FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

General Risk

Investment in non-convertible securities is risky and investors should not invest any funds in such securities unless they can afford to take the risk attached to such investments. Investors are advised to take an informed decision and to read the risk factors carefully before investing in this offering. For taking an investment decision, investors must rely on their examination of the Issue including the risks involved in it.

Specific attention of investors is invited to statement of risk factors contained under section "Risk Factors" on page 20 and "Material Developments" on page 212 before making an investment in such Issue. These risks are not, and are not intended to be, a complete list of all risks and considerations relevant to the non-convertible securities or investor's decision to purchase such securities.

Certain statements contained in this Draft Shelf Prospectus that are not statements of historical fact constitute "forward-looking statements". Investors can generally identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as "aim", "anticipate", "believe", "continue", "could", "estimate", "expect", "intend", "may", "objective", "plan", "potential", "project", "pursue", "shall", "seek", "should", "will", "would", or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe our strategies, objectives, plans or goals are also forward-looking statements. All statements regarding our expected financial conditions, results of operations, business plans and prospects are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include statements as to our business strategy, revenue and profitability, new business and other matters discussed in this Draft Shelf Prospectus that are not historical facts. All statements contained in this Draft Shelf Prospectus that are not statements of historical fact constitute "forward-looking statements" and are not forecasts or projections relating to our Company's financial performance.

All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about the Company that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations of the Company include, among others:

- General economic and business conditions in India and globally;
- Ability to effectively manage our growth or successfully implement business plans and growth strategies;
- Ability to compete effectively and access funds at competitive costs;
- Ability to control or reduce the level of non-performing assets in our portfolio;
- Changes in the value of Rupee and other currency changes;
- Unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, gold prices, global bullion prices or other rates or prices;
- Availability of funds and willingness of the lenders of the Company to lend;
- Changes in political conditions in India;
- The rate of growth of the loan assets of the Company;
- The outcome of any legal or regulatory proceedings the Company is or may become a party to;
- Changes in Indian laws and regulations, including tax, accounting, banking, securities, insurance and other regulations; changes in competition and the pricing environment in India; and regional or general changes in asset valuations;
- Any changes in connection with policies, statutory provisions, regulations and/or RBI directions in connection with NBFCs, including laws that impact lending rates and the Companys' ability to enforce our collateral;
- Competition from existing as well as new competitors;
- Performance of the Indian debt and equity markets;
- Occurrence of natural calamities or natural disasters affecting the areas in which our Company has operations; and
- Other factors discussed in the Draft Shelf Prospectus, including under the section titled "Risk Factors" on page 20.

Additional factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially include, but are not limited to, those discussed in "Our Business", "Risk Factors" on pages 144 and 20, and "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults" on page 286. The forward-looking statements contained in this Draft Shelf Prospectus are based on the beliefs of management, as well as the assumptions made by, and information currently available to management. Although our Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable as of the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, our Company cannot assure investors that such expectations will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. If any of these risks and uncertainties materialize, or if any of our underlying assumptions prove to be incorrect, our actual results of operations or financial condition could differ materially from that described herein as anticipated, believed, estimated or expected. All subsequent forward-looking statements attributable to us are expressly qualified in their entirety by reference to these cautionary statements.

Neither our Company, its Directors and its officers, nor any of their respective affiliates or associates, Lead Manager nor any of its Directors and its officers have any obligation to update or otherwise revise any statements reflecting circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of underlying events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition. In accordance with the SEBI NCS Regulations, our Company, the Lead Manager will ensure that investors in India are informed of material developments between the date of filing the Shelf Prospectus and relevant Tranche Prospectus with the RoC and the date of commencement of listing and trading of the securities offered through the relevant Tranche Issue.

SECTION II : RISK FACTORS

The following are some of the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company's expectations:

The following are the risks envisaged by the management of the Company relating to the Company, the secured NCDs and the market in general. Potential investors should carefully consider all the risk factors stated in this Disclosure Document in relation to the secured NCDs for evaluating the Company and its business and the secured NCDs before making any investment decision relating to the secured NCDs. The Company believes that the factors described below represents the principal risks inherent in investing in the secured NCDs but does not represent that the statements below regarding the risks of holding the secured NCDs are exhaustive. The ordering of the risk factors is intended to facilitate ease of reading and reference and does not in any manner indicate the importance of one risk factor over another. Potential investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Draft Shelf Prospectus and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision. If any one of the following stated risks actually occurs, the Company's business, financial conditions and results of operations could suffer and, therefore, the value of the Company's secured NCDs could decline and/or the Company's ability to meet its obligations in respect of the secured NCDs could be affected. More than one risk factor may have simultaneous affect with regard to the secured NCDs such that the effect of a particular risk factor may not be predictable. In addition, more than one risk factor may have a compounding effect which may not be predictable. No prediction can be made as to the effect that any combination of risk factors may have on the value of the secured NCDs and/or the Company's ability to meet its obligations in respect of the secured NCDs. These risks and uncertainties are not the only issues that the Company faces. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently believes to be immaterial may also have a material adverse effect on its financial condition or business. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors, the Company is not in a position to quantify the financial or other implications of any risk mentioned herein below.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

Risks relating to the Company and its Business

1. If our customers default in their repayment obligations, we may be unable to control the level of NPAs in our portfolio. As of March 31, 2026, our GNPA and NNPA were 1.61% and 0.74% on a consolidated basis and 1.03% and 0.57% on a standalone basis, respectively. Any inability to control the level of NPAs in our portfolio or improve our provisioning coverage ratio, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

   Our business is subject to risks arising from borrower defaults and deterioration in asset quality, which may result in an increase in non-performing assets ("NPAs") and credit losses. We offer a range of lending products, including gold loans, business loans, loans against property, supply chain financing, digital loans, microfinance and housing loans. Our profitability depends on our ability to evaluate our customers, assess the credit risks and to price our loans accordingly. If we are unable to effectively manage credit appraisal, portfolio monitoring and recovery processes, the proportion of NPAs in our loan portfolio could increase or there may be a delay in the recovery of dues, which may, in turn, have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

   As of March 31, 2026, our AUM was ₹73,44,471.90 lakhs, on consolidated basis, and ₹56,18,510.03 lakhs on standalone basis and we expect that the size of our AUM will grow in the future, which will expose us to an increased risk of customer default. Borrowers, and their guarantors under our loan agreements, may default in their repayment obligations due to a variety of reasons including loss of income, loss of employment, insolvency, lack of liquidity, increase in operating costs or business failure or closure (including due to statutory non-compliance). Many factors that are beyond our control, such as macro-economic factors, applicable laws and rules and competition as well as customer specific factors such as willful default and mismanagement of a customer's finances or operations, may cause a further increase in the level of NPAs and have an adverse impact on the quality of our loan portfolio. Further, certain aspects of the recovery of non-performing loans, such as the use of recovery agents, asset classification norms, income recognition policies and mandatory provisioning requirements are subject to compliance with regulatory requirements. Any limitation on our ability to recover, control and reduce non-performing loans as a result of these guidelines or otherwise could affect our collections and ability to foreclose on existing NPAs.

   To the extent we are unable to successfully manage the risks associated with lending to our customers, we may face difficulties in recovering our loans. Prolonged adverse economic conditions, a sharp increase in interest rates or other negative trends affecting our customers may also lead to higher levels of NPAs in our portfolio. Any increase in NPAs could reduce our interest income, require higher provisions for expected credit losses and increase the costs associated with servicing and collecting non-performing loans, thereby adversely affecting our revenue from operations and profitability. In addition, we may not be able to continue expanding our portfolio at high growth rates without deterioration in the overall credit quality of our loans. If the credit quality of our loan portfolio deteriorates, our current provisioning levels may be insufficient to cover the resulting increase in NPAs. We cannot assure you that our provisioning coverage as a percentage of gross NPAs will not deteriorate, or that our NPA recovery rates will be consistent with our past experience. If we are unable to control our NPAs, the overall quality of our loan portfolio could deteriorate, our credit ratings could be downgraded and our cost of funds could increase, any of which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

2. As of March 31, 2026, ₹49,33,120.10 lakhs aggregating to 67.17% of our Company's AUM was attributable to our gold loans. We are exposed to volatility in gold prices, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business is significantly dependent on our gold loan portfolio, which constitutes 67.17% of our AUM, as of March 31, 2026. Set out below are details of our AUM of our gold loans, on standalone basis, as of the dates indicated:

Product	As of March 31,
	2026		2025		2024
	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)
Gold Loans	49,33,120.09	67.17%	26,99,217.26	57.47%	19,50,392.54	53.90%

As a result of this concentration, we are exposed to risks specific to the gold loan segment as well as fluctuations in gold prices. Gold prices are inherently volatile and influenced by macroeconomic conditions, global demand-supply dynamics, wars, currency movements and investor sentiment, which are beyond our control. While we maintain loan-to-value ratios within applicable regulatory limits and our internal risk thresholds, including through portfolio monitoring, automated triggers and customer communications, there can be no assurance that such measures will be sufficient in all circumstances. The applicable regulatory framework prescribes loan-to-value requirements for loans, and any significant or sudden decline in gold prices may cause the loan-to-value ratios of certain loans in our portfolio to increase and, in some cases, exceed applicable regulatory limits or our internal thresholds. Any such breach of applicable loan-to-value requirements may require us to take corrective actions, including seeking additional collateral, partial repayment or loan recall, and may also expose us to regulatory scrutiny, penalties or other action, which could adversely affect our reputation, operations and financial condition.

In the event of borrower default, we recover our dues primarily through auction of pledged gold, and the realizable value of such collateral depends on prevailing market prices of gold at the time of enforcement. While our internal risk management guidelines on portfolio monitoring, include periodic assessment of loan-to-value ratios including through automated triggers, where SMS alerts are sent to borrowers at greater than 80% LTV, notices at greater than 85% LTV and recall of loans at greater than 90% LTV, in the event of a significant decrease in the prices of gold, there can be no assurance that these measures will be sufficient to prevent any adverse effects on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Further, if gold prices decline between the time of loan origination and the auction of pledged assets, we may be unable to recover the full outstanding amount, including accrued interest and charges, which could result in higher credit losses and increased provisioning requirements. Also see, " – Our inability to recover the full value of collateral or amounts outstanding under defaulted loans in a timely manner or at all could adversely affect our results of operations." on page 25.

Further, our continued dependence on the gold loan business exposes us to risks such as changes in customer demand, increased competition from banks, other non-banking financial companies and unorganized lenders, and changes in the regulatory environment, auction processes and lending practices. Any adverse developments in the gold loan segment in the future, including sustained volatility or decline in gold prices, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

3. Our Company is regulated by the RBI and is subject to periodic inspections. Non-compliance with the RBI's observations could result in regulatory actions which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our Company is regulated by the RBI. We are subject to the supervision, directions and reporting requirements of the RBI, including those relating to capital adequacy, asset classification, provisioning, exposure norms and liquidity management. The regulatory framework governing NBFCs has evolved significantly and continues to change, including through amendments to prudential norms and guidelines governing bank exposure to NBFCs. Any such changes may require us to modify our business strategies or operations, increase our compliance costs, or affect our ability to access funding. Compliance with such laws and regulations may also involve significant costs. Further, any divergence between our interpretation and that of regulatory authorities may expose us to regulatory action, including penalties.

Our Company is also subject to periodic inspection by the RBI, pursuant to which the RBI inspects our books of accounts and other records for the purpose of verifying the correctness or completeness of any statement, information or particulars furnished to the RBI.

RBI observations on the Company

In the recent inspection and risk assessment for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2026, the RBI issued observations on certain processes and procedures followed by our Company, including alleged inadequate oversight by the Board of Directors over (a) the introduction of new gold loan schemes; (b) risks arising from cross-entity sales arrangements with Group Entities for sourcing its products; (c) sale of stressed assets to asset reconstruction company, gaps in our (i) early warning system; (ii) fraud risk management; (iii) information technology and internal audit functions, and the levy of minimum interest charges on top-up loans availed through Muthoot FinCorp ONE App, despite the accrued interest being lower. Our Company is in the process of submitting its response to the RBI inspection report.

In the inspection and risk assessment for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, the RBI issued observations on certain processes and procedures followed by our Company and shortcomings in the governance framework, and gaps in the compliance and internal audit functions. The RBI's observations included inadequate board oversight of the predominant gold loan portfolio on account of non-adherence to income recognition and asset classification norms during renewals and breaches of LTV limits, lapses in the board's review of the fraud risk management process including underreporting of frauds, delays in refund of excess amounts collected during auctions, incorrect reporting of interest income and related metrics and incorrect computation of interest leading to excess interest being charged to customers due to delayed credit of loan proceeds on account of technical issues.

In the inspection and risk assessment for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2024, the RBI issued observations on certain processes and procedures followed by our Company and shortcomings in the governance framework, and gaps in the compliance and internal audit functions. The RBI's observations included the ICAAP stress testing framework not being comprehensive with scenarios predominantly focused on the gold loan portfolio without adequately capturing the risk characteristics of non-gold portfolios, inadequacy in the Board's review of the Fair Practices Code evidenced by a spike in customer complaints relating to non-availability of loan amounts under EGL loans processed through UPI mode, login fees collected for the MSME LAP product without documented rationale and non-recording of the degree of purity of gold accepted as collateral at the time of granting of gold loans.

While our Company has responded to and addressed the observations for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, and has undertaken corrective measures pursuant to such observations wherever required, we cannot assure you that the RBI will not make similar or other observations in the future. In the event we are unable to resolve such deficiencies, we may be exposed to penalties, restrictions and cancellation of relevant licenses or permissions, which may adversely affect our ability to conduct our business as we currently do or to cause us to discontinue existing product lines. While we seek to comply with all regulatory provisions applicable to us, in the event we are unable to comply with the observations made by the RBI, we could be subject to penalties and restrictions.

For instance, in Financial Year 2026, the RBI imposed a monetary penalty of ₹2.70 lakhs on our Company for non-compliance with certain provisions of the Reserve Bank of India (Internal Ombudsman for Regulated Entities) Directions, 2023. Further, RBI observed underreporting of frauds and absence of periodic risk review of customers, which indicated a weak compliance culture. Our Company has paid the penalty in full.

Further, in the inspection and risk assessment for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, the RBI issued observations on certain processes and procedures followed by our Company. The RBI's observations included non-compliance with supervisory directions regarding monitoring and maintenance of the loan-to-value ratio within prescribed limits, delays in refund of pending auction surplus amounts to customers, and observations relating to gold loan processes.

4. Our business is vulnerable to interest rate risk, and volatility in interest rates could have an adverse effect on our interest income and interest margin, thereby affecting our results of operations.

We are exposed to fluctuations in interest rates, which may adversely affect our interest income, margins and overall profitability. Our lending and borrowing activities are subject to changes in interest rates, which may impact both our cost of funds and the yields on our loan portfolio. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, inflationary expectations, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors, which have historically generated a relatively high degree of volatility in interest rates in India. Competitive pressures may also require us to routinely lower the interest rates at which we lend to our customers without a proportionate reduction in interest rates at which we borrow. Our customers may also choose to transfer their existing loans, particularly where competing lenders offer lower interest rates, higher loan amounts, longer tenors, lower fees or more favourable repayment terms. If a significant number of customers transfer their loans to other lenders, our outstanding loan portfolio may decline or grow more slowly than expected, and may adversely affect our interest income, cross-sell opportunities and customer relationships.

Income from our Company's financing activities is the largest component of our total income and constituted 99.43%, 99.01%, 98.82% and 98.68% of our Company's total income on a standalone basis as on June 30, 2026, for the Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024, respectively. Further, as of October 1, 2026, June 30, 2026, March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, the total secured borrowings of the Company aggregated to ₹ 41,71,596.23 lakhs, ₹ 38,80,073.63 lakhs, ₹ 34,96,082.35 lakhs, ₹ 22,37,974.84 lakhs and ₹ 18,17,629.76 lakhs, respectively and unsecured borrowings of our Company aggregated to ₹ 11,76,032.36 lakhs, ₹ 9,82,532.36 lakhs, ₹ 8,64,838.98 lakhs, ₹ 3,47,483.08 lakhs and ₹ 2,14,117.72 lakhs, respectively.

If interest rates decline, yields on our loan assets may potentially reduce faster than our cost of funds, particularly where our liabilities are fixed-rate, which may also adversely affect our interest income. In addition, our funding profile includes borrowings with varying maturities, and any mismatch between the maturity profile of our assets and liabilities may expose us to liquidity risks. Conversely, if interest rates increase, our borrowing costs may rise, and we may not be able to pass on such increases to our customers in a timely or effective manner due to competitive, regulatory or contractual constraints, which could compress our net interest margins. Further, our treasury operations, including investments in fixed income securities and other financial instruments, are subject to mark-to-market risks arising from changes in interest rates. Volatility in interest rates may result in valuation losses on our investment portfolio and impact our other income.

While we seek to manage such risks through asset-liability management policies and treasury risk management practices, there can be no assurance that these measures will be sufficient under all circumstances. Any sustained volatility or unfavorable movement in interest rates may adversely affect our net interest income, business, financial condition and results of operations.

5. We are dependent on borrowings to fund our operations, and any disruption in our ability to access or maintain such funding may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our financing requirements have historically been met from several sources, including through proceeds of term loans, commercial paper and non-convertible debentures and external commercial borrowings. We have active lending relationships across banks and financial institutions, including public sector banks, private sector banks and foreign banks. Our non-convertible debentures and commercial paper are listed on the debt segment of BSE Limited ("BSE"). Any downgrade in our credit ratings could increase our cost of borrowing including interest rates for refinancing our borrowings.

Our ability to raise funds in a timely manner on acceptable terms, or at all, depends on several factors including our current and future results of operations, our risk management policies, our credit ratings, our brand equity, the regulatory environment and policy initiatives in India, including the regulatory restrictions and monetary policy prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India ("RBI"), and developments in the international markets affecting the Indian economy, among others. For instance, in terms of the RBI Master Direction DOR.CRE.REC.77/07-03-001/2025-26 on Reserve Bank of India (Commercial Banks - Concentration Risk Management) Directions, 2025 dated November 28, 2025, a bank's exposure to a single non-banking financial company that is predominantly engaged in lending against collateral of gold jewellery (i.e., such loans comprising 50% or more of its financial assets) shall not exceed 7.5% of the bank's capital funds. However, this exposure ceiling may go up by 5%, i.e., up to 12.5% of a bank's capital funds, if the additional exposure is on account of funds on-lent by such NBFCs to the infrastructure sector. Further, banks shall maintain an internal sub-limit on their aggregate exposure (both fund-based and non-fund-based) to all NBFCs having gold loans to the extent of 50% or more of their total financial assets, taken together. This sub-limit should be within the internal limit, where fixed by the bank for its aggregate exposure to all NBFCs put together. This limits the exposure that banks may have to NBFCs such as us, which may restrict our ability to borrow from certain banks and may increase our cost of borrowing.

We cannot assure you that we will continue to generate sufficient cash flows to enable us to service our existing and future borrowings or to fund our other liquidity needs. Any disruption in the availability of such funding, including due to adverse market conditions, tightening liquidity in the financial system, changes in regulatory policies, or deterioration in our credit profile, may constrain our ability to grow our loan portfolio or meet our repayment obligations. Any failure to maintain adequate liquidity, diversify our funding sources or refinance our existing borrowings on acceptable terms may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

6. Our Company handles high volumes of gold in a dispersed network of branches. As of March 31, 2026, ₹49,33,120.10 lakhs aggregating to 67.17% of AUM was attributable to our gold loans. This exposes us to operational risks, including incorrect assessment of the purity of gold, misappropriation of cash, pledge of stolen jewellery by customers, frauds by employees and burglary, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our gold loan operations involve handling significant volumes of gold at our branches. Set out below are details of the gold pledged with us, on standalone basis, as of the dates indicated.

Particulars	As of March 31,
Gold pledged (in tonnes)	62.33	56.47	50.68

The handling of gold and cash as part of our gold loan operations exposes us to risks, including incorrect assessment of the purity or quality of gold jewellery offered as collateral, misappropriation of cash, pledge of stolen gold by customers, employee or third-party fraud, theft, burglary, misappropriation and unauthorised transactions. Our employees may also face personal safety risks, including physical harm, in connection with such incidents. In addition, there is a risk of loss, misplacement, misdelivery or erroneous handling of gold pledged with us. During Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, the amount involved in gold loan-related misappropriation and burglary aggregated to ₹1,488.89 lakhs, ₹652.21 lakhs and ₹428.96 lakhs, respectively. While such losses are covered by insurance, we also initiate legal proceedings against relevant employees to recover such losses. See also "— Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition" on page 37.

While we have implemented various controls, including maker-checker appraisal processes, periodic gold quality audits, operational audits, surveillance systems with cameras and motion sensors, secure vault infrastructure and insurance coverage for pledged gold, there can be no assurance that such measures will be sufficient to prevent or detect all instances of fraud, theft, pledge of stolen gold, cash misappropriation, incorrect gold appraisal or other operational lapses. Any such failure may expose us to claims, legal proceedings, regulatory scrutiny, financial losses and reputational harm, and may adversely affect customer confidence in our processes and controls.

7. This Draft Shelf Prospectus includes certain unaudited financial information, which has been subjected to limited review, in relation to our Company. Reliance on such information should, accordingly, be limited.

This Draft Shelf Prospectus includes unaudited financial information in relation to our Company for the quarter ended June 2026, in respect of which the Auditors have issued their limited review report dated August 14, 2026. The Unaudited Standalone Financial Results prepared by our Company in accordance with Regulation 52(2) of the Listing Regulations have been subject only to a limited review and as described in Standard on Review Engagements (SRE) 2410, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity" issued by the ICAI, and not to an audit, any reliance by prospective investors on such Unaudited Standalone Financial Results should, accordingly, be limited. Additionally, in accordance with applicable law, our Company is required to publish its quarterly financial information with the stock exchanges.

8. We rely on the "MUTHOOT" and "Muthoot Pappachan" brand names and any failure to protect, register or continue using such trademarks and logos could adversely affect our business and competitive position.

We derive substantial benefits from our association with the Muthoot Pappachan Group, including the use of the "Muthoot" and "Muthoot Pappachan" brand names, which are associated with trust and customer recall. Our association with the Muthoot Pappachan Group also enables us to benefit from brand recognition, cross-selling opportunities, customer referrals and relationships with customers who have existing relationships with other Muthoot Pappachan Group entities.

We do not own trademarks, brand names, and logos across various classes incorporating the marks "MUTHOOT" and "Muthoot Pappachan", including the "" trademark or the "" logo which are assigned to our promoter group entity, Muthoot Holdings Private Limited by our Promoters, Thomas John Muthoot, Thomas George Muthoot, and Thomas Muthoot. Muthoot Holdings Private Limited has also applied for the registration of certain trademarks under various classes. We have entered into a trademark license agreement with Muthoot Holdings Private Limited, dated August 12, 2026, pursuant to which the Company has been granted a non-exclusive licence to use certain trademarks, brand names and logos incorporating "MUTHOOT", "Muthoot Pappachan", and related marks, including the trademarks applied for, assigned to Muthoot Holdings Limited in connection with its business activities in India and outside. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, our Company is required to pay an annual royalty equal to 0.40% of its operating turnover to Muthoot Holdings Private Limited, a promoter group entity, for the use of such trademarks.

Further, the trademarks "Muthoot FinCorp" and the "" logo are pending registration, and the applications filed by our Promoters for registration of such trademark and logo have been opposed, although there are currently no restrictions on their use. Certain members of our Promoter Group are also parties to proceedings concerning the registration and use of the trademark "Muthoot", including a suit filed by M. Mathew before the District Court at Kottayam against the Muthoot Pappachan Group alleging infringement of such trademark, and rectification proceedings initiated by certain members of our Promoter Group seeking cancellation or rectification of such registration. For further details see "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults - Litigations involving the Directors – Material civil proceedings against any director of the Company" on page 290. Any adverse outcome in these proceedings could restrict or otherwise affect the use of the "Muthoot" name by members of our Promoter Group and, consequently, our continued use of trademarks and branding incorporating such name, which could adversely affect our brand recognition, reputation, business and results of operations.

We have one registered trademark, in respect of the logo "" under class 36 with the Registrar of Trademarks in India to protect our intellectual property. See "Our Business – Intellectual Property, Licenses and Registrations" on page 175. However, our existing trademarks may expire and we may not be able to renew them. Our pending or future trademark applications may not be approved, and our current or future trademarks or other intellectual property rights may be challenged or opposed. We may also be unable to prevent third parties from registering, acquiring or using trademarks or service marks that are similar to, infringe upon or diminish the value of, our trademarks, brand names, logos or other intellectual property rights.

Any disassociation from the Muthoot Pappachan Group, weakening of our relationship with our Promoters, change in shareholding or control of our Promoters, or cessation or dilution of our ability to use the relevant brand names, trademarks or logos could adversely affect our ability to leverage the goodwill associated with these brands, attract and retain customers, expand our business and maintain our competitive position. In addition, any failure to obtain, maintain, protect or enforce our rights to use such trademarks, logos or brand names, or any successful challenge to such rights, could result in customer confusion, reputational harm, increased expenses or restrictions on our use of such marks. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, reputation and competitive position.

9. Our inability to recover the full value of collateral or amounts outstanding under defaulted loans in a timely manner or at all could adversely affect our results of operations.

For our secured products, we take the underlying asset as collateral for the loan. For instance, for gold loans we typically take gold jewellery or ornaments as collateral and for our loans against property we typically take immovable property as collateral. For home loans, the underlying asset that is being financed is taken as collateral. Set out below are details of our unsecured and secured AUM, on a standalone basis, as of the dates indicated:

 includes digital lending loans, business loans, personal loans, supply chain finance, high value loans, staff loan*

For gold loans, the value of gold is directly linked to prevailing market prices of gold, which are inherently volatile and influenced by global macroeconomic conditions, interest rate movements, currency fluctuations, geopolitical developments, wars and investor sentiment. If the selling price of the collateral declines or experiences heightened volatility, the collateral coverage for outstanding loans may diminish, potentially resulting in higher loan-to-value ratios, increased credit losses upon default, and a need to recognize higher provisions. In periods of rapid price declines, for instance, the pace at which gold values fall may outstrip our ability to adjust underwriting parameters or proactively manage exposures, which could exacerbate loss severity. Additionally, we may not be able to realise the assessed or full value of our collateral due to various factors, including defects in the quality or purity of gold. In the event of a borrower default, we dispose the pledged gold through auctions. However, there can be no assurance that such auctions will yield proceeds sufficient to cover the outstanding dues. Further, delays in conducting such auctions may adversely impact recovery timelines. Any shortfall in realisation of collateral value may expose us to potential losses, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In cases where collateral is provided in the form of immovable property, the value of such collateral may decline during the term of the loan for a variety of reasons, including deterioration or adverse developments in the real estate sector. As a result, if our customers default, we may receive less money from liquidating such immovable property than is owed under the relevant financing facility, and, in turn, incur losses, even where we successfully repossess and liquidate the collateral. While we require borrowers to secure a guarantee on the basis of their profile, we may not be able to enforce or collect the amount owed under such guarantee, if at all. Under the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002, we may foreclose on immovable property we have taken as collateral after 60 days' notice once a loan is classified as non-performing. However, defaulting borrowers also have right to appeal to the Debt Recovery Tribunal, which may issue stay orders prohibiting asset sales. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that foreclosure proceedings would not be stayed. As a result, we may be unable to realize the full value of our collateral, which could expose us to potential losses. We may also encounter difficulties in repossessing and liquidating immovable property provided as collateral. When a customer defaults under a financing facility, we typically repossess and then sell the collateral through an auction. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully repossess the collateral in the event of default under a loan agreement. For instance, for loans against property and housing loans, certain ownership documents of the immovable properties that are mortgaged to us may not be duly registered or adequately stamped. Failure to adequately stamp and register a document renders the document inadmissible in evidence in India. Consequently, should any default arise in relation to the corresponding loans, we may be unable, or may incur additional expenses, to enforce our rights in relation to such mortgaged properties. Legal proceedings against defaulting customers, even if governed by an arbitration clause, can be slow and expensive. We may also not be able to sell the collateral at a price sufficient to cover the amount owed under the financing facility, or at all.

Any inability or delay in the repossession and liquidation of collateral in the future, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

10. A majority of our Company's branches are located in Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Tamil Nadu and Kerala, which contributed to 55.44% of our Company's assets under management as of June 30, 2026. Any adverse developments in these states could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our Company's business is significantly dependent on our extensive branch network as a primary distribution and customer engagement channel. While our Company operates in 25 states and union territories of India, 2592 branches out of the 3,872 branches we operated, as of September 30, 2026, were located in five states in southern India, namely, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Tamil Nadu and Kerala. Further, our Company operated in 25 states and union territories of India, 2592 branches out of the 3,845 branches we operated, as of June 30, 2026, were located in five states in southern India, namely, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Tamil Nadu and Kerala. Such states also contributed ₹ 35,11,306.14 lakhs comprising 55.44% of our Company's AUM as of June 30, 2026.

Consequently, any significant social, political or economic disruption, or natural calamities or civil disruptions in these regions, or changes in the policies of the state or local governments of these regions, could disrupt our business operations, require us to incur significant expenditure and change our business strategies. The occurrence of, or our inability to effectively respond to, any such event could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Further, our concentration in these regions may limit our ability to mitigate region-specific risks through geographic diversification. We have expanded our presence across multiple states in India and continue to pursue geographic diversification, there can be no assurance that such efforts will be sufficient to offset risks arising from our existing concentration. Any adverse change in the political and/or economic environment in the states of Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Goa and Karnataka or any unfavourable changes in the regulatory and policy regime in the said region could adversely affect our business operations, financial condition and/or profitability. Further, any changes in customer preferences in the said region could also affect our operations and profitability. If there is sustained downturn in the economy of southern India, our financial position may be adversely affected.

11. Our focus on lending to underbanked and informal segment borrowers exposes us to higher credit risks, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

A significant portion of our lending, including microfinance loans offered by our Subsidiary, is directed towards underbanked and informal segment borrowers, including individuals and small businesses, many of whom have limited or no formal credit history, irregular income streams, and limited financial documentation. As a result, we may face challenges in accurately assessing the creditworthiness and repayment capacity of such borrowers, which increases the risk of delinquencies and defaults. In addition, borrowers in these segments are more vulnerable to adverse economic conditions, including fluctuations in income, which may impair their ability to repay loans on time or at all. Our exposure to customers without established credit profiles or collateral in certain products may further increase the likelihood of credit losses and reduce recovery rates. Further, lending to such segments may involve higher operating costs and execution risks, including reliance on field-level sourcing, verification and collection mechanisms, which may be susceptible to errors, inefficiencies or misconduct.

While we have implemented underwriting standards, monitoring systems and collection processes, there can be no assurance that such measures will be sufficient to mitigate the inherent risks associated with this customer segment. Any increase in delinquencies, defaults or credit losses arising from our exposure to underbanked and informal segment borrowers may require us to make higher provisions and may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. We are subject to regulations in relation to minimum capital adequacy requirements and a decline in our CRAR will require us to raise fresh capital which may not be available on acceptable terms, or at all, which may affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. A decline in our capital adequacy ratio could also restrict our future business growth.

We are subject to regulations relating to the capital adequacy of NBFCs, which determine the minimum amount of capital we must hold as a percentage of the risk-weighted assets on our portfolio, or CRAR. Under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Prudential Norms on Capital Adequacy) Directions, 2025, as amended from time to time, our Company and our Subsidiaries are required to have a regulatory minimum CRAR of 15.00%, with a minimum Tier I capital of 12.00% in respect of our Company. Set out below are details of our Company's CRAR and other metrics related to capital adequacy, as at the dates indicated, calculated as per the RBI's Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Prudential Norms on Capital Adequacy) Directions, 2025, as amended from time to time:

Notes: As prescribed under applicable RBI regulations.
Tier I Capital, Tier II Capital, Total Capital, Risk Weighted Assets and CRAR are computed in accordance with relevant RBI guidelines.

As our Company continues to grow our loan portfolio and asset base, we will be required to raise additional Tier I and Tier II capital in order to continue to meet applicable capital adequacy ratios with respect to our business. Further, the RBI may increase its current CRAR requirements, which may require us to raise additional capital. We cannot assure you that we will be able to raise adequate additional capital in the future on acceptable terms, and this may adversely affect the growth of our business. Any inability in the future could result in non–compliance with applicable capital adequacy ratios, which could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and cash flows.

13. We are dependent on a number of key personnel, including our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management, and the loss of or our inability to attract or retain such personnel could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Company's business is dependent on our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management, who play a critical role in shaping our strategic direction, managing our operations and supporting the execution of our growth strategies. The loss of any such key personnel, or our inability to attract and retain qualified professionals with relevant industry expertise, could disrupt our operations, weaken our management capabilities and adversely affect our ability to implement our business plans. For details in relation to the experience of our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management, see "Our Promoters" and "Our Management" on pages 201 and 178, respectively. If one or more of these individuals were unwilling or unable to continue in their present positions, we may not be able to replace them with persons of comparable skill and expertise promptly, which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We may take a significant period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when skilled personnel terminate their employment with us. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting skilled employees that our business requires. If we are unable to hire and train replacement personnel in a timely manner or increase our levels of employee compensation to remain competitive, our business, financial results, results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected.

14. We rely significantly on our information technology systems. Any breach of, cyber-attacks on, unforeseen internal or external disruptions to, downtime of and inadequacy in our technology systems could adversely affect our business and lead to financial, legal, and reputational damage.

We use our technology platforms to assist with functions such as origination, underwriting, loan management, risk management, customer service and accounting. These platforms include Muthoot FinCorp ONE, our digital financial services platform and mobile application. We may be subject to disruptions or failures of our information technology systems arising from events that are wholly or partially beyond our control including, damage or incapacitation by human error, natural disasters, electrical or telecommunication outages, sabotage, computer viruses, hacking, cyber-attacks or similar events, or loss of support services from third parties, such as internet service providers, for which we may be held liable. Any disruption, degradation or unavailability of Muthoot FinCorp ONE or its integration with our core systems or third-party systems could adversely affect our operations. Our ability to operate and remain competitive will depend, in part, on maintaining resilient systems and a monitoring framework, and on our ability to maintain and upgrade our information technology systems on a timely and cost-effective basis. Any unforeseen internal or external disruptions, downtime and inadequacy in our technology systems may adversely affect our operations.

In addition, our systems are also vulnerable to data security breaches, whether by employees, who may have a lack of experience with our newer information technology systems, or others, that may expose sensitive or confidential data to unauthorized persons. The increasing use of Muthoot FinCorp ONE and other digital channels may also increase the volume of personal, financial and transactional data processed by us and the number of interfaces through which such data may be accessed, thereby increasing our exposure to cybersecurity and data-protection risks. Data security breaches could also lead to the loss of trade secrets or other intellectual property or could lead to the public exposure of personal information (including sensitive financial and personal information) of our borrowers and employees, which could result in breaches of applicable data security laws and imposition of monetary penalties and third-party claims for such breach.

The evolving regulatory frameworks relating to personal data protection, including the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 ("Data Protection Act"), may impose additional compliance obligations and require us to implement enhanced safeguards, processes and controls for handling personal data. For further details, see " – Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects." on page 46. Any security breaches or compromises of technology systems in the future could result in the institution of legal proceedings against us and the potential imposition of penalties, which could adversely affect our business and lead to financial, legal, and reputational damage.

15. Our Company's AUM has grown at a CAGR of 60.09% between the Financial Years 2024 and 2026. We cannot assure you that our growth strategies will continue to be successful or that we will be able to continue to grow at our historical rates, or at all.

We have experienced growth in the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, and have expanded our business and operations. Set forth below are certain metrics showing our growth as of or for the years presented.

Particulars	As of and for the Financial Year ended March 31,			CAGR (Financial Year 2024 - Financial Year 2026) (%)

Notes:

(1) AUM represents aggregate of gross principal outstanding of loans and the derecognized portion of loans which have been transferred by us by way of direct assignment and co-lending and are outstanding as of the last day of the relevant year.

(2) Disbursements represents the aggregate of all loan amounts extended to our customers in the relevant period.

Further, set forth below are certain metrics showing our growth for the years presented.

Particulars	As of and for the Financial Year ended March 31,			CAGR (Financial Year 2024 - Financial Year 2026) (%)

Our inability to manage our expansion effectively and execute our growth strategy in a timely manner, or within budget estimates, could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. Our ability to execute our growth strategies will depend, among other things, on our ability to identify key target markets correctly, manage our pricing to compete effectively, and scale up and grow our network efficiently. We rely on our network of branches as our primary origination channel. Our ability to expand and efficiently manage our branch network is subject to various operational, regulatory and cost-related challenges. We will also need to manage relationships with a greater number of customers, service providers, lenders and other parties as we expand.

In order to manage our growth effectively, we must implement, upgrade and improve our operational systems, processes, procedures and controls on a timely basis. If we fail to implement these systems, processes, procedures and controls on a timely basis, we may not be able to meet our customers' needs, hire and retain employees or operate our business effectively. Our ability to support such growth will also depend on our ability to generate sufficient internal accruals or raise additional capital and maintain capital adequacy levels above applicable regulatory requirements. Further, a number of external factors beyond our control could also affect our ability to continue to grow our business and loan portfolio, such as demand for credit in India, domestic economic growth, the RBI's monetary and regulatory policies, RBI regulations, inflation, competition and availability of cost-effective debt and equity capital. Further, we may also require additional regulatory approvals to expand to other lines of business, which we may not receive in a timely manner, or at all.

We cannot assure you that our existing or future management, operational and financial systems, processes, procedures and controls will be adequate to support future operations or establish or develop business relationships beneficial to future operations. While there has been no decrease in our AUM in the preceding three Financial Years, a failure to manage growth effectively could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations, cashflows and financial condition.

16. Our Erstwhile Joint Statutory Auditors and the Joint Statutory Auditors have highlighted certain observations in the audit reports relating to our audited financial statements which may affect our future financial results.

The Auditor's Report on the issued by our Erstwhile Joint Statutory Auditors for the Fiscals 2024 and the auditor's report issued by our Statutory Auditors for the Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2026, included certain observations. However, the auditor's opinion was unmodified. For further details of the observations, please refer "Financial Information" on page 211 and "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults - X. Summary of reservations or qualifications or adverse remarks or other observations by auditors in the audit report / CARO by the auditors in the last 3 (three) financial years i.e. Fiscal 2024 to Fiscal 2026; and their impact on the financial statements and financial position of the company and the corrective steps taken and proposed to be taken by the company for each of the said reservations or qualifications or adverse remarks" on page 294. There can be no assurance that our statutory auditors will not include further reservations or qualifications or other observations or other similar comments in the audit reports to our audited financial statements in the future, or that such remarks or observations will not affect our financial results in future fiscal periods. Investors should consider the reservations or qualifications or other observations and remarks in evaluating our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Any such matter of emphasis or remark in the auditors' report on our financial statements in the future may also adversely affect the trading price of the NCDs.

17. Our Company's extensive branch network and the widespread nature of our operations expose us to operational, technology, compliance and employee-related risks, and any failure to manage our branch network effectively could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

As as of September 30, 2026, we operated a network of 3,872 branches and a team of 2,886 business development officers and 2,208 feet-on-street personnel. Accordingly, we may be subject to risks inherent in managing a widespread distribution and branch network, including: (i) difficulties in upgrading, expanding, integrating and securing our technology systems; (ii) higher infrastructure and compliance costs; (iii) failure to maintain consistent internal controls, operating procedures and service standards across geographies; (iv) challenges in coordinating branch-level operations with centralized corporate, risk, compliance and administrative functions; (v) ensuring compliance with data protection, fair practices and other regulatory requirements; (vi) recruiting, training, supervising and retaining skilled branch personnel; and (vii) preventing fraud, theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, misconduct or operational lapses by employees.

Employee misconduct or integrity lapses may expose us to material risks, including unauthorised transactions, breaches of internal controls or limits, concealment of improper or unlawful activities, and misuse or disclosure of confidential or proprietary information, including customer data. Such conduct may also involve violations of applicable law or regulation, workplace discrimination or other offences, and could result in financial losses, regulatory action, penalties, reputational harm, loss of customer trust or operational disruption.

While we have adopted Board-approved policies which govern staff accountability, reporting and remedial action, we cannot assure you that employee disputes, misconduct or integrity lapses will not occur in the future. Further, we may be subject to legal proceedings arising from alleged misappropriation, criminal breach of trust, theft, stolen property and other misconduct by our employees. For further details, see "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults - Litigations against the Company – Criminal Proceedings" on page 287. Any significant employee-related disruption or misconduct, if not promptly and effectively addressed, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

An inability to manage our branch network, business development officers, feet-on-street teams, internal controls and compliance processes effectively could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

18. As of March 31, 2026, we had investments of ₹ 1,01,945.90 lakhs. Any decline in the value of our investments could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We hold investments in financial instruments, including listed equity shares as part of our treasury management activities. Set out below are details of our investments and interest income from investments as of and for the Financial Years indicated:

Particulars	As of March 31,

As of March 31, 2026, our Company held 50.21% of the paid-up equity share capital of our listed subsidiary, Muthoot Microfin, which comprised 62.20% of our Company's investments as of March 31, 2026. The value of our investments may fluctuate due to factors beyond our control, including volatility in equity markets, changes in interest rates, inflation, macroeconomic conditions, sector-specific developments, changes in credit ratings and domestic or global market disruptions. Our investment in equity shares of our Subsidiary is particularly exposed to market price volatility.

In the event of any adverse developments, there can be no assurance that we will be able to liquidate our investments at favourable prices or within the timelines required to meet our liquidity, funding or capital requirements, particularly during periods of economic stress or reduced trading liquidity.

Any significant decline in the value of our investments, including in listed equity shares of our Subsidiary, could result in mark-to-market losses, impairment charges, and reduced profitability which would adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, capital adequacy and prospects.

19. Our Company's inability to satisfy the financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our Company's financing arrangements, including certain loan agreements and terms and conditions governing our non-convertible debentures, contain restrictive covenants that require us to obtain prior written consent from, or provide prior notice to, the relevant lenders, financial institutions or debenture trustees before undertaking specified actions. These may include, among others, change in ownership or control of our Company, entering into any scheme of merger or amalgamation, spinning off a business division, selling or transferring all or a substantial portion of our assets, altering our capital structure, raising additional capital or debt, declaring or paying dividends, changing the composition of our Board, making changes to our Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management, amending our Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association, or making material changes to our accounting policies. Certain financing arrangements also require us to maintain prescribed financial ratios and, during the subsistence of the relevant facilities, may provide lenders or trustees with the right to appoint nominee directors to our Board.

These covenants vary depending on the requirements of the relevant lender, financial institution or debenture trustee and the terms negotiated under each financing document. Such covenants may restrict or delay actions or initiatives that we may propose to undertake from time to time, and will continue to apply to our Company after completion of the Issue. For details of our outstanding indebtedness and certain indicative terms of our borrowing facilities, see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 213. Although we seek to comply with such covenants and obtain waivers or consents where required, we cannot assure you that we will remain in compliance with all such covenants at all times.

Any breach of financial or other covenants under our financing arrangements could result in the acceleration of amounts due, termination of credit facilities, enforcement of security, or a requirement to repay all or part of our borrowings together with related costs. Any such event could limit our ability to obtain additional financing and require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flows to debt servicing, thereby reducing funds available for working capital and other general corporate purposes. This could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, we were required to obtain consents from certain lenders and trustees of our NCDs for the Issue, and we have received consents from all such lenders and trustees as of the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus.

20. Any termination, non-renewal or reduction in scale of our co-lending and direct assignment arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We enter into co-lending arrangements and direct assignment transactions with banks and other financial institutions. Set out below are details of our off-book AUM as of the dates indicated:

Particulars	As of March 31,
	2026		2025		2024
	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)	(₹ in lakhs)	(% of AUM)
Off-book AUM (standalone)	11,38,740.62	20.27%	7,53,178.67	23.50%	1,17,530.28	5.36%
Off-book AUM (consolidated)	13,48,658.70	18.36%	9,98,197.46	21.25%	3,87,498.34	10.71%

These arrangements enable us to originate and service loans, diversify our funding sources and manage balance sheet growth. However, our ability to continue to benefit from these arrangements depends on several factors that may be beyond our control, including the continued participation of our counterparties in such arrangements, changes in credit policies of our counterparties, regulatory requirements and commercial terms of such arrangements. Any termination, non-renewal, suspension of such arrangements or reduction in sanctioned limits under our co-lending arrangements may require us to fund a higher proportion of disbursements on our own balance sheet, seek alternative lenders, slow down origination or reduce disbursement volumes. There can be no assurance that alternative funding arrangements will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. Any such development could adversely affect our disbursements, AUM growth, liquidity, capital adequacy, profitability and results of operations.

Our direct assignment transactions are also subject to risks relating to, among others, demand and eligibility of receivables. Any underperformance of assigned pools could adversely affect our credit ratings and credibility and therefore our ability to conduct further assignments. In addition, changes in applicable laws or regulations relating to co-lending or direct assignment may reduce the feasibility or profitability of such arrangements.

Any changes to regulatory requirements in connection with co-lending or direct assignment structures could restrict our ability to enter into, continue or scale such arrangements, increase compliance costs, or require us to modify the terms of existing arrangements. There is no assurance that we will be able to comply with such requirements in a timely manner or at all, which could adversely affect our ability to maintain, renew or expand our co-lending and direct assignment arrangements. If we are unable to maintain, renew or expand our co-lending and direct assignment arrangements, our ability to grow our loan portfolio in a capital-efficient manner could be adversely affected.

21. We depend on the accuracy and completeness of information provided by potential customers, and our reliance on any misleading information may affect our judgement of creditworthiness of potential customers, which may affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

While evaluating potential customers, we follow KYC guidelines prescribed by the RBI, verify employment and residence details, conduct checks against the RBI's caution lists, undertake collateral valuation, obtain credit bureau reports from organizations such as CRIF and CIBIL, and carry out site visits and personal interactions. However, our credit assessment process also relies significantly on information provided by customers in respect of their income, assets, financial transactions and credit history, as well as inputs from independent valuers, credit bureaus and empaneled third-party agencies. We cannot assure you that such information, reports or verifications will always be accurate, complete or up to date. Any inaccuracies, misrepresentations or deficiencies in such information may impair our ability to assess the creditworthiness of customers or the value and title of collateral, which could result in higher delinquencies, an increase in non-performing assets and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Our risk management and credit appraisal measures may not be sufficient to prevent such occurrences.

Further, we also lend to "new-to-credit" customers, who may not have credit histories, tax returns and other documents that would ordinarily enable us to assess their creditworthiness. We may also not receive updated information regarding any change in the financial condition of our customers or may receive inaccurate or incomplete information. Moreover, the availability of accurate and comprehensive credit information on retail borrowers in India is limited, which reduces our ability to accurately assess the credit risk associated with such lending. Also see, " – Our focus on lending to underbanked and informal segment borrowers exposes us to higher credit risks, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations." on page 27.

22. We may face asset-liability mismatches, which could affect our liquidity and consequently may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Our assets and liabilities mature over different periods, which exposes us to potential liquidity risks. We monitor the contractual maturity periods of our assets and liabilities and categorize them based on the number of months and years in which they mature, as set forth below:

Particulars	As of March 31, 2026
	Assets	Liabilities	Cumulative mismatch
Maturity Period
Less than one month	4,22,393.18	1,58,115.45	2,64,277.73
Over one month up to three months	2,91,896.94	3,81,181.51	1,74,993.16
Over three months up to one year	45,01,377.30	22,50,093.90	24,26,276.56
Over one year up to five years	8,61,068.39	25,35,910.98	7,51,433.97
Over five years	4,39,277.53	4,46,488.10	7,44,223.40

Each of our products differs in terms of the average tenor, average yield, average interest rates and average size of loan. The average tenor of our products is less than the average tenor of our liabilities. Typically, the average maturity profile of our Company's lending portfolio is 4-5 months whereas the liabilities are of a longer term. For instance, as of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, 87.80%, 84.21% and 88.97%, respectively, of our Company's AUM (representing our Company's gold loan AUM) was due within 12 months from the end of the relevant period. The relatively short-tenor nature of these loans may result in asset-liability mismatches, including a short-term positive mismatch given that a portion of our borrowings typically have longer maturity profiles, while creating longer-term refinancing and reinvestment risks. In addition, existing customers may not obtain new gold loans from us upon maturity of their existing loans, particularly if competition increases. Any instability in our interest income could materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to raise capital (including debt financing) to achieve a favourable asset-liability maturity profile in the future. Any adverse instances in the future may lead to a liquidity risk and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

23. We are subject to the liquidity risk management rules promulgated by the RBI. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain such liquidity ratios, which may expose us to regulatory penalties, and in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The RBI has implemented the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Asset Liability Management) Directions, 2025. Under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Asset Liability Management) Directions, 2025, all non-deposit taking NBFCs with an asset size of ₹5,00,000 lakhs and above are required to maintain a minimum liquidity coverage ratio ("LCR"), which is a measure of an entity's stock of high quality liquid assets divided by its total net cash outflows over a 30-day stress period.

Set out below is a table showing our Company's LCR, and the prevailing minimum LCR as at the dates indicated:

Particulars	As of March 31,
	2026	2025	2024
Minimum LCR (%) [(1)]	100.00%	100.00%	100.00%
LCR (%) [(2)]	122.86%	131.34%	143.79%

Notes:
[(1)] As prescribed under applicable RBI regulations.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to maintain our respective LCR at or above the ratios required by the RBI, which may expose us to regulatory or other penalties, and may consequently have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. We operate in a highly competitive environment, and our inability to compete effectively may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

We operate in a highly competitive environment. Many of our competitors may have advantages, including access to lower-cost and diversified funding, stronger brand recognition, wider distribution networks, larger customer bases and greater technological capabilities. Unlike commercial banks and deposit-taking NBFCs, we do not have access to customer savings or current account deposits and rely on term loans, debentures and other borrowings, which may result in a higher cost of funds. Competitors may also offer unsecured loans or gold loans at lower interest rates, with more flexible repayment terms, lower or waived processing fees, faster digital journeys or other terms that are more favourable than ours.

Our ability to compete effectively depends on our ability to raise funding on competitive terms, maintain margins, manage customer acquisition costs and respond to changing customer expectations. Any increase in our cost of borrowing, inability to pass on such increases to customers, increase in lending rates that reduces demand, consolidation among competitors or increased focus by larger institutions on our target segments could adversely affect our business. While we have not experienced any material loss of business or market share attributable to competitive pressures or increases in interest rates during the last three Financial Years, if we are unable to respond effectively to these competitive pressures in the future, we may experience reduced growth, loss of market share, lower new loan originations and reduced profitability, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

25. There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, our Directors, our Promoters, our Subsidiaries. Failure to defend these proceedings successfully may have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, our Directors, our Promoters, and our Subsidiaries. These proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and arbitrators, from which further liability may arise. For further details of such outstanding legal proceedings, see "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults" on page 286.

Further, there are no pending litigation proceedings involving any of our Group Companies which will have a material impact on our Company. For further details of such outstanding legal proceedings, see "Outstanding Litigations and Defaults" on page 286. Involvement in such proceedings could divert our management's time and attention. We cannot assure you that these legal proceedings will be decided in our favour and that no further liability will arise out of these proceedings or would not have an adverse effect on our business, operations and financial condition. We may not have made any provisions for certain outstanding matters, and in the event of any adverse rulings in these proceedings or consequent levy of penalties, we may need to make payments or make provisions for future payments, which may increase expenses and current liabilities. Any adverse outcome in any of these proceedings may have an adverse effect on our business, reputation, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

26. We are subject to the risk of failure of, or a material weakness in, our internal control systems, which could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient to guarantee effective internal controls in all circumstances. Given the size and complexity of our operations, it is possible that errors may repeat or compound before they are discovered and rectified. Our operational risk control and monitoring mechanism as well as enterprise resource management systems and internal control procedures that are designed to monitor our operations and overall compliance may not identify every instance of non-compliance or every suspicious transaction. Moreover, while we use and operate various technology systems for various products, we may be dependent on certain manual processes to reconcile data between these technology systems, which exposes us to risks of inaccurate reporting and internal control failures. Also see " – Our Company is regulated by the RBI and is subject to periodic inspections. Non-compliance with the RBI's observations could result in regulatory actions which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations." on page 21.

Failures or material errors in our internal control systems may lead to errors, inaccurate financial reporting, fraud and failure of critical systems and infrastructure. While our controls are designed to identify deficiencies and errors, such internal control systems may not be able to prevent or detect all errors, omissions, fraud, system failures or non-compliance in a timely manner, particularly as our operations expand in scale, complexity and geographic reach. As we expand our operations, we may be unable to develop risk management policies and procedures that are commensurate with our growth. For instance, during the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, we reported 34, 88 and 87 instances of fraud to the RBI aggregating to ₹1,488.89 lakhs, ₹652.21 lakhs and ₹428.96 lakhs, respectively. Also see, "Our Company handles high volumes of gold in a dispersed network of branches. As of March 31, 2026, ₹49,33,120.10 lakhs aggregating to 67.17% of AUM was attributable to our gold loans. This exposes us to operational risks, including incorrect assessment of the purity of gold, misappropriation of cash, pledge of stolen jewellery by customers, frauds by employees and burglary, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations." on page 24.

The occurrence of material frauds or misconduct could also result in financial loss, compromising customer data, regulatory action and penalties, operational disruption, and reputational damage that could adversely affect customer confidence and our business. Any failure of, or material weakness in, our internal control systems could expose us to fraud which could adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

27. We require certain statutory and regulatory approvals for conducting our business and our inability to obtain, retain or renew them in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our Company is registered with the RBI as a non-banking financial company pursuant to a certificate of registration dated July 23, 2002. Our Company is also registered with the IRDAI as a corporate agent (composite), pursuant to a certificate of registration dated January 16, 2025, as a 'Point of Presence' with the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority pursuant to a letter of registration dated September 5, 2018 further renewed pursuant to a letter dated February 17, 2023 and as a depository participant of CDSL with SEBI pursuant to a certificate of registration dated May 10, 2019, consequently, we are required to obtain certain approvals, registrations, permissions and licenses from regulatory authorities, to undertake our business which may be subject to various conditions. If we fail to obtain some or all of these approvals or licenses, or renewals thereof, in a timely manner or at all, or if we fail to comply with applicable conditions or it is claimed that we have breached any such conditions, our license or permission for carrying on a particular activity may be suspended or cancelled and we may not be able to carry on such activity, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. In addition, in the future we may need to apply for certain additional approvals, including the renewal of approvals, which may expire from time to time.

Failure to obtain or renew such approvals and licenses in a timely manner or a withdrawal of any of our licenses or registrations would make our operations non-compliant with applicable laws and may result in imposition of penalties by relevant authorities and may also prevent us from carrying out our business. Our licenses and approvals are subject to various conditions, including periodic renewal and maintenance standards. Any actual or alleged failure on our part to comply with the terms and conditions of such regulatory licenses and registrations could expose us to legal action, compliance costs or liabilities, or could affect our ability to continue to operate at the locations or in the manner in which we have been operating thus far.

28. Our Company has outstanding statutory dues and there have been historical delays in the payment of statutory dues. Any delays in payment of statutory dues may adversely affect our reputation and financial condition.

Set forth below are the instances of non-payment, delay, or defaults in the payment of statutory dues by the Company for the last three financial years:

We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay our statutory dues in a timely manner, or at all, in the future. Delays or failure in payment of statutory dues could result in interest, penalties, prosecution, regulatory action or other adverse consequences, and could also adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

29. Our company's contingent liabilities, which, if materialized, may adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

As of March 31, 2026, as per Ind AS 37 (Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets), our Company had the following contingent liabilities:

(₹ in lakhs)

S. No.	Particulars	As of March 31, 2026
A.	Claims against the company not acknowledged as debt
(i)	Income Tax Demands	14,719.53
(ii)	Service Tax Demands	4,741.69
(iii)	Goods & Services Tax Demands	812.35
(iv)	Legal cases*	1,064.36

(ii)	Default Loss Guarantee	1,968.67
D.	Commitments not provided for:
(i)	Commitments related to loans sanctioned but undrawn	2,700.76

Apart from the above, Company is subject to legal proceedings and claims which have arisen in the ordinary course of the business that are pending first level verdicts as at March 31, 2026 for which a present obligation as at the reporting date does not exist. The Company's management does not reasonably expect that these legal actions, when ultimately concluded and determined, will have material and adverse effect on the Company's financial position.*

We cannot assure you that we will not incur similar or increased levels of contingent liabilities in the future. If any of these contingent liabilities materialize, our financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. For further details of our contingent liabilities, see also "Financial Information" on page 211.

30. Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

We seek to maintain insurance coverage that is reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our businesses. Our principal types of coverage include insurance for directors' and officers' liability insurance, group personal accident insurance, group mediclaim and group term life insurance, insurance covering pledged gold and other valuables, including while held at our premises or in transit. Set out below are details of our insurance coverage on our total insured assets, on standalone basis, as of the indicated dates:

Particulars	As of March 31,
Total tangible assets (₹ in lakhs) [(1)]	1,93,916.75	1,87,994.94	1,80,773.67
Total insurance coverage (₹ in lakhs)	2,03,383.75	1,98,950.33	1,79,033.35
Insurance coverage as a percentage of total tangible assets (%)	104.88%	105.83%	99.04%

Notes:

[(1)] Tangible assets includes net book value of property, plant and equipment, right of use assets, freehold land, cash on hand, foreign currency balances and investment property of the Company and its Subsidiaries as at the end of the relevant Financial Year, with the details computed on a consolidated basis.

Our insurance policies, however, may not provide adequate coverage in certain circumstances, and are subject to certain deductibles, exclusions and limits on coverage. Even if we have insurance for the incident giving rise to the loss, we may be required to pay a significant deductible on any claim for recovery of such a loss, or the amount of the loss may exceed our coverage for the loss. We cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part or on time, or that we have obtained sufficient insurance to cover all potential losses. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, or at acceptable cost, or at all. In the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, we have filed insurance claims for losses in connection with, among others, theft embezzlement and fraud, aggregating to ₹1,580.18 lakhs, ₹ 35.40 lakhs and ₹ 35.90 lakhs, respectively, of which ₹799.02 lakhs, ₹ 25.40 lakhs and ₹ 26.70 lakhs has been paid out by the relevant insurance companies.

To the extent that we suffer a significant loss or damage in the future for an event for which we are not insured, or for which we did not obtain or maintain insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected in part or in full, the loss would have to be borne by us, and our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows could be adversely affected. For details in relation to our insurance coverage, see "Our Business – Insurance" on page 175.

31. We rely on third-party service providers for certain operational functions, and any failure or disruption in their services could adversely affect our business.

We engage third-party service providers for various operational and support functions, including property valuation, legal due diligence, collections, certain information technology and cybersecurity functions and other back-office and operational activities. Our operations depend, in part, on the reliability, continuity and security of services provided by such third parties. Any interruption, delay, deficiency or failure in the services provided by these third-party service providers, whether due to operational shortcomings, financial distress, cyber incidents, system failures, data breaches, regulatory actions, contractual disputes or business continuity issues, could disrupt our operations, impair our ability to process loan applications, service borrowers or collect payments, compromise the security or availability of our information systems and data, or delay the detection or remediation of cybersecurity incidents and expose us to operational, legal and reputational risks. Further, we may have limited ability to control the actions or internal processes of these third parties.

Any such failure or disruption could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

32. Our inability in the future to comply with or any delay in compliance with the strict regulatory requirements with respect to our listed non-convertible debentures, perpetual debt instruments and commercial paper may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Additionally, the trading in our NCDs may be limited or sporadic, which may affect our ability to raise debt financing in future.

Non-convertible debentures, perpetual debt instruments and commercial paper (collectively, "Debt Securities") issued by our Company are listed on the debt segment of the BSE. Accordingly, we are required to comply with various applicable rules and regulations with respect to listed debentures, including the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended ("SEBI Listing Regulations"). Non-compliance with requirements of the SEBI Listing Regulations may subject us to regulatory action by the Stock Exchanges, including the imposition of fines.

Below is the list of instances of non-compliance by our Company, penalties, strictures imposed on our Company by Stock Exchanges during the last three financial years:

Fiscal	Regulator	Regulation	Amount of Fine* (in ₹)
Muthoot FinCorp Limited
Fiscal 2026	-	-	-
Fiscal 2025	-	-	-
Fiscal 2024	BSE	Regulation 50(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations	5,000
		Regulation 53(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations	84,000
		Regulation 57(1) of Listing Regulations	30,000
		Regulation 57(1) of Listing Regulations	16,000
		Regulation 60(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations	220,000
		Regulation 60(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations	60,000
		Regulation 60(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations	310,000

 this amount is exclusive of GST*

As on the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the aforementioned penalties have been paid.

Further, trading in our Debt Securities has historically been limited, and we cannot assure you that an active or liquid market for our Debt Securities will develop or be sustained on the BSE or NSE. In addition, we cannot predict whether, or to what extent, a secondary market for our Debt Securities will develop, the prices at which such Debt Securities may trade, or the level of liquidity in such market. Any illiquidity in the secondary market for our Debt Securities may adversely affect our ability to access debt capital markets or raise financing on acceptable terms in the future.

33. As of September 30, 2026, 99.23% of our branches and our Registered Office and Corporate Office were located on leased premises. Any termination or failure by us to renew the lease agreements in a favourable and timely manner, or at all, could adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations, and financial condition.

We provide our offerings through our network of branches. As of September 30, 2026, we had a total of 3,872 branches, spread across 25 states and union territories in India of which 3,842 branches (representing 99.23%) and our Registered Office and Corporate Office were located on leased premises.

The lease agreements for such premises can be terminated, and any such termination could result in any of our branches being shifted or shut down. Further, the leave and license agreements in relation to our Registered Office and Corporate Office, are valid until August 31, 2038. See also "Our Business –Properties" on page 176.

We are exposed to risks relating to the renewal of lease agreements and potential deficiencies in the stamping or registration of certain lease documents. There can be no assurance that we will secure lease renewals on acceptable terms or at all, or that any documentation deficiencies will not result in additional costs, penalties, enforceability limitations or operational disruptions in the future, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

34. If we fail to identify, monitor and manage risks and effectively implement our risk management policies, it could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

The effectiveness of our risk management depends on the quality and timeliness of available data. We have established policies and procedures to measure, manage and control the risks to which we are exposed, including asset-liability management, debt collection, investment, whistle blower and vigil mechanism and KYC and anti-money laundering policies. See also "Our Business – Description of our Business – Our Underwriting, Risk Management and Collections Framework" on page 168. These policies are reviewed periodically and are supported by our information technology systems.

However, our policies and procedures intended to identify, monitor and manage risks may not be fully effective. Further, some of our risk management processes may not be automated and may be subject to human error. In addition, certain risk management methods rely on historical market data and may not accurately predict future risk exposures. As we expand our operations, we may be unable to develop risk management policies and procedures that are fully commensurate with our growth. Further, the information on which our risk management processes rely may be inaccurate, incomplete or not up to date, and our policies and procedures may not be fully effective in the future. Our results of operations depend on the effectiveness of our management of credit quality and risk concentrations, the accuracy of our valuation models and accounting estimates, and the adequacy of our allowances for loan losses. If our assumptions or estimates prove inaccurate, or if we fail to effectively implement our risk management policies, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected.

35. Any downgrade in our credit ratings would increase borrowing costs and constrain our access to capital and lending markets and, as a result, would negatively affect our net interest margin and our business.

The cost and availability of capital is dependent on our short-term and long-term credit ratings. Credit Ratings reflect a rating agency's opinion on the likelihood of the timely repayment of obligations being repaid in full. Our Company has been assigned a rating of: i) Crisil AA/Stable from Crisil Ratings for long term-bank loan facilities; ii) Crisil AA/Stable, BWR AA+/Stable and CARE AA; Stable from Crisil Ratings, Brickwork Ratings and Care Ratings Limited, respectively for our non-convertible debentures; iii) Crisil AA-/Stable and BWR AA-/Stable from Crisil Ratings and Brickwork Ratings, respectively, for perpetual debt instruments; and iv) Crisil A1+ for our commercial papers from Crisil Ratings. Set out below are details of our Company's credit ratings as of the dates indicated:

Particulars	Instrument	Financial Year 2027 (as of September 30, 2026)	Financial Year 2026	Financial Year 2025	Financial Year 2024

Notes:
Our Company did not obtain any credit rating.*
@Rating for our market-linked debentures was withdrawn on June 7, 2024.
 # Rating for our short-term commercial papers was withdrawn on May 29, 2024.
$Rating for our long-term bank facilities was withdrawn on May 29, 2024.
Rating has been reaffirmed vide rating rationale dated September 17, 2026.*

We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain our existing credit ratings in the future. Any downgrade of our credit ratings would increase borrowing costs and constrain our access to capital and debt markets and, as a result, negatively affect our net interest margin and our business. In addition, downgrades of our credit ratings could increase the possibility of additional terms and conditions being added to any additional financing or refinancing arrangements in the future. The ratings provided by the rating agencies may be suspended, withdrawn or revised at any time by the assigning rating agency. These ratings are not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and investors should take their own decisions.

36. Failure to appropriately stamp or register our key agreements, including lease agreements and loan or security documentation, may adversely affect our rights and ability to enforce such agreements.

The agreements we enter into such as rental agreements with landlords for our offices and branches are required to be stamped in accordance with applicable state stamp duty legislations and registered under the Registration Act, 1908, where required. If a lease agreement is not registered, it may be declared legally unenforceable. If it is insufficiently stamped, it may not be admissible as evidence in Indian courts, and we may have to pay additional stamp duty and penalties as assessed by the concerned authority. Any failure in stamping or registration may compromise our ability to enforce key terms, potentially causing disruptions to our operations or our ability to continue operating from particular premises.

In addition, we may face similar risks in relation to our loan agreements or other forms of security documentation, particularly in states where stamping and registration requirements are complex or vary. If such documentation is not properly stamped or registered, in future, we may face difficulties in enforcing our rights against borrowers or enforcing security on default, which could adversely impact our recoveries, asset quality, and financial condition. While we believe liability on such insufficient stamp duty will not be material, non-compliance may also result in regulatory actions, penalties, and adverse findings against us.

We regularly review and seek to comply with the applicable legal requirements for stamping and registration of documents. However, we cannot assure you that all agreements will always be appropriately stamped or registered in a timely manner, or that inadvertent lapses will not occur.

37. We are unable to trace certain of our historical corporate records and secretarial documents. We cannot assure you that no legal proceedings or regulatory actions will be initiated against our Company in the future in relation to such matters, which may adversely impact our financial condition and reputation.

We are unable to locate Form 1 along with the corresponding challan in relation to the initial allotment of equity shares of our Company dated May 28, 1997, in relation to the forms that have been filed with the RoC. Further, our Company is unable to trace certain documents in relation to certain secondary transfers, including the share transfer forms, demat statements and DIS slips recording the transfer of certain securities to/from certain shareholders, which are required to be maintained by such shareholders, Accordingly, for such instances, reliance has been placed on Company's register of share transfers, board notings, gift deeds and demat statements, where available.

We cannot assure you that the abovementioned records will be available in the future and we further cannot assure you that no legal proceeding or regulatory action will be initiated against our Company in the future or that such records will be available to us in the future.

38. Our Company has had negative cash flows in the past and may continue to have negative cash flows in the future.

We have experienced negative cash flows in the past, primarily due to the inherent nature of our business wherein the negative cash flow from operating activities pertaining to disbursements is financed from financing activities. The following tables set forth our cash flows, on standalone basis, for the periods/years indicated:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	For the Financial Year ended March 31,
	2026	2025	2024
Net cash used in operating activities	(17,86,414.92)	(3,41,548.06)	(3,20,675.25)
Net cash used in investing activities	(26,774.32)	(39,408.73)	(14,011.83)
Net cash flows from financing activities	17,12,292.62)	5,49,294.29	2,10,161.33
Net increase / (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	(1,00,896.62)	1,68,337.50	(1,24,525.75)
Net cash and cash equivalents at beginning of the year	2,96,173.34	1,27,835.84	2,52,361.58
Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the year	1,95,276.72	2,96,173.34	1,27,835.84

We cannot assure you that our net cash flow will be positive in the future. Negative cash flows over extended periods, or significant negative cash flows in the short term, could materially impact our ability to operate our business and implement our growth plans. As a result, our cash flows, business, future financial performance and results of operations could be adversely affected.

39. Our inability to successfully expand into new geographies or introduce and scale new products may adversely affect our growth, business and results of operations.

Our growth strategies include expanding our presence into new geographies and introducing new products and services. For further details, see "Our Business – Our Strategies" on page 158. However, such expansion and diversification initiatives involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Entering new markets may require us to establish brand recognition, develop local market knowledge, recruit and train personnel which may result in increased costs and operational challenges. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully identify, enter or operate in new geographies or that such expansion will achieve the anticipated levels of business growth or profitability.

Further, the introduction of new products and services requires accurate assessment of customer needs, effective risk management and successful execution. Any failure to design, launch or scale new products in a timely or effective manner, or any inability to achieve adequate customer acceptance, may result in lower-than-expected returns, increased costs and potential losses. In addition, new products may expose us to risks that we have limited experience in managing. If our expansion and diversification initiatives are unsuccessful or do not perform as expected, our growth prospects, business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

40. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future. We cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties.

We have in the past, in the ordinary course of business, entered into, and will continue to enter into, transactions with related parties. These transactions include the payment of remuneration, interest payments on loans and rental payments, among others. Our Promoters have also provided personal guarantees for borrowings availed by our Company and our Subsidiaries. While our related party transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis in compliance with applicable laws and accounting standards, including the Companies Act and other applicable regulations pertaining to the evaluation and approval of such transactions, we cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. Further, we may enter into related party transactions in the future which may involve actual or perceived conflicts of interest. We cannot assure you that such future transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations or that we could not have achieved more favorable terms if such future transactions had not been entered into with related parties. Further, any future transactions with our related parties could potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to our Company. There can be no assurance that our Directors and executive officers will be able to address such conflicts of interests or others in the future. For further details of our related party transactions, see "Related Party Transactions" on page 210.

41. We may be subject to employee unrest and increased wage expenses which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

India has stringent labour legislation that protect the interests of workers. Our employee headcount, on standalone, as of September 30, 2026, March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 was 30,436, 29,505, 26,723 and 22,500 employees, respectively. We also onboard apprentices, whose salary costs are shared between our Company and the Government. Further, we may be required to incur higher salaries, bonus, incentive and welfare expenses to attract and retain qualified personnel, particularly in a competitive market and in response to inflationary pressures or changes in applicable labour laws, which could increase our operating costs and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

42. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management have interests in our Company other than normal remuneration and benefits.

Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration, perquisites or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of the shareholding held by them or their relatives, directly or indirectly, as well as to the extent of any dividends, stock options, bonuses or other distributions on such shareholding and any properties taken on lease and/or purchased. Our Directors are also be deemed to be interested to the extent of any directorships in our subsidiaries. For details, see "Our Management – Board of Directors" on page 178. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that our Promoters, Directors, our Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management, to the extent they are interested in our Company other than in terms of remuneration and reimbursement of expenses, will exercise their rights to the benefit and best interest of our Company.

43. Conflicts of interest may arise out of common business objects shared by our Company and certain other entities promoted by our Promoters.

Our Promoters are interested in other companies, including Muthoot Capital Services Limited and our Subsidiaries, Muthoot Housing Finance Company Limited and Muthoot Microfin Limited, which operate in financial services businesses that may be similar, adjacent or complementary to ours. These interests may give rise to potential conflicts of interest in relation to business opportunities, strategic priorities, customer relationships, financing arrangements or other operational matters. Accordingly, our Promoters are not required to conduct or direct opportunities in the gold loan, NBFC or broader financial services business exclusively through us. Any such conflicts, including those arising from common business objectives, may not be resolved in our favour or in the interests of our Company or its Shareholders, which could adversely affect our business, operations and prospects.

44. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

We have declared dividends in the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024. For further details, see "Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclsoures - Dividend" on page 323. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including, among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Additionally, our ability to pay dividends may also be restricted by the terms of financing arrangements that we may enter into. For details, see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 213. Dividends distributed by us will attract dividend distribution tax at rates applicable from time to time and may be subject to other requirements prescribed by the RBI. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future.

45. We have not entered into any definitive agreements to utilise a substantial portion of the net proceeds of the Issue.

We intend to use the net proceeds for the purposes as identified on page 81 ("Objects of the Issue"), the net proceeds shall not be utilized for investment in real estate. Our management will have broad discretion to use the net proceeds and you will be relying on the judgment of our management regarding the application of these net proceeds. Our funding requirements are based on current conditions and are subject to change in light of changes in external circumstances or in our financial condition, business or strategy. Our management, in response to the competitive and dynamic nature of the industry, will have the discretion to revise its business plan from time to time. Any such change in our plans may require rescheduling of our current plans or discontinuing existing plans and an increase or decrease in the fund requirements for the objects, at the discretion of the management. Pending utilisation for the purposes described above, we intend to temporarily invest the funds in interest bearing liquid instruments including deposits with banks and investments in liquid/debt (not equity) mutual funds. Such investments would be in accordance with the investment policies approved by our Board from time to time.

46. We continue to be controlled by our Promoters and they will continue to have the ability to exercise significant control over us. We cannot assure you that exercise of control by our Promoters will always favour our best interest.

Our Promoters hold 97.14% of our total outstanding paid up Equity Shares as on September 30, 2026. Our Promoters exercise significant control over us, including being able to control the composition of our Board and determine matters requiring shareholder approval or approval of our Board. Our Promoters may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with our interests or the interests of our minority shareholders. By exercising their control, our Promoters could delay, defer or cause a change of our control or a change in our capital structure, delay, defer or cause a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us, discourage or encourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us which may not favour our best interest.

47. Certain sections of this Draft Shelf Prospectus contain information from the Crisil Report which has been commissioned by us, and any reliance on such information for making an investment decision in this Issue is subject to inherent risks.

Certain sections of this Draft Shelf Prospectus include information based on, or derived from, the Crisil Report or extracts of the Crisil Report prepared by Crisil Intelligence, including financial and operational metrics relating to our peers disclosed in this Draft Shelf Prospectus. All such information in this Draft Shelf Prospectus indicates the Crisil Report as its source. The Crisil Report is commissioned and paid for by our Company pursuant to an engagement letter dated July 30, 2026 for the purpose of confirming our understanding of the industry in connection with this Issue.

Industry sources and publications are prepared based on information as of specific dates and may no longer be current or reflect current trends. Industry sources and publications may also base their information on estimates, projections, forecasts and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. While industry sources are required to exercise due care and caution while preparing their reports, they do not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the data. Further, the Crisil Report is not a recommendation to invest / disinvest in any company covered in the Crisil Report. Accordingly, prospective investors should not place undue reliance on, or base their investment decision solely on, this information.

In view of the foregoing, you may not be able to seek legal recourse for any losses resulting from undertaking any investment in this Issue pursuant to reliance on the information in this Draft Shelf Prospectus based on, or derived from, the Crisil Report. You should consult your own advisors and undertake an independent assessment of information in this Draft Shelf Prospectus based on, or derived from, the Crisil Report before making any investment decision regarding this Issue. See "Industry Overview" beginning on page 93.

48. We have included certain non-GAAP financial measures and other selected statistical information related to our operations in this Draft Shelf Prospectus. Such non-GAAP measures and statistical information may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the financial services industry and may not be comparable with financial or statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and other statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Draft Shelf Prospectus. Such non-GAAP measures are supplemental measures of our performance and liquidity that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, or IFRS. Further, these non-GAAP measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, or IFRS and should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, profit/(loss) for the years/period or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities derived in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, or IFRS. In addition, these non-GAAP measures are not standardized terms; hence a direct comparison of similarly titled non-GAAP measures between companies may not be possible. Other companies may calculate the non-GAAP measures differently from us, limiting their utility as a comparative measure. Although the non-GAAP measures are not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards, our Company's management believes that they are useful to an investor in evaluating us because they are widely used measures to evaluate a company's operating performance.

49. Negative publicity could damage our reputation and adversely impact our business and financial results.

Reputational risk, or the risk to our business, earnings and capital from negative publicity, is inherent in our business. The reputation of the banking and financial services industry in general has been closely monitored as a result of the global financial crisis and other matters affecting the financial services industry. Any negative public opinion about the banking and financial services industry generally or us specifically could adversely affect our ability to attract and retain customers and may expose us to litigation and regulatory action.

Negative publicity can result from our own or our third-party service providers' actual or alleged conduct in any number of activities, including lending practices, mortgage servicing and foreclosure practices, technological practices, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance, and related disclosures, sharing or inadequate protection of customer information, and actions taken by government regulators and community organizations in response to that conduct. Although we take steps to minimize reputational risk in dealing with customers and other constituencies, we, as a financial services organization with a high industry profile, are inherently exposed to this risk.

50. Our inability to detect money-laundering and other illegal activities on a timely basis may expose us to additional liability and adversely affect our business and reputation.

We are required to comply with applicable anti-money-laundering ("AML"), counter-terrorism financing ("CTF") and anti-terrorism laws and other regulations in India. These laws and regulations require us, among other things, to adopt and enforce AML, CTF and KYC policies and procedures. Our AML, CTF and KYC policies and procedures include customer identification and verification procedures through screening processes, customer risk categorization, transaction monitoring and reporting mechanisms to detect potential instances of money laundering and terrorism financing, periodic employee training and awareness programs, and audit and compliance functions to ensure compliance with our policies and procedures. In the ordinary course of our operations, we are exposed to the risk of failing to comply with the prescribed KYC procedures and the consequent risk of fraud and money laundering. We may also be subject to penalties or the imposition of sanctions against us for such compliance failures despite having implemented systems and controls designed to prevent the occurrence of these risks. Although we have instituted internal policies, processes and systems to prevent and detect any AML activity and ensure KYC compliance, we cannot assure you that we will be able to fully control instances of any potential or attempted violation by other parties. Any inability on our part to detect such activities fully and on a timely basis may subject us to regulatory actions including imposition of fines and penalties and adversely affect our business and reputation.

51. Our business and activities may be regulated by the Competition Act, 2002.

The Competition Act, 2002 (the "Competition Act") seeks to prevent business practices that have a material adverse effect on competition in India. Under the Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action in concert between enterprises, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause a material adverse effect on competition in India is void and attracts substantial monetary penalties. Any agreement that directly or indirectly determines purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, shares the market by way of geographical area, market, or number of customers in the market is presumed to have a material adverse effect on competition. Provisions of the Competition Act relating to the regulation of certain acquisitions, mergers or amalgamations which have a material adverse effect on competition and regulations with respect to notification requirements for such combinations came into force on June 1, 2011. The effect of the Competition Act on the business environment in India is unclear. If we are affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the Competition Commission of India, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the Competition Commission of India, it may have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

52. The bankruptcy code in India may affect our rights to recover loans from borrowers.

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ("Bankruptcy Code") was notified on August 5, 2016. The Bankruptcy Code offers a uniform and comprehensive insolvency legislation encompassing all companies, partnerships and individuals (other than financial firms). It allows creditors to assess the viability of a debtor as a business decision, and agree upon a plan for its revival or a speedy liquidation. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the insolvency resolution process is required to be completed within 180 days from the insolvency commencement date, which may be extended by a further period of up to 90 days. Further, the insolvency resolution process is required to be completed within an overall period of 330 days, including any extension granted and the time taken in legal proceedings in relation to such resolution process. Subsequently, the insolvency resolution plan prepared by the insolvency professionals has to be approved by 66% of voting share of financial creditors, which requires sanction by the adjudicating authority and, if rejected, the adjudicating authority will pass an order for liquidation. Any resolution plan approved by committee of creditors is binding upon all creditors, even if they vote against it. In case a liquidation process is opted for, the Bankruptcy Code provides for a fixed order of priority in which proceeds from the sale of the debtor's assets are to be distributed. Before sale proceeds are distributed to a secured creditor, they are to be distributed for the costs of the insolvency resolution and liquidation processes, debts owed to workmen and other employees rank at par with those owed to secured creditors, and thereafter the debts owed to unsecured creditors shall be paid. Further, under this process, dues owed to the Central and State Governments rank at par with those owed to secured creditors for any amount unpaid following the separate enforcement of security interest. Moreover, other secured creditors may decide to opt out of the process, in which case they are permitted to realise their security interests in priority. Accordingly, if the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code are invoked against any of the borrowers of our Company, it may affect our Company's ability to recover our loans from the borrowers and enforcement of our Company's rights will be subject to the Bankruptcy Code.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

Risks Relating to the Indian Economy

53. India's existing credit information infrastructure may cause increased risks of loan defaults.

All of our business is located in India. India's existing credit information infrastructure may pose problems and difficulties in running a robust credit check on our borrowers. We may also face difficulties in the due diligence process relating to our customers or to any security or collateral we take in relation to our loans. We may not be able to run comprehensive searches relating to the security and there are no assurances that any searches we undertake will be accurate or reliable. Hence, our overall credit analysis could be less robust as compared to similar transactions in more developed economies, which might result in an increase in our non-performing assets and we may have to increase our provisions correspondingly. Any of the foregoing may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

54. Financial difficulty and other problems in certain financial and other non-banking financial institutions in India could materially adversely affect our business.

We are exposed to the risks of the Indian financial system. The financial difficulties faced by certain Indian financial and non-banking financial institutions could adversely affect our business because the commercial soundness of many financial institutions may be closely related as a result of credit, trading, clearing or other relationships. Such "systemic risk" may adversely affect financial intermediaries, such as clearing agencies, banks, NBFCs, securities firms and exchanges with which we interact on a daily basis. Any such difficulties or instability in the Indian financial system in general could create an adverse market perception about Indian financial institutions and banks and materially adversely affect our business. Our transactions with these financial institutions and other non-banking financial institutions expose us to various risks in the event of default by a counterparty, which can be exacerbated during periods of market illiquidity.

55. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

The Indian economy and capital markets are influenced by economic, political and market conditions in India and globally. Our Company is incorporated in India, and all of our assets and employees are located in India. As a result, we are dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India, and our results of operations are affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. Factors that could adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations, may include:

- the macroeconomic climate, including any increase in interest rates in India or inflation;
- any exchange rate fluctuations, the imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse effect on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India's principal stock exchanges;
- changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- changes in laws or regulatory environment;
- political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including any escalation of the conflict in the Middle East;
- occurrence of natural or man-made disasters (such as hurricanes, typhoons, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis and fires), including on account of climate change, which may cause us to suspend our operations;
- epidemics, pandemics or any other public health concerns in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries, such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1 and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and the COVID-19 pandemic;
- any downgrading and/or a deterioration in rating outlook, of India's debt rating by a domestic or international rating agency;
- international business practices that may conflict with other customs or legal requirements to which we are subject, including anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws;
- protectionist and other adverse public policies, including local content requirements, import/export tariffs, increased regulations or capital investment requirements; and
- being subject to the jurisdiction of foreign courts, including uncertainty of judicial processes and difficulty enforcing contractual agreements or judgments in foreign legal systems or incurring additional costs to do so.

Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares. Conditions outside India may also contribute to a slowdown in the Indian economy or changes in India's economic policies and regulations, which could adversely affect the level of trading activity in the securities market. Our performance and the growth of our business depend on the overall performance of the Indian economy as well as the economies of the regional markets in which we operate.

56. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging market countries in Asia. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have adverse effects on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our business, our future financial performance and the prices of the Equity Shares.

57. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy.

For instance, the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 ("Data Protection Act") which received the assent of the President on August 11, 2023, provides for personal data protection and privacy of individuals, regulates cross border data transfer, and provides several exemptions for personal data processing by the Government. It also provides for the establishment of a Data Protection Board of India for taking remedial actions and imposing penalties for breach of the provisions of the Data Protection Act. It imposes restrictions and obligations on data fiduciaries, resulting from dealing with personal data and further, provides for levy of penalties for breach of obligations prescribed under the Data Protection Act. The enactment of the Data Protection Act introduces stricter data protection norms for companies in India, which may result in additional costs incurred to ensure compliance. Further, the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology has further released the DPDP Rules on November 13, 2025. The DPDP Rules aim to operationalise the Data Protection Act and regulate the processing of personal data in India, ensuring individuals' privacy rights are protected. The DPDP Rules are applicable for a limited set of governance and institutional provisions being effective immediately, consent management related stipulations come into effect after 12 months and the substantive obligations will take effect after 18 months. The DPDP Rules introduce, among others, clear privacy notices, prescriptive security safeguards, breach-reporting timelines, data-retention limits and provisions for protection for children and vulnerable persons.

Further, the Government of India introduced new laws relating to social security, occupational safety, industrial relations and wages namely, the Code on Social Security, 2020 ("Social Security Code"), the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 and the Code on Wages, 2019, which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations, which were to take effect from April 1, 2021 (collectively, the "Labour Codes"). In relation to the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, the Government of India has notified the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026 on May 9, 2026; in relation to Industrial Relations Code, 2020, the Government of India has notified the Industrial Relations (Central) Rules, 2026 on May 8, 2026; in relation to Code on Wages, 2019, the Government of India has notified the Code on Wages (Central) Rules, 2026 on May 8, 2026; and in relation to Code on Social Security, 2020, the Government of India has notified the Code on Social Security (Central) Rules, 2026 on May 8, 2026. The coming into force of these codes may increase the financial burden on our Company, which may adversely affect our profitability. For instance, under the Social Security Code, a new concept of deemed remuneration has been introduced, such that where an employee receives more than half (or such other percentage as may be notified by the Central Government) of their total remuneration in the form of allowances and other amounts that are not included within the definition of wages under the Social Security Code, the excess amount received shall be deemed as remuneration and accordingly be added to wages for the purposes of the Social Security Code and the compulsory contribution to be made towards the employees' provident fund.

In addition, the Government of India has enforced the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and Bhartiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, replacing the Indian Penal Code, 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, respectively, which came into force with effect from July 1, 2024. Further, the Income Tax Act, 2025 received the assent of the President of India on August 21, 2025, and has become effective from April 1, 2026.

Inability to comply with any unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Uncertainty in the application, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

58. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against our Company outside India.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India. Our Company's assets are located in India and all of our Company's Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are residents of India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce against them judgments obtained in courts outside India.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as amended ("Civil Code"). India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with a limited number of jurisdictions, which includes the United Kingdom, Singapore, UAE and Hong Kong. A judgment from certain specified courts located in a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements of the Civil Code. The United States has not been notified as a reciprocating territory.

A judgment of a court of a country which is not a reciprocating territory may be enforced in India only by a suit on the judgment under Section 13 of the Civil Code, and not by proceedings in execution. Section 13 of the Civil Code provides that foreign judgments shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated on except (i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case, (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or refusal to recognize the law of India in cases to which such law is applicable, (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice, (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud or (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India. Under the Civil Code, a court in India shall, on the production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, presume that the judgment was pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on record. The Civil Procedure Code only permits the enforcement of monetary decrees, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty and does not provide for the enforcement of arbitration awards even if such awards are enforceable as a decree or judgment. A foreign judgment rendered by a superior court (as defined under the Civil Procedure Code) in any jurisdiction outside India which the Government of India has by notification declared to be a reciprocating territory, may be enforced in India by proceedings in execution as if the judgment had been rendered by a competent court in India. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be enforceable in India. Even if an investor obtained a judgment in such a jurisdiction against us, our officers or directors, it may be required to institute a new proceeding in India and obtain a decree from an Indian court.

However, the party in whose favour such final judgment is rendered may bring a new suit in a competent court in India based on a final judgment that has been obtained in the United States or other such jurisdiction within three years of obtaining such final judgment. It is unlikely that an Indian court would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India. Moreover, it is unlikely that an Indian court will award damages to the extent awarded in a final judgment rendered outside India if it believes that the amount of damages awarded were excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered, and we cannot assure that such approval will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, or at all, or that conditions of such approvals would be acceptable. Such amount may also be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable law.

Consequently, it may not be possible to enforce in an Indian court any judgment obtained in a foreign court, or effect service of process outside of India, against Indian companies, entities, their directors and executive officers and any other parties resident in India. Additionally, there is no assurance that a suit brought in an Indian court in relation to a foreign judgment will be disposed of in a timely manner.

59. Significant fluctuations in exchange rates between the Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our results of operations may be adversely affected if the Indian Rupee fluctuates significantly against foreign currencies or if our hedging strategy is unsuccessful. While our unhedged foreign currency exposure is limited, to the extent that our income and expenditures are not denominated in Indian Rupees, exchange rate fluctuations could affect the amount of income and expenditure we recognise, despite our entering into foreign exchange hedging contracts from time to time. In addition, policies of the RBI may change from time to time, which may limit our ability to hedge our foreign currency exposures adequately.

60. A slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to be adversely affected.

Our results of operations are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy and the global economy in general. Any slowdown in economic growth in India could adversely affect us, including our ability to grow our loan portfolio, the quality of our assets, and our ability to implement our strategy.

Any slowdown in the growth or negative growth of sectors where we have a relatively higher exposure could adversely impact our performance. Any such slowdown, and in particular the financing requirement of our customers could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

61. Political instability or changes in GoI could adversely affect economic conditions in India generally, and consequently, our business in particular.

There is no assurance that the liberalisation policies of the government will continue in the future. Protests against privatization could slow down the pace of liberalisation and deregulation. The Government of India plays an important role by regulating the policies and regulations that govern the private sector. The current economic policies of the government may change at a later date. The pace of economic liberalisation could change and specific laws and policies affecting the industry and other policies affecting investments in our Company's business could change as well. A significant change in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India and thereby affect our Company's business.

Unstable domestic as well as international political environment could impact the economic performance in the short term as well as the long term. The Government of India has pursued the economic liberalisation policies including relaxing restrictions on the private sector over the past several years. The present Government has also announced polices and taken initiatives that support continued economic liberalisation.

The Government has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise a significant influence over many aspects of the Indian economy. Our Company's business may be affected not only by changes in interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest but also by other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India.

62. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and could cause our business to be adversely affected.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunami, floods and drought in the recent past. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. In previous years, many parts of India received significantly less than normal rainfall. As a result, the agricultural sector recorded minimal growth. Prolonged spells of below normal rainfall in the country or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, thereby affecting our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

63. If more stringent labour laws or other industry standards in the jurisdictions in which we operate become applicable to us, our profitability may be adversely affected.

We are subject to a number of stringent labour laws and restrictive contractual covenants related to levels of employment. India has stringent labour legislation that protects the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for dispute resolution and employee removal, payment of overtime to employees and legislation that imposes financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. In the future, if we are also required to supply manpower as part of our services, we shall incur additional cost in addition to be exposed to other labour legislation. If labour laws become more stringent or are more strictly enforced, it may become difficult for us to maintain flexible human resource policies, discharge employees or downsize, any of which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

64. Any downgrading of India's sovereign rating by an international rating agency (ies) may affect our business and our liquidity to a great extent.

Any adverse revision to India's credit rating for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional finances at favourable interest rates and other commercial terms. This could have an adverse effect on our growth, financial performance and our operations. Instances of corruption in India have the potential to discourage investors and derail the growth prospects of the Indian economy. Corruption creates economic and regulatory uncertainty and could have an adverse effect on our business, profitability and results of operations. The Indian economy has had sustained periods of high inflation. Should inflation continue to increase sharply, our profitability and results of operations may be adversely impacted. High rates of inflation in India could increase our employee costs which could have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations.

RISKS RELATING TO THE NCDS

65. Refusal of listing of any security of our Company during preceding three financial years and current financial year by any of the stock exchanges in India or abroad.

There has been no refusal of listing of any security of the Issuer during the current financial year and last three financial years prior to the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus by any Stock Exchange in India or abroad. We may face the risk of refusal of listing by stock exchanges in India or abroad. Such a scenario could impact the liquidity and marketability of the securities. If such securities are not listed, investors may face challenges in buying or selling them at desired prices or times, which could adversely affect their investment strategies and ability to realize returns. Refusal to list any security could also affect market perception of the securities issued by our Company, potentially leading to a decrease in confidence of the potential investors and may have a negative impact on market value of securities. Therefore, investors should carefully consider this risk factor and its potential implications before making any investment decisions.

66. There is no assurance that the NCDs issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on BSE in a timely manner.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permissions for listing and trading of the NCDs issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the NCDs have been issued and allotted. While an in-principle approval from the BSE shall be obtained prior to filing of the Shelf Prospectus and relevant Tranche Prospectus(es), approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents to be submitted to BSE. While the Company will use its best efforts to ensure that all steps for completion of the necessary formalities for allotment, listing and commencement of trading at BSE are taken within 3 (three) Working Days of the Issue Closing Date, there can be no assurance that it will be completed in a timely manner. There could be a failure or delay in listing the NCDs on BSE.

