable to the information memorandum. Further, Clause (11) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations provides for 'Financial Statements' required to be disclosed in the offer document. Accordingly, these consolidated restated financial information have been prepared in terms of requirements of: (a) SEBI ICDR regulations; and (b) The Guidance Note of Reports in Company Prospectus (Revised 2019) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"), as amended from time to time ("the Guidance Note").

These Restated Consolidated Financial Information have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments such as derivative financial instruments and other financial instruments held for trading, which have been measured at fair value and assets classified as held for sale, which have been measured at lower of carrying value and fair value less cost to sell. The Restated Consolidated Financial Information are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) and all values are rounded to the nearest million, except when otherwise indicated.

2. Presentation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information

The Group presents its Statement of Assets and Liabilities in order of liquidity in compliance with the Division III of the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. An analysis regarding recovery or settlement within 12 months after the reporting date (current) and more than 12 months after the reporting date (noncurrent) is presented in note 49.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. They are only offset and reported net when, in addition to having an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event, the parties also intend to settle on a net basis in all of the following circumstances:

- The normal course of business
- The event of default
- The event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and/or its counterparties

Derivative assets and liabilities with master netting arrangements e.g., ISDAs (International Swaps and Derivatives Association) are only presented net when they satisfy the eligibility of netting for all of the above criteria and not just in the event of default.

3. Basis of consolidation:

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information comprise the restated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company consolidates a subsidiary when it controls it. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights result in control. To support this presumption and when the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements;
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights; and
- The size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of the holdings of the other voting rights holders.

The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee, if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the restated consolidated financial information from the date the Group gains control until the date the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Restated Consolidated Financial Information are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. If a subsidiary/associate of the Group uses accounting policies other than those adopted in the restated consolidated financial information for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, appropriate adjustments are made to that Group subsidiary's/associate's financial statements in preparing the restated consolidated financial information to ensure conformity with the Group's accounting policies. However, no subsidiaries and associates have followed different accounting policies than those followed by the Group for the preparation of these restated consolidated financial information.

The restated financial information of all entities used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the parent Group, i.e., year ended on March 31.

Consolidation procedure:

- (a) Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information at the acquisition date.
- (b) Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent's investment in each subsidiary and the parent's portion of equity of each subsidiary.
- (c) Eliminate in full intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the Group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, are eliminated in full). Income Taxes applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.

Profit or loss and each component of OCI are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intra-group assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- a. Derecognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost

- b. Derecognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- c. Derecognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- d. Recognises the fair value of the consideration received
- e. Recognises the fair value of any investment retained
- f. Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss
- g. Recognises that distribution of shares of subsidiary to Group in Group's capacity as owners
- h. Reclassifies the parent's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or transferred directly to retained earnings, if required by other Ind ASs as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information of all subsidiaries incorporated outside India are converted on the following basis: (a) Income and expenses are converted at the average rate of exchange applicable for the period/year and (b) All assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate as on the Balance Sheet date. The exchange difference arising out of period/year end translation is debited or credited as "Foreign Exchange Translation Reserve" forming part of Other Comprehensive Income and accumulated as a separate component of other equity.

Investment in associates:

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decision of the investee, but it's not control or joint control over those policies.

The considerations made in determining significant influence are similar to those necessary to determine control over the subsidiaries.

The Group's investment in its associate is accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investment in an associate is initially recognised at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognise changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date.

The statement of profit and loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the associate. Any change in other comprehensive income (OCI) of those investees is presented as a part of the Group's other comprehensive income (OCI).

The restated financial statements of the associate are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group. When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an impairment loss on its investment in its associate. At each reporting date, the Group determines whether there is objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If there is such evidence, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and then recognises the loss in the statement of profit and loss.

4. Significant accounting policies

4.1 Revenue from contract with customer

Revenue is measured at transaction price i.e. the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the client, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The Group consider the terms of the contracts and its customary business practices to determine the transaction price. Where the consideration promised is variable, the Group excludes the estimates of variable consideration that are constrained. The Group applies the five-step approach for recognition of revenue:

- (i) Identification of contract(s) with clients;

- (ii) Identification of the separate performance obligations in the contract;
- (iii) Determination of transaction price;
- (iv) Allocation of transaction price to the separate performance obligations; and
- (v) Recognition of revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

The group recognises revenue from the following sources:

- a. Brokerage income including client subscription fees is recognised as per contracted rates at the point in time when transaction's performance obligation is satisfied on behalf of the clients on the trade date.
- b. Fee income including advisory fees, referral fees, commission income, fund accounting etc. is accounted on an accrual basis as per Ind AS 115 in accordance with the terms and contracts entered into between the Group and the counterparty and presented service transferred at point in time and over time.

Clearing fees income arises, when the performance obligation related to the trade is executed and a valid contract is generated for the trade.

Research services fee income and Interest on delayed payments is accounted when there is reasonable certainty as to its receipts.

4.2.1 Interest income:

Under Ind AS 109 interest income is recorded using the effective interest rate (EIR) method for all financial instruments measured at amortised cost and debt instrument measured at FVOCI. The EIR is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash flows through the expected life of the financial instrument or, when appropriate a shorter period to the gross carrying amount of financial instrument.

The EIR is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition, fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The Group recognises interest income using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected life of the financial asset. Hence, it recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates charged at various stages, and other characteristics of the product life cycle including prepayments penalty interest and charges.

If expectations regarding the cash flows on the financial asset are revised for reasons other than credit risk, the adjustment is booked as a positive or negative adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset in the balance sheet with an increase or reduction in interest income.

The Group calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets.

When a financial asset becomes credit-impaired and is, therefore, regarded as 'Stage 3', the Group calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the amortised cost (net of expected credit loss) of the financial asset. If the financial asset cures and is no longer credit-impaired, the Group reverts to calculating interest income on a gross basis.

4.2.2 Dividend income:

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

4.3 Financial Instruments

4.3.1 Date of recognition

Financial assets and financial liabilities with exception of borrowings are initially recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. This includes regular way trades; purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace. The Group recognises borrowings when funds are received by the Group.

4.3.2 Initial measurement of financial instruments

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under Ind AS 115. Refer to the accounting policies in section 5.1 Revenue from contracts with clients.