We cannot assure you that the monies refundable to you, on account of (a) withdrawal of your applications, (b) withdrawal of the Issue, or (c) failure to obtain the final approval from the BSE for listing of the NCDs, will be refunded to you in a timely manner. We, however, shall refund such monies, without interest, as prescribed under applicable statutory and/or regulatory provisions.

67. You may not be able to recover, on a timely basis or at all, the full value of the outstanding amounts and/or the interest accrued thereon in connection with the NCDs.

Our ability to pay interest accrued on the NCDs and/or the principal amount outstanding from time to time in connection therewith would be subject to various factors, including our financial condition, profitability and the general economic conditions in India and in the global financial markets. We cannot assure you that we would be able to repay the principal amount outstanding from time to time on the NCDs and/or the interest accrued thereon in a timely manner, or at all. Although the Company has undertaken to create appropriate security in favour of the Debenture Trustee to the Issue for the Secured NCD Holders on the assets adequate to ensure 100% security cover on the outstanding amounts of the Secured NCDs and interest thereon, the realisable value of the secured assets may be lower than the outstanding principal and/or interest accrued thereon in connection with the Secured NCDs. A failure or delay to recover the expected value from a sale or disposition of the assets charged as security in connection with the Secured NCDs could expose you to a potential loss.

68. Changes in interest rates may affect the trading price of the NCDs.

All securities where a fixed rate of interest is offered, such as the NCDs, are subject to price risk. The price of such securities will vary inversely with changes in prevailing interest rates, i.e., when interest rates rise, prices of fixed income securities fall and when interest rates drop, the prices increase. The extent of fall or rise in the prices is a function of the existing coupon rate, days to maturity and the increase or decrease in the level of prevailing interest rates. Increased rates of interest, which frequently accompany inflation and/or a growing economy, are likely to have a negative effect on the trading price of the NCDs.

69. Any downgrading in credit rating of our NCDs may affect the trading price of our NCDs.

Crisil has assigned a rating of "Crisil AA/Stable" (pronounced as Crisil double A rating with stable outlook) each, for an amount of ₹ 10,000 lakhs, ₹ 60,000 lakhs and ₹ 2,90,000 lakhs of NCDs by Crisil Ratings Limited vide its letters dated September 18, 2026 each and for an amount of ₹ 2,73,704 lakhs (of which ₹ 41,205 lakhs is unutilised) vide its revalidation letter dated October 6, 2026 along with the rating rationale dated September 17, 2026. Further, our Company has received rating of "BWR AA+/Stable" for an amount of ₹ 3,60,000 lakhs and ₹3,00,000 lakhs (of which ₹ 41,205 lakhs is unutilised) by Brickwork Ratings India Private Limited vide its letter dated September 29, 2026 along with rating rationale dated September 29, 2026, for the NCDs proposed to be issued pursuant to this Issue. We cannot guarantee that these ratings will not be downgraded. These ratings may be suspended, withdrawn or revised at any time. Any revision or downgrading in the credit rating may lower the trading price of the NCDs and may also affect our ability to raise further debt.

70. Securities on our Secured NCDs rank as subservient residual charge on the loan receivables and the current assets of the Company Substantially all of our Company's current assets represented mainly by the gold loan receivables are being used to secure our Company's debt. As on October 1, 2026, our Company's outstanding secured borrowings is ₹ 41,71,596.23 lakhs. The Secured NCDs being issued shall be secured by way of subservient charge with existing secured creditors on all standard loan receivables and current assets (both present and future) of the company in favour of Debenture Trustee to be held on pari-passu basis among the present and / or future NCD holders, as may be applicable. Residual loan receivables amount available to secure the Secured NCDs are adequate to ensure 100.00% asset cover for the total value of the Secured NCDs. The realizable value of the assets charged as security, when liquidated, may be lower than the outstanding principal and/or interest accrued thereon in connection with the Secured NCDs. A failure or delay in recovering the expected value from a sale or disposition of the assets charged as security in connection with the Secured NCDs could expose you to a potential loss.

71. Payments made on the NCDs will be subordinated to certain tax and other liabilities preferred by law.

The Secured NCDs will be subordinated to certain liabilities preferred by law such as claims of GoI on account of taxes, and certain liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of our transactions. In particular, in the event of bankruptcy, liquidation or winding-up, our assets will be available to pay obligations on the Secured NCDs only after all of those liabilities that rank senior to these Secured NCDs have been paid in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act. In the event of bankruptcy, liquidation or winding-up, there may not be sufficient assets remaining, after paying amounts relating to these proceedings, to pay amounts due on the Secured NCDs.

72. The Company may raise further borrowings and charge its assets after receipt of necessary consents from its existing lenders.

The Company may, subject to receipt of all necessary consents from its existing lenders and the Debenture Trustee to the Issue, raise further borrowings and charge its assets. The Company is free to decide the nature of security that may be provided for future borrowings and this may rank pari passu with similar ranking with the security created for this Issue. In such a scenario, the NCD Holders will rank pari passu with other creditors of similar ranking, after exhausting the first pari passu holders' liabilities and to that extent, the amounts recoverable by the NCD Holders upon the Company's bankruptcy, winding-up or liquidation may stand reduced.

73. The Issuer, being a NBFC is not required to maintain a debenture redemption reserve ("DRR")

Pursuant to a Ministry of Corporate Affairs notification dated August 16, 2019 amending Section 71 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 18 (7) of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014, an NBFC is not required to maintain DRR for debentures issued through a public issue. Hence, investors shall not have the benefit of reserve funds to cover the re-payment of the principal and interest on the NCDs.

74. There are other lenders and debenture trustees who have pari passu charge over the Security provided.

There are other lenders and debenture trustees of the Company who have pari passu charge over the security provided for the Issue. While the Company is required to maintain security cover of 100% of the outstanding amount of the NCDs and the interest thereon, upon the Company's bankruptcy, winding-up or liquidation, the other lenders and debenture trustees of similar ranking will rank pari passu with the secured NCD holders, after exhausting the first pari passu holders and to that extent, may reduce the amounts recoverable by the secured NCD holders. Pursuant to the SEBI NCS Regulations, the Company is required to obtain permissions / consents from the prior creditors in favour of the debenture trustee for creation of such similar ranking pari passu charge and the same is required to be disclosed. The company has applied for and received consents/permissions from the prior creditors.

75. The fund requirement and deployment mentioned in the Objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution.

We intend to use the proceeds of the Issue, after meeting the expenditures of and related to the Issue, for the purpose of onward lending, financing and for repayment of interest and principal of existing borrowings of our Company. For further details, see "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 81. The fund requirement and deployment are based on internal management estimates and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. The management will have significant flexibility in applying the proceeds received by us from the Issue. Further, according to the provisions of the SEBI NCS Regulations, we are not required to appoint a monitoring agency and therefore no monitoring agency has been appointed for this Issue.

76. There may be no active market for the NCDs on the retail debt market/capital market segment of the BSE. As a result, the liquidity and market prices of the NCDs may fail to develop and may accordingly be adversely affected.

There can be no assurance that an active market for the NCDs will develop. If an active market for the NCDs fails to develop or be sustained, the liquidity and market prices of the NCDs may be adversely affected. The market price of the NCDs would depend on various factors inter alia including (i) the interest rate on similar securities available in the market and the general interest rate scenario in the country, (ii) the market price of our Equity Shares, (iii) the market for listed debt securities, (iv) general economic conditions, and (v) our financial performance, growth prospects and results of operations. The aforementioned factors may adversely affect the liquidity and market price of the NCDs, which may trade at a discount to the price at which you purchase the NCDs and/or be relatively illiquid.

77. The liquidity for the NCDs in the secondary market is very low and it may remain so in the future and the price of the NCDs may be volatile.

The Issue will be a new public issue of NCDs for our Company and the liquidity in NCDs at present is very low in the secondary market. There can be no assurance that liquidity for the NCDs will improve, and if liquidity for the NCDs were to improve, there is no obligation on us to maintain the secondary market. The liquidity and market prices of the NCDs can be expected to vary with changes in market and economic conditions, our financial condition and prospects and other factors that generally influence market price of NCDs. Such fluctuations may significantly affect the liquidity and market price of the NCDs, which may trade at a discount to the price at which you purchase the NCDs.

Impersonation

As a matter of abundant caution, attention of the Investors is specifically drawn to the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 38 of the Companies Act, 2013 which is reproduced below:

"Any person who:
(b) makes or abets making of multiple applications to a company in different names or in different combinations of his name or surname for acquiring or subscribing for its securities; or

The liability prescribed under Section 447 of the Companies Act 2013 for fraud involving an amount of at least ₹10 lakh or 1.00% of the turnover of the Company, whichever is lower, includes imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months extending up to 10 years (provided that where the fraud involves public interest, such term shall not be less than three years) and fine of an amount not less than the amount involved in the fraud, extending up to three times of such amount. In case the fraud involves (i) an amount which is less than ₹10 lakh or 1.00% of the turnover of the Company, whichever is lower; and (ii) does not involve public interest, then such fraud is punishable with an imprisonment for a term extending up to five years or a fine of an amount extending up to ₹50 lakh or with both.

Minimum Subscription

In terms of the SEBI NCS Regulations, for an issuer undertaking a public issue of debt securities the minimum subscription for public issue of debt securities shall be 75% of the Base Issue Size as specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue. If our Company does not receive the minimum subscription of 75% of the Base Issue Size as specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue, the entire blocked Application Amount shall be unblocked in the relevant ASBA Account(s) of the Applicants within two Working Days from the Issue Closing Date or such lesser time as may be specified by SEBI provided wherein, the Application Amount has been transferred to the Public Issue Account from the respective ASBA Accounts, such Application Amount shall be refunded from the Refund Account to the relevant ASBA Accounts(s) of the Applicants within two Working Days from the Issue Closing Date or such lesser time as may be specified by SEBI, failing which our Company will become liable to refund the Application Amount along with interest at the rate 15 (fifteen) percent per annum for the delayed period.

Under Section 39(3) of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 11(2) of the Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014 if the stated minimum subscription amount is not received within the specified period, the application money received is to be credited only to the bank account from which the subscription amount was remitted. To the extent possible, where the required information for making such refunds is available with our Company and/or Registrar, refunds will be made to the account prescribed. However, where our Company and/or Registrar does not have the necessary information for making such refunds, our Company and/or Registrar will follow the guidelines prescribed by SEBI in this regard included in the SEBI Master Circular.

Annexure I

STATEMENT OF POSSIBLE TAX BENEFITS UNDER THE INCOME TAX ACT, 2025 AVAILABLE TO THE DEBENTURE HOLDER(S)

The following tax benefits will be available to the debenture holders of the Company ("Debenture Holder") as per the existing provisions of law. The tax benefits are given as per the prevailing tax laws under the provisions of the IT Act, as on date, taking into account the amendments made by the Finance Act, 2026, and may vary from time to time in accordance with amendments to the law or enactments thereto. The Debenture Holder is advised to consider the tax implications in respect of subscription to the Debentures after consulting his tax advisor as alternate views are possible.

IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE INCOME TAX ACT, 2025:

I. TO THE RESIDENT DEBENTURE HOLDER

A. In Respect of Interest on Debentures (NCDs)

1. Interest on NCD received by Debenture Holders would be subject to income tax at the normal rates of tax in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the IT Act. Interest will be assessed to Income tax on receipt basis or mercantile basis (accrual basis) depending on the method of accounting regularly employed by the NCD holder under Section 276 of the IT Act.
2. Income Tax is deductible at source at the rate of 10% on interest on debentures held by resident Indians as per the provisions of Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(i)] of the IT Act (in case where interest is paid to Individual or HUF, no TDS will be deducted where interest paid is less than 10,000 and interest is paid by way of account payee cheque).

Further, Tax will be deducted at source at reduced rate, or no tax will be deducted at source in the following cases:

a) When the Assessing Officer issues a certificate on an application by a Debenture Holder on satisfaction that the total income of the Debenture holder justifies no/lower deduction of tax at source as per the provisions of Section 395 of the IT Act; and that a valid certificate is filed with the Company before the prescribed date of closure of books for payment of debenture interest.

b) When the resident Debenture Holder with Permanent Account Number ('PAN') (not being a company or a firm) submits a declaration as per the provisions of section 393(6) of the IT Act in the prescribed Form 121 verified in the prescribed manner to the effect that the tax on his estimated total income of the financial year in which such income is to be included in computing his total income will be NIL. However, as per section 393(6) of the IT Act, Form 121 cannot be submitted nor considered for exemption from tax deduction at source if income in the nature referred to in sections , 393(1) (Table: Sl. No. 7), 393(3) (Table: Sl. No. 6), 392(7), Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(ii.D(a))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(ii.D(b))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.1(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.8(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.2(ii.D(a))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.2(ii.D(b))] or Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.4(i)] as the case may be or the aggregate of the amounts of such incomes credited or paid or likely to be credited or paid during the financial year in which such income is to be included exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income tax;

c) Senior citizens, who are 60 or more years of age at any time during the financial year, enjoy the special privilege to submit a self-declaration in the prescribed Form 121 for non-deduction of tax at source in accordance with the provisions of section 393(6) of the Act even if the aggregate income credited or paid or likely to be credited or paid exceeds the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, provided that the tax due on the estimated total income of the year concerned will be NIL; and

d) In all other situations, tax would be deducted at source as per prevailing provisions of the IT Act. Please find below the class of resident investors and respective documents that would be required for granting TDS exemption:

Sl. No.	Class of Investors	Relevant Section which grants TDS exemption	Documents to be taken on record from Investors
1	Resident Individual or resident HUF	Claiming non-deduction or lower deduction of tax at source under Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(i)] of	Form No.121 with PAN Certificate issued u/s 395 has to be filed with the Company. However, in case of NCD Holders claiming non-deduction or lower deduction

		the IT Act, 2025	of tax at source, as the case may be, the NCD Holder should furnish either a declaration (in duplicate) in the prescribed form i.e. (i) Form 121 which can be given by individuals who are of the age of 60 years or more, (ii) a certificate, from the Assessing Officer which can be obtained by all applicants (including companies and firms) by making an application in the prescribed form i.e. Form No.128.

B. In respect of Capital Gains

1. Long Term Capital Gain

Under Section 2(67) read with section 2(101) of the IT Act, listed Debentures held as Capital Asset as defined under section 2(22) of the IT Act is treated as long term capital asset if it is held for more than 12 months. Debentures held as capital asset for a period of 12 Months or less will be treated as short term capital asset.

Long Term Capital Gain for listed debentures will be chargeable to tax under Section 197 of the IT Act at the rate of 12.50% (plus applicable surcharge and education cess). No indexation benefit is available for debentures.

In case of an individual or HUF, being a resident, where the total income as reduced by such long-term capital gains is below the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income-tax, then, such long-term capital gains shall be reduced by the amount by which the total income as so reduced falls short of the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income-tax and the tax on the balance of such long-term capital gains shall be computed at the rate mentioned above.

2. Short Term Capital Gains

Listed Debentures held as capital asset under Section 2(22) of the IT Act for a period of not more than 12 months would be treated as Short term capital asset under Section 2(101) of the IT Act. Short Term Capital Gains on transfer of NCD will be taxed at the normal rates of tax in accordance with the provisions of the IT Act. The provisions relating to maximum amount not chargeable to tax would apply to short term capital gains.

3. Capital Loss on transfer of Debentures.

As per Section 111 of the IT Act, short-term capital loss on transfer of debentures suffered during the year is allowed to be set-off against short-term as well as long-term capital gains of the said year. Balance loss, if any could be carried forward for eight years for claiming set-off against subsequent years' short term as well as long-term capital gains. Long-term capital loss on debentures suffered during the year is allowed to be set-off only against long-term capital gains. Balance loss, if any, could be carried forward for eight years for claiming set-off against subsequent year's long-term capital gains.

4. Exemption available for Individuals and HUF for Long Term Capital gains u/s 86 of the IT Act.

As per the provisions of Section 86 of the IT Act, any long-term capital gains on transfer of a long term capital asset not being a residential house arising to a Debenture Holder who is an individual or Hindu Undivided Family, is exempt from tax if the entire net sales consideration is utilized, within a period of one year before, or two years after the date of transfer, in purchase of a new residential house in India, or for construction of residential house in India within three years from the date of transfer subject to conditions. If part of such net sales consideration is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house, then such gains would be chargeable to tax on a proportionate basis. This exemption is available, subject to the conditions stated in Section 86.

C. In respect of Business Income

In case the Debentures are held as stock in trade by the debenture holder, the income/loss from transfer of debentures would be taxed as Income from Business. Such income is to be computed in accordance with the Income Computation and Disclosure Standard VIII, which is notified by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India under Section 276(2) of the IT Act. Where debentures are held as stock in trade and unpaid interest has accrued before acquisition of Debentures and is included in the price paid for the Debentures, subsequent receipt of interest is to be allocated between pre-acquisition and post-acquisition periods, the pre-acquisition portion of the interest is reduced from the actual cost and is to be treated as interest. In the case of Debentures held by Scheduled Bank and Public Financial Institutions, income is to be recognized in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India in this regard.

D. Debentures received as gift without consideration or inadequate consideration.

As per section 92(2)(m) of the IT Act, except in cases which are specifically exempted under this clause (such as gift received from relative as defined under the section), where the debentures are received without consideration where the aggregate market value of all gifts received exceeds Rs. 50,000/- the aggregate market value of the debentures shall be taxable as income in the hands of the recipient. Similarly, if debentures are received for inadequate consideration, the shortfall in the consideration will be treated as income of the recipient subject to the provisions contained in section 92(2)(m of the IT Act. There is no gift tax for the donor of the Debentures.

II. TO THE NON-RESIDENT DEBENTURE HOLDER

1. A Non – Resident Indian has an option to be governed by Chapter XIII – E of the IT Act, subject to the provisions contained therein which are given in brief as under:

a. As per Section 214 of the IT Act, interest income from debentures acquired or purchased with or subscribed to in convertible foreign exchange will be taxable at 20% (plus applicable surcharge and cess), whereas long term capital gains on transfer of such Debentures will be taxable at 12.50% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) of such capital gains without indexation of cost of acquisition. Short-term capital gains will be taxable at the normal rates of tax in accordance with and subject to the provisions contained therein.

b. As per Section 216 of the IT Act, it shall not be necessary for a non-resident Indian to file a return of income under Section 263(1)(a) of the IT Act, if his total income consists only of investment income as defined under Section 212 and/or long term capital gains earned on transfer of such investment acquired out of convertible foreign exchange, and the tax has been deducted at source from such income under the provisions of Chapter XIX- B of the IT Act in accordance with and subject to the provisions contained therein.

c. As per Section 213 of the IT Act no deduction in respect of any expenditure or allowance shall be allowed under any provisions of the IT Act in the computation of investment income of a non-resident Indian under Chapter XIII – E of the IT Act.

d. In accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 218 of the IT Act, a Non-Resident Indian may opt not to be governed by the provisions of Chapter XIII – E of the IT Act. In such a case, long term capital gains on transfer of listed debentures would be subject to tax at the rate of 12.50% computed without indexation.

e. Interest income and Short – term capital gains on the transfer of listed debentures, where debentures are held for a period of not more than 12 months preceding the date of transfer, would be taxed at the normal rates of tax in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the IT Act.

f. Where debentures are held as stock in trade, the income on transfer of debentures would be taxed as business income or loss in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the IT Act.

g. Under Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 17) of the IT Act, the applicable rate of tax deduction at source is 10% on investment income and 12.50% on any long-term capital gains as per Section 214, and 30% for Short Term Capital Gains if the payee debenture Holder is a Non Resident Indian.

h. The income tax deducted shall be increased by applicable surcharge and health and education cess.

As per Section 111 of the IT Act, short-term capital loss on transfer of debentures suffered during the year is allowed to be set-off against short-term as well as long-term capital gains of the said year. Balance loss, if any could be carried forward for eight years for claiming set-off against subsequent years' short-term as well as long-term capital gains. Long-term capital loss on debentures suffered during the year is allowed to be set-off only against long-term capital gains. Balance loss, if any, could be carried forward for eight years for claiming set-off against subsequent year's long-term capital gains.

As per Section 159(4) of the IT Act read with the Circular No. 728 dated October 30, 1995 issued by the Central Board of Direct Taxes, in the case of a remittance to a country with which a Double Tax Avoidance Agreement (DTAA) is in force, the tax should be deducted at the rate provided in the Finance Act of the relevant year or at the rate provided in the DTAA, whichever is more beneficial to the assessee. However, submission of tax residency certificate (TRC), is a mandatory condition for availing benefits under any DTAA. If the tax residency certificate does not contain the prescribed particulars as per CBDT Notification 57/2013 dated August 1, 2013, a self-declaration in Form 41 would need to be provided by the assessee along with TRC.

i. Alternatively, to avail lower deduction or non deduction of tax at source, as the case may be, the Debenture Holder should furnish a certificate under Section 393(2) of the IT Act, from the Assessing Officer before the prescribed date of closure of books for payment of debenture interest.

j. In case the Debentures are held as stock in trade by the debenture holder, the income/loss from transfer of debentures would be taxed as Income from Business. Such income is to be computed in accordance with the Income Computation and Disclosure Standard VIII which is notified by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India under Section 276(2) of the IT Act. Where debentures are held as stock in trade and unpaid interest has accrued before acquisition of Debentures and is included in the price paid for the Debentures, subsequent receipt of interest is to be allocated between pre-acquisition and post-acquisition periods, the pre-acquisition portion of the interest is reduced from the actual cost and is to be treated as interest. In the case of Debentures held by Scheduled Bank, income is to be recognized in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of

k. As per section 92(2)(m) of the IT Act, except in cases which are specifically exempted under this clause (such as gift received from relative as defined under the section), where the debentures are received without consideration where the aggregate market value of all gifts received exceeds Rs. 50,000/- the aggregate market value of the debentures shall be taxable as income in the hands of the recipient. Similarly, if debentures are received for inadequate consideration, the shortfall in the consideration will be treated as income of the recipient subject to the provisions contained in section 92(2)(m) of the IT Act. There is no gift tax for the Donor of the Debentures.

l. As per the provisions of Section 86 of the IT Act, any long-term capital gains on transfer of a long term capital asset not being a residential house arising to a Debenture Holder who is an individual or Hindu Undivided Family, is exempt from tax if the entire net sales consideration is utilized, within a period of one year before, or two years after the date of transfer, in purchase of a new residential house in India, or for construction of residential house in India within three years from the date of transfer subject to conditions. If part of such net sales consideration is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house, then such gains would be chargeable to tax on a proportionate basis. This exemption is available, subject to the conditions stated therein.

III. TO THE FOREIGN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS/ FOREIGN PORTFOLIO INVESTORS (FIIs/ FPIs)

1. As per Section 2(22)(b) of the IT Act, any securities held by FIIs which has invested in such securities in accordance with the regulations made under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, shall be treated as capital assets. Accordingly, any gains arising from transfer of such securities shall be chargeable to tax in the hands of FIIs as capital gains.

2. In accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 210 of the IT Act, long term capital gains on transfer of debentures by FIIs are taxable at 10% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) and short-term capital gains are taxable at 30% (plus applicable surcharge and cess). The benefit of cost indexation will not be available. Further, benefit of provisions of the first proviso of Section 72 of the IT Act will not apply.

3. Interest on NCD may be eligible for concessional tax rate of 5% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess) for interest referred under Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 16).

4. Further, in case where section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 16) is not applicable, the interest income earned by FIIs/FPIs should be chargeable to tax at the rate of 20% under section 210 of the IT Act. Tax shall be deducted under Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 15 of the IT Act on such income at 20%. Where DTAA is applicable to the payee, the rate of tax deduction shall be lower of rate as per DTAA or 20%, subject to the conditions prescribed therein.

5. Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 16) in the IT Act provides for lower rate of withholding tax at the rate of 5% on payment by way of interest paid by an Indian Company to FIIs and Qualified Foreign Investor in respect of rupee denominated bond of an Indian Company between June 1, 2013 and July 1, 2023 provided such rate does not exceed the rate as may be notified by the Government. Given that there has not been any extension beyond July, 2023, interest paid on or after 1 July 2023 shall be subject to tax at the rate of 20% (excluding applicable surcharge and cess) subject to availability of DTAA benefits.

6. The income tax deducted shall be increased by applicable surcharge and health and education cess.

7. In accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 16) of the IT Act, no deduction of tax at source is applicable in respect of capital gains arising on the transfer of debentures by FIIs referred to in section 210.

8. The CBDT has issued a Notification No. 9 dated 22 January 2014 which provides that Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPI) registered under SEBI (Foreign Portfolio Investors) Regulations, 2014 shall be treated as FII for the purpose of Section 210 of the IT Act.

IV. MUTUAL FUNDS

All mutual funds registered under Securities and Exchange Board of India or set up by public sector banks or public financial institutions or authorized by the Reserve Bank of India are exempt from tax on all their income, including income from investment in Debentures under the provisions of Schedule VI of the IT Act in accordance with the provisions contained therein. Further, as per the provisions of section 393(5) of the IT Act, no deduction of tax shall be made by any person from any sums payable to mutual funds specified under Schedule VI of the IT Act, where such sum is payable to it by way of interest or dividend in respect of any securities or shares owned by it or in which it has full beneficial interest, or any other income accruing or arising to it.

V. TO SPECIFIED FUNDS ("SPECIFIED FUND" AS DEFINED UNDER SCHEDULE VI OF THE IT ACT)

The income of Specified Funds is taxable for the year beginning April 1, 2020, to the extent attributable to units held by non-resident (not being a permanent establishment of a non-resident in India), and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 210 of the IT Act, as under:

a) The interest income earned are chargeable to tax at the rate of 10%;

b) long term capital gains on transfer of debentures to the specified extent are taxable at 10% (benefit of provisions of the first proviso of section 72 of the IT Act will not apply); and

c) Short-term capital gains are taxable at 30%.

Further, where any income in respect of NCD is payable to Specified Funds, tax shall be deducted at the rate of 10% on the income other than exempt under Schedule VI with effect from November 1, 2020 as per Section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 15) of the IT Act.

The income tax deducted shall be increased by applicable surcharge and health and education cess.

VI. REQUIREMENTS TO FURNISH PAN/FILING OF RETURNS UNDER THE IT ACT

1. SEC. 397(2)(a):

Section 139A (5A) requires every person from whom income tax has been deducted at source under chapter XIX – B of the IT Act to furnish his PAN to the person responsible for deduction of tax at source.

2. SEC. 262(6):

Section 262(6) of the Income Tax Act provides that every individual who has been allotted a permanent account number (PAN) as on the 1st day of July, 2017, and who is eligible to obtain an Aadhaar number, shall intimate his Aadhaar number in the prescribed form and manner. In case of failure to link Aadhaar with PAN, the permanent account number allotted to the person shall be made inoperative after the prescribed date.

3. SEC. 397(2)(b):

(a) Section 206AA of the IT Act requires every person entitled to receive any sum, on which tax is deductible under Chapter XVIIB ('deductee') to furnish his PAN to the deductor, failing which tax shall be deducted at the higher of the following rates:

(i) at the rate specified in the relevant provision of the IT Act; or
(ii) at the rate or rates in force; or
(iii) at the rate of twenty per cent.

(b) A declaration under Section 393(6) shall not be valid unless the person furnishes his PAN in such declaration and the deductor is required to deduct tax as per Para (a) above in such a case.

(c) Where a wrong PAN is provided, it will be regarded as non-furnishing of PAN and Para (a) above will apply.

(d) As per Rule 217, the higher rate under section 206AA shall not apply to a non resident, not being a company, or to a foreign company, in respect of payment of interest, if the non-resident deductee furnishes the prescribed details inter alia TRC and Tax Identification Number (TIN).

An overview of the Indian economy

Robust domestic demand and private investments pickup to counterweight external volatilities

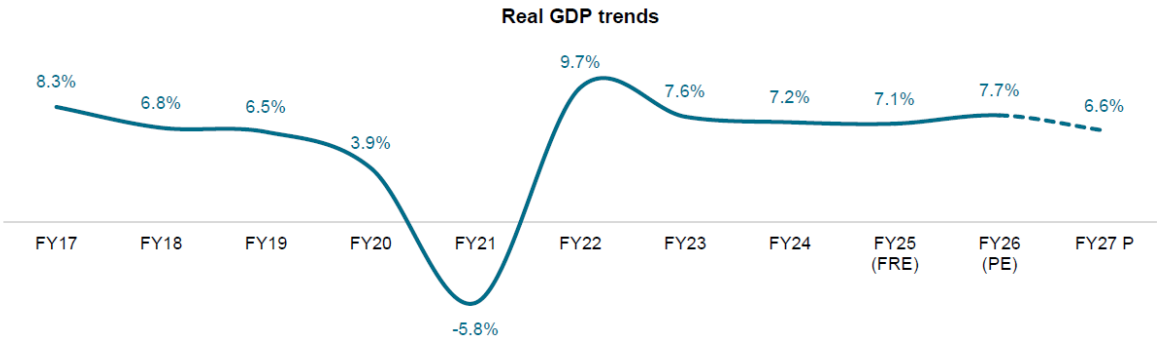

Amidst persistent global uncertainty, the Indian economy is poised to record healthy economic growth driven by steady domestic demand and robust private consumption. Investment continues to be resilient as evident by healthy construction activities, growing demand for capital goods and strong growth in domestic credit. External demand remains supported by healthy expansion in services exports, complemented by a rebound in merchandise exports.

According to the National Statistics Office's provisional estimate, India's real GDP is estimated to have grown at 7.7% in fiscal 2026, up from 7.1% in fiscal 2025. The GDP growth was supported by a favourable monsoon season, robust services exports and low crude oil prices, helping cushion the impact of US trade tariff. Government initiatives such as frontloading of government capital expenditure, income tax reduction and GST rate rationalisation also supported economic growth. On the monetary front, the RBI cut the repo rate and cash reserve ratio by 125 bps and 100 bps, respectively, and introduced regulatory easing and open market operations to improve transmission, facilitate bank lending and stabilise bond markets.

Crisil Intelligence projects India's real GDP growth to moderate to 6.6% in fiscal 2027 owing to a sharp increase in cost pressures and global trade disruptions. On the domestic front, the impact of below-normal monsoon on agricultural production and rural remand also remains a key risk.

That said, government's initiatives pertaining to crop diversification including short duration as well as climate-resilient crops, and water harvesting, are expected to mitigate the impact. The growing diversification of global supply chains is expected to help the manufacturing sector mitigate the impact of cost pressures to some extent. Furthermore, sustained momentum in services, continuing impact of GST rationalisation, and broadly stable employment conditions shall continue to support urban demand. While services exports are expected to sustain, merchandise exports will be supported by the recent trade agreements and thrust on diversification.

India's economy expected to grow at 6.6% in fiscal 2027

Repo rate cuts providing thrust to the economy against external headwinds

In the current repo rate cutting cycle which started in February 2025, the RBI delivered a cumulative rate cut of 125 bps to 5.25%.

In February and April 2025, the RBI delivered a repo rate cut of 25 bps each as inflation eased and approached its 4% target on account of easing pent-up demand post covid pandemic.

In June 2025, the RBI delivered an additional 50 bps rate cut while maintain the rates steady in August and October 2025 amid easing inflation, GST reductions and global trade uncertainties.

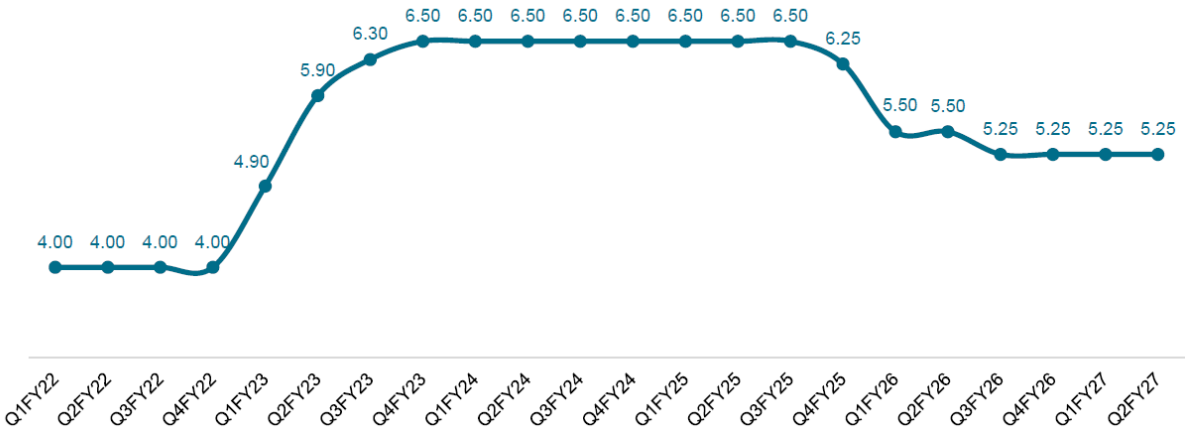

In December 2025, the RBI cut the repo rate by an additional 25 bps to 5.25%, citing lower-than-expected inflation and revising its inflation outlook downward. Liquidity was further boosted through open market operations and forex swaps. The RBI maintained its 'neutral' stance, emphasizing a data dependent approach going forward.

During February and April 2026, RBI kept the repo rate unchanged at 5.25% and maintained a neutral stance amid a weakening rupee, rising bond yields and inflationary pressures due to conflict in West Asia.

At its recent monetary policy meeting in August 2026, the RBI kept the repo rate unchanged and retained its 'neutral' stance, signalling a data-dependent approach amid volatile global markets and unpredictable weather conditions.

Crisil expect the monetary policy committee's approach to likely remain flexible, with close monitoring of near-term inflation which is likely to be driven by supply-side shocks, crude oil outlook and monsoon outcome.

Trends in key macroeconomic indicators

Macro variables	FY25	FY26	FY27P	Rationale for FY27 outlook
Real GDP (y-o-y)	7.1%	7.7%*	6.6%	Higher energy prices and supply chain disruptions weigh on economy growth. The impact of below-normal monsoon on agricultural production and rural remand also remains a key risk. However, growth will continue to be supported by fiscal policy and sustained momentum in services exports.

Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation (average, on-year %)	4.6%	2.0%	5.1%	While the government has limited rise in retail fuel inflation so far, a persistent rise in global prices could see retail fuel prices for cooking and transportation climb up further. Additionally, a sharp rise in energy and other input costs, as well as those for trade and transportation, is expected to be passed by producers to consumers, raising core inflation. El-Nino and heatwaves are expected to put pressure on food inflation.
10-year government security (G-sec) yield (March average, %)	6.7%	6.7%	7.0%	The West Asia conflict would exert greater fiscal pressure due to the absorption of higher energy and fertilizer prices, compounded by high market borrowings by the Centre. Furthermore, higher inflation would reduce monetary policy space. Weaker foreign capital flows into debt (as global yields rise and capital chases safe-haven assets) could exert upward pressure.
Current Account Balance (% of GDP)	-0.6%	-0.8%	-2.2%	The spike in international crude, gas and fertilizer prices is expected to raise import bill significantly while exports are expected to be hit by a global trade disruption and weakening global demand. Remittances face a risk from continuing tensions in West Asia, which accounts for ~38% of remittances to India.
Exchange rate (March average, Rs/$)	86.6	92.8	93.5	A higher current account deficit in fiscal 2027 will likely put pressure on the rupee. A prolonged West Asia conflict and escalating geopolitical uncertainties could keep FPI flows volatile, adding to the pressure. As a result, the rupee is expected to remain volatile in the near term. Crisil expects the rupee to strengthen from its current lows by the end of fiscal 2027, assuming the conflict abates.

Indigenous advantages to result in a stronger economic growth rate in the longer term

India has the largest population in the world

As per the report published (in July 2020) by National commission on population, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare report, India's population in 2011 was 1.21 billion, comprising nearly 246 million households. It should be noted that decadal growth rate during 2001-2011 stood at 17%. This is estimated to have fallen to 12% during 2011-2021 and is likely to decline further to 9% during 2021-2031. However, with 1.47 billion estimated population in 2030, India will continue to be a major opportunity market from demand perspective. Additionally, as per United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, India has overtaken China as the world's most populous country in April 2023.

Favourable demographics

India is also one of the countries with the largest youth population, with a median age of 28 years. About 90% of Indians are aged below 60 years. It is estimated that 64% of this population is aged between 15 and 59 years. Crisil Intelligence expects the existence of a large share of working population, coupled with rapid urbanisation and rising affluence, will propel growth of the Indian financial services sector.

Rise in urbanisation

Urbanisation is a key growth driver for India, as it leads to faster infrastructure development, job creation, development of modern consumer services, and the city's ability to mobilise savings. The share of urban population in total population has been consistently rising over the years and is expected to reach 36% by 2025 from 31% in 2011, spurring more demand.

Urban consumption in India has shown signs of improvement and given the country's favourable demographics, coupled with rising disposable incomes, the trend is likely to continue and drive domestic economic growth.

Overall NBFC – Industry overview

NBFCs play a crucial role in the credit ecosystem

Non-banking finance companies (NBFCs) have complemented banks and other financial institutions well in meeting the rising financing needs of people and businesses alike in sync with India's notable economic growth over the past decade.

NBFCs fill gaps in the availability of financial services with respect to products as well as customer and geographic segments. With a strong linkage at the grassroots, they are a critical cog in the financial machine. They cater to the unbanked masses in rural and semi-urban areas and lend to the informal sector and people without credit histories, thereby supporting the government's broader financial inclusion mission.

Classification of NBFCs

Eligibility criteria for NBFC registration require the following, i) a company's financial assets exceed 50% of its total assets after deducting intangible assets, and ii) that income from these financial assets accounts for more than 50% of its gross income

NBFCs are classified in terms of:

a) Regulatory structure under the Scale Based Regulations (SBR): Top Layer (NBFC - TL), Upper Layer (NBFC - UL), Middle Layer (NBFC - ML) and Base Layer (NBFC - BL)
b) Types of liabilities: Deposit-accepting and non-deposit-accepting NBFCs
c) Activity they perform

Classification of NBFCs as per Scale Based Regulations

The main objective of the SBR framework is to lay down regulations governing NBFCs and their supervision as a function of their size, activity and perceived riskiness. The SBR approach ensures that regulatory oversight intensifies as the size and complexity of an NBFC increase.

The Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Registration, Exemptions and Framework for Scale Based Regulation) Second Amendment Directions, 2026, provides framework for classification of NBFCs based on their scale.

As per the scale-based classification, NBFCs are categorised into four layers based on their size, activity and perceived riskiness. NBFCs in the lowest layer are NBFCs-BL, those in the middle layer are NBFCs-ML and those in the upper layer are NBFCs-UL. The top layer, known as NBFCs-TL, is ideally expected to be empty. It is to be populated only if the RBI is of the opinion that there is a substantial increase in the potential systemic risk from specific NBFCs in the upper layer. Under the framework, the degree of regulations increases as a company moves from lower to higher layers.

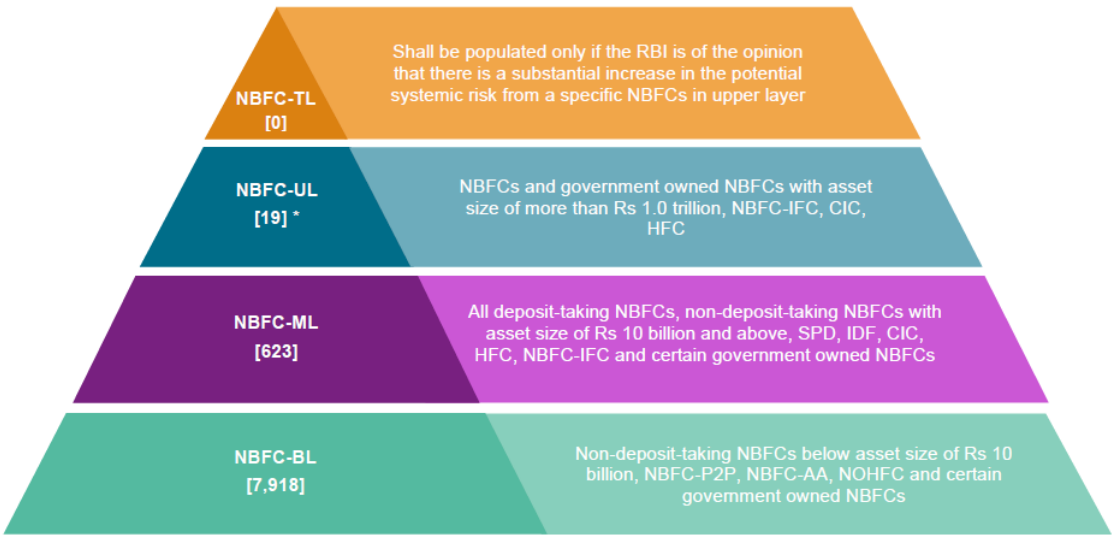

As per the erstwhile SBR framework for NBFCs, the upper layer NBFCs were identified by way of a parametric scoring methodology comprising quantitative and qualitative parameters, with weightages of 70% and 30%, respectively. Moreover, the top 10 NBFCs by assets were automatically categorised as the upper layer. Further, the framework placed Government owned NBFCs in the Base Layer or Middle Layer and not in the Upper Layer.

Recently, on June 24, 2026, the RBI amended the framework criteria for identification of NBFC-UL. As per the amended framework, NBFCs with asset size of Rs 1.0 trillion and above will be categorised as NBFC-UL. Additionally, in pursuance of the principle of ownership neutral regulatory regime for NBFCs, RBI amended the framework to include eligible Government owned NBFCs also in the list of NBFC-UL.

Details of NBFCs populating the various layers:

Layer	Base Layer (BL)	Middle Layer (ML)	Upper Layer (UL)
Asset Size Criteria	Non-deposit-taking NBFCs with asset size < Rs 10 billion	1. Non-deposit-taking NBFCs with asset size ⩾ Rs 10 billion; 2. All deposit-taking NBFCs	NBFCs with asset size ⩾ Rs 1.0 trillion (classification threshold subject to review every three years)
Deposit Taking Status	Non-deposit-taking	Both deposit-taking and non-deposit-taking	Both deposit-taking and non-deposit-taking
Specific NBFC Types Included	NBFC-P2Ps, NBFC-AAs, NOHFCs, NBFCs not availing public funds and not having any customer interface	Standalone Primary Dealers (SPD), Infrastructure Debt Funds (IDFs), Core Investment Companies (CICs), Housing Finance Companies (HFCs), Infrastructure Finance Companies (IFCs)	Any NBFC which exceeds the asset size threshold
Government-Owned NBFCs	Placed in any layer as applicable (As per prior SBR framework before June,2026 - placed in BL or ML and not in UL)

Liabilities-based classification

Based on liabilities, NBFCs are classified into two broad categories:

a) Deposit-taking

b) Non-deposit-taking

There were only 23 NBFCs in the country with permission to accept deposits as of June 30, 2026. Since 1997, the RBI has not issued any certificate of registration (CoR) to new NBFCs for acceptance of public deposits.

Only those NBFCs that hold a deposit-accepting CoR and have a minimum investment grade credit rating of 'BBB-' from any of the credit rating agencies registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) are allowed to accept/ hold public deposits up to a limit of 1.5 times of their net owned funds. At present, the maximum rate of interest an NBFC can offer is 12.5%. The interest may be paid or compounded at rests not shorter than monthly rests. NBFCs are allowed to accept/ renew public deposits which are repayable after 12 months but not later than 60 months. They cannot accept deposits repayable on demand.

Further, the deposits of NBFCs do not have insurance from the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation.

Activity-based classification

Based on the type of activity performed, NBFCs are classified as:

1. Investment and credit company (NBFC-ICC): These are financial institutions engaged principally in the business of providing finance by making loans or advances or otherwise for any activity other than its own and acquisition of securities; and is not any other category of NBFC.

2. Housing Finance Company (HFC): These are companies that fulfil the following conditions:
    a. NBFCs in the business of providing finance for housing and have financial assets that constitute at least 60% of their total assets (netted off by intangible assets)
    b. Out of the total assets (netted off by intangible assets), not less than 50% is by way of housing finance for individuals

3. Infrastructure finance company (IFC): These are NBFCs that deploy at least 75% of their total assets in infrastructure loans and have a minimum net owned fund of Rs 3.0 billion, with a minimum credit rating of 'A' or equivalent and a 15% capital to risk-weighted adequacy ratio.

4. Infrastructure debt fund (IDF-NBFC): These are companies registered as NBFCs to facilitate the flow of long-term debt into infrastructure projects. They raise resources by issuing rupee- or dollar-denominated bonds with a minimum five-year maturity. Only IFCs can sponsor these NBFCs.

5. Core Investment Company (CIC): These are NBFCs in the business of acquisition of shares and securities. A CIC should hold not less than 90% of its net assets in the form of investment in equity shares, preference shares, debt or loans in group companies. It should have a minimum asset size of Rs 1.0 billion.

6. Micro-finance institutions (NBFC-MFI): These are non-deposit-taking NBFCs with not less than 60% (as per June 6, 2025, notification) of their assets in the nature of qualifying assets, which satisfy the following criteria:

    - NBFC MFIs can disburse loans to borrowers with household annual income not exceeding Rs 300,000. The household shall mean an individual family unit, i.e., husband, wife and their unmarried children

    - All collateral-free loans will be considered as qualifying assets. Such loans will include all non-collateral loans irrespective of end use and mode of application/ processing/ disbursal

    - The loan shall not be linked with a lien on the deposit account of the borrower

7. Factors (NBFC-Factors): These are non-deposit-taking NBFCs engaged in the principal business of factoring. Financial assets in the factoring business should constitute at least 50% of its total assets and income derived from the factoring business should not be less than 50% of its gross income.

8. Mortgage guarantee companies (MGC): These are financial institutions with at least 90% of business turnover coming as mortgage guarantees or at least 90% of gross income coming from the mortgage-guarantee business and have net owned funds of at least Rs 1.0 billion.

9. Standalone Primary Dealers (SPD): These are NBFCs that are authorised to undertake the primary dealer activities in government securities (G-Secs). SPDs support the G-Sec market (both primary and secondary) through various obligations such as participating in primary auctions, market making in G-Secs, predominating investment in G-Secs, achieving minimum secondary market turnover ratio, etc.

10. Non-operative financial holding company (NOFHC): These are financial institutions through which promoter/ promoter groups are permitted to set up a new bank. A wholly owned NOFHC will hold the bank as well as all other financial services companies regulated by the RBI or other financial sector regulators to the extent permissible under the applicable regulatory prescriptions.

11. Account Aggregators (NBFC-AA): These are financial entities that function as account aggregators for customers of NBFCs. NBFC-AAs accumulate and provide information concerning multiple accounts that are held by the customers in various NBFC entities.

12. Peer to Peer Lending (NBFC-P2P): These are NBFCs in the business of providing loan facilitation services to willing lenders and borrowers through online platforms.

Regulatory capital requirement for NBFCs

As per the RBI guidelines, NBFCs are required to meet the following minimum capital requirements on an ongoing basis:

1. An NBFC primarily engaged in lending against gold jewellery is required to maintain minimum Tier 1 capital and capital-to-risk-weighted asset ratio (CRAR) of 12% and 15%, respectively, of the aggregate risk-weighted assets (RWAs). Also, the Tier 2 capital of an NBFC must not exceed 100% of the Tier 1 capital. RBI defines 'NBFC primarily engaged in lending against gold jewellery' an NBFC in which such loans comprise 50% or more of its financial assets.

$$\text{CRAR} = \frac{\text{Tier 1 Capital + Tier 2 Capital}}{\text{RWAs}}$$

2. An NBFC-ML and above is required to maintain a minimum Tier 1 capital ratio of 10% of aggregate RWAs.

$$\text{Tier 1 Capital ratio} = \frac{\text{Tier 1 Capital}}{\text{RWAs}}$$

3. An NBFC-ML and above is required to maintain a minimum CRAR of 15% of the aggregate RWAs. Also, the Tier 2 capital of the NBFC should not exceed 100% of the Tier 1 capital.

4. An NBFC-UL should maintain a minimum common equity Tier 1 (CET1) capital of 9% of the aggregate RWAs.

$$\text{CET 1 Capital Ratio} = \frac{\text{CET 1 Capital}}{\text{RWAs}}$$

Other key regulations under SBR

1. Net owned fund (NOF): With effect from October 01, 2022, companies seeking NBFC licences are required to have an NOF of Rs 100 million. Existing NBFCs have time until March 31, 2027, to attain an NOF of Rs 100 million.

The minimum NOF requirements for specialised NBFCs are:

- NBFC-IFC: Rs 3,000 million
- IDF-NBFC: Rs 3,000 million
- MGC: Rs 1,000 million
- HFC: Rs 200 million
- SPDs that undertake only the core activities: Rs 1,500 million; and SPDs that also undertake non-core activities: Rs 2,500 million
- NBFC-AA: Rs 20 million
- NBFC-P2P: Rs 20 million

2. Experience of the Board: Given the need for professional experience to manage the affairs of the NBFCs, at least one of the directors should have relevant experience of working with a bank or an NBFC. This regulation is applicable for all classes of NBFCs.

3. Ceiling on initial public offering (IPO) funding: The RBI has prescribed a ceiling of Rs 10 million per borrower for financing subscriptions to IPOs; however, NBFCs may fix more conservative limits. This regulation came into effect on April 1, 2022.

4. Opening of branches: As per the RBI (NBFC-Branch Authorisation) Direction, 2025 (updated on April 15, 2026), an NBFC is generally permitted to open branches without the need for prior RBI approval, unless specifically restricted. The new directions mark a departure from the earlier approach, under which certain categories required prior regulatory nod. The objective of the revised directions is to provide operational flexibility to NBFCs for branch expansion, facilitate ease of doing business and ensure necessary regulatory compliance.

   For deposit-taking NBFCs, branch opening is permitted as follows:

   - If the NBFC's NOF is up to Rs 500 million or its credit rating is below AA, it may open branches or appoint agents only within the state in which its registered office is situated
   - If the NBFC's NOF is greater than Rs 500 million but its credit rating is below AA, it is eligible to open branches only within the state in which its registered office is situated
   - If the NBFC's NOF is more than Rs 500 million and its credit rating is AA or above, it may open branches or appoint agents anywhere in India

Credit concentration norms

The RBI (NBFC-Concentration Risk Management) Directions, 2025 (updated on July 01, 2026) govern the concentration of exposures to a single counterparty or a group of connected counterparties.

The following exposure limits (as % of Tier 1 capital) are applicable to NBFC-MLs and NBFC-IFCs:

NBFC-ML	Single counterparty	Group of connected counterparties
NBFC (other than IFC)	25% (additional 5% for exposure to infrastructure loan / investment	40% (additional 10% for exposure to infrastructure loan / investment
NBFC-IFC	30%	50%

Source: RBI, Crisil Intelligence

The following exposure limits (as % of Tier 1 capital) are applicable to NBFC-UL:

NBFC-UL	Single Counterparty	Group of connected counterparties
NBFC (other than IFC)	20% (Additional 5% with Board approval, maximum limit of 25% in any case)	25% (additional 10% for exposure to infrastructure loan or investment)
NBFC-IFC	25% (additional 5% with Board approval)	45%

Source: RBI, Crisil Intelligence

As per the RBI guidelines, additional exposure may be taken with Board approval. NBFCs are required to record, in writing, the exceptional reasons for which such additional exposure is permitted in a specific case.

RBI's co-lending initiative to support affordability and outreach of capital

On August 06, 2025, the RBI released directions on co-lending arrangements (CLAs) amid growing traction for such arrangements among regulated entities (REs), and to broaden the scope of the extant guidelines, which are applicable only to CLAs between banks and NBFCs for priority sector loans.

The new directions apply to all CLAs among REs, including those involving non-priority sector co-lending, and aim to provide regulatory clarity on the permissibility of such arrangements, as well as to address prudential and conduct-related aspects.

Key impacts of the new directions are:

Expansion of co-lending scope to bridge regulatory gaps

The new guidelines expand the scope of co-lending guidelines to cover all REs and loan categories, allowing, for instance, two banks or two NBFCs to enter into CLAs for any loans product, regardless of priority sector lending statute. The expansion of the scope of guidelines to all regulated entities will allow more players and capital into the co-lending space, scaling up lending volume at more competitive interest rates, particularly in underserved segments such as MSME loans.

Blended interest rate to reduce borrowing costs for customers

The new guidelines require lenders to charge borrowers a blended interest rate, calculated as an average rate of interest derived from the interest rates charged by respective REs. Banks generally charge a lower rate of interest relative to NBFCs due to their lower cost of funds. Hence, the borrower can benefit from a lower blended interest rate, boost credit uptake under the co-lending model.

Reduction in minimum retention rate

The new guidelines reduced the minimum loan retention for origination RE from 20% to 10%. This will help in maintaining asset light balance sheet, especially for the smaller NBFCs.

Default Loss Guarantee (DLG)

The introduction of DLG of up to five per cent of loans outstanding under CLA will help increase accountability and prudence of the originator RE for loan origination and servicing.

Consistent asset classification

The new guidelines apply borrower level asset classification, resulting in a consistent SMA/NPA classification across both REs. However, there could be operational challenges as the guidelines require updating the classification on a real-time basis or by the end of the next working day.

Enhanced transparency and disclosures among lenders, benefiting both borrowers and investors

The new guidelines enforce more transparency for both borrowers and investors as REs will now be required to give details of CLA on their website as well as provide detailed disclosures in financial statements.

Rise in costs due to increase in operational and compliance requirements

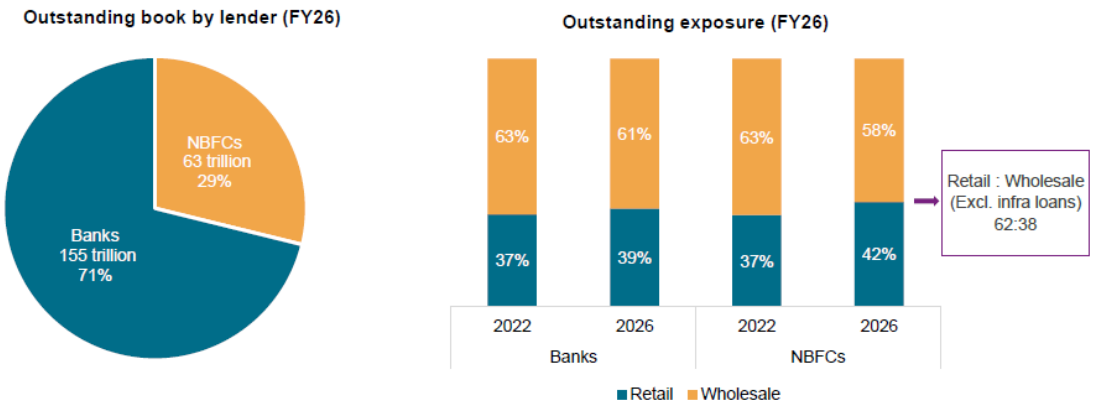

The new directions make an escrow account mandatory for all transactions. REs will need to build and integrate systems that can channel payments from multiple sources such as bank transfers and UPI into the escrow account. REs will also be required to put an additional mechanism to channel cash payments, typically coming from small business and microfinance customers, into the escrow account.

Additionally, both REs will be required to integrate their systems or set up a mechanism for complying with the real-time borrower level asset classification requirement. This can pose a challenge for traditional NBFCs which do not have a robust technology platform.

Overall NBFC - Review and outlook

Pickup in retail and infrastructure credit to drive credit growth of NBFCs

NBFCs' loan book shifting towards retail segments

Note:

1. The systemic credit represented above includes credit outstanding of banks and NBFCs only.
2. Bank credit represented above is exclusive of agriculture credit, food credit, onward lending to non-banks and international credit.

Source: Reserve Bank of India (RBI), company reports and Crisil Intelligence

In fiscal 2026, the financing provided by banks and non-banking financial companies (NBFCs) stood at Rs 218 trillion, with banks (excluding agriculture credit, food credit and onward lending to non-banks) accounting for ~71% (Rs 155 trillion) and NBFCs, including housing finance companies (HFCs), accounting for ~29% (Rs 63 trillion).

The NBFC portfolio, excluding infrastructure loan, which is primarily dominated by government-owned infrastructure finance companies (IFCs), is skewed towards retail loans, with a 62% share as of fiscal 2026.

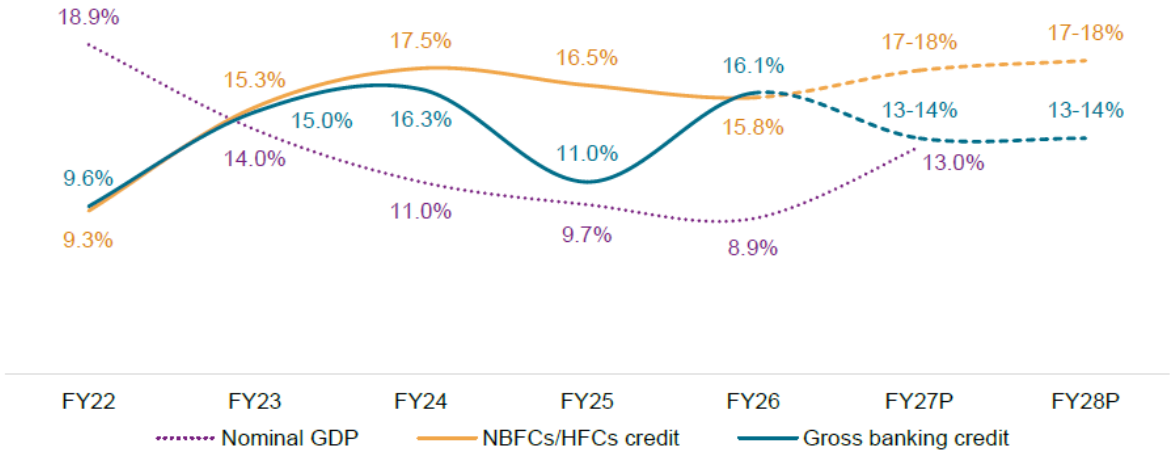

The credit portfolio of NBFCs clocked a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 14.9% between fiscals 2021-26, supported by rise of new players, branch expansion, deeper geographical penetration, innovative product offerings as well as leveraging digital technologies and strategic partnerships with banks and fintech firms.

In fiscal 2026, NBFCs clocked a credit growth of 15.8% on year, slightly slower than the 16.5% growth in fiscal 2025. The credit growth was primarily driven by robust performance of gold loans, with a 72.8% on-year loan portfolio growth on the back of rising gold prices, which made a borrower eligible for a higher loan amount based on the loan-to-value criteria. Lenders also shifted focus to secured loans, such as gold loans, due to increasing asset quality stress in unsecured loans. Personal loans and consumer durable loans rebounded in fiscal 2026, post a moderation in fiscal 2025, driven by subsiding overleveraging concerns and increased disposable income of borrowers from income tax and goods and services tax (GST) rate incentives.

The slower credit growth of NBFCs can be attributed to intensified pricing competition from banks, particularly public sector banks, post RBI's cumulative repo rate cut of 125 basis points (bps) between February 2025 and December 2025. The pricing competition was more evident in housing, auto, micro, small and medium enterprises (MSME) and infrastructure loan segments, where NBFCs saw a slowdown in loan growth rate compared with fiscal 2025.

Additionally, NBFCs remained cautious on unsecured loans, such as microfinance and unsecured business loans, owing to overleveraging and increasing asset quality stress caused by softening cash flows of underlying borrowers, reducing their repayment capacity. The cash flow stress on borrowers can be attributed partly to the United States (US) trade tariffs and the West Asia conflict. The ripple effect of overleveraging and diminishing repayment capacity was also visible in rising early delinquencies in secured loans such as small ticket loans against property. Education loans also experienced a slowdown due to external factors such as visa regulation changes, geopolitical uncertainties and rupee depreciation.

Source: RBI, National Housing Bank (NHB), Ministry of Finance, National Statistical Office (NSO), company reports and Crisil Intelligence

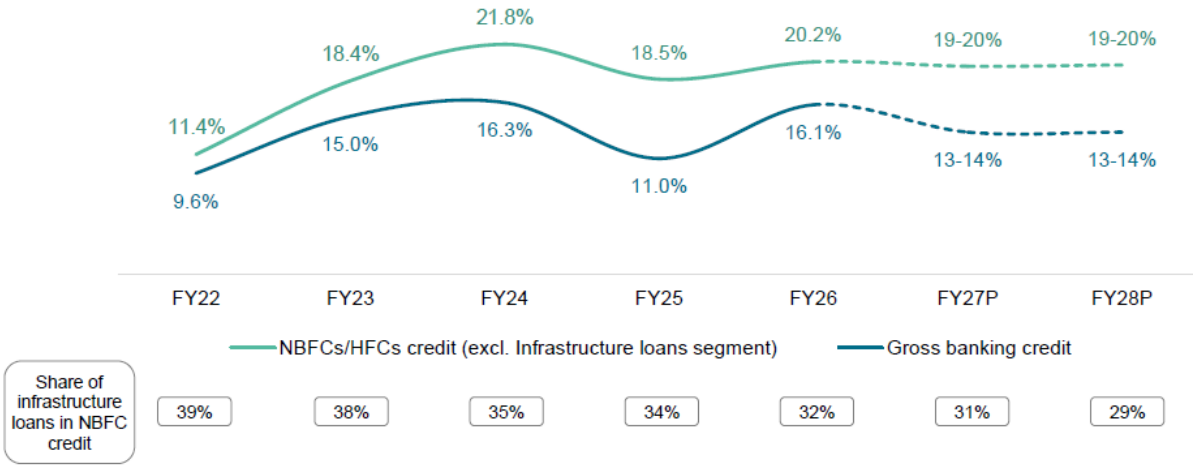

Crisil Intelligence projects India's real GDP to grow by 6.6% (nominal GDP: 13%) in fiscal 2027 due to elevated inflation. The restart of conflict between US and Iran has heightened trade concerns, pushed up crude oil prices and reduced shipping routes through the Strait of Hormuz. On the domestic front, a sub-par monsoon has significantly increased the risk of inflation.

According to the National Statistics Office's provisional estimate, India's real GDP is estimated to have grown at 7.7% (nominal GDP: 8.9%) in fiscal 2026, up from 7.1% (nominal GDP: 9.7%) in fiscal 2025. The GDP growth was supported by a favourable monsoon season, robust services exports and low crude oil prices which helped cushion the impact of US trade tariff. Government initiatives such as frontloading of government capital expenditure, income tax reduction and GST rate rationalisation also supported economic growth. On the monetary front, the RBI cut the repo rate and cash reserve ratio by 125 bps and 100 bps, respectively, and introduced regulatory easing and open market operations to improve transmission, facilitate bank lending and stabilise bond markets.

Excluding infrastructure loans segment, which is primarily dominated by government-owned infrastructure finance companies, the credit growth of NBFCs stood at 20.2%, outpacing 18.5% growth recorded in fiscal 2025. This credit growth was also considerably higher than gross banking credit growth of 16.1% in fiscal 2026. Despite higher disbursements in fiscal 2026, key infrastructure companies, Power Finance Corporation Limited (PFC) and REC Limited (REC), experienced a moderation in credit growth due to increase in prepayments from borrowers amid a declining interest rate cycle and competitive pressure from banks. The growth rate of the infrastructure sector was also impacted by the addition of historical numbers of Indian Railway Finance Corporation (IRFC) which now have started expanding beyond conventional railway financing.

NBFC credit (excluding infrastructure loans) is expected to continue growing faster than banks; Share of infrastructure loans in NBFC credit declining

NBFC credit to log 17-18% growth in fiscal 2027

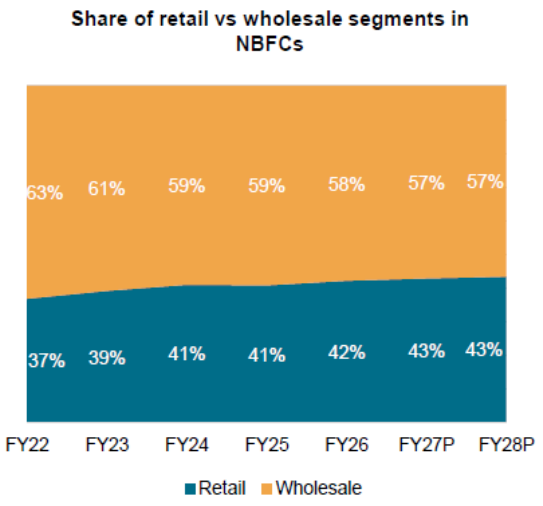

In fiscal 2027, the credit growth of NBFCs is projected to remain high, in the range of 17-18%, up from 15.8% in fiscal 2026, driven by normalisation of pricing competition between banks and non-banks and subsiding asset quality risk in segments such as microfinance and unsecured business loans. However, hiccups from conflict in West Asia poses a downside risk to the growth outlook.

Housing, auto, gold, consumer durable and infrastructure loans are expected to drive credit of NBFCs in fiscal 2027. Notably, gold loans are likely to continue growing at a high double-digit rate, albeit at a more normalised rate after the exceptionally strong growth in fiscal 2026.

In fiscal 2026, retail loans recorded a robust loan growth of 19.9%, up from 15.9% in fiscal 2025, primarily driven by gold, personal and consumer durable loans. Within wholesale loans, infrastructure loans (accounting for 55% of wholesale loans in fiscal 2026) recorded a moderation in credit growth to 7.5%, down from 12.9% in fiscal 2025, owing to higher repayments on account of declining repo rates and the completion of government schemes, partly offsetting high disbursements. Similarly, MSME loans (37% of wholesale loans) saw a slowdown to 22.8%, compared to 26.8% in fiscal 2025, as lenders exhibited caution on unsecured business loans due to asset quality concerns. As a result, the share of retail loans increased to 42% from 41% in fiscal 2025.

Retail credit growth to remain range bound as pickup in hosing and personal loans is expected to be offset by normalisation in credit growth of gold loans; infrastructure loans to drive wholesale loans growth

P: Projected

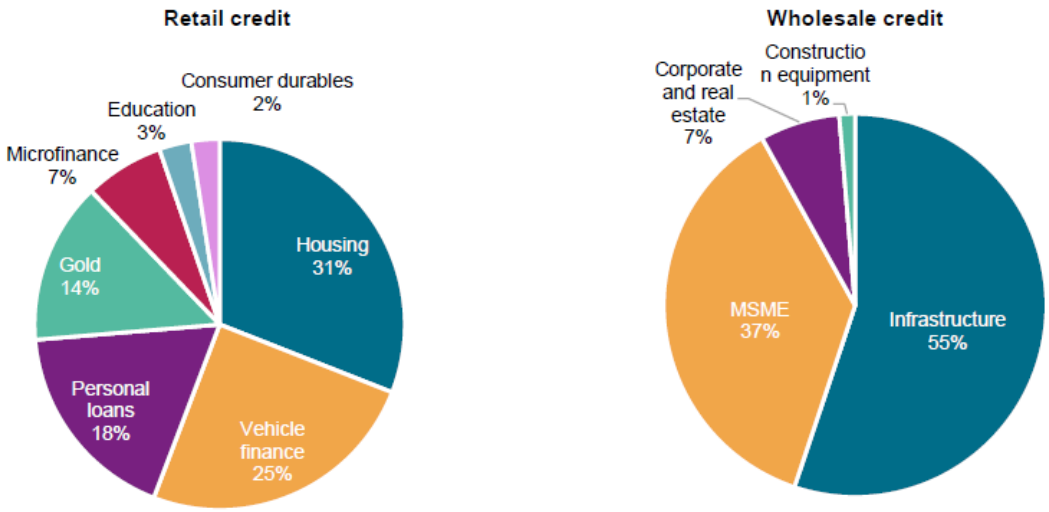

Note:
1) Retail includes housing, vehicles, gold, microfinance, personal, consumer durables and education loans
2) Wholesale includes MSME, real estate and large corporate, infrastructure and construction equipment loans
3) Indian Railway Finance Corporation (IRFC) has been added to infrastructure loans segment of NBFCs due to its diversification beyond conventional railway financing. Accordingly, previous numbers have been adjusted for a like-to-like comparison
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

The retail loans segment is projected to record a range bound growth of 19-20% in fiscal 2027. Housing loans are projected to record a pickup in loan growth due to normalisation of pricing competition with banks. Personal loans are also projected to see an uptick as NBFCs are increasingly integrating Artificial Intelligence (AI) for faster underwriting and disbursement of loans along with fintech driven expansion and innovative new digital product launches. The microfinance sector is projected to record growth post the decline seen in fiscal 2026. Gold loans are expected to grow at a high double-digit rate despite a moderation from record high levels witnessed in fiscal 2026. Education loans are also projected to grow at a higher rate in fiscal 2027, driven by increasing demand from students opting for countries such as Australia, the United Kingdom (UK) and European countries due to policy uncertainty and stricter visa norms in the US and Canada.

Wholesale loans segment is projected to grow at 15-16% in fiscal 2027 as infrastructure loans are expected to see a pickup driven by healthy infrastructure project pipeline, underpinned by higher demand from the power and renewable sector. MSME loans are projected to record a rangebound growth, while corporate and commercial real estate loans are expected to witness an uptick in growth, driven by increased corporate capital expenditure and real estate project launches.

In fiscal 2026, the RBI proactively issued new guidelines on co-lending, securitisation, reduction in credit risk weights for multiple loan products, lending against gold and silver collateral, digital lending, branch authorisation and pre-payment charges on loans. The value of these guidelines is expected to unlock over the current and next year in the form of improved underwriting and loan growth.

Unsecured lending segment growth to pace up with expected improvement in microfinance credit

Unsecured loan growth to outpace secured loan growth in fiscal 2027

P: Projected

Note: For the calculation of unsecured retail loans offered by NBFCs, segments such as personal, microfinance, consumer durable loans and the unsecured proportion of education loans have been considered

Source: RBI, Microfinance Institutions Network (MFIN), company reports and Crisil Intelligence

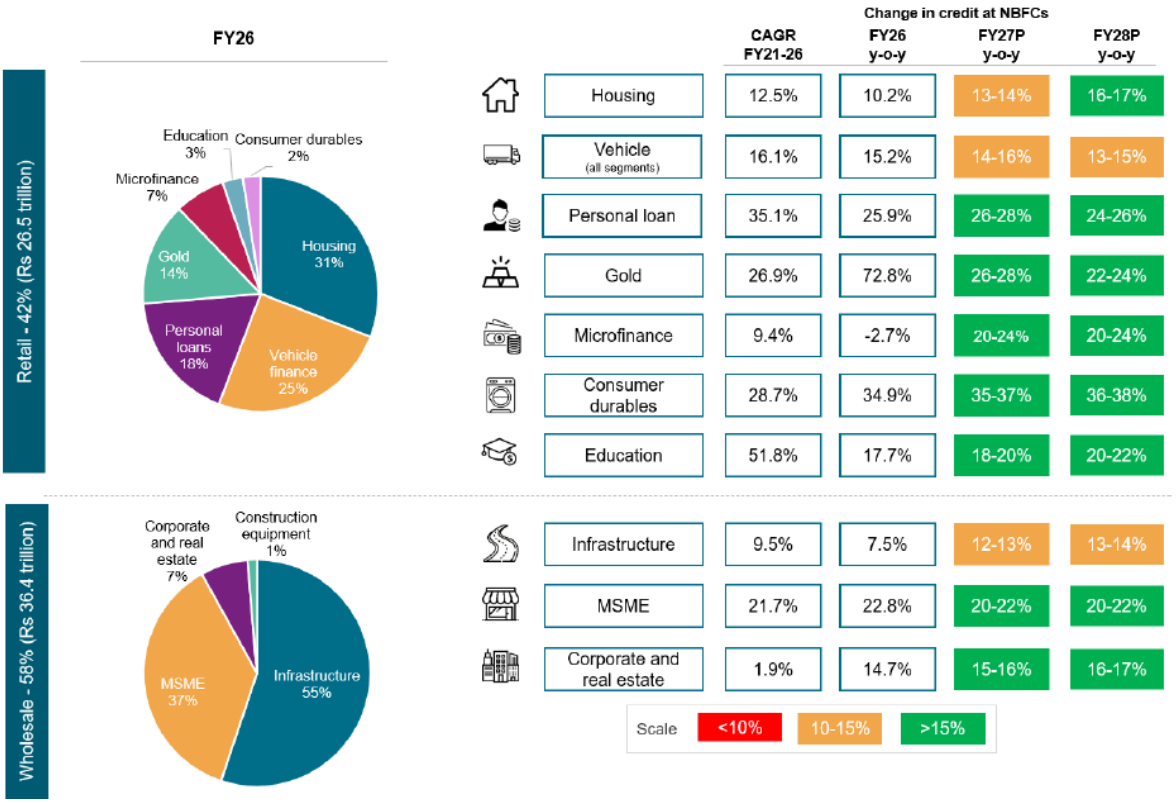

In fiscal 2026, unsecured loans segment growth recovered to 17.6% from 10.7% in fiscal 2025, driven by personal loans and consumer durable loans as well as normalisation in microfinance sector. Notably in fiscal 2025, the microfinance loans of NBFC-MFI recorded a decline of 13.7% in their loan portfolio due to implementation of Guardrails 2.0 which introduced a capping of maximum lender to three and total borrower indebtedness limit of Rs 2,00,000 including both microfinance loans and unsecured retail loans. In fiscal 2026, the microfinance sector recorded a recovery in disbursements, yet the sector recorded a loan portfolio decline of 2.7%.

The secured loans segment recorded a loan growth of 20.9% in fiscal 2026, up from 18.3% in fiscal 2025, primarily driven by robust growth of gold loans.

In fiscal 2027, the growth of secured loan portfolio is projected to soften to 16-17% due to normalisation in credit growth of gold loans, partly offset by pickup in housing loans. Vehicle loans are projected to remain rangebound benefits from residual GST rate rationalisation, income support from 8th Pay Commission, improving freight activity and replacement demand is likely to offset by risk from sub-par monsoon, oil price volatility caused by tensions in West Asia and potential supply-chain disruptions.

Unsecured loan portfolio is projected to rebound and record a loan growth of 25-26% in fiscal 2027 supported by recovery in microfinance as well as continued growth in personal and consumer durable loans. Consequently, the share of unsecured retail loans in retail portfolio is expected to increase marginally to 31% in fiscal 2027.

Sustained credit growth momentum in fiscal 2027

P: Projected
Note: Indian Railway Finance Corporation (IRFC) has been added to infrastructure loans segment due to its diversification beyond conventional railway financing. Accordingly, previous numbers have been adjusted for a like-to-like comparison Housing finance: In fiscal 2026, credit growth is estimated to have slowed to ~10.2% on-year, following 13.7% on-year growth in fiscal 2025. The slowdown in housing finance growth can be attributed to heightened pricing competition from public sector banks, especially for prime housing-focused HFCs, as both players cater to the salaried customer segment. In addition, NBFCs saw a rise in loan balance transfers as existing borrowers moved to banks for better rates. Geography specific issues such as software failures and staffing shortages in Karnataka's property registration system also contributed to the slowdown as lenders were unable to log cases due to documentation hurdles. Crisil Intelligence expects the housing loan book of HFCs/NBFCs to grow 13-14% in fiscal 2027, driven by easing rate competition from public sector banks and a pick-up in demand due to the transmission of repo rate cuts to borrowers.
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

Vehicle finance: The vehicle finance segment of NBFCs grew by 15.2% on year in fiscal 2026, supported by growth across segments, with tractors and used vehicles being the key drivers. GST rationalisation in September 2025 significantly improved vehicle affordability and supported retail credit demand. However, this did not proportionately translate into assets under management (AUM) growth as ticket sizes declined, while competitive intensity from banks also remained elevated, thus hampering the growth. In fiscal 2027, Crisil Intelligence expects vehicle finance growth to remain range-bound at 14-16%, supported by residual GST rationalisation benefits, expected income support from the 8th Pay Commission, improving freight activity and replacement demand. However, risks such as El Niño-related disruptions, oil price volatility caused by tensions in West Asia and potential supply-chain disruptions may moderate growth.

Gold finance: The gold loan portfolio of NBFCs recorded 72.8% on-year growth in fiscal 2026 compared with 31.9% in fiscal 2025. The sharp acceleration was primarily driven by the sustained increase in domestic gold prices, which enhanced the collateral value of pledged jewellery and enabled higher loan disbursements, renewals and top-up loans. In addition, increasing borrower preference for secured lending, stronger monetisation of household gold and improving customer awareness further supported portfolio expansion during the year. Going forward, Crisil Intelligence expects gold loan growth of NBFCs to normalise to 26-28% in fiscal 2027.

Microfinance: NBFC-MFI microfinance credit outstanding contracted by 2.7% in fiscal 2026, compared with a significantly sharper decline of 13.7% in fiscal 2025. While the sector remained under pressure, larger NBFC-MFIs exhibited visible signs of gradual stabilisation following a prolonged period of borrower stress and elevated overleveraging. Although fiscal 2026 remained a year of contraction, the improvement in borrower quality, disciplined new book creation (post Guardrails implementation) and gradual reduction in borrower overleveraging witnessed during the latter part of the fiscal are expected to support a stronger recovery trajectory in fiscal 2027. As a result, Crisil Intelligence projects NBFC-MFI microfinance loan portfolio to growth at 20-24% in fiscal 2027, supported by a low base, improving collection efficiencies and disciplined post-guardrail book seasoning, though NBFC-MFIs are expected to maintain tighter underwriting standards.

MSME finance: In fiscal 2026, NBFCs experienced a moderation in credit to 22.8%, compared with 26.8% in fiscal 2025, primarily on account of tighter underwriting in unsecured business loan segment, due to rising early delinquencies. This was largely driven by overleveraging concerns among borrowers that had unsecured personal loans alongside secured/unsecured business loans. As a result, many NBFCs focused on growing their secured loan against property (LAP) portfolio to mitigate asset quality challenges. Crisil Intelligence projects MSME credit to grow in the range of 20-22% in fiscal 2027, driven by low interest rates, strong government policy support and continued high economic growth. However, external headwinds from the conflict in West Asia poses a downside risk to the outlook due to rise in fuel and raw material prices.

Real estate and corporate finance: In fiscal 2026, NBFCs' real estate and corporate finance book maintained its growth momentum, expanding 14.7% on year, up from 8.0% in fiscal 2025, driven by rising demand for developer finance amid increased project launches and a recovery in corporate debt demand. In addition, NBFCs strengthened their presence in the mid-corporate segment and lending to other NBFCs as banks continued to prioritise large, well-rated borrowers.

Infrastructure finance: In fiscal 2026, the infrastructure book of NBFCs grew by 7.5%, slower than 12.9% growth in fiscal 2025. This slowdown was primarily driven by elevated repayments as borrowers opted for refinancing of debt through banks amid intensifying competition in a declining interest rate environment. In addition, lower disbursements under the Recurring Bill Payment Facility (RBPF) Scheme further contributed to the moderation, as loans under the scheme continued to be repaid without corresponding fresh disbursals. Looking ahead, Crisil Intelligence projects the growth of infrastructure financing NBFCs to recover to 12-13% in fiscal 2027 supported by the normalisation of repayment levels as competitive pressures ease, a healthy infrastructure project pipeline, and synergy benefits arising from restructuring of the entities. The outlook for infrastructure financing by NBFCs also remains favourable, underpinned by sustained growth in power demand and renewable sector.

Asset quality at manageable levels across majority of the loan segments

Housing finance: The housing portfolio of HFCs has demonstrated a positive trend, with the decline in gross non-performing assets (GNPA) since fiscal 2021. In fiscal 2026, the housing portfolio's GNPA improved to 1.0% from 1.2% in fiscal 2025, driven by continued monitoring of early delinquencies by lenders, as well as the sell-off of bad loans to asset reconstruction companies by a few HFCs. Additionally, lower lending rates following repo rate cuts by the RBI alleviated downside risk to asset quality. In fiscal 2027, Crisil Intelligence projects the housing portfolio's GNPA to witness a slight uptick to 1.1-1.2%, reflecting a cautious stance amid uncertainties arising from the West Asia conflict Vehicle finance: Overall GNPA for auto finance NBFCs stood at 3.9% in fiscal 2026. While the headline GNPA remained broadly unchanged compared with fiscal 2025, the underlying asset quality improved. This is because a large auto finance NBFC undertook a technical write-off in fiscal 2025, which reduced the reported GNPA for that year and created a favourable base for comparison. During fiscal 2027, Crisil Intelligence expects GNPA to be in range of 4.1-4.2%, as risks from El Niño, inflationary pressures and oil price volatility, and potential slowdown from geopolitical tensions may continue to weigh on borrowers' repayment capacity.

Gold finance: Gold loan GNPA for NBFCs declined sharply to ~1.7% in fiscal 2026 from 2.7% in fiscal 2025, supported by strong portfolio growth, controlled slippages, elevated gold prices aiding borrower repayment, and substantial legacy NPA recovery/reduction at the top player. The sharp portfolio expansion also supported GNPA through a denominator effect. In fiscal 2027, Crisil Intelligence expects GNPA to rise slightly to 2.0-2.2% as the one-time benefit from legacy NPA reduction may not recur at a similar scale. In addition, rising borrower leverage through multiple gold loans and gold price volatility may create near-term slippage pressures for these NBFCs.

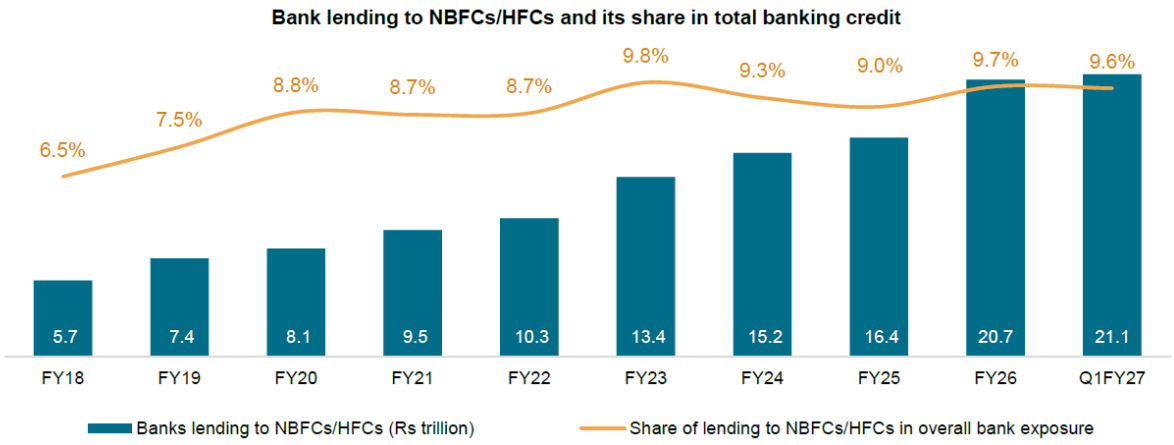

Microfinance: Key NBFC-MFIs (accounting for ~90% of the MFI advances) GNPA improved to 3.0% in fiscal 2026 from 4.7% in fiscal 2025, supported by increased write-offs, lower forward flows and reduced borrower overleveraging following stricter MFIN guidelines implemented in April 2025. Post Guardrails 2.0, lenders adopted tighter underwriting, while lender plus three borrower exposure declined significantly, validating a stronger sectoral focus on disciplined, quality-led lending. In fiscal 2027, GNPA is expected to improve further to 2.6-2.8%, supported by continued write-offs, lower slippages from the post-guardrail book and improving portfolio seasoning. However, geopolitical uncertainties, localised disruptions such as El Niño, and broader macroeconomic pressures may remain monitorable.

MSME finance: The asset quality of NBFC's MSME loans has been improving following a pandemic-induced peak in fiscal 2022. In fiscal 2026, the GNPA ratio of NBFC's MSME loans recorded a marginal uptick to 4.7%, primarily driven by higher delinquencies in non-LAP loans as well as small ticket LAP loans. Crisil Intelligence expects GNPA ratio to remain elevated in fiscal 2027 at 4.5-5.5% due to external trade headwinds related to supply chains, weaker monsoon and higher inflation.

Infrastructure finance: Most PFC, REC and IREDA borrowers are state-owned generation, and T&D entities covered by state government guarantees. Hence, the delinquencies remain restricted. The robust asset quality of infrastructure financing NBFCs is further supported by the successful resolution of non-performing loans within and outside the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT). In fiscal 2026, GNPA ratio improved to 0.6% from 1.2% in fiscal 2025 supported by successful resolution of NPA projects. In fiscal 2027, the NBFC infrastructure loan book is expected to see continued improvement in asset quality, with GNPA projected at 0.4-0.5%. This optimistic outlook is supported by the anticipated resolution of additional accounts in the near term which are under resolution.

Trends in liability franchise of non-banks

Bank lending to NBFCs continued growth momentum in the first quarter of fiscal 2027

Source: RBI, Crisil Intelligence

In June 2026, bank lending to NBFCs continued the momentum and increased strongly by 32.2% on year and 2.0% sequentially to Rs 21.1 trillion. Similarly, the share of lending to NBFCs/HFCs in the total banking credit stood high at 9.6%. The increase in bank lending was supported by low interest rates on account of transmission of repo rate cuts as well as abating asset quality concerns in few unsecured segments which lifted bank's confidence in the sector.

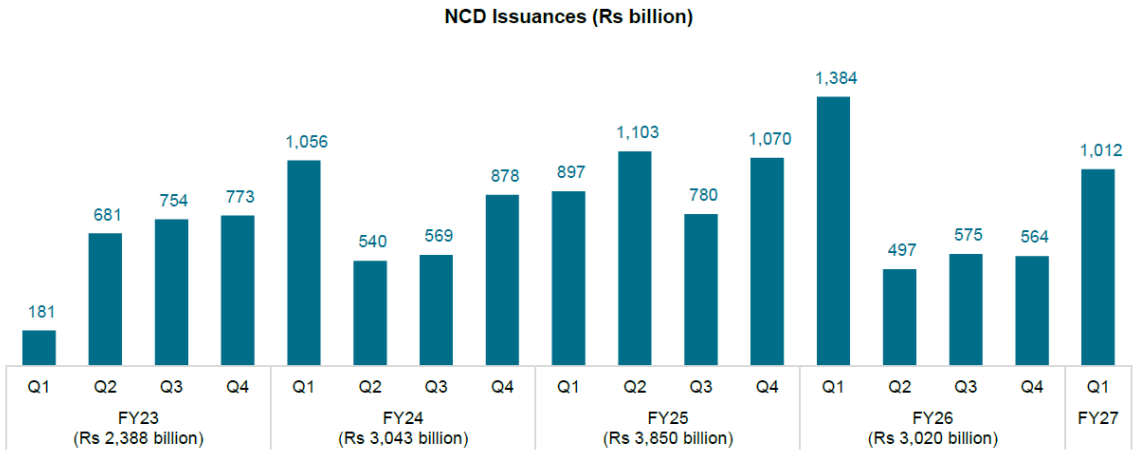

In fiscal 2026, bank lending to NBFCs witnessed a strong recovery, recording a 26.6% on year growth. Bank borrowings remained an attractive option to NBFCs as despite repo rate cuts, bond markets yield remained relatively tighter due to macroeconomic headwind. Furthermore, effect April 01, 2025, RBI rolled back the 25% increase in risk weights on bank lending to NBFCs, making it attractive for banks to lend to the sector. However, banks remained cautious about lending to NBFCs, especially for unsecured segments such as microfinance and non-LAP business loans, due to concerns on asset quality. Notably, banks are one of the key sources of funding for microfinance players.

In fiscal 2025, credit exposure of banks to NBFCs grew 7.4% on year to Rs 16.4 trillion, moderating from 13.4% growth in fiscal 2024. The moderation in bank exposure to NBFCs can be attributed to higher lending rates due to increase in repo rate and increase in risk weights on bank lending to NBFCs by RBI due to stress in unsecured loan segments.

Crisil Intelligence expects bank lending to NBFCs to remain strong in the near term on account of favourable bank rates.

The NCD market witnessed a strong rebound in Q1FY27, with issuances by NBFCs and HFCs surging 79% sequentially. This recovery was driven by improved investor confidence, supported by the RBI's measures to boost liquidity and an unchanged repo rate despite global uncertainty.

In Q1FY27, vehicle finance accounted for 22% of the NCD issuances, followed by housing finance (21%), gold finance (19%), diversified NBFCs (13%) and infrastructure finance (13%).

In fiscal 2026, non-convertible debenture (NCD) issuances by NBFCs and HFCs fell 22% on-year, totalling Rs 3,020 billion, compared with Rs 3,850 billion in the fiscal 2025, largely due to the hardening of the bond yields, which persisted despite the rate cut cycle, because of external headwinds such as tariffs imposed by the United States (US) during the fiscal and conflict in West Asia. NCD issuance surged in the first quarter of fiscal 2026 on account of rate cuts, however, overall volumes moderated as the year progressed, leading to the full-year decline.

Note: The above data represents the trend for over 200 NBFCs forming more than 95% of loans and advances of the estimated NBFC sector outstanding
Source: Prime database, Crisil Intelligence

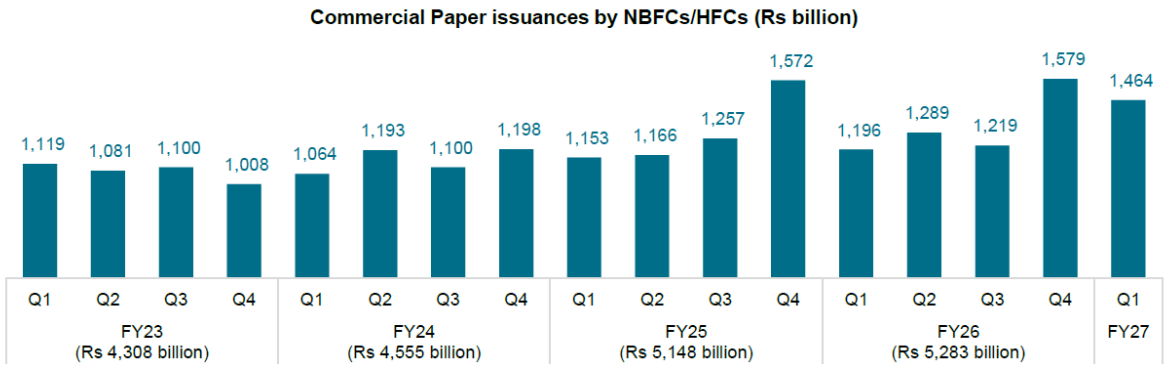

In fiscal 2026, NCD issuances by vehicle finance, diversified NBFCs, gold finance and microfinance players increased. However, issuances by infrastructure finance NBFCs declined as they continue to tap funding via external commercial borrowings.

Vehicle and gold finance NBFCs saw an increase in funding requirement on account of robust loan growth. For gold finance NBFCs, lending demand was largely driven by rising gold price, resulting in higher loan eligibility for borrowers based on loan-to-value ratio criteria. While for vehicle finance NBFCs, credit growth saw an uptick after the rationalisation of goods and services tax rates. The Microfinance sector also recorded an increase in NCD issuances as banks tightened their funding to the sector, making them more reliant on NCDs and other capital market instruments.

NCDs issued by infrastructure finance NBFCs declined as key players like PFC and REC withdrew or cancelled their planned issuances primarily because of weak demand, as they bid higher yield, which did not align with their cost of funds.

Yet, infrastructure finance NBFCs maintained their leading position, accounting for 24% of the total NCD issuances, followed by diversified NBFCs at 23% and vehicle finance companies at 22%. Collectively, these three segments comprised ~69% of the total issuances during the fiscal.

Commercial paper issuances remain strong in the first quarter of fiscal 2027

Commercial paper issuances by NBFCs and HFCs increased to Rs 1,464 billion in the first quarter of fiscal 2027, marking a strong 22.4% on-year growth. NBFCs and HFCs accounted for approximately 27% of total CP issuances during the quarter, underscoring their continued reliance on short-term market borrowings to support funding requirements.

The high issuance volumes reflected favourable pricing conditions, refinancing of maturing obligations and the build-up of precautionary liquidity buffers by NBFCs amid evolving market conditions. The strong momentum also extended the trend observed in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, when NBFCs increasingly utilised the CP market to diversify funding sources.

In fiscal 2026, commercial paper issuances by NBFCs grew by 3% on year to Rs 5,283 billion. Amid a declining repo rate environment, many NBFCs took a strategic decision to raise short-term funding for better cost management. Additionally, commercial paper volumes remained strong as many small players resorted to capital market debt such as NCDs and commercial papers funding from banks became tighter. In the last quarter of fiscal 2026, NBFCs issued commercial papers to meet their financial year-end funding requirements, despite their higher cost relative to other funding sources.