4.3.3 Day 1 profit or loss

When the transaction price of the financial instrument differs from the fair value at origination and the fair value is based on a valuation technique using only inputs observable in market transactions, the Group recognises the difference between the transaction price and fair value in net gain on fair value changes. In those cases where fair value is based on models for which some of the inputs are not observable, the difference between the transaction price and the fair value is deferred and is only recognised in statement of profit and loss when the inputs become observable, or when the instrument is derecognised.

4.3.4 Classification of financial instruments

The Group classifies all of its financial assets based on the business model for managing the assets and the asset's contractual terms, measured at either:

Financial assets carried at amortised cost (AC)

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The changes in carrying value of financial assets is recognised in profit and loss account.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The changes in fair value of financial assets is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are measured at FVTPL. The Group measures all financial assets classified as FVTPL at fair value at each reporting date. The changes in fair value of financial assets is recognised in Profit and loss account.

The Group measures financial assets that meet the following conditions at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

4.4 Financial assets and liabilities

4.4.1 Amortized cost and effective interest rate (EIR)

The effective interest rate is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period.

For financial instruments other than purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) excluding expected credit losses, through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the gross carrying amount of the debt instrument on initial recognition. For purchased or originated credit impaired financial assets, a credit-adjusted effective interest rate is calculated by discounting the estimated future cash flows, including expected credit losses, to the amortised cost of the debt instrument on initial recognition.

The amortised cost of a financial asset is the amount at which the financial asset is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, adjusted for any loss allowance. On the other hand, the gross carrying amount of a financial asset is the amortised cost of a financial asset before adjusting for any loss allowance.

4.4.2 Financial assets held for trading

The Group classifies financial assets as held for trading when they have been purchased or issued primarily for short-term profit making through trading activities or form part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together, for which there is evidence of a recent pattern of short-term profit is taking. Held-for-trading assets and liabilities are recorded and measured in the balance sheet at fair value.

4.4.3 Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets and financial liabilities in this category are those that are not held for trading and have been either designated by management upon initial recognition or are mandatorily required to be measured at fair value under Ind AS 109. Management only designates an instrument at FVTPL upon initial recognition when one of the following criteria are met. Such designation is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

- The designation eliminates, or significantly reduces, the inconsistent treatment that would otherwise arise from measuring the assets or liabilities or recognising gains or losses on them on a different basis; Or

- The liabilities are part of a group of financial liabilities, which are managed and their performance evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with a documented risk management or investment strategy; Or
- The liabilities containing one or more embedded derivatives, unless they do not significantly modify the cash flows that would otherwise be required by the contract, or it is clear with little or no analysis when a similar instrument is first considered that separation of the embedded derivative(s) is prohibited.

Financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in fair value are recorded in profit and loss with the exception of movements in fair value of liabilities designated at FVTPL due to changes in the Group's own credit risk. Such changes in fair value are recorded in the own credit reserve through OCI and do not get recycled to the profit or loss. Interest earned or incurred on instruments designated at FVTPL is accrued in interest income or finance cost, respectively, using the EIR, taking into account any discount/premium and qualifying transaction costs being an integral part of instrument. Interest earned on assets mandatorily required to be measured at FVTPL is recorded using contractual interest rate.

4.4.4 Investment in equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its strategic equity investments to be measured at FVOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of equity under Ind AS and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis. Investments in associate company is carried at cost.

4.4.5 Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost except loan commitments, financial guarantees, and derivative financial liabilities.

4.4.6 Loan commitments

Undrawn loan commitments are commitments under which, the Group is required to provide a loan with pre-specified terms to the client during the duration of the commitment.

4.4.7 Derivative financial instruments

The Group enters into a variety of derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to interest rate and market risk.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Embedded derivatives

An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid instrument that also includes a non-derivative host contract with the effect that some of the cash flows of the combined instrument vary in a way similar to stand-alone derivative. An embedded derivative causes some or all of the cash flows that otherwise would be required by the contract to be modified according to a specified interest rate, foreign exchange rate or other variable, provided that, in case of a non-financial variable, it is not specific to a party to the contract.

Derivatives embedded in all other host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated at fair value through profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss, unless designated as effective hedging instruments.

4.4.8 Debt securities and other borrowed funds

After initial measurement, debt issued and other borrowed funds are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

The Group issues certain non-convertible debentures, the return of which is linked to performance of specified indices over the period of the debenture. Such debentures have a component of an embedded derivative which is fair valued at a reporting date. The resultant 'net unrealised loss or gain' on the fair valuation of these embedded derivatives is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. The debt component of such debentures is measured at amortised cost using yield to maturity basis.

4.4.9 Financial guarantee

Financial guarantees are contracts that require the Group to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for loss that it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when it is due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantees issued or commitments to provide a loan at below market interest rates are initially measured at fair value and the initial fair value is amortised over the life of the guarantee or the commitment. Subsequently, they are measured at higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirements of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognised less cumulative amortisation.

4.4.10 Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group entity are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Group's own equity instruments is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

4.5 Reclassification of financial assets and liabilities

The Group does not reclassify its financial assets subsequent to their initial recognition, apart from the exceptional circumstances in which the Group acquires, disposes of, or terminates a business line.

4.6 Derecognition of financial Instruments

4.6.1 Derecognition of financial asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable a part of a financial asset or a part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Group also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Group has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either

- The Group has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- It retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumed a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows in full without material delay to third party under pass through arrangement.

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

- The Group has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Group cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Group has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Group is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset; or
- The Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

The Group considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

4.6.2 Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in statement of profit or loss.

4.7 Impairment of financial assets

The Group records allowance for expected credit loss (ECL) for all financial assets, other than financial assets held at FVTPL together with loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts. Equity instruments are not subject to impairment.

Simplified approach

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. The Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. However, if receivables contain a significant financing component, the Group chooses as its accounting policy to measure the loss allowance by applying general approach to measure ECL.

General approach

For all other financial instruments where ECL is to be recognised, the Group recognises lifetime ECL when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If, on the other hand, the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses (12-month ECL). The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the expected credit losses that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

The measurement of expected credit losses is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. As for the exposure at default (EAD), for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date; for loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts, the exposure includes the amount drawn down as at the reporting date, together with any additional amounts expected to be drawn down in the future by default date determined based on historical trend, the Group's understanding of the specific future financing needs of the debtors/borrowers, and other relevant forward-looking information.