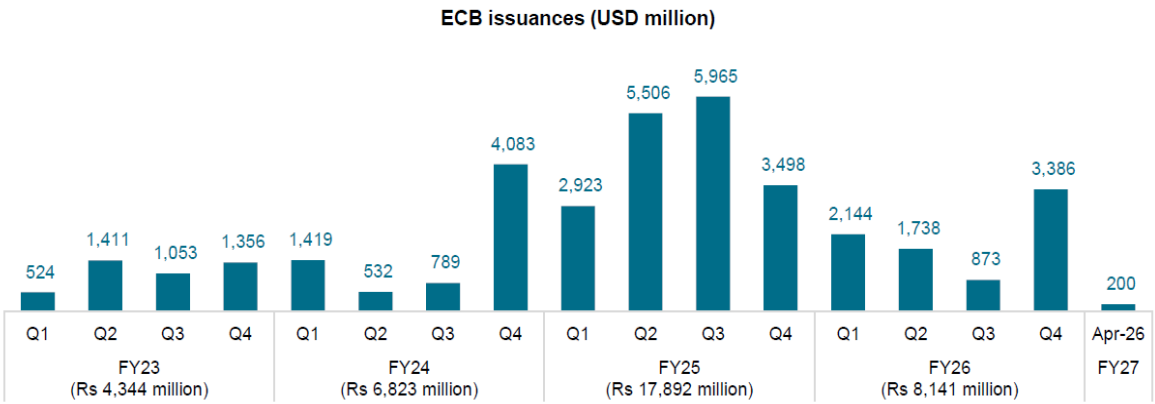

In fiscal 2025, CP issuances by NBFCs/HFCs grew by 13% on year to Rs 5,148 billion. Given a significant drop in bank credit to NBFCs, investment-grade companies turned to the capital market for funding. Additionally, NBFCs/HFCs were tapping capital market instruments to diversify their borrowing mix.

In fiscal 2026, external commercial borrowings (ECBs) by NBFCs moderated to USD 8,141 million, a significant decline of 54.5% on year compared to USD 17,892 million in fiscal 2025. The RBI implemented a cumulative 125-bps policy rate cut from February to December 2025, narrowing the interest rate differential with the US and Europe. Moreover, the rupee started to depreciate against the US dollar following tariffs by the US and the subsequent outbreak of conflict in West Asia. Depreciating domestic currency along with increasing hedging costs made ECBs less attractive compared with domestic funding sources.

Fiscal 2025 saw a surge in ECB issuances, which jumped 162% to USD 17.9 billion from USD 6.8 billion in fiscal 2024. The momentum in overseas borrowing was fuelled by faster rate cuts in the US and Europe, enabling large and highly rated NBFCs to access competitive rates in international markets.

NBFCs drive securitisation volumes in the first quarter of fiscal 2027

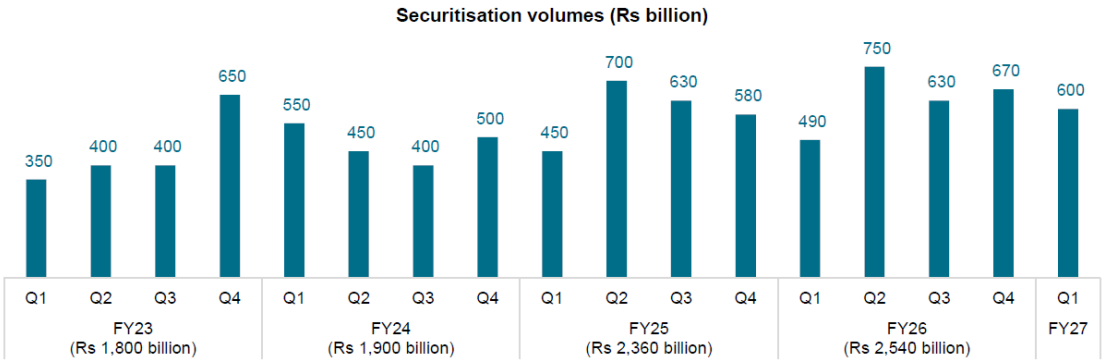

India's securitisation market delivered its strongest-ever first-quarter performance in fiscal 2027, with issuance volumes rising 22% on-year to Rs 600 billion. NBFCs accounted for more than 98% of total originations, highlighting their increasing reliance on securitisation as a funding avenue amid sustained retail credit demand and strong investor appetite for securitised assets.

The asset mix shifted significantly during the quarter, with gold loans emerging as the largest securitised asset class and accounting for 31% of total volumes, overtaking vehicle loans, which moderated due to fewer issuances by a large originator and represented around 26%. Strong portfolio expansion among gold loan financiers and increased use of the direct assignment route supported this transition. In contrast, the share of retail mortgage-backed securitisation declined by 900 basis points on-year to 12%, largely due to subdued activity by a large private bank that had accomplished significant volume in fiscal 2026. Business loans increased their share to 10% from 7% a year earlier, while microfinance loans accounted for 14% of total volumes, supported by improving portfolio performance and demand for priority-sector loans.

The changing asset composition influenced securitisation structures during the quarter. The share of direct assignment (DA) transactions increased to 54% of total volumes from 42% in the first quarter of fiscal 2026, driven mainly by gold loans and secured business loan pools, which lenders typically execute through the DA route. Notably, 87% of securitised gold loan volumes were structured as DA transactions. Consequently, the share of pass-through certificate (PTC) issuances moderated to 46% from 58% in the first quarter of fiscal 2026.

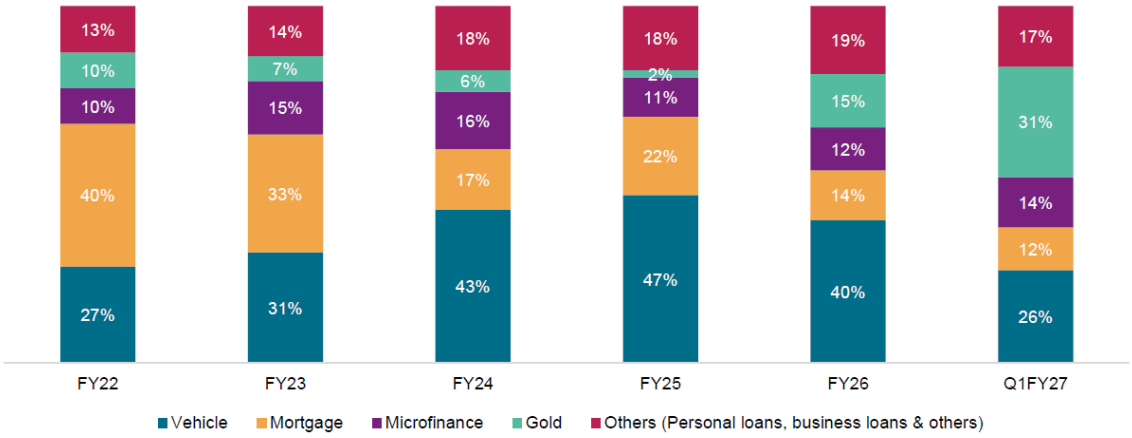

Banks (including private, foreign and public sector banks) continued to dominate the investor base, investing in 90% of the issuances during the first quarter of fiscal 2027. Foreign banks and large NBFCs remained active investors in PTC transactions across asset classes, while alternative investment funds, mutual funds, insurance companies, high-net-worth individuals and family offices also contributed to market participation. The market's breadth continued to expand, with the number of unique originators accessing securitisation increasing to approximately 115 in the first quarter of fiscal 2027, compared with around 90 in the corresponding period of fiscal 2026, indicating broader adoption of securitisation as a funding and balance-sheet management tool.

Scale-wise yearly review of NBFC performance

Term loans from banks and financial institutions dominate the borrowings mix of NBFCs

Note: The analysis is based on the data of 100+ NBFCs (including HFCs), which collectively accounted for loans and advances of Rs 30,600 billion as on March 31, 2025. These NBFCs account for more than 80% of the total loans and advances outstanding of the NBFC sector. The above set excludes PFC and REC.

Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

In fiscal 2025, NBFCs tapped overseas funding options through ECBs due to interest rates being cut at a faster pace in the US and Europe relative to the domestic market, allowing them to raise funds at competitive rates. NBFCs collectively issued ECBs worth USD 17,892 million in the fiscal, a 162% on-year increase. Notably, for large NBFCs (with loan book >Rs 500 billion), the share of ECBs in their borrowings mix rose from 3% in fiscal 2024 to 7% in fiscal 2025. Additionally, the RBI risk weight circular issued in November 2023 resulted in a higher risk weight on bank lending to NBFCs, leading to an increased funding cost for NBFCs. Consequently, bank lending to NBFCs grew by only 7.4% on-year in fiscal 2025, compared to 13.4% on-year in fiscal 2024. Similarly, the share of bank lending to NBFCs in the overall banking credit declined from 9.4% in March 2024 to 9.0% in March 2025.

Effective April 01, 2025, the RBI reinstated the original risk weights on bank exposures to NBFCs. As a result, bank lending to NBFCs rebounded and grew by 26.6% in fiscal 2026. However, banks maintained a caution due to asset quality concerns in sectors such as microfinance and personal loans. ECB issuance declined in fiscal 2026, due to narrowing interest rates gap between domestic and overseas markets as well as external factors such as rupee depreciation and rising hedging cost.

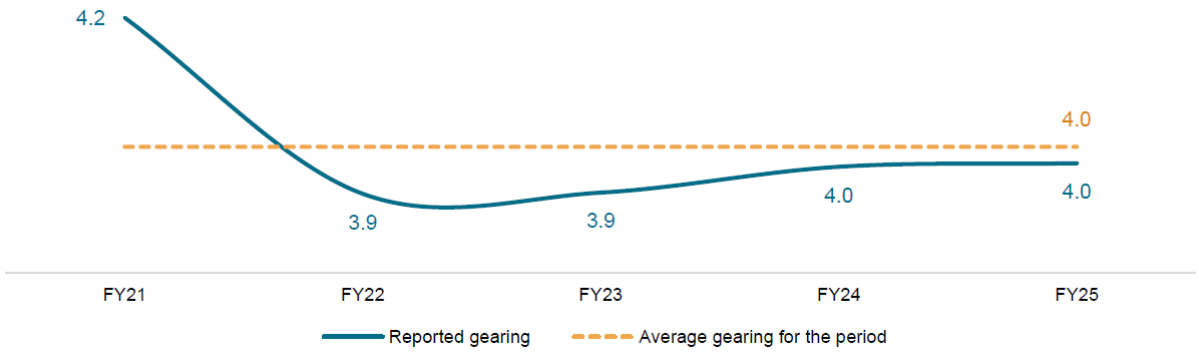

From a scale perspective, large NBFCs (with loan book >Rs 500 billion) can tap capital markets to raise bonds and debentures for their funding requirements more easily. This is on account of a strong market presence, larger scale of operations and better ratings. As a result, these NBFCs have a higher share of bonds and NCDs in their borrowing mix relative to medium and smaller NBFCs. In fiscal 2025, the share of term loans in their borrowing mix declined from 42% (45% in fiscal 2024) since they were able to raise funds at competitive rates via ECBs. Large NBFCs also have a higher proportion of funding through public deposits, which stood at 9% as of fiscal 2025.

Small and medium NBFCs depend on term loans from banks as the principal source in their borrowing mix. In addition, the share of deposits is lower since a higher share of small and medium NBFCs are non-deposit taking. With limited access to capital markets compared with large NBFCs, small and medium-sized NBFCs have become more dependent on banks and financial institutions for funding.

Commercial papers have historically been a lesser-used financing source for NBFCs. However, in fiscal 2025, there has been an uptick in their usage as non-banks access the short-term funding market in anticipation of repo rate cuts which materialised in February 2025.

Gearing comfortable across NBFCs

Comfortable gearing provides a cushion for accelerated growth

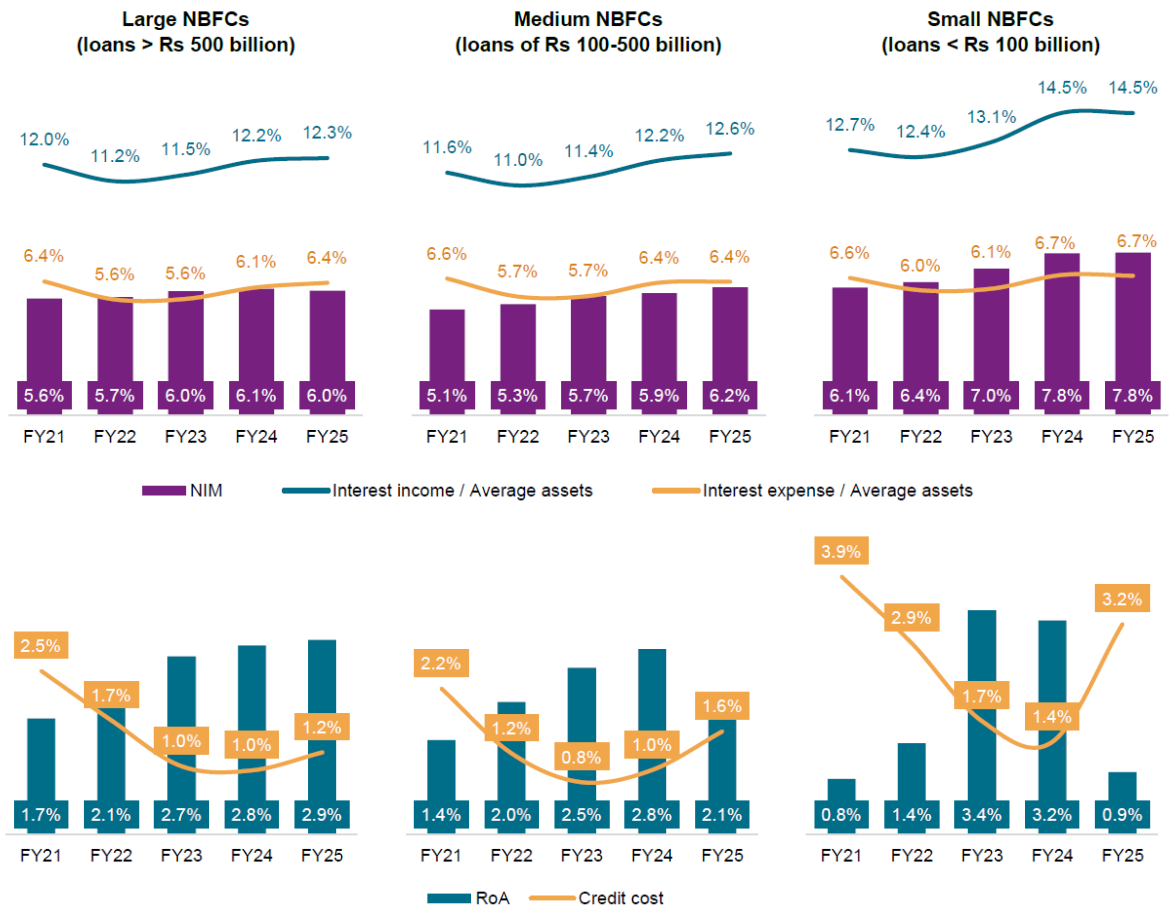

Note: The analysis is based on data of 100+ NBFCs (including HFCs), which collectively accounted for loans and advances of Rs 30,600 billion as on March 31, 2025. Since the pandemic, NBFCs have been in a deleveraging phase, becoming cautious in lending to preserve asset quality. As a result, gearing declined to 4.0x in March 2025 from 4.2x in March 2020. The decline was further supported by healthy internal accruals after the pandemic as a result of pent-up retail credit demand and a low-interest rate environment. In addition, capital enhancement activities, through initial public offerings as well as strategic investments into NBFCs by private equity investors and foreign entities, supported equity levels.

NIMs were resilient in fiscal 2025 despite elevated borrowing costs, RoA impacted by higher credit cost; Fiscal 2026 RoA to be cushioned by normalisation of credit cost amidst NIM compression

Resilience of NIMs supported by transmission of rising funding cost to lending rates

Note: The analysis is based on data of 100+ NBFCs (including HFCs), which collectively accounted for loans and advances of Rs 30,600 billion as on March 31, 2025. These NBFCs account for more than 80% of the total loans and advances outstanding of the overall NBFC sector. The above set excludes PFC and REC.
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

In fiscal 2025, NIMs of NBFCs were resilient as the companies raised their internal benchmark lending rates to offset the increase in their cost of borrowings. The MPC of the RBI raised the repo rate to 6.50% in February 2023. The policy rate remained unchanged until the 25bps cut in February 2025, the first reduction since May 2020.

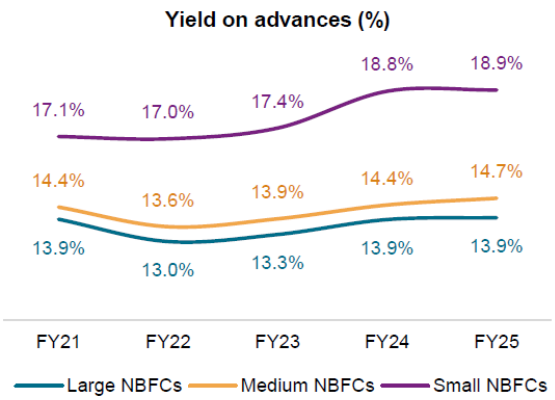

The borrowing costs, yields and spreads of large, medium-sized and small NBFCs have historically varied significantly. In fiscal 2025, medium-sized NBFCs saw a 30bps increase in spreads supported by the higher interest rate being passed on to their borrowers. Larger and smaller NBFCs, meanwhile, saw a broadly stable spread.

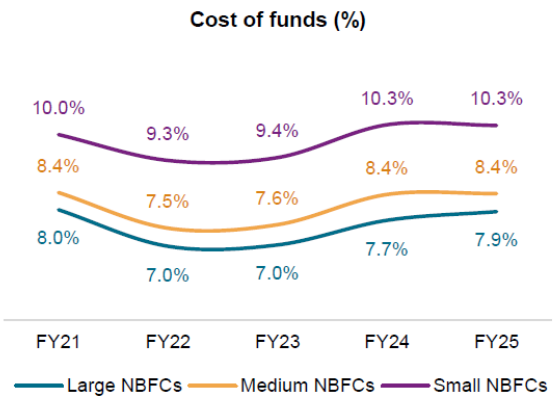

In fiscal 2025, the RoA of medium and small NBFCs declined owing to the rise in credit cost, with stress arising from unsecured lending such as microfinance and personal loans.

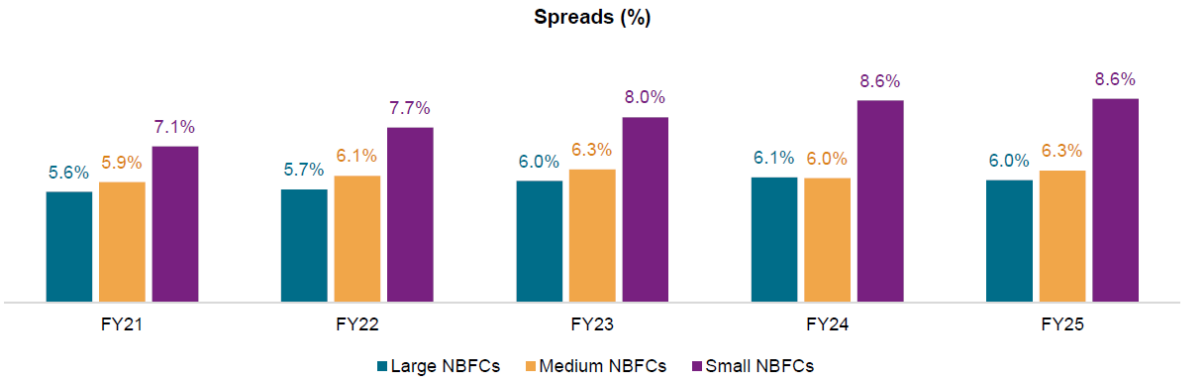

In fiscal 2026, the cumulative repo rate cut of 125 bps starting from February 2026, is expected to impact NIM. However, the impact on NIMs is likely to be marginal due to a relatively faster pass-on of rate cut benefit on funding costs compared to lending rates. Moreover, fixed rates loans are cushioned from rate cut impact. Credit costs are expected to normalise, as asset quality stress in unsecured loans segment gradually recede. This is expected to provide support to RoA in fiscal 2026.

Gold Finance - Review and outlook

Gold loan demand surged sharply in fiscal 2026, supported by higher prices and monetisation of the precious metal, and stronger preference for secured credit

Gold loan credit outstanding in India surged by ~49.4% in fiscal 2026 compared with ~28.0% in fiscal 2025.

The sharp rise in gold prices and high collateral values supported larger loan disbursals, while growing household monetisation of gold for business, working capital and consumption needs further boosted market activity. At the same time, tighter lending conditions and rising stress in unsecured retail segments encouraged both borrowers and lenders to shift towards secured credit products such as gold loans.

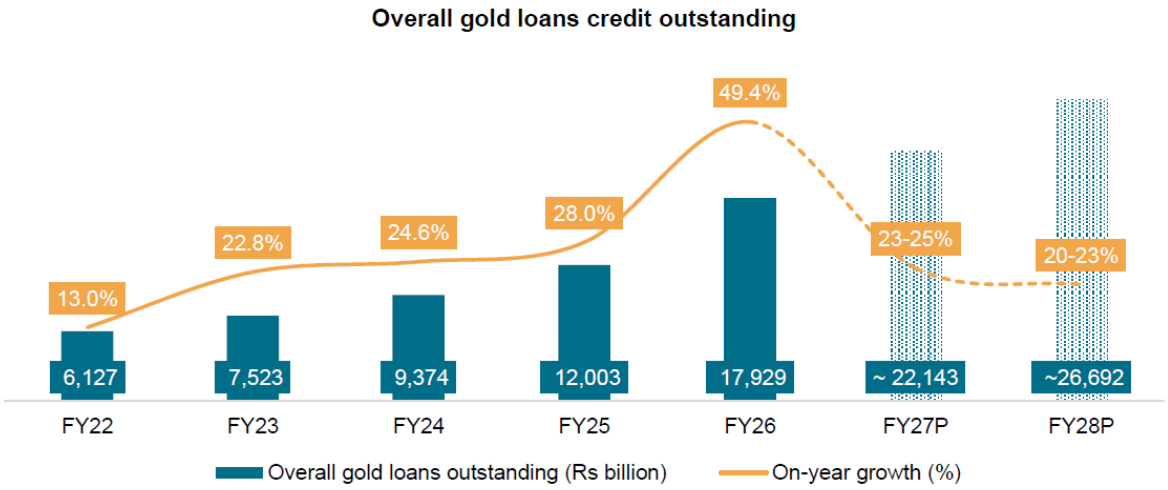

While gold prices were a key growth driver in fiscal 2026, structural factors such as increasing formalisation, deeper penetration in under-served borrower segments and faster turnaround times are expected to continue supporting long-term growth in the gold finance ecosystem.

Gold loan growth to stabilise in fiscal 2027 on a high base, lenders to focus on quality and balanced expansion

Despite growth moderation in fiscal 2027 from base normalisation; gold formalisation to sustain healthy growth

P: Projected
Note: The gold loan portfolio of banks includes loans against gold jewellery and the agri-gold loan portfolio
Source: Ministry of Finance, RBI, Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

The overall gold loan credit outstanding for non-banking financial companies (NBFCs) and banks increased by ~49.4% in fiscal 2026, considerably higher than the ~28.0% growth in fiscal 2025. The portfolio is estimated to have clocked a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 27% between fiscals 2021 and 2026.

In fiscal 2027, gold loan growth is expected to moderate to 23-25% on account of the high base effect, along with stricter regulatory frameworks and rising portfolio risks. The Gold Loan Directions, 2025, of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) came into full effect on April 1, 2026, mandating a unified framework for banks and NBFCs, including tiered loan-to-value (LTV) ratios and stricter gold valuation processes using 30-day average closing prices.

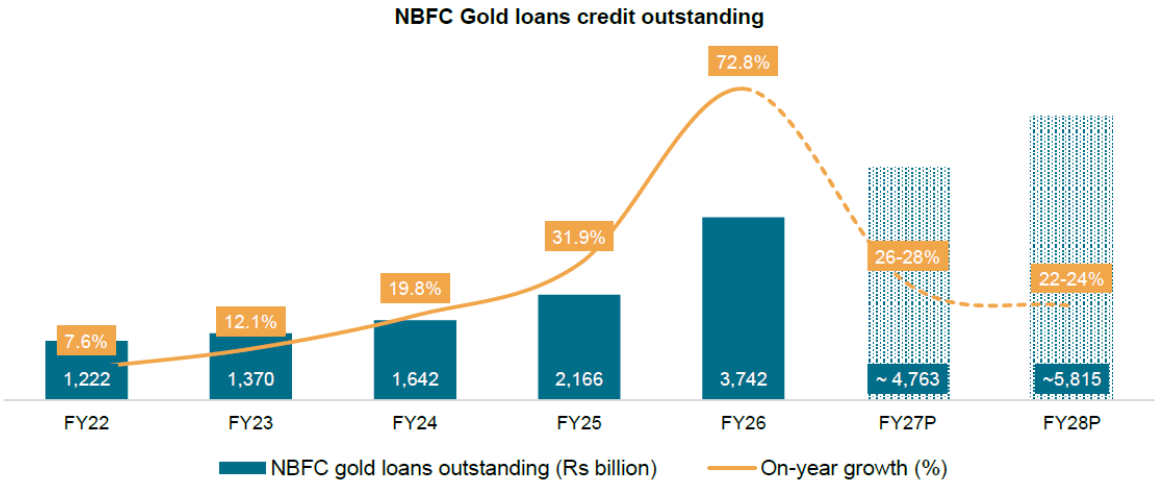

While gold prices reached historic highs in early 2026, subsequent corrections in recent times due to geopolitical uncertainties highlighted inherent volatility risks. However, lenders continue to retain comfortable safeguards through conservative LTV buffers, collateral valuation based primarily on gold weight and exclusion of stone weight and making charges. That said, any prolonged correction in gold prices, particularly for loans originated near peak valuations, may face higher LTV pressures.

Gold loans remain a relatively low-risk proposition, given their strong collateral backing, the sentimental value borrowers attach to gold and attractive spreads of 9-10%. Combined with low credit costs and enhanced borrowing capacity facilitated by rising prices of the metal, the segment is expected to remain structurally attractive in the longer term.

Further, the vast gold reserves held by Indian households present a long-term growth opportunity. According to the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM), Indian households hold ~29,000 tonnes of gold (worth ~ 5 trillion USD). Increasing formal sector penetration is likely to unlock this potential further, driving sustained expansion in the gold loan market.

Furthermore, specialised NBFCs are expected to strengthen their competitive positioning through branch expansion, customer acquisition initiatives, technology-led service delivery and selective acquisitions. At the same time, diversified NBFCs are increasingly expanding their gold loan franchise through acquisitions, portfolio diversification and a sharper focus on gold loans as a strategic business segment, while banks continue to deepen their presence in the secured lending space. This broader participation across lender categories is expected to improve the formalisation and penetration of the gold loan market, supporting healthy and sustainable growth through fiscals 2027 and 2028.

NBFC gold financiers to sustain structural relevance despite moderation, supported by distribution strength, customer reach and secured credit tailwinds

P: Projected
Source: Ministry of Finance, Company reports, Crisil Intelligence
Note: Fiscal 2026 numbers represent estimates based on available quarterly financial results reported by companies

The gold loan portfolio of NBFCs recorded ~72.8% on-year growth in fiscal 2026 compared with ~31.9% in fiscal 2025, translating into a CAGR of ~26.9% between fiscals 2021 and 2026. The sharp acceleration was primarily driven by the sustained increase in domestic gold prices, which enhanced the collateral value of pledged jewellery and enabled higher loan disbursements, renewals and top-up loans. In addition, increasing borrower preference for secured lending, stronger monetisation of household gold and improving customer awareness further supported portfolio expansion during the year.

Going forward, Crisil Intelligence expects gold loan NBFCs to register a growth of 26-28% in fiscal 2027 and 22-24% in fiscal 2028. While growth is expected to moderate from the exceptionally high levels witnessed in fiscal 2026, the medium-term outlook remains favourable.

Increasing utilisation of gold loans for income-generating activities, particularly by MSMEs, traders and self-employed borrowers, continued accumulation of gold by central banks supporting favourable gold price dynamics, expansion of organised lenders into underpenetrated markets and the RBI's April 2026 relaxation on branch authorisation are expected to sustain healthy portfolio growth.

Key growth drivers for gold loans in fiscal 2027 and 2028

RBI relaxation on branch expansion to improve distribution reach and support calibrated network growth

As of April 2026, the RBI has removed prior approval requirements for opening new branches for eligible gold loan NBFCs, thereby enhancing operational flexibility for large lenders. This regulatory relaxation supports faster network expansion, particularly in rural and semi-urban markets, improving credit accessibility and competitive positioning. However, leading gold loan NBFCs have indicated branch expansion is likely to be calibrated and need-based rather than aggressively volume-led, with a sharper focus on productivity, customer acquisition quality and return metrics.

To strengthen competitiveness against banks and fintech-led gold loan channels, NBFCs are also expanding through focused marketing activities, higher customer engagement and broader borrower segmentation. Alongside deepening rural penetration, several players are targeting higher-ticket customers while maintaining their traditional strength in smaller-ticket lending, which is expected to support both market expansion and customer diversification.

Rising penetration of organised players to support structural gold loan market expansion in fiscal 2027

The shift in customer preference towards organised players from unorganised lenders is also expected to support credit growth, largely because the latter charge exorbitant interest rates and provide little clarity on the gold valuation and LTV ratio. Additionally, the formal segment offers assurance of safe custody and return of gold owing to regulatory oversight.

Crisil Intelligence expects the share of organised financiers in the gold loan market to rise, driven by expanding branch networks, greater geographical reach and the growing acceptance of gold loans among households for both consumption and income generation. Higher gold prices and the increasing tendency of micro-enterprises to use gold loans for working capital are also likely to support growth. Additionally, the organised segment's adoption of digital, online and phygital (physical-plus-digital) platforms is anticipated to make gold loans more accessible and popular.

NBFCs compete on operating efficiency, turnaround time and local connect while managing risks

While banks offering gold loans have a competitive advantage over NBFCs because of lower costs, NBFCs have been attempting to stay competitive through aggressive branch expansion and by offering a superior customer experience. NBFCs have built their service offerings by investing significantly in staffing, systems and processes, in line with customer needs.

Key features of NBFC operations include:

1. Lower turnaround time and less documentation: The borrower generally wants the loan to be disbursed as quickly as possible. Availability of well-trained and experienced employees for assessment and gold valuation helps NBFCs disburse loans faster than banks

2. Wider reach and better local connect: NBFCs have a wider and deeper reach geographically, especially in rural and semi-urban regions, where demand for gold loans is higher

3. Risk management process: Most NBFCs have put in place a comprehensive and robust risk management process based on their experience. This includes steps to prevent fraud, ensure safety of the gold stored and recoup losses from possible non-performing assets (NPAs)

4. Operational efficiency: Gold loan finance requires operational efficiency in storing, securing, transporting and auctioning assets. In fiscal 2026, key gold loan players such as Muthoot Finance, Manappuram Finance and IIFL Finance are estimated to have seen significant growth in assets under management (AUM). Notably, these companies also saw an increase in AUM per branch, which reflects improved operational efficiency. As these three are estimated to account for 67% of the NBFC gold loan market as of March 2026, their performance sets the benchmark for the industry.

NA — not available
Note: Muthoot Finance's average ticket size for fiscal 2025 is as of December 2024
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

The average ticket size across key gold loan NBFCs increased during fiscal 2026, largely reflecting the sharp appreciation in gold prices between fiscal 2024 and fiscal 2026. Higher collateral values enabled borrowers to access larger loan amounts without a proportionate increase in the quantity of gold pledged.

Moderate growth in gold tonnage amid robust credit outstanding growth in fiscal 2026

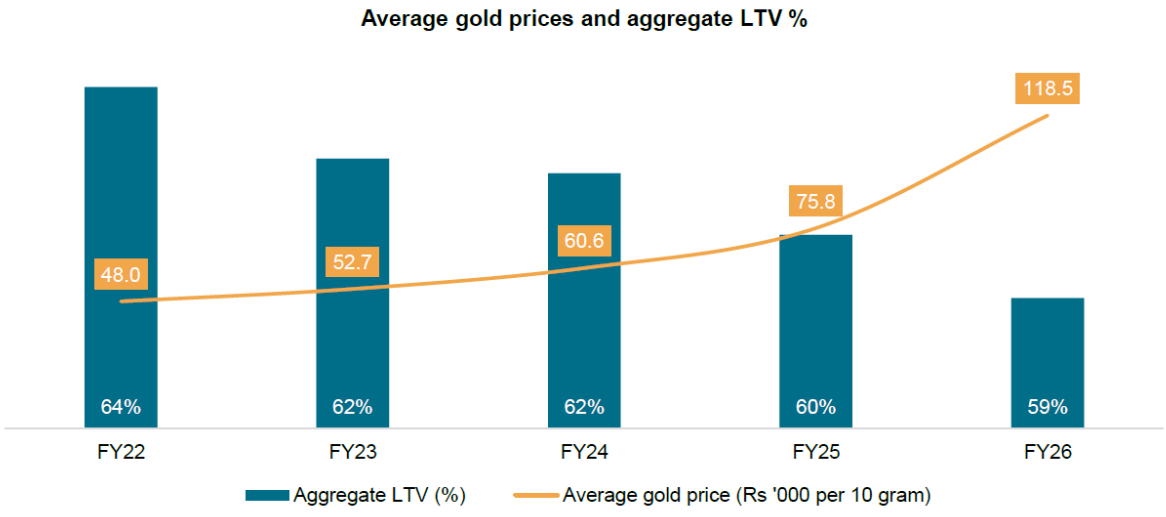

Note: The average gold price indicates the average monthly gold price of the past 12 months. Tonnage data is based on three key NBFCs, which account for ~70% of the overall gold loan advances as of March 2026.
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

The growth in credit outstanding outpaced the increase in gold tonnage. Key gold-focused NBFCs, accounting for nearly 80% of the specialised gold loan market, witnessed gold tonnage growth of around 10% in fiscal 2026 despite robust AUM growth, indicating that portfolio expansion was supported by both higher gold prices and a moderate increase in pledged volumes.

The industry continues to offer strong growth potential, supported by low formal credit penetration, increasing participation from large, diversified retail-focused NBFCs, technology-led customer origination and servicing, strategic acquisitions, and robust underwriting practices.

Going forward, Crisil Intelligence expects growth to gradually become more volume-led. Continued branch expansion, digital initiatives and expansion into underpenetrated geographies are expected to deepen borrower penetration, support sustained growth in pledged gold volumes and drive long-term market expansion.

Elevated gold prices have lowered aggregate LTV ratios, strengthening collateral buffers

Note:
1. The aggregate LTV is computed for two key NBFCs
2. The average gold price indicates the average monthly gold price of the past 12 months
Source: Multi Commodity Exchange of India Limited (MCX), Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

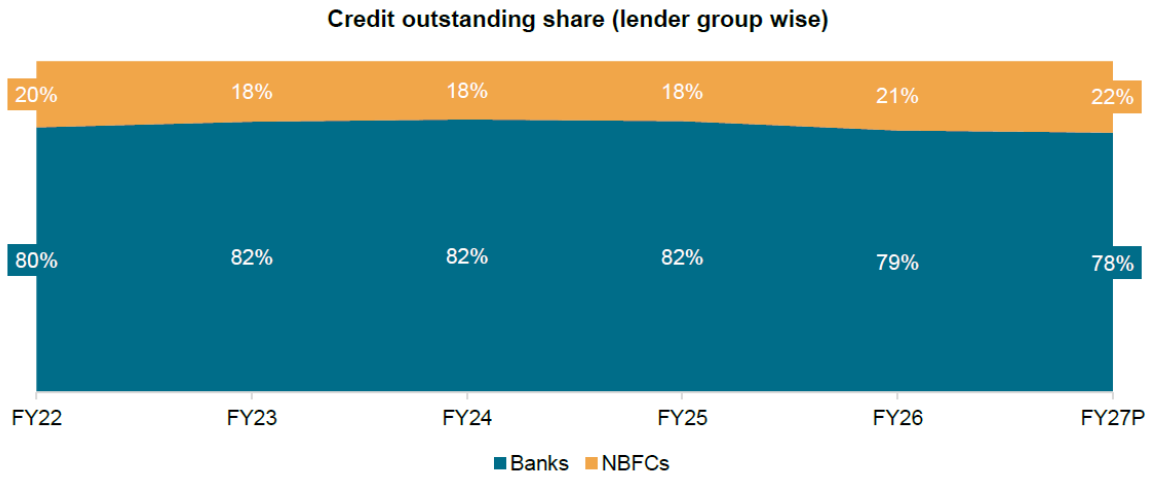

Higher gold prices have reduced aggregate portfolio LTVs across leading gold loan NBFCs, strengthening collateral buffers and improving portfolio resilience. Lower LTVs provide lenders with a larger cushion against moderate corrections in gold prices, reducing credit risk while supporting sustainable portfolio growth.

Although lenders may have selectively increased loan disbursements as collateral values rose in fiscal 2026, leading NBFCs have continued to follow conservative underwriting practices and prudent origination LTVs. Regular collateral revaluation and active monitoring of pledged gold further strengthen portfolio resilience despite intermittent gold price volatility, geopolitical uncertainties and elevated US bond yields.

While stronger collateral buffers support prudent lending, higher gold prices have also changed borrower behaviour by increasing the amount that can be borrowed against the same quantity of pledged gold. This has translated into a meaningful increase in average ticket sizes across the industry.

Specialised NBFCs continue to gain market share, while banks retain industry leadership

RBI directions on gold loans to harmonise the regulatory framework, promoting a level playing field

Banks continue to account for the majority of gold loan credit outstanding, supported by their extensive branch network, lower funding costs and strong customer franchise. Gold loans remain an attractive retail credit product owing to the liquid nature of collateral, shorter loan tenures and relatively stable repayment behaviour.

The RBI's revised gold lending framework has standardised LTV norms across lender categories, creating a more level playing field while preserving prudent lending standards. At the same time, the specialised operating model required for gold lending - including collateral assessment, valuation expertise and secure branch infrastructure - continues to favour established players.

Despite banks retaining the dominant share, specialised NBFCs have steadily increased their market presence through faster turnaround times, superior customer service and deeper penetration in semi-urban and rural markets. The NBFC share of industry credit outstanding has increased to around 21% in fiscal 2026 from nearly 18% in fiscal 2025 and is expected to improve gradually over the medium term as specialised players continue expanding their distribution footprint.

As competition intensifies and lenders focus on improving customer experience while maintaining underwriting standards, technology has become an increasingly important differentiator across the gold loan value chain.

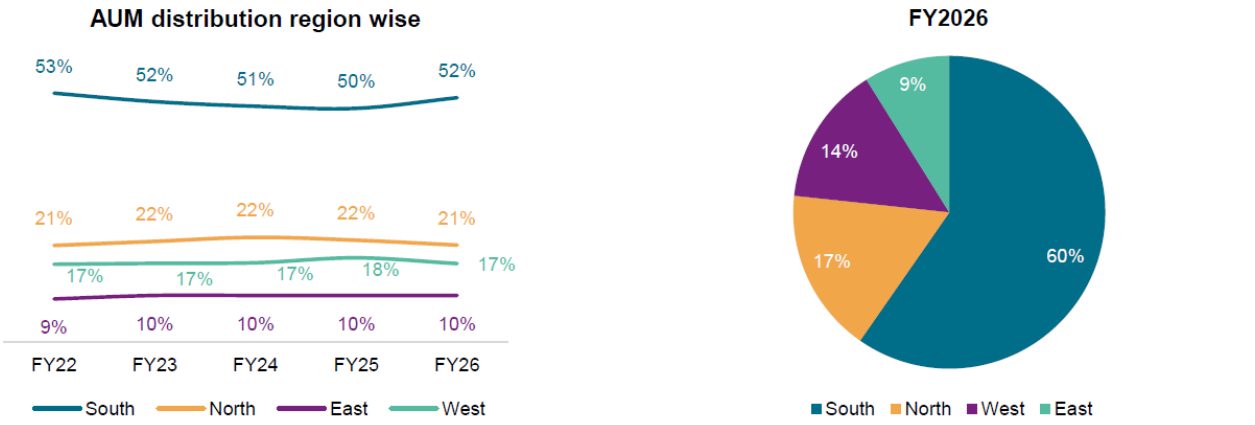

Shift in the NBFC gold loan market share, with smaller players gaining market share

Note: The market share % of these NBFCs is based on the on-book gold advances
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

The NBFC gold loan market witnessed a gradual shift in competitive dynamics between March 2022 and March 2026, with smaller players gaining market share amid increasing participation from diversified NBFCs and emerging gold loan companies. Nevertheless, Muthoot Fincorp maintained its market position, with an estimated 12% share of the sector as of March 2026. Muthoot Fincorp is part of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, and our operations have evolved over a period of 86 years since we co-founded a gold loan business in 1939 as part of the heritage trading business, which has roots dating back to 1887. The company's long-standing presence in the segment and established franchise underpin its resilient market position despite increasing competition.

Southern India continues to anchor gold loan AUM, though regional diversification is gradually expanding

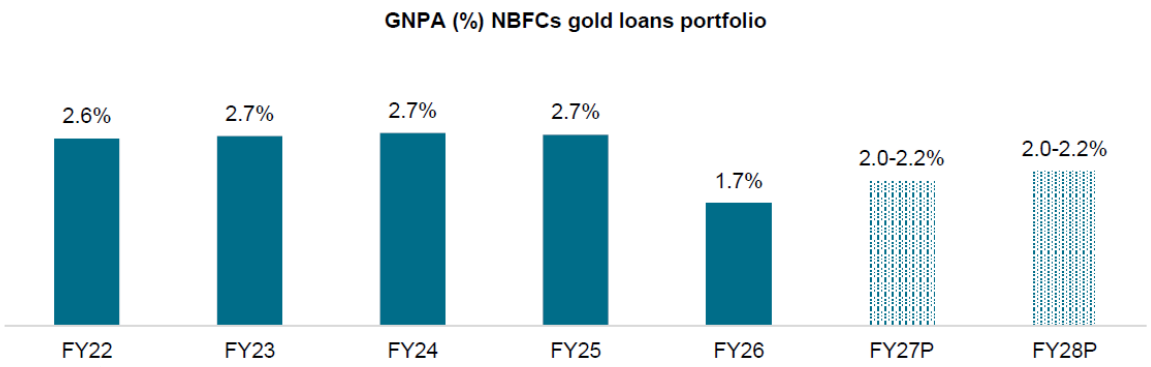

Note: The percentage is the combined share of two key gold focused NBFCs
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

Southern India continues to account for the bulk of the gold loan AUM of NBFCs, supported by stronger cultural affinity toward gold ownership, higher household gold reserves, deeper borrower familiarity with gold-backed financing and well-established branch ecosystems. The top two players derive more than half of their AUM from southern markets, underlining the region's structural importance.

Though south India continues to dominate, several players have been shifting focus towards the untapped eastern and western markets, which have fewer branches but offer an incremental growth opportunity.

Asset quality

Gold loan NBFCs GNPA declined in fiscal 2026, aided by strong portfolio growth and legacy NPA resolution

P: Projected
Note: The GNPA percentage is calculated based on gold loan NBFCs, which accounted for ~88% of overall gold loan advances as of March 2026
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

Asset quality improved meaningfully during fiscal 2026, with the aggregate GNPA ratio declining to 1.7% from 2.7% in fiscal 2025. The improvement was primarily driven by controlled slippages, stronger borrower repayment behaviour supported by elevated gold prices, and the resolution of legacy NPAs at the largest industry player through recoveries, write-offs and account closures. Additionally, robust portfolio growth of ~72.8% during fiscal 2026 supported the decline in GNPA through a favourable denominator effect.

While asset quality is expected to remain healthy, Crisil Intelligence expects the GNPA ratio to normalise modestly to 2.0-2.2% in fiscal 2027 as the one-off benefit from legacy NPA resolution is unlikely to recur. GNPA ratio for fiscal 2028 is estimated to be range bound.

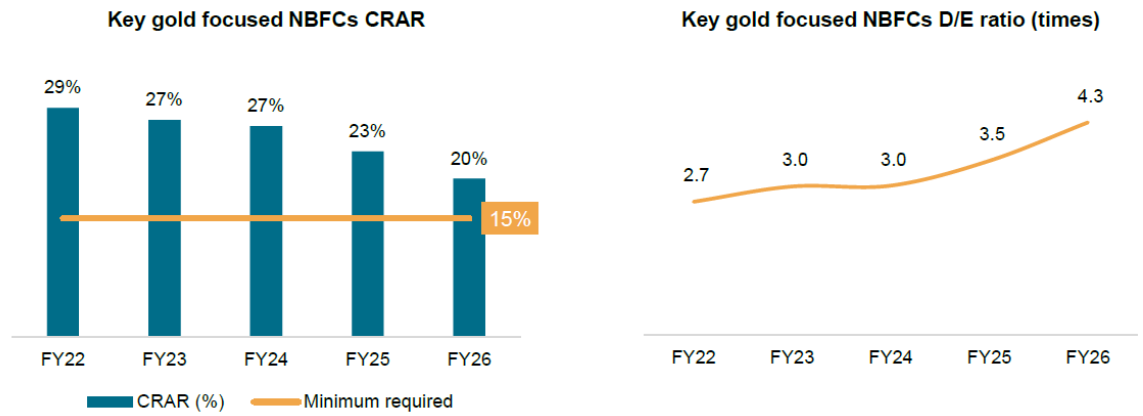

Another emerging trend has been the gradual change in borrower profile. Stress in unsecured retail lending segments such as microfinance and personal loans during fiscal 2025 and 2026 resulted in some borrowers increasingly availing gold-backed loans by monetising their existing gold holdings to meet short-term liquidity requirements. While this has expanded the borrower base for gold loan NBFCs, it also warrants closer monitoring of borrower credit quality and repayment behaviour.

Lenders are also witnessing a gradual increase in borrowers with multiple credit relationships, including customers holding more than one gold loan or simultaneously servicing gold loans and unsecured borrowings.

Despite these evolving borrower trends, the secured nature of gold loans and prudent underwriting practices are expected to keep portfolio risks contained. Accordingly, underwriting is expected to increasingly shift beyond collateral valuation towards a more comprehensive assessment of borrower leverage, repayment capacity and cash flow profile. In addition, conservative portfolio LTVs are expected to provide adequate protection against moderate gold price corrections, thereby containing loss severity and overall credit costs.

In fiscal 2026, key gold loan NBFCs continued to operate at relatively conservative aggregate LTVs, largely due to a sharp increase in collateral values. This lower LTV profile provided a strong cushion against moderate gold price corrections and supported portfolio resilience.

Lower LTVs and adequate capital buffers support gold financiers against cyclical volatility

Note: The analysis of CRAR (capital-to-risk-weighted ratio) and debt-equity ratio covers five key gold focused NBFCs. The aggregate gold loan advances of these companies cover nearly estimated 80% of the overall gold loans advances of NBFCs as of March 2026.

Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

However, in the event of a sharper decline in gold prices, lenders may need to initiate margin calls, seek additional collateral, or require partial repayments to restore security cover. This may increase repayment pressure for certain borrower cohorts, particularly those with multiple gold loans.

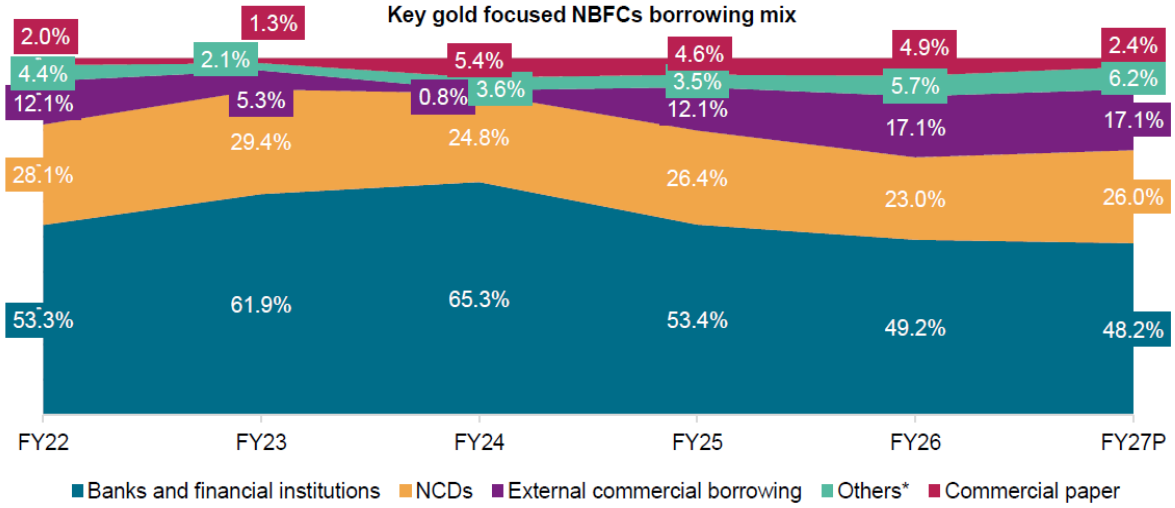

As of March 2026, the capital adequacy ratio remained well above the regulatory requirement of 15% at 20%. Also, leverage increased to 4.3x in fiscal 2026 from 3.5x in fiscal 2025, reflecting continued balance sheet expansion. Nonetheless, current capital buffers remain adequate to absorb moderate cyclical stress while supporting calibrated portfolio growth.

Borrowing mix

Bank lending towards gold loan NBFCs remained lower in fiscal 2026 vs fiscal 2025 levels, as key NBFCs continued to diversify resource mobilisation through alternative funding avenues, primarily NCDs and ECBs. However, bank borrowings regained momentum in the last quarter of fiscal 2026, with improved lender confidence and continued access to bank funding at competitive rates.

In fiscal 2027, the share of the total borrowing of banks and financial institutions is expected to be marginally higher than fiscal 2026, as NBFCs could see some moderation in capital market borrowings amid hardening bond yields and a relatively tighter liquidity environment, while expectations of repo rate cuts in the near-term remain limited.

Diversified funding profile to further reduce reliance on bank borrowings in fiscal 2027

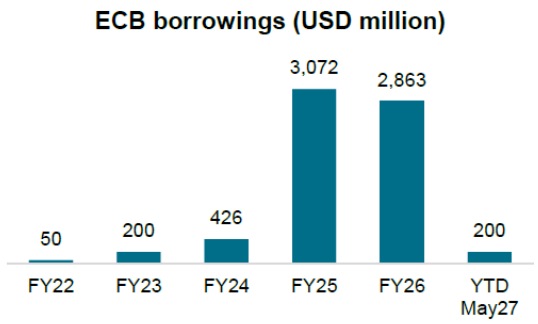

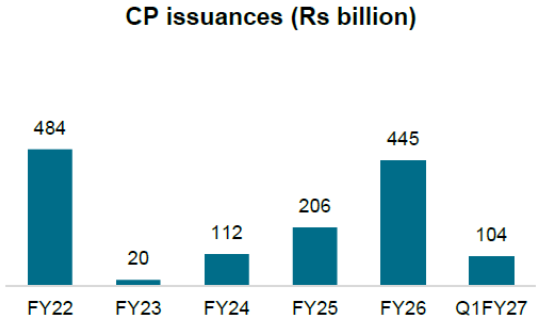

P: Projected
Note: The borrowing mix composition is basis Muthoot Finance, Manappuram Finance and IIFL Finance
Source: Company reports, Crisil Intelligence

NCDs accounted for 23.0% of the borrowing mix in fiscal 2026, compared with 26.4% in fiscal 2025, as NBFCs increasingly utilised ECBs, while elevated bond yields during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026 weighed on debt market issuances.

Issuance activity, however, rebounded sharply during the first quarter of fiscal 2027, driven primarily by two to three large gold-focused NBFCs. With healthy fundraising expected to continue during the second quarter and issuers likely to front-load borrowings ahead of any potential policy rate hikes, Crisil Intelligence expects the share of NCDs in the borrowing mix to increase to ~26% in fiscal 2027.

This diversified borrowing profile reflects the sector's increasing ability to optimise funding costs across multiple channels, improve liability flexibility and support sustained growth in gold loan disbursements.

Profitability

Portfolio yields elevated in fiscal 2026 on account of legacy NPA recoveries and recovery-related income recognition Interest income as a percentage of average total assets increased to 16.6% in fiscal 2026 from 15.9% in fiscal 2025. The increase primarily reflects interest income recognised following the recovery and closure of legacy NPA accounts, recovery-related transactions and asset reconstruction company (ARC)-related recoveries undertaken by a key industry participant during fiscal 2026. The resolution of these accounts enabled recognition of previously unaccounted interest income, resulting in higher reported portfolio yields. Several other specialised gold loan NBFCs also reported an improvement in portfolio yields during the year.

The increase in aggregate portfolio yields was partly offset by a moderation in yields at another leading player, reflecting a strategic shift towards higher-ticket loans carrying comparatively lower lending rates.

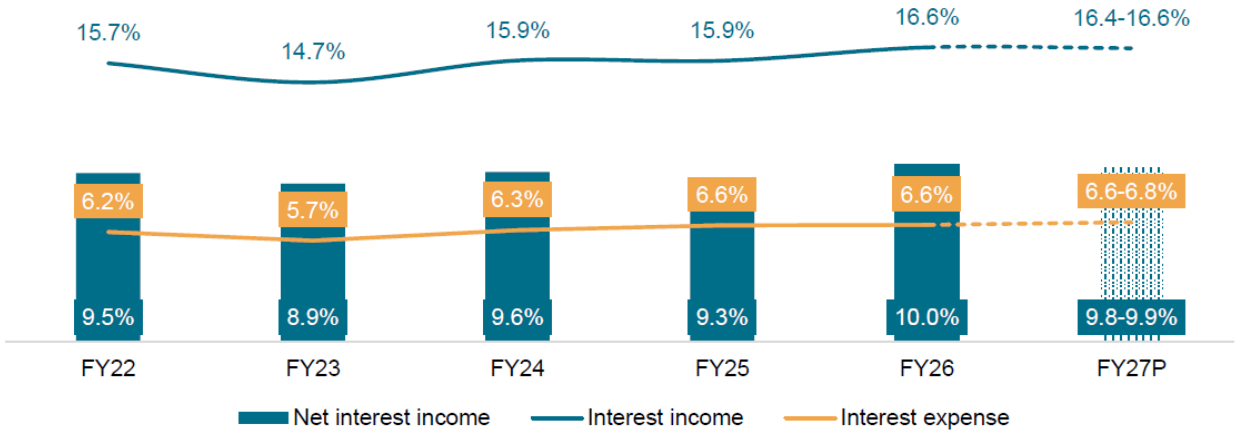

Portfolio yields are projected to moderate to 16.4 -16.6% in fiscal 2027 in absence of one-off gains.

Although the RBI reduced the repo rate during fiscal 2026, interest expense as a percentage of average total assets remained broadly range bound from fiscal 2025. The limited transmission of policy rate cuts to borrowing costs resulted in funding costs remaining broadly stable during the year. In addition, the aggregate cost of funds continued to be influenced by one key industry participant, which incurred relatively higher borrowing costs following the temporary restrictions on gold loan disbursements imposed during fiscal 2025.

Interest expense is projected at 6.6 -6.8% of average total assets in fiscal 2027. The outlook reflects elevated domestic bond yields, key management guidance indicating borrowing costs are likely to remain higher for longer and the possibility that prolonged geopolitical tensions may sustain inflationary pressures, delaying further monetary easing. Consequently, the transmission of lower policy rates to borrowing costs is expected to remain gradual.

The increase in portfolio yields more than offset the marginal increase in funding costs during fiscal 2026, resulting in net interest margins (NIMs) improving to 10.0% in fiscal 2026 from 9.3% in fiscal 2025. As portfolio yields moderate while funding costs remain relatively firm, NIMs are projected to contract to 9.8 - 9.9% in fiscal 2027.

Operating expenses as a percentage of average total assets stood at 3.3% in fiscal 2026 and are projected to increase to 3.5-3.7% in fiscal 2027.

The increase is expected to be driven by continued branch expansion, investments in customer acquisition and higher expenditure towards appraisal, documentation, valuation and compliance processes following the revised RBI gold loan directions. Auction-related expenses associated with the expected normalisation in asset quality may also contribute to a moderate increase in operating costs.

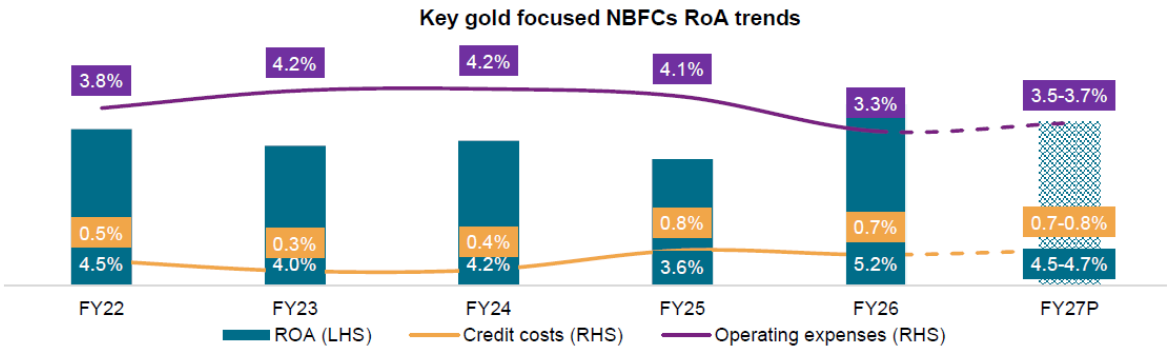

Credit costs declined to ~0.67% in fiscal 2026 from 0.76% in fiscal 2025, reflecting lower provisioning requirements following the improvement in asset quality.

Credit costs are projected to increase modestly to 0.7-0.8% in fiscal 2027, in line with the expected normalisation in GNPA levels. However, the secured nature of gold lending, conservative portfolio LTVs and prudent underwriting practices are expected to continue containing overall credit costs.

The revised RBI framework permits renewals and top-ups only for standard loan accounts, while detailed credit appraisal requirements have been relaxed for loans up to Rs 0.25 million. Although these measures are expected to support business growth, lenders are expected to continue strengthening borrower-level assessment by evaluating repayment capacity, leverage and cash flow profile, particularly in light of the evolving borrower mix.

The combined impact of moderating portfolio yields, relatively firm funding costs, higher operating expenses and a modest increase in credit costs is expected to soften profitability in fiscal 2027.

RoA expected to moderate from fiscal 2026 levels while remaining above historical averages Return on assets (RoA) improved to 5.2% in fiscal 2026 and is projected to moderate to 4.5-4.7% in fiscal 2027. Despite the expected moderation, profitability is expected to remain healthy, supported by sustained portfolio growth, conservative portfolio LTVs, disciplined underwriting standards and continued demand for secured retail credit.

Gold Finance - Industry overview

The Indian gold loan ecosystem is well positioned for sustained growth, supported by structural demand and evolving borrower preferences

India is one of the world's largest repositories of household gold, with an estimated ~29,000 tonnes held by households, according to the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM). Despite this sizeable stock, organised gold loan penetration remains low, with only ~8% of household gold estimated to be pledged with organised financiers as of fiscal 2026, highlighting significant headroom for future growth.

Increasing formalisation of the lending ecosystem, expanding branch networks and growing customer acceptance are expected to continue supporting industry growth. Given the cultural significance of gold in India, borrowers generally prioritise repayment to redeem pledged jewellery, thereby limiting realised losses even during periods of elevated asset quality stress.

The sizeable untapped market opportunity is supported by several structural factors that continue to strengthen the organised gold loan ecosystem.

Gold loan industry to achieve a strong growth this fiscal on account of surge in the yellow metal

The portfolio is estimated to have clocked a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 25.3% between fiscals 2021 and 2026. The gold loan portfolio of banks logged a CAGR of 25.4% compared with 24.7% for NBFCs during this period. Consequently, banks are estimated to account for 79% of the gold loan market in fiscal 2026 compared with NBFCs' 21%.

The gold loan market is sensitive to fluctuations in gold prices. An increase in gold prices lowers the LTV ratio, creating headroom for incremental credit growth for the same collateral. The RBI's revised guidelines on gold loans provide excess headroom to expand gold credit. However, a price decline could result in the loan being recalled early or requiring an additional margin to maintain the LTV ratio. Hence, a sustained decline in gold prices impedes the segment's credit growth.

Gold collateral is easy to liquidate and recover. However, rising gold prices could lower loss given default (LGD) during the expected credit loss calculation, which could result in a lower provision cover. Thus, any weakening in gold prices will result in higher LGD and provision cover.

Given the cultural significance of gold and the sentimental value attached to gold jewellery in India, customers typically ensure loans are repaid and ornaments redeemed. Hence, even if the GNPA ratio remains elevated, the loss arising from weak asset quality is limited.

Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Credit Facilities) Directions, 2025 – Lending against Gold and Silver Collateral

Following the Reserve Bank of India (Lending Against Gold and Silver Collateral) Directions, 2025 issued on June 6, 2025, the central bank issued revised directions on November 28, 2025 to consolidate the instructions to various regulated entities on credit facilities, extending it to lending against gold and silver collateral.

The consolidated directions aim to establish a harmonised regulatory framework; address concerns related to lending practices and enhance conduct-related aspects.

1. These directions apply to loans provided for:
    - Income generation (including farm credit and other economic activities)
    - Consumption purposes (excluding income-generating loans)

2. The directions apply to all banks and non-banks (including housing finance companies), except payment banks.

3. The directions restrict lending against gold bullion, primary gold/silver, or financial assets backed by primary gold/silver. Additionally, lenders are restricted from availing credit by repledging gold/silver pledged by borrowers and from granting loans to other lenders accepting gold/silver as collateral.

4. Lenders must have a credit policy that defines:
    - Single borrower limits
    - Aggregate limits for gold loan portfolios
    - Maximum LTV ratios
    - Actions in case of LTV limit breaches
    - Valuation norms
    - Documentation requirements for priority sector loans

5. Lenders may provide loans of up to Rs 0.25 million based on their risk management framework. However, detailed credit appraisals are required for loans exceeding Rs 0.25 million,

6. The LTV ratio is defined as the outstanding loan amount divided by the total repayment amount at maturity (for loans with bullet repayment structures). The LTV ratio for consumption loans must be maintained over the course of the loan's tenure, with maximum permissible limits as follows:

LTV buckets

Total consumption loan amount per borrower	Maximum LTV ratio (%)
Up to Rs 0.25 million	85
Between Rs 0.25 million and Rs 0.50 million	80
Above Rs 0.50 million	75

Note: The total repayable amount at maturity is considered for bullet repayment loans.
Source: RBI

7. The tenure of consumption loans with bullet repayment structures shall not exceed 12 months.

8. Renewal/top-up is permitted only in the following circumstances:
    - Upon formal request from the borrower
    - Subject to credit appraisal
    - The loan must be classified as "Standard"
    - For bullet loans, renewal/top-up is permitted only if accrued interest has been paid off

9. The borrower's presence is mandatory during collateral assaying at the time of sanction.

10. Lenders must provide adequate notice to borrowers before auctioning gold and ensure transparency in the auction process.

11. The reserve price declared at the time of auction shall not be less than 90% of the current value of the collateral.

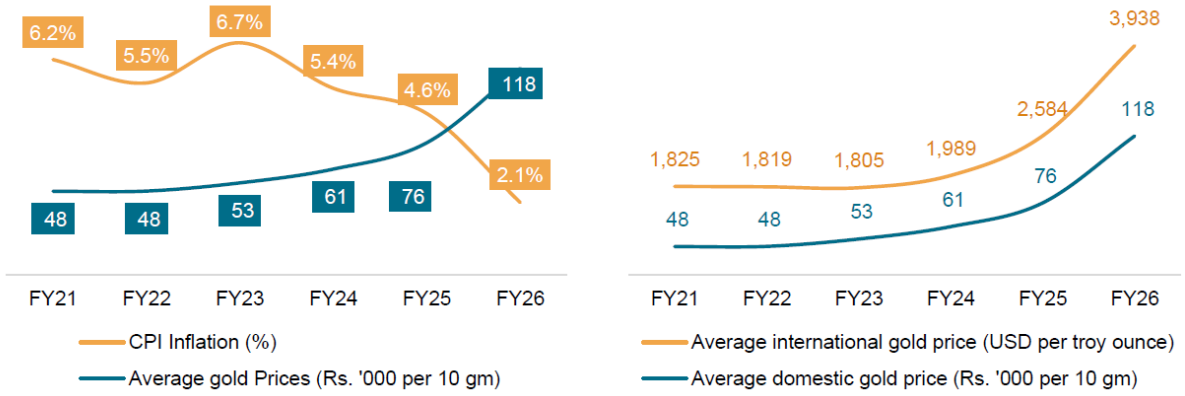

12. Lenders must comply with Know Your Customer and income tax norms when disbursing loans to borrowers.

Factors supporting the growth of gold loan AUM

1. Rising gold prices

International gold prices have been on a sustained upward trajectory since the pandemic and are expected to keep rising this fiscal. Several factors including geopolitical uncertainties, a weakening rupee and falling US yields, which make gold more attractive as a non-yielding asset, are driving prices of the yellow metal. Furthermore, indications of a global slowdown are exerting downward pressure on capital market investments, prompting investors to pick haven assets such as gold. The RBI's accumulation of gold is adding to the volatility in gold prices, which, in turn, is affecting retail demand.

International and domestic gold prices to rise in fiscal 2026

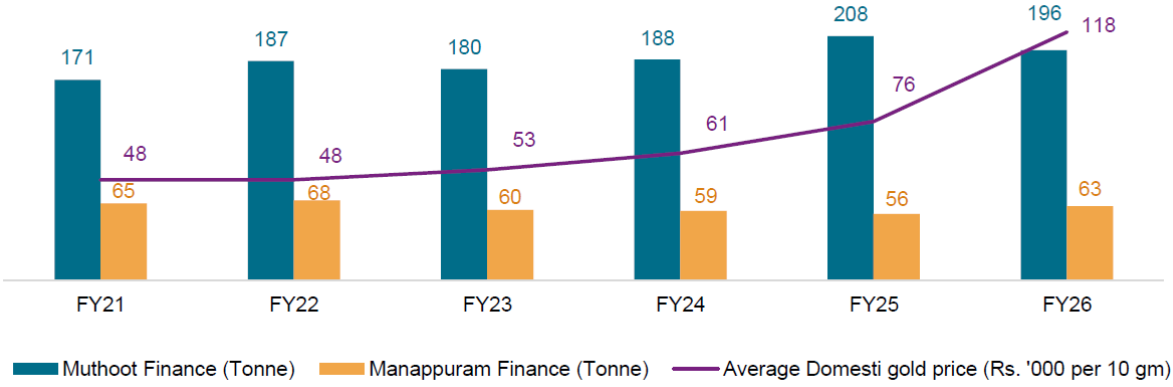

Note: Average gold price indicates average monthly gold prices of last 12 months
Source: Company reports, RBI, Crisil Intelligence, World Gold Council, World Bank

2. Average gold loan outstanding per customer

The combined average gold loan outstanding per customer for the top two NBFCs rose sharply to ~Rs 222,000 in the fiscal 2026 from ~Rs 143,000 in fiscal 2025 and ~Rs 91,000 in fiscal 2021, translating to an estimated CAGR of ~19.5% over fiscals 2021 to 2026. This trend is broadly aligned with the rise in domestic gold prices, though it also reflects rising borrower comfort with higher-ticket gold-backed credit. At the same time, customer growth has been moderate, indicating that a larger portion of growth is being driven by higher ticket sizes rather than rapid customer addition.

3. Online gold loan schemes

Online schemes enable consumers to avail gold loans from their homes. Several gold loan providers have tied up with banks and payment gateway service providers to offer this service.

Gold loans applied online are often sanctioned within hours. Digital loan products can be accessed through mobile applications, online platforms and with prepaid cards, among other modes. Know-your-customer checks, registration and disbursements are all online. While some NBFCs require borrowers to personally deliver gold to the nearest branch, some provide doorstep services to verify and collect gold ornaments at the customer's residence. The process is managed through a central application that all branches can access simultaneously.

Manappuram Finance was the first gold loan NBFC to launch online services in September 2015. Muthoot followed with an online scheme through its website and iMuthoot application in September 2016. Apart from traditional players, fintech companies such as Rupeek have also been offering digital services since 2015.

4. Widening branch footprint

South India dominates the demand for NBFC gold loans. However, uptake in other regions is likely to pick up given the change in perception of gold loans, led by growing awareness among consumers and their fund requirements. Also, lenders are expanding their presence with new branches in the north and east of the country.

5. Specialised gold loan NBFCs have inherent advantages

NBFCs operate at a yield of 18-24%, while private banks offer ~15% and public sector banks 7-9%. Despite the significant rate differential (8-15%), the AUM of NBFCs logged a CAGR of 18% between fiscals 2020 and 2025, owing to their customer approach and extensive branch networks in semi-urban and rural areas.

Gold loan NBFCs focus on a single product and have a wide reach in low-rent areas with a lower population/customer base than a typical bank branch, ensuring better customer experience. The other key advantage is a faster turnaround time, which adds to the customer value proposition as gold loans are predominantly short-term and are taken for emergencies. Specifying a minimum tenure with a pre-payment penalty works against the customer. Further, the terms laid down by banks for availing gold loan tend to be rigid, unlike NBFCs.

Additionally, gold financing is an operations-intensive business, with special focus required on branch-level infrastructure and personnel. Branches require secure storage, robust electronic monitoring and cybersecurity protocols to protect client data. All these requirements increase operating costs. Moreover, employees must be trained to recognise the possibility of theft and fraud, as well as the procedures to prevent those. Alternatively, some part of the operations, such as appraisal and valuation, could be outsourced to third parties.

The business model has undergone a considerable technological transformation, facilitating faster loan processing, accurate gold valuation, safekeeping, auctions and cost cutting. The top players require customers to visit the branches only to deposit the physical gold. Proactive marketing, branding and geographic expansion also help capture new-to-market customers.

Still, banks' focus on gold lending is a competitive threat to NBFCs, mainly on account of their lower interest rates.

6. Competitive advantage vs other financial products

Before the pandemic, gold loan companies were competing with each other and other financial service providers. A borrower who fit a lender's criteria could opt for a personal loan or credit card, which required no security and were provided online within a few hours with minimal documentation. However, during the peak of the pandemic, gold loans emerged as the most feasible option for borrowers, as lenders became risk-averse and minimised their exposure to unsecured loans.

Silver-backed lending: A measured move to broaden access to secured credit

The directions issued by the RBI in November 2025, extending to lending against gold and silver collateral, creates a harmonised regulatory framework for precious metal-backed lending. While lending against gold was already governed by well-defined norms, the revised directions formally recognise silver jewellery and silver coins as eligible collateral from April 2026. However, the framework excludes bullion and primary silver, while prescribing uniform valuation norms, LTV limits and borrower safeguards applicable to regulated entities.

The regulatory enablement comes when silver prices are rising, enhancing the metal's relevance as a collateral asset. Elevated prices, coupled with limited liquidation, indicate a growing preference to leverage silver holdings rather than monetise them through sale. In this context, the revised framework provides NBFCs with an additional secured lending avenue, supporting measured portfolio diversification, alongside gold-backed loans.

OUR BUSINESS

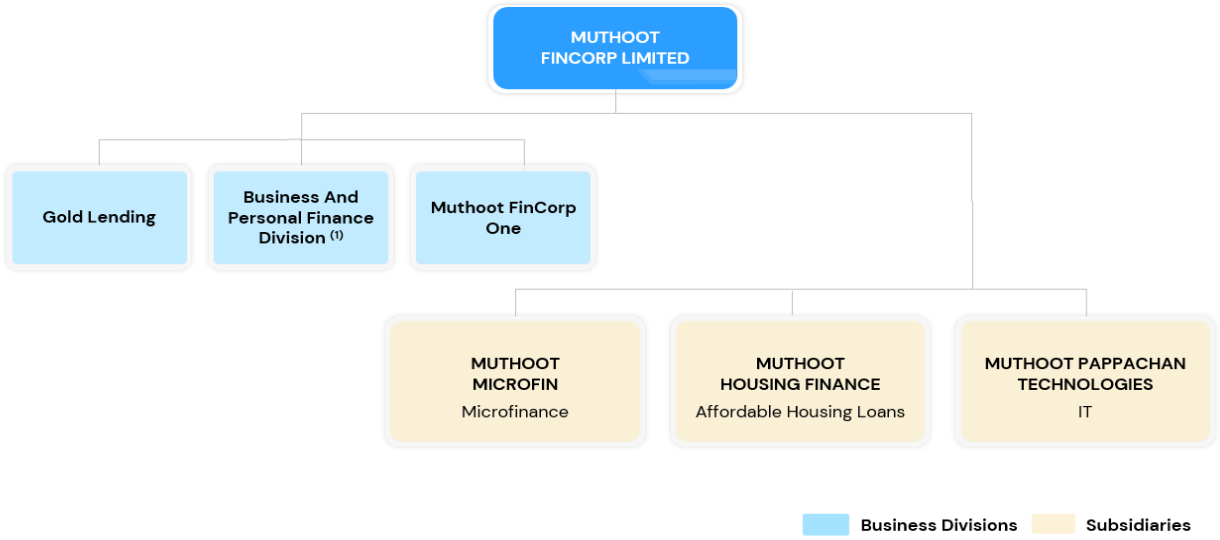

In this section any reference to "we", "us" or "our" refers to our Company and our Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis. Further, Our Company/ the Company/ the Issuer refers to Muthoot Fincorp Limited. Unless stated otherwise, the financial data in this section is according to our Audited Financial Statements and Unaudited Financial Results, prepared in accordance with the requirements of the SEBI NCS Regulations and the Companies Act set forth elsewhere in this Draft Shelf Prospectus.

The following information should be read together with the more detailed financial and other information included in this Draft Shelf Prospectus, including the information contained in the chapter titled "Risk Factors" on page 20.

Overview

We are a diversified NBFC anchored by our gold loan business, which serves as our flagship, profitable foundation. Our diversified, customer centric product offering is designed to support customers' evolving needs across their lifecycle and includes gold loans, business loans, loans against property, supply chain financing, digital loans, microfinance, housing loans and a range of non-fund-based, distribution service offerings across insurance, payments, savings and other financial services. Our business aims to address the financial services needs of India's underserved households and small businesses, particularly retail households, small business owners, traders, vendors, farmers, women entrepreneurs and salaried individuals who value speed, flexibility, convenience and a relationship based on trust.

We are part of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, and our operations have evolved over a period of 86 years since we co-founded a gold loan business in 1939 as part of the heritage trading business, which has roots dating back to 1887, according to the Crisil Report. Over the decades, the Muthoot Pappachan Group has built a trusted and diversified franchise across financial services – including secured and unsecured lending, microfinance, housing finance, insurance distribution and broking, chits as well as select non-financial services businesses spanning sectors such as automotive, retail, hospitality, precious metals, real estate and renewable energy. Anchored in strong values and disciplined execution, the Muthoot Pappachan Group today includes four RBI-regulated NBFCs comprising our Company, Muthoot Capital Services Limited ("Muthoot Capital") and our Subsidiaries, Muthoot Housing Finance Company Limited ("MHFCL") and Muthoot Microfin Limited ("MML"). Muthoot Capital and MML are listed companies within the Muthoot Pappachan Group. Muthoot Capital is a deposit-taking NBFC primarily engaged in providing two-wheeler loans, used vehicle finance and other vehicle finance offerings, while MML is primarily engaged in microfinance lending. As the flagship company of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, we benefit from the Muthoot Pappachan Group's institutional credibility, trust of the brand, deep distribution reach and operating capabilities. This parentage, anchored in trust, scale and execution discipline, has been foundational to our Company's evolution from a mono-line gold loan NBFC into a diversified financial services platform and continues to shape our long-term approach to growth, governance and customer relationships.

(1) Business and Personal Finance Division of the Company comprises, loans against property, business loans, housing loans and supply chain financing

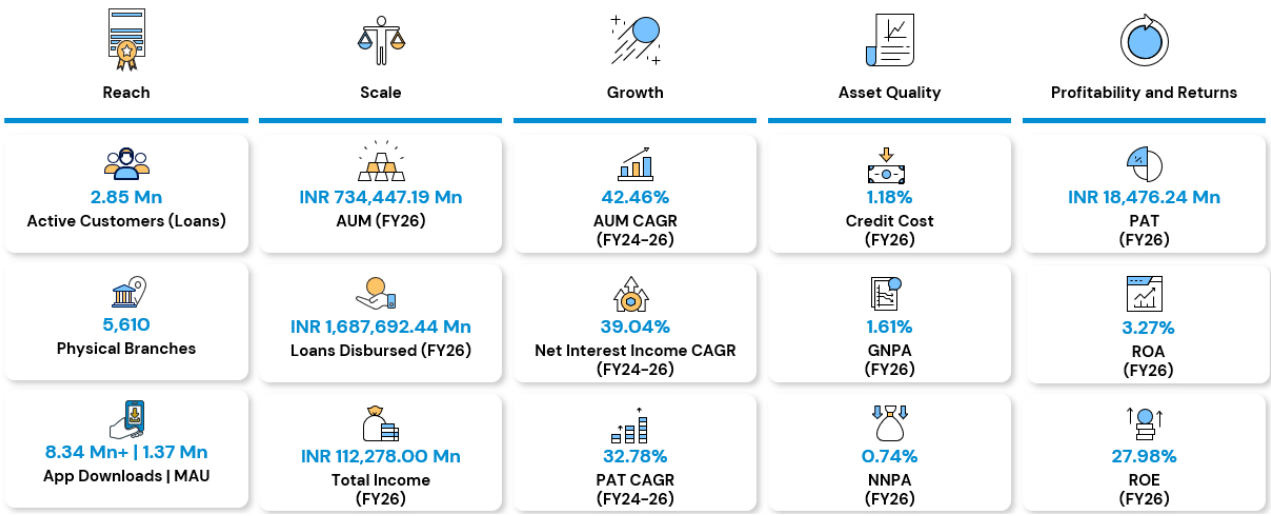

Our Company has been engaged in the gold loans business for over two decades, underpinned by a trusted brand, customer recall and repeat engagement, an extensive, well-distributed physical branch network and Muthoot FinCorp ONE, our digital platform. Over this period, our Company has developed strong operating capabilities in the gold loan business across appraisal, handling and safekeeping of gold, customer onboarding and servicing, while continuing to innovate within the category through offerings such as digital top-up journeys and selling gold-linked savings solutions, to help deepen customer relevance and engagement over time.

Building on the core gold loan franchise, our Company has progressively diversified into a broader, multi-business-unit financial services franchise spanning gold loans and our Business and Personal Finance Division, supported by Muthoot FinCorp ONE, our digital platform. Our Business and Personal Finance Division offerings span across retail and MSME lending, including loans against property, business loans, supply chain finance, housing loans and supported by other adjacent offerings. Muthoot FinCorp ONE has been built as a proprietary digital capability that enables customers to digitally experience the entire loan journey for our products, certain Muthoot Pappachan Group products and third-party lending offerings. Our Company's business units and our Subsidiaries, MHFCL and MML, operate with dedicated business leaders, underwriting and collections, while leveraging a proprietary technology platform that ensures a seamless, singular journey for the end customer. This integrated model allows customers to access multiple products through unified journeys across physical and digital channels based on need, preference and lifecycle stage, enabling deeper relationships, higher multi-product engagement and broader reach across geographies. Our diversification into the Business and Personal Finance Division also allows us to leverage our existing gold loan customer relationships, branch network and field infrastructure to serve broader household and MSME financial requirements, enabling us to build a longer-tenure and more granular loan book and improve operating leverage. This increasing diversification enhances the structural resilience of our business, improves our ability to navigate credit cycles and reduces dependence on any single product, while positioning us to capture a broader share of our customers' financial needs over time. As a result of our conscious focus on diversification, we have grown our AUM to ₹73,44,471.93 lakhs, on a consolidated basis and ₹56,18,510.03 lakhs, on a standalone basis, as of March 31, 2026 and ₹63,33,997.80 lakhs, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026. As of September 30, 2026, our Company had 3,872 branches, on a standalone basis, and a growing digital user base of 46.42 lakh customers, on a standalone basis, as of September 30, 2026.

In addition to our Company's lending offerings, MHFCL, our housing finance subsidiary, primarily serves the housing finance needs of middle- and lower-income customers and MML, our listed microfinance subsidiary, is focused on providing financial services to underserved communities, including women entrepreneurs and low-income households. As of March 31, 2026, on a standalone basis, the AUM of our subsidiaries, MHFCL and MML, was ₹3,25,399.70 lakhs and ₹14,00,562.20 lakhs, respectively.

We operate a scaled and growing diversified business, with AUM of ₹73,44,471.93 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, and ₹56,18,510.03 lakhs, on a standalone basis, as of March 31, 2026, and ₹63,33,997.80 lakhs, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026, reflecting growth across products and geographies. Our disbursements reached ₹1,68,76,924.40 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, and ₹1,58,35,716.68 lakhs, on a standalone basis, in Financial Year 2026, growing at a CAGR of 65.38% between Financial Year 2024 and Financial Year 2026, on a consolidated basis, supported by a geographically diversified and granular retail portfolio. Our loan book is predominantly secured, with secured loan products accounting for 78.09% of our AUM, on a consolidated basis, and 96.17% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 96.06% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026, and granular, with over 59.63% of our secured AUM comprising loans with ticket sizes of less than ₹5.00 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, and over 57.75% of our secured AUM, on a standalone basis, as of March 31, 2026. Our balance sheet has demonstrated strong asset quality and profitability, with GNPA and NNPA of 1.61% and 0.74%, respectively, as of March 31, 2026, on a consolidated basis, and 1.03% and 0.57%, respectively, on a standalone basis, and 0.77% and 0.41%, respectively, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026, and return on assets and return on equity of 3.27% and 27.98%, respectively, in Financial Year 2026, on a consolidated basis, and 3.84% and 28.26%, respectively, on a standalone basis.

Notes:

[(1)] Monthly active users (MAU) represents the average number of unique users that opened Muthoot FinCorp ONE at least once during the trailing 28-day period ending on the last day of each month in the relevant year. For a year, monthly active users are calculated based on the sum of monthly active users as of the last day of each month in such year, divided by 12.

[(2)] Active customers (loans) represents the total number of customers with an active loan account as at the end of the relevant period, presented on a standalone basis.

We operate a scaled, pan-India omni-channel "phygital" distribution network that combines an extensive physical branch infrastructure with Muthoot FinCorp ONE, our digital platform. This enables us to originate, service and engage customers across geographies and customer segments. As of September 30, 2026, our physical network comprised 3,872 gold loan branches and 326 processing centres across 25 states and union territories, on a standalone basis. Our branches are the primary point of transaction fulfilment for our customers, with our employees assisting customers through product selection, documentation, collateral appraisal, disbursal support, servicing and collections. Our branch network is further complemented by referral networks, ecosystem relationships and selective lead sourcing arrangements including with fintech companies and companies in the Muthoot Pappachan Group which extend our reach beyond branch catchments and create additional origination pathways. Muthoot FinCorp ONE complements this physical network by acting as a digital top-of-the-funnel and customer acquisition engine, while enabling customers to access a broad suite of in-house and marketplace offerings. Customers acquired through any of our physical, digital or third-party-led channels are increasingly brought into a seamless and consistent journey through Muthoot FinCorp ONE for onboarding, servicing, repayments, renewals, cross-sell and ongoing engagement. This phygital model supports last-mile reach, origination, seamless servicing and deep customer engagement across the customer lifecycle.

Technology is a core enabler of our business and supports the full customer and loan lifecycle, from acquisition and onboarding to underwriting, disbursement, servicing, collections and portfolio monitoring. Our core technology infrastructure, data architecture, enterprise systems and cybersecurity are supported by Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited ("MPT"), one of our Subsidiaries, which is supported by dedicated technology personnel. Across our business, we increasingly use technology, artificial intelligence ("AI"), machine learning ("ML") and automation in customer onboarding and service and product discovery. We extensively use digital KYC and document verification, and digital execution of documents. In Financial Year 2026, 14.90 lakh customers were onboarded through digital KYC. We are also increasingly using facial recognition and camera-based movement tracking at branches, AI-led customer service and complaint handling, and early warning systems for risk monitoring and security.

Additionally, Muthoot FinCorp ONE has been built as an in-house, proprietary digital capability with end-to-end digital lending capabilities that enable customers to digitally experience the entire loan journey across onboarding, repayments, renewals, top-up loans, access to loan documents and service requests along with product offerings across savings, insurance and payments. Supported by dedicated product, engineering, and digital marketing teams, Muthoot FinCorp ONE uses digital KYC, customer eligibility evaluation, business rule engines for underwriting and AI enabled chat features for customer servicing. Muthoot FinCorp ONE also uses AI for marketing materials and for productivity use cases such as Q&A testing, code development, and reporting workflows. Enterprise-wide technology enablement through MPT, combined with digital product innovation through Muthoot FinCorp ONE, enhances customer experience, strengthens decisioning and controls, improves productivity and supports scalable growth across our franchise.

Our underwriting, collateral management, collections and risk management framework is designed to balance customer needs, operating efficiency and credit discipline across product segments which enables us to build a nuanced understanding of product-specific risks and local market dynamics across the markets we serve, and to scale these businesses through dedicated capabilities tailored to each product. Across products, our underwriting discipline is complemented by an in-house, multi-channel collections infrastructure comprising dedicated collections teams, e-NACH, interactive voice bots, automated alerts and proactive reminders through SMS, telephone calls and in-app notifications. Further, our underwriting processes operate within a structured governance framework, overseen by a structured approval hierarchy with defined management protocols and digital audit trails to ensure adherence to credit norms. This integrated framework has enabled us to maintain asset quality, support scalable growth and ensure risk discipline. As of March 31, 2026, our Company's GNPA and NNPA were 1.03% and 0.57%, respectively, with a provisioning coverage ratio of 45.00%, and as of June 30, 2026, our Company's GNPA and NNPA were 0.77% and 0.41%, respectively, with a provisioning coverage ratio of 47.43%.

We have built a well-funded and diversified borrowing profile that supports the scale, resilience and funding flexibility of our business. As of October 1, 2026, our borrowing profile was diversified across term loans from banks and financial institutions, non-convertible debentures, subordinated debt, perpetual debt instruments, commercial paper and external commercial borrowings. We have also built a meaningful NCD franchise, with 67 listed NCDs, which has broadened our access to debt investors and further diversified our funding base. Our funding access is further strengthened by a long-term credit rating of Crisil AA/Stable, BWR AA+/Stable and CARE AA; Stable, which enables us to raise capital across instruments and tenors. Our commercial paper programme has also seen participation from mutual funds, reflecting confidence in our credit profile and strengthening our access to short-term market borrowings. We have also demonstrated access to international capital markets through our ECB programme, including a successful raise of US$5,613.30 lakhs (approximately ₹5,15,990.70 lakhs) in Financial Year 2026.

We have also developed off-balance sheet capabilities and utilise co-lending and direct assignment structures as part of our broader capital management strategy. These arrangements allow us to originate and service loans while sharing participation and risk with banks and financial institutions or assigning identified pools of loans, thereby diversifying our sources of capital, reducing reliance on on-balance sheet borrowings and supporting capital-efficient growth. As of March 31, 2026, 20.27% of our AUM comprised off-book AUM, on a standalone basis, and 18.36% of our AUM comprised off-book AUM, on a consolidated basis, and as of June 30, 2026, 20.80% of our AUM comprised off-book AUM, on a standalone basis.

Our Strengths

Gold loan focused NBFC with fastest growing gold loan AUM, well positioned to capture India's large gold loan opportunity

We have been engaged in the gold loans business for over two decades and are supported by a trusted brand, longstanding customer relationships and an extensive, well-distributed branch network. Gold loan remains our flagship product and continues to anchor our customer franchise through repeat engagement, broad-based origination and deep customer relationships across geographies.

Our gold loan franchise combined with our strong customer trust, extensive physical reach, disciplined operating procedures and increasing digital enablement positions us to capture this opportunity. Our position is further strengthened by our established gold appraisal and collateral-management capabilities, together with the underwriting, collections and cashflow-assessment experience we have built in our Business and Personal Finance Division, backed by proprietary scorecards and business rule engines. Our Company's gold loan branch network, comprising 3,872 branches, as of September 30, 2026, on a standalone basis, remains the core engine of customer acquisition, servicing and collateral handling, which is supported by dedicated sourcing capabilities, which we consider strategic differentiators in our gold loan business. This acquisition model has helped us increase gold loan AUM per branch from ₹529.60 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹1,304.70 lakhs as of March 31, 2026, on a consolidated basis, and new gold customer acquisitions which were 15.20 lakhs, 13.80 lakhs and 10.30 lakhs for the Financial Years 2026, 2025, and 2024, respectively. This is further complemented by lead sourcing arrangements and ecosystem relationships, which help us widen our sourcing funnel, strengthen customer retention and deepen our presence across target segments.

We have also continued to innovate within the gold lending category to widen the addressable market, improve convenience and deepen customer engagement. These initiatives include offerings such as Gold Loan Prime, which help us access higher-ticket customer segments and digital gold loan top-ups through Muthoot FinCorp ONE, which allow eligible customers to access incremental liquidity quickly and conveniently, which strengthen engagement with customers across the gold lifecycle. We also have co-lending and direct assignment arrangements with leading financial institutions which support capital-efficient AUM growth. These initiatives have helped bring more customers into the organized gold lending ecosystem, improved retention, increased social acceptance of gold loans, and reinforced our relevance across customer needs and usage occasions.

This combination of customer trust, product innovation and disciplined secured-lending practices positions us to continue consolidating our leadership in India's gold loan market.

Strong brand recall and distinguished parentage of the Muthoot Pappachan Group

We are part of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, and our operations have evolved over a period of 86 years since we co-founded a gold loan business in 1939 as part of the heritage trading business, which has roots dating back to 1887, according to the Crisil Report. As the flagship company of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, we operate under the "Muthoot Blue" brand muthoot, which is anchored in the Muthoot Pappachan Group's credo of financial inclusion. Our stated values are integrity, collaboration and excellence, all underpinned by the overarching value of trust. The Muthoot Pappachan Group's brand positioning, "Blue Is Belief," reflects this heritage and the confidence that customers place in us. The Muthoot Pappachan Group spans 44 companies across financial services, hospitality, automotive, IT services, precious metals, renewable energy and real estate, and has built longstanding institutional credibility, operating know-how and customer relationships over multiple decades. We believe the "Muthoot Blue" brand is a recognized financial services brand in India, and commands trust and recall among our target customer segments of low- to middle-income households and small businesses, especially in the gold loan market. Our brand journey has been reinforced over time through high-visibility and culturally resonant campaigns, including our association with Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) as a title sponsor from 2020 to 2022, Vidya Balan as an endorser of the products offered by our Company and Shah Rukh Khan since 2023 as an endorser of secured and unsecured loans offered by our Company, which have helped strengthen brand visibility, deepen emotional connection and broaden our resonance with customers across India.

While we operate with our own professional management, underwriting, operations and risk disciplines, we continue to benefit from the trust, institutional credibility and long-standing customer relationships of the Muthoot Pappachan Group. We also benefit from meaningful group synergies that support customer acquisition, product cross-sell and lifecycle engagement. The broader Muthoot Pappachan Group ecosystem allows customers to enter the formal financial system through products offered by us and our Subsidiaries, as well as adjacent products such as two-wheeler and used-car loans offered through other group entities. This combination of trusted parentage, strong brand recall, clearly articulated values and group-wide customer synergies enhances our competitive positioning and creates durable opportunities for deeper customer engagement and cross-sell over time.

Customer-centric, multi-product retail franchise serving a wide spectrum of financial needs across the lifecycle

We have built a customer-centric, granular and diversified retail lending franchise designed to address a wide spectrum of customer needs across the lifecycle, in line with our long-standing focus on improving the financial well-being of the "common man". The core purpose of our Company is "to transform the lives of the common man by improving their financial well-being". Our target customers span across underserved households and small businesses including salaried and self-employed households, small business owners, traders, vendors, farmers, women entrepreneurs and micro and small businesses that are often underserved by traditional financial institutions and seek timely, convenient and appropriately structured financial solutions through trusted, locally accessible channels. To serve these customers, we offer a broad bouquet of 32 retail lending products across gold loans, loans against property, business loans, personal loans, digital loans, microfinance and housing finance, complemented by a wider suite of savings, protection, payments, remittance, wealth and other financial offerings.

Our products help address a broad set of recurring customer needs, including short-term household liquidity, repayment of debt, medical and family exigencies, education expenses, housing and home-improvement needs, trade modernization, capital expenditures, working capital such as business cash-flow mismatches, supplier and inventory payments, remittance requirements and savings and protection needs. As reflected in the image below, our core product engine is complemented by a diversified suite of offerings, allowing customers to access a broad set of financial solutions through a single franchise.

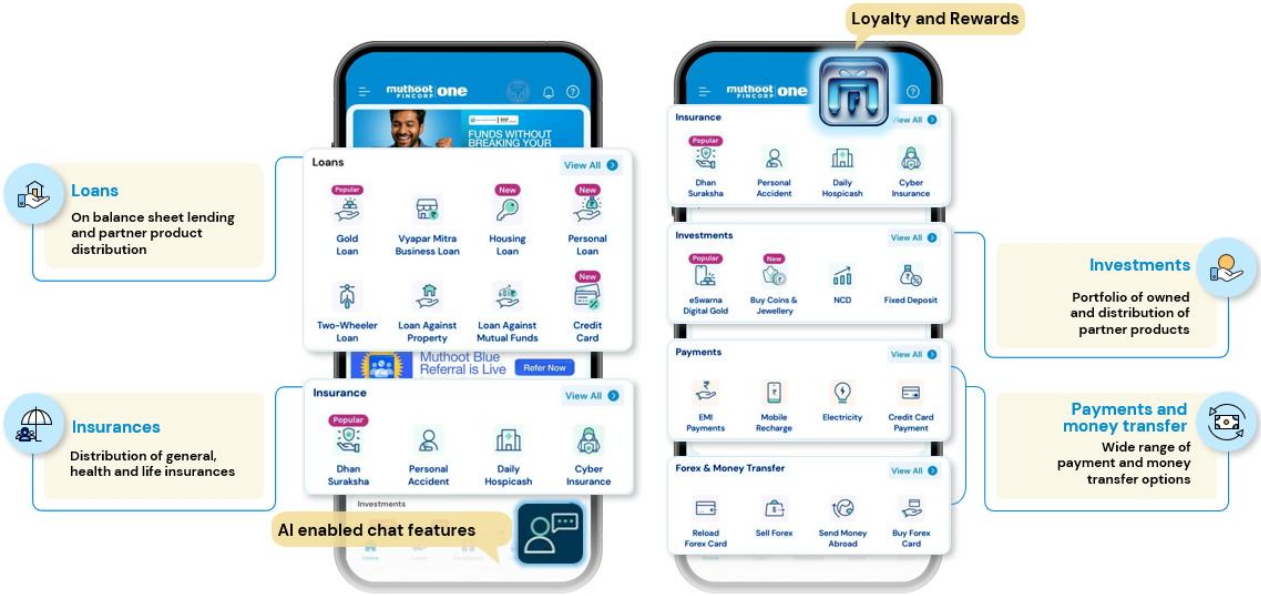

Gold loans and everyday-instalment business loans such as Vyapar Mitra typically serve as initial engagement products for our target customers. Based on repayment behaviour and eligibility, such customers may be progressively offered adjacent products, including Bandhan Plus, loans against property and EMI-based business loans, addressing working capital, business expansion, trade modernisation and other capital expenditure requirements. This lifecycle-led approach enables us to deepen customer relationships and increase share of wallet over time. We support this diversification through dedicated product and operating capabilities across business units, including product-specific leadership and separate origination, underwriting, operations, collections, technology, compliance and audit functions. Our Business and Personal Finance Division's distribution model combines processing centres, dedicated feet-on-street teams and strategic partnerships, enabling multi-channel origination while maintaining execution control.

Analytics-led underwriting, richer customer and business data capture, internal business rule engines, control and risk reviews support sharper customer selection, faster decisioning and calibrated risk management. Increasing digitisation of onboarding, documentation and servicing further strengthens process controls, auditability and consistency.

Muthoot FinCorp ONE further expands this product suite by operating as a financial platform and a marketplace for offerings across lending, savings, investment, protection, payments and other financial offerings. Through the platform, customers can access our products, selected Muthoot Pappachan Group offerings, third-party financial solutions and co-lending-led journeys, while business rule engines and personalized journeys help improve discoverability and conversion. For example, the platform powers end-to-end digital and cashflow-based lending journeys, including digital MSME lending and third-party-led credit opportunities. Muthoot FinCorp ONE is also an important acquisition and retention engine, with over 47% of users acquired through this platform in Financial Year 2026, on a standalone basis, and over 42% of users acquired through this platform in the quarter ended September 30, 2026, on a standalone basis, and benefits from a rich base of data and insights. This has enabled us to build affinity- and eligibility-based propensity models that support targeted product discovery and deeper engagement.

Our loan book is both predominantly secured and granular, which supports resilience across economic cycles. As of March 31, 2026, secured loan products accounted for 96.17% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, and 78.09% of our AUM, on a consolidated basis, and as of June 30, 2026, secured loan products accounted for 96.06% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, while over 57.75% of our secured AUM comprised ticket sizes of less than ₹5.00 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and over 59.63% of our secured AUM, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and over 54.64% of our secured AUM, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026, and no single state accounted for more than 15.15% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, and 15.10% of our AUM, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 15.11% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026. This granularity reduces concentration risk at the borrower level, while our diversified product mix allows us to address multiple credit use cases and participate across a wider share of our customers' financial needs. The combination of a granular retail loan book, a predominantly secured portfolio and exposure to a large, underpenetrated and growing customer segment provides a strong foundation for sustainable growth and portfolio resilience and supports deeper customer engagement and diversification over time.

Omnichannel "phygital" distribution moats driving large top-of-the-funnel, high-quality origination and deep customer engagement

Our omnichannel "phygital" distribution architecture combines scaled physical reach, product-specific sourcing capabilities and digital engagement, enabling us to originate, service and deepen relationships with customers across geographies and financial needs. As of September 30, 2026, no single state accounted for more than 18.88% of our branches, on a standalone basis, and the top three states accounted for 49.87% of our branches, on a standalone basis. Our branch network is an integral part of our distribution and servicing model. It supports face-to-face origination and servicing enabling us to assist customers who prefer guided or assisted journeys, particularly for secured products such as gold loans, loans against property and housing loans.

Our branches serve as trusted local touchpoints for customer acquisition, servicing and collections and, in the case of gold loans, as controlled collateral-handling locations. This physical network is reinforced by product-specific sourcing channels, including dedicated feet-on-street teams, referral channels, and third-party sourcing arrangements including lead sourcing arrangements with fintech companies, including A&A Dukaan Financial Services Private Limited (which operates the BankBazaar money platform), Resilient Digi Services Private Limited (which operates the BharatPe money platform), ONE97 Communications Limited (which operates Paytm) and PhonePe Lending Services Private Limited. Together, these channels broaden our sourcing funnel, extend our reach beyond immediate branch catchments and support high-quality origination across products.

Our business development officer network is a strategic differentiator within this sourcing architecture. As of of September 30, 2026, we had 2,886 business development officers, on a standalone basis supporting customer acquisition in our gold loan business, on a standalone basis, and as. Beyond this, they also engage with customers to explain and cross-sell our broader suite of financial products and services based on customer needs. Our gold loan branches and their surrounding catchments serve as important access points for non-gold products, including home loans, LAP and business loans with origination supported by gold loan branch BDOs, dedicated feet-on-street teams and processing centres located in proximity to our gold loan network. This allows customers in the vicinity of our gold loan branches to access a wider set of financial solutions through a trusted local channel.

Muthoot FinCorp ONE is our flagship digital platform and a key strategic differentiator, serving as a significant digital top-of-the-funnel, acquisition, marketplace and retention engine. Built in-house, it enables customers to undertake a wide range of journeys digitally, including onboarding, repayments, renewals, top-up loans, access to loan documents and other service requests. The application offers our lending products including gold loans, loans against property, business loans, digital loans, personal loans, microfinance and affordable housing loans, selected Muthoot Pappachan Group products including two-wheeler loans and used car loans and certain third-party lending offerings such as personal loans, business loans and education loans.

As of March 31, 2026, Muthoot FinCorp ONE had 83.40 lakh application downloads, 13.70 lakh monthly active users ("MAU"), 17.80 lakh organic customers and 25.80 lakh annual transacting customers. Muthoot FinCorp ONE had an application store rating of 4.68 as of March 31, 2026. Disbursements on Muthoot FinCorp ONE aggregated to ₹2,44,908.26 lakhs in Financial Year 2026, on a standalone basis, and ₹10,811.43 lakhs in the quarter ended September 30, 2026, on a standalone basis. Muthoot FinCorp ONE also supports a loyalty ecosystem through Muthoot Blue Rewards. Beyond servicing and convenience, Muthoot FinCorp ONE functions as a discovery, acquisition, marketplace and retention engine. It improves digital discoverability and opens top-of-funnel opportunities that can be fulfilled through our own balance sheet or through distribution-led offerings, supports a wide range of digital journeys, and enables cross-sell through nudges, referrals, loyalty programmes and third-party products.

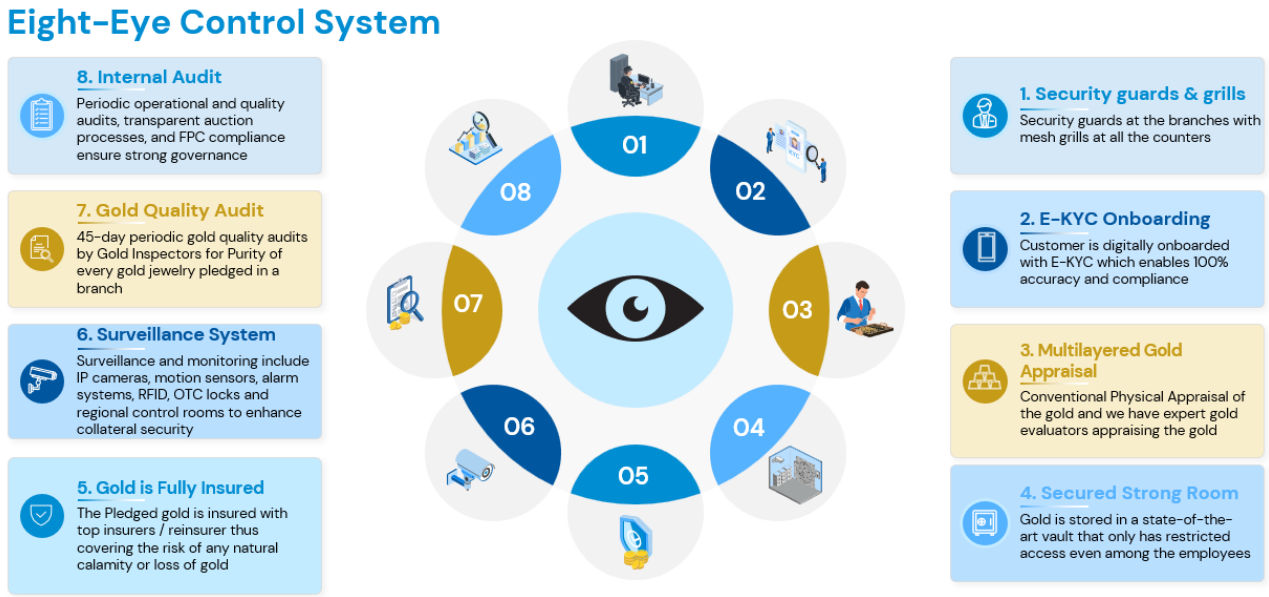

Multiple touchpoints across branches, business development officers, feet-on-street teams, referral networks and Muthoot FinCorp ONE support repeat usage, renewals, top-up loans and targeted cross-sell, while allowing us to observe customer behaviour and progressively offer adjacent and, where appropriate, higher-ticket products over time. Muthoot FinCorp ONE and our ecosystem also support marketplace and co-lending models, under which we can originate customer journeys through our physical and digital rails and, where applicable, undertake credit assessment, servicing and collections for participating institutions.

Robust underwriting and risk management framework enabled by technology integration across the customer journey, resulting in strong asset quality

We have developed a multi-layered, product-specific underwriting and risk management framework that is embedded across the customer journey, from sourcing and onboarding to underwriting, servicing, collections and monitoring. Our technology capabilities are not limited to customer interfaces; they function as a core operating layer across credit decisioning, fraud controls, collections and portfolio oversight. This framework is supported by product-specific loan origination and underwriting systems, customized business rule engines for each product-customer cross-section, automation-led workflows and early warning systems, which help reduce manual intervention, improve turnaround times and maintain control as we scale. This combination of disciplined underwriting and technology integration has helped us deliver strong and consistent asset quality across cycles. Further, this framework is supported by a structured governance framework, overseen by a structured approval hierarchy with defined management protocols and digital audit trails, centralized portfolio surveillance and periodic feedback loops from collections, fraud monitoring and portfolio performance into underwriting rules and workflows.

Our underwriting approach is tailored to the specific risk characteristics of each product. For example, for gold loans, we follow rigorous physical underwriting with borrower-present testing and valuation. Our "Eight-Eye Control System" encompasses e-KYC customer onboarding, multilayered gold appraisal, periodic gold quality audits, dual-custody secured strong rooms with motion sensor camera and sensor enabled shutters, security and control room surveillance, periodic internal audits, insurance of pledged gold and the presence of robust security teams across our branch network.

For microfinance, loans against property, business loans, digital loans, housing loans and supply chain finance, we have dedicated underwriting, operations, in-house collections and technology teams, supported by new loan origination systems that capture end-customer and end-business data, customized business rule engines that can be recalibrated based on sector performance, collections trends and portfolio behaviour, and differentiated product- and sector-specific assessment frameworks that incorporate inputs from subject matter specialists on structural and industry-specific risks and pain points. Further, for loans against property, we undertake two-tier technical valuation based on ticket sizes, mandatory CERSAI registration and registered mortgage creation, supported by income assessment and property verification by dedicated teams. For loans sourced through digital channels, our underwriting approach also comprises a customer-focused, end-to-end digital lending journey with AI and ML-led customer coordination, automated onboarding, disbursement and collections. For further details, see "– Description of our Business – Our Underwriting, Risk Management and Collections Framework" on page 168.

Across products, our underwriting discipline is complemented by an in-house, multi-channel collections infrastructure comprising dedicated collections teams, e-NACH, interactive voice bots, automated alerts and proactive reminders through SMS, telephone calls and in-app notifications. This combination of disciplined underwriting, in-house collections, technology integration and centralized risk oversight enables us to scale in a calibrated manner while preserving asset quality across products. As of March 31, 2026, our Company's GNPA and NNPA were 1.03% and 0.57%, respectively, with a provisioning coverage ratio of 45.00%, and as of June 30, 2026, our Company's GNPA and NNPA were 0.77% and 0.41%, respectively, with a provisioning coverage ratio of 47.43%.

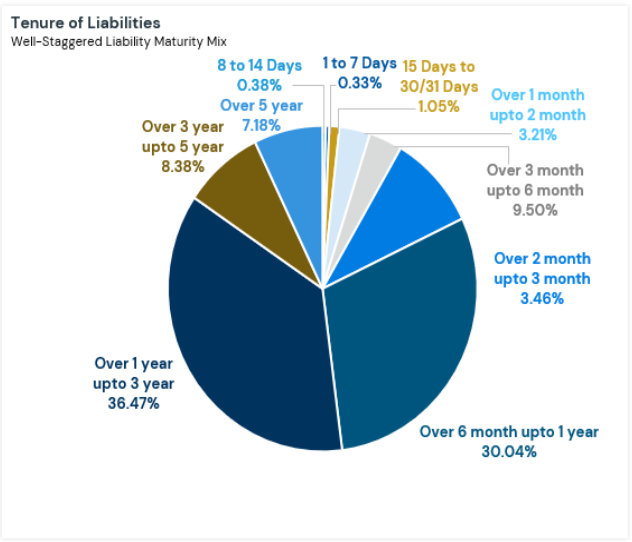

Robust borrowing profile with diversification across lenders, instruments and maturities

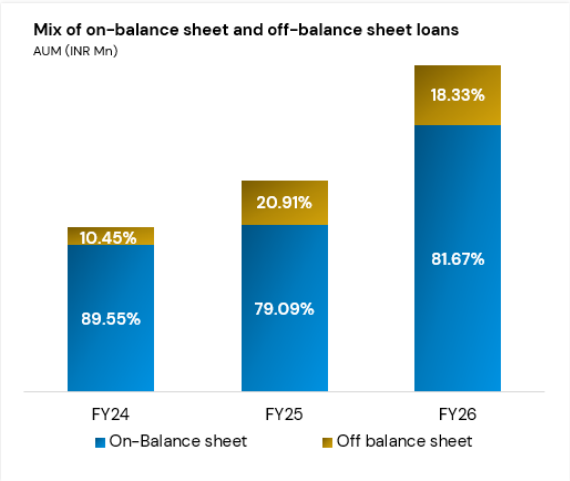

Our borrowing profile is a key strength of our business and an important enabler of our growth, profitability and balance sheet resilience. Over time, we have built a well-funded and diversified borrowing profile with established lenders, including public sector banks, private sector banks, NBFCs and financial institutions. Our borrowing mix is diversified across term loans, non-convertible debentures, commercial paper and external commercial borrowings, with fixed- and floating-rate profiles of 44.12% and 55.88%, on a standalone basis, and 44.44% and 55.56%, on a consolidated basis, respectively, as of March 31, 2026, and 49.74% and 50.25%, on a standalone basis, as of October 1, 2026, and perpetual debt and non-convertible debentures representing 14.04% of total borrowings, on a standalone basis, and 12.63% of total borrowings, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 14.36% of total borrowings, on a standalone basis, as of October 1, 2026. We have also built a meaningful NCD franchise, with 67 listed NCD issuances, which broadened our access to debt investors and further diversified our funding base. Our commercial paper programme has also seen participation from mutual funds, reflecting confidence in our credit profile and strengthening our access to short-term market borrowings. Our long term credit rating of Crisil AA/Stable, together with the Muthoot Pappachan Group parentage, has enhanced lender confidence and supported access to diverse domestic and international pools of capital. We have also demonstrated our ability to scale liabilities in line with business growth, with net incremental borrowings of ₹23,29,173.85 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and ₹25,37,572.40 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, since March 31, 2024, including external commercial borrowings of US$5,013.30 lakhs (approximately ₹4,65,272.80 lakhs), which reflects our access to global funding sources. As of March 31, 2026, our debt-to-equity ratio was 6.61, on a standalone basis, and 6.56, on a consolidated basis, and as of June 30, 2026, our debt-to-equity ratio was 6.21, on a standalone basis, and our Company's CRAR was 18.00% (including Tier I CRAR of 13.20%) as of March 31, 2026, and 18.06% (including Tier I CRAR of 13.25%) as of June 30, 2026.

In addition to on-balance sheet borrowings, we have developed off-balance sheet capabilities through co-lending and direct assignment arrangements. As of March 31, 2026, off-book AUM comprised 20.27% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, and 18.36% of our AUM, on a consolidated basis, including ₹7,71,654.05 lakhs under co-lending arrangements, on a standalone basis, and ₹7,79,764.20 lakhs under co-lending arrangements, on a consolidated basis, and ₹3,67,086.57 lakhs under direct assignment transactions, on a standalone basis, and ₹5,68,894.50 lakhs under direct assignment transactions, on a consolidated basis, and as of June 30, 2026, off-book AUM comprised 20.80% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, including ₹ 4,47,093.52 lakhs under co-lending arrangements, on a standalone basis, and 8,70,667.82 lakhs under direct assignment transactions, on a standalone basis. These structures provide capital efficiency, diversify funding sources and offer an additional deleveraging tool as we scale across products with different capital, tenor and return characteristics. These structures also reflect our ability to originate, service and manage assets for banks and financial institutions using our distribution, underwriting, servicing and collections capabilities. This helps support repeat participation with banks and financial institutions and complements our broader lender relationships. Our liabilities strategy is further supported by a prudent ALM framework, with positive cumulative mismatches across all buckets, reflecting the short-tenor nature of our gold loan book and our disciplined liquidity management. This combination of scale, diversification, off-balance sheet capability and prudent capital management positions us to fund growth efficiently while preserving balance sheet resilience and return ratios over time.

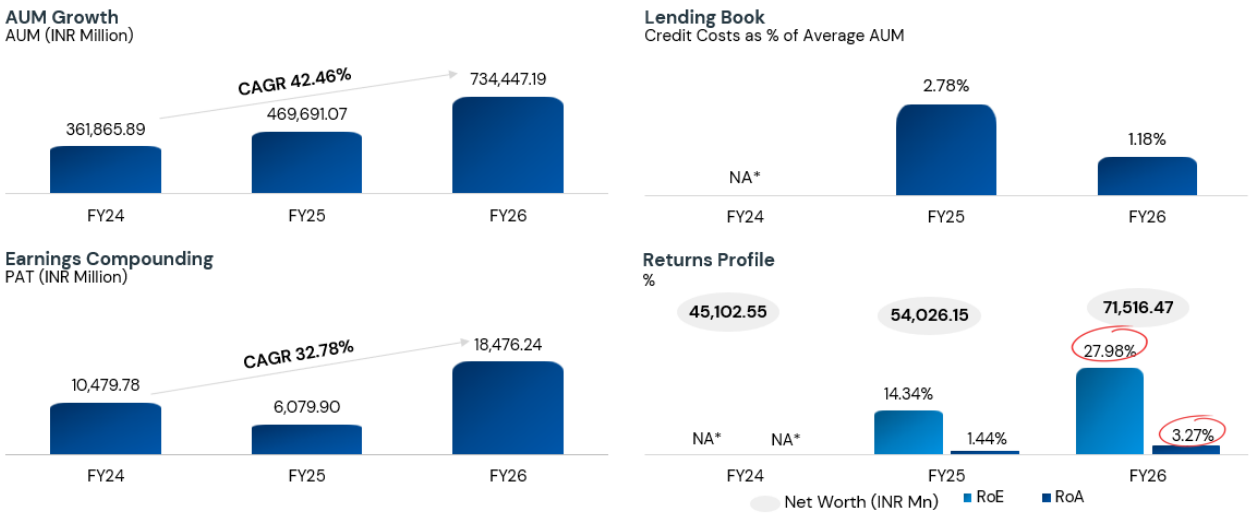

Track record of robust financial performance at scale, with sustainable and profitable growth

We have delivered strong and consistent financial performance across economic cycles while scaling our franchise with prudent risk management and balance sheet discipline. Over the last three Financial Years, our AUM increased from ₹21,92,270.05 lakhs to ₹56,18,510.03 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and from ₹36,18,658.92 lakhs to ₹73,44,471.93 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, representing a CAGR of 60.09%, on a standalone basis, and 42.46%, on a consolidated basis, while our gold loan AUM grew from ₹19,50,392.50 lakhs to ₹49,33,120.10 lakhs over the same period. Our AUM was ₹ 63,33,997.80 lakhs, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026. Over the last three Financial Years, our profit for the year increased from ₹56,280.89 lakhs to ₹1,64,021.33 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and from ₹1,04,797.7 lakhs to ₹1,84,762.44 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, representing a CAGR of 70.71%, on a standalone basis, and 32.78%, on a consolidated basis, and our net interest income increased from ₹1,91,002.08 lakhs to ₹4,65,902.85 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and from ₹3,16,173.95 lakhs to ₹6,11,188.92 lakhs, on a consolidated basis, supported by our core gold loan business, the increasing contribution of our non-gold businesses and operating leverage across our franchise. Our profit for the quarter ended June 30, 2026 was ₹ 70,547.82 lakhs, on a standalone basis, and our net interest income for the quarter ended June 30, 2026 was ₹ 1,62,166.09 lakhs, on a standalone basis. This growth has been accompanied by disciplined underwriting, collections and portfolio management, reflected in our asset quality and credit costs of 0.59%, on a standalone basis, and 1.18%, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 0.16%, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026.

Our financial profile is supported by prudent debt-to-equity ratio of 6.61, on a standalone basis, and 6.56, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 6.21, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026. Our Company also had a healthy capitalization with CRAR of 18.00%, as of March 31, 2026, and 18.06%, as of June 30, 2026, and a diversified borrowing profile. This combination of scale, growth, profitability and financial discipline demonstrates our ability to deliver sustainable growth over time.

Experienced, professional management team backed by seasoned Promoters

We benefit from the guidance and active role played by our experienced promoters, a seasoned management team and a distinguished Board with deep expertise across financial services, risk, technology and operations. Our Board is led by Thomas John Muthoot, our Chairman and Managing Director, together with Thomas George Muthoot and Thomas Muthoot, and comprises 10 members, of whom 6 are independent directors with experience across banking, financial services, regulatory agencies, marketing and technology. Our operations are led by Shaji Varghese, our Chief Executive Officer, who brings over 25 years of experience in banking and financial sector, and is supported by an experienced senior leadership team including Joseph Oommen, our Chief Financial Officer, with over 20 years of experience in financial management, Arun Kumar Balasubramanian , Chief Operating Officer, with over 20 years of experience in data strategy and technology strategy, Chandan Khaitan, Chief Executive Officer – Digital Business, with over 20 years of experience in retail, FMCG, and financial services, Vinod Reddy, Chief Business Officer – Business and Personal Finance Division, with over 22 years of experience in banking sector, Manoj Kumar Mauni, Chief Technology Officer, with over 25 years of experience in banking, financial services and insurance sectors, and Harjit Singh Takkar, Chief Distribution Officer, with over 24 years of experience in retail banking and distribution. Together, our senior management personnel bring an average of 25 years of experience and have played an important role in scaling our business.

We have strengthened our organization through focused leadership across key business units and control functions. This leadership depth is supported by low attrition at the KMP and SMP levels. We did not experience any attrition among our KMPs and SMPs during Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, reflecting the stability and continuity of our senior management team. Our ESOP Scheme 2018 helps align the interests of our KMPs and SMPs with our long-term growth objectives, with our rewards philosophy closely linked to performance and value creation. We also seek to promote employee well-being through initiatives such as the Muthootian Health Triangle, supported by our in-house MHT App. This combination of promoter oversight, experienced leadership and our workforce helps support disciplined growth, strong execution and long-term value creation. Our workplace practices have also been recognized externally, including recognition as one of "Top 50 India's Best Workplaces in BFSI 2025" by Great Place to Work in Financial Year 2025, recognition as the "Top Rated Financial Services Company (Large Category)" at the AmbitionBox Employee Choice Awards 2025 in Financial Year 2025 and one of ET Now Best Brands in Financial Year 2024. Also see "History and Certain Corporate Matters" on page 136.

Our Strategies

Diversify and expand our customer base by scaling our existing products, broadening our product offerings and pursuing customer acquisition

Scale existing products

Our gold loans business continues to be the primary driver of our AUM growth and the key entry point for new customer acquisition. We intend to continue growing our gold loan disbursements by penetrating deeper into underserved rural and semi-urban markets, where a large proportion of customers continue to have limited or no access to formal credit, by leveraging the trust, recall and accessibility associated with the "Muthoot Blue" brand. We also intend to utilize synergies with Muthoot Pappachan Group companies to create additional origination channels for gold loans, leveraging the customer relationships, distribution reach and local market presence of the Muthoot Pappachan Group. We also intend to continue scaling our non-gold secured lending products, including loans against property, business loans and housing loans, which together represent a growing share of our AUM and broaden our relevance across the financial lifecycle of our target customers.

Pursue customer acquisition

We also intend to continue strengthening our customer acquisition capabilities through our sales infrastructure, including our BDO team, supplemented by lead sourcing arrangements with fintech companies, in order to widen our sourcing funnel and extend our reach into new segments and geographies. Further, we intend to continue investing in brand-building initiatives to enhance brand visibility and customer awareness and to further position gold loans as a convenient, flexible and trusted source of credit, including for younger and first-time customers, rather than only as a product of last resort.

Broaden our product offerings

In addition, we intend to continue expanding our product suite through a combination of products offered through our own balance sheet and distribution-led products. We intend to continue growing our wealth management business unit, SWIFT, to drive fee-based income by deepening cross-sell across our customer base and provide savings, investment, protection and other financial offerings, while also building a larger pool of recurring income. We also intend to grow our distribution-led products by leveraging our trusted brand, customer base, branch network, Muthoot FinCorp ONE platform and the Muthoot Pappachan Group ecosystem to offer a broader suite of financial products across savings, investments, insurance, payments and other services. We also intend to expand our foreign exchange offerings pursuant to the perpetual Authorised Dealer Category-II licence recently granted to us by the RBI, including forex cards and remittance products, by progressively expanding our network of authorised forex branches and strengthening our digital capabilities for forex transactions and remittances. We intend to increase engagement with existing customers by embedding these offerings across physical and digital customer journeys. Our fee-based income grew from ₹17,695.49 lakhs in Financial Year 2024 to ₹46,180.65 lakhs in Financial Year 2026, at a CAGR of 61.55%, on a standalone basis, and from ₹21,158.8790 lakhs in Financial Year 2024 to ₹57,176.03 lakhs in Financial Year 2026, at a CAGR of 64.38%, on a consolidated basis.

Further leverage our pan-India omni-channel distribution network to deepen penetration in our target customer segments

We intend to continue leveraging our pan-India omni-channel distribution network to deepen penetration within our target customer segments. Our longstanding presence in semi-urban and rural markets, expanded branch footprint across India and customer proposition built around the financial needs of the common man and the underbanked position us to participate in the growth of "Bharat". We intend to expand our physical branch network into new geographies across India, particularly tier 2 and tier 3 cities and towns, through a disciplined, data-driven branch expansion strategy focused on markets where lending penetration remains relatively low and where our branch-led model can build local trust and repeat engagement. Leveraging our gold loan branches and processing centres, we aim to enter new markets and selectively densify our footprint in existing catchments that present attractive customer acquisition and productivity opportunities. In parallel, we intend to deepen penetration within branch catchments through our BDO network, feet-on-street teams and the Muthoot Pappachan Group ecosystem, such that physical expansion is complemented by broader sourcing reach and stronger customer engagement. We also intend to continue diversifying our gold loan portfolio across India. Our largest single-state AUM concentration reduced from 17.993% on a consolidated basis and 17.03% on a standalone basis as of March 31, 2024 to 15.15%, on a standalone basis, and 15.10%, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and we intend to continue this geographic diversification to build a broader, balanced and resilient franchise.

In parallel, we intend to leverage the cross-sell and up-sell capabilities of Muthoot FinCorp ONE to deepen engagement with our Company's existing customer base of 28.50 lakh active unique customers with loan accounts as of March 31, 2026. There is significant headroom to cross-sell products as customers increasingly adopt multiple lending, savings, protection, payments and other financial offerings across their lifecycle. We also intend to continue strengthening our phygital model by expanding the customer base of Muthoot FinCorp ONE along with our physical branch network, enabling each customer touchpoint to be supported by both physical accessibility and digital convenience and allowing customers to move seamlessly across channels through the lifecycle of the relationship.

Continue to enhance productivity and drive operating leverage

We intend to continue enhancing productivity and operating leverage across our network and operations, building on the 1.92x increase in AUM per branch achieved between March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2026. We intend to further improve branch productivity by driving higher throughput per branch, increasing customer penetration within branch catchments, deepening repeat engagement and cross-sell, and progressively shifting a greater share of routine servicing, repayments, renewals and document access to digital channels. Muthoot FinCorp ONE is expected to enhance productivity by enabling customers to complete several low-touch transactions and service requests digitally, reducing the need for branch staff involvement in routine interactions and allowing branch staff to focus on priority customer engagement, origination and servicing. The platform also supports pre-branch digital journeys, including KYC and onboarding steps, allowing customers to complete key processes before visiting a branch and helping reduce turnaround times, improve branch throughput and create a more seamless phygital customer experience.

In addition, we intend to improve monetization per branch by increasing the contribution of non-gold lending products and fee-based offerings sourced and serviced through our branch network, including savings, protection, payments and other distribution-led products. Scaling co-lending and direct assignment-led disbursements can improve capital efficiency and increase throughput across our origination and servicing platform, supporting productivity growth without a proportionate increase in balance sheet intensity.

We also intend to improve field-force productivity across our BDO and feet-on-street network through tighter lead allocation, analytics-led customer targeting, stronger conversion tools and the integrated use of physical and digital channels. In parallel, we intend to centralize and optimize selected operating processes, increase automation across internal workflows and reporting, and further digitize disbursements, repayments and documentation enabling a larger proportion of future growth to be absorbed without a commensurate increase in our operating base. These initiatives are expected to improve branch and employee productivity, strengthen operating leverage and support scalable and cost-efficient growth over time.

Continue to leverage technology, data analytics, AI and automation to strengthen customer experience and accelerate innovation

We intend to further strengthen Muthoot FinCorp ONE as our primary digital growth engine and continue investing in our broader technology, data, AI and automation capabilities to enhance customer experience, strengthen risk and compliance oversight, improve operating efficiency and accelerate innovation across the business. We aim to progressively scale data-led and AI and ML capabilities across the customer lifecycle and key internal processes, supported by continued investments in core technology infrastructure, data architecture, governance and business rule engines to enable faster decisioning and resilient growth at scale. Select AI initiatives that have demonstrated early traction include: AI and ML-driven propensity and lead prioritisation models to support targeted acquisition, cross-sell and calling optimisation, which is expected to help create a sizeable pre-approved base and drive higher conversion; fraud detection scorecards and risk-based sampling to strengthen pre-emptive risk controls; AI-based document readers for document intelligence and validation across onboarding and credit workflows to enable faster processing; and AI-led image and attribute analysis to standardise gold ornament verification which is expected to strengthen controls and auditability while reducing reliance on manual judgement over time. We have also deployed generative AI-enabled automation in select operations and control processes (such as onboarding validations, customer grievance categorisation and routing, and continuous controls monitoring and exception-based audit triggers) and generative AI-enabled tools to support internal productivity and consistent software delivery (including business requirements documents and code).

We are additionally evaluating conversational and self-service journeys, including interactive voice assistants for sales and collections, an in-house employee assistant for queries, and a customer-facing chatbot for business loans covering service, lead generation and fulfilment. We are also assessing use cases across credit and operations, including AI-enabled video-based customer interactions, an AI-based credit automation platform to support credit evaluation and appraisal memo generation. In addition, we are exploring speech-to-text transcription and translation for collections follow-ups to strengthen documentation quality and enable a consistent customer engagement experience. We believe these investments will help us drive stronger customer experience, improve underwriting and accelerate our innovation and execution across products and processes, while strengthening controls and operating efficiency over time.

Further diversify our borrowings profile and optimize our cost of funds

We intend to continue broadening our lender base, by onboarding additional banks and financial institutions and by exploring new instruments and markets to access a diversified and lower-cost pool of funds. This diversification of our borrowing profile strengthens funding resilience, improves flexibility and supports growth across product lines. We intend to continue pursuing credit rating upgrades as a key lever to reduce our cost of borrowings and broaden our access to capital. Our long-term credit rating improved from Crisil A-/Stable in November 2016 to Crisil AA/Stable, as of the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, which has supported access to a wider and lower-cost lender base. We intend to continue focusing on financial discipline, asset quality and balance sheet strength to support further improvement in our overall funding profile over time.

In addition, we intend to continue growing our off-balance sheet book, which accounted for 20.27% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, and 18.36% of our AUM, on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2026, and 20.80% of our AUM, on a standalone basis, as of June 30, 2026, through co-lending arrangements and direct assignment transactions. These arrangements provide capital-efficient access to funds and support our ability to scale while preserving balance sheet flexibility. We also intend to continue scaling marketplace and co-lending models, where our customer acquisition, underwriting, servicing and collections capabilities can be leveraged alongside third-party capital, thereby broadening customer choice, expanding fee-income opportunities and improving capital efficiency.

Further, we intend to continue actively managing our asset-liability profile to maintain liquidity resilience and optimize our cost of funds. This combination of broader lender access, diversified funding instruments, off-balance sheet capabilities and prudent asset-liability management is expected to support sustainable growth while preserving balance sheet discipline.

Continue to attract, train and retain talented employees and strengthen our organizational capabilities

Our human resource strategy is focused on building capability at scale to enhance operational efficiency and foster a performance-driven, inclusive and employee-centric culture. Our senior management personnel and other employees are critical enablers of our growth strategy, particularly as we expand into new geographies, scale existing product lines and deepen our technology capabilities. We therefore intend to continue investing in talent acquisition, development and retention across our businesses and control functions. We have a well-defined recruitment policy that sets minimum qualification standards, provides for comprehensive candidate assessment and aligns hiring plans with business strategy, and we intend to continue strengthening this capability as we scale. We also intend to continue investing in learning and development initiatives to prepare employees for future roles and equip them with the skills required to serve our growing and evolving customer base. Our training and development function is supported by 77 training centres and a virtual learning and development platform, in addition to regular training programmes, advanced learning tools, online skill assessments and periodic performance monitoring. For our senior management and leadership team, we also run MPRO, the ‘Muthoot Program for Resilient and Outstanding Leadership’, in collaboration with IIM Kozhikode.

In addition, we intend to continue investing in employee welfare initiatives and maintaining a performance-oriented culture as we grow. Our rewards philosophy is closely linked to performance, including variable pay and ESOPs for senior management personnel and approximately 90% of our workforce, as of March 31, 2026 was covered by performance-based incentive structures. We also intend to continue building an inclusive and diverse workplace. We also intend to continue building our employer brand, supported by workplace recognitions including the ‘Great Place to Work’ recognition, which we have received twice consecutively. As our business diversifies and scales, we intend to continue strengthening our management team by hiring experienced professionals and developing internal talent pipelines across business, risk, finance, technology, operations and governance functions. These investments in people, culture and leadership depth are expected to support growth and improve execution quality over time.

Our lending portfolio includes gold loans, loans against property, business loans, housing loans, personal loans, supply chain finance and digital loans offered by our Company, and housing loans and microfinance loans offered through our Subsidiaries, MHFCL and MML, respectively. Our loans are primarily secured and are originated through physical and digital channels, enabling us to serve salaried and self-employed individuals, merchants, MSMEs, low- to middle-income households and customers with housing finance requirements across a broad range of borrowing needs. As of March 31, 2026, our secured AUM and unsecured AUM represented 96.17% and 3.83% of our total AUM, respectively, on a standalone basis, and 78.09% and 21.91% of our total AUM, respectively, on a consolidated basis, and as of June 30, 2026, our secured AUM and unsecured AUM represented 96.06% and 3.94% of our total AUM, respectively, on a standalone basis.

Gold loans continue to be our Company's flagship product and anchor our customer franchise through repeat engagement, broad-based origination and deep customer relationships across geographies. In addition, we help address adjacent borrowing needs, including microfinance loans offered by MML and housing loans offered by MHFCL. Together with our broader suite of savings, protection and transactional offerings, this enables us to serve customers across income segments. Our gold loan products are designed to meet the short-term liquidity needs of households, farmers, traders and small businesses and are offered through over 25 variants tailored to specific customer needs. Our gold loans are classified based on end-use into consumption loans and income generation loans. Consumption loans are offered under bullet and non-bullet schemes, with bullet schemes having a tenure of up to 12 months with both principal and interest due at maturity; and non-bullet schemes currently having tenures of up to 12 months structured with pre-scheduled repayment of interest, principal or both within the loan tenure. We also offer EMI-based products and monthly, quarterly or half-yearly interest servicing products where principal is payable at maturity. Our bullet repayment schemes do not attract foreclosure charges, and customers may repay or redeem their gold loans at any time before maturity, with multiple digital repayment and top-up options available through Muthoot FinCorp ONE. Income generation loans are currently offered to business and agricultural customers and are structured with repayment in three equated principal instalments in the 10th, 11th and 12th months from the pledge date, together with applicable interest.

Our gold loan variants include Gold Loan Prime, Muthoot Blue Super Value Loan, Easy Blue, Easy Max, Easy Pro, Restart India Pradhan, Easy Scale Up, Vyapar Vikas, Kisan Vikas, Udaan and others, which are designed to suit the needs and preferences of various customer segments. Our key gold loans variants are:

- Muthoot Blue Super Value Loans: Muthoot Blue Super Value Loans is a retail gold loan product designed to meet immediate funding requirements of eligible retail customers across ticket sizes. The product has a tenure of 12 months, with loan-to-value determined up to the maximum permissible LTV in accordance with the applicable framework prescribed by the India Bullion and Jewellers Association Limited ("IBJA"). The product is available across all ticket sizes.

- Restart India Pradhan: Restart India Pradhan is a retail gold loan product designed for customers with funding requirements of ₹500,000 and above. The product has a tenure of 12 months, with loan-to-value determined up to the maximum permissible LTV prescribed under the applicable IBJA framework. The product provides for upfront interest rebate based on the period of repayment.

- Easy Max: Easy Max is a retail gold loan product designed for customers with funding requirements ranging from ₹ 100,000 to ₹ 299,999. The product has a tenure of 12 months, with loan-to-value determined up to the maximum permissible LTV as per the applicable IBJA framework. The product provides for upfront interest rebate based on the period of repayment.

In addition to the above schemes, our Gold Loan Prime offering is a differentiated, customer-centric product designed to deliver a seamless and convenient experience to borrowers. Under this offering, once a gold loan request is initiated, our representatives visit the customer's premises to complete KYC and onboarding procedures and undertake an initial screening. Customers are then required to visit our branches with their gold ornaments for final appraisal and loan processing.

Gold loans and everyday-instalment business loans such as Vyapar Mitra often serve as the initial point of engagement for our target customers. Further, our 24x7 Express Gold Loan facility helps our customers to avail a top-up facility (subject to eligibility) against their gold jewellery already pledged with us. These products are increasingly supported through phygital journeys such as renewals, top-ups and select digital and doorstep service channels, with disbursals for eligible customers typically completed at our branches and through a simplified digital process on Muthoot FinCorp ONE. Our gold loan disbursement processes are deliberately anchored at our branches as the physical appraisal in the borrower's presence, secure custody of pledged gold and immediate assisted disbursal are critical to customer trust and operational control. Digital capabilities are used to simplify repeat journeys, renewals, top-ups and servicing, while the core appraisal and collateral-handling process remains face-to-face through trained branch personnel.

The principal form of security that we accept is 18 to 22 carat gold jewellery, gold ornaments (upto 1 kg) and 22 carat gold coins (upto 50 gm). We appraise the gold jewellery solely based on its gold content, excluding the value of any precious stones, gems, or other non-metal elements. Based on the end-use of the loan, we lend up to the RBI-prescribed LTV for consumption loans and up to an internally determined LTV threshold for loans availed for income generating activities (such as business purposes or agriculture). The LTV is determined based on the 22 carat gold price based on the lower of: (a) preceding 30-day moving average Indian Bullion and Jewellery Association price or the previous day's closing price, or (b) the closing price of the preceding day, as published by Indian Bullion and Jewellery Association or a SEBI-regulated commodity exchange. As of March 31, 2026, 2025 and 2024, we held 62.33 tonnes, 56.47 tonnes and 50.68 tonnes, respectively, of gold as security for all gold loans.

Our gold loan AUM grew at a CAGR of 59.04% from ₹19,50,392.50 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹49,33,120.10 lakhs as of March 31, 2026, on a consolidated basis. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our gold loans was ₹1.30 lakhs with an average tenor of 4.28 months.

Loans Against Property (LAP)

Our LAP products provide secured, medium-tenor financing against residential and other eligible property, primarily for business purposes. This business is supported by dedicated sourcing, credit, operations and collections teams and distributed through branches, field sales teams and processing centres. Our LAP portfolio is primarily secured by residential properties and is focused on customers with assessed repayment capacity. We monitor the LAP portfolio across parameters including borrower income, bureau scores, loan-to-value, balance transfer share and collateral type.

Our Company's LAP AUM grew at a CAGR of 60.30% from ₹1,71,592.80 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹4,40,905.90 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our LAP products was ₹10.00 lakhs with an average tenor of 9 years.

Business Loans

Our business loan offerings include Vyapar Mitra, our everyday and every week-instalment business loans, designed for merchants and small businesses with daily cash flows. We also offer Bandhan Plus, a pre-approved loan product available to eligible customers, subject to a minimum gold pledge requirement at each applicable tier. Bandhan Plus loans may be availed for either business or personal purposes and are classified accordingly based on their stated end use.

These loans are structured to align repayment frequency more closely with the daily cash flows which allows repayments to be collected in small daily instalments rather than larger monthly instalments, which reduces repayment friction for customers whose business receipts accrue on a daily basis. Together, these products are intended to address personal financing requirements, working capital requirements, business expansion needs and other small-ticket credit requirements of merchants, traders and MSMEs. These loans target small businesses, self-employed individuals and professionals that are primarily in the trading and service sectors, offering a minimum loan amount of ₹ 25,000 and maximum loan amount of ₹1,000,000. They are originated through branches, field sales teams and strategic alliances, allowing us to address both repeat and incremental credit demand.

Our business loans AUM, comprising Vyapar Mitra loans, grew at a CAGR of 2.01% from ₹31,469.00 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹32,743.50 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our Vyapar Mitra loans was ₹1.00 lakhs with an average tenor of 4.8 months. Our Bandhan Plus loans, that may be availed for either business or personal purposes grew at a CAGR of 217.51% from ₹2,714.50 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹27,366.20 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our Bandhan Plus loans was ₹1.30 lakhs with an average tenor of 24 months.

Supply Chain Financing

Our supply chain financing business is intended to provide working capital solutions to businesses operating across the supply chain, including vendors, suppliers, distributors, dealers, retailers and other channel participants. This enables us to participate in MSME credit demand that arises from invoice-linked working capital needs, corporate payment cycles and channel financing requirements.

In this business, we seek to work with identifiable ecosystems, such as regional manufacturers and established distributors, and provide financing support to eligible channel participants connected to such ecosystems. The underlying use cases may include inventory procurement, dealer stocking, working capital support, channel purchases and other trade-linked funding requirements.

Our supply chain financing AUM grew at a CAGR of 712.38% from ₹230.10 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹15,185.70 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our supply chain financing business was ₹18.00 lakhs with an average tenor of 53 days.

Digital Loans

Our digital lending business primarily serves small businesses seeking short-tenor, small-ticket loans for working capital or business requirements. These products are originated through digitally enabled journeys supported by algorithm-based rule engines with automated decisioning and geo-fencing to help eliminate fraud. These loans are designed to offer speed, convenience and lower-friction access to credit for customers who increasingly operate through digital payments and app-based commerce ecosystems.

Our digital loans are primarily sourced through third-parties, including through lead sourcing arrangements with fintech companies. Under these third-party-led models, eligible merchants and self-employed customers are identified based on platform activity, transaction behaviour or other pre-defined filters, and are offered credit through a digital journey.

Our digital loans AUM grew at a CAGR of 315.42% from ₹8,087.80 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹1,39,574.30 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our digital loans was ₹1.40 lakhs with an average tenor of 390 days.

Housing Finance

Our housing finance business is intended to address the financing needs of lower- and middle-income households seeking to purchase, construct, improve or refinance residential property. Our offerings include self-construction loans and resale housing loans, and are designed for customers who may be underserved by traditional mortgage channels, particularly in semi-urban and emerging markets. Through this business, we seek to participate in longer-tenor household financing needs and complement our shorter-tenor and business-purpose lending products with a housing-led customer relationship.

Our self-construction housing loans are intended for customers building homes on owned land, a financing need that is particularly relevant in markets where incremental home construction, phased construction and self-managed builds are more common than developer-led purchases. Our resale housing loans are intended for customers acquiring completed residential properties in the secondary market. Together, these products allow us to address multiple use cases within the affordable and middle-income housing finance segment.

We also offer this product through our Subsidiary, MHFCL, which primarily serves the housing finance needs of customers in the middle- and lower-income segments and supports affordable housing initiatives. Through MHFCL, we are able to extend our reach into underserved customer segments and deepen our household financing franchise beyond the products originated directly by our Company.

Our Company commenced offering of housing loans in Financial Year 2026 and our AUM as of March 31, 2026 was ₹16,528.40 lakhs. As of March 31, 2026, the average ticket size for our Company's housing loans was ₹10.00 lakhs with an average tenor of 12 years. Further, MHFCL's AUM grew at a CAGR of 25.37% from ₹2,07,038.90 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹3,25,399.70 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the gross non-performing assets, net non-performing assets and provisioning coverage ratio of MHFCL were 2.33%, 1.87% and 20.51%, respectively.

Microfinance

Our microfinance business is conducted through our Subsidiary, MML, which is the microfinance arm of the Muthoot Pappachan Group. This business primarily serves underserved communities, including women entrepreneurs and low-income households, and is oriented toward livelihood finance, income-generating activities and financial inclusion in markets and customer segments that often remain outside the formal credit system.

The microfinance business is strategically important to our broader purpose of strengthening financial inclusion. This business is focused not merely on credit extension, but on enabling economically active women borrowers to support household cash flows, run or expand small businesses, engage in trading or service activities, and invest in income-generating opportunities.

Microfinance also complements our overall product architecture by expanding our reach into rural and semi-urban customer segments where formal credit access remains limited but demand for small-ticket, timely and relevant financial solutions remains strong. It strengthens our presence among women-led borrowing groups and lower-income households and supports our positioning as a provider of inclusive financial solutions across multiple customer segments, geographies and life-stage needs.

MML's AUM grew at a CAGR of 7.17% from ₹12,19,350.00 lakhs as of March 31, 2024 to ₹14,00,562.20 lakhs as of March 31, 2026. As of March 31, 2026, the gross non-performing assets, net non-performing assets and provisioning coverage ratio of MML were 3.89%, 1.15% and 71.53%, respectively.

Fee-based and Distribution-led Products

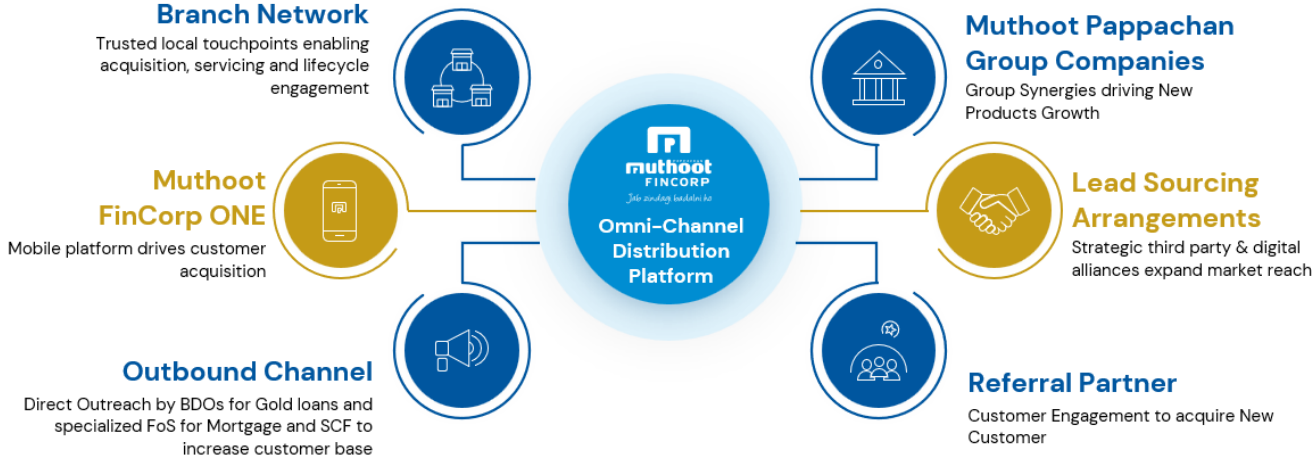

In addition to lending, we also offer fee-based and distribution-led products across savings, investment, protection, remittance and payments, including products offered by other Muthoot Pappachan Group companies. Our non-fund based income strategy encompasses protection (corporate agent (composite) license for life, general and health insurance distribution), savings (wealth services including mutual funds and fixed deposit products targeting growing low- to middle-income customer segments), payments and services (over 20 products including foreign exchange, money transfer services, send-money-abroad solutions and bill payments) and marketplace arrangements (strategic tie-ups to distribute products of banks and financial services companies to offer lifecycle products and services).

Our AD-II license supports our foreign exchange and remittance offerings and strengthens our ability to offer a broader suite of customer-facing transactional products. We have also obtained a registration to act as Corporate Agent (Composite) from the IRDAI. Further, we also offer gold-based savings products offered by other Muthoot Pappachan Group companies such as Swarnavarsham and eSwarna. We also leverage intra-group arrangements with other Muthoot Pappachan Group companies, including Muthoot Capital Services Limited and Muthoot Chits Private Limited and our Subsidiaries, MML and MHFCL, for sourcing, referral, collection and/or servicing support, as applicable, which helps us broaden customer access, deepen group-level customer engagement and support distribution across adjacent financial products and services. These fee-based and distribution-led offerings complement our lending franchise, deepen customer engagement across the lifecycle, support cross-sell and repeat usage, diversify our revenue mix and help us build larger fee-income pools over time. Such fee-based and distribution-led products contributed to 3.37%, 5.53%, 4.92% and 4.41%, respectively, of our revenue from operations for the quarter ended June 30, 2026, Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, on a standalone basis, and 5.10%, 4.42% and 3.23%, respectively, of our revenue from operations for the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, on a consolidated basis.

Omni Channel Distribution and Origination Capabilities

We operate through a pan-India omni-channel "Phygital" network, combining an extensive physical branch infrastructure and digital platform with BDO-led sourcing, feet-on-street sourcing, referral channels, and group synergies to drive customer acquisition, engagement and lifecycle-based cross-sell opportunities. Our "Phygital" model reflects the integration of a high-touch physical network with digitally enabled customer journeys, underwriting, servicing and collections. This integrated approach enables us to transition customers across multiple offerings and strengthen long-term customer retention and engagement.

Branches and Processing Centers

Our branch network is the core engine of customer acquisition, servicing and engagement, particularly for our gold loan business, supported by an extensive, well-distributed physical footprint and dedicated sourcing capabilities, including business development officers who proactively engage customers within local catchments. Through this model, we are able to build awareness, educate customers on product suitability and drive acquisition beyond traditional walk-in channels, resulting in deeper penetration and stronger customer relationships. Our branches also serve as key relationship hubs that enable ongoing engagement across the customer lifecycle, allowing us to cross-sell a broad suite of products and services based on evolving customer needs and are the primary venues for face-to-face customer discussions, collateral or property-related assistance, documentation support, legal and technical coordination and personalised servicing. For selected products, particularly loans against property, housing loans and other underwritten products requiring detailed documentation, verification and credit evaluation, we use processing centers that serve defined local catchments. Our processing centres support branch and field-led origination by coordinating credit checks, tele-verification, legal and technical review and documentation, while restricting customer engagement to our branches and field teams.

As of September 30, 2026, our Company had a network of 3,872 branches and 326 processing centres, located across 25 states and union territories, on standalone basis. A significant proportion of our branches are located in rural and semi-urban locations.

Digital Channel

While our branch network acts as the foundation for customer acquisition, appraisal, disbursal support, servicing and collections, our digital infrastructure enables paperless onboarding, e-KYC, digital execution of agreements, app-based renewals and repayments, lead management, data-driven cross-sell, customer engagement and operating efficiency. This integration is particularly relevant for our customer segments, many of whom prefer a blended journey where select processes take place through people and branches, while repeat transactions and servicing increasingly migrate to digital channels. Our digital infrastructure also supports CRM-based tracking, seamless allocation of leads to field teams and digital communication tools to support origination. This allows us to complement our branch-led origination model by participating in credit demand that arises through digital customer interfaces.

Muthoot FinCorp ONE extends the reach of our branches by functioning as a virtual branch for customers, enabling them to access products and services remotely while continuing to benefit from the trust and relationship embedded in our physical network. Through Muthoot FinCorp ONE, we also source customers through third parties, including QR code-based ecosystems, where such third parties support customer discovery and onboarding through their platforms, while we undertake backend processes including KYC, underwriting and disbursement through integrated digital journeys.

Muthoot FinCorp ONE functions also as a digital funnel, servicing layer and virtual branch for our customers. The platform has scaled, supporting digital MSME lending, digital gold loan top-ups, repayments and cross-sell across products, and enables end-to-end digital journeys including onboarding, KYC, underwriting, disbursement and servicing, either directly or through lending institutions. The application helps source customers, reactivate dormant users, migrate repeat transactions to digital, support assisted digital onboarding, personalise offers, promote renewals and top-ups. The application also serves as a distribution platform for products from other Muthoot Pappachan Group companies including two-wheeler loans and used car loans; third-party lending offerings including personal loans, business loans and education loans; and other financial products including savings, investment, protection and payments.

As of March 31, 2026, Muthoot FinCorp ONE had 83.40 lakh downloads, 13.70 lakh MAU and our disbursements in the Financial Year 2026, through the Muthoot FinCorp ONE application was ₹2,44,908.30 lakhs.

BDOs and Feet-on-Street

In addition to walk-in and branch-led sourcing, we deploy a field-led business development model through business development officers and other feet-on-street personnel who build local demand, generate leads and extend our presence beyond the immediate branch radius. Our business development officers and feet-on-street personnel support customer acquisition, lead sourcing and cross-selling. Together with branch employees, our BDOs and feet-on-street personnel help explain products, assist first-time or less digitally comfortable borrowers, facilitate branch visits and documentation. This model is particularly important for self-employed customers, MSMEs and customers in semi-urban and rural markets who value personalised guidance and face-to-face engagement. The field sales model allows us to identify prospective borrowers in local trade clusters, residential catchments and micro-business ecosystems, deepen relationships with existing customers, and generate cross-sell pools. It also supports geographic penetration in semi-urban and rural markets where trust-based selling and physical outreach can materially improve conversion. As of September 30, 2026, we had a team of 2,886 business development officers and 2,208 feet-on-street personnel.

Referral and Ecosystem-led Sourcing

Our sourcing architecture also includes customer referrals and local ecosystem relationships. Referrals are an important source of acquisition, particularly in gold loans where customer trust and community recommendation play a meaningful role. Our ecosystem relationships are typically non-institutional in nature and comprise entities and individuals, including individuals engaged on a principal-to-principal basis and embedded within local communities. Origination through this channel is supported by a structured digital onboarding process, including identity (Aadhaar/PAN) verification, bank account validation and staff and branch mapping. In addition, we work with ecosystem partners that are onboarded and verified through our internal management system to access other customer segments. These channels help us diversify our origination sources and expand our distribution reach, enabling us to address customer demand arising within external localized ecosystems while continuing to retain servicing relationships and deepen customer engagement.

Lead Sourcing Arrangements

We use lead sourcing arrangements as part of our broader phygital sourcing architecture to widen our origination funnel beyond our own branch catchments and direct channels. These are institutional arrangements and supplement our physical branch network, BDOs, feet-on-street teams, referral and ecosystem channels. Third-party-led channels including lead sourcing arrangements and fintech companies, enable us to access customers across additional segments and geographies while retaining control over customer onboarding, underwriting, servicing and collections, where applicable. We believe these arrangements support high-quality origination across products, improve reach without proportionate branch expansion and strengthen our ability to convert partner-referred leads into long-term customer relationships.

Group Synergies

We benefit from sourcing synergies across the broader Muthoot Pappachan Group, including pursuant to sourcing and referral arrangements with certain Muthoot Pappachan Group companies. Gold loans often act as the first product relationship, after which we seek to deepen customer engagement through non-gold lending, wealth, protection, payments and marketplace offerings. Group synergies also support customer referrals into housing finance, microfinance, insurance and savings products, depending on customer profile and eligibility. This lifecycle-based approach improves conversion economics, supports customer retention and increases revenue diversification by converting a single-product relationship into a broader financial-services relationship over time.

Our omni-channel origination capabilities enable us to source customers across products through multiple, integrated channels. Gold loan origination is primarily driven through our branch network and is increasingly complemented by digital channels. Our digital loans are sourced through our own digital channels, including Muthoot FinCorp ONE, where eligible customers can be onboarded through app-led journeys with digital application flows and we also originate such loans through third-parties with whom we have commercial arrangements. In contrast, our customers for our Business and Personal Finance Division are sourced through a mix of channels, including feet-on-street personnel, branch-led sourcing, digital journeys, digital platform integrations and referrals from ecosystem partners and the broader Muthoot Pappachan Group. Our fee-based offerings are distributed through a combination of our branch network, business development officers, feet-on-street personnel and Muthoot FinCorp ONE. While our branch network acts as the primary customer engagement and servicing touchpoint, particularly in semi-urban and rural markets, dedicated teams and our arrangements with third parties including fintech platforms expand our reach beyond branch catchments and create additional engagement channels.

Muthoot FinCorp ONE

Muthoot FinCorp ONE is our digital platform that has helped in building a holistic financial ecosystem with the latest digital products for lending, investing, protection and payments. It offers in-house products including gold loans, loans against property, business loans, digital loans, and fee-based products; products from other Muthoot Pappachan Group companies including two-wheeler loans and used car loans; third-party lending offerings including personal loans, business loans and education loans; and other financial products including savings, investment, protection and payments. The platform is built with a "Customer First" philosophy, offering choice, convenience and credibility with a "Common Man focus" serving individuals and MSMEs. Muthoot FinCorp ONE supports organic customer acquisition through brand initiatives, website traffic, search engine optimisation, customer referrals and in-app referral programmes. The platform also uses AI-led customer discovery and eligibility evaluation, in-app offers, product pop-ups, repayment reminders, credit-score prompts and personalised journeys to improve discoverability, conversion, retention and cross-sell.

Through Muthoot FinCorp ONE, we have built a digital financial services platform that functions as both a direct customer interface and a marketplace layer within our broader "phygital" model. Customers can access the platform through the mobile application and use it to discover, apply for and service a range of products across loans, savings and investments, protection, and payments and services. The platform is integrated with our wider branch network, enabling a customer journey that can begin digitally and, where needed, continue through branch-assisted fulfilment or support.

One of our key use cases is UPI-led cash flow based lending which is aimed at merchants who receive customer payments through QR-based digital payment systems and require frequent access to small-ticket business credit. The QR-based model enables us to serve merchants with a product proposition that is integrated with their day-to-day payment activity and working capital cycles, leveraging transaction data captured through QR-based ecosystems. In certain third-party-led journeys, repayments are also deducted from the customer's QR-linked settlement account maintained through the relevant third-party's platform, creating a repayment mechanism that is integrated with the merchant's existing collections flow.

In operational terms, Muthoot FinCorp ONE serves several functions simultaneously. First, it is a customer-acquisition interface, allowing users to enter the Muthoot ecosystem digitally, complete authentication using their mobile number, browse available products and initiate applications. Second, it is a servicing and engagement platform, through which customers can make repayments, manage existing relationships and transact across other financial-service categories. Third, it is a marketplace layer, through which customers may access not only products offered directly by us but also selected lending and non-lending products offered by other fintech platforms.

This marketplace structure allows us to serve a wider set of customer needs without limiting the customer journey only to products originated on our own balance sheet. Where a customer's requirement fits our in-house products, the journey can remain within our core product suite. Where the requirement falls outside our own product parameters, tenure preferences, underwriting filters or balance sheet strategy, Muthoot FinCorp ONE allows the customer to be matched with an appropriate third-party offering. In this way, the platform helps us participate in a broader universe of credit and financial-services demand while preserving the customer relationship, retaining engagement within the Muthoot ecosystem and strengthening cross-sell opportunities over time.

We have also developed an integrated loyalty, rewards and retention architecture anchored around Muthoot Blue Rewards ("MBR") on Muthoot FinCorp ONE. Introduced to deepen customer engagement, MBR is designed to encourage repeat usage and strengthen customer relationships across both branch-led and digital journeys. The programme rewards customers for transactions, renewal and referrals across products, thereby creating incentives for continued engagement with our ecosystem. By linking rewards across multiple digital and branch-led services, we are seeking to build a loyalty ecosystem that supports customer retention, improves repeat conversion and creates additional opportunities for cross-sell.

Our Underwriting, Risk Management and Collections Framework

We have developed a product-specific underwriting and collections architecture that is calibrated to the nature of each product, its collateral profile, ticket size, tenor, customer segment and channel of origination. While underwriting standards differ across products, our overall framework seeks to combine front-end business agility with centralised risk oversight, system-controlled approval hierarchies and layered operational checks, supported by rule-based decisioning, eligibility scoring layers and business rule engines embedded within our systems. Broadly, our underwriting model distinguishes between collateral-backed products such as gold loans and loans against property; and cash flow-led products such as business loans and digital loans and ecosystem-led products such as supply chain finance. Across products, the underwriting process typically incorporates KYC and onboarding checks, credit bureau evaluation where relevant, assessment of customer profile and repayment capacity, fraud and verification controls, maker-checker processes, and delegated approval authorities embedded through policies and systems. This allows us to align risk assessment with the economic characteristics of each product rather than applying a single underwriting template across the portfolio.

Gold Loans

Gold loans are underwritten through a collateral-led process designed to ensure authenticity of the pledged jewellery, consistency of valuation and compliance with applicable loan-to-value requirements. Each gold ornament is appraised at the branch in the presence of the borrower by trained personnel using standardised valuation protocols across the network. The initial appraisal is conducted by a trained employee experienced in assessing the gold content of jewellery and is independently verified by another trained employee. The appraisal process uses established testing methods, including nitric acid, touchstone and filing tests, and includes verification of applicable purity standards (18–22 carat), jeweller identification marks and hallmarking centre marks. For loans above ₹1,000,000, the authenticity of the pledged gold is further checked by gold inspectors in the immediate vicinity or by a senior staff member from a nearby branch that has the relevant gold appraisal experience. Customer background verification by the vigilance team is also undertaken prior to disbursal. Our "Eight-Eye Control System" encompasses e-KYC customer onboarding, multilayered gold appraisal, periodic gold quality audits, dual-custody secured strong rooms with motion sensor camera and sensor enabled shutters, security and control room surveillance, periodic internal audits, insurance of pledged gold and the presence of robust security teams across our branch network.

For consumption loans, the loan amounts are determined with reference to the assessed value of the pledged gold, subject to the RBI-prescribed maximum LTV. For income generating loans, the loan amounts are determined with reference to the assessed value of the pledged gold and are provided up to an internally determined LTV threshold. The LTV is determined based on the 22 carat gold price based on the lower of: (a) preceding 30-day moving average Indian Bullion and Jewellery Association price or the previous day's closing price, or (b) the closing price of the preceding day, as published by Indian Bullion and Jewellery Association or a SEBI-regulated commodity exchange.

The principal criteria of the credit decision for consumption loans is the value and quality of the pledged jewellery. For income generating loans, we also assess the customer's credit profile and conduct repayment capacity assessments, including personal discussions, expected cash flow evaluation, and, for larger exposures, bureau-score based eligibility and other system-driven assessment methods. In accordance with applicable KYC requirements, we obtain proof of identity and address from borrowers, conduct bureau checks and analyse account aggregator bank statements. We also capture customer photographs through web cameras installed at our branches at the time of each pledge as part of our documentation and control framework. Our credit assessment follows a tiered approach. For loans of up to ₹ 250,000, we conduct basic credit assessment and customer suitability checks at the branch level. For loans exceeding ₹ 250,000 and up to ₹1,000,000, we conduct a personal discussion to assess the customer's income, family income, existing obligations and expected cash flows, with eligibility determined through the system based on the higher of credit bureau-based eligibility and cash flow-based eligibility. For loans exceeding ₹1,000,000, we undertake a document-based assessment, including verification of six months' bank statements, credit bureau reports and income documents, subject to a minimum credit bureau score requirement.

Following disbursal, all pledged gold jewellery is packed in specially made tamper-evident envelopes and stored in branch strong rooms and defined access protocols. Custody is supported by documented inventory controls, restricted access procedures, insurance coverage and periodic reconciliation between physical packets and system records. Our branch security infrastructure includes strong rooms built to prescribed specifications, IP cameras, motion sensors and round-the-clock monitoring through regional and central control rooms. Post-disbursal controls include periodic gold quality audits and operational audits, supplemented by centralised audit processes to ensure compliance with prescribed quality standards and valuation norms. We also undertake proactive LTV monitoring through automated triggers, including SMS alerts at greater than 80% LTV, notice at greater than 85% and recall at greater than 90%. We have a robust auction process for overdue loans with transparent pre-communication to borrowers.

Our Other Offerings – Loans Against Property, Business Loans, Housing Loans, Supply Chain Finance and Microfinance

For our Business and Personal Finance Division comprising loans against property, business loans, housing loans and supply chain finance, we follow a multi-layered underwriting framework that combines distributed sourcing with centralised credit oversight. We have created product and risk specialisation through a dedicated business unit, supported by distinct hierarchies for sales, credit and collections, enabling focused underwriting, risk assessment and portfolio monitoring across product segments. This framework is further supported by centralised mortgage processing centres and dedicated credit, legal, technical, quality check, collections and operations teams. The underwriting process is designed to evaluate borrower profile, repayment capacity, collateral sufficiency where applicable, end-use and fraud risk, while ensuring that approval authority remains aligned to ticket size, product risk and customer segment.

For loans against property and other secured products, underwriting generally includes preliminary verification at the branch level, including applicant and co-applicant tele-verification, discussions with credit managers, business and property visits, analysis of credit history, bureau review, income and cash-flow assessment, FOIR-based repayment capacity analysis, risk grading, technical property valuation reports, legal title and document evaluation, RCU verification (fraud prevention checks through the risk containment unit), e-NACH registration, CERSAI creation and mortgage creation. Loan disbursals are undertaken only after verification by our centralised operations team, and security documents are digitised, barcoded and stored centrally with a specialised vendor. For loans exceeding ₹15.00 lakhs, two technical property valuation reports are obtained and the lower of the two valuations is considered for loan-to-value determination, where the variance between the two valuation reports should not be more than 15%.

For business loans and other unsecured or partially cash-flow-backed products, underwriting focuses on proof of business vintage or business experience, cash-flow analysis, banking or settlement patterns where available, field verification, personal discussion and policy-driven eligibility filters. For digital loans, rule-based decisioning, automated policy filters and third-party data integrations play a larger role, while exceptions and higher-ticket exposures may be subject to additional manual or centralised review.

For microfinance loans, we have a well-established underwriting policy pursuant to which customer selection is undertaken only after evaluating, among others, household income, obligations, fixed obligations to income ratio, and conducting detailed cash flow analysis. We also use application scorecards that enable us to profile customers based on specified parameters and utilize data-backed underwriting strategies. In addition, to improve our underwriting process, we have credit managers that evaluate credit underwriting and assess the creditworthiness and repayment capacity of new customers.

Our digital capabilities include video-KYC, digital execution of agreements, automated documentation, underwriting, disbursement and collections, enabling faster turnaround while maintaining credit discipline. Our digital underwriting framework leverages AI, ML and business rule engines, eligibility scoring layers, transaction and credit bureau data, behavioural analytics and alternate data-based risk assessment to evaluate customer eligibility, risk profiles and repayment capacity, support fraud detection and facilitate consistent, explainable and low-friction credit decisions across customer segments and is designed to facilitate remote customer onboarding while ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements.

Across these products, we seek to maintain consistency through system-controlled approval hierarchies, defined underwriting scorecards or policy rules, documentation checklists and maker-checker verification. This approach allows us to balance responsiveness to customer demand with portfolio discipline and risk selectivity across diverse products and origination channels.

Early Warning Systems and Portfolio Surveillance

We have established a structured portfolio monitoring and surveillance framework, supported by system-driven monitoring tools and early warning systems intended to identify emerging stress at an early stage, support timely intervention and preserve overall asset quality. Portfolio performance is monitored across a range of credit risk indicators, including delinquency status, repayment behaviour, payment delays, bounce behaviour, overdue positions, loan characteristics, bureau performance and customer demographic attributes, to help identify potential signs of stress and credit deterioration at an early stage.

Our early warning framework relies on management information systems and periodic portfolio reviews that track indicators such as missed or delayed payments, bounce patterns, delinquency bucket migration, adverse customer behaviour, geographic concentration trends and product- or channel-specific stress signals. These indicators are reviewed to identify accounts or segments that show signs of deterioration before they migrate into more severe delinquency buckets. In addition to account-level monitoring, we also review vintage performance and cohort behaviour to assess whether specific origination periods, underwriting approaches, customer segments or sourcing channels are exhibiting higher-than-expected stress. This allows us to take a forward-looking view of portfolio quality rather than relying solely on static delinquency levels.

Where early signs of stress are identified, the relevant accounts, branches, geographies or product segments may be subjected to enhanced scrutiny, frequent reviews and customer interactions. Depending on the nature of the observed stress, management actions may include strengthening follow-up and collection efforts, recalibrating underwriting filters, tightening approval parameters, modifying sourcing focus or increasing scrutiny in specific regions, channels or products. In this way, our surveillance framework is intended not only to identify stress but also to serve as a feedback mechanism into collections, risk management and underwriting.

Collections Infrastructure

Our collections framework is product-specific and anchored in early engagement, graduated intervention and continuous monitoring. For gold loans, collections are primarily managed through our branch-led operating model and supported by multiple repayment channels, including branches, Muthoot FinCorp ONE and our website, together with system-driven customer reminders through SMS, tele-calls, in-app notifications and notices. Gold loans typically have tenures ranging from seven days to 12 months, although customers may redeem their loans at any time before maturity. If a gold loan remains unpaid after due notice, the unredeemed pledged gold may be disposed of by way of public auction on behalf of the customer in satisfaction of principal and interest, in accordance with applicable RBI guidelines. We provide auction notice to customers by registered post or courier at least 15 days before the auction date and publish loan-wise auction details in newspapers.

For our loans under our Business and Personal Finance Division and other non-gold products, collections are managed through a combination of in-house teams and empanelled agencies, supported by dedicated credit, operations and collections teams. Collection strategies are aligned to delinquency buckets and customer behaviour, and include tele-calling, field visits, SMS reminders, automated alerts and interactive voice bots and e-NACH-based repayment support. Repayment channels for these products include branches, digital channels, Muthoot FinCorp ONE and our website, enabling portfolio monitoring, timely intervention and execution discipline across products.

Asset quality management and provisioning discipline

We follow a structured asset quality management and provisioning framework intended to support early risk identification, timely remedial action and prudent recognition of portfolio stress. Asset quality is monitored across products, geographies, customer segments, delinquency buckets and vintage cohorts through management information systems and periodic portfolio reviews. Early warning signals, including payment irregularities, bounce trends, utilisation patterns, behavioural indicators and region- or segment-specific stress, are reviewed to identify emerging risks and support collection prioritization and portfolio containment measures. Provisioning is undertaken in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements including expected credit loss methodologies for relevant portfolios, and is reviewed through internal risk and finance processes.

Our Technology, Data and Digital Infrastructure

Our Company has implemented a scalable "Phygital" technology architecture, a symbiosis of technology and physical infrastructure across approximately 3,872 branches, as of September 30, 2026, designed to support our operations across the entire loan lifecycle, including sourcing, onboarding, underwriting, disbursement, servicing, collections, accounting and regulatory reporting. Our technology infrastructure is managed through Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited ("MPT"), our technology subsidiary situated at the Technopark, Trivandrum, with a dedicated team managing the entire group's technology capabilities. MPT provides in-house technology services to all Muthoot Pappachan Group entities.

Our infrastructure services are managed through a technology vendor as a turnkey management solution. All applications are stored in our own cloud and data center. We are full Disaster Recovery ("DR") ready, and our data is hosted by a third-party cloud service provider. We are focused on strong backend and processing capabilities, with 94.00% of loan creation and releases through digital execution of agreements. We have also entered into dedicated branch leased-line arrangements, typically for terms of three to five years, to provide reliable and secure connectivity across our branch network and support uninterrupted business operations.

We leverage artificial intelligence (including generative artificial intelligence), machine learning and data science capabilities, as well as rule-based decisioning engines across multiple business functions, including credit scoring, fraud detection, customer segmentation, collection prioritisation and personalised product recommendations. These capabilities enable faster, accurate and scalable decision-making while reducing manual intervention and operational risk.

We have implemented comprehensive information security policies, role-based access controls, system monitoring, audit trails and data protection measures. Our business continuity and disaster recovery arrangements are designed to ensure operational resilience. We use AI-enabled cloud audit capabilities and centralised audit monitoring, IP cameras, motion sensors and control rooms are deployed across our branch network. We have 10 regional control rooms across India and one central control room at Thiruvananthapuram to monitor the security and safety of our branches, offices, sites and valuable assets. We also have an additional corporate office control room. All 12 control rooms operate on a 24x7 basis and are manned by security personnel. We also deploy emergency response teams ("ERT") that cover approximately 1,530 branches at night, using GPS-enabled vehicles.

Borrowings, Capital Adequacy, Credit Ratings and Off-Balance Lending

Borrowing profile

We fund our operations through a diversified mix of borrowing sources including term loans from banks and financial institutions, non-convertible debentures, subordinated liabilities, perpetual debt, commercial paper, working capital demand loans and other borrowing instruments including securitisation arrangements.

Capital Adequacy

Capital adequacy is central to our balance sheet strategy and risk management framework. As an NBFC, we are required to maintain minimum capital levels against risk-weighted assets and off-balance sheet exposures, if any, in accordance with applicable RBI requirements. We monitor our capital position on an ongoing basis to support growth, absorb portfolio stress, support the current and projected risk profile of the business under both normal and stressed conditions, meet regulatory thresholds and maintain confidence among lenders, investors and other stakeholders. Our capital management approach seeks to balance growth and profitability with prudence, by maintaining a capital buffer over minimum regulatory requirements and by using a mix of Tier I and eligible Tier II instruments, including subordinated liabilities and perpetual debt instruments, where appropriate, and stress testing under ICAAP for assessing the resilience of the Company's capital position under adverse business and economic conditions.

Credit Ratings

Our credit ratings are an important indicator of market confidence in our financial profile, liability franchise and debt-servicing capability, and support our ability to access diversified funding sources across banks, financial institutions and debt capital markets. We have obtained ratings from rating agencies across our key borrowing instruments, including bank facilities, non-convertible debentures, subordinated debt, perpetual debt instruments and commercial paper. These ratings, together with our track record of NCD issuances and institutional borrowings, support our liability diversification strategy and help us optimise funding access across maturities and instruments. We currently have a long term rating of Crisil AA/Stable. Set out below are details of our credit ratings as of the dates indicated:

Co-lending and Direct Assignment

We utilise co-lending and direct assignment structures to diversify our funding sources, optimise capital allocation and manage balance sheet growth. Through co-lending arrangements with banks, we originate and service loans while sharing risk and capital with such banks. Direct assignments allow us to transfer loan assets to third-party investors while retaining servicing rights. The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, certain information relating to off-book transactions:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	As of and for the year ended March 31,
	2026	2025	2024
Direct Assignment	56,889.45	31,466.98	24,648.50

We maintain an asset-liability management framework intended to preserve liquidity, support business growth and manage maturity and asset-liability mismatches. Given the relatively short-tenor nature of a substantial part of our gold loan portfolio and the diverse tenor profile of our liabilities, disciplined treasury and ALM management are important to our operating model. Our treasury function manages borrowing mix, liquidity buffers, branch cash requirements and liability diversification across banks, financial institutions, debt securities, commercial paper and other instruments. We also maintain liquidity buffers and monitor collateral and debt servicing obligations as part of our debt management approach. At the governance level, ALM oversight is supported through internal committees and policies, with periodic review of maturity gaps, borrowing concentration, funding access and other liquidity indicators, enabling us to align balance-sheet resilience with planned growth.

Capital Allocation

Our capital allocation philosophy is anchored in balancing growth, profitability, resilience and diversification. We seek to allocate capital across products and channels based on a combination of risk-adjusted return potential, asset quality experience, operating scalability, strategic relevance and funding efficiency. Gold loans remain our core product. At the same time, we are allocating incremental capital to selected lending products and adjacent fee-based offerings, to deepen customer relationships and diversify revenue sources. Our leverage philosophy is guided by regulatory capital requirements, lender confidence, rating considerations and internal risk appetite, rather than growth at any cost. In practice, this means we seek to grow the balance sheet while maintaining capital adequacy buffers, diversified funding access and a leverage profile consistent with portfolio quality and liquidity management. We also use off-balance sheet channels such as co-lending and direct assignment selectively to optimise capital deployment and balance-sheet utilisation while continuing to originate and service customer relationships.

Our Customer Engagement and Marketing

Marketing

We undertake a wide range of marketing activities to strengthen brand visibility, deepen customer engagement, and enhance connect with our target segment. Our branding strategy has been anchored by high-impact campaigns featuring our brand ambassadors, including initiatives such as 'Book My Gold Loan', short-format storytelling films, and digital engagement campaigns which have helped drive mass outreach and improve brand recall. In addition, we have also focused on purpose-led storytelling through campaigns such as 'Super Woman', an initiative where we identified and honoured women entrepreneurs across India and 'Success ki Blue Soch', highlighting real customer journeys and community impact. We also recently launched the 'Spark Business Awards', an initiative to recognise and celebrate India's small business owners and micro-entrepreneurs.

Marketing efforts have also included hyperlocal and culturally relevant campaigns across regions and festivals, targeting specific customer cohorts such as traders, women and rural communities. We have further expanded our presence through extensive transit and out-of-home media across buses, trains, metros and other high-visibility platforms, alongside digital campaigns and strengthened public relations initiatives to position our leadership as thought leaders. These efforts, combined with on-ground initiatives such as 'Gramitra', a financial literacy and empowerment initiative in rural India, have contributed to enhancing brand trust, visibility and customer engagement across geographies.

Customer Engagement

Our customer engagement strategy is anchored in our physical, branch-led model and supported by digital platforms and targeted engagement initiatives. Our extensive branch network remains the primary customer touchpoint, particularly for gold loans, where face-to-face interaction, local presence and personalised service are critical to building trust, understanding customer requirements and supporting origination, servicing, collections and repeat engagement. As of September 30, 2026, our Company had a network of 3,872 branches. This physical engagement is complemented by our digital platform, Muthoot FinCorp ONE, which enables customers to access app-based services, multilingual support and integrated assistance across call centres and branches, thereby strengthening our phygital customer experience.

We have further strengthened engagement through initiatives such as the Muthoot Blue Rewards (MBR) loyalty program. The Muthoot Blue Rewards program rewards users for transactions, renewals and referrals. In addition, we leverage structured customer feedback mechanisms, including tracking and resolution of service issues and periodic analysis of complaint patterns across products, geographies and customer segments, to continuously improve service quality and customer experience. Our customer grievance redressal framework follows a multi-level escalation process, with complaints received through branches, call centres, our website and email recorded in a centralised portal. Complaints that are wholly or partly rejected are automatically escalated to an independent Internal Ombudsman within 20 days of receipt, and all complaints are required to be resolved within 30 days, in accordance with applicable RBI directions. These efforts, together with proactive communication, localised outreach and our "phygital" approach, enable us to drive customer retention, satisfaction and long-term engagement.

Competition

The financial services industry in India is highly competitive. We compete with banks, other NBFCs, fintech players and informal lenders in the regions we operate. Our competitors may have advantages, including access to lower-cost and diversified funding, stronger brand recognition, wider distribution networks, larger customer bases and greater technological capabilities. Competitors may also offer loans at lower interest rates, with more flexible repayment terms, lower or waived processing fees, faster digital journeys or other terms that are more favourable than ours. According to the Crisil Report, our competitors include Muthoot Finance Limited, IIFL Finance Limited and Manappuram Finance Limited.

Also see, "Risk Factors – We operate in a highly competitive environment, and our inability to compete effectively may adversely affect our business and results of operations." on page 33.

Human Resources and Employees

Our Company's human resources strategy is anchored in a professionally managed leadership structure, with experienced senior management and dedicated business and functional heads overseeing key verticals, with product-specific leadership, dedicated origination leaders, separate underwriting, operations, collections, technology, compliance and audit capabilities, and a team of 30,436 employees, on a standalone basis, as of September 30, 2026, across operations, customer support, underwriting, sales, collections and technology operating across 3,872 branches, as of September 30, 2026.

Our recruitment efforts are focused on building a diverse and capable workforce, including through fresh talent intake, local hiring and role-based capability development. We have undertaken a comprehensive evaluation of over 450 unique roles, supported by external benchmarking and competency mapping to align roles with business needs and industry standards. These initiatives are complemented by structured induction, continuous training and development programmes delivered through classroom, digital and on-the-job learning formats. Our training programs include leadership and role-effectiveness programmes for branch, junior, middle and senior management, including programs focused on first-time managers, career progression, customer service, sales, process discipline and product knowledge. 100% of our employees undergo training, upskilling and have access to professional development opportunities.

We have also digitised several human resources processes and functions including onboarding, exit management processes, payroll and compliance. Our performance management framework is supported by transparent, data-driven systems, including dashboards that provide visibility on targets and achievements, with the objective of aligning employee performance with business goals. We also operate structured reward and recognition programmes, including monetary and non-monetary recognition aimed at enhancing productivity, engagement and retention.

Our workforce reflects our focus on diversity, inclusion and employee wellbeing, supported by equal opportunity policies, engagement initiatives and welfare measures including pan-India employee engagement initiatives, senior leadership townhalls, employee feedback and helpdesk platforms, wellbeing programmes covering physical and mental wellness, and employee welfare support such as housing assistance, medical assistance and insurance coverage for eligible employees. We have institutionalised employee wellbeing through the 'Muthootian's Health Triangle', a structured programme encompassing physical, mental, intellectual, spiritual and social wellbeing through initiatives such as virtual marathons and step challenges, expert-led yoga and meditation sessions, annual preventive health checkups, employee interest clubs covering photography, poetry, public speaking, running and motorcycling, knowledge sharing sessions, access to professional counselling, an employee volunteer network providing assistance during medical emergencies and natural disasters, and ongoing wellness engagement through our in-house MHT App and periodic circulars. Our human resources practices have received external recognition, including certification as a "Great Place to Work" and recognitions such as "Top Rated Companies for Women", "Best Workplaces in Health and Wellness", "Best Workplaces in BFSI", "India's Best Companies to Work For" and "India's Best Workplaces in NBFC".

Intellectual Property, Licenses and Registrations

As of March 31, 2026, we had one registered trademark in respect of the logo "Muthoot FinCorp PharmaMitra Business loans for medical stores & allied businesses" under class 36. In addition, we have filed 8 trademark applications which are currently pending at various stages of the registration process. Further, pursuant to a trademark licence agreement, our Company has obtained a license to use the trademarks owned by Muthoot Holdings Private Limited, a promoter group entity. Our logo muthoot FINCORP, is pending registration, and the application filed by our Promoters for registration of the logo has been opposed, although there are currently no restrictions on its use. Also see, "Risk Factors – We rely on the "MUTHOOT" and "Muthoot Pappachan" brand names and any failure to protect, register or continue using such trademarks and logos could adversely affect our business and competitive position." on page 24.

We are registered with the RBI as an NBFC pursuant to a certificate of registration dated July 23, 2002. We are also registered with the IRDAI as a corporate agent (composite), pursuant to a certificate of registration dated January 16, 2025, as a 'Point of Presence' with the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority pursuant to a letter of registration dated September 5, 2018 further renewed pursuant to a letter dated February 17, 2023 and as a depository participant of CDSL with SEBI pursuant to a certificate of registration dated May 10, 2019 and depository participant of NSDL with SEBI pursuant to an agreement between NSDL and our Company dated July 7, 2025.

Insurance

We maintain insurance policies and coverage that we believe are customary for companies operating in our industry. Our principal types of coverage include insurance for directors' and officers' liability insurance, group personal accident insurance, group mediclaim and group term life insurance, insurance covering pledged gold and other valuables, including while held at our premises or in transit, property insurance covering buildings, furniture, fixtures, signboards, electronic equipment, plant and machinery against risks including fire, burglary and machinery breakdown; public liability, commercial crime and cyber-risk insurance.

Please see, "Risk Factors – Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition." on page 37.

Awards and Recognitions

We have received multiple awards and recognitions that reflect our brand strength, customer focus and people-first culture, including "Top Rated Financial Services Company", "Best NBFC" and "Top 50 India's Best Workplaces in Health and Wellness". These recognitions are underpinned by our continued focus on financial inclusion and customer-centricity, with a significant portion of our business serving customers in non-metro geographies. For further details, see "History and Certain Corporate Matters" on page 136.

CSR and ESG Initiatives

ESG Initiatives

Our ESG initiatives are embedded in our core values and focus on driving sustainable, inclusive growth across environmental, social and governance dimensions.

Environment: On the environmental front, we have prioritised digitisation and paperless processes, adoption of energy-efficient infrastructure, and responsible waste management practices, including recycling of e-waste and use of renewable energy initiatives. For instance, during the Financial Year 2026, we expanded the adoption of paperless lending and digital execution of agreements across our branch network.

A portion of our energy requirements is met from energy generated by our wind farm in Tamil Nadu, which reflects our long-standing orientation towards resource efficiency and sustainability, and includes 19 wind turbine generators with 23.23 MW installed wind power capacity, as of March 31, 2026, contributing power to the grid over multiple decades. In addition to its role as a long-duration sustainability initiative, this business demonstrates our diversification beyond financial services. Our income from power generation was ₹957.20 lakhs, ₹919.40 lakhs and ₹886.40 lakhs, during Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

We are also actively pursuing the integration of renewable energy solutions to reduce our environmental footprint.

Social: We are committed to financial inclusion by extending credit to underserved communities, supporting women customers and entrepreneurs, and investing in community initiatives across healthcare, education and livelihoods through our CSR programmes. We also emphasise employee well-being, diversity and inclusion, supported by structured training, development programmes and workplace policies.

Governance: We maintain strong oversight through an independent Board and committees, robust risk management and compliance frameworks, and a culture of transparency, ethics and accountability in all our operations.

CSR Initiatives

Our CSR initiatives are focused on healthcare, education and livelihood development. Some of our initiatives include the 'Smiles Mission' that helped support over 3,000 cleft surgeries in Financial Year 2025, the Muthoot Football Academy which nurtures young football talent from underserved communities through a fully residential model and scholarship programs for students.

In the Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, our CSR expenses were ₹ 333.22, ₹ 458.82 and ₹ 403.85, on a standalone basis, respectively, and ₹ 1,075.60 lakhs, ₹ 1,184.30 lakhs and ₹ 817.80 lakhs, respectively, on a consolidated basis. Our CSR expenses for the quarter ended June 30, 2026 were ₹ 285.72, on a standalone basis.

Properties

Our registered and corporate office is located at Muthoot Centre, TC No 27/ 3022*, Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram 695 001, Kerala, India which is held on a leasehold basis. Further, our registered and corporate office property is not leased from a related party of our Company.

REGULATIONS AND POLICIES

The regulations summarized below are not exhaustive and are only intended to provide general information to Investors and are neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for any professional legal advice. Taxation statutes such as the IT Act, GST laws (including CGST, SGST and IGST) and applicable local sales tax statutes, labour laws and other miscellaneous regulations such as the Trade Marks Act, 1999 and applicable Shops and Establishments statutes apply to us as they do to any other Indian company and therefore have not been detailed below.

The following description is a summary of certain sector specific laws and regulations in India, which are applicable to our Company. The information detailed in this chapter has been obtained from publications available in the public domain. The regulations set out below may not be exhaustive and are only intended to provide general information to the investors and are neither designed nor intended to substitute for professional legal advice. The statements below are based on the current provisions of the Indian law, and the judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, which are subject to change or modification by subsequent legislative, regulatory, administrative or judicial decisions.

Our Company is a non-banking financial company (NBFC) – Middle Layer which does not accept public deposits. As such, our business activities are inter-alia regulated by RBI regulations applicable to a Non-Deposit taking Non-Banking Financial Company – Middle Layer.

Principal business criteria and NBFC classification

The RBI is entrusted with the responsibility of regulating and supervising NBFCs by virtue of powers vested in Chapter IIIB of the RBI Act. The RBI Act defines an NBFC as: (a) a financial institution which is a company; (b) a non-banking institution which is a company and which is in the principal business of receiving deposits, under any scheme or arrangement or in any other manner, or lending in any manner; or (c) such other non-banking institution or class of institutions as the RBI may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, and by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

The RBI Act, further defines a 'financial institution' to mean a non-banking institution which, among other things, includes carrying on the business or as part of its business, financing activities, whether by way of making loans or advances or otherwise, of any activity, other than its own or the acquisition of shares/stock/bonds/debentures/securities issued by the Government of India or other local authorities or other marketable securities of like nature.

RBI has clarified through a press release (Ref. No. 1998-99/1269) issued in April 8,1999, that in order to identify a particular company as an NBFC, it will consider both the assets and the income pattern as evidenced from the last audited balance sheet of the company to decide a company's principal business. The company will be treated as an NBFC if its financial assets are more than 50 per cent of its total assets (netted off by intangible assets) and income from financial assets should be more than 50 per cent of the gross income. Both these tests are required to be satisfied in order to determine the principal business of a company.

Every NBFC is required to submit to the RBI a certificate, from its statutory auditor within 5 working days from the date of signing of the auditor's report in terms of section 134 of the Companies Act, 2013, but not later than December 31 of same year, in any case, based on audited books of accounts of the applicable entity for the preceding financial year, together with such other submissions/returns to the RBI as specified in the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Filing of Supervisory Returns) Directions, 2024, as amended and any other related rules, regulations, directions, circulars.

Being an NBFC, our Company is inter-alia governed by the RBI Act, Scale Based Regulations, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Asset Liability Management) Directions, 2025, Master Direction - Reserve Bank of India (Internal Ombudsman) Directions, 2026, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Responsible Business Conduct) Directions, 2025 Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Managing Risks in Outsourcing) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Cybersecurity, Technology: Risk, Resilience and Assurance Framework) Directions, 2026, Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Filing of Supervisory Returns) Directions, 2024, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Financial Statements: Presentation and Disclosures) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies– Credit Facilities) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Branch Authorisation) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies - Acceptance of Public Deposits) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Resolution of Stressed Assets) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies - Concentration Risk Management) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Prudential Norms on Capital Adequacy) Directions, 2025, Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Miscellaneous) Directions, 2025. In addition to these regulations, NBFCs are also governed by various circulars, notifications, guidelines and directions issued by the RBI from time to time.