Group categorises its financial assets as follows:

Stage 1 assets:

Stage 1 assets includes financial instruments that have not had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or that have low credit risk at the reporting date. For these assets, 12-month ECL (resulting from default events possible within 12 months from reporting date) are recognised.

Stage 2 assets:

Stage 2 assets include financial instruments that have had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. For these assets, lifetime ECLs are recognised.

Stage 3 assets:

Stage 3 for assets considered credit-impaired, the Group recognises the lifetime ECL for these loans. The method is similar to that for Stage 2 assets, with the PD set at 100%.

For financial assets, the expected credit loss is estimated as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

The Group's product offering includes facilities with a right to Group to cancel and/or reduce the facilities with one day's notice. The Group does not limit its exposure to credit losses to the contractual notice period, but instead calculates ECL over a period that reflects the Group's expectations of the client behaviour, its likelihood of default and the Group's future risk mitigation procedures, which could include reducing or cancelling the facilities.

ECL is measured as an allowance equal to 12-month ECL for stage 1 assets, or lifetime ECL for stage 2 or stage 3 assets. An asset moves to stage 2 when its credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. In assessing whether the credit risk of an asset has significantly increased the Group takes into account qualitative and quantitative reasonable and supportable forward-looking information.

Impairment of Financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

The Group's ECL calculations are outputs of models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL models that are considered accounting judgements and estimates include:

- PD calculation includes historical data, assumptions and expectations of future conditions.
- The Group's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk and so allowances for financial assets should be measured on a life-time expected credit loss and the qualitative assessment.
- The segmentation of financial assets when their ECL is assessed on a collective basis.
- Development of ECL models, including the various formulas and the choice of inputs.
- Determination of associations between macroeconomic scenarios and, economic inputs, such as unemployment levels and collateral values, and the effect on PDs, EAD and LGD.
- Selection of forward-looking macroeconomic scenarios and their probability weightings, to derive the economic inputs into the ECL models

It is Group's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

4.8 Collateral valuation

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Group seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as cash, securities, letters of credit/guarantees, collateral, unless repossessed, is not recorded on the balance sheet. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. It is generally assessed, at a minimum, at inception and re-assessed on a periodical basis. However, some collateral, for example, cash or securities relating to margin requirements, is valued daily.

To the extent possible, the Group uses active market data for valuing financial assets held as collateral. Other financial assets which do not have readily determinable market values are valued using financial models.

4.9 Collateral repossessed

The Group's policy is to determine whether a repossessed asset can be best used for its internal operations or should be sold. Assets determined to be useful for the internal operations are transferred to their relevant asset category at the lower of their repossessed value or the carrying value of the original secured asset. Assets for which selling is determined to be a better option are transferred to assets held for sale at their fair value (if financial assets) and fair value less cost to sell for non-financial assets at the repossession date in, line with the Group's policy.

4.10 Determination of Fair value

The Group measures financial instruments, such as, derivatives at fair value at each balance sheet date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Level 1 financial instruments:

Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group has access to at the measurement date. The Group considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments

Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life.

Level 3 financial instruments

Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the restated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period. The Group periodically reviews its valuation techniques including the adopted methodologies and model calibrations.

Therefore, the Group applies various techniques to estimate the credit risk associated with its financial instruments measured at fair value, which include a portfolio-based approach that estimates for the expected net exposure per counterparty over the full lifetime of the individual assets, in order to reflect the credit risk of the individual counterparties for non-collateralised financial instruments.

The Group evaluates the levelling at each reporting period on an instrument-by-instrument basis and reclassifies instruments when necessary based on the facts at the end of the reporting period.

4.11 Write-offs

Financial assets are written off either partially or in their entirety only when the Group has no reasonable expectation of recovery.

4.12 Forborne and modified loans

The Group sometimes makes concessions or modifications to the original terms of loans as a response to the borrower's financial difficulties, rather than taking possession or to otherwise enforce collection of collateral. The Group considers a loan forborne when such concessions or modifications are provided as a result of the borrower's present or expected financial difficulties and the Group would not have agreed to them if the borrower had been financially healthy. Indicators of financial difficulties include defaults on covenants, or significant concerns raised by the Credit Risk Department. Forbearance may involve extending the payment arrangements and the agreement of new loan conditions. Once the terms have been renegotiated, any impairment is measured using the original EIR as calculated before the modification of terms. It is the Group's policy to monitor forborne loans to help ensure that future payments continue to be likely to occur. Derecognition decisions and classification between Stage 2 and Stage 3 are determined on a case-by-case basis. If these procedures identify a loss in relation to a loan, it is disclosed and managed as an impaired Stage 3 forborne asset, until it is collected or written off.

4.13 Property, Plant and Equipment, Right-of-use assets and Capital work in progress

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment in value. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortization period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Depreciation is recognized so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their useful lives. Depreciation is provided on a written down value basis from the date the asset is ready for its intended use. In respect of assets sold, depreciation is provided up to the date of disposal.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. The carrying amount of those components which have been separately recognised as assets is derecognised at the time of replacement thereof. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

As per the requirement of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, the Group has evaluated the estimated useful lives of the respective fixed assets which are as per the provisions of Part C of Schedule II of the Act for calculating the depreciation.

The estimated useful lives of the Property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Class of asset	Useful life
Building (other than factory building)	60 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Vehicles	8 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computers and data processing units – End user devices, such as desktops, laptops etc.	3 years

For transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment and intangible asset recognised as of 1 April 2017 (transition date) measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as its deemed cost as of the transition date.

Measurement of building under revaluation model:

Increases in the carrying amount arising on revaluation of land and buildings are credited to other comprehensive income and shown as a revaluation reserve in shareholders' equity. An exception is a gain on revaluation that reverses a revaluation decrease (impairment) on the same asset previously recognised as an expense. Decreases that offset previous increases of the same asset are charged in other comprehensive income and debited against the revaluation reserve directly in equity; all other decreases are charged to profit or loss. Each year the difference between depreciation based on the revalued carrying amount of the asset charged to profit or loss and depreciation based on the asset's original cost is transferred from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings.

Right-of-use assets are presented together with property, plant and equipment in the statement of financial position – refer to the accounting policy Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets or the period of lease whichever is shorter.