The major regulations governing our Company are detailed below:

The RBI had issued multiple master directions dated November 28, 2025 to ensure a comprehensive regulatory framework covering all NBFC categories. Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Registration, Exemptions and Framework for Scale Based Regulation) Directions, 2025 ("Scale Based Regulations"). The Scale Based Regulations divide NBFCs into four layers based on their size, activity, and perceived risk.

i) NBFC- Base Layer ("NBFC-BL");
ii) NBFC- Middle Layer ("NBFC-ML"); iii) NBFC- Upper layer ("NBFC-UL"); and
iv) NBFC- Top Layer ("NBFC-TL")

Base layer – The base layer comprises non-deposit taking NBFCs with assets worth up to ₹1,00,000 lakhs and NBFCs undertaking the following activities (i) NBFC-Peer to Peer Lending Platform (NBFC-P2P), (ii) NBFC-Account Aggregator (NBFC-AA), (iii) Non-Operative Financial Holding Company (NOFHC), and NBFCs not availing public funds and not having any customer interface.

Middle layer – The middle layer comprises deposit-taking NBFCs irrespective of asset size, non-deposit-taking NBFCs with assets worth ₹1,00,000 lakhs or more, as well as NBFCs undertaking activities such as housing finance companies, standalone primary dealers, infrastructure debt fund –NBFCs, core investment companies and infrastructure finance companies.

Upper layer – The Upper Layer shall comprise of those NBFCs which are specifically identified annually by the RBI as warranting enhanced regulatory requirement based on the criteria provided in paragraph 24 of the Scale Based Regulations.

Top layer – The Master Directions require the top layer to remain empty unless, in the opinion of the RBI, there is a substantial increase in the potential systemic risk from specific NBFCs in the upper layer. Such NBFCs will be moved from the upper layer to the top layer.

Under the Scale Based Regulations, all regulations applicable to an NBFC-BL are also applicable to an NBFC-ML, unless specified otherwise. Further, from October 1, 2022, all references to NBFC-ND (i.e., non-systemically important non-deposit taking NBFC) shall mean NBFC-BL and all references to NBFC-D (i.e., deposit taking NBFC) and NBFC-ND-SI (systemically important non-deposit taking NBFC) shall mean NBFC-ML or NBFC-UL, as the case may be.

As on date of filing of this Draft Shelf Prospectus the Company falls under the category of NBFC-ML, as its assets size is above ₹ 1,00,000 lakhs, as per the last audited balance sheet.

Rating of NBFCs

Pursuant to the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Miscellaneous) Directions, 2025 dated November 28, 2025 , NBFCs with asset size of ₹ 10,000 lakh and above are required to furnish information about downgrading / upgrading of assigned rating of any financial product issued by them, within fifteen days of such a change in rating, to the regional office of the RBI under whose jurisdiction their registered office is functioning.

Prudential Norms

The Scale Based Regulations, read with the applicable master directions issued by the RBI, inter alia, provide for requirements applicable to NBFC-ML in relation to capital requirement, income recognition, asset classification, provisioning requirements, constitution of audit committee, capital adequacy requirements, concentration of credit/ investment and norms relating to gold loans. Further, under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies - Concentration Risk Management) Directions, 2025 dated November 28, 2025, the concentration of credit/ investment norms shall not apply to non-banking financial company not accessing public funds in India, either directly or indirectly, and not issuing guarantees.

Provisioning Requirements

In accordance with the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning) Directions, 2025, as amended from time to time ("IRACP Directions"), NBFCs are required to hold impairment allowances as required under Ind AS. In parallel, NBFCs are required to maintain the asset classification and compute provisions as per these directions including standard asset provisioning, borrower / beneficiary wise classification, provisioning for standard as well as restructured assets, non-performing assets ageing etc., which shall act as the prudential floor for provisioning requirements.

In accordance with the IRACP Directions, NBFC-MLs are required to make provisions for standard assets of 0.40% of the outstanding, which shall not be reckoned for arriving at the net NPAs. The provision towards standard assets shall not be netted from gross advances but are required to be shown separately as 'Contingent Provisions against Standard Assets' in the balance sheet of the NBFCs.

Capital Adequacy Norms

As per the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Prudential Norms on Capital Adequacy) Directions, 2025 ("Capital Adequacy Directions"), all NBFC primarily engaged in lending against gold jewellery shall maintain a minimum Tier 1 capital and Capital to Risk-weighted Asset Ratio (CRAR) of 12 per cent and 15 per cent respectively of the aggregate Risk Weighted Assets (RWAs). The Tier 2 capital of the NBFC, at any point of time, shall not exceed 100 per cent of Tier 1 capital.

"Tier I Capital" means owned fund as reduced by investment in shares of other non-banking financial companies and in shares, debentures, bonds, outstanding loans and advances including hire purchase and lease finance made to and deposits with subsidiaries and companies in the same group exceeding, in aggregate, ten per cent of the owned fund.

Owned Funds, are defined as paid up equity capital, preference shares which are compulsorily convertible into equity, free reserves, balance in share premium account and capital reserves representing surplus arising out of sale proceeds of asset, excluding reserves created by revaluation of asset, as reduced by accumulated loss balance, book value of intangible assets and deferred revenue expenditure, if any.

Tier 2 capital of an NBFC shall comprise the following: (i) Preference shares other than those which are compulsorily convertible into equity; (ii) Revaluation Reserves at a discounted rate of 55 per cent; (iii) General provisions (including that for Standard Assets) and loss reserves to the extent these are not attributable to actual diminution in value or identifiable potential loss in any specific asset and are available to meet unexpected losses, to the extent of 1.25 per cent of RWAs; (iv) Hybrid debt capital instruments; (v) Subordinated debt.

Hybrid Debt means a capital instrument which possesses certain characteristics of equity as well as of debt.

Subordinated Debt means an instrument, which is fully paid up, unsecured, subordinated to the claims of other creditors, free from restrictive clauses, and is not redeemable at the instance of the holder or without the consent of the supervisory authority of the NBFC.

Asset Classification

As per the IRACP Directions, all NBFCs are required to adopt the asset classification and provisioning norms as set forth below:

- A "standard asset" means the asset in respect of which no default in repayment of principal or payment of interest is perceived and which does not disclose any problem or carry more than normal risk attached to the business.
- A "sub-standard asset" means (a) an asset which has been classified as non-performing asset for a period not exceeding 12 months; (b) an asset where the terms of the agreement regarding interest and/or principal have been renegotiated or rescheduled or restructured after commencement of operations, until the expiry of one year of satisfactory performance under the renegotiated or rescheduled or restructured terms.
- A "doubtful asset" means (a) a term loan, or (b) a lease asset, or (c) a hire purchase asset, or (d) any other asset, which remains a sub-standard asset for a period exceeding 12 months.
- A "loss asset" means (a) an asset which has been identified as loss asset by an NBFC or its internal or external auditor or by the RBI during the inspection of the NBFC, to the extent it is not written off by the NBFC; and (b) an asset which is adversely affected by a potential threat of non-recoverability due to either erosion in the value of security or non-availability of security or due to any fraudulent act or omission on the part of the borrower.

For an NBFC-ML, a "non-performing asset" means: (a) an asset, in respect of which, interest has remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (b) a term loan inclusive of unpaid interest, when the instalment is overdue for a period of more than 90 days or on which interest amount remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (c) a demand or call loan, which remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days from the date of demand or call or on which interest amount remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (d) a bill which remains overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (e) the interest in respect of a debt or the income on receivables under the head 'other current assets' in the nature of short term loans/advances, which facility remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (f) any dues on account of sale of assets or services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred, which remained overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (g) the lease rental and hire purchase instalment, which has become overdue for a period of more than 90 days; (h) in respect of loans, advances and other credit facilities (including bills purchased and discounted), the balance outstanding under the credit facilities (including accrued interest) made available to the same borrower/beneficiary when any of the above credit facilities becomes non-performing asset. Provided that in the case of lease and hire purchase transactions, an NBFC is required to classify each such account on the basis of its record of recovery.

As per the IRACP Directions, loan accounts classified as NPAs may be upgraded as 'standard' asset only if entire arrears of interest and principal are paid by the borrower. With regard to upgradation of accounts classified as NPA due to restructuring, non-achievement of date of commencement of commercial operations, etc., the instructions as specified for such cases shall continue to be applicable.

Net Owned Fund

A company categorized as an NBFC is required to have a net owned fund of ₹25 lakhs or such other amount, not exceeding ₹10,000 lakhs, as the RBI may, by notification in the official gazette, specify from time to time.

For this purpose, the RBI Act has defined "Net Owned Fund" to mean:

1) The aggregate of the paid-up equity capital and free reserves as disclosed in the latest balance sheet of the company, after deducting:
   (i) accumulated balance of losses,
   (ii) deferred revenue expenditure, and
   (iii) other intangible assets,

2) further reduced by the amounts representing,
   (i) investment by such companies in shares of (a) its subsidiaries, (b) companies in the same group, (c) other NBFCs; and
   (ii) the book value of debentures, bonds, outstanding loans and advances (including hire purchase and lease finance) made to, and deposits with (a) subsidiaries of such companies; and (b) companies in the same group, to the extent such amount exceeds 10 per cent. of (1) above.

Reserve Fund

Further, NBFCs are required to obtain a certificate of registration from the RBI prior to commencement of the business as a non-banking financial institution. Pursuant to Section 45-IC of the RBI Act, every NBFC is required to create a reserve fund and transfer thereto a sum not less than 20% of its net profit every year, as disclosed in the profit and loss account and before any dividend is declared by such company. Further, no appropriation can be made from such fund by the NBFC except for the purposes specified by the RBI from time to time and every such appropriation shall be reported to the RBI within 21 days from the date of such withdrawal.

Information with respect to change of address, directors, auditors, etc. to RBI

Under Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Miscellaneous) Directions, 2025, all NBFCs are required to inform the RBI of any change in the address, telephone no's, etc. of its registered office/corporate office, names and addresses of its directors/auditors, names and designations of its principal officers, the specimen signatures of its authorised signatories, within one month from the occurrence of such an event.

Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Know Your Customer) Directions, 2025 ("RBI KYC Directions")

The RBI issued the NBFC - Know Your Customer Directions dated November 28, 2025 as a specialized framework applying to all categories of NBFCs, including Housing Finance Companies, and requiring them to align their internal KYC policies with the sector-specific mandates provided therein, including video-based customer identification process (V-CIP) while undertaking a transaction. In terms of the RBI KYC Directions, NBFCs shall duly adopt a KYC policy which is duly approved by the board of directors or a duly constituted committee thereof. The KYC policy formulated in terms of the RBI KYC Directions is required to include four key elements, namely, customer acceptance policy; risk management policy; customer identification procedures; and monitoring of transactions.

All NBFCs are required to ensure compliance with the KYC policy through specification of who constitutes 'senior management' for the purpose of KYC compliance; allocation of responsibility for effective implementation of policies and procedures; independent evaluation of the compliance of KYC and anti-money laundering policies and procedures; concurrent/internal audit system to verify the compliance with KYC and anti-money policies and procedures; and submission of quarterly audit and compliance to the audit committee. The RBI KYC Directions further require that such programmes shall include adequate safeguards on the confidentiality and use of information exchanged, including safeguards to prevent tipping-off. NBFCs shall apply a risk-based approach for mitigation and management of the risks and shall have board approved policies, controls and procedures in this regard. Further, NBFCs shall implement a customer due diligence programme, having regard to identified risks and size of business, and NBFCs should monitor implementation of controls and enhance them if necessary. The RBI KYC Directions have also issued instructions on sharing of information while ensuring secrecy and confidentiality of information held by NBFCs. The NBFCs must also adhere to the reporting requirements under Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act and Common Reporting Standards and ensure compliance with requirements/obligations as per applicable provisions of the Unlawful Activities Prevention ("UAPA") Act, 1967. The NBFCs must also pay adequate attention to any money-laundering and financing of terrorism threats that may arise from new or developing technologies and ensure that appropriate KYC procedures issued from time to time are duly applied before introducing new products/services/technologies.

The RBI KYC Directions have: (i) enhanced the disclosure requirements under the Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002, and the rules made thereunder; (ii) accommodated authentication as per the Aadhaar (Targeted Delivery of Financial and Other Subsidies, Benefits and Services) Act, 2016; and (iii) use of an Indian resident's Aadhar number as a document for the purposes of fulfilling KYC requirement. With a view to leveraging the digital channels for customer identification process by regulated entities, the RBI KYC Directions permit video-based customer identification process as a consent based alternate method of establishing the customer's identity, for customer onboarding. In the accounts opening procedure by NBFCs, in case a person who desires to open an account is not able to produce documents, NBFCs may at their discretion open accounts subject to certain conditions, including monitoring of the account. The RBI KYC Directions require NBFCs to undertake enhanced due diligence measures for non-face-to-face onboarding of customers, without meeting the customer physically or through V-CIP, through use of digital channels such as CKYCR, DigiLocker, equivalent e-document, etc., and non-digital modes such as obtaining copy of officially valid documents certified by additional certifying authorities as allowed for NRIs and PIOs. Additionally, RBI KYC Directions also instruct on ensuring meticulous compliance with Weapons of Mass Destruction and their Delivery Systems (Prohibition of Unlawful Activities) Act, 2005 as well as the recent amendments to the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 and the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005.

The RBI KYC Directions also instruct in relation to wire transfers (including (i) information requirements for wire transfers, and (ii) responsibilities of regulated entities effecting wire transfers), and to align the guidelines contained in the RBI KYC Directions with the relevant recommendations by the Financial Action Task Force. The RBI KYC Directions require NBFCs to obtain additional or updated information from any customer, to furnish the updated information to Central Know Your Customer Record Registry ("CKYCR") within seven days of the commencement of the account-based relationship. NBFCs are mandated to ensure periodic updation of KYC. For low-risk individual customers where periodic KYC is pending, transactions may be permitted provided the update is finalized by the earlier of one year from the due date or the finalized cut-off of June 30, 2026. Lastly, NBFCs must send at least three advance notices (including one intimation by letter) before the KYC due date and three reminders (including one reminder by letter) if KYC remains incomplete, clearly outlining the process, escalation matrix, and consequences. NBFCs are also required to undertake enhanced due diligence for higher-risk customers and transactions, including those involving cash-intensive activities such as gold lending.

Accounting Standards & Accounting policies

Accounting Standards and guidance notes issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India are required to be followed by NBFCs insofar as they are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of the Directions on the Presentation and Disclosures of the Financial Statements. NBFCs that are required to implement Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as per the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 shall prepare their financial statements in accordance with Ind AS notified by the Government of India and shall comply with the regulatory guidance specified in these directions. Disclosure requirements for notes to accounts as per the Directions on the Presentation and Disclosures of the Financial Statements shall continue to apply.

Rule 4 of Ind AS provides that NBFCs whose equity or debt securities are listed or in the process of listing on any stock exchange in India or outside India and having net worth less than ₹ 50,000 lakh shall comply with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) for accounting periods beginning on or after the 1st April, 2019, with comparatives for the periods ending on 31st March, 2019, or thereafter. Other NBFCs shall comply with the requirements of Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2021, as amended from time to time, in so far as they are not inconsistent with any of Directions / Guidelines issued by RBI.

Implementation of Green Initiative of the Government

Under Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Miscellaneous) Directions, 2025 dated November 28, 2025, NBFCs shall take proactive steps for increasing the use of electronic payment systems, elimination of post-dated cheques and gradual phase-out of cheques in their day-to-day business transactions which would result in more cost-effective transactions and faster and accurate settlements.

Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Filing of Supervisory Returns) Directions, 2024 dated February 27, 2024

The Returns Master Direction lists detailed instructions in relation to submission of supervisory returns prescribed by the RBI for various categories of commercial banks, AIFIs, NBFCs, etc., including their periodicity, reference date, applicability and the purpose of filing such returns. The Returns Master Direction on filing returns prescribes timelines for submission of returns, and such timeline will depend on the frequency at which the return is to be submitted.

The said master directions are applicable on supervised entities which includes all NBFCs except for HFCs and asset reconstruction companies. The said master direction prescribes for provisions in relation to responsibilities of the board and senior management, data architecture and IT infrastructure, accuracy and integrity in reporting, applicable returns, a general description of returns, timelines for return submissions, alternate timelines for submission of select returns, mode of submission of returns along with details of online portals for submission of returns by supervised entities.

Risk-Based Internal Audit (RBIA)

In terms of the RBIA Guidelines, the non-deposit taking NBFCs with an asset size of ₹5,00,000 lakhs and above are required to implement the RBIA framework in accordance with RBIA Guidelines. The RBIA Guidelines, inter alia, are intended to enhance the efficacy of internal audit systems and contribute to the overall improvement of governance, risk management and control processes followed by the NBFCs. Under the RBIA Guidelines, the board of directors of the NBFC must approve a policy clearly documenting the purpose, authority, and responsibility of the internal audit activity, with a clear demarcation of the role and expectations from risk management function and the RBIA function. It is also mandated that the policy be reviewed periodically, and that the internal audit function is not outsourced. Further, the RBIA Guidelines also require that the risk assessment of business and other functions of NBFCs should be conducted at least on an annual basis.

Reserve Bank of India (Cybersecurity, Technology: Risk, Resilience and Assurance Framework) Directions, 2026

The RBI notified the IT Governance Directions to consolidate and update regulations pertaining to the governance of information technology and the risks, assurance practices, control mechanisms and disaster management associated with IT and cyber security. The IT Governance Directions apply to all NBFCs, including all NBFC-BL, NBFC-ML and NBFC-TL with effect from April 1, 2024, but excludes NBFC-Core Investment Companies. With the coming into effect of these regulations, the information technology framework directions for the NBFC sector will stand repealed, but only to the extent as applicable to NBFC-TL, NBFC-ML and NBFC-UL. The key requirements are as follows:

IT Governance: The IT Governance Directions lays down a framework for information technology ("IT Governance Framework") that focuses on strategic alignment, risk management, resource management, performance management and disaster recovery management. NBFCs are obligated to set up an IT Governance Framework that specifies the governance structure adhering to the business objectives of the respective NBFC, that specifies the roles of the board of directors and includes adequate oversight mechanisms to mitigate risks associated with cyber and information security. Under the IT Governance Framework, an IT Strategy Committee ("ITSC"), information security and information technology steering committee must be established that shall, inter alia, ensure that the NBFC has an effective IT strategic planning process and the NBFC's IT governance provides for accountability. The risk management policy, which shall include IT related risks and cyber security related risks, shall be reviewed periodically by the risk management committee of the board, in consultation with the ITSC.

IT Infrastructure and Services Management: The IT Governance Directions also mandates NBFCs to have a framework that supports their information systems and infrastructure to ensure operational resilience. In the event there are third-parties handling the NBFC's information technology or cyber security, the NBFC is required to put in place appropriate vendor risk assessment processes to, inter alia, mitigate risk and to eliminate and address any conflict of interests.

IT Information and Security Risk Management: Under the IT Governance Directions, NBFCs are mandated to set up a framework that, inter alia, contains internal control and processes to mitigate and manage risks, identifies critical information systems and provides for the fortification of the same and contains procedures and controls to ensure a secure transmission/ storage/ processing of data and information.

Business Continuity Plan and Disaster Recovery Policy: The IT Governance Directions prescribe a business continuity plan and disaster recovery policy in order to reduce the likelihood and impact of disruptive incident and to ensure the continuity of business. Disaster recovery drills in relation to critical information are required to be done at least on a half-yearly basis and for other information systems, as per the risk assessment of the NBFC.

Information System ("IS") Audit: The IT Governance Directions states that the audit committee of the board shall overlook the functioning of the IS Audit. All entities are required to have an IS audit policy that shall describe the mandate, scope and purpose of the audit. The audit committee, under the IT Governance Directions, has to review the critical issues related to IT, information security and cyber security and thereafter, provide guidance to the management regarding the same.

Master Directions on Fraud Risk Management in Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) (including Housing Finance Companies) dated July 15, 2024

The RBI issued revised master directions on July 15, 2024, specifically targeting fraud risk management in NBFCs and HFCs. These master directions prescribe a comprehensive framework for prevention, early detection, investigation and reporting of frauds by NBFCs (including housing finance companies), and have superseded the earlier Master Direction – Monitoring of Frauds in NBFCs (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016. The Directions require NBFCs to adopt a Board-approved fraud risk management policy, establish appropriate governance structures, and implement systems for early detection of frauds, including monitoring of early warning signals and use of analytics. NBFCs are required to conduct timely investigations, adhere to principles of natural justice prior to classification of fraud, and ensure staff accountability. Further, NBFCs are required to report frauds to the RBI and law enforcement agencies within prescribed timelines, maintain confidentiality of customer information, and strengthen internal controls, audit and monitoring mechanisms. The Directions also provide for penal measures against entities classified as fraudulent and require appropriate disclosures in financial statements.

Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Managing Risks in Outsourcing) Directions, 2025 dated November 28, 2025

The Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Managing Risks in Outsourcing) Directions, 2025, as amended from time to time, which are instructions on managing risks and code of conduct in outsourcing of financial services by NBFCs, specify the activities that cannot be outsourced and also provide the basis for deciding materiality of outsourcing. It mandates the regulatory and supervisory requirements and risk management practices to be complied with by every NBFC before outsourcing its activities. Further, an NBFC intending to outsource any of the permitted activities under these directions is required to formulate an outsourcing policy which is to be approved by its board of directors.

Fair practice code

All NBFCs having customer interface are required to adopt a fair practices code in line with the guidelines prescribed under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Responsible Business Conduct) Directions, 2025 ("Responsible Business Conduct Directions"). The Responsible Business Conduct Directions stipulate that such fair practices code should cover, inter alia, the form and manner of processing of loan applications; loan appraisal and terms and conditions thereof; and disbursement of loans and changes in terms and conditions of loans. The Responsible Business Conduct Directions also prescribe general conditions to be observed by NBFCs in respect of loans and requires the board of directors of NBFCs to lay down a grievance redressal mechanism. Such fair practices code should preferably be in vernacular language or language understood by borrowers of the NBFCs.

The Reserve Bank has been receiving several complaints regarding levying of excessive interest and charges on certain loans and advances by NBFCs. Though interest rates are not regulated by the Reserve Bank, rates of interest beyond a certain level may be seen to be excessive and can neither be sustainable nor be conforming to normal financial practice. Furthermore, all NBFCs shall constitute grievance redressal machinery and comply with the requirements under Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Responsible Business Conduct) Directions, 2025.

Master Direction - Reserve Bank of India (Internal Ombudsman) Directions, 2026

The RBI issued the 2026 direction to provide a dedicated regulatory framework for Non-Banking Financial Companies. This direction supersedes the 2023 integrated framework in its application to NBFCs, aiming to ensure a speedy and meaningful resolution of customer complaints by enabling a review by an apex level authority before rejection. The Internal Ombudsman Directions iterate the object of strengthening the internal grievance redress system of the NBFCs in matters such as escalation of complaints to the Internal Ombudsman, qualifications for appointing the Internal Ombudsman, and the complaint redressal mechanism. NBFCs are required to put in place a mechanism for periodic reporting of information to the Consumer Education and Protection Department, Central Office, RBI on a quarterly and annual basis in accordance with the formats provided in the Internal Ombudsman Directions.

The Internal Ombudsman Directions applies to NBFCs as defined under the Internal Ombudsman Direction, and fulfilling the following criteria: a. Deposit-taking NBFCs with 10 or more branches; b. Non-deposit taking NBFCs having an asset size of ₹5,00,000 lakhs or above and having public customer interface. The Internal Ombudsman Directions require NBFCs to appoint at least one internal ombudsman, and may further appoint one or more deputy internal ombudsman, depending on the volume of complaints received by them. The Internal Ombudsman Directions specifies the prerequisites for appointment of the ombudsman, the role and responsibilities of the ombudsman and the procedure for complaint redressal by the ombudsman.

Asset Liability Management

NBFCs with an asset size of ₹10,000 lakhs and above are required to adhere to the liquidity risk management framework prescribed under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Asset Liability Management) Directions, 2025. The directions, inter alia, require the board of directors of the NBFC to formulate a liquidity risk management framework, which ensures that it maintains sufficient liquidity, detailing entity-level liquidity risk tolerance, funding strategies, prudential limits, system for measuring, assessing and reporting/reviewing liquidity, framework for stress testing, liquidity planning under alternative scenarios/formal contingent funding plan, nature and frequency of management reporting, and periodical review of assumptions used in liquidity projections.

NBFCs with asset size of ₹5,00,000 lakhs and above are required to maintain an adequate level of unencumbered high quality liquid assets ("HQLA") that can be converted into cash to meet its liquidity needs for a 30 calendar-day time horizon under a significantly severe liquidity stress scenario. An NBFC shall maintain LCR of minimum 100% (i.e., the stock of HQLA shall at least equal total net cash outflows) on an ongoing basis, provided that an NBFC shall have the option to use its stock of HQLA during a period of financial stress, thereby allowing liquidity coverage ratio to fall below 100 per cent. The NBFC shall be required to immediately intimate the department of Supervision, Reserve Bank of India in case of such utilisation of the stock of HQLAs.

NBFCs are also required to constitute an asset liability management committee ("ALCO"). The ALCO is required to be headed by the chief executive officer/ managing director or the executive director of such NBFC, as prescribed under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Asset Liability Management) Directions, 2025.

The ALM Support Group consisting of the operating staff shall be responsible for analysing, monitoring, and reporting the liquidity risk profile to the ALCO. Such support groups will be constituted depending on the size and complexity of liquidity risk management in an NBFC. An NBFC shall have appropriate internal controls, systems, and procedures to ensure adherence to various liquidity risk management policies and procedures. These internal controls shall be subjected to supervisory review. Management should ensure that an independent party regularly reviews and evaluates the various components of the NBFC's liquidity risk management process. The policy note recorded by the NBFCs on treatment of the investment portfolio for the purpose of ALM and approved by their Board / ALCO shall be forwarded to the Regional Office of the Department of Supervision of the Reserve Bank under whose jurisdiction the registered office of the company is located.

Within each time bucket, an NBFC shall monitor mismatches arising from cash inflows and outflows, including mismatches upto one year, which are early warning signals of impending liquidity problems. The primary focus shall be on short-term mismatches viz. 1-30 / 31 days. The net cumulative negative mismatches in the Structural Liquidity Statement in the maturity buckets shall not exceed 10 per cent in the 1-7 days bucket, 10 per cent in 8-14 days bucket, and 20 per cent in 15-30 days bucket, measured as percentage of cumulative cash outflows in the respective time buckets.

Lending against gold

In relation to lending against gold and silver collateral, the Directions prescribe that gold or silver accepted as collateral shall be valued based on reference prices corresponding to its purity, using market-linked benchmarks such as prices published by the India Bullion and Jewellers Association Ltd. (IBJA) or recognised exchanges, and only the intrinsic value of the metal shall be considered without inclusion of other cost elements. The Directions further require maintenance and ongoing monitoring of loan-to-value ("LTV") ratios within prescribed limits, including a graded LTV framework for consumption loans based on ticket size, and prescribe disclosure requirements in respect of such loans.

The Directions also provide for borrower-level safeguards, including verification of ownership of pledged collateral in accordance with Board-approved policies and applicable regulatory requirements, limits on aggregate quantity of ornaments and coins pledged, and requirement for Board-approved policies governing such lending. In addition, NBFCs are required to ensure appropriate infrastructure, safe custody and security arrangements, including vault facilities, for storage of pledged collateral.

The Directions also prescribe requirements in relation to auction and realisation of pledged gold collateral in the event of default, including prior notice to borrowers, transparent auction processes and adherence to fair valuation principles, and restrict the end-use of such loans, including prohibition on utilisation for speculative or trading purposes in gold or related assets. The Directions further prescribe prudential caps and safeguards across credit products, including loan-to-value ("LTV") ceilings of 85%, 80% and 75% for consumption loans against gold and silver collateral depending on ticket size.

It prescribes graded LTV framework for consumption loans, required to be complied expeditiously but no later than April 1, 2026. Maximum LTV for consumption loans is based on the total consumption loan amount per borrower which is as follows: (i) Less than equal to 2.5 lakh – 85%; (ii) greater than ₹2.5 lakh but less than equal to ₹5 lakh – 80%; (iii) greater than ₹5 lakh – 75%. All NBFCs shall disclose in their balance sheet the percentage of loans extended against these collaterals, separately for gold and silver, to their total assets. Loans against ornaments and coins shall be subject to the following: (1) The aggregate weight of ornaments pledged for all loans to a borrower shall not exceed 1 kilogram for gold ornaments, and 10 kilograms for silver ornaments. (2) The aggregate weight of coin(s) pledged for all loans to a borrower shall not exceed 50 grams in case of gold coins, and 500 grams in case of silver coins.

i. Verification of the Ownership of Gold

(a) Where the gold jewellery pledged by a borrower at any one time or cumulatively on loan outstanding is more than 20 grams, NBFCs shall keep a record of the verification of the ownership of the jewellery. The ownership verification need not necessarily be through original receipts for the jewellery pledged but a suitable document shall be prepared to explain how the ownership of the jewellery has been determined, particularly in each and every case where the gold jewellery pledged by a borrower at any one time or cumulatively on loan outstanding is more than 20 grams.
(b) NBFCs shall have an explicit policy in this regard as approved by the Board in their overall loan policy.

ii. Safety and Security measures to be followed

(a) Non-Banking Financial Companies, which are in the business of lending against collateral of gold jewellery, shall ensure that necessary infrastructure and facilities are put in place, including safe deposit vault and appropriate security measures for operating the vault, in each of its branches where gold jewellery is accepted as collateral. This is required to safeguard the gold jewellery accepted as collateral and to ensure convenience of borrowers.
(b) No new branch/es shall be opened without suitable arrangements for security and for storage of gold jewellery, including safe deposit vault.

Further, under the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Branch Authorisation) Directions, 2025, NBFC-ICCs engaged in lending against gold collateral are required to obtain prior approval of the RBI for opening branches beyond prescribed thresholds (including where the number of branches exceeds 1,000), and are required to ensure that on an ongoing basis that no branch is opened without adequate infrastructure for safe custody and security of pledged gold collateral. Applications for such approvals are required to be made in the manner specified by the RBI.

The Recovery of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993

The Recovery of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (the "DRT Act") provides for establishment of the Debts Recovery Tribunals (the "DRTs") for expeditious adjudication and recovery of debts due to banks and public financial institutions or to a consortium of banks and public financial institutions. Under the DRT Act, the procedures for recovery of debt have been simplified and time frames have been fixed for speedy disposal of cases. The DRT Act lays down the rules for establishment of DRTs, procedure for making application to the DRTs, powers of the DRTs and modes of recovery of debts determined by DRTs. These include attachment and sale of movable and immovable property of the defendant, arrest of the defendant and his detention in prison and appointment of receiver for management of the movable or immovable properties of the defendant.

The DRT Act also provides that a bank or public financial institution having a claim to recover its debt, may join an ongoing proceeding filed by some other bank or public financial institution, against its debtor, at any stage of the proceedings before the final order is passed, by making an application to the DRT.

The Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 ("SARFAESI Act")

The SARFAESI Act governs securitization of financial assets in India. The SARFAESI Act provides that any securitization or reconstruction company may acquire the financial assets of a bank or financial institution by either entering into an agreement with such bank or financial institution for the transfer of such assets to the company or by issuing a debenture or bond or any other security in the nature of the debenture, for consideration, as per such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed between them. The SARFAESI Act further provides that if the bank or financial institution is a lender in relation to any financial assets acquired by the securitization/reconstruction company as stated above, then such company shall be deemed to be the lender in relation to those financial assets. Further, upon such acquisition, all material contracts entered into by the bank or financial institution, in relation to the financial assets, shall also get transferred in favour of the securitization/reconstruction company. The SARFAESI Act also enables banks and notified financial institutions to enforce the underlying security of an NPA without court intervention. Pursuant to an asset being classified as an NPA, the security interest can be enforced as per the procedure laid down in the Security Interest Enforcement Rules, 2002.

Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (Bankruptcy Code) was notified on August 5, 2016. The Bankruptcy Code offers a uniform and comprehensive insolvency legislation encompassing all companies, partnerships and individuals (including financial service providers). It allows creditors to assess the viability of a debtor as a business decision and agree upon a plan for its revival or a speedy liquidation. The Bankruptcy Code creates a new institutional framework, consisting of a regulator, insolvency professionals, information utilities and adjudicatory mechanisms, which will facilitate a formal and time-bound insolvency resolution and liquidation process.

The RBI issued the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Resolution of Stressed Assets) Directions, 2025, bearing reference number RBI/DOR/2025-26/357, DOR.STR.REC.276/21.04.048/2025-26 dated November 28, 2025, as amended from time to time ("NBFC Resolution of Stressed Assets Directions"), to provide a framework for early recognition, reporting and time-bound resolution of stressed assets of NBFCs. The NBFC Resolution of Stressed Assets Directions apply to specified categories of NBFCs across all layers, unless otherwise specified, and require applicable NBFCs to adopt Board-approved policies for resolution of stressed assets, identify incipient stress in loan accounts through special mention account classification, report credit information and defaults to the Central Repository of Information on Large Credits, undertake review and implementation of resolution plans, and comply with requirements relating to inter-creditor arrangements, restructuring, compromise settlements, technical write-offs, asset classification, provisioning, income recognition and disclosure. MCA vide notification dated November 15, 2019, issued the Insolvency and Bankruptcy (Insolvency and Liquidation Proceedings of Financial Service Providers and Application to Adjudicating Authority) Rules, 2019 ("FSP Rules") interalia governing the corporate insolvency resolution process and liquidation process of Financial Service Providers ("FSPs") under the Bankruptcy Code. The issuance of the FSP Rules has made viable and unified resolution process accessible for the FSPs and their creditors with some procedural differences.

Companies Act, 2013

The Companies Act, 2013 ("Companies Act") has been notified by the Government of India on August 30, 2013 (the "Notification").

The Companies Act provides for, among other things, changes to the regulatory framework governing the issue of capital by companies, corporate governance, audit procedures, corporate social responsibility, requirements for independent directors, director's liability, class action suits, and the inclusion of women directors on the boards of companies. The Companies Act is complemented by a set of rules that set out the procedure for compliance with the substantive provisions of the Companies Act

Labour Laws

Our Company is required to comply with various central, state and local labour and employment laws applicable to its business, offices, branches, establishments, employees and contract labour, as applicable. The GoI has consolidated several central labour legislations into a unified framework comprising the Code on Wages, 2019, the Industrial Relations Code, 2020, the Code on Social Security, 2020 and the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, together with the rules, schemes, notifications and directions issued thereunder, as applicable and as amended from time to time ("Labour Codes"). These Labour Codes regulate, among other things, wages, minimum wages, timely payment of wages, bonus, equal remuneration, working conditions, industrial relations, grievance redressal, retrenchment, lay-off, closure, industrial disputes, social security, provident fund, employees' state insurance, gratuity, maternity benefits, employee compensation, occupational safety and health, welfare facilities, contract labour, registration of establishments, appointment letters, maintenance of registers and records, statutory filings and other employer obligations. Accordingly, Our Company is required to comply with the applicable provisions of these Labour Codes and other applicable central, state and local employment-related laws, including applicable shops and establishments laws, professional tax laws, labour welfare fund laws and laws relating to national and festival holidays, to the extent applicable to its business, offices, branches, establishments, employees and contract labour.

In order to rationalize and reform labour laws in India, the Government has enacted the following codes:

a. Code on Wages, 2019, which regulates and amalgamates wage and bonus payments and subsumes four existing laws namely – the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 and the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976 received the assent of the President of India on August 8, 2019. It regulates, inter alia, the minimum wages payable to employees, the manner of payment and calculation of wages and the payment of bonus to employees. Certain provisions of this code relating to inter alia definitions, wage & bonus entitlements, payment timelines, and enforcement have been brought into force by the Ministry of Labour and Employment through a notification dated November 21, 2025, and other provisions of this code will be brought into effect on a date to be notified by the Government of India.

b. Industrial Relations Code, 2020, which consolidates and amends laws relating to trade unions, the conditions of employment in industrial establishments and undertakings, and the investigation and settlement of industrial disputes received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020. It received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020. All provisions of this code have been brought into effect by the Ministry of Labour and Employment through a notification dated November 21, 2025. It has subsumed the Trade Unions Act, 1926, the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 and the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

c. Code on Social Security, 2020, which received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020. Through its notification dated November 21, 2025, the Ministry of Labour and Employment has brought into effect certain provisions of this code and the remaining provisions of this code will be brought into force on a date to be notified by the Government of India. It amends and consolidates laws relating to social security, and subsumes various social security related legislations, inter alia including the Employee's Compensation Act, 1923, Employee's State Insurance Act, 1948, the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, the Maternity Benefit Act,1961 and the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

d. Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020, which amends and subsumes certain existing legislations, including Factories Act, 1948, the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, the Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1979 and the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996. This code provides for, among other things, standard for health, safety and working conditions for employees of establishment and has come into effect on November 21, 2025.

e. Employees' State Insurance The employees' state insurance framework is governed by the Code on Social Security, 2020 and the rules, schemes and notifications issued thereunder, as amended from time to time ("CSS 2020"), following the implementation of the four above-mentioned Labour Codes with effect from November 21, 2025. The CSS 2020 provides for employees' state insurance benefits, including sickness, maternity and employment injury benefits, subject to applicable thresholds, wage limits and prescribed conditions. Where applicable, employees in covered establishments are required to be insured and employer and employee contributions are required to be made in accordance with applicable law. Accordingly, Our Company, to the extent applicable to its offices, branches, establishments and eligible employees, is required to comply with the employees' state insurance-related provisions under the CSS 2020.

f. Sexual harassment of women at workplace Our Company is required to comply with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder, as amended from time to time, which provide for prevention, prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment of women at the workplace. Our Company is required to comply with applicable obligations, including constitution of an internal committee, implementation of an anti-sexual harassment policy, awareness and sensitisation measures, inquiry and redressal procedures, confidentiality requirements and annual reporting.

Shops and Establishments legislations in various states

In addition to the Labour Codes, our offices, branches and establishments are subject to applicable state-specific shops and establishments laws, as amended from time to time, in various states and union territories, as applicable. These laws, among other things, regulate registration or intimation of establishments, working hours, rest intervals, weekly holidays, leave, overtime, employment of women, health, safety and welfare measures, display of notices, maintenance of records and filing of returns. Accordingly, Our Company is required to obtain, renew, amend and maintain applicable registrations, intimations and records for its offices and branches, to the extent applicable.

Intellectual Property

Intellectual Property in India enjoys protection under both common law and statute. Under statute, India provides for patent protection under the Patents Act, 1970, copyright protection under the Copyright Act, 1957 and trademark protection under the Trademarks Act, 1999. The above enactments provide for protection of intellectual property by imposing civil and criminal liability for infringement.

The Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 ("DPDP Act")

The DPDP Act received the assent of the President on August 11, 2023. The DPDP Act, has replaced the existing data protection provision, as contained in Section 43A of the IT Act. The DPDP Act provides for the processing of digital personal data in a manner that recognises both the rights of individuals to protect their personal data with the need to process such personal data for lawful and other incidental purposes. The DPDP Act provides that personal data may be processed only in accordance with the provisions of this act and only for a lawful purpose after obtaining the consent of the individual. A notice must be given before or along request for seeking consent providing an itemised description of the personal data to be processed and the specific purposes thereof. The consent obtain shall be free, specific, informed, unconditional and unambiguous with a clear affirmative action, and shall signify an agreement to the processing of her personal data for the specified purpose and be limited to such personal data as is necessary for such specified purpose.

It further imposes certain obligations on data fiduciaries including (i) ensure the accuracy, consistency and completeness of data, (ii) build reasonable security safeguards to prevent personal data breach including encryption, obfuscation, masking, and the maintenance of access logs for a period of one year, (iii) inform the Data Protection Board of India (the "DPB") and affected persons in the event of a personal data breach within seventy-two hours of becoming aware of the breach, and intimate each affected data principal without delay through their user account or registered communication mode, and (iv) erase personal data as soon as the data principal has withdrawn her consent or as soon as its reasonable to assume that the purpose has been met and retention is not necessary for legal purposes (storage limitation), whichever is earlier. In case of government entities, storage limitation and the right of the data principal to erasure will not apply. Key functions of the DPB, inter alia, include: (i) on receipt of an intimation of personal data breach, to direct any urgent remedial or mitigation measures in the event of a personal data breach, and to inquire into such personal data breach and impose penalty; (ii) on a complaint received in respect of a personal data breach or a breach in observance by a data fiduciary of its obligations in relation to her personal data or the exercise of her rights, or on a reference made to it by the central government or a state government, or in compliance of the directions of any court, to inquire into such breach and impose penalty, and (iii) The Board may, on a representation made to it by a person affected by a direction, or on a reference made by the Central Government, modify, suspend, withdraw or cancel such direction and, while doing so, impose such conditions as it may deem fit.

The Digital Personal Data Protection Rules, 2025 ("DPDP Rules") establish a staggered implementation framework, where certain provisions, such as those governing consent managers, come into force within one year, while core operational obligations follow eighteen months post-publication. Data fiduciaries are mandated to implement verifiable consent mechanisms for processing the data of children and persons with disabilities who has a lawful guardian, requiring due diligence through authorized entities or digital locker service providers to verify identity, age, and guardianship status. Significant Data Fiduciaries are subject to additional compliance burdens, including the performance of annual data protection impact assessments and independent audits to ensure effective observance of the provisions of the DPDP Act. To protect the rights of data principals, fiduciaries must establish grievance redressal systems capable of responding to complaints within a maximum period of ninety days. Furthermore, both the data protection board and the appellate tribunal are designated to function as digital offices, utilizing techno-legal measures to conduct proceedings in a manner that does not require the physical presence of any individual.

Mechanism for redressal of investor grievances

Agreement dated October 14, 2026 between the Registrar to the Issue and our Company provides for settling of investor grievances in a timely manner and for retention of records with the Registrar to the Issue for a period of eight years.

All grievances relating to the Issue may be addressed to the Registrar to the Issue and Compliance Officer giving full details such as name, address of the applicant, number of NCDs applied for, amount paid on application and the details of Member of Syndicate or Trading Member of the Stock Exchange where the application was submitted.

All grievances relating to the ASBA process may be addressed to the Registrar to the Issue with a copy to either (a) the relevant Designated Branch of the SCSB where the Application Form was submitted by the ASBA Applicant, or (b) the concerned Member of the Syndicate and the relevant Designated Branch of the SCSB in the event of an Application submitted by an ASBA Applicant at any of the Syndicate ASBA Application Locations, giving full details such as name, address of Applicant, Application Form number, Series applied for, number of NCDs applied for, amount blocked on Application.

Additionally, the Stock Exchange shall be responsible for addressing investor grievances arising from applications submitted online through the app based/ web interface platform of the Stock Exchange or through its Trading Members. Further, in accordance with the SEBI Master Circular, the Designated Intermediaries shall be responsible for addressing any investor grievances arising from the Applications uploaded by them in respect of quantity, price or any other data entry or other errors made by them.

We estimate that the average time required by us or the Registrar to the Issue for the redressal of routine investor grievances will be three (3) business days from the date of receipt of the complaint. In case of non-routine complaints and complaints where external agencies are involved, we will seek to redress these complaints as expeditiously as possible.

TERMS OF THE ISSUE

Authority for the Issue

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of our Company, held on May 16, 2026, the Directors approved the issue of NCDs to the public, upto an amount not exceeding ₹ 4,00,000 lakhs including a green shoe option, in one or more tranches. Further, the present borrowing is within the borrowing limits under Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013 duly approved by the shareholders at the AGM held on September 28, 2022. The Stock Allotment Committee approved this Issue vide their resolution dated October 14, 2026.

Principal Terms & Conditions of the Issue

The NCDs being offered as part of the Issue are subject to the provisions of the SEBI NCS Regulations, the applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013, the Memorandum and Articles of Association of our Company, the terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus, Abridged Prospectus, the Application Forms, the terms and conditions of the Debenture Trustee Agreement, the Debenture Trust Deed, other applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements including those issued from time to time by SEBI, the Government of India, BSE, RBI, and/or other statutory/regulatory authorities relating to the offer, issue and listing of securities and any other documents that may be executed in connection with the NCDs.

Ranking of Secured NCDs

The NCDs being offered as part of the Issue are subject to the provisions of the SEBI NCS Regulations, the applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013, the Memorandum and Articles of Association of our Company, the terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus, the Application Forms, the terms and conditions of the Debenture Trusteeship Agreement, the Debenture Trust Deed, other applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements including those issued from time to time by SEBI, the Government of India, BSE, RBI, and/or other statutory/regulatory authorities relating to the offer, issue and listing of securities and any other documents that may be executed in connection with the NCDs.

Security

The principal amount of the Secured NCDs to be issued in terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus together with all interest due on the NCDs, as well as all costs, charges, all fees, remuneration of Debenture Trustee and expenses payable in respect thereof shall be secured by way of subservient charge with existing secured creditors on standard loan receivables and current assets (both present and future) of the company in favour of Debenture Trustee, to be held on pari passu basis among the present and / or future NCD holders, as may be applicable.

Our Company will create the security for the NCDs in favour of the Debenture Trustee for the Debenture Holders holding the Secured NCDs on the assets to ensure 100.00% security cover of the amount outstanding including interest in respect of the Secured NCDs at any time.

Our Company has entered into the Debenture Trustee Agreement and in furtherance thereof intends to enter into a deed of agreement with the Debenture Trustee, ("Debenture Trust Deed"), the terms of which shall govern the appointment of the Debenture Trustee and the issue of the NCDs. Our Company proposes to complete the execution of the Debenture Trust Deed before finalisation of the Basis of Allotment in consultation with the Designated Stock Exchange and shall utilise the funds only after the stipulated security has been created.

Under the terms of the Debenture Trust Deed, our Company will covenant with the Debenture Trustee that it will pay the Debenture Holders holding the NCDs the principal amount on the NCDs on the relevant redemption date and also that it will pay the interest due on the NCDs at the rate specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus and in the Debenture Trust Deed.

The Debenture Trust Deed will also provide that our Company may withdraw any portion of the security subject to prior written consent of the Debenture Trustee and/or may replace with another asset of the same or a higher value.

Our Company confirms that the Issue Proceeds shall be kept in the Public Issue Account until the documents for creation of security i.e. the Debenture Trust Deed, is executed.

Further, in the event our Company fails to execute the Debenture Trust Deed within the period specified in Regulation 18(1) of the SEBI NCS Regulations or such other time frame as may be stipulated from time-to-time, our Company shall pay interest of at least 2% p.a. to each NCD Holder, over and above the agreed coupon rate, till the execution of the Debenture Trust Deed.

Debenture Redemption Reserve

In accordance with recent amendments to the Companies Act, 2013, and the Companies (Share Capital & Debentures) Rules 2014, read with Rule 16 of the SEBI NCS Regulations, a listed company that intends to issue debentures to the public are no longer required to create a DRR for the purpose of redemption of debentures. Pursuant to the amendment to the Companies (Share Capital & Debentures) Rules 2014, notified on August 16, 2019, and as on the date of filing of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, our Company is not required to create DRR for the purpose of redemption of the NCDs. Accordingly, no debenture redemption reserve shall be created by our Company for the purpose of redemption of the NCDs or in connection with the Issue. Our Company shall, as per the Companies (Share Capital & Debentures) Rules 2014 and other laws applicable from time to time, invest or deposit, as the case may be, the applicable amounts, within the specified timelines, in respect of debentures maturing during the year ending on the 31st day of March of the next year, in any one or more methods of investments or deposits stipulated under the applicable law. Provided that the amount remaining invested or deposited, as the case may be, shall not at any time fall below the specified percentage, which is presently stipulated at 15% (fifteen percent) of the amount of the debentures maturing during the year ending on March 31 of the next year, in any of the following instruments or such other instruments as may be permitted under the applicable laws.

1. in deposits with any scheduled bank, free from any charge or lien;
2. in unencumbered securities of the Central Government or any State Government;
3. in unencumbered securities mentioned in sub-clause (a) to (d) and (ee) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882;
4. in unencumbered bonds issued by any other company which is notified under sub-clause (f) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882:

Provided further that the amount invested or deposited as above shall not be used for any purpose other than for redemption of debentures maturing during the year referred above.

Face Value

The face value of each NCD to be issued under the Issue shall be ₹ 1,000.

Debenture Holder not a Shareholder

The Debenture Holders will not be entitled to any of the rights and privileges available to the equity and/or preference shareholders of our Company, except to the extent of the right to receive the annual reports of our Company and such other rights as may be prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules prescribed thereunder and the SEBI Listing Regulations.

Rights of Secured Debenture Holders

Some of the significant rights available to the Debenture Holders are as follows:

1. The NCDs shall not, except as provided under the Companies Act, 2013, confer upon the Debenture Holders thereof any rights or privileges available to our members including the right to receive notices or annual reports of, or to attend and/or vote, at our general meeting. However, if any resolution affecting the rights attached to the NCDs is to be placed before the members, the said resolution will first be placed before the concerned registered Debenture Holders for their consideration. The opinion of the Debenture Trustee as to whether such resolution is affecting the right attached to the NCDs is final and binding on Debenture Holders. In terms of Section 136 of the Companies Act, 2013, holders of NCDs shall be entitled to a copy of the balance sheet and copy of trust deed on a specific request made to us.

2. Subject to applicable statutory/regulatory requirements and terms of the Debenture Trust Deed, including requirements of the RBI, the rights, privileges and conditions attached to the Secured NCDs may be varied, modified and/or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of at least three-fourths of the outstanding amount of the Secured NCDs or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of the concerned Debenture Holders, provided that nothing in such consent or resolution shall be operative against us, where such consent or resolution modifies or varies the terms and conditions governing the Secured NCDs, if the same are not acceptable to us.

3. Subject to applicable statutory/regulatory requirements and terms of the Debenture Trust Deed, the registered Debenture Holder or in case of joint-holders, the one whose name stands first in the register of debenture holders shall be entitled to vote in respect of such Secured NCDs, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the concerned Secured Debenture Holders and every such holder shall be entitled to one vote on a show of hands and on a poll, his/her voting rights on every resolution placed before such meeting of the Secured Debenture Holders shall be in proportion to the outstanding nominal value of Secured NCDs held by him/her.

4. The Secured NCDs are subject to the provisions of the SEBI NCS Regulations, the applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and the Companies Act, 1956, the Memorandum and Articles of Association of our Company, the terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus, the Application Form, the terms and conditions of the Debenture Trust Deed, requirements of the RBI, other applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements relating to the issue and listing, of securities and any other documents that may be executed in connection with the Secured NCDs.

5. The Depositories shall maintain the up to date record of holders of the Secured NCDs in dematerialised form. In terms of Section 88(3) of the Companies Act, 2013, the register and index of beneficial of Secured NCDs maintained by a Depository for any Secured NCD in dematerialised form under Section 11 of the Depositories Act shall be deemed to be a register of Debenture Holders for this purpose.

6. A register of Debenture Holders holding Secured NCDs in physical form pursuant to rematerialisation of the Secured NCDs issued pursuant to the Issue ("Register of Debenture Holder") will be maintained in accordance with Section 88 of the Companies Act, 2013 and all interest/redemption amounts and principal sums becoming due and payable in respect of the Secured NCDs will be paid to the registered holder thereof for the time being or in the case of joint-holders, to the person whose name stands first in the Register of Debenture Holders as on the Record Date.

7. Subject to compliance with RBI requirements, Secured NCDs can be rolled over only with the consent of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding amount of the Secured NCDs after providing at least 21 days' prior notice for such roll over and in accordance with the SEBI NCS Regulations. Our Company shall redeem the debt securities of all the debt securities holders, who have not given their positive consent to the roll-over.

8. The aforementioned rights of the Secured Debenture Holders are merely indicative. The final rights of the Secured Debenture Holders will be as per the terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus, the relevant Tranche Prospectus and the Debenture Trust Deed to be executed between our Company and the Debenture Trustee.

Debenture Trustees for the Debenture Holders

We have appointed Vardhman Trusteeship Private Limited to act as the Debenture Trustees for the Debenture Holders in terms of Regulation 8 of the SEBI NCS Regulations and Section 71(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules prescribed thereunder. We and the Debenture Trustee will execute a Debenture Trust Deed, inter alia, specifying the powers, authorities and obligations of the Debenture Trustee and us with respect to the NCDs. The Debenture Holder(s) shall, without further act or deed, be deemed to have irrevocably given their consent to the Debenture Trustee or any of its agents or authorised officials to do all such acts, deeds, matters and things in respect of or relating to the NCDs as the Debenture Trustee may in its absolute discretion deem necessary or require to be done in the interest of the Debenture Holder(s). Any payment made by us to the Debenture Trustee on behalf of the Debenture Holder(s) shall discharge us pro tanto to the Debenture Holder(s).

The Debenture Trustee will protect the interest of the Debenture Holders in the event of default by us in regard to timely payment of interest and repayment of principal and they will take necessary action at our cost. The Debenture Trustee has undertaken the necessary due diligence in accordance with Applicable Law, including the SEBI Debenture Trustee Master Circular and SEBI NCS Regulations.

The Company confirms that the Debenture Trust Deed proposed to be executed in connection with the Issue shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 71 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Form No. SH-12 prescribed under the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014. The Company further confirms that the agreed form of the Debenture Trust Deed shall contain all disclosures, provisions and particulars required to be incorporated therein pursuant to the aforesaid provisions and there shall be no deviations from such requirements.

Terms and Conditions of Debenture Trustee Agreement

Fees charged by Debenture Trustee

x. the Company without the consent of Debenture Trustee ceases to carry on its business or gives notice of its intention to do so; and

xi. any event occurs which under the laws of any relevant jurisdiction has an analogous effect to any of the events referred to in any of the foregoing paragraphs.

In accordance with the SEBI Debenture Trustee Master Circular, in case of 'Default' by Issuers of listed debt securities, post the occurrence of a "default", the consent of the NCD Holders for entering into an inter-creditor agreement (the "ICA")/enforcement of security shall be sought by the debenture trustee after providing a notice to the investors in the manner stipulated under applicable law. Further, the meeting of the NCD Holders shall be held within the period stipulated under applicable law. In case(s) where majority of investors express their consent to enter into the ICA, the debenture trustee shall enter into the ICA on behalf of the investors upon compliance with the conditions as stipulated in the abovementioned circular. In case consents are not received for signing the ICA, the debenture trustee shall take further action, if any, as per the decision taken in the meeting of the investors. The consent of the majority of investors shall mean the approval of not less than 75% of the investors by value of the outstanding debt and 60% of the investors by number at the ISIN level.

Explaination 2 of Regulation 49 of the SEBI Listing Regulations, defines 'default' as non-payment of interest or principal amount in full on the pre-agreed date which shall be recognized at the first instance of delay in the servicing of any interest or principal on debt.

It is hereby confirmed, in case of an occurrence of a "default", the Debenture Trustee shall abide and comply with the procedures mentioned in the SEBI Debenture Trustee Master Circular.

Market Lot and Trading Lot

The trading of the NCDs on the Stock Exchange shall be in dematerialised form only in multiples of one (1) NCD ("Market Lot").

Allotment in the Issue will be in Demat form in multiples of one NCD. For details of allotment, see "Issue Procedure" on page 376.

Nomination facility to Debenture Holder

In accordance with Rule 19 of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014 ("Rule 19") and Section 72 of the Companies Act, 2013, the sole Debenture Holder, or first Debenture Holder, along with other joint Debenture Holders' (being individual(s)), may nominate, in the Form No. SH.13, any one person in whom, in the event of the death of Applicant the NCDs Allotted, if any, will vest. Where the nomination is made in respect of the NCDs held by more than one person jointly, all joint holders shall together nominate in Form No. SH.13 any person as nominee. A nominee entitled to the NCDs by reason of the death of the original holder(s), will, in accordance with Rule 19 and Section 56 of the Companies Act, 2013, be entitled to the same benefits to which he or she will be entitled if he or she were the registered holder of the NCDs. Where the nominee is a minor, the holder(s) may make a nomination to appoint, in Form No. SH.14, any person to become entitled to NCDs in the event of the holder's death during minority. A nomination will stand rescinded on a sale/transfer/alienation of NCDs by the person nominating. A buyer will be entitled to make a fresh nomination in the manner prescribed. Fresh nomination can be made only on the prescribed form available on request at our Registered Office, Corporate Office or with the Registrar to the Issue.

Debenture Holder(s) are advised to provide the specimen signature of the nominee to us to expedite the transmission of the NCD(s) to the nominee in the event of demise of the Debenture Holder(s). The signature can be provided in the Application Form or subsequently at the time of making fresh nominations. This facility of providing the specimen signature of the nominee is purely optional.

In accordance with Rule 19, any person who becomes a nominee by virtue of the Rule 19, will on the production of such evidence as may be required by the Board, elect either:

- to register himself or herself as the holder of the NCDs; or

- to make such transfer of the NCDs, as the deceased holder could have made.

Further, the Board may at any time give notice requiring any nominee to choose either to be registered himself or herself or to transfer the NCDs, and if the notice is not complied with, within a period of 90 days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all interests or redemption amounts or other monies payable in respect of the NCDs, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

For all NCDs held in the dematerialized form, nominations registered with the respective Depository Participant of the Applicant would prevail. If the Investors require changing their nomination, they are requested to inform their respective Depository Participant in connection with NCDs held in the dematerialized form.

A nomination may be cancelled or varied by nominating any other person in place of the present nominee, by the Debenture

Holder who has made the nomination, by giving a notice of such cancellation or variation in the prescribed manner as per applicable laws. The cancellation or variation shall take effect from the date on which the notice of such variation or cancellation is received.

For all NCDs held in the dematerialised form and since the allotment of NCDs pursuant to the Issue will be made only in dematerialized mode, there is no need to make a separate nomination with our Company. The nominations registered with the respective Depository Participant of the Applicant would prevail. If the Investors require changing their nomination, they are requested to inform their respective Depository Participant in connection with NCDs held in the dematerialised form.

Jurisdiction

Exclusive jurisdiction for the purpose of the Issue is with the competent courts of jurisdiction in Trivandrum, Kerala India.

Application in the Issue

Applicants shall apply in the Issue in dematerialised form only, through a valid Application Form filled in by the Applicant along with attachment, as applicable. Further, Applications in the Issue shall be made through the ASBA facility only (including Applications made by UPI Investors under the UPI Mechanism).

In terms of Regulation 7 of the SEBI NCS Regulations, our Company will make public issue of the NCDs in the dematerialised form only.

However, in terms of Section 8(1) of the Depositories Act, our Company, at the request of the Investors who wish to hold the NCDs in physical form will rematerializeise the NCDs. However, any trading of the NCDs shall be compulsorily in dematerialised form only.

Form of Allotment and Denomination of Secured NCDs

As per the SEBI NCS Regulations, the trading of the Secured NCDs on the Stock Exchange shall be in dematerialized form only in multiples of one (1) NCD ("Market Lot"). Allotment in the Issue to all allottees, will be in electronic form i.e. in dematerialised form and in multiples of one NCD.

For details of allotment please see "Issue Procedure" on page 376.

Transfer/Transmission of NCD(s)

The NCDs shall be transferred or transmitted freely in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The NCDs held in dematerialised form shall be transferred subject to and in accordance with the rules/procedures as prescribed by NSDL/CDSL and the relevant DPs of the transfer or transferee and any other applicable laws and rules notified in respect thereof. The transferee(s) should ensure that the transfer formalities are completed prior to the Record Date. The seller should give delivery instructions containing details of the buyer's DP account to his Depository Participant.

In the absence of the same, interest will be paid/redemption will be made to the person, whose name appears in the register of debenture holders maintained by the Depositories. In such cases, claims, if any, by the transferees would need to be settled with the transferor(s) and not with the Company or Registrar.

Pursuant to the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Fourth Amendment) Regulations, 2018 read with SEBI Press release (no. 49/ 2018) dated December 3, 2018, NCDs held in physical form, pursuant to any rematerialisation, as above, cannot be transferred except by way of transmission or transposition, from April 1, 2019. However, any trading of the NCDs issued pursuant to the Issue shall be compulsorily in dematerialised form only.

Title

In case of:

- the NCDs held in the dematerialised form, the person for the time being appearing in the record of beneficial owners maintained by the Depository; and

- the NCD held in physical form, pursuant to any rematerialisation, the person for the time being appearing in the

Register of Debenture Holders as Debenture Holder shall be treated for all purposes by our Company, the Debenture Trustee, the Depositories and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and its absolute owner for all purposes regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest in it or any writing on, theft or loss of the Consolidated NCD Certificate issued in respect of the NCDs and no person will be liable for so treating the Debenture Holder.

No transfer of title of NCD will be valid unless and until entered on the Register of Debenture Holders or the register and index of Debenture Holders maintained by the Depository prior to the Record Date. In the absence of transfer being registered, interest and/or Maturity Amount, as the case may be, will be paid to the person, whose name appears first in the Register of Debenture Holders maintained by the Depositories and/or our Company and/or the Registrar, as the case may be. In such cases, claims, if any, by the purchasers of the NCDs will need to be settled with the seller of the NCDs and not with our Company or the Registrar.

Succession

Where NCDs are held in joint names and one of the joint holders dies, the survivor(s) will be recognized as the Debenture Holder(s). It will be sufficient for our Company to delete the name of the deceased Debenture Holder after obtaining satisfactory evidence of his death. Provided, a third person may call on our Company to register his name as successor of the deceased Debenture Holder after obtaining evidence such as probate of a will for the purpose of proving his title to the debentures. In the event of demise of the sole or first holder of the Debentures, the Company will recognise the executors or administrator of the deceased Debenture Holders, or the holder of the succession certificate or other legal representative as having title to the Debentures only if such executor or administrator obtains and produces probate or letter of administration or is the holder of the succession certificate or other legal representation, as the case may be, from an appropriate court in India. The directors of the Company in their absolute discretion may, in any case, dispense with production of probate or letter of administration or succession certificate or other legal representation. In case of death of Debenture Holders who are holding NCDs in dematerialised form, third person is not required to approach the Company to register his name as successor of the deceased Debenture Holder. He shall approach the respective Depository Participant of the Debenture Holder for this purpose and submit necessary documents as required by the Depository Participant.

Where a non-resident Indian becomes entitled to the NCDs by way of succession, the following steps have to be complied with:

1. Documentary evidence to be submitted to the Legacy Cell of the RBI to the effect that the NCDs were acquired by the non-resident Indian as part of the legacy left by the deceased Debenture Holder.

2. Proof that the non-resident Indian is an Indian national or is of Indian origin.

3. Such holding by a non-resident Indian will be on a non-repatriation basis.

Joint-holders

Where two or more persons are holders of any NCD(s), they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint holders with benefits of survivorship subject to other provisions contained in the Articles.

Procedure for Re-materialization of NCDs

Debenture Holders who wish to hold the NCDs in physical form may do so by submitting a request to their DP at any time after Allotment in accordance with the applicable procedure stipulated by the DP, in accordance with the Depositories Act and/or rules as notified by the Depositories from time to time. Holders of NCDs who propose to dematerialise their NCDs, would have to mandatorily submit details of their bank mandate along with a copy of any document evidencing that the bank account is in the name of the holder of such NCDs and their Permanent Account Number to the Company and the DP. No proposal for rematerialisation of NCDs would be considered if the aforementioned documents and details are not submitted along with the request for such rematerialisation.

Restriction on transfer of NCDs

There are no restrictions on transfers and transmission of NCDs Allotted pursuant to the Issue. Pursuant to the SEBI Listing Regulations, NCDs held in physical form, pursuant to any rematerialisation, as above, cannot be transferred except by way of transmission or transposition, with effect from April 1, 2019. However, any trading of the NCDs issued pursuant to the Issue shall be compulsorily in dematerialized form only.

Period of Subscription

The subscription list shall remain open for a period as indicated below, with an option for early closure or extension by such period, as may be decided by the Board or the Stock Allotment Committee, subject to necessary approvals. In the event of such early closure of the Issue, our Company shall ensure that notice of such early closure is given one day prior to such early date of closure through advertisement/s in a leading national daily newspaper and a local newspaper in the state of Kerala, with wide circulation.

Issue Programme

All benefits relating to the NCDs including interest on NCDs shall be available to the Debenture Holders from the Deemed Date of Allotment.

 The Issue shall remain open for subscription on Working Days from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time) during the period as indicated above. Our Company may, in consultation with the Lead Manager, consider closing this Issue on such earlier date or extended date (subject to a minimum period of two working days and a maximum period of ten working days from the date of opening of this Issue and subject to not exceeding thirty days from filing this Draft Shelf Prospectus with ROC, including any extensions), as may be decided by the Board of Directors ("Board") or the Stock Allotment Committee, subject to relevant approvals, in accordance with the SEBI NCS Regulations. In the event of an early closure or extension of the Issue, our Company shall ensure that notice of the same is provided to the prospective investors through an advertisement in an English daily national newspaper with wide circulation and a regional daily with wide circulation where the registered office of the Company is located (in all the newspapers or electronic modes such as online newspapers or websites of the Issuer or the stock exchange in which pre-issue advertisement for opening of this Issue has been given on or before such earlier or initial date of Issue closure). On the Issue Closing Date, the Application Forms will be accepted only between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time) and uploaded until 5:00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time) or such extended time as may be permitted by the Stock Exchange. Further, pending mandate requests for bids placed on the second last day and the last day of bidding will be validated by 5:00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time) on the relevant Issue Closing Date. For further details please see "General Information" on page 52.

Application (including Application under the UPI Mechanism) and any further changes to the Applications shall be accepted only between 10.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time, "IST") during the Issue Period as mentioned above by the Members of the Syndicate, Trading Members and Designated Branches of SCSBs, except that on the Issue Closing Date when the Applications and any further changes in details in Applications, if any, shall be accepted only between 10.00 a.m. and 3.00 p.m. (IST) and shall be uploaded until 5.00 p.m. (IST) or such extended time as permitted by the Stock Exchange. Additionally, an Investor may also submit the Application Form through the app or web interface of the Stock Exchange. It is clarified that the Applications not uploaded in the Stock Exchange platform would be rejected.

Due to limitation of time available for uploading the Applications on the Issue Closing Date, the Applicants are advised to submit their Applications one day prior to the Issue Closing Date and, in any case, no later than 3.00 p.m. (IST) on the Issue Closing Date. All times mentioned in this Draft Shelf Prospectus are Indian Standard Time. Applicants are cautioned that in the event a large number of Applications are received on the Issue Closing Date, as is typically experienced in public offerings, some Applications may not get uploaded due to lack of sufficient time. Such Applications that cannot be uploaded will not be considered for Allocation under the Issue. Applications will be accepted only on Business Days, i.e., Monday to Friday (excluding any public holiday). Neither our Company, nor the Lead Manager, nor any Member of the Syndicate, Trading Members or Designated Branches of SCSBs is liable for any failure in uploading the Applications due to faults in any software/hardware system or otherwise. Please note that, within each category of Investors, the Basis of Allotment under the Issue will be on date priority basis, however, from the date of oversubscription and thereafter, the allotments will be made to the applicants on proportionate basis.

Interest/Premium and Payment of Interest/ Premium

Interest on NCDs

As specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue.

Basis of payment of Interest

NCDs once Allotted under any particular category of NCDs shall continue to bear the applicable tenor, Coupon/Yield and Redemption Amount as at the time of original Allotment irrespective of the category of Debenture Holder on any Record Date, and such Tenor, Coupon/Yield and Redemption Amount as at the time of original Allotment will not be impacted by trading of any series of NCDs between the categories of persons or entities in the secondary market.

Payment of Interest/Maturity Amount will be made to those Debenture Holders whose names appear in the Register of Debenture Holders (or to first holder in case of joint-holders) as on Record Date.

We may enter into an arrangement with one or more banks in one or more cities for direct credit of interest to the account of the Investors. In such cases, interest, on the Interest Payment Date, would be directly credited to the account of those Investors who have given their bank mandate.

We may offer the facility of NACH, NEFT, RTGS, Direct Credit and any other method permitted by RBI and SEBI from time to time to help Debenture Holders. The terms of this facility (including towns where this facility would be available) would be as prescribed by RBI. Please see, "Terms of the Issue - Manner of Payment of Interest / Redemption Amounts" on page 369.

Taxation

Income tax is deductible at source at the rate of 10% on interest on debentures held by resident Indians (other than insurance companies), at the time of credit/ payment, as per the provisions of section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(i)] of the IT Act (in case where interest is paid to Individual or HUF, no TDS will be deducted where interest is paid is less than 10,000 and is paid by way of account payee cheque). Further, Tax will be deducted at source at reduced rate or no tax will be deducted at source in the following cases:

a. When the Assessing Officer issues a certificate on an application by a Debenture Holder on satisfaction that the total income of the Debenture holder justifies no/lower deduction of tax at source as per the provisions of section 395 of the IT Act; and that a valid certificate is filed with the Company before the prescribed date of closure of books for payment of debenture interest;
b. When the resident Debenture Holder with Permanent Account Number ("PAN") (not being a company or a firm) submits a declaration as per the provisions of section 393(6) of the IT Act in the prescribed Form 121 verified in the prescribed manner to the effect that the tax on his estimated total income of the financial year in which such income is to be included in computing his total income will be Nil. However, under section 393(6) of the IT Act, Form 121 cannot be submitted nor considered for exemption from tax deduction at source if income in the nature referred to in sections , 393(1) (Table: Sl. No. 7), 393(3) (Table: Sl. No. 6), 392(7), Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(ii.D(a))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.5(ii.D(b))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.1(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.8(i)], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.2(ii.D(a))], Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.2(ii.D(b))] or Section 393(1)[Table: Sl.No.4(i)] as the case may be, or the aggregate of the amounts of such incomes credited or paid or likely to be credited or paid during the financial year in which such income is to be included exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income tax;
c. Senior citizens, who are 60 or more years of age at any time during the financial year, enjoy the special privilege to submit a self-declaration in the prescribed Form 121 for non-deduction of tax at source in accordance with the provisions of section 393(6) of the IT Act even if the aggregate income credited or paid or likely to be credited or paid exceeds the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, provided that the tax due on the estimated total income of the year concerned will be Nil; and
d. In all other situations, tax would be deducted at source as per prevailing provisions of the IT Act.

Form No 121 with PAN/ Certificate issued under section 395 of the IT Act has to be filed with the Company before the prescribed date of closure of books for payment of debenture interest without any withholding tax. Alternatively, to avail of non-deduction or lower deduction of tax at source, as the case may be, the Debenture Holder should obtain a certificate under section 395(1) of the IT Act, 2025 from the Assessing Officer, before the prescribed date of closure of books for payment of debenture interest. The application for such certificate may be made by the Debenture Holder in the prescribed Form 128.

The aforesaid documents, as may be applicable, should be submitted at the office of the Registrar to the Issue quoting 7 (seven) days prior to the Record Date to ensure non-deduction/lower deduction of tax at source from interest on the NCD. The investors need to submit Form 121/certificate in original with the Assessing Officer for each Fiscal during the currency of the NCD to ensure non-deduction or lower deduction of tax at source from interest on the NCD.

Tax exemption certificate/document, if any, must be lodged at the office of the Registrar to the Issue at least 7 (seven) days prior to the Record Date or as specifically required, failing which tax applicable on interest will be deducted at source on accrual thereof in our Company's books and/or on payment thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the IT Act and/or any other statutory modification, enactment or notification as the case may be. A tax deduction certificate will be issued for the amount of tax, so deducted.

For further details, please see the section "Statement of Possible Tax Benefits" on page 84.

If the date of interest payment falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday in Mumbai or any other payment centre notified in terms of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, then interest would be paid on the next working day. Payment of interest would be subject to the deduction as prescribed in the I.T. Act or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.

Subject to the terms and conditions in connection with computation of applicable interest on the Record Date as stated in the section titled "Issue Procedure" on page 376. Please note that in case the NCDs are transferred and/or transmitted in accordance with the provisions of this Draft Shelf Prospectus read with the provisions of the Articles of Association of our Company, the transferee of such NCDs or the transferee of the deceased holder of NCDs, as the case may be, shall be entitled to any interest which may have accrued on the NCDs.

Day Count Convention

Interest shall be computed on actual/actual basis i.e. on the principal outstanding on the NCDs as per the SEBI Master Circular.

Effect of holidays on payments

If the date of payment of interest does not fall on a Working Day, then the interest payment will be made on succeeding Working Day (the "Effective Date"), however the calculation for payment of interest will be only till the originally stipulated Interest Payment Date. The dates of the future interest payments would be as per the originally stipulated schedule. Payment of interest will be subject to the deduction of tax as per Income Tax Act or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force. In case the Maturity Date (also being the last Interest Payment Date) does not fall on a Working Day, the payment will be made on the immediately preceding Working Day, along with coupon/interest accrued on the NCDs until but excluding the date of such payment.

Illustration for guidance in respect of the day count convention and effect of holidays on payments

The illustration for guidance in respect of the day count convention and effect of holidays on payments, as required by SEBI Master Circular shall be specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus.

Maturity and Redemption

As specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue.

Application Size

Each Application should be for a minimum of 10 NCDs and multiples of one NCD thereof. The minimum Application size for each Application would be ₹10,000 (for all kinds of Series/ NCDs either taken individually or collectively) and in multiples of ₹1,000 thereafter.

Applicants can apply for any or all Series of NCDs offered hereunder provided the Applicant has applied for minimum Application size using the same Application Form.

Applicants are advised to ensure that Application made by them do not exceed the investment limits or maximum number of NCDs that can be held by them under applicable statutory and or regulatory provisions.

Terms of Payment

The entire issue price of ₹ 1,000 per NCD is blocked in the ASBA Account on Application itself. In case of Allotment of lesser number of NCDs than the number of NCDs applied for, our Company shall instruct the SCSBs to unblock the excess amount blocked on Application in accordance with the terms of the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus.

Manner of Payment of Interest / Redemption Amounts

The manner of payment of interest / redemption in connection with the NCDs is set out below:

For NCDs held in dematerialised form:

The bank details will be obtained from the Depositories for payment of interest / redemption amount as the case may be.

Holders of the NCDs, are advised to keep their bank account details as appearing on the records of the Depository Participant updated at all points of time. Please note that failure to do so could result in delays in credit of interest/redemption amounts at the Applicant's sole risk, and the Lead Manager, our Company or the Registrar shall have no responsibility and undertake no liability for the same.

For NCDs held in physical form on account of re-materialization:

In case of NCDs held in physical form, on account of rematerialisation, the bank details will be obtained from the documents submitted to the Company along with the rematerialisation request. For further details, please see "Terms of the Issue – Procedure for Re-materialization of NCDs" on page 366.

The mode of payment of interest/redemption/ refund amount shall be undertaken in the following order of preference:

1. Direct Credit/ NACH/ RTGS/ NEFT: Investors having their bank account details updated with the Depository shall be eligible to receive payment of interest / redemption amount, through:

    i. Direct Credit: interest / redemption amount would be credited directly to the bank accounts of the Investors, if held with the same bank as the Company.

    ii. NACH: National Automated Clearing House which is a consolidated system of ECS. Payment of interest / redemption amount would be done through NACH for Applicants having an account at one of the centres specified by the RBI, where such facility has been made available. This would be subject to availability of complete bank account details including Magnetic Ink Character Recognition (MICR) code wherever applicable from the depository. The payment of interest / redemption amount through NACH is mandatory for Applicants having a bank account at any of the centres where NACH facility has been made available by the RBI (subject to availability of all information for crediting the interest / redemption amount through NACH including the MICR code as appearing on a cheque leaf, from the depositories), except where Applicant is otherwise disclosed as eligible to get interest / redemption amount through NEFT or Direct Credit or RTGS.

    iii. RTGS: Applicants having a bank account with a participating bank and whose interest / redemption amount exceeds ₹ 2 lakhs, or such amount as may be fixed by RBI from time to time, have the option to receive the interest / redemption amount through RTGS. Such eligible Applicants who indicate their preference to receive interest / redemption amount through RTGS are required to provide the IFSC code in the Application Form or intimate our Company and the Registrar to the Issue at least 7 (seven) days before the Record Date. Charges, if any, levied by the Applicant's bank receiving the credit would be borne by the Applicant. In the event the same is not provided, interest / redemption amount shall be made through NECS subject to availability of complete bank account details for the same as stated above.

    iv. NEFT: Payment of interest / redemption amount shall be undertaken through NEFT wherever the Applicants' bank has been assigned the Indian Financial System Code ("IFSC"), which can be linked to a Magnetic Ink Character Recognition, if any, available to that particular bank branch. IFSC Code will be obtained from the website of RBI as on a date immediately prior to the date of payment of the interest / redemption amounts, duly mapped with MICR numbers. Wherever the Applicants have registered their nine-digit MICR number and their bank account number while opening and operating the de-mat account, the same will be duly mapped with the IFSC Code of that particular bank branch and the payment of interest / redemption amount will be made to the Applicants through this method.

Please note that applicants are eligible to receive payments through the modes detailed in (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) herein above provided they provide necessary information for the above modes and where such payment facilities are allowed / available.

Please note that our Company shall not be responsible to the holder of NCD, for any delay in receiving credit of interest / refund / redemption so long as our Company has initiated the process of such request in time.

In case of ASBA Applicants, the Registrar to the Issue will issue requisite instructions to the relevant SCSBs to un-block amounts in the ASBA Accounts of the Applicants representing the amounts to be refunded to the Applicants.

The Registrar to the Issue shall instruct the relevant SCSB or in case of Bids by Retail Individual Investors and High Networth Individual Investors who have submitted bid for an amount not more than ₹ 500,000 in any of the bidding options in the Issue (including HUFs applying through their Karta and does not include NRIs) applying through the UPI Mechanism to the Sponsor Bank, to revoke the mandate and to unblock the funds in the relevant ASBA Account to the extent of the Application Amount specified in the Application Forms for withdrawn, rejected or unsuccessful or partially successful Applications within 2 (two) Working Days of the Issue Closing Date of this Issue.

Loan against NCDs

Pursuant to RBI Circular dated June 27, 2013, our Company, being an NBFC, is not permitted to extend any loans against the security of its NCDs.

Buy Back of NCDs

Our Company may, at its sole discretion, from time to time, consider, subject to applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements, buyback of NCDs, upon such terms and conditions as may be decided by our Company.

Our Company may from time to time invite the Debenture Holders to offer the NCDs held by them through one or more buy-back schemes and/or letters of offer upon such terms and conditions as our Company may from time to time determine, subject to applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements. Such NCDs which are bought back may be extinguished, re-issued and/or resold in the open market with a view of strengthening the liquidity of the NCDs in the market, subject to applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements.

Procedure for Redemption by Debenture Holders

The procedure for redemption is set out below:

NCDs held in physical form on account of re-materialization:

No action would ordinarily be required on the part of the Debenture Holder at the time of redemption and the redemption proceeds would be paid to those Debenture Holders whose names stand in the register of Debenture Holders maintained by us on the Record Date fixed for the purpose of redemption. However, our Company may require that the NCD certificate(s), duly discharged by the sole holder/all the joint-holders (signed on the reverse of the NCD certificate(s)) be surrendered for redemption on maturity and should be sent by the Debenture Holder(s) by Registered Post with acknowledgment due or by hand delivery to our office or to such persons at such addresses as may be notified by us from time to time. Debenture Holder(s) may be requested to surrender the NCD certificate(s) in the manner as stated above, not more than three months and not less than one month prior to the redemption date so as to facilitate timely payment.

We may at our discretion redeem the NCDs without the requirement of surrendering of the NCD certificates by the holder(s) thereof. In case we decide to do so, the holders of NCDs need not submit the NCD certificates to us and the redemption proceeds would be paid to those Debenture Holders whose names stand in the register of Debenture Holders maintained by us on the Record Date fixed for the purpose of redemption of NCDs. In such case, the NCD certificates would be deemed to have been cancelled. Also see "Terms of the Issue - Payment on Redemption" on page 371.

NCDs held in electronic form:

No action is required on the part of Debenture Holder(s) at the time of redemption of NCDs.

Payment on Redemption

The manner of payment of redemption is set out below:

NCDs held in physical form on account of re-materialisation

The payment on redemption of the NCDs will be made by way of electronic modes. However, if our Company so requires, the aforementioned payment would only be made on the surrender of NCD certificate(s), duly discharged by the sole holder / all the joint-holders (signed on the reverse of the NCD certificate(s)).

In case we decide to do so, the redemption proceeds in the manner stated above would be paid on the redemption date to those Debenture Holders whose names stand in the Register of Debenture Holders maintained by us/Registrar to the Issue on the Record Date fixed for the purpose of redemption. Hence the transferees, if any, should ensure lodgement of the transfer documents with us at least 15 (fifteen) days prior to the Record Date. In case the transfer documents are not lodged with us at least 15 (fifteen) days prior to the Record Date and we dispatch the redemption proceeds to the transferor, claims in respect of the redemption proceeds should be settled amongst the parties inter se and no claim or action shall lie against us or the Registrar.

Our liability to holder(s) towards their rights including for payment or otherwise shall stand extinguished from the date of redemption in all events and when we dispatch the redemption amounts to the Debenture Holder(s).

Further, we will not be liable to pay any interest, income or compensation of any kind from the date of redemption of the NCD(s).

NCDs held in electronic form

On the redemption date, redemption proceeds would be paid by cheque /pay order / electronic mode to those Debenture Holders whose names appear on the list of beneficial owners given by the Depositories to us. These names would be as per the Depositories' records on the Record Date fixed for the purpose of redemption. These NCDs will be simultaneously extinguished to the extent of the amount redeemed through appropriate debit corporate action upon redemption of the corresponding value of the NCDs. It may be noted that in the entire process mentioned above, no action is required on the part of Debenture Holders.

Our liability to Debenture Holder(s) towards his/their rights including for payment or otherwise shall stand extinguished from the date of redemption in all events and when we dispatch the redemption amounts to the Debenture Holder(s).

Further, we will not be liable to pay any interest, income or compensation of any kind from the date of redemption of the NCD(s).

In the event, the interest / payout of total coupon / redemption amount is a fraction and not an integer, such amount will be rounded off to the nearest integer. By way of illustration if the redemption amount is ₹1,837.5, then the amount shall be rounded off to ₹1,838.

Right to reissue NCD(s)

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, where we have fully redeemed or repurchased any NCD(s), we shall have and shall be deemed always to have had the right to keep such NCDs in effect without extinguishment thereof, for the purpose of resale or reissue and in exercising such right, we shall have and be deemed always to have had the power to resell or reissue such NCDs either by reselling or reissuing the same NCDs or by issuing other NCDs in their place. The aforementioned right includes the right to reissue original NCDs.

Sharing of information

We may, at our option, use on our own, as well as exchange, share or part with any financial or other information about the Debenture Holders available with us, and affiliates and other banks, financial institutions, credit bureaus, agencies, statutory bodies, as may be required and neither we or our affiliates nor their agents shall be liable for use of the aforesaid information.

Notices

All notices to the Debenture Holder(s) required to be given by us or the Debenture Trustee shall be published in one English language newspaper having wide circulation and one regional language daily newspaper in Kerala and/or will be sent by post/ courier or through email or other electronic media to the registered holders of the NCD(s) from time to time.

Issue of a NCD Certificate(s)

If any NCD certificate(s), issued pursuant to rematerialisation, if any, is/are mutilated or defaced or the cages for recording transfers of NCDs are fully utilised, the same may be replaced by us against the surrender of such certificate(s). Provided, where the NCD certificate(s) are mutilated or defaced, the same will be replaced as aforesaid only if the certificate numbers and the distinctive numbers are legible.

If any NCD certificate is destroyed, stolen or lost then upon production of proof thereof to our satisfaction and upon furnishing such indemnity/security and/or documents as we may deem adequate, duplicate NCD certificate(s) shall be issued. Upon issuance of a duplicate NCD certificate, the original NCD certificate shall stand cancelled.

Future Borrowings

We will be entitled to borrow/raise loans or avail of financial assistance in whatever form as also to issue debentures/ NCDs/other securities in any manner having such ranking in priority, pari passu or otherwise, subject to applicable consents, approvals or permissions that may be required under any statutory/regulatory/contractual requirement, and subject to the stipulated minimum security cover being maintained , and no event of default has occured and is continuing change the capital structure including the issue of shares of any class, on such terms and conditions as we may think appropriate, without the consent of, or intimation to, the Debenture Holders or the Debenture Trustee in this connection. However, if consent and/or intimation is required under applicable law, then the Company shall obtain such consents and/ or intimation in accordance with such law.

Impersonation

As a matter of abundant caution, attention of the Investors is specifically drawn to the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 38 of the Companies Act, 2013 which is reproduced below:

"Any person who:

b. makes or abets making of multiple applications to a company in different names or in different combinations of his name or surname for acquiring or subscribing for its securities; or
c. otherwise induces directly or indirectly a company to allot, or register any transfer of, securities to him, or to any other person in a fictitious name, shall be liable for action under Section 447."

The liability prescribed under Section 447 of the Companies Act 2013 for fraud involving an amount of at least ₹ 10 lakh or 1% of the turnover of the Company, whichever is lower, includes imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months extending up to 10 years (provided that where the fraud involves public interest, such term shall not be less than three years) and fine of an amount not less than the amount involved in the fraud, extending up to three times of such amount. In case the fraud involves (i) an amount which is less than ₹ 10 lakh or 1% of the turnover of the Company, whichever is lower; and (ii) does not involve public interest, then such fraud is punishable with an imprisonment for a term extending up to five years or a fine of an amount extending up to ₹ 50 lakh or with both.

Pre-closure

Our Company, in consultation with the Lead Manager reserves the right to close the Issue at any time prior to the Issue Closing Date of this Issue, subject to receipt of minimum subscription (75% of the Base Issue Size as specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue). Our Company shall allot NCDs with respect to the Application Forms received at the time of such pre-closure in accordance with the Basis of Allotment as described herein and subject to applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements. In the event of such early closure of this Issue, our Company shall ensure that public notice of such early closure is published on or before such early date of closure or the Issue Closing Date of this Issue for the Issue, as applicable, through advertisement(s) in all those newspapers in which pre-issue advertisement and advertisement for opening or closure of the Issue have been given.

Minimum Subscription

If our Company does not receive the minimum subscription of 75% of the Base Issue Size as specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus for each Tranche Issue, prior to the Issue Closing Date, the entire Application Amount shall be unblocked in the relevant ASBA Account(s) of the Applicants within two Working Days from the Issue Closing Date provided wherein, the Application Amount has been transferred to the Public Issue Account from the respective ASBA Accounts, such Application Amount shall be refunded from the Refund Account to the relevant ASBA Accounts(s) of the Applicants within two Working Days from the Issue Closing Date, failing which the Company will become liable to refund the Application Amount along with interest at the rate 15 (fifteen) percent per annum for the delayed period.

Under Section 39(3) of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 11(2) of the Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014 if the stated minimum subscription amount is not received within the specified period, the application money received is to be credited only to the bank account from which the subscription amount was remitted. To the extent possible, where the required information for making such refunds is available with our Company and/or Registrar, refunds will be made to the account prescribed. However, where our Company and/or Registrar does not have the necessary information for making such refunds, our Company and/or Registrar will follow the guidelines prescribed by SEBI in this regard included in the SEBI Master Circular.

Pre-Issue Advertisement

Subject to Section 30 of the Companies Act, 2013, our Company will issue a statutory advertisement on or before the Issue Opening Date of this Issue. This advertisement will contain the information as prescribed in Schedule V of SEBI NCS Regulations in compliance with the Regulation 30(1) of SEBI NCS Regulations. Material updates, if any, between the date of filing of the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus with RoC and the date of release of the statutory advertisement, will be included in the statutory advertisement.

Listing

The NCDs offered through the Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus are proposed to be listed on the BSE. Our Company has obtained an 'in-principle' approval for the Issue from the BSE vide their letter [●] dated [●], 2026. For the purposes of the Issue, BSE shall be the Designated Stock Exchange.

Our Company will use best efforts to ensure that all steps for the completion of the necessary formalities for listing at the Stock Exchange is taken within two Working Days of the Issue Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby clarified that in the event of non- subscription to any one or more of the option, such option(s) of NCDs shall not be listed. If permissions to deal in and for an official quotation of our NCDs are not granted by the Stock Exchange, our Company will forthwith repay, without interest, all moneys received from the applicants in pursuance of the Draft Shelf Prospectus.

The Issue is not backed by a guarantee or letter of comfort or any other document and/or letter with similar intent.

Arrangers

No arrangers have been appointed for the Issue.

Monitoring & Reporting of Utilisation of Issue Proceeds

There is no requirement for appointment of a monitoring agency in terms of the SEBI NCS Regulations. Our Board shall monitor the utilisation of the proceeds of the Issue. Our Company will disclose in the Company's financial statements for the relevant financial year commencing from Financial Year 2027, the utilisation of the proceeds of the Issue under a separate head along with details, if any, in relation to all such proceeds of the Issue that have not been utilised thereby also indicating investments, if any, of such unutilised proceeds of the Issue

Lien

Not Applicable

Lien on Pledge of NCDs

Subject to applicable laws, our Company, at its discretion, may note a lien on pledge of NCDs if such pledge of NCDs is accepted by any bank or institution for any loan provided to the Debenture Holder against pledge of such NCDs as part of the funding.

Register of NCD Holders

No transfer of title of a NCD will be valid unless and until entered on the Register of NCD Holders (for re materialized NCDs) or the register and index of NCD Holders maintained by the Depository prior to the Record Date. In the absence of transfer being registered, interest and/or Redemption Amount, as the case may be, will be paid to the person, whose name appears first in the Register of NCD Holders maintained by the Depositories and/or our Company and/or the Registrar, as the case may be. In such cases, claims, if any, by the purchasers of the NCDs will need to be settled with the seller of the NCDs and not with our Company or the Registrar. The provisions relating to transfer and transmission and other related matters in respect of our Company's shares contained in the Articles of Association of our Company and the Companies Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis (to the extent applicable) to the NCDs as well.

Put / Call Option

Not Applicable.

Record Date

The record date for payment of interest in connection with the NCDs or repayment of principal in connection therewith shall be 15 Days prior to the date on which interest is due and payable, and/or the date of redemption. Provided that trading in the NCDs shall remain suspended between the aforementioned Record Date in connection with redemption of NCDs and the date of redemption or as prescribed by the Stock Exchange, as the case may be.

In case Record Date falls on a day when Stock Exchange is having a trading holiday, the immediate subsequent trading day will be deemed as the Record Date.

Recovery Expense Fund

The Company has created a recovery expense fund and deposited an amount of ₹ 25 lakhs towards recovery expense fund ("Recovery Expense Fund"/ "REF") with the Designated Stock Exchange in the manner as specified by SEBI from time to time and informed the Debenture Trustee about the same. The Recovery Expense fund may be utilised by Debenture Trustee, in the event of default by the Company, for taking appropriate legal action to enforce the security.

ISSUE PROCEDURE

This section applies to all Applicants. Specific attention of all Applicants is invited to the SEBI Master Circular, which provides, inter-alia, that for all public issues of debt securities all Applicants shall mandatorily use the ASBA facility for participating in the Issue. ASBA Applicants and Applicants applying through the Direct Online Application Mechanism (as defined hereinafter) should note that the ASBA process and the Direct Online Application Mechanism involve application procedures that are different from the procedure applicable to all other Applicants. Please note that all Applicants are required to pay the full Application Amount or ensure that the ASBA Account has sufficient credit balance such that the entire Application Amount can be blocked by the SCSB while making an Application. Further all individual investors applying through intermediaries (viz. syndicate members, registered stock brokers, registrar to an issue and transfer agent and depository participants), where the application amount is upto ₹ 5 lakh, shall only use UPI for the purpose of blocking of funds and provide his/ her bank account linked UPI ID in the bid-cum-application form submitted with intermediaries. However, individual investors shall continue to have the choice of availing other modes (viz. through SCSBs and Stock Exchange Platform) for making an application in the public issue.

Applicants should note that they may submit their Application Forms (including in cases where Applications are being made under the UPI mechanism) at (i) the Designated Branches of the SCSBs or (ii) at the Collection Centres, i.e. to the respective Members of the Consortium at the Specified Locations, the Trading Members at the Broker Centres, the CRTA at the Designated RTA Locations or CDP at the Designated CDP Locations or (iii) through BSE Direct, the app and/or web based interface/platform of the Stock Exchange, as applicable. For further information, please see "Issue Procedure - Submission of Completed Application Forms" on page 394.

Applicants are advised to make their independent investigations and ensure that their Application do not exceed the investment limits or maximum number of NCDs that can be held by them under applicable law or as specified in the relevant Tranche Prospectus.

Please note that this section has been prepared based on the SEBI Master Circular and the notifications issued by BSE in relation to the UPI Mechanism, dated December 28, 2020, as amended on April 13, 2022 and May 19, 2022. Pursuant to the amendments to the SEBI NCS Master Circular dated October 15, 2025, the timelines for listing of non- convertible debentures have been revised from T+6 to T+3, where "T" is the issue closing date.

Further, our Company, the Lead Manager and the Consortium Member do not accept any responsibility for any adverse occurrence consequent to the implementation of the UPI Mechanism for application in the Issue.

THE DESIGNATED INTERMEDIARIES (OTHER THAN TRADING MEMBERS), SCSBs AND OUR COMPANY SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR ANY ERRORS OR OMISSIONS ON THE PART OF THE TRADING MEMBERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF SUCH TRADING MEMBERS INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO COLLECTION AND UPLOAD OF APPLICATION FORMS IN THE ISSUE ON THE ELECTRONIC APPLICATION PLATFORM PROVIDED BY THE STOCK EXCHANGE. FURTHER, THE STOCK EXCHANGE SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ADDRESSING INVESTOR GRIEVANCES ARISING FROM APPLICATION THROUGH TRADING MEMBERS REGISTERED WITH THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

For purposes of the Issue, the term "Working Day" shall mean all days excluding Sundays or a holiday of commercial banks in Mumbai and/or Trivandrum, except with reference to Issue Period, where Working Days shall mean all days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holiday on which commercial banks in Mumbai are open for business. Furthermore, for the purpose of post issue period, i.e. period beginning from the Issue Closure to listing of the NCDs on the Stock Exchange, Working Day shall mean all trading days of the Stock Exchange, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and bank holidays in Mumbai, as per the SEBI NCS Regulations.

The information below is given for the benefit of the Investors. Our Company and the Lead Manager are not liable for any amendment or modification or changes in applicable laws or regulations, which may occur after the date of this Draft Shelf Prospectus.

Accordingly, OCBs are not permitted to invest in the Issue.

Please see "Issue Procedure - Rejection of Applications" on page 395 for information on rejection of Applications.

Method of Application

In terms of the SEBI Master Circular, an eligible Investor desirous of applying in the Issue can make Applications through the ASBA mechanism only. Applicants are requested to note that in terms of the SEBI Master Circular, SEBI has mandated issuers to provide, through a recognised stock exchange which offers such a facility, an online interface enabling direct application by investors to a public issue of debt securities with an online payment facility ("Direct Online Application Mechanism"). In this regard, SEBI has, through the SEBI Master Circular, directed recognized Stock Exchange in India to put in necessary systems and infrastructure for the implementation of the SEBI Master Circular and the Direct Online Application Mechanism infrastructure for the implementation of the SEBI Master Circular and the Direct Online Application Mechanism. Further, SEBI vide the SEBI Master Circular has directed the stock exchanges in India to formulate and disclose the operational procedure for making an application through the app/web based interface developed by them in order for investors to apply in public issue on their websites.

All Applicants shall mandatorily apply in the Issue either through:

1. the ASBA process (including UPI Investors). Applicants intending to subscribe in the Issue shall submit a duly filled Application Form to any of the Designated Intermediaries; or

2. UPI Investors having a valid UPI ID, through the app/web-based interface platform of the Stock Exchange (BSE Direct) wherein the application would automatically be uploaded onto the Stock Exchange's bidding platform and the amount will be blocked using the UPI Mechanism.

3. Additionally, certain SEBI registered UPI handles which can be accessed at https://www.sebi.gov.in/sebiweb/other/OtherAction.do?doRecognisedFpi=yes&intmId=43, may also be used for making an Application through the UPI Mechanism.

For RIBs/HNIs using UPI Mechanism, the Stock Exchange shall share the bid details (including UPI ID) with the Sponsor Bank on a continuous basis to enable the Sponsor Bank to initiate UPI Mandate Request to RIBs/HNIs for blocking of funds.

Application process through physical Application Form

Applicants opting for the physical mode of Application process, should submit the Application Form (including for Applications under the UPI Mechanism) only at the Collection Centres, i.e. to the respective Members of the Syndicate at the Specified Locations, the SCSBs at the Designated Branches, the registered broker at the Broker Centres, the RTAs at the Designated RTA Locations or CDPs at the Designated CDP Locations. Kindly note that Application Forms submitted by Applicants at the Specified Locations will not be accepted if the SCSB with which the ASBA Account, as specified in the Application Form is maintained has not named at least one branch at that location for the Designated Intermediaries for deposit of the Application Forms. A list of such branches is available on SEBI's website for Applications under the UPI Mechanism at https://www.sebi.gov.in.

The relevant Designated Intermediaries, upon receipt of Application Forms from ASBA Applicants (including for Applications under the UPI Mechanism), shall upload the details of these Application Forms to the online platform of the Stock Exchange and submit the Application Forms (except Application Forms submitted by UPI Investors under the UPI Mechanism) with the SCSB with whom the relevant ASBA Accounts are maintained. An Applicant shall submit the Application Form, which shall be stamped at the relevant Designated Branch of the SCSB, with the SCSB and can also be submitted to be the Designated Intermediaries at the Specified Locations. The SCSB shall block an amount in the ASBA Account equal to the Application Amount specified in the Application Form. For Applicants submitting the physical application Form who wish to block the funds in their respective UPI linked bank account through the UPI Mechanism, post uploading of the details of the Application Forms into the online platform of the Stock Exchange, the Stock Exchange shall share the Application details (including UPI ID) with the Sponsor Bank on a continuous basis to enable the Sponsor Bank to initiate a UPI Mandate Request to such UPI Investors for blocking of funds.

Pursuant to SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/DDHS/DDHS-PoD-1/P/CIR/2024/128 dated September 24, 2024, all individual investors applying in public issues where the application amount is up to ₹5,00,000 shall use UPI and shall also provide their UPI ID in the bid cum application form submitted with any of the entities mentioned herein below:

1. a syndicate member;
2. a stock broker registered with a recognised stock exchange (and whose name is mentioned on the website of the stock exchange as eligible for this activity);
3. a depository participant (whose name is mentioned on the website of the stock exchange as eligible for this activity);
4. a registrar to an issue and share transfer agent (whose name is mentioned on the website of the stock exchange as eligible for this activity).

Our Company, the Directors, affiliates, associates and their respective directors and officers, Lead Manager and the Registrar to the Issue shall not take any responsibility for acts, mistakes, errors, omissions and commissions etc. in relation to ASBA Applications accepted by the Designated Intermediaries, Applications uploaded by SCSBs, Applications accepted but not uploaded by SCSBs or Applications accepted and uploaded without blocking funds in the ASBA Accounts. It shall be presumed that for Applications uploaded by SCSBs (other than UPI Applications), the Application Amount payable on Application has been blocked in the relevant ASBA Account and for Applications by UPI Investors under the UPI Mechanism, uploaded by Designated Intermediaries, the Application Amount payable on Application has been blocked under the UPI Mechanism.

APPLICATION PROCESS THROUGH APP/WEB BASED INTERFACE OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE – BSE DIRECT

SEBI, vide the SEBI Master Circular, has introduced an additional mode for application in the Issue through online (app / web) interface/platform of the Stock Exchange. In furtherance to the same, the Stock Exchange has extended the facility of 'BSE Direct', which is a web based and a mobile app-based platform for making an Application in the Issue where the funds can be blocked through the UPI Mechanism. BSE Direct platform can be accessed at https://www.bsedirect.com and can be accessed through the mobile app available (for android phone users only) on the Google Playstore.

PLEASE NOTE THAT APPLICATIONS IN THE ISSUE, THROUGH THE 'BSE DIRECT' PLATFORM, CAN ONLY BE MADE BY UPI INVESTORS, I.E., APPLICANTS WHO MAKE AN APPLICATION IN THE ISSUE FOR AN AMOUNT UPTO ₹5 LAKHS ONLY.

BSE Limited, the Designated Stock Exchange, has vide notifications dated December 28, 2020, notified the detailed operational procedure for making an Application, under the UPI Mechanism, using BSE Direct. The detailed operational instructions and guidelines issued by the Stock Exchange can be accessed on the Stock Exchange's website https://www.bseindia.com/.

APPLICATIONS FOR ALLOTMENT OF NCDs

This section is for the information of the Applicants proposing to subscribe to the Issue. The Lead Manager and our Company are not liable for any amendments or modifications or changes in applicable laws or regulations, which may occur after the date of the Draft Shelf Prospectus. Investors are advised to make their independent investigations and to ensure that the Application Form is correctly filled up.

Our Company, our Directors, affiliates, associates and their respective directors and officers, the Lead Manager and the Registrar to the Issue shall not take any responsibility for acts, mistakes, errors, omissions and commissions etc. in relation to Applications (including Applications under the UPI Mechanism) accepted by and/or uploaded by and/or accepted but not uploaded by Trading Members, registered brokers, CDPs, RTAs and SCSBs who are authorised to collect Application Forms from the Applicants in the Issue, or Applications accepted and uploaded without blocking funds in the ASBA Accounts by SCSBs or failure to block the Application Amount under the UPI Mechanism.. It shall be presumed that for Applications uploaded by SCSBs (other than UPI Applications), the Application Amount payable on Application has been blocked in the relevant ASBA Account and for Applications by UPI Investors under the UPI Mechanism, uploaded by Designated Intermediaries, the Application Amount payable on Application has been blocked under the UPI Mechanism.

The list of branches of the SCSBs at the Specified Locations named by the respective SCSBs to receive Application Forms from the Members of the Syndicate is available on the website of SEBI (https://www.sebi.gov.in) and updated from time to time or any such other website as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time. For more information on such branches collecting Application Forms from the Syndicate at Specified Locations, see the website of the SEBI (https://www.sebi.gov.in) as updated from time to time or any such other website as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time. The list of registered brokers at the Broker Centres, CDPs at the Designated CDP Locations or the RTAs at the Designated RTA Locations, respective lists of which, including details such as address and telephone number, are available at the website of the Stock Exchange at www.bseindia.com. The list of branches of the SCSBs at the Broker Centres, named by the respective SCSBs to receive deposits of the Application Forms from the registered brokers will be available on the website of the SEBI (www.sebi.gov.in) and updated from time to time.

Submission of Applications

Applications can be submitted through either of the following modes:

a. Physically or electronically to the Designated Branches of the SCSB(s) with whom an Applicant's ASBA Account is maintained. In case of Application in physical mode, the Applicant shall submit the Application Form at the relevant Designated Branch of the SCSB(s). The Designated Branch shall verify if sufficient funds equal to the Application Amount are available in the ASBA Account and shall also verify that the signature on the Application Form matches with the Investor's bank records, as mentioned in the Application Form, prior to uploading such Application into the electronic system of the Stock Exchange. If sufficient funds are not available in the ASBA Account, the respective Designated Branch shall reject such Application and shall not upload such Application in the electronic system of the Stock Exchange. If sufficient funds are available in the ASBA Account, the Designated Branch shall block an amount equivalent to the Application Amount and upload details of the Application in the electronic system of the Stock Exchange. The Designated Branch of the SCSBs shall stamp the Application Form and issue an acknowledgement as proof of having accepted the Application.

In case of Application being made in the electronic mode, the Applicant shall submit the Application either through the internet banking facility available with the SCSB, or such other electronically enabled mechanism for application and blocking funds in the ASBA Account held with SCSB, and accordingly registering such Application.

b. Physically through the Designated Intermediaries at the respective Collection Centres. Kindly note that above Applications submitted to any of the Designated Intermediaries will not be accepted if the SCSB where the ASBA Account is maintained, as specified in the Application Form, has not named at least one branch at that Collection Center where the Application Form is submitted (a list of such branches is available at https://www.sebi.gov.in).

c. A UPI Investor making an Application in the Issue under the UPI Mechanism, where the Application Amount is upto ₹5 lakhs, can submit his Application Form physically to a SCSB or a Designated Intermediary. The Designated Intermediary shall upload the application details along with the UPI ID on the Stock Exchange's bidding platform using appropriate protocols. Kindly note that in this case, the Application Amount will be blocked through the UPI Mechanism.

d. A UPI Investor may also submit the Application Form for the Issue through BSE Direct, wherein the Application will be automatically uploaded onto the Stock Exchange's bidding platform and an amount equivalent to the Application Amount shall be blocked using the UPI Mechanism.

Upon receipt of the Application Form by the Designated Intermediaries, an acknowledgement shall be issued by the relevant Designated Intermediary, giving the counter foil of the Application Form to the Applicant as proof of having accepted the Application. Thereafter, the details of the Application shall be uploaded in the electronic system of the Stock Exchange. Post which:

a. for Applications other than under the UPI Mechanism - the Application Form shall be forwarded to the relevant branch of the SCSB, in the relevant Collection Center, named by such SCSB to accept such Applications from the Designated Intermediaries (a list of such branches is available at https://www.sebi.gov.in). Upon receipt of the Application Form, the relevant branch of the SCSB shall perform verification procedures including verification of the Applicant's signature with his bank records and check if sufficient funds equal to the Application Amount are available in the ASBA Account, as mentioned in the Application Form. If sufficient funds are not available in the ASBA Account, the relevant Application Form is liable to be rejected. If sufficient funds are available in the ASBA Account, the relevant branch of the SCSB shall block an amount equivalent to the Application Amount mentioned in the Application Form.

b. for Applications under the UPI Mechanism – once the Application details have been entered in the bidding platform through Designated Intermediaries or BSE Direct, the Stock Exchange shall undertake validation of the PAN and Demat account combination details of the Applicant with the Depository. The Depository shall validate the PAN and Demat account details and send response to the Stock Exchange which would be shared by the Stock Exchange with the relevant Designated Intermediary through its platform, for corrections, if any. Post uploading of the Application details on the Stock Exchange's platform, the Stock Exchange shall send an SMS to the Applicant regarding submission of the Application. Post undertaking validation with the Depository, the Stock Exchange shall, on a continuous basis, electronically share the bid details along with the Applicants UPI ID, with the Sponsor Bank appointed by our Company. The Sponsor Bank shall then initiate a UPI Mandate Request on the Applicant. The request raised by the Sponsor Bank, would be electronically received by the Applicant as an SMS or on the mobile app, associated with the UPI ID linked bank account. The Applicant shall then be required to authorise the UPI Mandate Request. Upon successful validation of block request by the Applicant, the information would be electronically received by the Applicants' bank, where the funds, equivalent to Application Amount, would get blocked in the Applicant's ASBA Account. The status of block request would also be shared with the Sponsor Bank, which in turn would be shared with the Stock Exchange. The block request status would also be displayed on the Stock Exchange platform for information of the Designated Intermediary.

The Application Amount shall remain blocked in the ASBA Account until approval of the Basis of Allotment and consequent transfer of the amount against the Allotted NCDs to the Public Issue Account(s), or until withdrawal/failure of the Issue or until withdrawal/ rejection of the Application Form, as the case may be.

Applicants must note that:

a. Application Forms will be available with the Designated Branches of the SCSBs and with the Designated Intermediaries at the respective Collection Centres; and electronic Application Forms will be available on the websites of the SCSBs and the Stock Exchange at least one day prior to the Issue Opening Date. Physical Application Forms will also be provided to the Trading Members of the Stock Exchange at their request. The Application Forms would be serially numbered. Further, the SCSBs will ensure that this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus is made available on their websites. The physical Application Form submitted to the Designated Intermediaries shall bear the stamp of the relevant Designated Intermediary. In the event the Application Form does not bear any stamp, the same shall be liable to be rejected.

b. The Designated Branches of the SCSBs shall accept Application Forms directly from Applicants only during the Issue Period. The SCSBs shall not accept any Application Forms directly from Applicants after the closing time of acceptance of Applications on the Issue Closing Date. However, the relevant branches of the SCSBs at Specified Locations can accept Application Forms from the Designated Intermediaries, after the closing time of acceptance of Applications on the Issue Closing Date, if the Applications have been uploaded. For further information on the Issue programme, please see "General Information – Issue Programme" on page 58.

Physical Application Forms directly submitted to SCSBs should bear the stamp of SCSBs, if not, the same are liable to be rejected.

Please note that Applicants can make an Application for Allotment of NCDs in the dematerialised form only.

In case the Application Form is submitted in the first Applicant's name, it should be ensured that the Beneficiary Account is held in the same joint names and in the same sequence in which they appear in the Application Form. In case the DP ID, Client ID, PAN and UPI ID (wherever applicable) mentioned in the Application Form and entered into the electronic system of the Stock Exchange do not match with the DP ID, Client ID, PAN and UPI ID (wherever applicable) available in the Depository database or in case PAN is not available in the Depository database, the Application Form is liable to be rejected. Further, Application Forms submitted by Applicants whose beneficiary accounts are inactive, will be rejected.

On the basis of the Demographic Details as appearing on the records of the DP, the Registrar to the Issue will take steps towards demat credit of NCDs. Hence, Applicants are advised to immediately update their Demographic Details as appearing on the records of the DP and ensure that they are true and correct, and carefully fill in their Beneficiary Account details in the Application Form. Failure to do so could result in delays in demat credit and neither our Company, Designated Intermediaries, SCSBs, Registrar to the Issue nor the Stock Exchange will bear any responsibility or liability for the same.

In case of Applications made under power of attorney, our Company in its absolute discretion, reserves the right to permit the holder of power of attorney to request the Registrar that for the purpose of printing particulars on the Allotment Advice, the Demographic Details obtained from the Depository of the Applicant shall be used.

By signing the Application Form, the Applicant would have deemed to have authorized the Depositories to provide, upon request, to the Registrar to the Issue, the required Demographic Details as available on its records. The Demographic Details given by Applicant in the Application Form would not be used for any other purpose by the Registrar to the Issue except in relation to the Issue. Allotment Advice would be mailed by post at the address of the Applicants as per the Demographic Details received from the Depositories. Applicants may note that delivery of Allotment Advice may get delayed if the same once sent to the address obtained from the Depositories are returned undelivered. Further, please note that any such delay shall be at such Applicants' sole risk and neither our Company, Registrar to the Issue, Public Issue Account Bank, Sponsor Bank nor the Lead Manager shall be liable to compensate the Applicant for any losses caused to the Applicants due to any such delay or liable to pay any interest for such delay. In case of refunds through electronic modes as detailed in this Draft Shelf Prospectus, refunds may be delayed if bank particulars obtained from the Depository Participant are incorrect.

With effect from August 16, 2010, the beneficiary accounts of Applicants for whom PAN details have not been verified shall be suspended for credit and no credit of NCDs pursuant to the Issue will be made into the accounts of such Applicants. Application Forms submitted by Applicants whose beneficiary accounts are inactive shall be rejected. Furthermore, in case no corresponding record is available with the Depositories, which matches the parameters, namely, DP ID, Client ID, PAN and UPI ID (wherever applicable), then such Application are liable to be rejected.

C. Permanent Account Number

The Applicant should mention his or her Permanent Account Number allotted under the IT Act. For minor Applicants, applying through the guardian, it is mandatory to mention the PAN of the minor Applicant. However, Applications on behalf of the Central or State Government officials and the officials appointed by the courts in terms of a RTA Master Circular and Applicants residing in the state of Sikkim who in terms of a SEBI Master Circular on Know Your Client (KYC) Norms for the Securities Market bearing reference number SEBI/HO/MIRSD/SECFATF/P/CIR/2023/169 dated October 12, 2023 ("SEBI KYC Circular") may be exempt from specifying their PAN for transacting in the securities market. In accordance with RTA Master Circular, issued by SEBI, the PAN would be the sole identification number for the participants transacting in the securities market, irrespective of the amount of transaction. Any Application Form, without the PAN is liable to be rejected, irrespective of the amount of transaction. It is to be specifically noted that the Applicants should not submit the GIR number instead of the PAN as the Application is liable to be rejected on this ground.

However, the exemption for the Central or State Government and the officials appointed by the courts and for investors residing in the State of Sikkim is subject to the Depository Participants' verifying the veracity of such claims by collecting sufficient documentary evidence in support of their claims. At the time of ascertaining the validity of these Applications, the Registrar to the Issue will check under the Depository records for the appropriate description under the PAN Field i.e., either Sikkim category or exempt category.

D. Joint Applications

Applications may be made in single or joint names (not exceeding three). In the case of joint Applications all interest / redemption amount payments will be made out in favour of the first Applicant. All communications will be addressed to the first named Applicant whose name appears in the Application Form and at the address mentioned therein. If the depository account is held in joint names, the Application Form should contain the name and PAN of the person whose name appears first in the depository account and signature of only this person would be required in the Application Form. This Applicant would be deemed to have signed on behalf of joint holders and would be required to give confirmation to this effect in the Application Form.

E. Additional/Multiple Applications

An Applicant is allowed to make one or more Applications for the NCDs for the same or other series of NCDs, subject to a minimum Application size ₹ 10,000 and in multiples of ₹ 1,000 thereafter as specified in the relevant tranche prospectus. Any Application for an amount below the aforesaid minimum Application size will be deemed as an invalid Application and shall be rejected. However, multiple Applications by the same individual Applicant aggregating to a value exceeding ₹ 2 lakhs shall be deemed such individual Applicant to be an HNI Applicant and all such Applications shall be grouped in the HNI Portion, for the purpose of determining the Basis of Allotment to such Applicant. However, any Application made by any person in his individual capacity and an Application made by such person in his capacity as a Karta of a Hindu Undivided family and/or as Applicant (second or third Applicant), shall not be deemed to be a multiple Application. For the purposes of allotment of NCDs under the Issue, Applications shall be grouped based on the PAN, i.e. Applications under the same PAN shall be grouped together and treated as one Application. Two or more Applications will be deemed to be multiple Applications if the sole or first Applicant is one and the same. For the sake of clarity, two or more applications shall be deemed to be a multiple Application for the aforesaid purpose if the PAN number of the sole or the first Applicant is one and the same.

Do's and Don'ts

Applicants are advised to take note of the following while filling and submitting the Application Form:

Do's

1. Check if you are eligible to apply as per the terms of this Draft Shelf Prospectus, the Shelf Prospectus and the relevant Tranche Prospectus and applicable law, rules, regulations, guidelines and approvals.
2. Read all the instructions carefully and complete the Application Form in the prescribed form.
3. Ensure that you have obtained all necessary approvals from the relevant statutory and/or regulatory authorities to apply for, subscribe to and/or seek Allotment of NCDs pursuant to the Issue.
4. Ensure that the DP ID, the Client ID and the PAN mentioned in the Application Form, which shall be entered into the electronic system of the Stock Exchange are correct and match with the DP ID, Client ID and PAN available in the Depository database. Ensure that the DP ID, Client ID, PAN and UPI ID (wherever applicable) are correct and the depository account is active as Allotment of the Equity Shares will be in dematerialized form only. The requirement for providing Depository Participant details is mandatory for all Applicants.
5. Ensure that you have mentioned the correct ASBA Account number (for all Applicants other than UPI Investors applying using the UPI Mechanism) in the Application Form. Further, UPI Investors using the UPI Mechanism must also mention their UPI ID.
6. UPI Investors applying using the UPI Mechanism shall ensure that the bank, with which they have their bank account, where the funds equivalent to the application amount are available for blocking, is certified by NPCI before submitting the ASBA Form to any of the Designated Intermediaries.
7. UPI Investors applying using the UPI Mechanism through the SCSBs and mobile applications shall ensure that the name of the bank appears in the list of SCSBs which are live on UPI, as displayed on the SEBI website. UPI Investors shall ensure that the name of the app and the UPI handle which is used for making the application appears on the list displayed on the SEBI website. An application made using incorrect UPI handle or using a bank account of an SCSB or bank which is not mentioned on the SEBI website is liable to be rejected.
8. Ensure that the Application Form is signed by the ASBA Account holder (or the UPI-linked bank account holder, as the case may be) in case the Applicant is not the ASBA account holder. Applicants (except UPI Investors making an Application using the UPI Mechanism) should ensure that they have an account with an SCSB and have mentioned the correct bank account number of that SCSB in the Application Form. UPI Investors applying using the UPI Mechanism should ensure that they have mentioned the correct UPI- linked bank account number and their correct UPI ID in the Application Form.
9. Ensure that you have funds equal to the Application Amount in the ASBA Account before submitting the Application Form to the respective Designated Branch of the SCSB, or to the Designated Intermediaries, as the case may be.
10. UPI Investors making an Application using the UPI Mechanism, should ensure that they approve the UPI Mandate Request generated by the Sponsor Bank to authorise blocking of funds equivalent to Application Amount and subsequent debit of funds in case of Allotment, in a timely manner.
11. UPI Investors making an Application using the UPI Mechanism shall ensure that details of the Application are reviewed and verified by opening the attachment in the UPI Mandate Request and then proceed to authorise the UPI Mandate Request using their UPI PIN. Upon the authorization of the mandate using their UPI PIN, the UPI Investor may be deemed to have verified the attachment containing the application details of the UPI Investor making and Application using the UPI Mechanism in the UPI Mandate Request and have agreed to block the entire Application Amount and authorized the Sponsor Bank to issue a request to block the Application Amount mentioned in the ASBA Form in their ASBA Account.
12. UPI Investors making an Application using the UPI Mechanism should mention valid UPI ID of only the Applicants (in case of single account) and of the first Applicant (in case of joint account) in the ASBA Form.
13. UPI Investors making an Application using the UPI Mechanism, who have revised their Application subsequent to making the initial Application, should also approve the revised UPI Mandate Request generated by the Sponsor Bank to authorise blocking of funds equivalent to the revised Application Amount in their account and in case of Allotment in a timely manner.

14. Ensure that the Application Forms are submitted at the Designated Branches of SCSBs or the Collection Centres provided in the Application Forms, bearing the stamp of the relevant Designated Intermediary/ Designated Branch of the SCSB.
15. Before submitting the Application Form with the Designated Intermediaries ensure that the SCSB, whose name has been filled in the Application Form, has named a branch in that relevant Collection Centre.
16. Ensure that you have been given an acknowledgement as proof of having accepted the Application Form.
17. Ensure that signatures other than in the languages specified in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution of India is attested by a Magistrate or a Notary Public or a Special Executive Magistrate under official seal.
18. In case of an HUF applying through its Karta, the Applicant is required to specify the name of an Applicant in the Application Form as 'XYZ Hindu Undivided Family applying through PQR', where PQR is the name of the Karta. However, the PAN number of the HUF should be mentioned in the Application Form and not that of the Karta.
19. Ensure that the Applications are submitted to the Designated Intermediaries or Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be, before the closure of application hours on the Issue Closing Date. For further information on the Issue programme, please see "General Information –Issue Programme" on page 58.
20. Permanent Account Number: Each of the Applicants should provide their PAN. Application Forms in which the PAN is not provided will be rejected. Except for Application (i) on behalf of the Central or State Government and officials appointed by the courts, and (ii) (subject to SEBI KYC Circular) from the residents of the state of Sikkim, each of the Applicants should provide their PAN. Application Forms in which the PAN is not provided will be rejected. The exemption for the Central or State Government and officials appointed by the courts and for investors residing in the State of Sikkim is subject to (a) the Demographic Details received from the respective depositories confirming the exemption granted to the beneficiary owner by a suitable description in the PAN field and the beneficiary account remaining in "active status"; and (b) in the case of residents of Sikkim, the address as per the Demographic Details evidencing the same.
21. Ensure that if the depository account is held in joint names, the Application Form should contain the name and PAN of the person whose name appears first in the depository account and signature of only this person would be required in the Application Form. This Applicant would be deemed to have signed on behalf of joint holders and would be required to give confirmation to this effect in the Application Form.
22. All Applicants should choose the relevant series in the column "Category of Investor" in the Application Form.
23. Choose and mark the series of NCDs in the Application Form that you wish to apply for.
24. In terms of SEBI Master Circular, SCSBs making applications on their own account using ASBA facility, should have a separate account in their own name with any other SEBI registered SCSB. Further, such account shall be used solely for the purpose of making application in public issues and clear demarcated funds should be available in such account for Applications.

Don'ts:

1. Do not apply for lower than the minimum Application size.
2. Do not pay the Application Amount in cash, by cheque, by money order or by postal order or by stock invest.
3. Do not send Application Forms by post. Instead submit the same to the Designated Intermediaries or Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be.
4. Do not submit the Application Form to any non-SCSB bank or our Company.
5. Do not apply through an Application Form that does not have the stamp of the relevant Designated Intermediary or the Designated Branch of the SCSB, as the case may be.
6. Do not fill up the Application Form such that the NCDs applied for exceeds the Issue Size and/or investment limit or maximum number of NCDs that can be held under the applicable laws or regulations or maximum amount permissible under the applicable regulations.
7. Do not submit the GIR number instead of the PAN as the Application is liable to be rejected on this ground.
8. Do not submit incorrect details of the DP ID, Client ID, PAN and UPI ID (wherever applicable) or provide details for a beneficiary account which is suspended or for which details cannot be verified by the Registrar to the Issue.
9. Do not submit the Application Form without ensuring that funds equivalent to the entire Application Amount are available for blocking in the relevant ASBA Account or in the case of UPI Investors making and Application using the UPI Mechanism, in the UPI-linked bank account where funds for making the Application are available.
10. Do not submit Applications on plain paper or on incomplete or illegible Application Forms.
11. Do not apply if you are not competent to contract under the Indian Contract Act, 1872.
12. Do not submit an Application in case you are not eligible to acquire NCDs under applicable law or your relevant constitutional documents or otherwise.
13. Do not submit Applications to a Designated Intermediary at a location other than Collection Centres.

14. Do not submit an Application that does not comply with the securities law of your respective jurisdiction.
15. Do not apply if you are a person ineligible to apply for NCDs under the Issue including Applications by Persons Resident Outside India, NRI (inter-alia including NRIs who are (i) based in the USA, and/or, (ii) domiciled in the USA, and/or, (iii) residents/citizens of the USA, and/or, (iv) subject to any taxation laws of the USA).
16. Do not make an Application of the NCD on multiple copies taken of a single form.
17. Payment of Application Amount in any mode other than through blocking of Application Amount in the ASBA Accounts shall not be accepted in the Issue.
18. Do not link the UPI ID with a bank account maintained with a bank that is not UPI 2.0 certified by the NPCI in case of Bids submitted by UPI Investors using the UPI Mechanism.
19. Do not submit more than five Application Forms per ASBA Account.

Please also see "Issue Procedure – Operational Instructions and Guidelines - Applicant's Responsibilities" on page 382.

Kindly note that Applications submitted to the Designated Intermediaries will not be accepted if the SCSB where the ASBA Account, as specified in the Application Form, is maintained has not named at least one branch at that location for the Designated Intermediaries, to deposit such Application Forms (A list of such branches is available at https://www.sebi.gov.in).

Please see "Issue Procedure – Rejection of Applications" on page 395 for information on rejection of Applications.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

The Application Forms will be uploaded onto the electronic system of the Stock Exchange and deposited with the relevant branch of the SCSB at the Collection Centres, named by such SCSB to accept such Applications from the Designated Intermediaries, as the case may be (a list of such branches is available at https://www.sebi.gov.in).

For Applications other than those under the UPI Mechanism, the relevant branch of the SCSB shall perform verification procedures and block an amount in the ASBA Account equal to the Application Amount specified in the Application. For Applications under the UPI Mechanism, i.e., upto ₹5 lakhs, the Stock Exchange shall undertake validation of the PAN and Demat account combination details of the Applicant with the Depository. The Depository shall validate the PAN and Demat account details and send response to the Stock Exchange which would be shared by the Stock Exchange with the relevant Designated Intermediary through its platform, for corrections, if any. The blocking of funds in such case (not exceeding ₹5 lakhs) shall happen under the UPI Mechanism.

The entire Application Amount for the NCDs is payable on Application only. The relevant SCSB shall block an amount equivalent to the entire Application Amount in the ASBA Account at the time of upload of the Application Form. In case of Allotment of lesser number of NCDs than the number applied, the Registrar to the Issue shall instruct the SCSBs or the Sponsor Bank (as the case maybe) to unblock the excess amount in the ASBA Account.

For Applicants, the Applications in physical mode should be submitted to the SCSBs or a member of the Syndicate or to the Trading Members of the Stock Exchanges on the prescribed Application Form. SCSBs may provide the electronic mode for making Application either through an internet enabled banking facility or such other secured, electronically enabled mechanism for Application and blocking funds in the ASBA Account.

For Applications submitted under the UPI Mechanism, post the successful validation of the UPI Mandate Request by the Applicant, the information would be electronically received by the Applicants' bank, where the funds, equivalent to Application Amount, would get blocked in the Applicant's ASBA Account.

Applicants should ensure that they have funds equal to the Application Amount in the ASBA Account before submitting the Application. An Application where the corresponding ASBA Account does not have sufficient funds equal to the Application Amount at the time of blocking the ASBA Account is liable to be rejected.

A UPI Investor applying through the UPI Mechanism should ensure that, they check the relevant SMS generated for the UPI Mandate Request and all other steps required for successful blocking of funds in the UPI linked bank account, which includes accepting the UPI Mandate Request by 5:00 pm on the third Working Day from the day of bidding on the Stock Exchange (except on the second last and last day of the Issue Period, where the UPI Mandate Request not having been accepted by 5:00 pm of the Issue Closing date), have been completed.

The Application Amount shall remain blocked in the ASBA Account until approval of the Basis of Allotment and consequent transfer of the amount against the Allotted NCDs to the Public Issue Account(s), or until withdrawal/ failure of the Issue or until withdrawal/ rejection of the Application Form, as the case may be. Once the Basis of Allotment is approved, and upon receipt of intimation from the Registrar, the controlling branch of the SCSB shall, on the Designated Date, transfer such blocked amount from the ASBA Account to the Public Issue Account. The balance amount remaining after the finalisation of the Basis of Allotment shall be unblocked by the SCSBs or the Sponsor Bank (in case of Applications under the UPI Mechanism) on the basis of the instructions issued in this regard by the Registrar to the respective SCSB or the Sponsor Bank, within two Working Days of the Issue Closing Date. The Application Amount shall remain blocked in the ASBA Account until transfer of the Application Amount to the Public Issue Account, or until withdrawal/ failure of the Issue or until rejection of the Application, as the case may be.

SUBMISSION OF COMPLETED APPLICATION FORMS

Mode of Submission of Application Forms	To whom the Application Form has to be submitted
ASBA Applications	i. If using physical Application Form, (a) to the Designated Intermediaries at relevant Collection Centres, or (b) to the Designated Branches of the SCSBs where the ASBA Account is maintained; or ii. If using electronic Application Form, to the SCSBs, electronically through internet banking facility, if available.
Applications under the UPI Mechanism	i. Through the Designated Intermediary, physically or electronically, as applicable; or ii. Through BSE Direct.

No separate receipts will be issued for the Application Amount payable on submission of Application Form. However, the Designated Intermediaries will acknowledge the receipt of the Application Forms by stamping the date and returning to the Applicants an Acknowledgement Slips which will serve as a duplicate Application Form for the records of the Applicant.

Electronic Registration of Applications

a. The Designated Intermediaries and Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be, will register the Applications (including those under the UPI Mechanism) using the on-line facilities of the Stock Exchange. The Members of Syndicate, our Company and the Registrar to the Issue or the Lead Manager is not responsible for any acts, mistakes or errors or omission and commissions in relation to, (i) the Applications accepted by the SCSBs, (ii) the Applications uploaded by the SCSBs, (iii) the Applications accepted but not uploaded by the SCSBs, (iv) with respect to Applications accepted and uploaded by the SCSBs without blocking funds in the ASBA Accounts, (v) any Applications accepted and uploaded and/or not uploaded by the Trading Members of the Stock Exchange or (vi) any Application made under the UPI Mechanism, accepted or uploaded or failed to be uploaded by a Designated Intermediary or through the app/web based interface of the Stock Exchange and the corresponding failure for blocking of funds under the UPI Mechanism.

   In case of apparent data entry error by the Designated Intermediaries or Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be, in entering the Application Form number in their respective schedules other things remaining unchanged, the Application Form may be considered as valid and such exceptions may be recorded in minutes of the meeting submitted to the Designated Stock Exchange. However, the option, mode of allotment, PAN, demat account no. etc. should be captured by the relevant Designated Intermediaries or Designated Branches of the SCSBs in the data entries as such data entries will be considered for Allotment/rejection of Application.

b. The Stock Exchange will offer an electronic facility for registering Applications for the Issue. This facility will be available on the terminals of Designated Intermediaries and the SCSBs during the Issue Period. The Designated Intermediaries can also set up facilities for off-line electronic registration of Applications subject to the condition that they will subsequently upload the off-line data file into the on-line facilities for Applications on a regular basis, and before the expiry of the allocated time on the Issue Closing Date. On the Issue Closing Date, the Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs shall upload the Applications till such time as may be permitted by the Stock Exchange. This information will be available with the Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs on a regular basis. Applicants are cautioned that a high inflow of high volumes on the last day of the Issue Period may lead to some Applications received on the last day not being uploaded and such Applications will not be considered for allocation. For further information on the Issue programme, please see "General Information –Issue Programme" on page 58.

c. With respect to Applications submitted directly to the SCSBs at the time of registering each Application, the Designated Branches of the SCSBs shall enter the requisite details of the Applicants in the on-line system including:

- Application Form number
- PAN (of the first Applicant, in case of more than one Applicant)
- Investor category and sub-category
- DP ID
- Client ID
- UPI ID (if applicable)
- Series of NCDs applied for
- Number of NCDs Applied for in each series of NCD
- Price per NCD
- Bank code for the SCSB where the ASBA Account is maintained
- Bank account number
- Location
- Application amount

d. With respect to Applications submitted to the Designated Intermediaries, at the time of registering each Application, the requisite details of the Applicants shall be entered in the on-line system including:

- Application Form number
- PAN (of the first Applicant, in case of more than one Applicant)
- Investor category and sub-category
- DP ID
- Client ID
- UPI ID (if applicable)
- Series of NCDs applied for
- Number of NCDs Applied for in each series of NCD
- Price per NCD
- Bank code for the SCSB where the ASBA Account is maintained
- Bank account number
- Location
- Application amount

e. A system generated acknowledgement (TRS) will be given to the Applicant as a proof of the registration of each Application. It is the Applicant's responsibility to obtain the acknowledgement from the Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be. The registration of the Application by the Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs, as the case may be, does not guarantee that the NCDs shall be allocated/ Allotted by our Company. The acknowledgement will be non-negotiable and by itself will not create any obligation of any kind.

f. Applications can be rejected on the technical grounds listed below or if all required information is not provided or the Application Form is incomplete in any respect. The permission given by the Stock Exchange to use its network and software of the online system should not in any way be deemed or construed to mean that the compliance with various statutory and other requirements by our Company, the Lead Manager are cleared or approved by the Stock Exchange; nor does it in any manner warrant, certify or endorse the correctness or completeness of any of the compliance with the statutory and other requirements nor does it take any responsibility for the financial or other soundness of our Company, the management or any scheme or project of our Company; nor does it in any manner warrant, certify or endorse the correctness or completeness of any of the contents of this Draft Shelf Prospectus; nor does it warrant that the NCDs will be listed or will continue to be listed on the Stock Exchange.

g. Only Applications that are uploaded on the online system of the Stock Exchange shall be considered for allocation/ Allotment. The Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs shall capture all data relevant for the purposes of finalizing the Basis of Allotment while uploading Application data in the electronic systems of the Stock Exchange. In order that the data so captured is accurate the Designated Intermediaries and the Designated Branches of the SCSBs will be given up to at 5:00 p.m.on the Issue Closing Date to modify/ verify certain selected fields uploaded in the online system during the Issue Period after which the data will be sent to the Registrar for reconciliation with the data available with the NSDL and CDSL.

ISSUANCE OF ALLOTMENT ADVICE

Our Company shall ensure dispatch of Allotment Advice and/ or give instructions for credit of NCDs to the beneficiary account with Depository Participants upon approval of Basis of Allotment. The Allotment Advice for successful Applicants will be mailed by ordinary post to their addresses as per the Demographic Details received from the Depositories.

Our Company shall use best efforts to ensure that all steps for completion of the necessary formalities for commencement of trading at the Stock Exchange where the NCDs are proposed to be listed are taken within 2 (two) Working Days from the Issue Closing Date.

Allotment Advices shall be issued or Application Amount shall be unblocked within the prescribed timeline from the Issue Closing Date as may be specified by SEBI or else the Application Amount shall be unblocked in the ASBA Accounts or the UPI linked bank accounts (for Applications under the UPI Mechanism) of the Applicants forthwith.

Our Company will provide adequate funds required for dispatch of Allotment Advice to the Registrar to the Issue.

OTHER INFORMATION

Withdrawal of Applications during the Issue Period

Applicants can withdraw their Applications until the Issue Closing Date. In case an Applicant wishes to withdraw the Application during the Issue Period, the same can be done by submitting a request for the same to the concerned Designated Intermediary who shall do the requisite.

In case of Applications (other than under the UPI Mechanism) were submitted to the Designated Intermediaries, upon receipt of the request for withdrawal from the Applicant, the relevant Designated Intermediary, as the case may be, shall do the requisite, including deletion of details of the withdrawn Application Form from the electronic system of the Stock Exchange and intimating the Designated Branch of the SCSB to unblock of the funds blocked in the ASBA Account at the time of making the Application. In case of Applications (other than under the UPI Mechanism) submitted directly to the Designated Branch of the SCSB, upon receipt of the request for withdraw from the Applicant, the relevant Designated Branch shall do the requisite, including deletion of details of the withdrawn Application Form from the electronic system of the Stock Exchange and unblocking of the funds in the ASBA Account, directly.

Withdrawal of Applications after the Issue Period

In case an Applicant wishes to withdraw the Application after the Issue Closing Date or early closure date, the same can be done by submitting a withdrawal request to the Registrar to the Issue prior to the finalization of the Basis of Allotment.

Revision of Applications

As per the notice No: 20120831-22 dated August 31, 2012 issued by the BSE, cancellation of one or more orders (series) within an Application is permitted during the Issue Period as long as the total order quantity does not fall under the minimum quantity required for a single Application. Please note that in case of cancellation of one or more orders (series) within an Application, leading to total order quantity falling under the minimum quantity required for a single Application will be liable for rejection by the Registrar.

Applicants may revise/ modify their Application details during the Issue Period, as allowed/permitted by the Stock Exchange, by submitting a written request to the Designated Intermediary and the Designated Branch of the SCSBs, as the case may be. For Applications made under the UPI Mechanism, an Applicant shall not be allowed to add or modify the details of the Application except for modification of either DP ID/Client ID, or PAN ID but not both. However, the Applicant may withdraw the Application and reapply.

However, for the purpose of Allotment, the date of original upload of the Application will be considered in case of such revision/ modification. In case of any revision of Application in connection with any of the fields which are not allowed to be modified on the electronic Application platform of the Stock Exchange as per the procedures and requirements prescribed by the Stock Exchange, Applicants should ensure that they first withdraw their original Application and submit a fresh Application. In such a case the date of the new Application will be considered for date priority for Allotment purposes.

Revision of Applications is not permitted after the expiry of the time for acceptance of Application Forms on the Issue Closing Date. However, in order that the data so captured is accurate, the Designated Intermediaries and/ or the Designated Branches of the SCSBs will be given up at 5:00 p.m. on the Issue Closing Date to modify/ verify certain selected fields uploaded in the online system during the Issue Period, after which the data will be sent to the Registrar for reconciliation with the data available with the NSDL and CDSL. Please also see, "Issue Procedure – Operational Instructions and Guidelines - Modification and cancellation of orders" on page 381.

Depository Arrangements

We have made depository arrangements with NSDL and CDSL. Please note that Tripartite Agreements have been executed between our Company, the Registrar and both the depositories.

As per the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996, the NCDs issued by us can be held in a dematerialised form. In this context:

i. Tripartite agreement dated May 3, 2011 among our Company, the Registrar and CDSL and tripartite agreement dated October 6, 2009 among our Company, the Registrar and NSDL, respectively for offering depository option to the investors.
ii. An Applicant must have at least one beneficiary account with any of the Depository Participants (DPs) of NSDL or CDSL prior to making the Application.
iii. The Applicant must necessarily provide the DP ID and Client ID details in the Application Form.
iv. NCDs Allotted to an Applicant in the electronic form will be credited directly to the Applicant's respective beneficiary account(s) with the DP.
v. Non-transferable Allotment Advice will be directly sent to the Applicant by the Registrar to the Issue.
vi. It may be noted that NCDs in electronic form can be traded only on the Stock Exchange having electronic connectivity with NSDL or CDSL. The Stock Exchange has connectivity with NSDL and CDSL.

vii. Interest or other benefits with respect to the NCDs held in dematerialised form would be paid to those Debenture Holders whose names appear on the list of beneficial owners given by the Depositories to us as on Record Date. In case of those NCDs for which the beneficial owner is not identified by the Depository as on the Record Date/ book closure date, we would keep in abeyance the payment of interest or other benefits, till such time that the beneficial owner is identified by the Depository and conveyed to us, whereupon the interest or benefits will be paid to the beneficiaries, as identified, within a period of 30 days.

Please note that the NCDs shall cease to trade from the Record Date (for payment of the principal amount and the applicable premium and interest for such NCDs) prior to redemption of the NCDs.

PLEASE NOTE THAT TRADING OF NCDs ON THE FLOOR OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE SHALL BE IN DEMATERIALISED FORM ONLY IN MULTIPLE OF ONE NCD.

Allottees will have the option to re-materialize the NCDs Allotted under the Issue as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Depositories Act.

Communications

All future communications in connection with Applications made in the Issue (except the Applications made through the Trading Members of the Stock Exchange) should be addressed to the Registrar to the Issue, quoting the full name of the sole or first Applicant, Application Form number, Applicant's DP ID and Client ID, Applicant's PAN, number of NCDs applied for, ASBA Account number in which the amount equivalent to the Application Amount was blocked or the UPI ID (for UPI Investors who make the payment of Application Amount through the UPI Mechanism), date of the Application Form, name and address of the Designated Intermediary or Designated Branch of the SCSBs, as the case may be, where the Application was submitted.

Applicants may contact our Compliance Officer and Company Secretary or the Registrar to the Issue in case of any pre-Issue or post-Issue related problems such as non-receipt of Allotment Advice or credit of NCDs in the respective beneficiary accounts, as the case may be.

Interest in case of delay

Our Company undertakes to pay interest, in connection with any delay in Allotment and demat credit, beyond the time limit as may be prescribed under applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements, at such rates as stipulated under such applicable statutory and/or regulatory requirements.

Undertaking by the Issuer

"Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in the Issue. The allotment of NCDs will be done on a first come, first serve basis. In case of an oversubscription, allotments to the maximum extent, as possible, will be made on a first-come first-serve basis and thereafter on proportionate basis, i.e. full allotment of the NCDs to the Applicants on a first come first basis up to the date falling 1 (one) day prior to the date of oversubscription and proportionate allotment of NCDs to the applicants from the date of oversubscription and thereafter (based on the date of upload of each Application on the electronic platform of the Stock Exchange, in each Portion). On the successful allotment of the NCDs, the Issue proceeds will be released to the issuer to use in pursuance of the objects specified in this Draft Shelf Prospectus.

SECTION VIII : MAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Capitalised terms used in this section have the meaning that has been given to such terms in the Articles of Association of our Company. No clause of the Articles of Association having bearing on the Offer or the disclosures required in this Draft Shelf Prospectus has been omitted. This set of Articles of Association of the Company has been approved pursuant to the provisions of the Section 14 of the Companies Act, 2013 and by a special resolution passed at the Extraordinary General Meeting (the "Company") held on August 08, 2026. These Articles have been adopted as the Articles of Association of the Company in substitution for and to the exclusion of all the existing articles of association.

INTERPRETATION

I.

1. In these regulations --

   (a) "the Act" means the Companies Act, 2013,

   (b) "the seal" means the common seal of the company.

   Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Act or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company.

2. "Company" shall mean MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED.

SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

II.

1. The Authorised Share Capital of the Company shall be of such amount as may be mentioned in the Capital Clause (Clause V) of the Memorandum of Association of the Company. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the capital of the company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par and at such time as they may from time to time think fit.

2. (i) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within two months after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within one month after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall be provided, --

   a. one certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or

   b. several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of twenty rupees for each certificate after the first.

   (ii) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

   (iii) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

   (iv) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or these Articles, the Board of Directors are empowered without any prior sanction of the members to dematerialize and rematerialize the securities of the Company and issue/allot fresh securities in dematerialized form. The Board of Directors is also empowered to determine the terms and conditions thereof pursuant to the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 and Rules framed thereunder.

3. (i) If any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity as the company deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given. Every certificate under this Article shall be issued on payment of twenty rupees for each certificate.

(ii) The provisions of Articles (2) and (3) shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the company.

4. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

5. (i) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by sub-section (6) of section 40, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and rules made thereunder.

(ii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed the rate or amount prescribed in rules made under sub-section (6) of section 40.

(iii) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

6. (i) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of section 48, and whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(ii) To every such separate meeting, the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be at least two persons holding at least one-third of the issued shares of the class in question.

7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

8. Subject to the provisions of section 55, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may, by special resolution, determine.

9. Subject to the provisions of section 61 of the Act and these Articles, the Company may:

a. increase the authorised share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as it thinks expedient;

b. divide, sub-divide or consolidate its shares, or any of them, and the resolution whereby any share is sub divided, may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such shares have some preference or special advantage in relation to dividend, capital or otherwise as compared with the others;

c. cancel shares which at the date of such General Meeting have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled;

d. consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger or smaller amount than its existing shares, provided that any consolidation and division which results in changes in the voting percentage of Members shall require applicable approvals under the Act;

e. convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination; and

f. The cancellation of shares under point (c) above shall not be deemed to be a reduction of the authorised share capital.

LIEN

10. (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien --

    a. on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and

    b. on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company:

    Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

    (ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable and bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.

11. The fully paid-up shares shall be free from all lien and that in case of partly paid shares, the Company's lien shall be restricted to money called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares.

12. The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien:

    Provided that no sale shall be made –

    a. unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or

    b. until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.

13. (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.

    (ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.

    (iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14. (i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

    (ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

LOCK-IN OF PLEDGED AND POST-INVOCATION SECURITIES

15. (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, all Equity Shares of the Company that are (a) subject to pledge; or (b) under "freeze balance" or "safe-keep balance" on a day prior to the closure of the bid/offer closing date, and form part of the pre-issue capital of the Company which are required to be locked-in under the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, as amended ("ICDR Regulations"), from the date of allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the IPO, shall remain subject to mandatory lock-in provisions as prescribed by SEBI from time to time.

    (ii) The Company is hereby authorized to provide necessary instructions to and direct the Depositories (NSDL/CDSL) prior to the date of allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the IPO, to ensure that their systems automatically mark such Equity Shares as "Locked-in" or "Non-Transferable" in the beneficiary account of the pledgee immediately upon invocation, or in the account of the pledgor upon release, for the balance duration of the lock-in period.

(iii) In the event that a pledge on any such Equity Shares is invoked by a pledgee/lender or released back to the pledgor, such Equity Shares shall continue to be subject to the lock-in for the remainder of the applicable regulatory period. The transfer of Equity Shares upon invocation of the pledge shall not exempt the securities from the lock-in requirements.

(iv) The Company shall ensure that any lender or pledgee is formally notified of these lock-in restrictions as per applicable Law. No transfer of such locked-in Equity Shares shall be recognized by the Company or the registrar and transfer agent if such transfer violates the ICDR Regulations or this Article or applicable Law.

(v) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, provisions of this Article shall override any other provisions in these Articles relating to the transfer and transmission of shares during the applicable regulatory period.

CALLS ON SHARES

16. (i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times:

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.

(ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.

(iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

17. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

18. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

19. (i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.

(ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

20. (i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

(ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

21. The Board

a. may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and

b. upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

22. The members shall have the right to renounce the shares offered under rights issue by the Board.

SHARES AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

23. Subject to the provisions of Section 62 and other applicable provisions of the Act, and these Articles, the shares in the Capital of the Company for the time being (including any shares forming part of any increased capital of the Company) shall be under the control of the Board who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to Persons in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or at discount (subject to compliance with Section 53 of the Act) at such time as they may, from time to time, think fit, to give to any person or persons the option or right to call for any shares either at par or premium or at a discount subject to the provisions of the Act during such time and for such consideration as the board of directors think fit, and may issue and allot Shares in the capital of the Company on payment in full or part of any property sold and transferred or for any services rendered to the Company in the conduct of its business and any shares which may be so allotted may be issued as fully Paid up shares and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid up shares. Further, the option or right to call shares shall not be given to any Person or Persons without the sanction of the Company in the shareholders' meeting.

24. Subject to applicable Law], the board of directors are hereby authorised to issue equity shares or debentures (whether or not convertible into equity shares) for offer and allotment to such of the officers, employees and workers of the Company as the board of directors may decide or the trustees of such trust as may be set up for the benefit of the officers, employees and workers in accordance with the terms and conditions of such scheme, plan or proposal as the board of directors may formulate. Subject to the consent of the stock exchanges and SEBI, the board of directors may impose the condition that the equity shares or debentures of the Company so allotted shall not be transferable for a specified period.

25. If, by the conditions of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such installment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who, for the time being, shall be the registered holder of the shares or by his executor or administrator.

26. Every shareholder, or his heirs, executors, or administrators shall pay to the Company, the portion of the Capital represented by his share or shares which may for the time being remain unpaid thereon in such amounts at such time or times and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time in accordance with the Articles require or fix for the payment thereof.

27. In accordance with Section 56 and other applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules:

    (i) Every shareholder or allottee of shares shall be entitled without payment, to receive one or more certificates specifying the name of the person in whose favour it is issued, the shares to which it relates and the amount Paid up thereon. Such certificates shall be issued only in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Board and on surrender to the Company of its letter of allotment or its fractional coupon of requisite value, save in cases of issue of share certificates against letters of acceptance or of renunciation, or in cases of issue of bonus shares. Such share certificates shall also be issued in the event of consolidation or sub-division of shares of the Company. Every such certificate shall be issued in the manner prescribed under Section 46 of the Act and the rules framed thereunder. Particulars of every share certificate issued shall be entered in the Register of Members against the name of the Person, to whom it has been issued, indicating the date of issue.

    (ii) Every shareholder shall be entitled, without payment, to one or more certificates, in marketable lots, for all the shares of each class or denomination registered in his name, or if the board of directors so approve (upon paying such fee as the board of directors may from time to time determine) to several certificates, each for one or more of such shares and the Company shall complete and have ready for delivery such certificates within 2 (two) months from the date of allotment, or within 15 (fifteen) days of the receipt of instrument of transfer, sub-division, consolidation or renewal of its shares as the case may be and for transmission requests for securities must be processed within seven days, after receipt of the specified documents. Every certificate of shares shall be in the form and manner as specified in Article 15 above and in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several Persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate of shares to the first named joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders. For any further certificate, the Board shall be entitled but shall not be bound to prescribe a charge not exceeding Rupees twenty.

(iii) the Board may, at their absolute discretion, refuse any applications for the sub-division of share certificates or debenture certificates, into denominations less than marketable lots except where sub-division is required to be made to comply with any statutory provision or an order of a competent court of law or at a request from a Shareholder or to convert holding of odd lot into transferable/marketable lot.

(iv) A Director may sign a share certificate by affixing his signature thereon by means of any machine, equipment or other mechanical means, such as engraving in metal or lithography, but not by means of a rubber stamp, provided that the Director shall be responsible for the safe custody of such machine, equipment or other material used for the purpose.

FURTHER ISSUE OF SHARE CAPITAL

28. Where at any time, the Company proposes to increase its subscribed capital by the issue of further shares, such shares shall be offered—

    (i) to persons who, at the date of the offer, are holders of equity shares of the Company in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, to the paid up share capital on those shares by sending a letter of offer subject to the following conditions, namely:

        a. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than 7 (seven) days and not exceeding 30 (thirty) days from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, shall be deemed to have been declined;

        b. The offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the Person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other person; and the notice referred to in sub-clause a. above shall contain a statement of this right;

        c. after the expiry of the time specified in the notice aforesaid, or on receipt of earlier intimation from the Person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose of them in such manner which is not disadvantageous to the Shareholders and the Company;

    (ii) to employees under a scheme of employees' stock option, subject to special resolution passed by the Company and subject to the Rules and such other conditions, as may be prescribed under Law; or

    (iii) To any Persons, if it is authorised by a special resolution, whether or not those persons include the persons referred to in clause (i) or clause (ii) above, either for cash or for a consideration other than cash, at such price as may be determined in accordance with Law, subject to the compliance with the applicable provisions of the Act and any other conditions as may be prescribed under Law.

29. The notice referred to in sub-clause a. of clause (i) of sub-article (a) shall be dispatched through registered post or speed post or through electronic mode to all the existing shareholders at least 3 (three) days before the opening of the issue.

30. Nothing in this Article shall apply to the increase of the subscribed capital of a Company caused by the exercise of an option as a term attached to the Debentures issued or loan raised by the Company to convert such debentures or loans into shares in the Company:

    Provided that the terms of issue of such debentures or loan containing such an option have been approved before the issue of such debentures or the raising of loan by a Special Resolution passed by the Company in a shareholders' meeting.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (c) above, where any debentures have been issued or loan has been obtained from any Government by the Company, and if that Government considers it necessary in the public interest to do so, it may, by order, direct that such debentures or loans or any part thereof shall be converted into shares in the Company on such terms and conditions as appear to the Government to be reasonable in the circumstances of the case even if terms of the issue of such debentures or the raising of such loans do not include a term for providing for an option for such conversion.

Provided that where the terms and conditions of such conversion are not acceptable to the Company, it may, within sixty days from the date of communication of such order, appeal to the Tribunal which shall after hearing the company and the Government pass such order as it deems fit.

32. Where the Government has, by an order made under sub-clause (d), directed that any debenture or loan or any part thereof shall be converted into shares in the Company and where no appeal has been preferred to the Tribunal under sub-clause (d) or where such appeal has been dismissed, the Memorandum of Association of the Company shall, where such order has the effect of increasing the authorised Share Capital of the Company, be altered and the authorised share capital of the Company shall stand increased by an amount equal to the amount of the value of shares which such debentures or loans or part thereof has been converted into.

33. The provisions contained in this Article shall be subject to the provisions of Section 42 and Section 62 of the Act, the Rules and the applicable provisions of the Act.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

34. The members of the Company shall transfer securities only in a dematerialized form;

35. (i) The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

    (ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

36. Subject to the provisions of these Articles and other applicable provisions of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 decline to register --

    a. the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person whom they do not approve; or

    b. any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.

37. The Board may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless --

    a. the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under sub-section (1) of section 56;

    b. the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and

    c. the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

38. In case of transfer of shares, where the Company has not issued any certificates and where the shares are held in dematerialized form, the provisions of the Depositories Act shall apply.

39. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

    Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

40. No fee shall be payable to the Company, in respect of the registration of transfer or transmission of shares, or for registration of any power of attorney, probate, letters of administration and succession certificate, certificate of death or marriage or other similar documents, sub division and/or consolidation of shares and debentures and sub-divisions of letters of allotment, renounceable letters of right and split, consolidation, renewal and genuine transfer receipts into denomination corresponding to the market unit of trading.
41. Subject to the provisions of Sections 58 and 59 of the Act, these Articles and other applicable provisions of the Act or any other Law for the time being in force, the Board may, refuse to register the transfer by operation of law of the right to, any securities or interest of a shareholder in the Company. The Company shall, within fifteen days, in case of transfer of shares; or such other time period as prescribed under applicable laws for transfer of securities, from the date on which the instrument of transfer, was delivered to the Company, send a notice of refusal to the transferee and transferor, giving reasons for such refusal.

Provided that, registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other Person or Persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except when the Company has a lien on the shares.

42. There shall be a common form of transfer in accordance with the Act and rules.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

43. (i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares

(ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

44. (i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either –

a. to be registered himself as holder of the share; or

b. to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

(ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

45. (i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

(ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.

(iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

46. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

47. Any money due from the company to a shareholder may with or without the consent of such shareholder be applied by the Company in or towards the payment of any money due from him and for the later money the Company shall have a first lien on all shares held by such holder and on dividends accruing thereon, with full power of sale in respect of the shares subject to any lien.

48. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Act and these Articles, the board of directors shall have the absolute and uncontrolled discretion to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominee as if he were the transferee named in any ordinary transfer presented for registration and shall not be bound to give any reason for such refusal. Provided that the registration of transfer of any securities shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being alone or jointly with any other person or persons, indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except where the Company has a lien on shares. Transfer of shares/debentures in whatever lot shall not be refused.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

49. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

50. The notice aforesaid shall –

    a. name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and

    b. state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.

51. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

52. (i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.

    (ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.

53. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.

    (ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

54. (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;

    (ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;

    (iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and

    (iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

55. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

56. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.

57. Subject to the provisions of section 61, the company may, by ordinary resolution:-

a. Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

b. Convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;

c. Sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;

d. Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

58. Where shares are converted into stock:--

a. the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

b. the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

c. such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words “share” and “shareholder” in those regulations shall include “stock” and “stock-holder” respectively.

59. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized and consent required by law, --

a. its share capital;

b. any capital redemption reserve account; or

c. any share premium account.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

60. (i) The company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve --

a. that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and

b. that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

(ii) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision either in or towards --

a. paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;

b. paying up in full, unissued shares of the company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;

c. partly in the way specified in sub-clause (A) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (B);

d. A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account may, for the purposes of this regulation, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares;

e. The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the company in pursuance of this regulation.

61. (i) Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall –

a. make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any; and

b. generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.

(ii) The Board shall have power --

a. to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions; and

b. to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares;

(iii) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.

DEMATERIALISATION OF SECURITIES

62. The Company shall recognise interest in dematerialised securities under the Depositories Act, 1996.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, either the Company or the investor may exercise an option to issue (in case of the Company only), deal in, hold the securities (including shares) with a Depository in electronic form and the share certificates in respect thereof shall be dematerialized, in which event, the rights and obligations of the parties concerned and matters connected therewith or incidental thereof shall be governed by the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 as amended from time to time or any statutory modification(s) thereto or re-enactment thereof, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 2018 and other Applicable Law.

63. Dematerialisation/Re-materialisation of securities

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or inconsistent contained in these Articles, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialise its existing securities, re-materialise its securities held in Depositories and/or offer its fresh securities in the dematerialised form pursuant to the Depositories Act, 1996 and the rules framed thereunder, if any.

64. Register and index of beneficial owners

The Company shall cause to be kept a register and index of Members with details of securities held in materialised and dematerialised forms in any media as may be permitted by law including any form of electronic media. The register and index of beneficial owners maintained by a Depository under the Depositories Act, 1996 shall be deemed to be a register and index of Members for the purposes of this Act. The Company shall have the power to keep in any state or country outside India, a Register of Members, resident in that state or country.

BUYBACK OF SHARES

65. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 and any other applicable provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

BORROWING POWERS

66. The Board may, from time to time, and at its discretion, subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, accept deposits from Shareholders either in advance of calls or otherwise and generally raise or borrow moneys, either from the Directors, their friends and relatives or from others for the purposes of the Company and/or secure the payment of any such sum or sums of money, provided however, where the moneys to be borrowed together with the moneys already borrowed by the Company (apart from the temporary loans obtained from the Company's bankers in ordinary course of business) and remaining outstanding and undischarged at that time exceed the aggregate of the paid-up capital of the Company and its free reserves (not being reserves set apart for any specific purpose), the Board shall not borrow such money without the consent of the Company in a General Meeting by a special resolution. The Board may raise and secure the payment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and in particular by receiving deposits, issue of bonds, debentures, redeemable, debenture stock, or any security of the Company or by mortgage or charge or other security upon all or any part of the property or undertaking of the Company (both present and future), including its uncalled capital for the time being; provided that the Board shall not give any option or right to any person for making calls on the Shareholders in respect of the amount unpaid for the time being on the Shares held by them, without the previous sanction of the Company in a General Meeting.

67. Any bonds, debentures, debenture-stock or other securities may if permissible in Law be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise by the Company and shall with the consent of the board of directors be issued upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such consideration as the Board shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company, and on the condition that they or any part of them may be convertible into equity shares of any denomination, and with any privileges and conditions as to the redemption, surrender, allotment of shares, appointment of directors or otherwise. Provided that debentures with rights to allotment of or conversion into equity shares shall not be issued except with, the sanction of the Company in shareholders' meeting accorded by a special resolution.

GENERAL MEETING

68. All general meetings other than annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meeting.

69. (i) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an extraordinary general meeting.

    (ii) If at any time directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum are not within India, any director or any two members of the company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

70. (i) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

    (ii) Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as provided in section 103.

71. The chairperson, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the company.

72. If there is no such Chairperson, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairperson of the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

73. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as Chairperson or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

ADJOURNMENT OF MEETING

74. (i) The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(ii) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

(iii) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

(iv) Save as aforesaid, and as provided in section 103 of the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

VOTING RIGHTS

75. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, --

a. on a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote; and

b. on a poll, the voting rights of members shall be in proportion to his share in the paid-up equity share capital of the company.

76. A member may exercise his vote at a meeting by electronic means in accordance with section 108 and shall vote only once.

77. (i) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

(ii) For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

78. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

79. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be preceded with, pending the taking of the poll.

80. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

81. (i) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.

(ii) Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

PROXY

82. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power-of-attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarised copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

83. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form as prescribed in the rules made under section 105.

84. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given:

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

85. (a) The number of Directors shall not be less than three and not more than fifteen.

(b) The following shall be the First Directors of the Company –

1. Mathew M. Thomas
2. Janamma Thomas
3. Thomas John
4. Thomas George
5. Thomas Muthoot

(c) Two-thirds of the total number of Directors shall be persons whose period of office is liable to be determined by retirement of Directors by rotation. One-third of such Directors for the time being are liable to retire by rotation, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office at every Annual General Meeting. Managing Director or Whole Time Director or Independent Director shall not be liable to retire by rotation within the meaning of this Article.

86. (i) The remuneration of the directors shall, in so far as it consists of a monthly payment, be deemed to accrue from day-to-day.

(i) In addition to the remuneration payable to them in pursuance of the Act, the directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them –

a. in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or general meetings of the company; or

b. in connection with the business of the company.

87. The Board may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the company.

88. The company may exercise the powers conferred on it by section 88 with regard to the keeping of a foreign register; and the Board may (subject to the provisions of that section) make and vary such regulations as it may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

89. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.

90. Every director present at any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose.

91. (i) Subject to the provisions of section 149, the Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint a person as an additional director, provided the number of the directors and additional directors together shall not at any time exceed the maximum strength fixed for the Board by the articles.

(ii) Such person shall hold office only up to the date of the next annual general meeting of the company but shall be eligible for appointment by the company as a director at that meeting subject to the provisions of the Act.

92. During the absence of any director for a period of not less than 3 months from India, the board may appoint any person other than a person who is holding a directorship as an alternate director, in place of the director who has left India and the so appointed director shall hold office until the original director returns to India or until his term ends.

93. In the event of the Company borrowing any money from any Financial Corporation or Institution or Government Body or any collaborator, Banks, person or persons or any other loan giving agency or source while any money remains due to them, or any of them the said Corporation, Institution or the Government body or the financier or collaborator or Bank as the case may be shall have and may exercise the rights and powers to appoint from time to time any person or persons to be a director or directors of the Company and that such directors shall not be liable to retire by rotation subject to the limits prescribed under the Companies Act. Any person so appointed may at any time be removed from office by the appointing authority who may from to time of such removal or in case of death or resignation of the person, appoint any other or others in his place. Any such appointment or removal shall be in writing signed by the appointer and served on the Company.

94. The Board of Directors shall appoint the person nominated by the Debenture Trustee(s) in terms of clause (e) of Regulation 15(1) of the SEBI (Debenture Trustees) Regulations, 1993 as a Director on the Board. Such appointment of a Director shall be subject to the provisions of Debenture Trust Deed, Companies Act, 2013, Reserve Bank of India ('RBI') Regulations, SEBI Regulations and all other applicable provisions of law. Such nominee director shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

95. (i) The Board of Directors may meet for the conduct of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings, as it thinks fit.

(ii) The participation of directors in a meeting of the Board may be either in person or through video conferencing or other audio-visual means which are capable of recording and recognising the participation of the directors and of recording and storing the proceedings of such meetings along with date and time.

(iii) A director may, and the manager or secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board.

96. (i) Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes.

(ii) In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Board, if any, shall have a second or casting vote.

97. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act and such other applicable regulations issued by SEBI for a meeting of the Board, the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a general meeting of the company, but for no other purpose.

98. (i) The Board may elect a Chairperson of its meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office.

(ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

99. (i) The Board may, subject to the provisions of the Act, delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of such member or members of its body as it thinks fit.

(ii) Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Board.

100.(i) A committee may elect a Chairperson of its meetings.

(ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

101.(i) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.

(ii) Questions arising at any meeting of a committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.

102.All acts done in any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof or by any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such director or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

103.Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing, signed by all the members of the Board or of a committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or committee, duly convened and held.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, MANAGER, COMPANY SECRETARY OR CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

104.Subject to the provisions of the Act, --

(i) A chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer may be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit; and any chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer so appointed may be removed by means of a resolution of the Board;

(ii) A director may be appointed as chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.

105.A provision of the Act or these regulations requiring or authorizing a thing to be done by or to a director and chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.

LOCAL MANAGEMENT

106.Subject to the provisions of the Act, the board may make such arrangements as it may think fit for the management of the company's affairs abroad or in any specified locality in India and for this purpose appoint local boards, attorneys and agents and fix their remuneration and delegate to them such powers as the board may deem requisite or remuneration and delegate to them such powers as the board may requisite or expedient. Any such board member or attorneys or agents as aforesaid may be authorized by the board to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion's for the time being vested in them. The company may exercise all the powers of the Act and the official seal shall be affixed by the authority and in the presence of and the instruments sealed there with shall be signed by such persons as the board shall from time to time.

THE SEAL

107.The board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal and the seal shall never be used except by the authority previously given by the board or a committee of the board authorised by the board in that behalf, and except in the presence any two directors or one director and the secretary/s or one director and such other officer of the company as the board may appoint shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed. Provided nevertheless, that any instrument bearing the seal of the company and issued for valuable consideration shall be binding on the company notwithstanding any irregularity touching the authority of the board to issue the same.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

108. The company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

109. Subject to the provisions of section 123, the Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the company.

110. (i) The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalizing dividends; and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the company) as the Board may, from time to time, thinks fit.

(ii) The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary not to divide, without setting them aside as a reserve.

111. (i) Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but if and so long as nothing is paid upon any of the shares in the company, dividends may be declared and paid according to the amounts of the shares.

(ii) No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this regulation as paid on the share.

(iii) Where capital is paid in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such Capital shall not whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits or dividend.

(iv) Subject to provisions of the Act and Listing Regulations, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid by electronic mode or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

112. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.

113. (i) Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.

(ii) Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.

114. Any one of two or more joint holders of a share may give effective receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of such share.

115. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the persons entitled to share therein in the manner mentioned in the Act.

116. No dividend shall bear interest against the company.

117. If the Company has declared a Dividend but which has not been paid or the Dividend warrant in respect thereof has not been posted or sent within 30 (thirty) days from the date of declaration, transfer the total amount of dividend, which remained unpaid or unclaimed within 7 (seven) days from the date of expiry of the said period of 30 (thirty) days to a special account to be opened by the Company in that behalf in any scheduled bank or private sector bank, to be called “Unpaid Dividend Account of Muthoot Fincorp Limited”.

118. Any money so transferred to the unpaid Dividend account of the Company which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of 7 (seven) years from the date of such transfer, shall be transferred by the Company to the Fund established under sub-section (1) of Section 125 of the Act, viz. "Investors Education and Protection Fund".

119. No unpaid or unclaimed Dividend shall be forfeited by the Board before the claim becomes barred by Law and such forfeiture, if effected, shall be annulled in appropriate cases.

ACCOUNTS

120. The Board shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the company, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of members not being directors.

121. No member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the company except as conferred by law or authorized by the Board or by the company in general meeting.

WINDING UP

122. Subject to the provisions of Chapter XX of the Act and rules made thereunder –

(i) If the company shall be wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by the Act, divide amongst the members, in specie or kind, the whole or any part of the assets of the company, whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not.

(ii) For the purpose aforesaid, the liquidator may set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members.

(iii) The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories if he considers necessary, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

RECONSTRUCTION

123. On any sale of the undertaking of the company, the board or the liquidator on a winding-up may, if authorised by a special resolution may accept fully paid-up shares, debentures or securities of any other company, whether incorporated in India or not, either then existing or to be formed for the purchase in whole or in part of the property of the company, and the board (if the profits of the company permit) or the liquidators (in a winding-up) may distribute such shares or securities or any other property of the company amongst the members without realisation, or vest the same in trustees for them, and any special resolution may provide for the distribution or appropriation of the cash, shares or other securities, benefit or property otherwise than in accordance with the strict legal rights of the members or contributors of the company and for the valuation of any such securities or property at such price and in such manner as the meeting may approve and all holders of shares shall be bound to accept the same and shall be bound by any valuation of distribution so authorised, and waive all rights in relation, thereto.

INDEMNITY

124. Every officer of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in which relief is granted to him by the court or the Tribunal.

OTHERS

SECRECY

125. Every Director, manager, Auditor, trustee, shareholder, member of a committee, officer, servant, agent, accountant or other person employed in the business of the Company shall, if so required by the Board, before entering upon its duties, sign a declaration pledging to observe strict secrecy in relation to all confidential information of the Company and its customers and shall by such declaration pledge not to reveal any of the matters which may come to its knowledge in the discharge of its duties, except as required by the Board, or by any General Meeting, or by a court of law, or so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions of these Articles or the provisions of the Act.

GENERAL POWER

126. Wherever in the Act, it has been provided that the Company shall have any right, privilege or authority or that the Company could carry out any transaction only if the Company is so authorized by its articles, then and in that case this Article authorizes and empowers the Company to have such rights, privileges or authorities and to carry such transactions as have been permitted by the Act, without there being any specific Article in that behalf herein provided.

127. At any point of time from the date of adoption of these Articles, if the Articles are or become contrary to the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015,as amended from time to time (the "Listing Regulations"), the provisions of the Listing Regulations shall prevail over the Articles to such extent and the Company shall discharge all of its obligations as prescribed under the Listing Regulations, from time to time.

Dear Mr. Nadanasabapathy R.,

Re: Crisil Rating on the Rs. 100 Crore Non Convertible Debentures* of Muthoot Fincorp Limited

We refer to your request for a rating for the captioned Debt instrument.

Crisil Ratings has, after due consideration, assigned a Crisil AA/Stable (pronounced as Crisil double A rating with Stable outlook) rating to the captioned Debt instrument. Securities with this rating are considered to have high degree of safety regarding timely servicing of financial obligations. Such securities carry very low credit risk.

Further, in view of your decision to accept the Crisil Ratings, we request you to apprise us of the instrument details (in the enclosed format) as soon as it has been placed. In the event of your company not making the issue within a period of 180 days from the above date, or in the event of any change in the size or structure of your proposed issue, a fresh letter of revalidation from Crisil Ratings will be necessary.

As per our Rating Agreement, Crisil Ratings would disseminate the rating along with outlook through its publications and other media, and keep the rating along with outlook under surveillance for the life of the instrument. Crisil Ratings reserves the right to withdraw, or revise the rating / outlook assigned to the captioned instrument at any time, on the basis of new information, or unavailability of information, or other circumstances which Crisil Ratings believes may have an impact on the rating. Please visit www.crisilratings.com and search with the name of the rated entity to access the latest rating/s.

As per SEBI circular (reference number: CIR/IMD/DF/17/2013; dated October 22, 2013) on centralized database for corporate bonds/debentures, you are required to provide international securities identification number (ISIN; along with the reference number and the date of the rating letter) of all bond/debenture issuances made against this rating letter to us. The circular also requires you to share this information with us within 2 days after the allotment of the ISIN. We request you to mail us all the necessary and relevant information at debtissue@crisil.com. This will enable Crisil Ratings to verify and confirm to the depositories, including NSDL and CDSL, the ISIN details of debt rated by us, as required by SEBI. Feel free to contact us at debtissue@crisil.com for any clarification you may need.

Crisil Ratings' products / activities or ratings of instruments other than 'securities that are listed or proposed to be listed' may fall under the purview of financial sector regulators (FSRs) other than SEBI. In respect of such products / activities or ratings (under the purview of other FSRs such as Reserve Bank of India (RBI), Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI), among others), the grievance / dispute redressal and investor protection mechanisms available under SEBI regulations shall not be applicable. A list of products/activities or ratings of instruments falling under the purview of various FSRs along with the names of respective FSRs has been duly disclosed by Crisil Ratings on its website.

Dear Mr. Nadanasabapathy R.,

Re: Review of Crisil Rating on the Rs. 600 Crore Non Convertible Debentures* of Muthoot Fincorp Limited

All ratings assigned by Crisil Ratings are kept under continuous surveillance and review.

Crisil Ratings has, after due consideration, reaffirmed its Crisil AA/Stable (pronounced as Crisil double A rating with Stable outlook) rating on the captioned debt instrument. Securities with this rating are considered to have high degree of safety regarding timely servicing of financial obligations. Such securities carry very low credit risk.

In the event of your company not making the issue within a period of 180 days from the above date, or in the event of any change in the size or structure of your proposed issue, a fresh letter of revalidation from Crisil Ratings will be necessary.

As per our Rating Agreement, Crisil Ratings would disseminate the rating along with outlook through its publications and other media, and keep the rating along with outlook under surveillance for the life of the instrument. Crisil Ratings reserves the right to withdraw, or revise the rating / outlook assigned to the captioned instrument at any time, on the basis of new information, or unavailability of information, or other circumstances which Crisil Ratings believes may have an impact on the rating. Please visit www.crisilratings.com and search with the name of the rated entity to access the latest rating/s.

As per SEBI circular (reference number: CIR/IMD/DF/17/2013; dated October 22, 2013) on centralized database for corporate bonds/debentures, you are required to provide international securities identification number (ISIN; along with the reference number and the date of the rating letter) of all bond/debenture issuances made against this rating letter to us. The circular also requires you to share this information with us within 2 days after the allotment of the ISIN. We request you to mail us all the necessary and relevant information at debtissue@crisil.com. This will enable Crisil Ratings to verify and confirm to the depositories, including NSDL and CDSL, the ISIN details of debt rated by us, as required by SEBI. Feel free to contact us at debtissue@crisil.com for any clarification you may need.

Crisil Ratings' products / activities or ratings of instruments other than 'securities that are listed or proposed to be listed' may fall under the purview of financial sector regulators (FSRs) other than SEBI. In respect of such products / activities or ratings (under the purview of other FSRs such as Reserve Bank of India (RBI), Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI), among others), the grievance / dispute redressal and investor protection mechanisms available under SEBI regulations shall not be applicable. A list of products/activities or ratings of instruments falling under the purview of various FSRs along with the names of respective FSRs has been duly disclosed by Crisil Ratings on its website.

Detailed Rationale

Crisil Ratings has assigned its 'Crisil AA/Stable' rating to Rs 100 crore non-convertible debentures (NCDs) of Muthoot Fincorp Limited (MFL; flagship company of the Muthoot Pappachan group [MPG]). Crisil Ratings has also reaffirmed its ratings on other long-term debt instruments and bank facilities of MFL at 'Crisil AA/Crisil AA-/Stable'. The rating on the commercial paper has been reaffirmed at 'Crisil A1+'.

Crisil Ratings has also withdrawn its rating on NCDs worth Rs 118.69 crore, on receipt of independent confirmation that these instruments have been fully redeemed, in line with its withdrawal policy. (Refer to 'Annexure - Details of rating withdrawn' for details).

The rating continues to reflect strengthening of the group's market position in the flagship gold loan business and expected improvement in profitability.

The MPG has continued to be among the top four gold loan non-banking finance companies (NBFCs), with a dominant share of assets under management (AUM). MFL, on a standalone basis, had AUM of Rs.65,690 crore as of June 2026, which accounts for ~76% of the overall AUM. The group's overall AUM has exhibited strong growth, increasing to Rs 86,965 crore as on June 30, 2026, from Rs 78,281 crore as on March 31, 2026 (Rs 51,535 crore as on March 31, 2025). The microfinance (MFI) book has also shown a strong rebound in the second half of fiscal 2026 after moderation in fiscal 2025. The group's strategic emphasis on co-lending is expected to further bolster its market position and support AUM growth in the gold loan segment over the medium term.

MFL, on standalone basis, reported a profit after tax (PAT) of Rs 1,640 crore during fiscal 2026 compared to Rs 787 crore in fiscal 2025, with a return on managed assets (RoMA) of 3.1% compared to 2.3% in fiscal 2025. During the first quarter of fiscal 2027, the company reported standalone PAT of Rs 706 crore and RoMA of 4.1%. The group's consolidated RoMA has increased to 2.5% in fiscal 2026 as compared to 1.3% in fiscal 2025. This was driven by a significant improvement in scale at the standalone level and a turnaround in Muthoot Microfin Ltd's (MML's) performance, which reported profits compared to losses in the previous fiscal. Crisil Ratings expects the earnings to remain stable over the medium term, supported by gradual recovery in profitability for subsidiaries viz. MML and Muthoot Capital Services Ltd (MCSL) and healthy performance of MFL.

With respect to capitalisation metrics, consolidated networth increased to Rs 9,299 crore as of March 2026 from Rs 7,432 crore as of March 2025. It further increased to Rs 10,098 (approximately) as of June 2026. Consolidated gearing stood at 6.5 times as on June 30, 2026, as compared to 6.4 times as on March 31, 2026 (5.2 times as of March 31, 2025).

Analytical Approach

Crisil Ratings has combined the business and financial risk profiles of MFL (engaged in financing against gold jewellery, and financing micro and small and medium enterprises [MSMEs]), MML (microfinance), MCSL (two-wheeler finance), and Muthoot Housing Finance Company Ltd (MHFCL; housing finance). This is because all these companies, collectively referred to as MPG, have significant financial, managerial and operational linkages. MML and MHFCL are subsidiaries of MFL while the promoters hold a 62.5% stake in MCSL.

The rating on the perpetual debt instruments reflects the subordinated nature of instruments and factors in the extent of comfortable buffer consistently maintained by MFL over the regulatory capital adequacy requirements and adequate financial flexibility. The rating on the perpetual bonds additionally takes into account restriction to MFL from servicing these instruments if it breaches the minimum regulatory capital requirement or if the regulator denies permission to the company to make payments of interest and principal, if it reports losses.

Please refer Annexure - List of Entities Consolidated, which captures the list of entities considered and their analytical treatment of consolidation.

Key Rating Drivers - Strengths

Established market position in gold financing, supported by extensive experience of promoters

MFL has an established market position in gold financing business, backed by the extensive experience of its promoters who have spent over seven decades in lending against gold jewellery. The company continues to be among the top four gold loan NBFCs and is also among the top three non-bank players in microfinance. The MPG's AUM has grown steadily over the years, registering a 5-year compound annual growth rate of ~22% through fiscal 2026, reaching Rs 86,965 crore as on June 30, 2026.

The company has built a strong reputation and brand in South India, with a well-established assessment and underwriting methodology. The group's gold loan AUM stood at Rs 58,531 crore (including Rs 4001 crore of co-lending and Rs 7821 of direct assignment) as of June 2026 in comparison to Rs 50,738 crore in fiscal 2026. MFL, at a standalone level, reported an AUM of Rs 65,690 crore as on June 30, 2026. As far as disbursements are concerned, the company maintained average monthly disbursement rate of close to Rs 12,693 crore during fiscal 2026 against Rs 5,523 crore during fiscal 2025. The company's AUM per branch has also improved significantly, reaching around 15.2 crore as of March 2026 from Rs 9 crore as on March 31, 2025, with an increase in the branches to 3,787 from 3,736.

Diversified product profile of the MPG

The MPG has diversified its product profile over the past few years. The group's diversified product profile includes five major segments, with gold loans remaining the largest, followed by microfinance, and overall managed AUM standing at around

Rs 86,965 crore as of June 30, 2026. MFL's AUM has seen a steady increase in the proportion of gold loans, which contributed around 67% to the group's AUM as of June 30, 2026, compared to 65% as on March 31, 2026. In contrast, the microfinance proportion of the group's AUM has been declining, from 24% in fiscal 2025 to 18% as of March 31, 2026, and further to 17% on June 30, 2026. The AUM of vehicle loans stood at 4%, and housing finance stood at 4% with AUM of Rs 3,379 crore and Rs 3,440 crore, respectively. Crisil Ratings expects gold loans to continue to hold the largest share of the consolidated AUM over the medium term, driven by the company's strategic focus on this segment.

Adequate capitalisation

MFL's networth stood at Rs 7,908 crore at the standalone level and Rs 10,098 crore (approximately) at the consolidated level as of June 2026, supported by internal accrual and capital infusion in the microfinance subsidiary through an IPO in December 2023. The company's capitalisation is further strengthened by low asset-side risks due to the security of gold jewellery. Additionally, the board of directors of the company has approved for initial public offerings to raise capital to the extent of Rs 3,000 crore, which will further strengthen the overall capital position. The gearing stood at 6.0 times (5.7 times; adjusted for liquidity) at the standalone level and 6.4 times (approximately) at the consolidated level as of June 2026. The tier 1 ratio and overall capital to risk-weighted assets ratio stood at 13.3% and 18.1%, respectively, as of June 2026. The management is expected to maintain gearing at the current level over the medium term. Any material increase in gearing beyond current thresholds will be a key rating sensitivity factor.

Healthy asset quality in the gold loan segment to support overall group asset quality

Gross non-performing assets (GNPAs) for MFL stood at 1.03% as of March 2026 against 1.98% in March 2025 and further marginally decreased to 0.77% as of June 2026. The company's gold loan portfolio, which is its primary business, has maintained healthy asset quality over the years, backed by strong collection efficiency and low credit costs. In fiscal 2026, the company reported an annualised credit cost of 0.5%. MFL has been conducting regular auctions of gold loans since June 2021, which has helped in maintaining healthy asset quality. The company is also focusing on short-tenure gold loan products, which will help de-risk the portfolio from sharp movements in gold prices. Additionally, MFL is expanding its non-gold portfolio, which stood at Rs 7,159 crore as of June 30, 2026, and includes lending to MSME customers and small traders and loan against property (LAP) loans to salaried customers. Overall, the company's asset quality is expected to remain stable, with GNPAs likely to remain below 2% in the gold loan segment.

Improved earnings profile

MFL’s profitability has shown significant improvement over the last 1-2 years, with standalone RoMA increasing to 3.1% in fiscal 2026 from 2.3% in fiscal 2025, one of its highest in the last 8 years. The RoMA further improved to 4.1% (annualised) in the first quarter of fiscal 2027. The company's focus on regular interest collections in its gold loan portfolio has helped to avoid delinquencies and reduce losses.

The group's consolidated profitability in fiscal 2025 was impacted by losses in the microfinance segment, resulting in a decline in consolidated RoMA to 1.3%. The microfinance segment's RoMA stood at negative 1.6% in fiscal 2025, down from 3.6% in fiscal 2024. Nevertheless, the group witnessed a substantial improvement in profitability during fiscal 2026, with a PAT of Rs 1,859 crore and an annualised RoMA of 2.5%. This was driven by a significant improvement in scale at the standalone level and a turnaround in MML's performance. In fiscal 2026, the microfinance segment's RoMA improved to 1.1% (annualised), indicating a gradual recovery. The vehicle finance segment, housed in MCSL, reported a decline in RoMA to 0.3% in fiscal 2026 from 1.5% in fiscal 2025 owing to the higher credit cost during the period on account of the collection issues in certain pockets in the north.

However, Crisil Ratings expects earnings profile to continue to improve in fiscal 2027, supported by gradual recovery in profitability for subsidiaries—MML and MCSL—and continued healthy performance of MFL. Nevertheless, given share of the group in the unsecured segment, its ability to maintain credit costs and thereby keep improving its earnings profile will remain monitorable.

Key Rating Drivers - Weaknesses

Geographical concentration in portfolio

High geographical concentration persists, with South India accounting for around 55% of the gold loan portfolio as of June 2026, though it improved from 70% as of March 2019. This was achieved by increase in per branch business from non-South branches; opening of new branches in North, East and South; and closure or merger of non-viable branches in South India. While concentration has been declining, it is higher than that of peers. Presently, since demand for gold loans has been high in the region, the proportion of AUM from the south may not decline further in subsequent fiscals.

Potential challenges associated with the non-gold loan segments
The non-gold segments accounted for 33% of the overall portfolio as on June 30, 2026. While MPG has managed to grow these businesses and increase the segmental share over the last 2-3 years, potential challenges linked to seasoning of the loan book and asset quality remain. In fiscal 2026, the vehicle loan and housing finance portfolios registered growth of ~12.5% and ~27.3%, respectively, while the microfinance portfolio registered ~13.3% growth.

In the microfinance segment, the 90+ days past due (dpd) stood at 5.3% as on March 31, 2026, compared to 5.6% as on March 31, 2025 (4.2% as on March 31, 2024). Asset quality was impacted by increase in indebtedness across customers, along with external challenges such as heat waves, elections and ground-level attrition. Due to the weakening of asset quality, credit costs increased to 7.5% during fiscal 2025, from 1.5% in fiscal 2024. However, overall asset quality (in terms of collections) started showing substantial recovery, particularly during the second half of fiscal 2026. In the first quarter of fiscal 2027, the asset quality improved with the 90+ dpd stood at 3.5%. As a result, credit costs improved during the first quarter of fiscal 2027 to 2.3% (annualised) from 3.0% in fiscal 2026. The company has maintained higher provisions to cover most of its stressed accounts, with a provision cover of around 70% as of June 2026.

Asset quality in the vehicle finance segment was moderated in fiscal 2026. GNPA stood at 7.0% as on March 31,2026, against 4.9% as on March 31, 2025. However, it has substantially recovered in the first quarter of fiscal 2027 with GNPA declining to 3.9%. The 90+ dpd for MHFCL stood at 2.6% as of June 2026 against 2.3% as on March 31, 2026 (1.3% as on March 31, 2025). Nevertheless, Crisil Ratings will continue to closely monitor the delinquency trend and collection efficiencies in the non-gold loan segments over the medium term. Additionally, sufficiency of capital buffers to withstand asset-side shocks remains a key rating sensitivity factor.

Liquidity Strong
As per the asset liability management statement as on March 31, 2026, MFL, on a standalone basis, had cumulative positive gaps in the up-to-1-year bucket. As on August 31, 2026, it had liquidity of Rs 1,999 crore (Rs 1,456 crore of cash and equivalent and Rs 544 crore of cash credit [CC]/working capital demand loan [WCDL]). Against this, it had total debt obligation (including operational expenses) of Rs 1,992 crore in September 2026. This excludes cash credit/working capital demand loans, which are typically rolled over. Crisil Ratings notes that MFL has been able to roll over the CC/WCDL limits in the past and during the previous three months and expects to be able to roll over the balance limits falling due in the coming months.

During fiscal 2026, MFL has raised Rs 15,153 crore in the form of term loan, NCDs, external commercial borrowings, sub-debt and commercial paper at a weighted average interest rate of 9.0%. While a larger proportion of borrowing has been sourced as funding lines from banks and financial institutions such as term loans and CC/WCDL, the resource profile remained diversified across avenues such as commercial paper, non-convertible debentures, ECBs and sub-debt.

Outlook Stable
Crisil Ratings believes MFL's business risk profile is likely to improve further, supported by sustenance of market position in the gold loan business, strong growth in overall AUM and expected improvement in profitability and asset quality in the non-gold portfolio.

Rating sensitivity factors
Upward factors:
- Sustained improvement in capital position with reduction in gearing at MFL (standalone) resulting in similar reduction in gearing at MPG
- Sustained improvement in the consolidated profitability with RoMA increasing to 4% or higher
- Improvement in the asset quality of the non-gold loan segment

Downward factors:
- Deterioration in asset quality with GNPAs increasing and remaining above 5%

- Gearing level at MPG level remaining over 7 times
- Deterioration in consolidated profitability with RoMA being less than 2.5%

About the Company

Set up in 1997, MFL is a non-deposit-taking, systemically important NBFC engaged in lending against gold jewellery. The company has diversified into the secured and unsecured MSME segments. It is the flagship company of the MPG, which has diverse businesses such as hospitality, real estate and power generation. The company also distributes mutual funds and general and life insurance products and operates in the money transfer segment and foreign exchanges through its branches. As of June 2026, MFL (on a standalone basis) had AUM of Rs 65,690 crore, MML had AUM of Rs 14,457 crore, MCSL had Rs 3,379 crore and MHFCL had Rs 3,440 crore. The microfinance business accounted for a significant share (17%), while the AUM of vehicle and housing finance stood at 4% each.