4.14 Intangible assets

The Group's intangible assets mainly include the value of computer software and asset management rights. An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Group.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value as at the date of acquisition. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired

An intangible asset is derecognised upon disposal (i.e., at the date the recipient obtains control) or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising upon derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Class of asset	Useful life
Computers and data processing units – Servers and networks	6 years
Computer software	3-5 years
Asset management rights	5 years

4.15 Investment properties

Investment Properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation and are measured. Upon initial recognition, an investment property is measured at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to the initial recognition, investment property is reported at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Depreciation is recognised using written down method so as to write off the cost of the investment property less their residual values over their useful lives specified in schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 or in the case of assets where the useful life was determined by technical evaluation, over the useful life so determined.

Depreciation method is reviewed at each financial year end to reflect the expected pattern of consumption of the future benefits embodied in the investment property. The estimated useful life and residual values are also reviewed at each financial year end and the effect of any change in the estimates of useful life/residual value is accounted on prospective basis.

4.16 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

4.17 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

4.18 Foreign currency transactions

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information are presented in Indian Rupees which is also functional currency of the Company. Transactions in currencies other than Indian Rupees (i.e. foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences on monetary items are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in OCI or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively)

Group companies

On consolidation: (a) Income and expenses are converted at the average rate of exchange applicable for the period/year and (b) All assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate as on the Balance Sheet date. The exchange difference arising out of period/year end translation is debited or credited as “Foreign Exchange Translation Reserve” forming part of Other Comprehensive Income and accumulated as a separate component of other equity.

4.19 Retirement and other employee benefits

Provident fund and national pension scheme

The Group contributes to a recognized provident fund and national pension scheme which is a defined contribution scheme. The contributions are accounted for on an accrual basis and recognized in the restated consolidated statement of profit and loss.

Gratuity

The Group’s gratuity scheme is a defined benefit plan. The Group’s net obligation in respect of the gratuity benefit scheme is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that the employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods, that benefit is discounted to determine its present value, and the fair value of a plan assets, if any, is deducted. The present value of the obligation under such benefit plan is determined based on independent actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method. Benefits in respect of gratuity are funded with an Insurance Group approved by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA).

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability, are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur.

Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Compensated Leave Absences

The eligible employees of the Group are permitted to carry forward certain number of their annual leave entitlement to subsequent years, subject to a ceiling. The Group recognises the charge to the consolidated statement of profit and loss and corresponding liability on account of such accumulated leave entitlement based on a valuation by an independent actuary. The cost of providing annual leave benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method.

Share-based payment arrangements

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees by the Company and by the erstwhile ultimate parent Group are measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date.

The fair value of Equity-settled share-based payments determined at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.' In cases where the share options granted vest in instalments over the vesting period, the Group treats each instalment as a separate grant, because each instalment has a different vesting period, and hence the fair value of each instalment differs.

4.20 Income tax expenses

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income. Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. The Group's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.
- Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:
- When the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.
- In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

In assessing the recoverability of deferred tax assets, the Group relies on the same forecast assumptions used elsewhere in the financial statements and in other management reports, which, among other things, reflect the potential impact of climate-related development on the business, such as increased cost of production as a result of measures to reduce carbon emission.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised, or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Tax benefits acquired as part of a business combination, but not satisfying the criteria for separate recognition at that date, are recognised subsequently if new information about facts and circumstances change. Acquired deferred tax benefits recognised within the measurement period reduce goodwill related to that acquisition if they result from new information obtained about facts and circumstances existing at the acquisition date. If the carrying amount of goodwill is zero, any remaining deferred tax benefits are recognised in OCI/ capital reserve depending on the principle explained for bargain purchase gains. All other acquired tax benefits realised are recognised in profit or loss.

The Group offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Policy on MAT:

Minimum alternate tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax for the year. The deferred tax asset is recognised for MAT credit available only to the extent that it is probable that the concerned company will pay normal income tax during the specified period, i.e., the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the company recognizes MAT credit as an asset, it is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as part of deferred tax asset. The company reviews the “MAT credit entitlement” asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that it will pay normal tax during the specified period.

4.21 Leases

Group as a lessee:

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease namely if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

Right of use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Lease Liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset is classified as operating leases. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases are classified as finance leases when substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership transfer from the Group to the lessee. Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recorded as receivables at the Group's net investment in the leases. Finance lease income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the net investment outstanding in respect of the lease.

4.22 Earnings per share

The Group reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Indian Accounting Standard 33 - Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss attributable to equity holders of parent company (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of EPS, the potential ordinary shares that would be issued on conversion are included in the weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation of basic EPS (and, therefore, also diluted EPS) from the date of issue of the instrument, since their issue is solely dependent on the passage of time

Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue equity shares were exercised or converted during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax attributable to the equity shareholders for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all potential equity shares.

4.23 Provisions and other contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

(a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or

(b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:

(i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or

(ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Given the subjectivity and uncertainty of determining the probability and amount of losses, the Group takes into account a number of factors including legal advice, the stage of the matter and historical evidence from similar incidents.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that the outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. However, contingent assets are assessed continually and if it is virtually certain that an economic benefit will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the period in which the change occurs.

4.24 Assets classified as held for sale and discontinue operation.

The Group classifies non-current assets and disposal groups as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale rather than through continuing use.

Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset (disposal group), excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable, and the asset or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Actions required to complete the sale/ distribution should indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the sale will be made or that the decision to sell will be withdrawn. Management must be committed to the sale and the sale is expected within one year from the date of classification.

For these purposes, sale transactions include exchanges of non-current assets for other non-current assets when the exchange has commercial substance. The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded met only when the assets or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition, subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sale of such assets (or disposal groups), its sale is highly probable; and it will genuinely be sold, not abandoned. The Group treats sale of the asset or disposal group to be highly probable when –

- The appropriate level of management is committed to a plan to sell the asset (or disposal group)
- An active programme to locate a buyer and complete the plan has been initiated (if applicable)
- The asset (or disposal group) is being actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value
- The sale is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification and

- Actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn

Property, plant and equipment and intangible are not depreciated, or amortised assets once classified as held for sale.

Assets classified as held for sale are presented separately from other items in the balance sheet.

A disposal group qualifies as discontinued operation if it is a component of an entity that either has been disposed of, or is classified as held for sale, and:

- Represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations
- Is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations or
- Is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale

Discontinued operations are excluded from the results of continuing operations and are presented as a single amount as profit or loss after tax from discontinued operations in the statement of profit and loss.

All other notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information mainly include amounts for continuing operations, unless otherwise mentioned.

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets include an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The acquired process is considered substantive if it is critical to the ability to continue producing outputs, and the inputs acquired include an organised workforce with the necessary skills, knowledge, or experience to perform that process or it significantly contributes to the ability to continue producing outputs and is considered unique or scarce or cannot be replaced without significant cost, effort, or delay in the ability to continue producing outputs.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired, and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their acquisition date fair values. For this purpose, the liabilities assumed include contingent liabilities representing present obligation and they are measured at their acquisition fair values irrespective of the fact that outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not probable

Common control business combinations includes transactions, such as transfer of subsidiaries or businesses, between entities within a Company. Group has accounted for all such transactions based on pooling of interest method, which is as below:

- The assets and liabilities of the combining entities are reflected at their carrying amounts in the books of transferer entity.
- No adjustments are made to reflect fair values or recognise any new assets or liabilities.
- The financial information in the financial statements in respect of prior periods are restated as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the financial statements, irrespective of the actual date of the combination.

The identity of the reserves shall be preserved and shall appear in the financial statements of the transferee in the same form in which they appeared in the financial statements of the transferor. The difference, if any, between the amount recorded as share capital issued plus any additional consideration in the form of cash or other assets and the amount of share capital of the transferor shall be transferred to capital reserve.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, any previously held equity interest is re-measured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or OCI, as appropriate.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability that is a financial instrument and within the scope of Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss in accordance with Ind AS 109. If the contingent consideration is not within the scope of Ind AS 109, it is measured in accordance with the appropriate Ind AS and shall be recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in OCI and accumulated in equity as capital reserve. However, if there is no clear evidence of bargain purchase, the entity recognises the gain directly in equity as capital reserve, without routing the same through OCI.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

Exceptional Item

Any amount described as unusual or exceptional should be classified by nature, in the same way as non-exceptional amounts. Their inclusion or exclusion in EBIDTA will depend on the nature of income/expense described as exceptional.

If nature of unusual or exceptional item is in the nature of interest, tax, depreciation and amortization, then it should be excluded from EBIDTA.

5. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the Group's Restated Consolidated Financial Information requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, as well as the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

- a) Actuarial assumptions used in calculation of defined benefit plans.
- b) Assumptions used on discounted cash flows, growth rate and discount rate to justify the value of management rights reported under intangible assets.
- c) Assumptions used in estimating the useful lives of tangible assets reported under property, plant and equipment.

Provisions for Income Taxes

Significant judgments are involved in determining the provision for income taxes including judgment on whether tax positions are probable of being sustained in tax assessments. A tax assessment can involve complex issues, which can only be resolved over extended time periods.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that may have a financial impact on the Group and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Business model assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Group determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a particular business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of these assets are compensated.

The Group monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the quantum, the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Group's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate, whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

6. Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, as described below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the Restated Consolidated Financial Information were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances that are arising that are beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Effective interest rate method

The Group's EIR methodology, as explained in Note 5.2.1, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of financial instruments and recognises the effect of characteristics of the product life cycle

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behavioral and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

Incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate ('IBR') to measure lease liabilities. Incremental borrowing rate is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility.

7. Standards issued but not yet effective

H) Exceptional Items and Discontinuing Operations

(i) Exceptional Items

- There was no impact on Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss Account on account of Exceptional Items in FY23.
- Exceptional items in FY22 are due to reversal of impairment provision on investment in the associate and in the subsidiary aggregating to ₹ 6,316.32 million.

During the financial year ended March 31, 2021, the controlling stake in the Nuvama Group was transferred by its erstwhile ultimate parent viz Edelweiss Financial Services Limited ("EFSL"), to Edelweiss Global Wealth Management Limited ('EGWML'), the new parent entity, as a part of the overall transaction consummated with PAGAC Ecstasy Pte. Ltd ('PAG'). PAG had infused Compulsorily Convertible Debentures ("CCDs") in EGWML whereby it acquired interest in relation to the wealth management business only.

As a part of the overall restructuring process to enable the transaction –

- (i) the asset management business of the Group is carved out to facilitate effective transfer of interest over the wealth management business to PAG.
- (ii) the Group's subsidiary, Nuvama Clearing Services Limited, in accordance with the directions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India, has transferred the custodial and designated depository participant services to another entity i.e., Edelweiss Capital Services Limited, in which 51% is held by EFSL and 49% is held by the Group.

- (iii) The Board of Directors of the Group, EGWML and Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited (“ESIPL”), had applied for a Composite Scheme of Arrangement under Sections 230 - 232 and other applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 (‘Scheme’) to the National Group Law Tribunal Bench at Mumbai (‘Tribunal’) for an envisaged demerger of the asset management business (Demerged Undertaking 1, as defined in the Scheme) of ESL into the ESIPL and demerger of the Wealth Management business (Demerged Undertaking 2, as defined in the Scheme) of EGWML into the ESL, with Appointed Date for the demergers, as provided in the Scheme.

The Scheme provided for non-reciprocal transfer of the Demerged Undertaking 1 to Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited (“ESIPL”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Edelweiss Financial Services Limited (“EFSL”). Such non-reciprocal transfers are recorded only when they are appropriately authorised and no longer discretionary. In this case, the approval of the Tribunal is required to consider such a transfer and as such the Board of Directors by applying for the Scheme have “proposed” for the transfer. Until such time, the assets and liabilities continue to remain as part of the Group. Since the transfer pursuant to the Scheme is non-reciprocal, the Group had impaired the carrying values of asset management business undertaking pursuant to Ind AS 36 in financial year ended March 31, 2021 and disclosed as an "Exceptional item" in the statement of profit and loss amounting to Rs 6,316.32 million (Investment in associate ₹ 5,779.22 million and Investment in subsidiary ₹ 537.10 million). Subsequently in financial year ended March 31, 2022, consequent to pronouncement of scheme and inline with IND AS requirement, the Company has given effect as per the scheme of arrangement. Correspondingly the Company has reversed the aforementioned impairment of asset management business undertaking and the same has been disclosed in the statement of profit and loss as an “Exceptional item”.