About Crisil Ratings Limited (A subsidiary of Crisil Limited, an S&P Global Company)

Crisil Ratings pioneered the concept of credit rating in India in 1987. With a tradition of independence, analytical rigour and innovation, we set the standards in the credit rating business. We rate the entire range of debt instruments, such as bank loans, certificates of deposit, commercial paper, non-convertible/convertible/partially convertible bonds and debentures, perpetual bonds, bank hybrid capital instruments, asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities, partial guarantees and other structured debt instruments. We have rated over 33,000 large and mid-scale corporates and financial institutions. We have also instituted several innovations in India in the rating business, including ratings for municipal bonds, partially guaranteed instruments and infrastructure investment trusts (InvITs).

Crisil Ratings Limited ('Crisil Ratings') is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Crisil Limited ('Crisil'). Crisil Ratings Limited is registered in India as a credit rating agency with the Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI").

BWR/NCD/HO/CRC/HS/0119/2026-27

To,
Mr. Thomas John Muthoot
Chairman and Managing Director
Muthoot Fincorp Ltd.
Muthoot Centre, Punnen Road
Trivandrum - 695 039, Kerala

Dear Sir,

Sub: Assignment of Rating of NCDs (Public Issue) of Rs 3600.00 crores (Rupees Three Thousand Six Hundred Crores Only), Reaffirmation of Rating of Subordinated Debt of Rs. 1500.00 crores (Rupees One Thousand Five Hundred Crores Only), Reaffirmation of Rating of Subordinated Debt amounting to Rs. 300.00 crores (Rupees Three Hundred Crores Only), Reaffirmation of Rating of Innovative Perpetual Debt Instruments (IPDI) of Rs. 374.00 crores (Rupees Three Hundred and Seventy Four Crores Only) and Reaffirmation of Rating of NCDs (Public Issue) of Rs. 3000 crores (Rupees Three Thousand Crores Only), of Muthoot Fincorp Limited as per the mandate and BWR rating letter BWR/NCD/HO/CRC/HS/0066/2026-27 dated 23 July 2026.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity for rating the proposed NCD Issue of Rs 3600.00 Crores of Muthoot Fincorp Limited. Based on the information and clarifications, as well as publicly available information, we are pleased to assign a BWR AA+/Stable to Muthoot Fincorp Ltd's NCD Issue of Rs 3600 Crores (Rupees Three Thousand Six Hundred Crores Only), reaffirm the rating of Subordinated debt of Rs. 1500 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, reaffirm the rating of NCDs (public issue) of Rs. 3000.00 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, reaffirm the rating of Subordinated Debt issues amounting to Rs. 300.00 Crs at BWR AA+/Stable and reaffirm the rating of Innovative Perpetual Debt Instruments (IPDI) of Rs. 374.00 crores at BWR AA-/Stable. Instruments with this rating are considered to have a high degree of safety regarding the timely servicing of financial obligations and carry very low credit risk.

The Rating is valid for one year from the date of publication of the rating rationale dated 29 Sept 2026, subject to the terms and conditions agreed upon in your mandate dated 11 Sept 2026 and our letter dated 23 July 2026 and any other relevant correspondence., Please refer to the standard disclaimer attached to this letter.

We will conduct regular surveillance during the life of the instrument and require you to provide any significant information that may affect the Company's finances without delay.

Non-submission of No Default Statement (NDS) on a monthly basis will result in publishing your Company's name on our website under "NDS not submitted".

Please note that on non-submission of NDS for consecutive 3 months or BWR's inability to validate your timely debt servicing through any other source, your rating will be migrated to the Issuer Not Co-operative (INC) category within 5 working days from three consecutive months of non-submission of NDS.

Muthoot Fincorp Ltd.

BWR may in its judgement, migrate your rating to the INC category before the expiry of three consecutive months of non-receipt of NDS.

Rating Rationale issued by us in this regard is enclosed for your information. We are endorsing a copy of this letter along with a copy of the said Rating Rationale to the Debenture Trustee for their information and records.
We look forward to your prompt confirmation and continued cooperation in maintaining the integrity of the rating process.

Best Regards,

Hemant Sagare
Director - Ratings (BFSI)

Note: The Rating Rationale for all accepted ratings is published on the Brickwork Ratings website. Non-accepted ratings are also published. If interested parties are unable to view the rationale, they are encouraged to contact us at clientsupport@brickworkratings.com

RATING ACTION/OUTLOOK: ASSIGNMENT/REAFFIRMATION/ STABLE

Brickwork Ratings assigns the rating of NCDs (Public Issue) of Rs 3600 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, reaffirms the rating of Subordinated debt of Rs. 1500 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, reaffirms the rating of NCDs (Public Issue) of Rs. 3000 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, reaffirms the rating of Subordinated debt issues amounting to Rs. 300 crores at BWR AA+/Stable, and reaffirms the rating of Innovative Perpetual Debt Instruments (IPDI) of Rs. 374 crores at BWR AA-/Stable, of Muthoot Fincorp Ltd. as tabulated above.

The rating reaffirmation for the existing issues and the rating assignment for the proposed NCDs (Public Issue) necessarily factor in the substantial growth in assets under management, stable earnings, the improvement in asset quality, continued strong liquidity profile of the company, coupled with a continued diversified resource profile. The reaffirmation of the rating for the IPDI factors in the capitalisation levels of the company, wherein the CRAR is expected to be maintained between 18-20%. The key factors for the IPDI are the current levels of capitalisation. BWR expects the company to maintain healthy capital and reserves with substantial buffers to strengthen the IPDI ratings.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid, BWR also continues to factor in the company's existence of over 30 years, the experience of the promoters and management team, long track record, and established market position in the gold loan industry, which continue to provide additional comfort. The rating is, however, constrained by the moderate gearing levels and any volatility in prices downwards, impacting the majority of its underlying portfolio, the gold loan segment.

Muthoot Fincorp Ltd. (part of Muthoot Pappachan Group) is a non-deposit-taking, systemically important Middle-layer non-banking finance company, headquartered in Trivandrum, Kerala. It is primarily in the business of lending against household-used gold jewelry to individuals. In addition, the company is also into other segments, including MSME loans, forex operations, money transfer business, and wind power generation. The company has a lineage of 135 years from the present promoter's grandfather, Mr. Ninan Mathew. MFL's operating history has evolved over a period of 85 years. Muthoot Pappachan Group has diversified interests in financial services, hospitality, real estate, and auto dealerships. Muthoot Fincorp Ltd. has the following subsidiaries - Muthoot Microfin Ltd., Muthoot Housing Finance Co. Ltd., and Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Ltd.

KEY RATING DRIVERS WITH DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Credit Strengths:

- Extensive experience of promoters and management team: MFL is the flagship company of the Muthoot Pappachan Group. The Group has diversified interests in financial services, hospitality, real estate, and auto dealerships. MFL is largely a promoter-driven company, jointly managed by Mr. Thomas John Muthoot (Group Chairman and Managing Director), Mr. Thomas George Muthoot (Joint Managing Director), and Mr. Thomas Muthoot (Joint Managing Director) (all brothers). The company's promoters have a deep understanding of the gold loan business and have been in this business for over eight decades. The top management is supported by professionals with designated heads looking after strategy, credit risk, operations, treasury functions, marketing, audit, and other support functions.

- Consistent AUM size: As on Q4FY26, the AUM of MFL stood at Rs. 57,580.70 Crores (As against Rs. 49,267.93 crores for Q3FY26, including off-book). Out of the total managed AUM, the Gold loan book stood at Rs. 48,005.87 crores for Q4FY2026, while the balance is represented by managed AUM of MSME Loans, Business Loans, and Digital Loans. As on 31 Dec 2025, the managed AUM of MFL stood at Rs. 49,267.93 crores, including off-book. Gold loan book, including co-lending, was Rs. 42,940.92 crores, while the balance is represented by the own book MSME, Co-lending, and DA, Business Loans, Digital Loans, and Legacy Portfolio. As on Q1FY27, the AUM stood at 65689.74 crores. Out of the total managed AUM, the Gold loan book stood at Rs. 58530.87 crores.
  As per the financials of Q4FY2026, MFL reported a total revenue from operations at Rs. 8364.29 crores, increased from Rs. 5550.53 crores in Q4FY2025 (an increase of 50.69% yoy). The Company reported a PAT of Rs. 1,640.22 crores for FY2026 against Rs. 787.15 crores for FY2025. Total revenue for Q1FY27 stood at Rs. 3159 crores while the PAT reported is at 705 crores.

- Improvement in Asset Quality: GNPA as on Dec 31, 2025, was at 1.34%, and NNPA stood at 0.69%. Asset quality has improved, with GNPA at 1.03% and NNPA at 0.57% as on March 31st, 2026. The GNPA and NNPA ratios as on June 30 2026 have further improved to 0.77% and 0.40%, respectively. On a forward-looking basis, managing these ratios below the GNPA ratio < 2% and the NNPA ratio < 1% shall be the rating monitorable.

Credit Risks:

- Inherent risk of portfolio and Geographic concentration risk: ~88% of the AUM as on 30 June 2026 consists of the Gold Loan portfolio. The loan portfolio has an inherent risk due to volatility in gold prices. Further, around 55-60% of the portfolio is concentrated in the southern part of India, though spread across different states. The portfolio product mix and geographic concentration are expected to remain in line with the existing composition in the medium term.

- Moderate gearing levels: The CRAR remained at a comfortable level of ~18.06% in Q1 FY 2027 (vs 18.71% in Q1FY26), consistently above the regulatory requirements over the years. Gearing (total outside liabilities less cash and cash equivalents / tangible net worth) levels remained consistently in the range of 4.5 to 6.0 times since FY2022, though increased from 4.87x in FY24 to 5.86x in FY25 to 6.10x in FY26. Gearing ratio as on June 30, 2026 is at 5.78x

Positive:

- Scaling up of business over Rs. 1,00,000 crores with consistent growth in earnings
- Maintaining asset quality with Gross NPA ratios below 1% and NNPA ratios below 0.7%
- Comfortable capitalisation with CRAR above 22%

Negative:

- Sharp decline in AUM below 10% of its estimated size, impacting the earnings profile
- Weakening of asset quality with GNPA ratios above 3.0% and NNPA ratios above 1.5%
- Declining in the CRAR below 16.50%, reducing the available comfortable capital buffer

LIQUIDITY INDICATORS: STRONG

The company's next 12-month debt obligations for the period Jan 2026 - Dec 2026 amounted to ~Rs. 7980 crores, as against its average quarterly collections of ~Rs. 18,076 crores, cash and equivalents of Rs. 1,645 crores, liquid investments of Rs 331 crores, and undrawn bank lines of Rs. 1,655 crores. There were no negative cumulative mismatches across the buckets up to 3 years as per the ALM as of 31 March 2026.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL, GOVERNANCE (ESG) PRACTICES:

The company demonstrates an Adequate ESG profile based on its environmental, social, and governance practices. The ESG profile for financial sector entities typically factors governance as a key differentiator.

Environmental: Environmental evaluation considers lending restrictions on environmentally sensitive sectors (if applicable) and the extent of support for green or sustainable-financing products.

Social: Social assessment covers employee welfare initiatives, diversity and inclusion practices, women workforce, and financial-inclusion measures. Customer service and grievance-resolution systems, data privacy and information-security measures, and community development or CSR initiatives.

Governance: Governance analysis includes the effectiveness of investor and stakeholder grievance-redressal mechanisms, the structure and independence of the board (with independent directors), adherence to regulatory and ethical standards, and workforce-governance policies promoting fairness and equity.

COMPLEXITY LEVEL OF THE RATED INSTRUMENTS

Instrument	Complexity Indicator
Subordinated Debt	Simple / Highly Complex
NCDs	Simple
IPDI	Highly Complex

The Complexity Indicator refers to the ease with which the returns associated with the rated instrument could be estimated. It does not indicate the risk related to the timely payments on the instrument, which is rather indicated by the instrument's credit rating. It also does not indicate the complexity associated with analysing an entity's financial, business, or industry risks or complexity related to the structural, transactional, or legal aspects.

Independent Auditor's Review Report on unaudited standalone financial results of the Company pursuant to Regulation 52 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended

To
The Board of Directors,
Muthoot Fincorp Limited,
Muthoot Centre, Punnen Road,
Thiruvananthapuram – 695001

1. We have reviewed the accompanying statement of unaudited standalone financial results of M/s. Muthoot Fincorp Limited, TC No 27/3022, Muthoot Centre, Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram – 695001 ("the Company") for the quarter ended June 30, 2026 ("Statement"), being submitted by the Company pursuant to the requirements of Regulation 52 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended, read with relevant circulars issued by SEBI.

2. This Statement, which is the responsibility of the Company's Management and approved by the Board of Directors, has been prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles laid down in the Indian Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting" (IND AS 34), prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended, read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with the Listing Regulations read with relevant circulars issued by the SEBI. Our responsibility is to issue a report on the Statement based on our review.

3. We conducted our Review in accordance with the Standard on Review Engagements (SRE) 2410, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity", issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. This Standard requires that we plan and perform the review to obtain moderate assurance as to whether the Statement is free of material misstatement. A review is limited primarily to inquiries of company personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data and thus provide less assurance than an audit. We have not performed an audit and accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

4. Based on our review conducted as above, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying Statement of standalone, unaudited financial results prepared in accordance with the aforesaid Indian Accounting Standards and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, has not disclosed the information required to be disclosed in terms of Regulation 52 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended, including the manner in which it is to be disclosed, or that it contains any material misstatement or that it has not been prepared

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To,

THE MEMBERS OF MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED,

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the holding Company"), Muthoot Centre, TC No 14/2074-7, Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram – 695 001 and its subsidiaries (together referred as "Group") which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2026, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of changes in equity and the Consolidated Statement of cash flows for the year then ended, including the notes to the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements, a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. [hereinafter referred to as "Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Consolidated Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act , (the Ind AS) and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the Consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at 31st March, 2026, and its Consolidated profit including other Comprehensive Income, Consolidated Changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the other matters section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matters	How it's been addressed in Audit
a) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Holding Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board of the Holding Company in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the It related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.
b) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence on information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 315) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems of Holding Company on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records(SA 530). We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc of the Holding Company. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors and our review of the procedures and processes adopted, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.

c) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapses in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches of holding company and central loan processing hub of the holding Company which are considered top, based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place. We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level of the holding company and how the same is considered and incorporated in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements. We have also assessed and analysed the internal audit reports of holding company and how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the Holding Company's financial accounting and reporting records. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the Subsidiary Companies' branches. Based on the audit report issued by auditors of subsidiaries, no major weaknesses were identified.

d) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets.
As at 31st March 2026, the Group had reported a total impairment loss allowance of ₹ 80,605.65 lakhs (31st March 2025 ₹ 87,428.35lakhs).

A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance:
• Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets;
• Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves
	The audit procedures performed for the holding Company, among others, included:

	• Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms.
	• Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts.
	• Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as:
	  • Reading account statements and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis.
	  • Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.	which needed to be considered as NPA. • Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors. • We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the It related systems and controls of the subsidiaries

Information Other than the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report but does not include the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the Consolidated financial position, Consolidated financial performance, Consolidated changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows of the Group including its Associates and jointly controlled entities in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Ind AS Financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

• Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

• Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company and its subsidiaries (the Group) have adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

• Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

• Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to cease to continue as a going concern.

• Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

• Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matters

(a) We did not audit the financial statements / financial information of the subsidiaries, whose financial statements reflect total assets of ₹ 16,10,504.90 lakhs as at 31st March, 2026, total revenues of ₹ 2,92,680.30 lakhs and net cash flows amounting to ₹ (8,338.07) lakhs for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

(b) This financial statements / financial information has been audited by other auditors whose reports have been furnished to us by the Management and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries, and our report in terms of sub-sections (3) and (11) of Section 143 of the Act, in so far as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiaries, is based solely on the reports of the other auditors.

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in Paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' of the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2026.

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ("the Act"):

In conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Muthoot Fincorp Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies, which includes internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material aspects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary companies are sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Group's internal financial controls system over financial reporting

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that;

(1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;

(2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and

(3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31,2026 based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to the subsidiary companies are based solely on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such company. Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matter.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but where the Group has continuing involvement

The Group has sold some loans and advances as a source of finance. As per terms of the deal, risk and reward has been transferred to the customer. Hence, as per the derecognition criteria of IND AS 109, including transfer of substantially all risks and rewards relating to assets being transferred to the buyer being met, the assets have been derecognised. The table below summarises the carrying amount of the derecognised financial assets.

Under previous GAAP, retained interest receivable on loan assignment transactions were recognised over the period of such assigned loans. Under Ind AS, the gain arising on said transactions are recorded upfront by discounting the future cash flows accruing in the form of differential interest on such assigned loan to their present values.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2026	As at 31st March 2025
Carrying amount of derecognised financial assets	5,42,069.29	2,84,415.68
Gain/(loss) from derecognition	25,217.48	43,747.92

Transferred financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety

The Group uses securitisations as a source of finance and a means of risk transfer. The Group securitised its mircofinance loans and Non-Gold loan portfolios to different entities. These entities are not related to the Group. Also, the Group neither holds any equity or other interest nor controls them.
As per the terms of the agreement, the Group is exposed to first loss amounting to 3.5% - 10% (5% - 7% as at March 31, 2025) of the amount securitised and therefore continues to be exposed to significant risk and rewards relating to the underlying gold and microfinance loans. These receivables are not derecognised and proceeds received are recorded as a financial liability under borrowings.
The table below outlines the carrying amounts and fair values of all financial assets transferred that are not derecognised in their entirety and associated liabilities.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2026	As at 31st March 2025
Carrying amount of assets re - recognised due to non transfer of assets	2,74,457.48	1,02,417.02
Carrying amount of associated liabilities	2,71,948.17	1,13,440.83

The carrying amount of above assets and liabilities is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

25.1. Nature and purpose of reserve

Securities Premium
Securities premium is used to record the premium on issue of shares. This can be utilised only for limited purposes such as issuance of bonus shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 45-IC of the RBI Act 1934)
Statutory Reserve represents the Reserve Fund created under Section 45-IC of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 29C of the NHB Act 1987)
Statutory reserve is created in terms of Section 29C of the National Housing Bank Act, 1987 read with Section 36(1)(viii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Retained Earnings
This Reserve represents the cumulative profits of the Group. This Reserve can be utilized in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

General reserve
Represents the profits or losses made by the Employee Welfare Trust on account of issue or sale of treasury stock and includes transfer of lapsed options.

Employee stock options outstanding
The account is used to recognise the grant date value of options issued to employees under Employee stock option plan and adjusted as and when such options are exercised or otherwise expire.

Other comprehensive income
Changes in the fair value of loan assets held with the business objective of collect and sell are recognised in other comprehensive income. These changes are accumulated within the FVOCI debt investments reserve within equity. The company transfers amounts from this reserve to the statement of profit and loss when the loan assets are sold. Any impairment loss on such loans are reclassified immediately to the statement of profit and loss. Other comprehensive income also consists of re-measurement of net defined benefit liability and fair value changes on equity instruments measured through other comprehensive income. It also includes effective portion of cash flow hedges representing the cumulative gains/(losses) arising on changes in fair value of the derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges through OCI. The changes in the fair value of forward element of the forward contract on reporting date where deferred and retained in the cost of hedging reserve, also forms part of other comprehensive income.

(d) Total of previous year shortfall	1,713.25	742.63
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2025-26 is tied to the phased development of our flagship initiative, the Muthoot Pappachan Centre of Excellence in Sports. The project maintains its established momentum regarding planning, design finalization, and academic framework development.However, because of the sheer scale of this integrated institution, the transition to active capital expenditure is strictly contingent upon securing essential statutory approvals. The primary dependency remains the environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), which, along with secondary regulatory sanctions, is currently being processed by the respective authorities.We reiterate our absolute commitment to this long-term transformational project. The unspent CSR funds are securely earmarked for this purpose and will be utilized systematically as statutory clearances are received and site implementation steps forward.	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2024-25 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year.

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at March 31, 2026		As at March 31, 2025
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%
Discount Rate of CCCPS Conversion Feature	1,019.97	-1,049.22	(966.07)	993.71
Discount for Lack of Marketability	(649.35)	649.35	(604.31)	604.31

Loan assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income

Loan receivables valuation is carried out for two portfolios segregated on the basis of repayment frequency – monthly and weekly. The valuation of each portfolio is done by discounting the aggregate future cash flows with risk-adjusted discounting rate for the remaining portfolio tenor. The discounting factor is applied assuming the cashflows will be evenly received in a month. The overdue cashflows upto 30days are considered in the sixth month and 31-90 days are considered in 12th month. For Stage 3 loans, the outstanding principal after applying LGD is considered in the 12th month cashflow.

Following inputs have been used to calculate the fair value of loans receivables:

(i) Future cash flows: Include principal receivable, interest receivable and tenor information based on the repayment schedule agreed with the borrowers.

(ii) Risk-adjusted discount rate: This rate has been arrived using the cost of funds approach.

The following inputs have been used:

(i) Cost of funds

(ii) Credit spread of borrowers

(iii) Servicing cost of a financial asset

41 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

The fair value of financial instruments as referred to above have been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The categories used are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical instruments in an active market;

Level 2: Directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) observable market inputs, other than Level 1 inputs; and

Level 3: Inputs which are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Fair value technique

Investments at fair value

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued on a case-by-case has been classified as Level 3.

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

For Investments in Security receipts (SRs), Net Asset Value is as certified by the issuer of Security Receipts. Accordingly, the fair valuation technique in this regard is classified under Level 3. The disclosure of the sensitivity of the fair value measurement to changes in unobservable inputs is not considered relevant.

Fair Value Measurement (contd...)

Fair value of financial instruments not measured at fair value

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using Effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

44 Risk Management

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise of borrowings including debt securities,subordinated liabilities as well as trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
Predominantly comprising of lending institutions, the Group is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Group's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Group is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.

The Group has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage risk throughout the Group. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Group has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically adressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.

The major type of risk Group faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group's major income generating activities include gold loan, sme loans, housing loan, microfinance loan, personal loans and others.

The Group addressess credit risk through following major processess:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques
- Structured and standardised credit approval process
- Verification of credit history from credit bureau agencies, personal verification of customers business and residence
- Technical and Legal Verification
- Comprehensive credit risk assessment and cash flow analysis

In order to mitigate the impact of credit risk in the future profitability, the Group makes reserves basis the expected credit loss (ECL model) for the outstanding loans.

A) Impairment Assessment

The Group's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the Summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and cure

The Group considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on its contractual payments.

As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Group also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Group carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations or whether Stage 2 is appropriate.

The Group considers a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the Group.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Group assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. Where a particular portfolio is relatively new, the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India has been considered. PD is calculated using Incremental 90 day DPD approach considering fresh slippage using historical information.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group expects to receive.

LGD Rates have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed/ written off/ repossessed and upgraded during the year.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Group applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

Management Overlay

Considering the stable portfolio performance in current year with respect to customer behavior and collection efficiency and the policy level change in terms of ECL, it is decided that a separate management overlay is no longer necessary. During the year ended March 31, 2025, Muthoot Microfin Limited has created a management overlay of ₹22,965.31 in view of the many challenges faced by the microfinance sector during the financial year 2024-25.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Group may not meet its financial obligations. Liquidity risk arises due to the unavailability of adequate funds at an appropriate cost or tenure. The objective of liquidity risk management, is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements. The Group consistently generates sufficient cash flows from operating and financial activities to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due. The The Group's treasury teams source funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. They are responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Group is exposed to two types of market risk as follows:

M/S. RAJENDRAN & CO. CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS FRN : 0047415 KOCHI - 36

ISAAC & SURESH CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS TRIVANDRUM

MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED PUNNEN ROAD TRIVANDRUM

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, debt securities and subordinate laibilities are as follows:

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Borrowings
1% increase	(37,752.93)	(27,055.42)
1% decrease	37,752.93	27,055.42

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Debt Securities
1% increase	(5,213.74)	(4,064.44)
1% decrease	5,213.74	4,064.44

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Subordinate Liabilities
1% increase	(3,091.44)	(2,250.39)
1% decrease	3,091.44	2,250.39

Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVTPL and FVOCI respectively".

A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/ (Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at March 31, 2026	10/(10)	-	524.85/ (524.85)
As at March 31, 2025	10/(10)	502.07 / (502.07)	346.19 / (346.19)

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Group arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Group has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings by entering into forward contracts and cross currency interest rate swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Group's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026		March 31, 2025
	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹
Foreign currency borrowings	7,885.52	7,33,241.51	4,646.08	3,97,387.65

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instrument, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Group will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Group cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but where the Group has continuing involvement

The Group has sold some loans and advances as a source of finance. As per terms of the deal, risk and reward has been transferred to the customer. Hence, as per the derecognition criteria of IND AS 109, including transfer of substantially all risks and rewards relating to assets being transferred to the buyer being met, the assets have been derecognised. The table below summarises the carrying amount of the derecognised financial assets.

Under previous GAAP, retained interest receivable on loan assignment transactions were recognised over the period of such assigned loans. Under Ind AS, the gain arising on said transactions are recorded upfront by discounting the future cash flows accruing in the form of differential interest on such assigned loan to their present values.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2026	As at 31st March 2025
Carrying amount of derecognised financial assets	5,42,069.29	2,84,415.68
Gain/(loss) from derecognition	25,217.48	43,747.92

Transferred financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety

The Group uses securitisations as a source of finance and a means of risk transfer. The Group securitised its mircofinance loans and Non-Gold loan portfolios to different entities. These entities are not related to the Group. Also, the Group neither holds any equity or other interest nor controls them.
As per the terms of the agreement, the Group is exposed to first loss amounting to 3.5% - 10% (5% - 7% as at March 31, 2025) of the amount securitised and therefore continues to be exposed to significant risk and rewards relating to the underlying gold and microfinance loans. These receivables are not derecognised and proceeds received are recorded as a financial liability under borrowings.
The table below outlines the carrying amounts and fair values of all financial assets transferred that are not derecognised in their entirety and associated liabilities.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2026	As at 31st March 2025
Carrying amount of assets re - recognised due to non transfer of assets	2,74,457.48	1,02,417.02
Carrying amount of associated liabilities	2,71,948.17	1,13,440.83

The carrying amount of above assets and liabilities is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

25.1. Nature and purpose of reserve

Securities Premium
Securities premium is used to record the premium on issue of shares. This can be utilised only for limited purposes such as issuance of bonus shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 45-IC of the RBI Act 1934)
Statutory Reserve represents the Reserve Fund created under Section 45-IC of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 29C of the NHB Act 1987)
Statutory reserve is created in terms of Section 29C of the National Housing Bank Act, 1987 read with Section 36(1)(viii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Retained Earnings
This Reserve represents the cumulative profits of the Group. This Reserve can be utilized in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

General reserve
Represents the profits or losses made by the Employee Welfare Trust on account of issue or sale of treasury stock and includes transfer of lapsed options.

Employee stock options outstanding
The account is used to recognise the grant date value of options issued to employees under Employee stock option plan and adjusted as and when such options are exercised or otherwise expire.

Other comprehensive income
Changes in the fair value of loan assets held with the business objective of collect and sell are recognised in other comprehensive income. These changes are accumulated within the FVOCI debt investments reserve within equity. The company transfers amounts from this reserve to the statement of profit and loss when the loan assets are sold. Any impairment loss on such loans are reclassified immediately to the statement of profit and loss. Other comprehensive income also consists of re-measurement of net defined benefit liability and fair value changes on equity instruments measured through other comprehensive income. It also includes effective portion of cash flow hedges representing the cumulative gains/(losses) arising on changes in fair value of the derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges through OCI. The changes in the fair value of forward element of the forward contract on reporting date where deferred and retained in the cost of hedging reserve, also forms part of other comprehensive income.

(b) CSR Expenditure

As required under Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Group was required to spend ₹2,069.83 in the reporting year in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, being two per cent of the average net profits made during the three immediately preceding financial years. The Group has during the year, spent a total of ₹1,075.62 towards CSR expenditure (including ₹312.59 out of earlier year unspent transferred to designated bank account). The unspent portion of ₹1,306.80 has been transferred to the designated bank account for Unspent Corporate Social Responsibility by the Group.

(a) Amount required to be spent by the Group during the year	2,069.83	1,899.96
(b)Amount of expenditure incurred	763.03	843.45
(c) Shortfall at the end of the year	1,306.80	1,056.51
(d) Total of previous year shortfall	1,713.25	742.63
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2025-26 is tied to the phased development of our flagship initiative, the Muthoot Pappachan Centre of Excellence in Sports. The project maintains its established momentum regarding planning, design finalization, and academic framework development.However, because of the sheer scale of this integrated institution, the transition to active capital expenditure is strictly contingent upon securing essential statutory approvals. The primary dependency remains the environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), which, along with secondary regulatory sanctions, is currently being processed by the respective authorities.We reiterate our absolute commitment to this long-term transformational project. The unspent CSR funds are securely earmarked for this purpose and will be utilized systematically as statutory clearances are received and site implementation steps forward.	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2024-25 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year.

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at March 31, 2026		As at March 31, 2025
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%
Discount Rate of CCCPS Conversion Feature	1,019.97	-1,049.22	(966.07)	993.71
Discount for Lack of Marketability	(649.35)	649.35	(604.31)	604.31

Loan assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income

Loan receivables valuation is carried out for two portfolios segregated on the basis of repayment frequency – monthly and weekly. The valuation of each portfolio is done by discounting the aggregate future cash flows with risk-adjusted discounting rate for the remaining portfolio tenor. The discounting factor is applied assuming the cashflows will be evenly received in a month. The overdue cashflows upto 30days are considered in the sixth month and 31-90 days are considered in 12th month. For Stage 3 loans, the outstanding principal after applying LGD is considered in the 12th month cashflow.

Following inputs have been used to calculate the fair value of loans receivables:

(i) Future cash flows: Include principal receivable, interest receivable and tenor information based on the repayment schedule agreed with the borrowers.

(ii) Risk-adjusted discount rate: This rate has been arrived using the cost of funds approach.

The following inputs have been used:

(i) Cost of funds

(ii) Credit spread of borrowers

(iii) Servicing cost of a financial asset

Loan portfolio	Fair valuation as at March 31, 2026	Fair valuation as at March 31, 2025

41 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

The fair value of financial instruments as referred to above have been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The categories used are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical instruments in an active market;

Level 2: Directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) observable market inputs, other than Level 1 inputs; and

Level 3: Inputs which are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Fair value technique

Investments at fair value

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued on a case-by-case has been classified as Level 3.

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

For Investments in Security receipts (SRs), Net Asset Value is as certified by the issuer of Security Receipts. Accordingly, the fair valuation technique in this regard is classified under Level 3. The disclosure of the sensitivity of the fair value measurement to changes in unobservable inputs is not considered relevant.

Fair Value Measurement (contd...)

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using Effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

44 Risk Management

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise of borrowings including debt securities,subordinated liabilities as well as trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
Predominantly comprising of lending institutions, the Group is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Group's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Group is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.

The Group has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage risk throughout the Group. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Group has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically adressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.

The major type of risk Group faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group's major income generating activities include gold loan, sme loans, housing loan, microfinance loan, personal loans and others.

The Group addressess credit risk through following major processess:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques
- Structured and standardised credit approval process
- Verification of credit history from credit bureau agencies, personal verification of customers business and residence
- Technical and Legal Verification
- Comprehensive credit risk assessment and cash flow analysis

In order to mitigate the impact of credit risk in the future profitability, the Group makes reserves basis the expected credit loss (ECL model) for the outstanding loans.

A) Impairment Assessment

The Group's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the Summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and cure

The Group considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on its contractual payments.

As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Group also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Group carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations or whether Stage 2 is appropriate.

The Group considers a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the Group.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Group assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. Where a particular portfolio is relatively new, the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India has been considered. PD is calculated using Incremental 90 day DPD approach considering fresh slippage using historical information.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group expects to receive.

LGD Rates have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed/ written off/ repossessed and upgraded during the year.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Group applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

Management Overlay

Considering the stable portfolio performance in current year with respect to customer behavior and collection efficiency and the policy level change in terms of ECL, it is decided that a separate management overlay is no longer necessary. During the year ended March 31, 2025, Muthoot Microfin Limited has created a management overlay of ₹22,965.31 in view of the many challenges faced by the microfinance sector during the financial year 2024-25.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Group may not meet its financial obligations. Liquidity risk arises due to the unavailability of adequate funds at an appropriate cost or tenure. The objective of liquidity risk management, is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements. The Group consistently generates sufficient cash flows from operating and financial activities to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due. The The Group's treasury teams source funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. They are responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Group is exposed to two types of market risk as follows:

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, debt securities and subordinate liabilities are as follows:

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Borrowings
1% increase	(37,752.93)	(27,055.42)
1% decrease	37,752.93	27,055.42

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Debt Securities
1% increase	(5,213.74)	(4,064.44)
1% decrease	5,213.74	4,064.44

Particulars	31st March 2026	31st March 2025
On Subordinate Liabilities
1% increase	(3,091.44)	(2,250.39)
1% decrease	3,091.44	2,250.39

Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVTPL and FVOCI respectively".

A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/ (Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at March 31, 2026	10/(10)	-	524.85/ (524.85)
As at March 31, 2025	10/(10)	502.07 / (502.07)	346.19 / (346.19)

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Group arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Group has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings by entering into forward contracts and cross currency interest rate swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Group's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026		March 31, 2025
	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹
Foreign currency borrowings	7,885.52	7,33,241.51	4,646.08	3,97,387.65

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instrument, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Group will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Group cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

To,
The members of MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED,

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Standalone Ind AS financial statements of MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of cash flows for the year ended on that date and notes to the Ind AS Financial Statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information. ["Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2026, its profit, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Standalone Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
a) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose all material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.
b) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence on multiple information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 315) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records (SA 530). We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/ hardware access rights etc. We have also considered and reviewed the information system audit reports and internal audit reports to confirm the controls existing. Based on our sample review, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls.
c) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapse in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches and centre processing hub of the company which are considered top based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place. We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level and how the same is considered and incorporated in the financial statements. We have also assessed and analysed the internal audit reports, held discussions with the management and reviewed how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the entity's financial accounting and reporting records. Based on our sample review, no major weaknesses were identified.
d) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets. As at 31st March 2026, the Company had reported a total impairment loss allowance of ₹ 36,003.85 lakhs (31st	The audit procedures performed, among others, included: • Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms. • Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and March 2025 – ₹ 27,943.01 lakhs) A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance: • Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets; • Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.	effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts. • Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as: • Reading account statements, reviewing loan ledgers and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis. • Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category which needed to be considered as NPA. • Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report, including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the Consolidated Ind AS Financial statements, Standalone Ind AS Financial statements and our Auditor's Report thereon. Our opinion on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements do not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, management and the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Company's Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists, related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements or if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, based on our audit we report that:

a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books and proper returns adequate for the purpose of our audit have been received from the branches not visited by us;
c) The Standalone Balance Sheet, the Standalone Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Standalone Statement of Changes in Equity and the Standalone Statement of Cash Flows dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;
d) In our opinion, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules,2015 as amended.
e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2026 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors are disqualified as on March 31, 2026 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act;
f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure A". Our report expresses an unmodified opinion on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the company's internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

g) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with the requirements of Section 197(16) of the Act, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the remuneration paid by the Company to its directors during the year is in accordance with the provisions of Section 197 of the Act.

h) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

i. The company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

ii. The company has made provision as required under applicable law or accounting standards for material foreseeable losses, if any, on long term contracts including derivative contracts.

iii. There has been no delay in transferring amounts, required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the company.

iv. a) The Management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, as disclosed in Note 51 to the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, no funds (which are material either individually or in aggregate) have been advanced or loaned or invested (either from borrowed funds or share premium or any other sources or kind of funds) by the Company to or in any other person or entity, including foreign entity ("Intermediaries"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise that the Intermediary shall, whether directly or indirectly lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Company ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

b) The Management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, no funds (which are material either individually or in the aggregate) have been received by the Company from any person or entity, including foreign entity ("Funding Parties"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise, that the Company shall, whether, directly or indirectly, lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Funding Party ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

c) Based on the audit procedures that have been considered reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances, nothing has come to our notice that has caused us to believe that the representations under sub-clause (i) and (ii) of Rule 11(e), as provided under (a) and (b) above, contain any material misstatement.

v. The dividend declared and paid during the year by the Company is in compliance with Section 123 of the Act.

vi. Based on our examination which included test checks and as represented by the company, the Company has used an accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts for the financial year ended March 31, 2026 which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility and the same has operated throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with and the audit trial has been preserved by the company as per the statutory requirements for record retention.

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on other legal and regulatory requirements' of the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ("THE ACT")

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the Company"), as of 31st March 2026, in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those standards and the guidance note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial control system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements were operating effectively as at 31st March 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

ANNEXURE "B" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Annexure referred to in Paragraph 2 under the heading 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements in the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2026.

1. Property, Plant and Equipment
   a) In respect of the Company's property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets:
      i. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of property, plant and equipment and relevant details of right-of-use assets. [FAMS]
      ii. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars of intangible assets. [FAMS]
   b) As informed to us, fixed assets have been physically verified by the management on a periodic basis. Since there is a regular programme of verification, we are of the opinion that it is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its assets. We have been informed that there have been no material discrepancies noticed during such verification.
   c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the title deeds of immovable property included in Property, Plant and Equipment and in Investment Property are held in the name of the Company.
   d) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not revalued any of its property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) and intangible assets during the year.
   e) As informed to us, no proceedings have been initiated during the year or are pending against the Company as at March 31, 2026 for holding any benami property under the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (as amended in 2016) and rules made thereunder.

2. Inventory and Working Capital:
   a) The Company does not hold any inventory. Accordingly, the provisions stated under clause 3(ii) (a) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.
   b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has obtained Working Capital Limits in excess of ₹ 5 Crores in aggregate from banks and financial Institutions, and the quarterly return/statement filed by the Company with such banks or financial Institutions are in agreement with the books of accounts.

3. The company is a Non – Deposit taking Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) registered with the Reserve Bank of India. During the year, the company has made investments and in the ordinary course of business granted loans and advances in the nature of secured and unsecured loans to companies, firms, LLPs and other parties. With respect to such Investment and Loans and Advances:
   a) As the principal business of the company is to give loans, paragraph 3(iii)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
   b) In our opinion, the terms and conditions of the grant of such loans are, prima facie, not prejudicial to the Interests of the Company.
   c) In respect of loans granted by the company, the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest have been stipulated. Being a non-banking finance company engaged in the business of granting loans, there are instances of irregularities in repayment of principal amount and receipt of interest as per stipulated terms. Having regard to the nature of business undertaken by the company, specific details of irregularities are not reported although the particulars of overdue for more than ninety days as per books of accounts as at the Balance Sheet date has been reported in para (d) below.

d) In respect of the loans/ advances in nature of loans, the total amount overdue for more than ninety days as at March 31, 2026 is ₹47,558.75 lakhs. In such instances, in our opinion, based on information and explanations provided to us, reasonable steps have been taken by the Company for the recovery of the principal amounts and the interest thereon.

e) The provisions of paragraph 3(iii)(e) of the Order are not applicable to the company, as its principal business is to give loans.

f) The company has not granted any loans or advances in the nature of loans that were either repayable on demand or without specifying any terms or period of repayment.

4. In our opinion, in respect of loans, investments, guarantees, and security, the company has complied with the provisions of section 185 and 186 of the Act.

5. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of sections 73 to 76 of the Act and rules framed thereunder to the extent notified.

6. The Government of India has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under sub- section (1) of section 148 of the Act for any of the activities of the company and hence the provisions of this section are not applicable to the Company for the year.

7. In respect of statutory dues:

a) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of the records of the Company, amounts deducted/ accrued in the books of account in respect of undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax, sales- tax, service tax, goods and service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues have been generally regularly deposited during the year by the company with the appropriate authorities. According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax, sales- tax, service tax, goods and service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues were in arrears as at March 31, 2026 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

b) According to the information and explanations given to us and the records of the company examined by us, the particulars of statutory dues as at 31st March 2026 which have not been deposited on account of dispute are as follows:

b) No report u/s 143(12) of the Act has been filed in Form ADT-4 regarding any frauds, as prescribed under Rule 13 of Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014 with Central Government, during the year and up to the date of this report.

c) Instances of whistle-blower complaints were raised on various occasions during the year and appropriate actions were taken against those complaints. We have taken into consideration the whistle blower complaints received by the Company during the year (and up to the date of this report) while determining the nature, timing and extent of our audit procedures.

12. The Company is not a Nidhi Company. Accordingly, the provisions stated under clause 3(xii)(a) to (c) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.

13. According to the information and explanations given to us and based on our examination of the records of the company, transactions with the related parties are in compliance with section 177 and 188 of the Act. Where applicable, the details of such transactions have been disclosed in the financial statements as required by the applicable accounting standards.

14. a) In our opinion, the Company has an internal audit system commensurate with the nature and size of the Company's business.
b) We have considered internal audit reports issued by internal auditors during our audit in accordance with the guidance provided in SA 610 – 'Using the work of Internal Auditors'.

15. According to the information and explanations given to us, in our opinion, during the year, the Company has not entered into any non-cash transactions with directors or persons connected with its directors and accordingly, the reporting on compliance with the provisions of Section 192 of the Companies Act, 2013 in clause 3(xv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

16. (a) The Company being a Non-Banking Financial Company is required to be registered and has obtained the Certificate of Registration as provided under sec 45 IA of The Reserve Bank of India Act 1934.

(b) CSR Expenditure

As required under Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Company was required to spend ₹1,640.02 in the reporting year in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, being two per cent of the average net profits of the company made during the three immediately preceding financial years. The Company has during the year, spent a total of ₹645.81 towards CSR expenditure (including ₹312.59 out of earlier year unspent transferred to designated bank account). The unspent portion of ₹1,306.80 pertaining to the current year has been transferred to the designated bank account for unspent corporate social responsibility by the Company.

Particulars	As on 31-03-2026	As on 31-03-2025
(a) Amount required to be spent by the company during the year	1,640.02	1,257.20
(b)Amount of expenditure incurred	333.22	458.82

(d) Total of previous year shortfall (net of amount spent out of earlier year shortfall)	1,455.12	969.32
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2025–26 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year. 42 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

Fair Value Hierarchy of assets and liabilities

Fair value technique

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

Equity instruments

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1.

Derivative Financial Instruments (assets/liabilities)

The financial assets/liabilities on derivative contracts been fair valued using closing rate and is classified as Level 2.

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued as at the measurement date or at the nearest available date has been classified as Level 3, where the valuation cannot be corroborated by observable market data.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at 31st March 2026		As at 31st March 2025
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Such amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

43 Segment Reporting

In accordance with Para 4 of IND AS 108, Operating Segments, segment information has been presented in the consolidated financial statements of Muthoot FinCorp Limited and therefore, no separate disclosure has been given in standalone financial statement.

44. Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise secured and unsecured borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
As a financial lending institution, Company is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Company 's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Company is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Company's Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.
The Company has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage its risk. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Company has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically addressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Company faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk
Credit Risk arises from the risk of loss that may occur from the default of Company's customers under loan agreements. Customer defaults and inadequate collateral may lead to loan losses.
The Company addresses credit risk through following major processes:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio appraisal and monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques

A) Impairment Assessment

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of providing gold, SME loans, digital loans, personal and loans against property. Whereas tenure of gold loans primarily range from 6 to 12 months, tenure of other loans range from 3 months to 180 months.

The Company's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care
The Company considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on his / her contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Company also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Company carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations.
The Company has considered a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore reclassified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Company's internal credit rating grades and staging criteria for loans are as follows:

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Exposure at Default (EAD)
The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the company.

Probability of default (PD)
The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Company assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. For Gold, loans against property, high value and SME loans, considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographics, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. For personal loans, the Company has considered the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India as the said portfolio is relatively new to the Company. Based on its review of macro-economic developments and economic outlook, the Company has assessed that no adjustment is required for temporary overlays to determine qualitative impact on its PD.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Company expects to receive. LGD rates for Gold Loans have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are auctioned during the year. For other loans, LGD rates have been arrived at guided by the Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Company applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk is the risk of being unable to raise necessary funds from the market at optimal cost to meet operational and debt servicing requirements. The purpose of liquidity management is to ensure sufficient cash flow to meet all financial commitments and to capitalise on opportunities for business expansion. Board of Directors will have overall responsibility of monitoring, supervision and control of the Asset Liability Management (ALM) mechanism. An Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) consisting of the Managing Director, a Whole Time Director and senior executives of the Company shall be responsible for the day to day as well as periodic monitoring and control of Asset Liability management. The discussions of the ALCO is placed before the Board of Directors for review. Our treasury team sources funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. The treasury team is responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Company is exposed to three types of market risk as follows:

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
On Borrowings
1% increase	(34,731.90)	(23,086.03)
1% decrease	34,731.90	23,086.03

b) Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVOCI. A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/(Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at 31st March 2026	10/(10)	2229.40 / (2,229.40)	12,814.49 / (12,814.49)
As at 31st March 2025	10/(10)	1979.40 / (1979.40)	10,859.87 / (10,859.87)

A sudden fall in the gold price can result in increased customers defaults where the loan amount and interest exceeds the market value of gold, though the sentimental value of the gold jewellery to the customers may induce repayment and redemption of the collateral. This risk is partly mitigated by the fact that a minimum 25% margin is retained on the value of gold jewellery for the purpose of calculation of the loan amount. Further, the gold jewellery collateral is appraised solely based on the weight of its gold content, excluding weight and value of the stone studded in the jewellery if any. Though an occasional decrease in gold prices will not increase price risk significantly on account of our adequate collateral security margins, a sustained decrease in the market price of gold can additionally cause a decrease in the size of our loan portfolio and our interest income.

c) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Company arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Company has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings as at March 31, 2026 by entering into forward contracts and derivative swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Company's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026		March 31, 2025
	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹
Foreign currency borrowings	5,810.39	5,49,978.44	2,776.28	2,37,597.84

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instruments, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

d) Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Company will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

IV) Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Company cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

Explanatory Note on Renewal of NPA Gold Loan Accounts:

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI), through its circular dated September 30, 2024, highlighted certain irregular practices observed in the gold loan industry and advised all Regulated Entities (REs) to strengthen compliance with the applicable regulatory framework.

In line with prevailing industry practices, the Company had renewed certain gold loan accounts, including accounts classified as Non-Performing Assets (NPAs), after ensuring compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements. As a prudential measure, the Company discontinued the renewal of NPA gold loan accounts with effect from December 20, 2024.

During the RBI inspection, such renewals were observed and commented upon by the inspection team. The outstanding balance of the renewed NPA gold loan accounts on a customer-level basis stood at ₹1,11,101.96 lakh as at March 31, 2025. The Company has continued to classify these accounts as NPAs and has maintained provisions thereon in accordance with the applicable RBI prudential norms. The outstanding balance of such accounts stood at ₹5.73 lakh as at March 31, 2026.

(b) CSR Expenditure

As required under Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Company was required to spend ₹1,640.02 in the reporting year in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, being two per cent of the average net profits of the company made during the three immediately preceding financial years. The Company has during the year, spent a total of ₹645.81 towards CSR expenditure (including ₹312.59 out of earlier year unspent transferred to designated bank account). The unspent portion of ₹1,306.80 pertaining to the current year has been transferred to the designated bank account for unspent corporate social responsibility by the Company.

(d) Total of previous year shortfall (net of amount spent out of earlier year shortfall)	1,455.12	969.32
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2025–26 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year. 41 Capital

Capital Management

The primary objective of the Company's capital management policy is to ensure that the Company complies with externally imposed capital requirements and maintains healthy credit ratings and capital ratios in order to support its business and to maximize shareholder value.

Being an NBFC-SI, the RBI requires the Company to maintain a minimum capital to risk weighted assets ratio ("CRAR") consisting of a minimum Tier 1 Capital of 12% and a combined Tier 1 & Tier 2 Capital of 15% of our aggregate risk weighted assets. The capital management process of the Company ensures to maintain a healthy CRAR at all the times. During the year, the Company has issued Perpetual debt instruments aggregating to ₹15,000 (March 31, 2025 - ₹9,700) and subordinated debt of ₹152,500 (March 31, 2025 - ₹30,000) to reinforce the regulatory capital levels.

Regulatory capital	As at 31st March 2026	As at 31st March 2025
Tier 1 Capital	6,33,205	4,52,362
Tier 2 Capital	2,30,697	1,04,090
Total capital	8,63,901	5,56,453
Risk weighted assets	47,98,619	28,53,513
CRAR
Tier 1 Capital (%)	13.20%	15.85%
Tier 2 Capital (%)	4.81%	3.65%

Tier 1 Capital comprises of share capital, share premium, reserves, retained earnings including current year profits, cumulative compulsorily convertible preference shares and perpetual debt instruments subject to permissible limits. Certain adjustments are made to Ind AS–based results and reserves, in order to ensure compliance with the directions of the Reserve Bank of India. Tier 2 Capital consists of Subordinated Debt Instruments subject to permissible limits as per the directions of the Reserve Bank of India, general provisions and PDI in excess of 15% of Tier 1 Capital of the Company as at the previous year end.

42 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

Fair Value Hierarchy of assets and liabilities

The following table shows an analysis of financial instruments recorded at fair value by level of the fair value hierarchy as at March 31, 2026:

Fair value technique

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

Equity instruments

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1.

Derivative Financial Instruments (assets/liabilities)

The financial assets/liabilities on derivative contracts been fair valued using closing rate and is classified as Level 2.

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued as at the measurement date or at the nearest available date has been classified as Level 3, where the valuation cannot be corroborated by observable market data.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Such amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

43 Segment Reporting

In accordance with Para 4 of IND AS 108, Operating Segments, segment information has been presented in the consolidated financial statements of Muthoot FinCorp Limited and therefore, no separate disclosure has been given in standalone financial statement.

44. Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise secured and unsecured borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
As a financial lending institution, Company is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Company 's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Company is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Company's Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.
The Company has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage its risk. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Company has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically addressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Company faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk
Credit Risk arises from the risk of loss that may occur from the default of Company's customers under loan agreements. Customer defaults and inadequate collateral may lead to loan losses.
The Company addresses credit risk through following major processes:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio appraisal and monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques

A) Impairment Assessment

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of providing gold, SME loans, digital loans, personal and loans against property. Whereas tenure of gold loans primarily range from 6 to 12 months, tenure of other loans range from 3 months to 180 months.

The Company's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care
The Company considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on his / her contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Company also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Company carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations.
The Company has considered a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore reclassified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Company's internal credit rating grades and staging criteria for loans are as follows:

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Exposure at Default (EAD)
The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the company.

Probability of default (PD)
The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Company assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. For Gold, loans against property, high value and SME loans, considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographics, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. For personal loans, the Company has considered the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India as the said portfolio is relatively new to the Company. Based on its review of macro-economic developments and economic outlook, the Company has assessed that no adjustment is required for temporary overlays to determine qualitative impact on its PD.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Company expects to receive. LGD rates for Gold Loans have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are auctioned during the year. For other loans, LGD rates have been arrived at guided by the Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Company applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk is the risk of being unable to raise necessary funds from the market at optimal cost to meet operational and debt servicing requirements. The purpose of liquidity management is to ensure sufficient cash flow to meet all financial commitments and to capitalise on opportunities for business expansion. Board of Directors will have overall responsibility of monitoring, supervision and control of the Asset Liability Management (ALM) mechanism. An Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) consisting of the Managing Director, a Whole Time Director and senior executives of the Company shall be responsible for the day to day as well as periodic monitoring and control of Asset Liability management. The discussions of the ALCO is placed before the Board of Directors for review. Our treasury team sources funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. The treasury team is responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Company is exposed to three types of market risk as follows:

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
On Borrowings
1% increase	(34,731.90)	(23,086.03)
1% decrease	34,731.90	23,086.03

b) Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVOCI. A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/(Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at 31st March 2026	10/(10)	2229.40 / (2,229.40)	12,814.49 / (12,814.49)
As at 31st March 2025	10/(10)	1979.40 / (1979.40)	10,859.87 / (10,859.87)

A sudden fall in the gold price can result in increased customers defaults where the loan amount and interest exceeds the market value of gold, though the sentimental value of the gold jewellery to the customers may induce repayment and redemption of the collateral. This risk is partly mitigated by the fact that a minimum 25% margin is retained on the value of gold jewellery for the purpose of calculation of the loan amount. Further, the gold jewellery collateral is appraised solely based on the weight of its gold content, excluding weight and value of the stone studded in the jewellery if any. Though an occasional decrease in gold prices will not increase price risk significantly on account of our adequate collateral security margins, a sustained decrease in the market price of gold can additionally cause a decrease in the size of our loan portfolio and our interest income.

c) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Company arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Company has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings as at March 31, 2026 by entering into forward contracts and derivative swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Company's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026		March 31, 2025
	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹	Amount in USD	Amount in ₹

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instruments, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

d) Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Company will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

IV) Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Company cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

Explanatory Note on Renewal of NPA Gold Loan Accounts:

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI), through its circular dated September 30, 2024, highlighted certain irregular practices observed in the gold loan industry and advised all Regulated Entities (REs) to strengthen compliance with the applicable regulatory framework.

In line with prevailing industry practices, the Company had renewed certain gold loan accounts, including accounts classified as Non-Performing Assets (NPAs), after ensuring compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements. As a prudential measure, the Company discontinued the renewal of NPA gold loan accounts with effect from December 20, 2024.

During the RBI inspection, such renewals were observed and commented upon by the inspection team. The outstanding balance of the renewed NPA gold loan accounts on a customer-level basis stood at ₹1,11,101.96 lakh as at March 31, 2025. The Company has continued to classify these accounts as NPAs and has maintained provisions thereon in accordance with the applicable RBI prudential norms. The outstanding balance of such accounts stood at ₹5.73 lakh as at March 31, 2026.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To,

THE MEMBERS OF MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED,

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the holding Company"), Muthoot Centre, TC No 14/2074-7, Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram – 695 001 and its subsidiaries (together referred as "Group") which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of changes in equity and the Consolidated Statement of cash flows for the year then ended, including the notes to the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements, a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. [hereinafter referred to as "Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Consolidated Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the Consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at 31st March, 2025, and its Consolidated profit including other Comprehensive Income, Consolidated Changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the other matters section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of the current period.

Muthoot Classification: Public

These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matters	How it's been addressed in Audit
a) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Holding Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board of the Holding Company in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.
b) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems of Holding Company on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc of the Holding Company. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.

c) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapses in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches of holding company and central loan processing hub of the holding Company which are considered top based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place. We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level of the holding company and how the same is considered and incorporated in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements. We have also assessed and analysed the internal audit reports of holding company and how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the Holding Company's financial accounting and reporting records. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the Subsidiary Companies' branches. Based on the audit report issued by auditors of subsidiaries, no major weaknesses were identified.
d) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets. As at 31st March 2025, the Group had reported a total impairment loss allowance of Rs.87,428.36 lakhs (31st March 2024 - Rs. 49,373.17 lakhs).	The audit procedures performed for the holding Company, among others, included: • Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms.

Muthoot Classification: Public

A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance:
• Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets;
• Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.
	• Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts.
	• Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as:
	  • Reading account statements and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis.
	  • Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category which needed to be considered as NPA.
	  • Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors.
	We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.

Information Other than the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report but does not include the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the Consolidated financial position, Consolidated financial performance, Consolidated changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows of the Group including its Associates and jointly controlled entities in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Ind AS Financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Muthoot Classification: Public

• Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

• Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

• Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

• Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to cease to continue as a going concern.

• Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

• Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Muthoot Classification: Public

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matters

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in Paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' of the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2025.

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ("the Act"):

In conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2025, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Muthoot Fincorp Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies, which includes internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary companies are sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Group's internal financial controls system over financial reporting

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that;

(1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;

(2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and

(3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31,2025 based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to the subsidiary companies are based solely on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such company. Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matter.

2. Basis of preparation

2.1 Statement of Compliance

The consolidated financial statements (CFS) of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended from time to time) and notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) along with other relevant provisions of the Act, the Master Direction – Non-Banking Financial Company – Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016 ('the NBFC Master Directions') issued by RBI and National Housing Bank Guidelines/Regulations ('NHB directions') and notification for Implementation of Indian Accounting Standard vide circular RBI/2019-20/170 DOR(NBFC).CC.PD. No.109/22.10.106/2019-20 dated 13 March 2020 ('RBI Notification for Implementation of Ind AS') issued by RBI to the extent applicable.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, as the Management is satisfied that the Group shall be able to continue its business for the foreseeable future and no material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the going concern assumption.

2.2 Presentation of financial Statements

The Group presents its Balance Sheet in order of liquidity. The Group prepares and presents its Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Statement of Changes in Equity in the format prescribed by Division III of Schedule III to the Act. The Statement of Cash Flows has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 'Statement of Cash Flows'.

The Group generally reports financial assets and financial liabilities on a gross basis in the Balance Sheet. They are offset and reported net only when Ind AS specifically permits the same or it has an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event. Similarly, the Group offsets incomes and expenses and reports the same on a net basis when permitted by Ind AS specifically unless they are material in nature.

2.3 Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Parent Company and all its subsidiaries, being the entities that it controls from the date control is gained. Control is evidenced where the investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Power is demonstrated through existing rights that give the ability to direct relevant activities, which significantly affect the entity's returns. The financial statements of subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting year as the Parent Company. Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to align the accounting policies in line with accounting policies of the Parent Company.

These consolidated financial statements are prepared on the following basis in accordance with Ind AS 110 on "Consolidated Financial Statements" specified under Section 133 of the Act. Following subsidiary companies have been considered in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Name of the Company	Country of incorporation	Consolidated as	% equity shareholding of MFL (Current Year)	% equity shareholding of MFL (Previous Year)
Muthoot Housing Finance Company Limited	India	Subsidiary	82.56%	81.71%
Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited	India	Subsidiary	60.00%	60.00%
Muthoot Microfin Limited	India	Subsidiary	50.21%	50.21%

i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which controls commences until the date on which control ceases.

Muthoot Classification: Public

ii) Non-controlling interest ("NCI")

NCI are measured at their proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. Changes in the Group's equity interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

iii) Loss of control

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and any related NCI and other component of equity. Any interest retained in the former subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date the control is lost. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

iv) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

The financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary used in the consolidation procedure are drawn up to the same reporting date i.e. March 31, 2025. The financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Intra-group balances and transactions, and unrealized income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealized losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealized gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment. The Group follows uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. For additional information as required by Paragraph 2 of the General Instructions for preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements to Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, refer Note 51.

2.4 Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

i) Investments in equity instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI) ii) Financial assets and liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
iii) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)
iv) Investments which are held for trading
v) Assets held for sale are measured at fair value less cost to sell or carrying value whichever is lower
vi) Defined benefit plans.
vii) Derivative Financial Instruments

2.5 Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) which is also functional currency of the Group and the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates. All values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated.

3. Material accounting policies

3.1 Recognition of interest income

Interest income is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets and financial assets classified as measured at FVTPL.

The EIR in case of a financial asset is computed:

a. As the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset.

b. By considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument in estimating the cash flows.

c. Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts.

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows is recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.2 . Recognition of revenue from sale of goods and services

Revenue (other than for financial instruments) is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers outlines a single comprehensive model of accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance found within Ind ASs.

The Group recognises revenue from contracts with customers based on a five-step model as set out in Ind 115:

Step 1: Identify contract(s) with a customer: A contract is defined as an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations and sets out the criteria for every contract that must be met.
Step 2: Identify performance obligations in the contract: A performance obligation is a promise in a contract with a customer to transfer a good or service to the customer.
Step 3: Determine the transaction price: The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.
Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract: For a contract that has more than one performance obligation, the Group allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation in an amount that depicts the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for satisfying each performance obligation.
Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the Group satisfies a performance obligation.

Revenue from contract with customer for rendering services is recognised at a point in time when performance obligation is satisfied.

3.2.1 Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

3.2.2 Income from assignment transactions

Gains arising out of direct assignment transactions comprise the difference between the interest on the loan portfolio and the applicable rate at which the direct assignment is entered into with the assignee, also known as the excess interest spread (EIS).In accordance with Ind AS 109 and as per management practice, in case of assignment transactions with complete transfer of risks and rewards without any retention of residual interest, gain arising on such assignment transactions is recorded upfront in the Statement of Profit and Loss and the corresponding asset is derecognized from the Balance Sheet immediately upon execution of such transaction. Further, where the transfer of financial asset qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the whole of the interest spread at its present value (discounted over the life of the asset) is recognized on the date of derecognition itself as receivable towards assignment transactions and correspondingly recognized as gain on sale of loan assets.

3.2.3 Rental Income

Rental income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss, unless the increase is in line with expected general inflation, in which case lease income is recognised based on contractual terms.

3.2.4 Fees and commission income

Fees and commission income such as service charges, commission from fee-based business lines, service income etc. are recognised on point in time basis.

3.2.5 Miscellaneous Income

All other income is recognized on an accrual basis, when there is no uncertainty in the ultimate realization/collection.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.3 Financial instruments

A. Financial Asset

3.3.1 Initial recognition

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Loans are recognised when funds are transferred to the customers' account. Investments are recognised on the date when the Company becomes party to the contractual provisions. The Group recognises debt securities, deposits and borrowings when funds reach the Group and post allotment, where applicable.

3.3.2 Initial and subsequent measurement of financial instruments

The Group classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

1. Debt instruments at amortised cost
2. Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI).
3. Debt instruments, derivatives and equity instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL).
4. Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income FVTOCI.

The classification depends on the contractual terms of the financial assets' cash flows and the Group's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below:

Business model assessment

The Group determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Group's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios and is based on observable factors such as:

- How the performance of the business model and the financial assets held within that business model are evaluated and reported to the entity's key management personnel
- The risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and the way those risks are managed
- How managers of the business are compensated (for example, whether the compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or on the contractual cash flows collected)
- The expected frequency, value and timing of sales are also important aspects of the Group's assessment.
- The business model assessment is based on reasonably expected scenarios without taking 'worst case' or 'stress case' scenarios into account. If cash flows after initial recognition are realised in a way that is different from the Group's original expectations, the Group does not change the classification of the remaining financial assets held in that business model, but incorporates such information when assessing newly originated or newly purchased financial assets going forward.

The SPPI test

As a second step of its classification process, the Group assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

'Principal' for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there are repayments of principal or amortisation of the premium/discount).

In making this assessment, the Group considers whether the contractual cash flows are consistent with a basic lending arrangement i.e. interest includes only consideration for the time value of money, credit risk, other basic lending risks and a profit margin that is consistent with a basic lending arrangement. Where the contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility that are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement, the related financial asset is classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The Group classifies its financial liabilities at amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or is required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

3.3.3 Financial assets measured at amortised cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

Muthoot Classification: Public

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement at fair value plus directly attributable costs, these financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in interest income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

3.3.4 Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

A 'debt instrument' is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and selling the assets and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured at each reporting date at fair value with such changes being recognised in other comprehensive income (OCI). The interest income on these assets is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses or reversals, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit and loss. Upon disposal, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to the income statement.

3.3.5 Financial Instrument measured at fair value through profit or loss

Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL. In addition, debt instruments that meet the amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria but are designated as at FVTPL are measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

Group’s investment is classified as FVTPL, if it is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term, or forms part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of short-term profit taking.

Financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss, are initially recognised at fair value, with transaction costs recognised in the income statement as incurred. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value and any gains or losses are recognised in the income statement as they arise.

3.3.6 Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures investment in equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Group’s management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments as equity instruments at FVTOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of Equity under Ind AS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these equity instruments classified at FVTOCI are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI.

Muthoot Classification: Public

B. Financial Liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value. Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or the issue of financial liability, which are not at fair value through profit or loss, are adjusted to fair value at initial recognition.

Subsequent measurement

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

3.4 Derecognition of financial assets and liabilities

3.4.1 Financial Asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Group also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Group has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either:

a) The Group has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
b) It retains the rights to the cash flows, but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass–through' arrangement

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

- The Group has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Group cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Group has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Group is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset or
- The Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset

The Group considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

When the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards and has retained control of the asset, the asset continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement, in which case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

3.4.2 Financial Liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss.

3.5 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. Financial assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet when the Group has a legal right to offset the amounts and intends to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously in all the following circumstances:

a. The normal course of business
b. The event of default
c. The event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and/or its counter parties.

3.6 Impairment of financial assets

3.6.1 Overview of the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) principles

The Group has created provisions on all financial assets except for financial assets classified as FVTPL, based on the expected credit loss method. The Group also ensures maintaining the minimum provision requirement as per RBI and NHB regulations.

The ECL provision is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss. The 12-month ECL is the portion of Lifetime ECL that represent the ECLs that result from default events on financial assets that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

The Group performs an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a financial instrument's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Group categorises its loans into three stages as described below:

For non-impaired financial instruments

- Stage 1 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have not experienced a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition. A 12-month ECL provision is made for stage 1 financial instruments. In assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date, with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition.

- Stage 2 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have experienced a SICR since initial recognition. The Group recognises lifetime ECL for stage 2 financial instruments. In subsequent reporting periods, if the credit risk of the financial instrument improves such that there is no longer a SICR since initial recognition, then entities recognize 12 months of ECL.

For impaired financial instruments:

Financial instruments are classified as stage 3 when there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more loss events that have occurred after initial recognition with a negative impact on the estimated future cash flows of a loan or a portfolio of loans. The Group recognises lifetime ECL for impaired financial instruments.

3.6.2 The calculation of ECLs

The mechanics of the ECL calculations are outlined below and the key elements are, as follows:

Probability of Default (PD) - The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon.

The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. Where historical information is not available for arriving at reasonable default probability, published probability of default for similar loan segments are used.

Exposure at Default (EAD) - The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date, considering expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments.

Loss Given Default (LGD) – The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive. The Group uses computed discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed during the year where historical information is available and uses Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms in the absence of sufficient historical trends.

Forward looking information

While estimating the expected credit losses, the Group reviews macro-economic developments occurring in the economy and market it operates in. On a periodic basis, the Group analyses if there is any relationship between key economic trends like GDP, unemployment rates, benchmark rates set by the Reserve Bank of India, inflation etc. with the estimate of PD, LGD determined by the Group based on its internal data. While the internal estimates of PD, LGD rates by the Group may not be always reflective of such relationships, temporary overlays, if any, are embedded in the methodology to reflect such macro-economic trends reasonably.

Write-offs

Loans are written off (either partially or in full) when there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when it is determined that the customer does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subjected to write-offs. Any subsequent recoveries against such loans are credited to the statement of profit and loss.

Collateral

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Group seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as gold, cash, securities, letters of credit/guarantees, stock, current asset etc. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. The fair value of the same is based on data provided by third party or management judgements.

Impairment of Trade receivables

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables.

3.7 Determination of fair value

The Group measures financial instruments such as, investments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

i. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
ii. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, if market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset considers a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which enough data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

Muthoot Classification: Public

The financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Level 1 financial instruments − Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group has access to at the measurement date. The Group considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments − Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life. Such inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical instruments in inactive markets and observable inputs other than quoted prices such as interest rates and yield curves, implied volatilities, and credit spreads. In addition, adjustments may be required for the condition or location of the asset or the extent to which it relates to items that are comparable to the valued instrument. However, if such adjustments are based on unobservable inputs which are significant to the entire measurement, the Group will classify the instruments as Level 3.

Level 3 financial instruments − Those that include one or more unobservable input that is significant to the measurement as whole.

3.8 Foreign Currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. However, for practical reasons, the Group uses an average rate if the average approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated into the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange at the reporting date. All differences arising on non–trading activities are taken to other income/expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Non–monetary items that are measured at historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the spot exchange rates as at the date of recognition.

3.9 Finance cost

Finance costs represents interest expense recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial liabilities other than financial liabilities classified as FVTPL.

Interest expense includes issue costs that are initially recognized as part of the carrying value of the financial liability and amortized over the expected life using the effective interest method. These include fees and commissions payable to borrowers and advisers and other expenses such as external legal costs, provided these are incremental costs that are directly related to the issue of a financial liability.

3.10 Other income and expenses

All Other income and expense are recognized in the period they occur.

3.11 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand, short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less and forex balances, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short- term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts, if any as they are considered an integral part of the Group's cash management.

3.12 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment (PPE) are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment, (if any). The total cost of assets comprises its purchase price, freight, duties, taxes and any other incidental expenses directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management.

Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of tangible asset are added to its gross value only if it increases the future benefits of the existing asset, beyond its previously assessed standards of performance and cost can be measured reliably. Other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed off as and when incurred.

3.13 Depreciation

Tangible assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Depreciation is charged based on a review by the management during the year and at the rates derived based on the useful lives of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 or estimated useful lives estimated by the respective management based on technical evaluation. The holding company and one of its subsidiaries, Muthoot Microfin Limited follow the Straight Line Method for providing depreciation whereas the two other subsidiaries follow Written Down Value Method.

Leasehold improvements and assets held under finance leases are depreciated over the shorter of lease term or their useful life. The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in other income / expense in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in Ind AS 115.

3.14 Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress are carried at cost, comprising direct cost and related incidental expenses. Assets which are not ready for intended use are also shown under capital work-in-progress.

3.15 Intangible assets

The Group's intangible assets consist of computer software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Group.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets are amortised by the Group over a period of 3 years, except in case of Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited where the computer software is amortised over a period of 10 years or over the estimated useful lives.

Gains or losses from derecognition of intangible assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognised.

3.16 Investment Property

Properties, held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation are classified as investment property and measured and reported at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalized to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from the disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of property is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period. The fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes accompanying these financial statements. Fair value has been determined by an independent valuer who holds a recognised and relevant professional qualification and has recent experience in the location and category of the investment property being valued.

3.17 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are considered. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

An assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

3.18 Post-employment benefits

3.18.1 Defined contribution schemes

Contributions to the Employees Provident Fund Scheme maintained by the Central Government, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) etc. are accounted for on an accrual basis. Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme.

The Group has no obligation, other than the contribution payable under the schemes. The Group recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme / ESIC as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme / ESIC for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset.

3.18.2 Defined Benefit schemes

Gratuity

The Group provides for gratuity covering eligible employees under which a lump sum payment is paid to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount reckoned on the respective employee's salary and his tenure of employment with the Group. The Group accounts for its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation determined at each Balance Sheet date by an Independent Actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. The Group makes contributions to a Gratuity Fund administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on Government Securities as at the Balance Sheet date.

An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, these liabilities are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to other equity through OCI in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to statement of profit and loss in subsequent periods.

3.19 Share Based Payments

The Group has formulated Employees Stock Option Schemes and Stock Appreciation Right Schemes (SAR). The fair value of options granted under Employee Stock Option Plan is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in Other Equity and the fair value of SAR granted is recognized as an employee benefit expense having a corresponding increase in financial liability. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest.

3.20 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the enterprise has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of the time value of money is material, the enterprise determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

3.21 Assets held for sale

Assets possessed against the settlement of loans are carried in the balance sheet at a value of outstanding principal loan amount or fair value of asset whichever is lower. In case the fair value of the asset acquired is lower than the outstanding principal loan amount; then the shortfall is to be provided for in the books of account in such financial year.

These assets are classified as ‘Assets held for sale’ under ‘Non-financial assets’ till the asset acquired is finally disposed. The outstanding overdue interest and other charges will be accounted on realization basis.

Further, if on disposal of the assets so acquired, the sale proceed is higher than the receivable amount (including outstanding loan, outstanding overdue interest, other charges and interest), then the excess will be refunded to the borrowers.

3.22 Taxes

Income tax expense represents the sum of current tax and deferred tax.

3.22.1 Current Tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from ‘profit before tax’ as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible in accordance with applicable tax laws.

Interest income / expenses and penalties, if any, related to income tax are included in current tax expense. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the end of reporting date in India where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised either in other comprehensive income or in other equity. Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in other equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

3.22.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised, or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are only recognised for temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits if it is probable that future taxable amounts will arise to utilise those temporary differences and losses. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset where there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities are realised simultaneously.

3.22.3 Goods and services tax /value added taxes paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the goods and services tax/value added taxes paid, except:

i. When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable
ii. When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included

The net amount of tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the balance sheet.

3.23 Contingent Liabilities and assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Group or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Group does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. The Group does not have any contingent assets in the financial statements.

3.24 Earnings Per Share

The Group reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS 33 on Earnings per share. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. In computing the dilutive earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the earnings per share or increases loss per share are included.

3.25 Dividends on ordinary shares

The Group recognises a liability to make distributions to equity holders of the Group when the distribution is authorised, and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Group. As per the corporate laws in India, a distribution is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders. A corresponding amount is recognised directly in equity.

3.26 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, is based on the substance of the arrangement and requires an assessment of whether the fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or whether the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset.

Group as a lessee
The Groups lease asset class consists of building and equipment. The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group has, at the date of transition, recognized a right-of use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term lease) and low value assets. For these short-term and low value leases, the Group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are recognized at cost, which comprises the present value of the lease liability as at the date of transition. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the balance lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit on the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. Interest accrued on lease liability and lease payments made, are subsequently adjusted to the initial recognition of lease liability.

Group as a lessor
Leases where the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased items are operating leases. Rental Income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss.

3.27 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

3.28 Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group enters into derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts and cross currency interest rate swaps to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate risk. Derivatives are recognized at fair value and carried as assets when their fair value is positive and as liabilities when their fair value is negative. The resulting gain/loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in the Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

4. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised, and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

4.1 Business Model Assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Group determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of the assets are compensated. The Group monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Group's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

Muthoot Classification: Public

4.2 Defined employee benefit assets and liabilities

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

4.3 Fair value measurement

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using various valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values. Judgments include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

4.4 Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by several factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

It has been the Group's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

4.5 Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method

The Group's EIR methodology, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans given / taken and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges).

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and lifecycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to India's base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

4.6 Lease Term

- The determination of lease term for some lease contracts in which the Group is a lessee, including whether the Group is reasonably certain to exercise lessee options.
- The determination of the incremental borrowing rate used to measure lease liabilities.

4.7 Share based payments

Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them.

4.8 Other estimates

These include contingent liabilities, useful lives of tangible and intangible assets etc.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but where the Group has continuing involvement

The Group has sold some loans and advances as a source of finance. As per terms of the deal, risk and reward has been transferred to the customer. Hence, as per the derecognition criteria of IND AS 109, including transfer of substantially all risks and rewards relating to assets being transferred to the buyer being met, the assets have been derecognised. The table below summarises the carrying amount of the derecognised financial assets.

Under previous GAAP, retained interest receivable on loan assignment transactions were recognised over the period of such assigned loans. Under Ind AS, the gain arising on said transactions are recorded upfront by discounting the future cash flows accruing in the form of differential interest on such assigned loan to their present values.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2025	As at 31st March 2024
Carrying amount of derecognised financial assets	2,84,415.68	2,93,290.68
Gain/(loss) from derecognition	43,747.95	30,055.52

Transferred financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety

The Group uses securitisations as a source of finance and a means of risk transfer. The Group securitised its mircofinance loans to different entities. These entities are not related to the Group. Also, the Group neither holds any equity or other interest nor controls them.
As per the terms of the agreement, the Group is exposed to first loss amounting to 5% - 7% (5% - 7.5% as at March 31, 2024) of the amount securitised and therefore continues to be exposed to significant risk and rewards relating to the underlying gold and microfinance loans. These receivables are not derecognised and proceeds received are recorded as a financial liability under borrowings.
The table below outlines the carrying amounts and fair values of all financial assets transferred that are not derecognised in their entirety and associated liabilities.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2025	As at 31st March 2024
Carrying amount of assets re - recognised due to non transfer of assets	1,02,417.02	1,27,542.15
Carrying amount of associated liabilities	1,13,440.83	1,42,464.20

The carrying amount of above assets and liabilities is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

24.1. Nature and purpose of reserve

Securities Premium

Securities premium is used to record the premium on issue of shares. This can be utilised only for limited purposes such as issuance of bonus shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 45-IC of the RBI Act 1934)

Statutory Reserve represents the Reserve Fund created under Section 45-IC of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Statutory Reserve (Pursuant to Section 29C of the NHB Act 1987)

Statutory reserve is created in terms of Section 29C of the National Housing Bank Act, 1987 read with Section 36(1)(viii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Retained Earnings

This Reserve represents the cumulative profits of the Group. This Reserve can be utilized in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

General reserve

Represents the profits or losses made by the Employee Welfare Trust on account of issue or sale of treasury stock and includes transfer of lapsed options.

Employee stock options outstanding

The account is used to recognise the grant date value of options issued to employees under Employee stock option plan and adjusted as and when such options are exercised or otherwise expire.

Other comprehensive income

Changes in the fair value of loan assets held with the business objective of collect and sell are recognised in other comprehensive income. These changes are accumulated within the FVOCI debt investments reserve within equity. The company transfers amounts from this reserve to the statement of profit and loss when the loan assets are sold. Any impairment loss on such loans are reclassified immediately to the statement of profit and loss. Other comprehensive income also consists of re-measurement of net defined benefit liability and fair value changes on equity instruments measured through other comprehensive income. It also includes effective portion of cash flow hedges representing the cumulative gains/(losses) arising on changes in fair value of the derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges through OCI. The changes in the fair value of forward element of the forward contract on reporting date where deferred and retained in the cost of hedging reserve, also forms part of other comprehensive income.

(b) CSR Expenditure

As required under Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Group was required to spend INR 1,899.97 in the reporting year in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, being two per cent of the average net profits made during the three immediately preceding financial years. The Group has during the year, spent a total of INR 1,184.34 towards CSR expenditure (including INR 340.88 out of earlier year unspent transferred to designated bank account). The unspent portion of INR 1,056.51 has been transferred to the designated bank account for Unspent Corporate Social Responsibility by the Group.

(c) Shortfall at the end of the year	1,056.51	656.74
(d) Total of previous year shortfall	742.63	426.77
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2024–25 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year.	To better serve the students, the project's scope was expanded from solely offering a sports facility for football, volleyball, cricket, and other sports to establishing a comprehensive sports academy. This academy will not only provide top-tier sports training but also include educational facilities where students can attend regular academic classes, all meeting international standards. This change was prompted by the unavailability of schools we initially planned to partner with. Groundwork at the site is underway, and we are currently updating the architectural plans to accommodate these enhanced specifications.

41 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

Fair Value Hierarchy of assets and liabilities

The following table shows an analysis of financial instruments recorded at fair value by level of the fair value hierarchy as at 31st March 2025:

The fair value of financial instruments as referred to above have been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The categories used are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical instruments in an active market;

Level 2: Directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) observable market inputs, other than Level 1 inputs; and

Level 3: Inputs which are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Fair value technique

Investments at fair value

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued on a case-by-case has been classified as Level 3.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

For Investments in Security receipts (SRs), Net Asset Value is as certified by the issuer of Security Receipts. Accordingly, the fair valuation technique in this regard is classified under Level 3. The disclosure of the sensitivity of the fair value measurement to changes in unobservable inputs is not considered relevant.

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at March 31, 2025		As at March 31, 2024
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%
Discount Rate of CCCPS Coversion Feature	(966.07)	993.71	(390.15)	401.26
Discount for Lack of Marketability	(604.31)	604.31	(249.27)	249.27

Loan assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income

Loan receivables valuation is carried out for two portfolios segregated on the basis of repayment frequency – monthly and weekly. The valuation of each portfolio is done by discounting the aggregate future cash flows with risk-adjusted discounting rate for the remaining portfolio tenor. The discounting factor is applied assuming the cashflows will be evenly received in a month. The overdue cashflows upto 30days are considered in the sixth month and 31-90 days are considered in 12th month. For Stage 3 loans, the outstanding principal after applying LGD is considered in the 12th month cashflow.

Following inputs have been used to calculate the fair value of loans receivables:

(i) Future cash flows: Include principal receivable, interest receivable and tenor information based on the repayment schedule agreed with the borrowers.

(ii) Risk-adjusted discount rate: This rate has been arrived using the cost of funds approach.

The following inputs have been used:

(i) Cost of funds

(ii) Credit spread of borrowers

(iii) Servicing cost of a financial asset

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using Effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

44 Risk Management

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise of borrowings including debt securities,subordinated liabilities as well as trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
Predominantly comprising of lending institutions, the Group is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Group's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Group is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.
The Group has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage risk throughout the Group. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Group has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically adressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Group faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group's major income generating activities include gold loan, sme loans, housing loan, microfinance loan, personal loans and others.
The Group addressess credit risk through following major processess:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques
- Structured and standardised credit approval process
- Verification of credit history from credit bureau agencies, personal verification of customers business and residence
- Technical and Legal Verification
- Comprehensive credit risk assessment and cash flow analysis

In order to mitigate the impact of credit risk in the future profitability, the Group makes reserves basis the expected credit loss (ECL model) for the outstanding loans.

A) Impairment Assessment

The Group's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the Summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care

The Group considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on its contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Group also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Group carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations or whether Stage 2 is appropriate.
The Group considers a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Muthoot Classification: Public

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the Group.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Group assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. Where a particular portfolio is relatively new, the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India has been considered. PD is calculated using Incremental 90 day DPD approach considering fresh slippage using historical information.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group expects to receive.

LGD Rates have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed/ written off/ repossessed and upgraded during the year.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Group applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

Management Overlay

During the year ended March 31, 2025, Muthoot Microfin Limited has created a management overlay of INR 22,965.31 (March 31, 2024 : Nil) in view of the many challenges faced by the microfinance sector during the financial year 2024-25. The overall market conditions are improving but has impacted the portfolio quality and performance. Following are the major factors contributed to the impacts.

Industry level challenges:

We witnessed a rapid industry growth post-pandemic recovery which has led to over-heating in the segment. Increased competition among MFIs for market share has caused stress on lending practices and risk management. This has resulted in increased leverage among the Microfinance lenders in terms of portfolio outstanding and number of lenders. Isolated political movements and local unrest have disrupted normal economic activities in certain regions. We have seen revival of Karza Mukthi related activities which led to prolonged financial instability in affected areas. Centre and borrower disciplines are taking time to fall in place; leading to higher time consumption for regular collections. MFIs are focusing on collections to reduce delinquency rates, further limiting new loan disbursements. This has impacted the credit availability among the borrowers, which disrupted the customer cash flows resulting in challenges in maintaining repayments. Self-Regulatory Organizations (SROs) have implemented guardrails to control the delinquency situation and aggressive lending practices in sector. This has brough in necessary discipline in the sector.

Karnataka Crisis:

The microfinance sector in Karnataka has been affected by The Karnataka Micro Loan and Small Loan (Prevention of Coercive Actions) Ordinance, 2025, an initiative by the state government. The act is to prevent un-registered money lenders in the state and against coercive collection practices. The act is expected to help the MFI Industry and registered regulated entities on a long-term basis but had made disruptions in the short term. This has contributed to fluctuations in portfolio performance; though the same peaked in February 2025, the same is currently getting resolved gradually with improved portfolio performance in March 2025.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Group may not meet its financial obligations. Liquidity risk arises due to the unavailability of adequate funds at an appropriate cost or tenure. The objective of liquidity risk management, is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements. The Group consistently generates sufficient cash flows from operating and financial activities to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due. The The Group's treasury teams source funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. They are responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Group is exposed to two types of market risk as follows:

Muthoot Classification: Public

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, debt securities and subordinate laibilities are as follows:

Particulars	31st March 2025	31st March 2024
On Borrowings
1% increase	(27,055.42)	(21,794.35)
1% decrease	27,055.42	21,794.35

Particulars	31st March 2025	31st March 2024
On Debt Securities
1% increase	(4,064.44)	(4,124.67)
1% decrease	4,064.44	4,124.67

Particulars	31st March 2025	31st March 2024
On Subordinate Liabilities
1% increase	(2,250.39)	(2,209.88)
1% decrease	2,250.39	2,209.88

Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVTPL and FVOCI respectively".

A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/ (Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at March 31, 2025	10/(10)	502.07 / (502.07)	346.19 / (346.19)
As at March 31, 2024	10/(10)	420.39 / (420.39)	405.78 / (405.78)

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Group arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Group has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings by entering into forward contracts and cross currency interest rate swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Group's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2025		March 31, 2024
	Amount in USD	Amount in INR	Amount in USD	Amount in INR
Foreign currency borrowings	4,646.08	3,97,387.65	1,455.82	1,21,346.81

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instrument, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Group will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Group cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To,
The members of MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED,
Report on the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying Standalone Ind AS financial statements of MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of cash flows for the year ended on that date and notes to the Ind AS Financial Statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information. ["Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2025, its profit, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Standalone Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Muthoot Classification: Public

For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
a) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.
b) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/ hardware access rights etc. We have also considered and reviewed the information system audit reports and internal audit reports to confirm the controls existing. Based on our sample review, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls.

c) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapse in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches and centre processing hub of the company which are considered top based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place. We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level and how the same is considered and incorporated in the financial statements. We have also assessed and analyzed the internal audit reports and how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the entity's financial accounting and reporting records. Based on our sample review, no major weaknesses were identified.
d) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets. As at 31st March 2025, the Company had reported a total impairment loss allowance of Rs. 27,943.01 lakhs (31st March 2024 – Rs. 29,729.05 lakhs)	The audit procedures performed, among others, included: • Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms.

Muthoot Classification: Public

A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance: • Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets; • Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.	• Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts. • Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as: • Reading account statements, reviewing loan ledgers and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis. • Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category which needed to be considered as NPA. • Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report, including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the Consolidated Ind AS Financial statements, Standalone Ind AS Financial statements and our Auditor's Report thereon. Our opinion on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Company's Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, based on our audit we report that:

a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books;
c) The Standalone Balance Sheet, the Standalone Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Standalone Statement of Changes in Equity and the Standalone Statement of Cash Flows dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;
d) In our opinion, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act read with Companies(Indian Accounting Standards) Rules,2015 as amended.
e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2025 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors are disqualified as on March 31, 2025 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act;
f) The modifications relating to the maintenance of accounts and other matters connected therewith in respect of audit trail are as stated in the paragraph 2(b) above on reporting under Section 143(3)(b) of the Act and paragraph 2(i)(vi) below on reporting under Rule 11(g) of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014

g) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure A". Our report expresses an unmodified opinion on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the company's internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

h) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with the requirements of Section 197(16) of the Act, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the remuneration paid by the Company to its directors during the year is in accordance with the provisions of Section 197 of the Act.

i) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

   i. The company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

   ii. The company has made provision as required under applicable law or accounting standards for material foreseeable losses, if any, on long term contracts including derivative contracts.

   iii. There has been no delay in transferring amounts, required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the company.

   iv. a) The Management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, as disclosed in Note 51 to the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, no funds (which are material either individually or in aggregate) have been advanced or loaned or invested (either from borrowed funds or share premium or any other sources or kind of funds) by the Company to or in any other person or entity, including foreign entity ("Intermediaries"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise that the Intermediary shall, whether directly or indirectly lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Company ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

   b) The Management has represented, that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, no funds (which are material either individually or in the aggregate) have been received by the Company from any person or entity, including foreign entity ("Funding Parties"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise, that the Company shall, whether, directly or indirectly, lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Funding Party ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

c) Based on the audit procedures that have been considered reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances, nothing has come to our notice that has caused us to believe that the representations under sub-clause (i) and (ii) of Rule 11(e), as provided under (a) and (b) above, contain any material misstatement.

v. The dividend declared and paid during the year by the Company is in compliance with Section 123 of the Act.

vi. Based on our examination which included test checks and as represented by the company, the Company has used an accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts for the financial year ended March 31, 2025 which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility and the same has operated throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with and the audit trial has been preserved by the company as per the statutory requirements for record retention.

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on other legal and regulatory requirements' of the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ("THE ACT")

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the Company"), as of 31st March 2025, in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those standards and the guidance note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial control system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financials controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Ind AS financial statements were operating effectively as at 31st March 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

ANNEXURE "B" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Annexure referred to in Paragraph 2 under the heading 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements in the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2025.

1. Property, Plant and Equipment
   a) In respect of the Company's property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets:
      i. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of property, plant and equipment and relevant details of right-of-use assets.
      ii. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars of intangible assets.
      iii. The Company is in the process of automation of its PPE register using FARMS software and the work is in progress, as informed to us.
   b) As informed to us, fixed assets have been physically verified by the management on a periodic basis during the course of internal branch audit conducted during the year. Since there is a regular programme of verification, we are of the opinion that it is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its assets. We have been informed that there have been no material discrepancies during such verification.
   c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the title deeds of immovable property included in Property, Plant and Equipment and in Investment Property are held in the name of the Company.
   d) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not revalued any of its property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) and intangible assets during the year.
   e) As informed to us, no proceedings have been initiated during the year or are pending against the Company as at March 31, 2025 for holding any benami property under the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (as amended in 2016) and rules made thereunder.

2. Inventory and Working Capital:
   a) The Company does not hold any inventory. Accordingly, the provisions stated under clause 3(ii) (a) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.
   b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has obtained Working Capital Limits in excess of Rs 5 Crores in aggregate from banks and financial Institutions and the quarterly return/statement filed by the Company with such banks or financial Institutions are in agreement with the books of accounts.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3. The company is a Non – Deposit taking Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) registered with the Reserve Bank of India. During the year, the company has made investments and in the ordinary course of business granted loans and advances in the nature of secured and unsecured loans to companies, firms, LLPs and other parties. With respect to such Investment and Loans and Advances :
   a) As the principal business of the company is to give loans, paragraph 3(iii)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
   b) In our opinion, the terms and conditions of the grant of such loans are, prima facie, not prejudicial to the Interests of the Company.
   c) In respect of loans granted by the company, the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest have been stipulated. Being a non-banking finance company engaged in the business of granting loans, there are instances of irregularities in repayment of principal amount and receipt of interest as per stipulated terms. Having regard to the nature of business undertaken by the company, specific details of irregularities are not reported although the particulars of overdue for more than ninety days as per books of accounts as at the Balance Sheet date has been reported in para (d) below.
   d) In respect of the loans/ advances in nature of loans, the total amount overdue for more than ninety days as at March 31, 2025 is Rs. 51,643.51 lakhs. In such instances, in our opinion, based on information and explanations provided to us, reasonable steps have been taken by the Company for the recovery of the principal amounts and the interest thereon.
   e) The provisions of paragraph 3(iii)(e) of the Order are not applicable to the company, as its principal business is to give loans.
   f) The company has not granted any loans or advances in the nature of loans that were either repayable on demand or without specifying any terms or period of repayment.

4. In our opinion, in respect of loans, investments, guarantees, and security, the company has complied with the provisions of section 185 and 186 of the Act.

5. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of sections 73 to 76 of the Act and rules framed thereunder to the extent notified.

6. The Government of India has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under sub- section (1) of section 148 of the Act for any of the activities of the company and hence the provisions of this section are not applicable to the Company for the year under review.

The financial statements of the Company are presented as per Schedule III (Division III) of the Companies Act, 2013 applicable to NBFCs, as notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

i) Investments in equity instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) or at fair value through statement of profit or loss (FVTPL)
ii) Investments which are held for trading
iii) Defined benefit plans.
iv) Cumulative, Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares issued at Fair Value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
v) Derivative Financial Liability

Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) which is also functional currency of the Company and the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates. All values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated.

3. Material accounting policies

3.1 Recognition of interest income

Interest income is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets and financial assets classified as measured at FVTPL.

The EIR in case of a financial asset is computed:

a. As the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset.

b. By considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument in estimating the cash flows.

c. Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts.

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows is recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets. Interest income is not recognized on credit impaired assets.

3.2 Recognition of revenue from sale of goods and services

Revenue (other than for financial instruments) is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers outlines a single comprehensive model of accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance found within Ind ASs.

The Company recognises revenue from contracts with customers based on a five-step model as set out in Ind AS 115:

Step 1: Identify contract(s) with a customer: A contract is defined as an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations and sets out the criteria for every contract that must be met.
Step 2: Identify performance obligations in the contract: A performance obligation is a promise in a contract with a customer to transfer a good or service to the customer.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Step 3: Determine the transaction price: The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.
Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract: For a contract that has more than one performance obligation, the Company allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation in an amount that depicts the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for satisfying each performance obligation.
Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation

Revenue from contract with customer for rendering services is recognised at a point in time when performance obligation is satisfied.

3.2.1 Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Company's right to receive the payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

3.2.2 Rental Income

Rental income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss, unless the increase is in line with expected general inflation, in which case lease income is recognised based on contractual terms.

3.2.3 Fees and commission income

Fees and commission income such as service charges, commission from fee based business lines, service income etc. are recognised on point in time basis.

3.2.4 Net gain / loss on fair value changes

The Company designates certain financial assets for subsequent measurement at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) or fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). The Company recognises gains / losses on fair value change of financial assets measured at FVTPL on net basis.