Exceptional items represent impairment loss provision recorded as at March 31, 2021 consequent to a proposed Composite scheme of arrangement. This estimate was reversed as at March 31, 2022 once the Composite scheme of arrangement became effective and the provision was no longer required. This is a significant true up of an estimate as at March 31, 2022, hence the same has been not been adjusted as at March 31, 2021 as per the SEBI regulations relating to restatement. Please refer to Note no. 66 of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for disclosure as required by relevant accounting standards, SEBI ICDR and ICAI guidance note for the year ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2022.

(ii) Discontinuing Operations

- There was no impact on Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss Account on account of Discontinuing Operations in FY23.
- Discontinued Operations in FY22

The Group had entered into an agreement dated March 17, 2021, with Nuvama Custodial Services Limited (Edelweiss Capital Services Limited), an associate entity, to sell its business of being a custodian of securities and designated depository participant, and securities lending and borrowing (‘Transfer business’). The sale transaction was concluded on June 18, 2021. Consequently, Profit after tax pertaining to the period April 1, 2021, to June 18, 2021 amounting to ₹ 2.60 million and corresponding profit after tax for the Fiscal 2021 amounting to ₹ 78.21 million is reported under the head Discontinued Operations. Please refer to Note no. 60 of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for disclosure as required by relevant accounting standards, SEBI ICDR and ICAI guidance note for the year ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2022.

Our tax expense increased by 34.0% to ₹ 779.76 million in Fiscal 2022 from ₹ 582.04 million in Fiscal 2021. This was primarily due to increase in the Profit before exceptional items and tax as above.

G) Profit from continuing operations after tax and before exceptional items

As a result of the foregoing factors, our profit after tax from continuing operations and before exceptional items increased by 164.4% to ₹ 2,255.01 million in Fiscal 2022 from ₹ 852.81 million in Fiscal 2021.

H) Exceptional Items and Discontinuing Operations

(i) Exceptional Items

- Exceptional items in Fiscal 2022 are due to reversal of impairment provision on investment in the associate and in the subsidiary aggregating to ₹ 6,316.32 million which was created in Fiscal 2021.

During the financial year ended March 31, 2021, the controlling stake in the Nuvama Group was transferred by its erstwhile ultimate parent viz Edelweiss Financial Services Limited ("EFSL"), to Edelweiss Global Wealth Management Limited ('EGWML'), the new parent entity, as a part of the overall transaction consummated with PAGAC Ecstasy Pte. Ltd ('PAG'). PAG had infused Compulsorily Convertible Debentures ("CCDs") in EGWML whereby it acquired interest in relation to the wealth management business only.

As a part of the overall restructuring process to enable the transaction –

- (i) the asset management business of the Group is carved out to facilitate effective transfer of interest over the wealth management business to PAG.

- (ii) the Group's subsidiary, Nuvama Clearing Services Limited, in accordance with the directions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India, has transferred the custodial and designated depository participant services to another entity i.e. Edelweiss Capital Services Limited, in which 51% was held by EFSL and 49% was held by the Group.
- (iii) The Board of Directors of the Group, EGWML and Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited ("ESIPL"), had applied for a Composite Scheme of Arrangement under Sections 230 – 232 and other applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Scheme') to the National Group Law Tribunal Bench at Mumbai ('Tribunal') for an envisaged demerger of the asset management business (Demerged Undertaking 1, as defined in the Scheme) of ESL into the ESIPL and demerger of the Wealth Management business (Demerged Undertaking 2, as defined in the Scheme) of EGWML into the ESL, with Appointed Date for the demergers, as provided in the Scheme.

The Scheme provided for non-reciprocal transfer of the Demerged Undertaking 1 to Edelweiss Securities and Investments Private Limited ("ESIPL"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Edelweiss Financial Services Limited ("EFSL"). Such non-reciprocal transfers are recorded only when they are appropriately authorised and no longer discretionary. In this case, the approval of the Tribunal is required to consider such a transfer and as such the Board of Directors by applying for the Scheme have "proposed" for the transfer. Until such time, the assets and liabilities continue to remain as part of the Group. Since the transfer pursuant to the Scheme is non-reciprocal, the Group had impaired the carrying values of Asset Management Business Undertaking pursuant to Ind AS 36 in financial year ended March 31, 2021 and disclosed as an "Exceptional item" in the statement of profit and loss amounting to Rs 6,316.32 million (Investment in associate - ₹ 5,779.22 million and Investment in subsidiary - ₹ 537.10 million). Subsequently in financial year ended March 31, 2022, consequent to pronouncement of scheme and inline with IND AS requirement, the Company has given effect as per the scheme of arrangement. Correspondingly the Company has reversed the aforementioned impairment of Asset Management Business Undertaking and the same has been disclosed in the statement of profit and loss as an "Exceptional item".

- Exceptional items represent impairment loss provision recorded as at March 31, 2021 consequent to a proposed Composite scheme of arrangement. This estimate was reversed as at March 31, 2022 once the Composite scheme of arrangement became effective and the provision was no longer required. This is significant estimate as at March 31, 2022, hence the same has been not been adjusted as at March 31, 2021 as per the SEBI regulations relating to restatement. Please refer to Note no. 66 of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for disclosure as required by relevant accounting standards, SEBI ICDR and ICAI guidance note for the year ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2022.

(ii) Discontinued Operations

The net credit amount in the Statement of Profit and Loss from discontinuing operations comprised of the following

- Sale of Custody business

The Group had entered into an agreement dated March 17, 2021, with Nuvama Custodial Services Limited (Edelweiss Capital Services Limited), an associate entity, to sell its business of being a custodian of securities and designated depository participant, and securities lending and borrowing ('Transfer business'). The sale transaction was concluded on June 18, 2021. Consequently, Profit after tax pertaining to the period April 1, 2021, to June 18, 2021, amounting to ₹ 2.60 million and corresponding profit after tax for the Fiscal 2021 amounting to ₹ 78.21 million is reported under the head Discontinued Operations. Please refer to Note no. 60 of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for disclosure as required by relevant accounting standards, SEBI ICDR and ICAI guidance note for the year ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2022.

- Profits in Fiscal 2021 relating to Assets held for distribution pursuant to the scheme of demerger approved by NCLT.

NCLT on 31 March 2022 approved a scheme of demerger allowing Company to demerge its asset management business undertaking. Please refer to note 66 of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for disclosure as required by relevant accounting standards, SEBI ICDR and ICAI guidance note for the year ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2022. Consequently, the Profits amounting to ₹ 685.92 million in Fiscal 2021 pertaining to the said asset management business undertaking under the head 'Discontinued Operations'.

I) Profit after tax for the Year (including discontinuing operations and exceptional items)

Profit for the year after tax, exceptional items, profit from discontinuing operations increased to ₹ 8,573.93 million in Fiscal 2022 from a loss of ₹ 4,749.83 million in Fiscal 2021, primarily on account of charge created on account of Exceptional items which was reversed in Fiscal 2022, as mentioned above.

Quantitative and qualitative disclosures

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risks: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, including equity price risk.

Interest risk

Interest risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates, our exposure to changes in interest rates relates primarily to our outstanding floating debt rate included in borrowings.

Currency risk

Inflation risk

India has lately been experiencing relatively benign rates of inflation. Inflation affects interest rates and hence, higher inflationary expectations lead to rise in borrowing costs and slowdown in credit offtake, which could affect our profitability. Adverse changes in credit offtake and savings caused by inflation also impacts the overall economy and business environment and consequently, could affect us. Higher interest rate also affects the market sentiments, which could have an adverse impact on our business and revenue thereon.

Enquiry/investigation involving our Directors

1. An order dated 12 May 2023 was passed by the Special MPID Court, Mumbai in a case that relates to the Rupees 5600 crore NSEL scam in which EOW of Mumbai Police has reportedly filed 11 chargesheets against the accused including NSEL, 63 Moons Technologies Ltd, defaulters, brokers etc. Forward Markets Commission (FMC) or Shri Ramesh Abhishek were never a party in this case. From one of the orders passed by Special MPID Court, it appears that NSEL had filed an application in MPID Court to investigate "the role of Shri Ramesh Abhishek" in the allegations which have been mentioned in their application.

MPID Court passed an order to investigate "the role of Shri Abhishek" in the NSEL matter despite strong opposition of the Prosecution.

Shri Abhishek has filed an appeal against the order of the MPID Court before the Bombay High Court. The appeal was heard by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court on 16th and then 20th June 2023. This matter was posted for 1st August 2023 on the main point that no investigation can be initiated on the application of the accused. The Hon'ble Court also ordered the investigating officer not to file any report in the said case till the next date. The Court has also noted the submission of the Public Prosecutor that there will be no coercive measure taken against the appellant. The Hon'ble Court had posted the matter for hearing on August 25. The matter came up for hearing on August 25 and the Court allowed Shri Abhishek's amendment petition, wherein he had prayed for adding one more ground of appeal that prior sanction of Government that is required before ordering investigation against a public servant, was not taken. The court will now hear the matter on October 23, 2023. The Ad-interim relief continues till that date.

2. A complaint was filed in May 2019 against Shri Abhishek with the Lokpal, CBI, CVC, PMO and NSA. It also contained many allegations relating to NSEL and FMC that have been made by NSEL and 63 Moons Technologies Ltd in other cases.

In June 2021, the Lokpal took note of this complaint and sought the comments of Shri Ramesh Abhishek. In his detailed replies on affidavits with supporting documents, Shri Ramesh Abhishek drew attention to the completely false and motivated nature of the complaint. However, the Lokpal decided to order a preliminary enquiry under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013 by their order dated 2.2.2022 and continued the same by their subsequent order of 3rd January 2023.

Shri Ramesh Abhishek filed a writ petition in the Delhi High Court seeking quashing of the order of the Lokpal of India. Vide its order dated 10th May, 2023, the Hon'ble High Court has directed that the Lokpal will first pass a reasoned order after hearing Shri Ramesh Abhishek on the various contention raised in the writ petition. The Court has further directed that copies of the enquiry reports be shared with Shri Ramesh Abhishek and he may move an appropriate application before Lokpal for dealing with the findings/conclusions in the final report.

5. On a complaint made by certain end-clients of Anugrah Stock and Broking Private Limited (“Anugrah”), the Economic Offence Wing (“EOW”) registered first information report dated September 9, 2020, against Anugrah and its affiliates/promoters for defrauding clients under a Ponzi scheme and lured investors with assured returns of 15% to 20%. Although our subsidiary Nuvama Clearing Services Limited formerly known as Edelweiss Custodial Services Limited (“NCSL”) is not an accused in that matter, the Economic Offence Wing passed a direction marking a debit lien on NCSL’s clearing account held with Citibank to the tune of ₹4,603.20 million. NCSL challenged this direction before the 47th Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate’s Court at Esplanade, Mumbai. The Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate’s 47th Court at Esplanade, Mumbai has temporarily lifted the lien on NCSL’s Clearing Account by passing a stay order on NCSL’s undertaking to keep assets worth ₹4,603.20 million belonging to the Group unencumbered. Due to business exigencies, NCSL group entities were required to sell one of the securities listed in the undertaking namely, parcels of land situated at Alibaug. NCSL therefore, made an interim application before the Court inter-alia praying that NCSL be permitted to substitute Alibaug land property with a more liquid security of equivalent value in the form of Compulsory Convertible Debenture (“CCDs”) of the group/affiliate company of NCSL. The Court vide its order dated April 21, 2022, rejected the said interim application merely on the ground that once the security has been furnished the same cannot be substituted. Being aggrieved, NCSL filed a criminal writ petition before the High Court of Bombay (“Court”) challenging the said order dated April 21, 2022. By an order August 11, 2022, the Court allowed NCSL to withdraw the said petition with a liberty to file fresh application in the event NCSL intends to provide other security as replacement to the previous security. NCSL has filed misc. application dated October 04, 2022, in the session court inter-alia to permit NCSL to substitute the securities given in the undertaking dated October 22, 2020, with the securities mentioned in the application and other prayers mentioned therein. EOW filed its stay dated October 21, 2022, to the application. NCSL filed its affidavit dated November 04, 2022, with express undertaking that NCSL shall provide additional security in the event of fall in the value of the security provided. By an order dated December 07, 2022, the Sessions Court allowed the application. The original misc. application filed by NCSL before 47th Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's Court at Esplanade, Mumbai is now transferred to the Maharashtra Protection of Interest of Depositors Act ("MPID") court (Session Court). This matter is currently pending.