3.2.5 Net gain on derecognition of financial instruments

Gains arising out of direct assignment transactions comprise the difference between the interest on the loan portfolio and the applicable rate at which the direct assignment is entered into with the assignee, also known as the excess interest spread (EIS).In accordance with Ind AS 109 and as per management practice, in case of assignment transactions with complete transfer of risks and rewards without any retention of residual interest, gain arising on such assignment transactions is recorded upfront in the Statement of Profit and Loss and the corresponding asset is derecognized from the Balance Sheet immediately upon execution of such transaction. Further, where the transfer of financial asset qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the whole of the interest spread at its present value (discounted over the life of the asset) is recognized on the date of derecognition itself as receivable towards assignment transactions and correspondingly recognized as gain on derecognition of financial asset. A provision is recognised against receivables towards assignment transactions in accordance with the Board approved policy.

3.3 Financial instruments

1.1.1. Initial recognition

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Loans are recognised when funds are transferred to the customers' account. Investments are recognised on settlement date. The Company recognises debt securities and borrowings when funds reach the Company, post allotment if applicable.

Muthoot Classification: Public

1.1.2. Initial and subsequent measurement of financial instruments

The Company classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

1. Debt instruments at amortised cost
2. Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)
3. Debt instruments, derivatives and equity instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
4. Equity instruments in subsidiary companies at cost
5. Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income FVTOCI

The classification depends on the contractual terms of the financial assets' cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below:

Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios and is based on observable factors such as:

- How the performance of the business model and the financial assets held within that business model are evaluated and reported to the entity's key management personnel
- The risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and the way those risks are managed
- How managers of the business are compensated (for example, whether the compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or on the contractual cash flows collected)
- The expected frequency, value and timing of sales are also important aspects of the Company's assessment. The business model assessment is based on reasonably expected scenarios without taking 'worst case' or 'stress case' scenarios into account. If cash flows after initial recognition are realised in a way that is different from the Company's original expectations, the Company does not change the classification of the remaining financial assets held in that business model, but incorporates such information when assessing newly originated or newly purchased financial assets going forward.

The SPPI test

As a second step of its classification process, the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

'Principal' for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there are repayments of principal or amortisation of the premium/discount).

In making this assessment, the Company considers whether the contractual cash flows are consistent with a basic lending arrangement i.e. interest includes only consideration for the time value of money, credit risk, other basic lending risks and a profit margin that is consistent with a basic lending arrangement. Where the contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility that are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement, the related financial asset is classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities at amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or is required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

Muthoot Classification: Public

1.1.3. Financial assets measured at amortised cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement at fair value plus directly attributable costs, these financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in interest income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

1.1.4. Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

A 'debt instrument' is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and selling the assets and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured at each reporting date at fair value with such changes being recognised in other comprehensive income (OCI). The interest income on these assets is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses or reversals, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit and loss. Upon disposal, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to the income statement.

1.1.5. Financial Instrument measured at fair value through profit or loss

Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL. In addition, debt instruments that meet the amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria but are designated as at FVTPL are measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

Company’s investment is classified as FVTPL, if it is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term, or forms part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of short-term profit taking.

Financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss, are initially recognised at fair value, with transaction costs recognised in the income statement as incurred. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value and any gains or losses are recognised in the income statement as they arise.

1.1.6. Equity instruments

The Company subsequently measures investment in equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Company’s management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments as equity instruments at FVTOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of Equity under Ind AS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Gains and losses on these equity instruments classified at FVTOCI are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Company benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI.

3.3.1 Financial Liabilities

Initial Measurement

All financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value. Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or the issue of financial liability, which are not at fair value through profit or loss, are adjusted to fair value at initial recognition.

Subsequent Measurement

Financial liabilities except cumulative compulsorily convertible preference shares and derivative financial liability, are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

3.4 Derecognition of financial assets and liabilities

3.4.1 Financial Asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Company also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Company has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either:

a) The Company has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset

or

b) It retains the rights to the cash flows, but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass–through' arrangement

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Company retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

- The Company has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Company cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Company has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Company is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset or,
- The Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset

Muthoot Classification: Public

- The Company considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

When the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards and has retained control of the asset, the asset continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement, in which case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

3.4.2 Financial Liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as de recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss.

3.5 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. Financial assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet when the Company has a legal right to offset the amounts and intends to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously in all the following circumstances:

a. The normal course of business
b. The event of default
c. The event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company and/or its counter parties.

3.6 Impairment of financial assets

3.6.1 Overview of the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) principles

The Company has created provisions on all financial assets wherever required, except for financial assets classified as FVTPL, based on the expected credit loss method.

The ECL provision is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss. The 12-month ECL is the portion of Lifetime ECL that represent the ECLs that result from default events on financial assets that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

The Company performs an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a financial instrument's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Company categorises its loans into three stages as described below:

For non-impaired financial instruments

- Stage 1 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have not experienced a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition. A 12-month ECL provision is made for stage 1 financial instruments. In assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly, the Company compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date, with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition.

Muthoot Classification: Public

- Stage 2 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have experienced a SICR since initial recognition. The Company recognises lifetime ECL for stage 2 financial instruments. In subsequent reporting periods, if the credit risk of the financial instrument improves such that there is no longer a SICR since initial recognition, then entities recognize 12 months of ECL.

For impaired financial instruments:

Financial instruments are classified as stage 3 when there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more loss events that have occurred after initial recognition with a negative impact on the estimated future cash flows of a loan or a portfolio of loans. The Company recognises lifetime ECL for impaired financial instruments.

3.6.2 The calculation of ECLs

The mechanics of the ECL calculations are outlined below and the key elements are, as follows:

Probability of Default (PD) - The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon.

The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographies, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. Where historical information is not available for arriving at reasonable default probability, published probability of default for similar loan segments are used by the Company.

Exposure at Default (EAD) - The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date, considering expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments.

Loss Given Default (LGD) – The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive. The Company uses computed discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed during the year where historical information is available and uses Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms in the absence of sufficient historical trends.

Forward looking information

While estimating the expected credit losses, the Company reviews macro-economic developments occurring in the economy and market it operates in. On a periodic basis, the Company analyses if there is any relationship between key economic trends like GDP, unemployment rates, benchmark rates set by the Reserve Bank of India, inflation etc. with the estimate of PD, LGD determined by the Company based on its internal data. While the internal estimates of PD, LGD rates by the Company may not be always reflective of such relationships, temporary overlays, if any, are embedded in the methodology to reflect such macro-economic trends reasonably.

Write-offs

Loans and other assets are written off (either partially or in full) when there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when it is determined that the customer does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subjected to write-offs. Any subsequent recoveries against such loans are credited to the statement of profit and loss.

Collateral

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Company seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as gold, securities, stock, current asset etc. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. The fair value of the same is based on data provided by third party or management judgements.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Impairment of Trade receivables

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables.

3.7 Determination of fair value

The Company measures financial instruments, such as, investments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

i. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
ii. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, if market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset considers a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which enough data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

The financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Level 1 financial instruments − Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has access to at the measurement date. The Company considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments − Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life. Such inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical instruments in inactive markets and observable inputs other than quoted prices such as interest rates and yield curves, implied volatilities, and credit spreads. In addition, adjustments may be required for the condition or location of the asset or the extent to which it relates to items that are comparable to the valued instrument. However, if such adjustments are based on unobservable inputs which are significant to the entire measurement, the Company will classify the instruments as Level 3.

Level 3 financial instruments − Those that include one or more unobservable input that is significant to the measurement as whole.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.8 Foreign Currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies, if any, are initially recorded in the functional currency at the spot rate of ex-change ruling at the date of the transaction. However, for practical reasons, the Company uses an average rate if the average approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated into the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange at the reporting date. All differences arising on non–trading activities are taken to other income/expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Non–monetary items that are measured at historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the spot exchange rates as at the date of recognition.

3.9 Derivative Financial Liability

The company enters into derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts and cross currency interest rate swaps to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate risk. Derivatives are recognized at fair value and carried as assets when their fair value is positive and as liabilities when their fair value is negative. The resulting gain/loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in the Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

3.10 Finance cost

Finance costs represents Interest expense recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial liabilities other than financial liabilities classified as FVTPL.

Interest expense includes issue costs that are initially recognized as part of the carrying value of the financial liability and amortized over the expected life using the effective interest method. These include fees including upfront costs incurred in relation to borrowings, commissions payable to advisers and other expenses such as external legal costs, provided these are incremental costs that are directly related to the issue of a financial liability. Interest accrued on lease liability recognized and measured in accordance with Ind AS 116 “Leases” also forms part of Finance cost.

3.11 Other income and expenses

All Other income and expense are recognized in the period they occur.

3.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand, short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less and forex balances, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, forex balances and short- term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts, if any, as they are considered an integral part of the Company’s cash management.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.13 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment (PPE) are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment, (if any). The total cost of assets comprises its purchase price, freight, duties, taxes and any other incidental expenses directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management.

Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of tangible asset are added to its gross value only if it increases the future benefits of the existing asset, beyond its previously assessed standards of performance and cost can be measured reliably. Other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed off as and when incurred.

3.13.1 Depreciation

Tangible assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Depreciation is charged based on a review by the management during the year and at the rates derived based on the useful lives of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 on Straight Line Method. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Particulars	Useful life
Building	60 years
Computer	3 years
Furniture and Fixtures	5 to 30 years
Plant and Equipment	5 to 20 years
Vehicles	5 to 8 years
Windmill	22 years
Office equipment	15 years

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in Ind AS 115.

3.14 Intangible assets

The Company's intangible assets consist of computer software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Company.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets are amortised using the Written down value method to write down the cost of intangible assets to their residual values over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets comprising of software are amortised on a Written down value basis over a period of 3 years keeping residual value 5%.

Gains or losses from derecognition of intangible assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognised.

3.15 Investment Property

Properties, held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation are classified as investment property and measured and reported at cost, including transaction costs, borrowing cost and other directly attributable cost in bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Subsequent expenditure is capitalized to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the expenditure will flow to the company.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from the disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of property is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period.

The fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes accompanying these financial statements. Fair value has been determined by an independent valuer who holds a recognised and relevant professional qualification and has recent experience in the location and category of the investment property being valued.

3.16 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company's assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are considered. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

An assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

3.17 Post-employment benefits

3.17.1 Defined contribution schemes

Contributions to the Employees Provident Fund Scheme maintained by the Central Government, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) etc. are accounted for on an accrual basis. Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme.

The company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable under the schemes. The company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme / ESIC as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme / ESIC for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset.

3.17.2 Defined Benefit schemes

Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity covering eligible employees under which a lumpsum payment is paid to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount reckoned on the respective employee's salary and his tenure of employment with the Company. The Company accounts for its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation determined at each Balance Sheet date by an Independent Actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. The Company makes contributions to a Gratuity Fund administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on Government Securities as at the Balance Sheet date.

An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, these liabilities are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to profit and loss in subsequent periods.

Other long-term employee benefits

Company's liabilities towards compensated absences to employees are accrued on the basis of valuations, as at the Balance Sheet date, carried out by an independent actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. Actuarial gains and losses comprise experience adjustments and the effects of changes in actuarial assumptions and are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The Company presents the provision for compensated absences under provisions in the Balance Sheet.

3.17.3 Employee Stock Option & Employee Stock Appreciation Right

The Company has formulated its Employees Stock Option Schemes and Stock Appreciation Right Schemes (SAR). The fair value of options granted under Employee Stock Option Plan is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in Other Equity and the fair value of SAR granted is recognized as an employee benefit expense having a corresponding increase in financial liability. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the entity revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest.

3.18 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the enterprise has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of the time value of money is material, the enterprise determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

3.19 Taxes

Income tax expense represents the sum of current tax and deferred tax.

3.18.1 Current Tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible in accordance with applicable tax laws.

The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the end of reporting date in India where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

3.18.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are only recognised for temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits if it is probable that future taxable amounts will arise to utilise those temporary differences and losses. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit and loss is recognised either in other comprehensive income or in equity. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset where there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities are realised simultaneously.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.18.3 Goods and services tax /value added taxes paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the goods and services tax/value added taxes paid, except:

i. When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable
ii. When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included

The net amount of tax recoverable from and / or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables respectively in the balance sheet.

3.20 Contingent Liabilities and assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. The company does not have any contingent assets in the financial statements.

3.21 Earnings Per Share

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS 33 on Earnings per share. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. In computing the dilutive earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the earnings per share or increases loss per share are included.

3.22 Dividends on ordinary shares

The Company recognises a liability to make cash or non-cash distributions to equity holders of the Company when the distribution is authorised and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Company. As per the corporate laws in India, a distribution is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders. A corresponding amount is recognised directly in equity.

Non-cash distributions are measured at the fair value of the assets to be distributed with fair value re-measurement recognised directly in equity.

Upon distribution of non-cash assets, any difference between the carrying amount of the liability and the carrying amount of the assets distributed is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.23 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, is based on the substance of the arrangement and requires an assessment of whether the fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or whether the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset.

Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset class consist of building and equipment. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company has, at the date of transition, recognized a right-of use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all active lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term lease) and low value assets. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are recognized at cost, which comprises the present value of the lease liability as at the date of transition. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the balance lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit on the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. Interest accrued on lease liability and lease payments made, are subsequently adjusted to the initial recognition of lease liability.

Company as a lessor

Leases where the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased items are operating leases. Rental Income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss.

3.24 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

4 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

4.1 Business Model Assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Company determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of the assets are compensated. The Company monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Company's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

4.2 Defined employee benefit assets and liabilities

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

4.3 Fair value measurement:

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using various valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values. Judgments include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

4.4 Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by several factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances. It has been the Company's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience, regulatory advisories, market conditions and forecasts and revise when necessary.

4.5 Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method

The Company's EIR methodology, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans given / taken and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges).

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to India's base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

4.6 Provisions

At each balance sheet date basis the management judgment, changes in facts and legal aspects, the Company assesses the requirement of provisions against the outstanding contingent liabilities. However, the actual future outcome may be different from this judgement.

4.7 Other estimates:

These include contingent liabilities, useful lives of tangible and intangible assets etc.

(b) CSR Expenditure

As required under Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Company was required to spend INR 1,257.20 in the reporting year in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, being two per cent of the average net profits of the company made during the three immediately preceding financial years. The Company has during the year, spent a total of INR 774.65 towards CSR expenditure (including INR 315.84 out of earlier year unspent transferred to designated bank account). The unspent portion of INR 798.38 pertaining to the current year has been transferred to the designated bank account for unspent corporate social responsibility by the Company.

(c) Shortfall at the end of the year	798.38	656.74
(d) Total of previous year shortfall (net of amount spent out of earlier year shortfall)	969.32	628.42
(e) Reason for shortfall	The shortfall in CSR expenditure for FY 2024–25 is attributable to the phased execution of the Muthoot Center of Excellence, the company's flagship CSR project aimed at establishing a world-class integrated academic and sports institution. While significant progress was made during the year—including completion of the masterplan, utility design finalization, onboarding of academic and sports advisors, and early-stage program rollouts—the project requires multiple statutory approvals. These include environmental clearance from the Ministry of Environment & Forests (MOEF), followed by additional regulatory approvals, all of which are at various stages of processing. Given the scale of the project, it has undergone rigorous planning and is progressing in a structured and timely manner. As a long-term transformational initiative, we remain fully committed to this dream project. The unspent amount is earmarked for this purpose and will be deployed as approvals are secured and implementation advances in the coming financial year.	To better serve the students, the project's scope was expanded from solely offering a sports facility for football, volleyball, cricket, and other sports to establishing a comprehensive sports academy. This academy will not only provide top-tier sports training but also include educational facilities where students can attend regular academic classes, all meeting international standards. This change was prompted by the unavailability of schools we initially planned to partner with. Groundwork at the site is underway, and we are currently updating the architectural plans to accommodate these enhanced specifications.

41 Capital

Capital Management

The primary objective of the Company's capital management policy is to ensure that the Company complies with externally imposed capital requirements and maintains healthy credit ratings and capital ratios in order to support its business and to maximize shareholder value.

Being an NBFC-SI, the RBI requires the Company to maintain a minimum capital to risk weighted assets ratio ("CRAR") consisting of a minimum Tier 1 Capital of 12% and a combined Tier 1 & Tier 2 Capital of 15% of our aggregate risk weighted assets. The capital management process of the Company ensures to maintain a healthy CRAR at all the times. During the year, the Company has issued cumulative compulsorily convertible preference shares of INR 25,000.00 (March 31, 2024 - Nil), perpetual debt instruments aggregating to INR 9,700.00 (March 31, 2024 - INR 20,000) and subordinated debt of INR 30,000 (March 31, 2024 - INR 15,000) to reinforce the regulatory capital levels.

42 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

Fair value technique

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

Equity instruments

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1.

Derivative Financial Instruments (assets/liabilities)

The financial assets/liabilities on derivative contracts been fair valued using closing rate and is classified as Level 2.

Financial Liabilities with significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued as at the measurement date or at the nearest available date has been classified as Level 3, where the valuation cannot be corroborated by observable market data.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at 31st March 2025		As at 31st March 2024
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%
Discount Rate of CCCPS Conversion Feature	(966.07)	993.71	(390.15)	401.26

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Such amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

44. Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise secured and unsecured borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
As a financial lending institution, Company is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Company 's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Company is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Company's Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.
The Company has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage its risk. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Company has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically addressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Company faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit Risk arises from the risk of loss that may occur from the default of Company's customers under loan agreements. Customer defaults and inadequate collateral may lead to loan losses.
The Company addresses credit risk through following major processes:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio appraisal and monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques

A) Impairment Assessment

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of providing gold, SME loans, digital loans, personal and loans against property. Whereas tenure of gold loans primarily range from 6 to 12 months, tenure of other loans range from 3 months to 180 months.

The Company's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care

The Company considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on his / her contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Company also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Company carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations.
The Company has considered a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Company's internal credit rating grades and staging criteria for loans are as follows:

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Muthoot Classification: Public

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the company.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Company assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. For Gold, loans against property, high value and SME loans, considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographies, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. For personal loans, the Company has considered the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India as the said portfolio is relatively new to the Company.
Based on its review of macro-economic developments and economic outlook, the Company has assessed that no adjustment is required for temporary overlays to determine qualitative impact on its PD.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Company expects to receive. LGD rates for Gold Loans have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are auctioned during the year. For other loans, LGD rates have been arrived at guided by the Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms.
When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Company applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk is the risk of being unable to raise necessary funds from the market at optimal cost to meet operational and debt servicing requirements. The purpose of liquidity management is to ensure sufficient cash flow to meet all financial commitments and to capitalise on opportunities for business expansion. Board of Directors will have overall responsibility of monitoring, supervision and control of the Asset Liability Management (ALM) mechanism. An Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) consisting of the Managing Director, a Whole Time Director and senior executives of the Company shall be responsible for the day to day as well as periodic monitoring and control of Asset Liability management. The discussions of the ALCO is placed before the Board of Directors for review. Our treasury team sources funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. The treasury team is responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Company is exposed to three types of market risk as follows:

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
On Borrowings
1% increase	(23,086.03)	(19,070.32)
1% decrease	23,086.03	19,070.32

b) Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVOCI. A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/(Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at 31st March 2025	10/(10)	220.57 / (220.57)	16,109.92 / (16,109.92)
As at 31st March 2024	10/(10)	377.48 / (377.48)	19,232.03 / (19,232.03)

A sudden fall in the gold price can result in increased customers defaults where the loan amount and interest exceeds the market value of gold, though the sentimental value of the gold jewellery to the customers may induce repayment and redemption of the collateral. This risk is partly mitigated by the fact that a minimum 25% margin is retained on the value of gold jewellery for the purpose of calculation of the loan amount. Further, the gold jewellery collateral is appraised solely based on the weight of its gold content, excluding weight and value of the stone studded in the jewellery if any. Though an occasional decrease in gold prices will not increase price risk significantly on account of our adequate collateral security margins, a sustained decrease in the market price of gold can additionally cause a decrease in the size of our loan portfolio and our interest income.

Muthoot Classification: Public

c) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Company arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Company has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings as at March 31, 2025 by entering into forward contracts and derivative swaps. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Company's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2025		March 31, 2024
	Amount in USD	Amount in INR	Amount in USD	Amount in INR
Foreign currency borrowings	2,776.28	2,37,597.84	658.76	54,193.29

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instruments, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

d) Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Company will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

IV) Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Company cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

*Additional Provisions under IRACP norms for Overdue Loan Renewals

The Company conducted a review of loan accounts renewed during the financial year based on which additional provisions have been made under IRCAP for accounts where loans were renewed after becoming overdue, provided the value of the pledged collateral under the renewed facility equals or exceeds the outstanding principal of the original loan. Based on this review, a provision of INR 347.27 has been created on a total pledge exposure of INR 57,877.90. This provision has been recognized as a prudent measure to align with regulatory expectations and to strengthen the Company's risk management framework.

Independent Auditors' Report

To,

THE MEMBERS OF MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED,

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the holding Company"), Muthoot Centre, TC No 14/ 2074-7, Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram – 695 001 and its subsidiaries (together referred as "Group") which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2024, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of changes in equity and the Consolidated Statement of cash flows for the year then ended, including the notes to the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements, a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. [hereinafter referred to as "Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Consolidated Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the Consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at 31st March, 2024, and its Consolidated profit including other Comprehensive Income, Consolidated Changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matters described below to be the Key Audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matters	How it's been addressed in Audit
a.) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Holding Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board of the Holding Company in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.
b.) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems of Holding Company on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc of the Holding Company. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding IT systems and controls. Based on the audit report issued by other auditors, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls of the subsidiaries.

c.) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapses in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches of holding company and central loan processing hub of the holding Company which are considered top based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place .We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level of the holding company and how the same is considered and incorporated in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements. We have also assessed and analyzed the internal audit reports of holding company and how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the Holding

	Company's financial accounting and reporting records. We have relied upon the work done by auditors of Subsidiary Companies (SA 600) regarding Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the Subsidiary Companies' branches. Based on the audit report issued by auditors of subsidiaries, no major weaknesses were identified.
d.) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets. As at 31st March 2024, the Group had reported a total impairment loss allowance of 49,932.15 lakhs (31st March 2023 - Rs. 54,978.75 lakhs) A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance: - Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets; - Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.	The audit procedures performed for the holding Company, among others, included: -Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms. -Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts. -Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as: ● Reading account statements and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis. ● Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category which needed to be considered as NPA. ● Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors.

Information Other than the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report but does not include the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the Consolidated financial position, Consolidated financial performance, Consolidated changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows of the Group including its Associates and jointly controlled entities in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

Muthoot Classification: Public

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Ind AS Financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

Muthoot Classification: Public

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matters

(a) We did not audit the financial statements / financial information of the subsidiaries, whose financial statements reflect total assets of Rs.13,89,207.80 lakhs as at 31st March, 2024, total revenues of Rs. 2,60,099.19 lakhs and net cash flows amounting to Rs.31,142.77 lakhs for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

(b) This financial statements / financial information has been audited by other auditors whose reports have been furnished to us by the Management and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries, and our report in terms of sub-sections (3) and (11) of Section 143 of the Act, in so far as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiaries, is based solely on the reports of the other auditors.

(c) Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, and our report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements below, is not modified in respect of the above matters with respect to our reliance on the work done and the reports of the other auditors and the financial statements / financial information.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, we report that:

a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit of the aforesaid Consolidated financial statements;

b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law relating to preparation of the aforesaid consolidated financial statements have been kept so far as it appears from our examination of those books;

c) The Consolidated Balance Sheet, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of changes in equity and the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account maintained for the purpose of preparation of the Consolidated financial statement;

ANNEXURE “A” TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS’ REPORT

Referred to in Paragraph 1(f) under ‘Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements’ of the Independent Auditors’ Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2024.

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"):

In conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2024, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Muthoot Fincorp Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies, which includes internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary companies are sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Group's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that; (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31,2024 based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to the subsidiary companies are based solely on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such company.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matter.

2. Basis of preparation

2.1 Statement of Compliance

The consolidated financial statements (CFS) of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended from time to time) and notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) along with other relevant provisions of the

Act, the Master Direction – Non-Banking Financial Company – Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016 ('the NBFC Master Directions') issued by RBI and National Housing Bank Guidelines/Regulations ('NHB directions') and notification for Implementation of Indian Accounting Standard vide circular RBI/2019-20/170 DOR(NBFC).CC.PD. No.109/22.10.106/2019-20 dated 13 March 2020 ('RBI Notification for Implementation of Ind AS') issued by RBI to the extent applicable.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, as the Management is satisfied that the Group shall be able to continue its business for the foreseeable future and no material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the going concern assumption.

2.2 Presentation of financial Statements

The Group presents its Balance Sheet in order of liquidity. The Group prepares and presents its Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Statement of Changes in Equity in the format prescribed by Division III of Schedule III to the Act. The Statement of Cash Flows has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 'Statement of Cash Flows'.

The Group generally reports financial assets and financial liabilities on a gross basis in the Balance Sheet. They are offset and reported net only when Ind AS specifically permits the same or it has an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event. Similarly, the Group offsets incomes and expenses and reports the same on a net basis when permitted by Ind AS specifically unless they are material in nature.

2.3 Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Parent Company and all its subsidiaries, being the entities that it controls from the date control is gained. Control is evidenced where the investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Power is demonstrated through existing rights that give the ability to direct relevant activities, which significantly affect the entity's returns. The financial statements of subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting year as the Parent Company. Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to align the accounting policies in line with accounting policies of the Parent Company.

These consolidated financial statements are prepared on the following basis in accordance with Ind AS 110 on "Consolidated Financial Statements" specified under Section 133 of the Act. Following subsidiary companies have been considered in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Name of the Company	Country of incorporation	Consolidated as	% equity shareholding of MFL (Current Year)	% equity shareholding of MFL (Previous Year)
Muthoot Housing Finance Company Limited	India	Subsidiary	81.71%	80.66%
Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited	India	Subsidiary	60.00%	60.00%
Muthoot Microfin Limited	India	Subsidiary	50.21%	72.36%

i) Subsidiaries
Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which controls commences until the date on which control ceases.

ii) Non-controlling interest ("NCI")
NCI are measured at their proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. Changes in the Group's equity interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

Muthoot Classification: Public

iii) Loss of control

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and any related NCI and other component of equity. Any interest retained in the former subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date the control is lost. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

iv) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

The financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary used in the consolidation procedure are drawn up to the same reporting date i.e. March 31, 2024. The financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Intra-group balances and transactions, and unrealized income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealized losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealized gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment. The Group follows uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. For additional information as required by Paragraph 2 of the General Instructions for preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements to Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, refer Note 51.

2.4 Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

i) Investments in equity instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)
ii) Financial assets and liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
iii) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)
iv) Investments which are held for trading
v) Assets held for sale are measured at fair value less cost to sell or carrying value whichever is lower
vi) Defined benefit plans.
vii) Derivative Financial Instruments

2.5 Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) which is also functional currency of the Group and the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates. All values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated.

3. Material accounting policies

3.1 Recognition of interest income

Interest income is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets and financial assets classified as measured at FVTPL.

The EIR in case of a financial asset is computed:

a. As the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset.

b. By considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument in estimating the cash flows.

c. Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts.

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows is recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets.

3.2 . Recognition of revenue from sale of goods and services

Revenue (other than for financial instruments) is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers outlines a single comprehensive model of accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance found within Ind ASs.

The Group recognises revenue from contracts with customers based on a five-step model as set out in Ind 115:

Muthoot Classification: Public

Step 1: Identify contract(s) with a customer: A contract is defined as an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations and sets out the criteria for every contract that must be met.
Step 2: Identify performance obligations in the contract: A performance obligation is a promise in a contract with a customer to transfer a good or service to the customer.
Step 3: Determine the transaction price: The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.
Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract: For a contract that has more than one performance obligation, the Group allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation in an amount that depicts the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for satisfying each performance obligation.
Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the Group satisfies a performance obligation.

Revenue from contract with customer for rendering services is recognised at a point in time when performance obligation is satisfied.

3.2.1 Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

3.2.2 Income from assignment transactions

Gains arising out of direct assignment transactions comprise the difference between the interest on the loan portfolio and the applicable rate at which the direct assignment is entered into with the assignee, also known as the excess interest spread (EIS).In accordance with Ind AS 109 and as per management practice, in case of assignment transactions with complete transfer of risks and rewards without any retention of residual interest, gain arising on such assignment transactions is recorded upfront in the Statement of Profit and Loss and the corresponding asset is derecognized from the Balance Sheet immediately upon execution of such transaction. Further, where the transfer of financial asset qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the whole of the interest spread at its present value (discounted over the life of the asset) is recognized on the date of derecognition itself as receivable towards assignment transactions and correspondingly recognized as gain on sale of loan assets.

3.2.3 Rental Income

Rental income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss, unless the increase is in line with expected general inflation, in which case lease income is recognised based on contractual terms.

3.2.4 Fees and commission income

Fees and commission income such as service charges, commission from fee-based business lines, service income etc. are recognised on point in time basis.

3.2.5 Miscellaneous Income

All other income is recognized on an accrual basis, when there is no uncertainty in the ultimate realization/collection.

3.3 Financial instruments

A. Financial Asset

3.3.1 Initial recognition

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Loans are recognised when funds are transferred to the customers' account. Investments are recognised on the date when the Company becomes party to the contractual provisions. The Group recognises debt securities, deposits and borrowings when funds reach the Group and post allotment, where applicable.

3.3.2 Initial and subsequent measurement of financial instruments

The Group classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

1. Debt instruments at amortised cost
2. Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI).
3. Debt instruments, derivatives and equity instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL).
4. Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income FVTOCI.

The classification depends on the contractual terms of the financial assets' cash flows and the Group's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below:

Business model assessment

The Group determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Group's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios and is based on observable factors such as:

- How the performance of the business model and the financial assets held within that business model are evaluated and reported to the entity's key management personnel
- The risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and the way those risks are managed
- How managers of the business are compensated (for example, whether the compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or on the contractual cash flows collected)
- The expected frequency, value and timing of sales are also important aspects of the Group's assessment.
- The business model assessment is based on reasonably expected scenarios without taking 'worst case' or 'stress case' scenarios into account. If cash flows after initial recognition are realised in a way that is different from the Group's original expectations, the Group does not change the classification of the remaining financial assets held in that business model, but incorporates such information when assessing newly originated or newly purchased financial assets going forward.

The SPPI test

As a second step of its classification process, the Group assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

'Principal' for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there are repayments of principal or amortisation of the premium/discount).

In making this assessment, the Group considers whether the contractual cash flows are consistent with a basic lending arrangement i.e. interest includes only consideration for the time value of money, credit risk, other basic lending risks and a profit margin that is consistent with a basic lending arrangement. Where the contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility that are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement, the related financial asset is classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The Group classifies its financial liabilities at amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or is required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

3.3.3 Financial assets measured at amortised cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

Muthoot Classification: Public

After initial measurement at fair value plus directly attributable costs, these financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in interest income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

3.3.4 Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

A 'debt instrument' is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and selling the assets and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured at each reporting date at fair value with such changes being recognised in other comprehensive income (OCI). The interest income on these assets is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses or reversals, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit and loss. Upon disposal, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to the income statement.

3.3.5 Financial Instrument measured at fair value through profit or loss

Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL. In addition, debt instruments that meet the amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria but are designated as at FVTPL are measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

Group’s investment is classified as FVTPL, if it is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term, or forms part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of short-term profit taking.

Financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss, are initially recognised at fair value, with transaction costs recognised in the income statement as incurred. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value and any gains or losses are recognised in the income statement as they arise.

3.3.6 Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures investment in equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Group’s management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments as equity instruments at FVTOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of Equity under Ind AS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these equity instruments classified at FVTOCI are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI.

B. Financial Liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value. Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or the issue of financial liability, which are not at fair value through profit or loss, are adjusted to fair value at initial recognition.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Subsequent measurement

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

3.4 Derecognition of financial assets and liabilities

3.4.1 Financial Asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Group also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Group has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either:

a) The Group has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset

or

b) It retains the rights to the cash flows, but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass–through' arrangement

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

- The Group has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Group cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Group has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Group is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset or
- The Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset

The Group considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

When the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards and has retained control of the asset, the asset continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement, in which case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

3.4.2 Financial Liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.5 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. Financial assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet when the Group has a legal right to offset the amounts and intends to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously in all the following circumstances:

a. The normal course of business
b. The event of default

3.6 Impairment of financial assets

3.6.1 Overview of the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) principles

The Group has created provisions on all financial assets except for financial assets classified as FVTPL, based on the expected credit loss method. The Group also ensures maintaining the minimum provision requirement as per RBI and NHB regulations.

The ECL provision is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss. The 12-month ECL is the portion of Lifetime ECL that represent the ECLs that result from default events on financial assets that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

The Group performs an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a financial instrument's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Group categorises its loans into three stages as described below:

For non-impaired financial instruments

- Stage 1 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have not experienced a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition. A 12-month ECL provision is made for stage 1 financial instruments. In assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date, with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition.

- Stage 2 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have experienced a SICR since initial recognition. The Group recognises lifetime ECL for stage 2 financial instruments. In subsequent reporting periods, if the credit risk of the financial instrument improves such that there is no longer a SICR since initial recognition, then entities recognize 12 months of ECL.

For impaired financial instruments:

Financial instruments are classified as stage 3 when there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more loss events that have occurred after initial recognition with a negative impact on the estimated future cash flows of a loan or a portfolio of loans. The Group recognises lifetime ECL for impaired financial instruments.

3.6.2 The calculation of ECLs

The mechanics of the ECL calculations are outlined below and the key elements are, as follows:

Probability of Default (PD) - The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon.

The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. Where historical information is not available for arriving at reasonable default probability, published probability of default for similar loan segments are used.

Exposure at Default (EAD) - The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date, considering expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments.

Loss Given Default (LGD) – The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive. The Group uses computed discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed during the year where historical information is available and uses Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms in the absence of sufficient historical trends.

Forward looking information

While estimating the expected credit losses, the Group reviews macro-economic developments occurring in the economy and market it operates in. On a periodic basis, the Group analyses if there is any relationship between key economic trends like GDP, unemployment rates, benchmark rates set by the Reserve Bank of India, inflation etc. with the estimate of PD, LGD determined by the Group based on its internal data. While the internal estimates of PD, LGD rates by the Group may not be always reflective of such relationships, temporary overlays, if any, are embedded in the methodology to reflect such macro-economic trends reasonably.

Write-offs

Loans are written off (either partially or in full) when there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when it is determined that the customer does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subjected to write-offs. Any subsequent recoveries against such loans are credited to the statement of profit and loss.

Collateral

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Group seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as gold, cash, securities, letters of credit/guarantees, stock, current asset etc. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. The fair value of the same is based on data provided by third party or management judgements.

Impairment of Trade receivables

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables.

3.7 Determination of fair value

The Group measures financial instruments such as, investments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

i. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
ii. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, if market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset considers a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which enough data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

The financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Muthoot Classification: Public

Level 1 financial instruments − Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group has access to at the measurement date. The Group considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments − Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life. Such inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical instruments in inactive markets and observable inputs other than quoted prices such as interest rates and yield curves, implied volatilities, and credit spreads. In addition, adjustments may be required for the condition or location of the asset or the extent to which it relates to items that are comparable to the valued instrument. However, if such adjustments are based on unobservable inputs which are significant to the entire measurement, the Group will classify the instruments as Level 3.

Level 3 financial instruments − Those that include one or more unobservable input that is significant to the measurement as whole.

3.8 Foreign Currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. However, for practical reasons, the Group uses an average rate if the average approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated into the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange at the reporting date. All differences arising on non–trading activities are taken to other income/expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Non–monetary items that are measured at historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the spot exchange rates as at the date of recognition.

3.9 Finance cost

Finance costs represents interest expense recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial liabilities other than financial liabilities classified as FVTPL.

Interest expense includes issue costs that are initially recognized as part of the carrying value of the financial liability and amortized over the expected life using the effective interest method. These include fees and commissions payable to borrowers and advisers and other expenses such as external legal costs, provided these are incremental costs that are directly related to the issue of a financial liability.

3.10 Other income and expenses

All Other income and expense are recognized in the period they occur.

3.11 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand, short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less and forex balances, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short- term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts, if any as they are considered an integral part of the Group's cash management.

3.12 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment (PPE) are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment, (if any). The total cost of assets comprises its purchase price, freight, duties, taxes and any other incidental expenses directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management.

Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of tangible asset are added to its gross value only if it increases the future benefits of the existing asset, beyond its previously assessed standards of performance and cost can be measured reliably. Other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed off as and when incurred.

3.13 Depreciation

Tangible assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Depreciation is charged based on a review by the management during the year and at the rates derived based on the useful lives of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 or estimated useful lives estimated by the respective management based on technical evaluation. The holding company and one of its subsidiaries, Muthoot Microfin Limited follow the Straight Line Method for providing depreciation whereas the two other subsidiaries follow Written Down Value Method.

Leasehold improvements and assets held under finance leases are depreciated over the shorter of lease term or their useful life. The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in other income / expense in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in Ind AS 115.

3.14 Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress are carried at cost, comprising direct cost and related incidental expenses. Assets which are not ready for intended use are also shown under capital work-in-progress.

3.15 Intangible assets

The Group’s intangible assets consist of computer software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Group.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets are amortised by the Group over a period of 3 years, except in case of Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited where the computer software is amortised over a period of 10 years or over the estimated useful lives.

Gains or losses from derecognition of intangible assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognised.

3.16 Investment Property

Properties, held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation are classified as investment property and measured and reported at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalized to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from the disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of property is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period. The fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes accompanying these financial statements. Fair value has been determined by an independent valuer who holds a recognised and relevant professional qualification and has recent experience in the location and category of the investment property being valued.

3.17 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are considered. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

An assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

3.18 Post-employment benefits

3.18.1 Defined contribution schemes

Contributions to the Employees Provident Fund Scheme maintained by the Central Government, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) etc. are accounted for on an accrual basis. Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme.

The Group has no obligation, other than the contribution payable under the schemes. The Group recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme / ESIC as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme / ESIC for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset.

3.18.2 Defined Benefit schemes

Gratuity

The Group provides for gratuity covering eligible employees under which a lump sum payment is paid to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount reckoned on the respective employee's salary and his tenure of employment with the Group. The Group accounts for its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation determined at each Balance Sheet date by an Independent Actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. The Group makes contributions to a Gratuity Fund administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on Government Securities as at the Balance Sheet date.

An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, these liabilities are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to other equity through OCI in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to statement of profit and loss in subsequent periods.

3.19 Share Based Payments

The Group has formulated Employees Stock Option Schemes and Stock Appreciation Right Schemes (SAR). The fair value of options granted under Employee Stock Option Plan is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in non-financial liability and the fair value of SAR granted is recognized as an employee benefit expense having a corresponding increase in financial liability. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest.

3.20 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the enterprise has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of the time value of money is material, the enterprise determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

3.21 Assets held for sale

Assets possessed against the settlement of loans are carried in the balance sheet at a value of outstanding principal loan amount or fair value of asset whichever is lower. In case the fair value of the asset acquired is lower than the outstanding principal loan amount; then the shortfall is to be provided for in the books of account in such financial year.

These assets are classified as ‘Assets held for sale’ under ‘Non-financial assets’ till the asset acquired is finally disposed. The outstanding overdue interest and other charges will be accounted on realization basis.

Further, if on disposal of the assets so acquired, the sale proceed is higher than the receivable amount (including outstanding loan, outstanding overdue interest, other charges and interest), then the excess will be refunded to the borrowers.

3.22 Taxes

Income tax expense represents the sum of current tax and deferred tax.

3.22.1 Current Tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from ‘profit before tax’ as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible in accordance with applicable tax laws.

Interest income / expenses and penalties, if any, related to income tax are included in current tax expense. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the end of reporting date in India where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised either in other comprehensive income or in other equity. Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in other equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

3.22.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised, or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are only recognised for temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits if it is probable that future taxable amounts will arise to utilise those temporary differences and losses. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset where there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities are realised simultaneously.

3.22.3 Goods and services tax /value added taxes paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the goods and services tax/value added taxes paid, except:

i. When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable
ii. When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included

The net amount of tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the balance sheet.

3.23 Contingent Liabilities and assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Group or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Group does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. The Group does not have any contingent assets in the financial statements.

3.24 Earnings Per Share

The Group reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS 33 on Earnings per share. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. In computing the dilutive earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the earnings per share or increases loss per share are included.

3.25 Dividends on ordinary shares

The Group recognises a liability to make distributions to equity holders of the Group when the distribution is authorised, and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Group. As per the corporate laws in India, a distribution is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders. A corresponding amount is recognised directly in equity.

3.26 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, is based on the substance of the arrangement and requires an assessment of whether the fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or whether the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset.

Group as a lessee
The Groups lease asset class consists of building and equipment. The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group has, at the date of transition, recognized a right-of use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term lease) and low value assets. For these short-term and low value leases, the Group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are recognized at cost, which comprises the present value of the lease liability as at the date of transition. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the balance lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit on the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. Interest accrued on lease liability and lease payments made, are subsequently adjusted to the initial recognition of lease liability.

Group as a lessor
Leases where the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased items are operating leases. Rental Income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss.

3.27 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

3.28 Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group enters into derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate risk. Derivatives are recognized at fair value and carried as assets when their fair value is positive and as liabilities when their fair value is negative. The resulting gain/loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in the Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

4. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised, and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

4.1 Business Model Assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Group determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of the assets are compensated. The Group monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Group's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

Muthoot Classification: Public

4.2 Defined employee benefit assets and liabilities

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

4.3 Fair value measurement

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using various valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values. Judgments include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

4.4 Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by several factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

It has been the Group's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

4.5 Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method

The Group's EIR methodology, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans given / taken and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges).

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and lifecycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to India's base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

4.6 Lease Term

- The determination of lease term for some lease contracts in which the Group is a lessee, including whether the Group is reasonably certain to exercise lessee options.
- The determination of the incremental borrowing rate used to measure lease liabilities.

4.7 Share based payments

Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them.

4.8 Other estimates

These include contingent liabilities, useful lives of tangible and intangible assets etc.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but where the Group has continuing involvement

The Group has sold some loans and advances as a source of finance. As per terms of the deal, risk and reward has been transferred to the customer. Hence, as per the derecognition criteria of IND AS 109, including transfer of substantially all risks and rewards relating to assets being transferred to the buyer being met, the assets have been derecognised. The table below summarises the carrying amount of the derecognised financial assets.

Under previous GAAP, retained interest receivable on loan assignment transactions were recognised over the period of such assigned loans. Under Ind AS, the gain arising on said transactions are recorded upfront by discounting the future cash flows accruing in the form of differential interest on such assigned loan to their present values.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2024	As at 31st March 2023
Carrying amount of derecognised financial assets	2,31,177.11	1,80,975.19
Gain/(loss) from derecognition	30,055.52	13,631.60

Transferred financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety

The Group uses securitisations as a source of finance and a means of risk transfer. The Group securitised its mircofinance loans to different entities. These entities are not related to the Group. Also, the Group neither holds any equity or other interest nor controls them.
As per the terms of the agreement, the Group is exposed to first loss amounting to 5% - 12.5% (7.25% - 12.5% as at March 31, 2023) of the amount securitised and therefore continues to be exposed to significant risk and rewards relating to the underlying gold and microfinance loans. These receivables are not derecognised and proceeds received are recorded as a financial liability under borrowings.
The table below outlines the carrying amounts and fair values of all financial assets transferred that are not derecognised in their entirety and associated liabilities.

Particulars	As at 31st March 2024	As at 31st March 2023
Carrying amount of assets re - recognised due to non transfer of assets	1,27,542.15	82,330.07
Carrying amount of associated liabilities	1,42,464.20	82,563.93

The carrying amount of above assets and liabilities is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

(d) Total of previous year shortfall	653.46	426.77
(e) Reason for shortfall	To better serve the students, the project's scope was expanded from solely offering a sports facility for football, volleyball, cricket, and other sports to establishing a comprehensive sports academy. This academy will not only provide top-tier sports training but also include educational facilities where students can attend regular academic classes, all meeting international standards. This change was prompted by the unavailability of schools we initially planned to partner with. Groundwork at the site is underway, and we are currently updating the architectural plans to accommodate these enhanced specifications.	With regard to the Sports Infrastructure project at Palakkad, based on advise from Architects, a wider road alternative had to be considered, evaluation and negotiations of which delayed the start of the construction work.

(vii) The Company had filed a Writ Petition before the Honourable High Court of Madras on 30th July, 2019 challenging the Order passed by the Income Tax Settlement Commission, Chennai Bench abating the proceedings before it relating to the Settlement Application filed by the Company dated December 17, 2017 ("Settlement Application"); and praying for stay on proceedings initiated by the Joint Commissioner of Income Tax (OSD), Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram post abatement of proceedings by the Settlement Commission. The tax and interest due on the issues forming part of the Settlement Application totaled to ₹ 7,406 lakh. The Settlement Application related to notices received under Section 148 for Assessment Year 2010-11 and Section 153A of the Income Tax Act, as per which MFL was required to prepare true and correct return of which MFL was assessable for the Assessment Years 2011-2012 to 2016-2017 and for Assessment Year 2017-18, assessment of which was deemed to be pending by virtue of explanation (iv) to Section 245A(b) as on date of filing the settlement application. The Honourable High Court of Madras dismissed the petition filed by the Company on June 29, 2022 on the ground that the cause of action of the matter has arisen fully in Kerala and not within the territorial jurisdiction of the Honourable Madras High Court, thereby ousting its jurisdiction to entertain the petition. Accordingly, Company filed a writ petition before the High Court of Kerala, wherein the High Court passed an order on April 03, 2023 directing the interim board for settlement to reconsider the settlement application and to start afresh. The Interim Board of Settlement has passed an order dated November 15, 2023 opining on the settlement of income under the matter along with the interest to be charged and granting immunity to MFL from prosecution and penalty imposed under the Income Tax Act. The Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram subsequently passed Orders giving effect to the Order of the Honorable Interim Board for Settlement for the Assessment Years 2010-11 to 2017-18 with demands aggregating to Rs.13,892.97 lakhs and refunds aggregating to Rs.4,675.93 lakhs. The said Orders were received on March 19, 2024. The Company evaluated the Orders passed and identified incorrect computations which has been intimated to the Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram.

(viii) Other commitments

Loan commitment in respect of partly disbursed loans is INR 8,418.97 (31 March 2023 : INR 5,556.85).

41 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

The fair value of financial instruments as referred to above have been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The categories used are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical instruments in an active market;

Level 2: Directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) observable market inputs, other than Level 1 inputs; and

Level 3: Inputs which are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Fair value technique

Investments at fair value

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued on a case-by-case has been classified as Level 2.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

Investments in Security receipts (SRs) are classified as Financial Assets measured at FVTPL. Net Asset Value is as certified by the issuer of Security Receipts. Accordingly, the fair valuation technique in this regard is classified under Level 3. The disclosure of the sensitivity of the fair value measurement to changes in unobservable inputs is not considered relevant.

Financial Liabilities with significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at March 31, 2024		As at March 31, 2023
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%

Loan assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income

Loan receivables valuation is carried out for two portfolios segregated on the basis of repayment frequency – monthly and weekly. The valuation of each portfolio is done by discounting the aggregate future cash flows with risk-adjusted discounting rate for the remaining portfolio tenor.

Following inputs have been used to calculate the fair value of loans receivables:

(i) Future cash flows: Include principal receivable, interest receivable and tenor information based on the repayment schedule agreed with the borrowers. Inputs include:

(ii) Risk-adjusted discount rate:

This rate has been arrived using the cost of funds approach.

The following inputs have been used:
(i) Cost of funds
(ii) Credit spread of borrowers
(iii) Servicing cost of a financial asset

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using Effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

44 Risk Management

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise of borrowings and trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
Predominantly comprising of lending institutions, the Group is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Group's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Group is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.

The Group has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage risk throughout the Group. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Group has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically adressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Group faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group's major income generating activities include gold loan, sme loans, housing loan, microfinance loan, personal loans and others.
The Group addressess credit risk through following major processess:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques
- Structured and standardised credit approval process
- Verification of credit history from credit bureau agencies, personal verification of customers business and residence
- Technical and Legal Verification
- Comprehensive credit risk assessment and cash flow analysis

In order to mitigate the impact of credit risk in the future profitability, the Group makes reserves basis the expected credit loss (ECL model) for the outstanding loans.

A) Impairment Assessment

The Group's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the Summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care

The Group considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on its contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Group also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Group carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations or whether Stage 2 is appropriate.
The Group considers a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Muthoot Classification: Public

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the Group.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Group assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Group uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products and schemes, the Group has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. Where a particular portfolio is relatively new, the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India has been considered. PD is calculated using Incremental 90 day DPD approach considering fresh slippage using historical information.

Based on its review of macro-economic developments and economic outlook, the Group has assessed that no adjustment is required for temporary overlays to determine qualitative impact on its PD's as at 31st March 2024 and 31st March 2023.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group expects to receive.

LGD Rates have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed/ written off/ repossessed and upgraded during the year.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Group applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Group may not meet its financial obligations. Liquidity risk arises due to the unavailability of adequate funds at an appropriate cost or tenure. The objective of liquidity risk management, is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements. The Group consistently generates sufficient cash flows from operating and financial activities to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due. The The Group's treasury teams source funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. They are responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Group is exposed to two types of market risk as follows:

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, debt securities and subordinate laibilities are as follows:

Particulars	31st March 2024	31st March 2023
On Borrowings
1% increase	(21,794.35)	(17,478.17)
1% decrease	21,794.35	17,478.17

Particulars	31st March 2024	31st March 2023
On Debt Securities
1% increase	(4,124.67)	(4,445.00)
1% decrease	4,124.67	4,445.00

Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVTPL and FVOCI respectively".

A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/ (Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at March 31, 2024	10/(10)	420.39 / (420.39)	405.78 / (405.78)
As at March 31, 2023	10/(10)	65.01 / (65.01)	319.74 / (319.74)

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Group arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Group has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings as at March 31, 2024 by entering into forward contracts. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Group's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2024		March 31, 2023
	Amount in USD	Amount in INR	Amount in USD	Amount in INR
Foreign currency borrowings	855.82	70,628.85	304.83	25,069.28

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instrument, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Group will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Group cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Standalone Ind AS financial statements of MUTHOOT FINCORP LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2024, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of cash flows for the year the ended on that date and notes to the Ind AS Financial Statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information. ["Ind AS Financial Statements"]

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2024, and its profit, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Standalone Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matters	How it's been addressed in Audit
a.) Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.
b.) Effectiveness of IT Systems and related controls.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc. Based on our sample review, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls.

c.) Accuracy, completeness and correctness of accounting and related controls maintained at the entity's branches.	At the branch level, entries related to daily operations are passed. We have addressed this as a key audit matter since any control lapses in the branch level accounting may result in the financial accounting and reporting records of the entity being misstated. We have conducted physical visits to key branches and centre processing hub of the company which are considered top based on the significant gold loan and unsecured loan portfolio to identify and evaluate the effectiveness of controls in place. We have also tested on a sample basis the independent financial records maintained at the branch level and how the same is considered and incorporated in the financial statements. We have also assessed and analyzed the internal audit reports and how the major observations are dealt with and its impact on the entity's financial accounting and reporting records. Based on our sample review, no major weaknesses were identified.

Muthoot Classification: Public

d.) Computation of provision towards impairment of loan assets. As at 31st March 2024, the Company had reported a total impairment loss allowance of Rs. 29,729.05 lakhs (31st March 2023 - Rs 36,454.29 lakhs) A significant degree of judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of Impairment loss allowance to be recognized with respect to loan assets. Based on our risk assessment, the following are the significant judgments and estimates, that impact impairment loss allowance: - Completeness and timing of recognition of default, in accordance with the prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Loan Assets; - Measurement of provision is dependent on the probability of default (PD) and loss given default (LGD) of each category of loan asset. Identification of PD and LGD involves significant judgments and estimates related to forward looking information.	The audit procedures performed, among others, included: -Considering the board policies and processes for NPA identification and assessing compliance with the RBI norms. -Understanding, evaluating and testing the design and effectiveness of key controls around identification of impaired accounts. -Performing other procedures including substantive audit procedures covering the identification of NPAs such as: ● Reading account statements and related information of the borrowers on a sample basis. ● Performing inquiries with credit and risk departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a particular loan account or any product category which needed to be considered as NPA. ● Holding discussions with the management on sectors where there is perceived credit risk and the steps taken to mitigate the risks to identified sectors.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report but does not include the Standalone Financial Statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Standalone Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Muthoot Classification: Public

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, management and Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Company's Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with

Muthoot Classification: Public

SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Standalone Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Standalone Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 ("the Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of Section 143(11) of the Act, we give in the Annexure "A" a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order, to the extent applicable.

2. As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, we report that:

a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;

b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books;

Muthoot Classification: Public

c) The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of Cash Flows dealt with by this Report agree with the books of account;

d) In our opinion, the aforesaid Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read.

e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2024 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors are disqualified as on March 31, 2024 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act;

f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to Standalone Financial Statements of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer our separate Report in "Annexure B".

g) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Section 197(16) of the Act, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the remuneration paid by the Company to its directors during the year is in accordance with the provisions of Section 197 of the Act.

h) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

i. The company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its Standalone Financial Statements.

ii. The company does not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts for which there was any material foreseeable loss for which any provision is required to be made under the applicable law and Accounting Standards.

Muthoot Classification: Public

iv. a) The Management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, as disclosed in Note 51 to the Standalone Financial Statements, no funds (which are material either individually or in aggregate) have been advanced or loaned or invested (either from borrowed funds or share premium or any other sources or kind of funds) by the Company to or in any other person or entity, including foreign entity ("Intermediaries"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise that the Intermediary shall, whether directly or indirectly lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Company ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

b) The Management has represented, that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, as disclosed in Note 51 to the Standalone Financial Statements, no funds (which are material either individually or in aggregate) have been received by the Company from any person or entity, including foreign entity ('Funding Parties") with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise that the Company shall, whether, directly or indirectly, lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Funding Party ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;

c) Based on the audit procedures performed that have been considered reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances, nothing has come to our notice that has caused us to believe that the representations under sub-clause (i) and (ii) of Rule 11(e), as provided under (a) and (b) above, contain any material misstatement.

v. The dividend declared and paid during the year by the Company is in compliance with Section 123 of the Act.

vi. Based on our examination which included test checks, the Company has used an accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts for the financial year ended March 31, 2024 which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility and the same has operated throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with. Refer Note No.52 to the standalone financial statements.

As proviso to Rule 3(1) of the Companies (Accounts) Rules,2014 is applicable from April 1,2023, reporting under Rule 11(g) of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014 on preservation of audit trail as per the statutory requirements for record retention is not applicable for the Financial Year ended March 31,2024.

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Annexure referred to in Paragraph 1 under the heading 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' in the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31st March 2024.

1) Tangible and Intangible Assets.

(a) In our opinion the company has maintained proper records showing particulars including quantitative details and the situation of majority of Property, Plant and Equipment. We are informed that the company is in the process of updating the details in the Fixed Asset module of the software used by the company. To ensure complete recording and updating of the assets in the fixed assets module, the company is in the process of migrating to a new software.

(b) As informed to us, fixed assets have been physically verified by the management on a periodic basis during the course of internal branch audit conducted during the year. Since there is a regular programme of verification, we are of the opinion that it is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its assets. We have been informed that there have been no material discrepancies during such verification.

(c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the title deeds of immovable property included in Property, Plant and Equipment and in Investment Property are held in the name of the Company.

(d) In our opinion and according to the information and explanation given to us, the company has not revalued its Property, Plant and Equipment (including Right of use of asset) or Intangible assets or both during the year.

(e) As informed to us, no proceedings have been initiated or are pending against the Company for holding any benami property under the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (45 of 1988) and rules made thereunder.

2) Inventory and Working Capital

(a) The Company does not have any inventory. Hence, the provisions of clause 3(ii) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.

(b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has obtained Working Capital Limits in excess of Rs 5 Crores in aggregate from banks and financial Institutions and the quarterly return/statement filed by the Company with such banks or financial Institutions are in agreement with the books of accounts.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3) The company is a Non – Deposit taking Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) registered with the Reserve Bank of India. During the year, the company has made investments and in the ordinary course of business granted loans and advances in the nature of secured and unsecured loans to companies, firms, LLPs and other parties. With respect to such Investment and Loans and Advances :

(a) As the principal business of the company is to give loans, paragraph 3(iii)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(b) In our opinion, the terms and conditions of the grant of such loans are, prima facie, not prejudicial to the Interests of the Company.

(c) In respect of loans granted by the company, the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest have been stipulated. Being a non-banking finance company engaged in the business of granting loans, there are instances of irregularities in repayment of principal amount and receipt of interest as per stipulated terms. Having regard to the nature of business undertaken by the company, specific details of irregularities are not reported although the particulars of overdue for more than ninety days as per books of accounts as at the Balance Sheet date has been reported in para (d) below

(d) In respect of loans granted by the company, the total amount overdue for more than ninety days as per Books of Accounts as at the Balance Sheet date is Rs. 35,146.50 lakhs. In our opinion, and as per information and explanations given to us, reasonable steps have been taken by the company for recovery of the said overdue amounts.

(e) The provisions of paragraph 3(iii)(e) of the Order are not applicable to the company, as its principal business is to give loans.

(f) The company has not granted any loans or advances in the nature of loans that were either repayable on demand or without specifying any terms or period of repayment.

4) In our opinion, in respect of loans, investments, guarantees, and security, the company has complied with the provision of Sec 185 and 186 of the Act.

5) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of sections 73 to 76 of the Act and rules framed thereunder to the extent notified.

Muthoot Classification: Public

6) The Government of India has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under sub-section (1) of section 148 of the Act for any of the activities of the company and hence the provisions of this section are not applicable to the Company for the year under review.

7) In respect of statutory dues:

(a) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of the records of the Company, amounts deducted/ accrued in the books of account in respect of undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax, sales- tax, service tax, goods and service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues have been generally regularly deposited during the year by the company with the appropriate authorities. According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax, sales- tax, service tax, goods and service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues were in arrears as at March 31, 2024 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

ANNEXURE "B" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on other legal and regulatory requirements' of the Independent Auditors' Report of even date to the members of Muthoot Fincorp Limited on the Standalone IndAS Financial Statements as of and for the year ended 31 March 2024

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ("THE ACT")

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Muthoot Fincorp Limited ("the Company"), as of March 31, 2024, in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") Standards on Auditing, both issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those standards and the guidance note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial control system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information

1. Corporate Information

Muthoot FinCorp Limited, ('MFL' or 'the Company'), is a public limited company, incorporated on June 10, 1997 under the provisions of Companies Act, 1956. The company is a Non-Deposit Accepting Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) registered with Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and was classified as a Non Deposit Taking Systematically Important Loan Company (NDSI). Based on the RBI notification RBI/2021-22/112 DOR.CRE.REC.No.60/03.10.001/2021-22, dated October 22, 2021, the Company is classified as NBFC - Middle Layer (NBFC-ML) under the Scale Based Regulation for Non-Banking Financial Companies.

Muthoot FinCorp Limited, the flagship company of the Muthoot Pappachan Group, provides a diverse mix of retail offerings catering to the various needs of its customers and is primarily engaged in business of Gold, SME Loans, Personal Loans and Loans against Property through its branch network across India. The company also offers Forex Services, Money Transfer Services and Wealth Management Services to its customers in its strive to be the most trusted financial service provider. The company is engaged in real estate business to a very limited extent.

MFL is the parent company of Muthoot Microfin Limited, Muthoot Housing Finance Company Limited and Muthoot Pappachan Technologies Limited.

The Company's registered office is at Muthoot Centre, TC No 27/ 3022 Punnen Road, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala, India, 695001.

The Registration details of the Company are as follows:
Reserve Bank of India Registration no.: N - 16.00170
Corporate Identity Number (CIN): U65929KL1997PLC011518

2. Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as per the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended from time to time) and notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) along with other relevant provisions of the Act, the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Company – Scale Based Regulation) Directions, 2023 and notification for Implementation of Indian Accounting Standard vide circular RBI/2019-20/170 DOR(NBFC).CC.PD.No.109/22.10.106/2019-20 dated 13 March 2020 ('RBI Notification for Implementation of Ind AS') issued by RBI to the extent applicable. The Company uses accrual basis of accounting except in case of significant uncertainties.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, as the Management is satisfied that the Company shall be able to continue its business for the foreseeable future and no material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the going concern assumption.

The financial statements of the Company are presented as per Schedule III (Division III) of the Companies Act, 2013 applicable to NBFCs, as notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

i) Investments in equity instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) or at fair value through statement of profit or loss (FVTPL)
ii) Investments which are held for trading
iii) Defined benefit plans.
iv) Cumulative, Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares issued at Fair Value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
v) Derivative Financial Liability

Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) which is also functional currency of the Company and the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates. All values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated.

3. Material accounting policies

3.1 Recognition of interest income

Interest income is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets and financial assets classified as measured at FVTPL.

The EIR in case of a financial asset is computed:

a. As the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset.

b. By considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument in estimating the cash flows.

c. Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts.

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows is recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets. Interest income is not recognized on credit impaired assets.

3.2 Recognition of revenue from sale of goods and services

Revenue (other than for financial instruments) is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers outlines a single comprehensive model of accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance found within Ind ASs.

The Company recognises revenue from contracts with customers based on a five-step model as set out in Ind AS 115:

Step 1: Identify contract(s) with a customer: A contract is defined as an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations and sets out the criteria for every contract that must be met.
Step 2: Identify performance obligations in the contract: A performance obligation is a promise in a contract with a customer to transfer a good or service to the customer.
Step 3: Determine the transaction price: The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract: For a contract that has more than one performance obligation, the Company allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation in an amount that depicts the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for satisfying each performance obligation.
Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation

Revenue from contract with customer for rendering services is recognised at a point in time when performance obligation is satisfied.

3.2.1 Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Company's right to receive the payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

3.2.2 Rental Income

Rental income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss, unless the increase is in line with expected general inflation, in which case lease income is recognised based on contractual terms.

3.2.3 Fees and commission income

Fees and commission income such as service charges, commission from fee based business lines, service income etc. are recognised on point in time basis.

3.2.4 Net gain / loss on fair value changes

The Company designates certain financial assets for subsequent measurement at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) or fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). The Company recognises gains / losses on fair value change of financial assets measured at FVTPL on net basis.

3.2.5 Net gain on derecognition of financial instruments

Gains arising out of direct assignment transactions comprise the difference between the interest on the loan portfolio and the applicable rate at which the direct assignment is entered into with the assignee, also known as the excess interest spread (EIS).In accordance with Ind AS 109 and as per management practice, in case of assignment transactions with complete transfer of risks and rewards without any retention of residual interest, gain arising on such assignment transactions is recorded upfront in the Statement of Profit and Loss and the corresponding asset is derecognized from the Balance Sheet immediately upon execution of such transaction. Further, where the transfer of financial asset qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the whole of the interest spread at its present value (discounted over the life of the asset) is recognized on the date of derecognition itself as receivable towards assignment transactions and correspondingly recognized as gain on derecognition of financial asset.

3.3 Financial instruments

1.1.1. Initial recognition

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Loans are recognised when funds are transferred to the customers' account. Investments are recognised on settlement date. The Company recognises debt securities and borrowings when funds reach the Company, post allotment if applicable.

Muthoot Classification: Public

1.1.2. Initial and subsequent measurement of financial instruments

The Company classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

1. Debt instruments at amortised cost
2. Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)
3. Debt instruments, derivatives and equity instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
4. Equity instruments in subsidiary companies at cost
5. Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income FVTOCI

The classification depends on the contractual terms of the financial assets' cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below:

Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios and is based on observable factors such as:

- How the performance of the business model and the financial assets held within that business model are evaluated and reported to the entity's key management personnel
- The risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and the way those risks are managed
- How managers of the business are compensated (for example, whether the compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or on the contractual cash flows collected)
- The expected frequency, value and timing of sales are also important aspects of the Company's assessment. The business model assessment is based on reasonably expected scenarios without taking 'worst case' or 'stress case' scenarios into account. If cash flows after initial recognition are realised in a way that is different from the Company's original expectations, the Company does not change the classification of the remaining financial assets held in that business model, but incorporates such information when assessing newly originated or newly purchased financial assets going forward.

The SPPI test

As a second step of its classification process, the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

'Principal' for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there are repayments of principal or amortisation of the premium/discount).

In making this assessment, the Company considers whether the contractual cash flows are consistent with a basic lending arrangement i.e. interest includes only consideration for the time value of money, credit risk, other basic lending risks and a profit margin that is consistent with a basic lending arrangement. Where the contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility that are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement, the related financial asset is classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities at amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or is required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

1.1.3. Financial assets measured at amortised cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

Muthoot Classification: Public

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement at fair value plus directly attributable costs, these financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in interest income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

1.1.4. Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

A 'debt instrument' is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if both the following conditions are met:

a. The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets to collect contractual cash flows and selling the assets and

b. The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured at each reporting date at fair value with such changes being recognised in other comprehensive income (OCI). The interest income on these assets is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses or reversals, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit and loss. Upon disposal, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to the income statement.

1.1.5. Financial Instrument measured at fair value through profit or loss

Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL. In addition, debt instruments that meet the amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria but are designated as at FVTPL are measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

Company’s investment is classified as FVTPL, if it is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term, or forms part of a portfolio of financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of short-term profit taking.

Financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss, are initially recognised at fair value, with transaction costs recognised in the income statement as incurred. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value and any gains or losses are recognised in the income statement as they arise.

1.1.6. Equity instruments

The Company subsequently measures investment in equity investments at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Company’s management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments as equity instruments at FVTOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of Equity under Ind AS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these equity instruments classified at FVTOCI are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Company benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.3.1 Financial Liabilities

Initial Measurement

All financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value. Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or the issue of financial liability, which are not at fair value through profit or loss, are adjusted to fair value at initial recognition.

Subsequent Measurement

Financial liabilities except cumulative compulsorily convertible preference shares and derivative financial liability, are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

3.4 Derecognition of financial assets and liabilities

3.4.1 Financial Asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have expired. The Company also derecognises the financial asset if it has both transferred the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

The Company has transferred the financial asset if, and only if, either:

a) The Company has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset

or

b) It retains the rights to the cash flows, but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass–through' arrangement

Pass-through arrangements are transactions whereby the Company retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of a financial asset (the 'original asset'), but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to one or more entities (the 'eventual recipients'), when all of the following three conditions are met:

- The Company has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it has collected equivalent amounts from the original asset, excluding short-term advances with the right to full recovery of the amount lent plus accrued interest at market rates
- The Company cannot sell or pledge the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients
- The Company has to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay. In addition, the Company is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents including interest earned, during the period between the collection date and the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients.

A transfer only qualifies for derecognition if either:

- The Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset or,
- The Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset
- The Company considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

Muthoot Classification: Public

When the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards and has retained control of the asset, the asset continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement, in which case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

3.4.2 Financial Liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as de recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying value of the original financial liability and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss.

3.5 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. Financial assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet when the Company has a legal right to offset the amounts and intends to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously in all the following circumstances:

a. The normal course of business
b. The event of default
c. The event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company and/or its counter parties.

3.6 Impairment of financial assets

3.6.1 Overview of the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) principles

The Company has created provisions on all financial assets wherever required, except for financial assets classified as FVTPL, based on the expected credit loss method.

The ECL provision is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss. The 12-month ECL is the portion of Lifetime ECL that represent the ECLs that result from default events on financial assets that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

The Company performs an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a financial instrument's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Company categorises its loans into three stages as described below:

For non-impaired financial instruments

- Stage 1 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have not experienced a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition. A 12-month ECL provision is made for stage 1 financial instruments. In assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly, the Company compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date, with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition.

- Stage 2 is comprised of all non-impaired financial instruments which have experienced a SICR since initial recognition. The Company recognises lifetime ECL for stage 2 financial instruments. In subsequent reporting periods, if the credit risk of the financial instrument improves such that there is no longer a SICR since initial recognition, then entities recognize 12 months of ECL.

Muthoot Classification: Public

For impaired financial instruments:

Financial instruments are classified as stage 3 when there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more loss events that have occurred after initial recognition with a negative impact on the estimated future cash flows of a loan or a portfolio of loans. The Company recognises lifetime ECL for impaired financial instruments.

3.6.2 The calculation of ECLs

The mechanics of the ECL calculations are outlined below and the key elements are, as follows:

Probability of Default (PD) - The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon.

The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. Considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographies, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. Where historical information is not available for arriving at reasonable default probability, published probability of default for similar loan segments are used by the Company.

Exposure at Default (EAD) - The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date, considering expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments.

Loss Given Default (LGD) – The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive. The Company uses computed discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are closed during the year where historical information is available and uses Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms in the absence of sufficient historical trends.

Forward looking information

While estimating the expected credit losses, the Company reviews macro-economic developments occurring in the economy and market it operates in. On a periodic basis, the Company analyses if there is any relationship between key economic trends like GDP, unemployment rates, benchmark rates set by the Reserve Bank of India, inflation etc. with the estimate of PD, LGD determined by the Company based on its internal data. While the internal estimates of PD, LGD rates by the Company may not be always reflective of such relationships, temporary overlays, if any, are embedded in the methodology to reflect such macro-economic trends reasonably.

Write-offs

Loans and other assets are written off (either partially or in full) when there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when it is determined that the customer does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subjected to write-offs. Any subsequent recoveries against such loans are credited to the statement of profit and loss.

Collateral

To mitigate its credit risks on financial assets, the Company seeks to use collateral, where possible. The collateral comes in various forms, such as gold, securities, stock, current asset etc. However, the fair value of collateral affects the calculation of ECLs. The fair value of the same is based on data provided by third party or management judgements.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Impairment of Trade receivables

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables.

3.7 Determination of fair value

The Company measures financial instruments, such as, investments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

i. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
ii. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, if market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset considers a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which enough data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

The financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques, as summarised below:

Level 1 financial instruments − Those where the inputs used in the valuation are unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has access to at the measurement date. The Company considers markets as active only if there are sufficient trading activities with regards to the volume and liquidity of the identical assets or liabilities and when there are binding and exercisable price quotes available on the balance sheet date.

Level 2 financial instruments − Those where the inputs that are used for valuation and are significant, are derived from directly or indirectly observable market data available over the entire period of the instrument's life. Such inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical instruments in inactive markets and observable inputs other than quoted prices such as interest rates and yield curves, implied volatilities, and credit spreads. In addition, adjustments may be required for the condition or location of the asset or the extent to which it relates to items that are comparable to the valued instrument. However, if such adjustments are based on unobservable inputs which are significant to the entire measurement, the Company will classify the instruments as Level 3.

Level 3 financial instruments − Those that include one or more unobservable input that is significant to the measurement as whole.

3.8 Foreign Currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies, if any, are initially recorded in the functional currency at the spot rate of ex-change ruling at the date of the transaction. However, for practical reasons, the Company uses an average rate if the average approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated into the functional currency at the spot rate of exchange at the reporting date. All differences arising on non–trading activities are taken to other income/expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Non–monetary items that are measured at historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the spot exchange rates as at the date of recognition.

3.9 Derivative Financial Liability

The company enters into derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate risk. Derivatives are recognized at fair value and carried as assets when their fair value is positive and as liabilities when their fair value is negative. The resulting gain/loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in the Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

3.10 Finance cost

Finance costs represents Interest expense recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to the gross carrying amount of financial liabilities other than financial liabilities classified as FVTPL.

Interest expense includes issue costs that are initially recognized as part of the carrying value of the financial liability and amortized over the expected life using the effective interest method. These include fees including upfront costs incurred in relation to borrowings, commissions payable to advisers and other expenses such as external legal costs, provided these are incremental costs that are directly related to the issue of a financial liability. Interest accrued on lease liability recognized and measured in accordance with Ind AS 116 “Leases” also forms part of Finance cost.

3.11 Other income and expenses

All Other income and expense are recognized in the period they occur.

3.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand, short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less and forex balances, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, forex balances and short- term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts, if any, as they are considered an integral part of the Company’s cash management.

3.13 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment (PPE) are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment, (if any). The total cost of assets comprises its purchase price, freight, duties, taxes and any other incidental expenses directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management.

Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of tangible asset are added to its gross value only if it increases the future benefits of the existing asset, beyond its previously assessed standards of performance and cost can be measured reliably. Other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed off as and when incurred.

3.13.1 Depreciation

Tangible assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Depreciation is charged based on a review by the management during the year and at the rates derived based on the useful lives of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 on Straight Line Method. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Particulars	Useful life
Building	60 years
Computer	3 years
Furniture and Fixtures	5 to 30 years
Plant and Equipment	5 to 20 years
Vehicles	5 to 8 years
Windmill	22 years
Office equipment	15 years

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in Ind AS 115.

3.14 Intangible assets

The Company's intangible assets consist of computer software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Company.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets are amortised using the Written down value method to write down the cost of intangible assets to their residual values over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets comprising of software are amortised on a Written down value basis over a period of 3 years keeping residual value 5%.

Muthoot Classification: Public

Gains or losses from derecognition of intangible assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognised.

3.15 Investment Property

Properties, held to earn rentals and/or capital appreciation are classified as investment property and measured and reported at cost, including transaction costs, borrowing cost and other directly attributable cost in bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Subsequent expenditure is capitalized to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the expenditure will flow to the company.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from the disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of property is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period.

The fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes accompanying these financial statements. Fair value has been determined by an independent valuer who holds a recognised and relevant professional qualification and has recent experience in the location and category of the investment property being valued.

3.16 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company's assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are considered. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

An assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

3.17 Post-employment benefits

3.17.1 Defined contribution schemes

Contributions to the Employees Provident Fund Scheme maintained by the Central Government, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) etc. are accounted for on an accrual basis. Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme.

The company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable under the schemes. The company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme / ESIC as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme / ESIC for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.17.2 Defined Benefit schemes

Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity covering eligible employees under which a lumpsum payment is paid to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount reckoned on the respective employee's salary and his tenure of employment with the Company. The Company accounts for its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation determined at each Balance Sheet date by an Independent Actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. The Company makes contributions to a Gratuity Fund administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on Government Securities as at the Balance Sheet date.

An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, these liabilities are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

Re-measurement, comprising of actuarial gains and losses (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to profit and loss in subsequent periods.

Other long-term employee benefits

Company's liabilities towards compensated absences to employees are accrued on the basis of valuations, as at the Balance Sheet date, carried out by an independent actuary using Projected Unit Credit Method. Actuarial gains and losses comprise experience adjustments and the effects of changes in actuarial assumptions and are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The Company presents the provision for compensated absences under provisions in the Balance Sheet.

3.17.3 Employee Stock Option & Employee Stock Appreciation Right

The Company has formulated its Employees Stock Option Schemes and Stock Appreciation Right Schemes (SAR). The fair value of options granted under Employee Stock Option Plan is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in Provisions and the fair value of SAR granted is recognized as an employee benefit expense having a corresponding increase in financial liability. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the entity revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest.

3.18 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the enterprise has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of the time value of money is material, the enterprise determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.19 Taxes

Income tax expense represents the sum of current tax and deferred tax.

3.18.1 Current Tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible in accordance with applicable tax laws.

The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the end of reporting date in India where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

3.18.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are only recognised for temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits if it is probable that future taxable amounts will arise to utilise those temporary differences and losses. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit and loss is recognised either in other comprehensive income or in equity. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset where there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities are realised simultaneously.

3.18.3 Goods and services tax /value added taxes paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the goods and services tax/value added taxes paid, except:

i. When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable
ii. When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included

The net amount of tax recoverable from and / or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables respectively in the balance sheet.

Muthoot Classification: Public

3.20 Contingent Liabilities and assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. The company does not have any contingent assets in the financial statements.

3.21 Earnings Per Share

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS 33 on Earnings per share. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. In computing the dilutive earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the earnings per share or increases loss per share are included.

3.22 Dividends on ordinary shares

The Company recognises a liability to make cash or non-cash distributions to equity holders of the Company when the distribution is authorised and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Company. As per the corporate laws in India, a distribution is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders. A corresponding amount is recognised directly in equity.

Non-cash distributions are measured at the fair value of the assets to be distributed with fair value re-measurement recognised directly in equity.

Upon distribution of non-cash assets, any difference between the carrying amount of the liability and the carrying amount of the assets distributed is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

3.23 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, is based on the substance of the arrangement and requires an assessment of whether the fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or whether the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset.

Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset class consist of building and equipment. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company has, at the date of transition, recognized a right-of use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all active lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term lease) and low value assets. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are recognized at cost, which comprises the present value of the lease liability as at the date of transition. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the balance lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit on the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. Interest accrued on lease liability and lease payments made, are subsequently adjusted to the initial recognition of lease liability.

Company as a lessor

Leases where the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased items are operating leases. Rental Income arising from operating leases is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in rental income in the statement of profit and loss.

3.24 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

4 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

4.1 Business Model Assessment

Classification and measurement of financial assets depends on the results of the SPPI and the business model test. The Company determines the business model at a level that reflects how groups of financial assets are managed together to achieve a business objective. This assessment includes judgement reflecting all relevant evidence including how the performance of the assets is evaluated and their performance measured, the risks that affect the performance of the assets and how these are managed and how the managers of the assets are compensated. The Company monitors financial assets measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income that are derecognised prior to their maturity to understand the reason for their disposal and whether the reasons are consistent with the objective of the business for which the asset was held. Monitoring is part of the Company's continuous assessment of whether the business model for which the remaining financial assets are held continues to be appropriate and if it is not appropriate whether there has been a change in business model and so a prospective change to the classification of those assets.

4.2 Defined employee benefit assets and liabilities

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

Muthoot Classification: Public

4.3 Fair value measurement:

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using various valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values. Judgments include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

4.4 Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by several factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances. It has been the Company's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience, regulatory advisories, market conditions and forecasts and revise when necessary.

4.5 Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method

The Company's EIR methodology, recognises interest income / expense using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans given / taken and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges).

This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to India's base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

4.6 Provisions

At each balance sheet date basis the management judgment, changes in facts and legal aspects, the Company assesses the requirement of provisions against the outstanding contingent liabilities. However, the actual future outcome may be different from this judgement.

4.7 Other estimates:

These include contingent liabilities, useful lives of tangible and intangible assets etc.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but where the Company has continuing involvement

The Company had sold some loans and advances measured at amortised cost, as a source of finance in previous reporting periods. As per terms of the deal, risk and reward had been transferred to the customer. Hence, as per the derecognition criteria of IND AS 109, including transfer of substantially all risks and rewards relating to assets being transferred to the buyer being met, the assets were derecognised. (e) Reason for shortfall	To better serve the students, the project's scope was expanded from solely offering a sports facility for football, volleyball, cricket, and other sports to establishing a comprehensive sports academy. This academy will not only provide top-tier sports training but also include educational facilities where students can attend regular academic classes, all meeting international standards. This change was prompted by the unavailability of schools we initially planned to partner with. Groundwork at the site is underway, and we are currently updating the architectural plans to accommodate these enhanced specifications.	With regard to the Sports Infrastructure project at Palakkad, based on advise from Architects, a wider road alternative had to be considered, evaluation and negotiations of which delayed the start of the construction work.

(vi) The Company had filed a Writ Petition before the Honourable High Court of Madras on 30th July, 2019 challenging the Order passed by the Income Tax Settlement Commission, Chennai Bench abating the proceedings before it relating to the Settlement Application filed by the Company dated December 17, 2017 ("Settlement Application"); and praying for stay on proceedings initiated by the Joint Commissioner of Income Tax (OSD), Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram post abatement of proceedings by the Settlement Commission. The tax and interest due on the issues forming part of the Settlement Application totaled to ₹ 7,406 lakh. The Settlement Application related to notices received under Section 148 for Assessment Year 2010-11 and Section 153A of the Income Tax Act, as per which MFL was required to prepare true and correct return of which MFL was assessable for the Assessment Years 2011-2012 to 2016-2017 and for Assessment Year 2017-18, assessment of which was deemed to be pending by virtue of explanation (iv) to Section 245A(b) as on date of filing the settlement application. The Honourable High Court of Madras dismissed the petition filed by the Company on June 29, 2022 on the ground that the cause of action of the matter has arisen fully in Kerala and not within the territorial jurisdiction of the Honourable Madras High Court, thereby ousting its jurisdiction to entertain the petition. Accordingly, Company filed a writ petition before the High Court of Kerala, wherein the High Court passed an order on April 03, 2023 directing the interim board for settlement to reconsider the settlement application and to start afresh. The Interim Board of Settlement has passed an order dated November 15, 2023 opining on the settlement of income under the matter along with the interest to be charged and granting immunity to MFL from prosecution and penalty imposed under the Income Tax Act. The Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram subsequently passed Orders giving effect to the Order of the Honorable Interim Board for Settlement for the Assessment Years 2010-11 to 2017-18 with demands aggregating to Rs.13,892.97 lakhs and refunds aggregating to Rs.4,675.93 lakhs. The said Orders were received on March 19, 2024. The Company evaluated the Orders passed and identified incorrect computations which has been intimated to the Central Circle, Thiruvananthapuram.

41 Capital

Capital Management

The primary objective of the Company's capital management policy is to ensure that the Company complies with externally imposed capital requirements and maintains healthy credit ratings and capital ratios in order to support its business and to maximize shareholder value.

Being an NBFC-SI, the RBI requires the Company to maintain a minimum capital to risk weighted assets ratio ("CRAR") consisting of a minimum Tier 1 Capital of 12% and a combined Tier 1 & Tier 2 Capital of 15% of our aggregate risk weighted assets. The capital management process of the Company ensures to maintain a healthy CRAR at all the times. The Company has issued perpetual debt instruments aggregating to INR 20,000 (March 31, 2023 - INR 10,000) during the year thereby strengthening the regulatory capital levels.

42 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price), regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using a valuation technique. In order to show how fair values have been derived, financial instruments are classified based on a hierarchy of valuation techniques.

Fair Value Hierarchy of assets and liabilities

Fair value technique

Investment at fair value through profit and loss

For investment at fair value through profit and loss, valuation are done using quoted prices from active markets or on published Net Asset Values of the investment at the measurement date or at the nearest available date.

Equity instruments

The equity instruments which are actively traded on public stock exchanges with readily available active prices on a regular basis are classified as Level 1. Units held in mutual funds are measured based on their published net asset value (NAV), taking into account redemption and/or other restrictions are generally Level 1. Equity instruments in non-listed entities are initially recognised at transaction price and re-measured as per fair valuation report and valued as at the measurement date or at the nearest available date has been classified as Level 2.

Financial Liabilities with significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)

This level of hierarchy includes financial liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data, this level of hierarchy includes cumulative compulsory convertible preference shares.

The fair value of the CCCPS is measured using the Monte Carlo Simulation technique. The Monte Carlo Simulation Method is one where a risk-neutral framework is used to simulate a range of simulated values, representing all the potential paths a variable could move over the period of the simulation. The inputs to this model are taken from observable market where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is exercised in establishing fair values. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Significant unobservable inputs	As at 31st March 2024		As at 31st March 2023
	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%	Increase by 1%	Decrease by 1%

Valuation techniques

Short-term financial assets and liabilities

For financial assets and financial liabilities that have a short-term maturity (less than twelve months), the carrying amounts, which are net of impairment, are a reasonable approximation of their fair value. Such instruments include: cash and balances, trade receivables, balances other than cash and cash equivalents and trade payables without a specific maturity. Such amounts have been classified as Level 3 on the basis that no adjustments have been made to the balances in the balance sheet.

Loans and advances to customers

The fair values of loans and receivables are estimated by discounted cash flow models that incorporate assumptions for credit risks, probability of default and loss given default estimates. Since comparable data is not available, credit risk is derived using historical experience, management view and other information used in its collective impairment models.

Fair values of portfolios are calculated using a portfolio-based approach, grouping loans as far as possible into homogenous groups based on similar characteristics ie, type of loan. The Company then calculates and extrapolates the fair value to the entire portfolio using effective interest rate model that incorporate interest rate estimates considering all significant characteristics of the loans. The credit risk is applied as a top-side adjustment based on the collective impairment model incorporating probability of defaults and loss given defaults. Hence, the carrying amount of such financial assets at amortised cost net of impairment loss allowance is of reasonable approximation of their fair value.

Financial liability at amortised cost

The fair values of financial liability held-to-maturity are estimated using a effective interest rate model based on contractual cash flows using actual yields. Since the cost of borrowing on the reporting date is not expected to be significantly different from the actual yield considered under effective interest rate model, the carrying value of financial liabilities at amortised cost is considered a reasonable approximation of their fair

44. Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support the company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, investments, cash and cash equivalents and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.
As a financial lending institution, Company is exposed to various risks that are related to lending business and operating environment. The principal objective in Company 's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks that Company is subject to and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks.

The Company's Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors constituted in accordance with the RBI directives has overall responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the risk management policy. The committee meets quarterly to review the Risk Management practices and working of the Enterprise Risk Management Department. The Committee consits of members of the Board including the Managing Director and is chaired by an Independent Director. The Enterprise Risk Management department periodically places its report to the committee for review. The committee's suggestions for improving the Risk Management Practices are implemented by the Enterprise Risk Management department.
The Company has implemented comprehensive policies and procedures to assess, monitor and manage its risk. The risk management process is continuously reviewed, improved and adapted in the changing risk scenario and the agility of the risk management process is monitored and reviewed for its appropriateness in the changing risk landscape. The process of continuous evaluation of risks includes taking stock of the risk landscape on an event-driven basis. The Company has an elaborate process for risk management. Major risks identified by the businesses and functions are systematically addressed through mitigating actions on a continuing basis.
The major type of risk Company faces in business are credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk and operational risk.

I) Credit Risk

Credit Risk arises from the risk of loss that may occur from the default of Company's customers under loan agreements. Customer defaults and inadequate collateral may lead to loan losses.
The Company addresses credit risk through following major processes:

- Standardize the process of identifying new risks and designing appropriate controls for these risks
- Minimize losses due to defaults or untimely payments by borrowers
- Maintain an appropriate credit administration and loan review system
- Establish metrics for portfolio appraisal and monitoring
- Design appropriate credit risk mitigation techniques

A) Impairment Assessment

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of providing gold and SME loans. Whereas tenure of gold loans primarily range from 6 to 12 months, tenure of SME loans and loans against property range from 3 months to 180 months.
The Company's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in this note. It should be read in conjunction with the summary of material accounting policies.

Definition of default and care

The Company considers a financial instrument defaulted and therefore Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for ECL calculations in all cases when the borrower becomes 90 days past due on his / her contractual payments.
As a part of a qualitative assessment of whether a customer is in default, the Company also considers a variety of instances that may indicate unlikeness to pay. When such events occur, the Company carefully considers whether the event should result in treating the customer as defaulted and therefore assessed as Stage 3 for ECL calculations.
The Company has considered a financial instrument as 'cured' and therefore re-classified out of Stage 3 during the year only once the entire dues have been received.

Company's internal credit rating grades and staging criteria for loans are as follows:

Rating	Loans Days past due (DPD)	Stages
High grade	Not yet due	Stage I
Standard grade	1-30 DPD	Stage I
Sub-standard grade	31-60 DPD	Stage II
Past due but not impaired	61-89 DPD	Stage II
Individually impaired	90 DPD or More	Stage III

Muthoot Classification: Public

Exposure at Default (EAD)

The outstanding balance as at the reporting date is considered as EAD by the company.

Probability of default (PD)

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. To calculate the ECL for a Stage 1 loan, the Company assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 month ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments. The Company uses historical information where available to determine PD. For Gold and SME loans, considering the different products, schemes, ticket size, loan to value and geographies, the Company has bifurcated its loan portfolio into various pools. PD is calculated using Incremental NPA approach considering fresh slippage using historical information. For loans against property and personal loans, the Company has considered the published average default probability for similar loans from a leading credit bureau report on lending in India as the said portfolio is relatively new to the Company.

Based on its review of macro-economic developments and economic outlook, the Company has assessed that no adjustment is required for temporary overlays to determine qualitative impact on its PD.

Loss Given Default (LGD)

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Company expects to receive. LGD rates for Gold Loans have been computed internally based on the discounted recoveries in NPA accounts that are auctioned and upgraded during the year. For other loans, LGD rates have been arrived at guided by the Foundational Internal Ratings Based approach (FIRB) norms.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Company applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Significant Increase in credit risk

The internal rating model evaluates the loans on an ongoing basis. The rating model also assesses if there has been a significant increase in credit risk since the previously assigned risk grade. One key factor that indicates significant increase in credit risk is when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

II) Liquidity risk

Asset Liability Management (ALM)

Liquidity risk is the risk of being unable to raise necessary funds from the market at optimal cost to meet operational and debt servicing requirements. The purpose of liquidity management is to ensure sufficient cash flow to meet all financial commitments and to capitalise on opportunities for business expansion. Board of Directors will have overall responsibility of monitoring, supervision and control of the Asset Liability Management (ALM) mechanism. An Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) consisting of the Managing Director and senior executives of the Company shall be responsible for the day to day as well as periodic monitoring and control of Asset Liability management. The discussions of the ALCO is placed before the Board of Directors for review. Our treasury team sources funds from multiple sources, including from banks, financial institutions, capital & retail markets to maintain a healthy mix of sources. The treasury team is responsible for diversifying fund raising sources, managing interest rate risks and maintaining a strong relationship with banks, financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, other domestic and foreign financial institutions and rating agencies to ensure the liquidity risk is well addressed.

III) Market risk

Market Risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market factor. Such changes in the values of financial instruments may result from changes in the interest rates and other market changes. The Company is exposed to three types of market risk as follows:

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is subject to interest rate risk, principally because we lend to clients at fixed interest rates and for periods that may differ from our funding sources, while our borrowings are at both fixed and variable interest rates for different periods. We assess and manage our interest rate risk by managing our assets and liabilities. Our Asset Liability Management Committee evaluates asset liability management, and ensures that all significant mismatches, if any, are being managed appropriately.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the interest rates on the portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the profit before taxes affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
On Borrowings
1% increase	(19,070.32)	(17,768.95)
1% decrease	19,070.32	17,768.95

b) Price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as the result of changes in level of equity indices and individual stocks. The trading and non-trading equity price risk exposure arises from equity securities classified at FVOCI. A 10% increase/(decrease) in the equity price (traded and non-traded) would have the impact as follows:

Particulars	Increase/(Decrease) in percentage	Sensitivity of profit or loss	Sensitivity of Other Comprehensive Income
As at 31st March 2024	10/(10)	377.48 / (377.48)	19,232.03 / (19,232.03)
As at 31st March 2023	10/(10)	140.30 / (140.30)	18,428.10 / (18,428.10)

A sudden fall in the gold price can result in increased customers defaults where the loan amount and interest exceeds the market value of gold, though the sentimental value of the gold jewellery to the customers may induce repayment and redemption of the collateral. This risk is partly mitigated by the fact that a minimum 25% margin is retained on the value of gold jewellery for the purpose of calculation of the loan amount. Further, the gold jewellery collateral is appraised solely based on the weight of its gold content, excluding weight and value of the stone studded in the jewellery if any. Though an occasional decrease in gold prices will not increase price risk significantly on account of our adequate collateral security margins, a sustained decrease in the market price of gold can additionally cause a decrease in the size of our loan portfolio and our interest income.

Muthoot Classification: Public

c) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency risk for the Company arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Company has hedged its foreign currency risk on its foreign currency borrowings as at March 31, 2024 by entering into forward contracts. The counterparties for such hedge transactions are banks. The Company's exposure on account of Foreign Currency Borrowings at the end of the reporting period as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2024		March 31, 2023
	Amount in USD	Amount in INR	Amount in USD	Amount in INR
Foreign currency borrowings	658.76	54,193.29	-	-

Since the foreign currency exposure is completely hedged by equivalent derivative instrument, there will not be any significant impact on sensitivity analysis due to the possible change in the exchange rates where all the variables are held constant. On the date of maturity of the derivative instrument, the sensitivity of profit and loss to changes in the exchange rates will be nil.

d) Prepayment risk

Prepayment risk is the risk that the Company will incur a financial loss because its customers and counterparties repay or request repayment earlier or later than expected.

IV) Operational and business risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss arising from systems failure, human error, fraud or external events. When controls fail to operate effectively, operational risks can cause damage to reputation, have legal or regulatory implications, or lead to financial loss. The Company cannot expect to eliminate all operational risks, but it endeavours to manage these risks through a control framework and by monitoring and responding to potential risks. Controls include effective segregation of duties, access, authorisation and reconciliation procedures, staff education and assessment processes, such as the use of internal audit.