7. REASONS FOR THE SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT

Rationale as provided in the Scheme

- 1. The Demerged Company and the Resulting Company seek to reorganise their respective businesses, by transfer of the Demerged Undertaking from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company, so as to consolidate the wealth management business under one single entity (i.e., the Resulting Company).
- 2. The demerger of the Demerged Undertaking from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company will result in the equity shares of the Resulting Company becoming listed on the National Stock Exchange of India Limited and BSE Limited, with the Resulting Company focusing exclusively on wealth management business and capable of independent valuation and participation therein by any suitable investor interested in such businesses, in the future.
- 3. The proposed restructuring pursuant to the Scheme is expected, inter alia, to result in following benefits:
 - i) value unlocking of wealth management business with ability to achieve valuation based on respective risk return profile and cash flows;
 - ii) attracting business specific investors and strategic partners and providing better flexibility in accessing capital, focused strategy and specialisation for sustained growth and thereby enable de-leveraging of the respective businesses in the longer-term;
 - iii) segregation and unbundling of the wealth management business of the Demerged Company into the Resulting Company, will enable enhanced focus on the Demerged Company and the Resulting Company for exploiting opportunities in their respective business domains; and
 - iv) focused management approach for pursuing the growth in the respective business' verticals and de-risk the businesses from each other.

- An order dated 12 May 2023 was passed by the Special MPID Court, Mumbai in a case that relates to the Rupees 5600 crore NSEL scam in which EOW of Mumbai Police has reportedly filed 11 chargesheets against the accused including NSEL, 63 Moons Technologies Ltd, defaulters, brokers etc. Forward Markets Commission (FMC) or Shri Ramesh Abhishek were never a party in this case. From one of the orders passed by Special MPID Court, it appears that NSEL had filed an application in MPID Court to investigate "the role of Shri Ramesh Abhishek" in the allegations which have been mentioned in their application. MPID Court passed an order to investigate "the role of Shri Abhishek" in the NSEL matter despite strong opposition of the Prosecution. Shri Abhishek has filed an appeal against the order of the MPID Court before the Bombay High Court. The appeal was heard by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court on 16th and then 20th June 2023. This matter was posted for 1st August 2023 on the main point that no investigation can be initiated on the application of the accused. The Hon'ble Court also ordered the investigating officer not to file any report in the said case till the next date. The Court has also noted the submission of the Public Prosecutor that there will be no coercive measure taken against the appellant. The Hon'ble Court had posted the matter for hearing on August 25. The matter came up for hearing on August 25 and the Court allowed Shri Abhishek's amendment petition, wherein he had prayed for adding one more ground of appeal that prior sanction of Government that is required before ordering investigation against a public servant, was not taken. The court will now hear the matter on October 23, 2023. The Ad-interim relief continues till that date.
- A complaint was filed in May 2019 against Shri Abhishek with the Lokpal, CBI, CVC, PMO and NSA. It also contained many allegations relating to NSEL and FMC that have been made by NSEL and 63 Moons Technologies Ltd in other cases. In June 2021, the Lokpal took note of this complaint and sought the comments of Shri Ramesh Abhishek. In his detailed replies on affidavits with supporting documents, Shri Ramesh Abhishek drew attention to the completely false and motivated nature of the complaint. However, the Lokpal decided to order a preliminary enquiry under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013 by their order dated 2.2.2022 and continued the same by their subsequent order of 3rd January 2023. Shri Ramesh Abhishek filed a writ petition in the Delhi High Court seeking quashing of the order of the Lokpal of India. Vide its order dated 10th May, 2023, the Hon'ble High Court has directed that the Lokpal will first pass a reasoned order after hearing Shri Ramesh Abhishek on the various contentions raised in the writ petition. The Court has further directed that copies of the enquiry reports be shared with Shri Ramesh Abhishek and he may move an appropriate application before Lokpal for dealing with the findings/conclusions in the final report.

- An order dated 12 May 2023 was passed by the Special MPID Court, Mumbai in a case that relates to the Rupees 5600 crore NSEL scam in which EOW of Mumbai Police has reportedly filed 11 chargesheets against the accused including NSEL, 63 Moons Technologies Ltd, defaulters, brokers etc. Forward Markets Commission (FMC) or Shri Ramesh Abhishek were never a party in this case. From one of the orders passed by Special MPID Court, it appears that NSEL had filed an application in MPID Court to investigate "the role of Shri Ramesh Abhishek" in the allegations which have been mentioned in their application. MPID Court passed an order to investigate "the role of Shri Abhishek" in the NSEL matter despite strong opposition of the Prosecution. Shri Abhishek has filed an appeal against the order of the MPID Court before the Bombay High Court. The appeal was heard by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court on 16th and then 20th June 2023. This matter was posted for 1st August 2023 on the main point that no investigation can be initiated on the application of the accused. The Hon'ble Court also ordered the investigating officer not to file any report in the said case till the next date. The Court has also noted the submission of the Public Prosecutor that there will be no coercive measure taken against the appellant. The Hon'ble Court had posted the matter for hearing on August 25. The matter came up for hearing on August 25 and the Court allowed Shri Abhishek's amendment petition, wherein he had prayed for adding one more ground of appeal that prior sanction of Government that is required before ordering investigation against a public servant, was not taken. The court will now hear the matter on October 23, 2023. The Ad-interim relief continues till that date.
- A complaint was filed in May 2019 against Shri Abhishek with the Lokpal, CBI, CVC, PMO and NSA. It also contained many allegations relating to NSEL and FMC that have been made by NSEL and 63 Moons Technologies Ltd in other cases. In June 2021, the Lokpal took note of this complaint and sought the comments of Shri Ramesh Abhishek. In his detailed replies on affidavits with supporting documents, Shri Ramesh Abhishek drew attention to the completely false and motivated nature of the complaint. However, the Lokpal decided to order a preliminary enquiry under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013 by their order dated 2.2.2022 and continued the same by their subsequent order of 3rd January 2023. Shri Ramesh Abhishek filed a writ petition in the Delhi High Court seeking quashing of the order of the Lokpal of India. Vide its order dated 10th May, 2023, the Hon'ble High Court has directed that the Lokpal will first pass a reasoned order after hearing Shri Ramesh Abhishek on the various contentions raised in the writ petition. The Court has further directed that copies of the enquiry reports be shared with Shri Ramesh Abhishek and he may move an appropriate application before Lokpal for dealing with the findings/conclusions in the final report.
